KILLED HER CHILDREN

Afterwards Calmly Tells the Story of How She Did It.

CRIME WAS PREMEDITATED

She First Administered a Quantity of Opium, but that Failing She Cut Their Throats with a Razor—Does Not Realize the Enormity of Her Crime.

Columbus, Ohio, April 2.—Two children were found dead in bed in a room in the Park hotel yesterday afternoon, with their throats cut from ear to ear.

On Saturday a neatly dressed woman came to the hotel accompanied by three children, and registered as "Mrs. H. H. B. Williams and children, Grove City, Ohio." The children were Harry Williams, aged 7; Maud, aged 12, and Annie, aged 13. They were assigned to a room with two beds. Annie and her mother occupied one of the beds and the two younger children the other. Some time during the night Mrs. Williams murdered the two youngest children and covered their bodies with the bedding. There was found at the foot of the bed a bloody razor with which the work was done. Maud was lying on her face and a gash at the back of her neck seemed to have been the fatal wound. There was evidence that she struggled for life, and it seemed hardly possible that Annie, the sister, could have been in the room and not awakened by the disturbance. W. H. H. Williams, husband of the woman, is an insurance agent and oil salesman. He was brought to the hotel soon after the discovery of the bodies, but refused to talk about the matter, and would not permit his daughter Annie to tell what she knew.

Mrs. Williams is about 40 years old. Acquaintances say they never knew of any trouble in the family and she seemed to be of sound mind.

Williams and his daughter Annie were locked up in the city prison pending an investigation of the murder. The police believe that the woman is insane and do not suspect that Williams had anything to do with the tragedy, but his unwillingness to talk was deemed sufficient to warrant his detention.

The police found Mrs. Williams at 10 o'clock last night at the house of Mrs. Lester at 118 1-2 South High street. She had gone there directly from the Park hotel and had told nothing of what she had done. When asked about the murder she admitted that she had killed the children, and calmly related the story of how she did it, evidently not realising the seriousness of it. She said she concluded to do it last Wednesday and came to this city to carry out her plan. She bought the razor last Saturday. She bought a quantity of opium on Sunday and administered some to each of the children, but they all ejected it except Annie, who slept for several hours and then came from under its influence. She fully intended to kill Annie, but she pleaded so hard and showed such strength of resistance that she desisted. When she left the hotel she started for the river, intending to drown herself, but she reflected that Annie might be suspected of killing the children and so abandoned that idea. She says she will kill herself yet. She is locked up in the city prison.

Wanted to Sell Brass for Gold.

Washington, April 2.—An infirm man, loaded down with yards of brass chain, his coat and hat fairly covered with cheap gew-gaws, lugged a heavy bag up to the White House portico yesterday, and asked if the President was still buying gold for the treasury. He claimed to have a job lot of the precious metal which he was willing to let go at par. He emptied the bag, which contained nothing but brass castings and tin clippings. Inside the front door, and drew from his pocket a lump of glass, which he offered to part with for $15,000,000 in United States securities. Then the patrol waggon took him away to the nearest precinct station house, where he gave his name as William Lavery, his age as 65, and said his home was in the asylum of the Little Sisters of the Poor. The police department confiscated most of his treasure and told him the gold reserve had been fully replenished.

Fifty Men Quarrel over a Game of Marbles

Jefferson City, Mo., April 2.—At Osage City, Mo., yesterday 50 negroes and whites, the latter employed on the nearby Government works, got into a dispute over a game of marbles. In a moment both sides resorted to the use of bricks, stones, and coupling pins, with a result that Nelson Hookers and Rufus Griffin, both colored, were probably fatally wounded. Excitement is intense and a small race war is momentarily expected.

HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

Mr. Howland will Move That Steps be Taken Towards Its Establishment.

Toronto, April 2.—A consumptive hospital for the province. This was the chief topic of conversation at the Local Legislature yesterday. Mr. Howland has given notice of this resolution, which he will move to-morrow:

"That it is in the interests of the people of this province that measures shall be taken towards the establishment of a consumptive hospital for the cure of incipient consumption and also a consumption home or homes for the care of other cases, with a view to the prevention of contagion; and that health boards shall be authorized to take measures to secure disinfection and separation as far as possible in all cases."

The resolution will be strenuously opposed by a large section of the members, on the ground that a separate hospital for this purpose is not necessary.

Mr. Bronson's Electric Act.

The new Electric Railway Act was distributed yesterday and proved to be a most interesting document. It provides that electric railway companies may construct telegraph and telephone lines in connection with their roads. The lands that may be taken for construction purposes without the consent of the owner, shall not exceed one chain in breadth. All disputes between the companies and others are to be settled by arbitration. The right of way is given to all electric cars. The fares to be taken by the company for each passenger shall not exceed five cents for any distance not exceeding three miles, and shall not exceed one cent per mile for any additional distance. Children under ten years of age shall be carried for three miles for three cents and for any additional distance at the rate of half a cent a mile.

The general provisions of the Act were given in these columns last week.

University College Professorships.

Mr. Howland asked for a return of all advertisements calling for applications for professorships, associate professorships and lecturerships in the University of Toronto and University College since the University Federation Act went into force; also, copies of all applications for such advertised positions and of the testimonials accompanying them; also, copies of all correspondence relating to such vacancies between the Government and any person holding official positions in connection with the management of either of the above institutions.

Hon. Mr. Ross said that such a subject gave him an opportunity to deny the report that was current with reference to the appointment of Rev. Professor Wrong, son-in-law of Hon. Edward Blake, to the professorship of history in the University. The appointment had been made upon the merits of the man. Hon. Mr. Blake had never asked or intimated to any member of the Government that he wished his son-in-law appointed to any position. The motion passed.

Public School Fifth Form.

Hon. G. W. Ross, in answer to Mr. Carpenter, said that the department had not prohibited at any time the fifth form, but that this form was optional in Public schools where there was a High school.

Detective Murray's Pay.

Mr. St. John asked if the Government were aware of the location of the defendant in the case, Regina vs. Joseph Brothers, and if the Government intended bringing him back to this province for trial.

Sir Oliver Mowat said that Detective Murray had gone to California after the person in question and had spent $945 in locating him. This was five years ago. Since then the suspect was reported to have gone to Mexico. It would cost $2,500 to extradite him, and since the private parties who were interested in the prosecution would bear none of the expense the Government did not feel warranted in going to the expense.

No More Mortgages.

Mr. Howland introduced a bill dealing with joint stock companies. It provides that after July next no loan company shall advance funds upon mortgage upon dwelling houses, unless the advance is collatemally secured by other lands or chattels of the full value of the advance.

The Old Game Laws.

Hon. Mr. Gibson introduced a bill yesterday the effect of which will be to place the game laws back where they were two years ago.

The Lord's Day Bill.

Mr. Field moved the second reading of his bill to prevent the profanation of the Lord's day. He said that the object of the bill was to prohibit farmers working on Sunday. He said he understood that in certain districts of the province farmers made it a practice to work on Sundays. (Cries of "No, no," from all parts of the House.) The bill was not read a second time but was allowed to stand on the order paper. It may come up again and it may not.

The Toll Roads Bill.

Mr. Flatt's bill respecting tolls on toll roads, etc., will be considered by the Municipal Committee on Friday of this week at 9.30 a.m., when delegations will be heard pro and con.

The Provincial Constables.

The Provincial County Constables Association will meet the Government on Friday evening next at 6 o'clock to press their claims for Government aid.

Notes.

Mr. Stratton's bicycle bill will be considered by the Municipal Committee this morning.

The P.P.A. members have not and do not intend introducing any bills during this session.

The session will close next Thursday week and prorogation will likely take place on Easter Monday, at least this is the present intention of the Government.

The commission to inquire into the University troubles will meet at that institution next Monday morning. The commissioners will have power to examine any persons under oath with reference to any subject relating to the affairs of the University.

The New Minister of Militia Takes the Oath of Office.

HON. MR. PATTERSON RELIEVED

Sir C. H. Tupper Goes on a Campaign Tour Through Nova Scotia—He Will Address the Electors of the Late Sir John's Constituency.

Ottawa, April 2.—Hon. A. R. Dickey was sworn in as Minister of Militia by his Excellency, Lord Aberdeen, at Rideau hall, between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday. Mr. Dickey was accompanied to and from Government house by Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir Adolphe Caron and Messrs. Costigan and Angers.

Hon. J. C. Patterson has been relieved of the department, having been acting minister until the return of Mr. Dickey.

Sir C. H. Tupper left for Nova Scotia yesterday. He will visit Halifax and other points, and before returning will address one or two meetings in Antigonish county in the interest of Mr. J. A. Chisholm, the Liberal-Conservative candidate. Mr. Chisholm is a brother-in-law of Lady Thompson.

DESPARADO ARRESTED.

Constables of Hastings Have a Sharp Fight Before Securing Him.

Hastings, April 2.—Last fall a warrant was issued for the arrest of Henry Sharp, jr., of this place, for assaulting Constable Shapton, but Sharp kept in hiding and could not be found. Yesterday morning he was seen around the village and Constables Pullyblank and Wright attempted to arrest him, when Sharp, who is a very desperate character, drew a knife and stabbed Wright in the arm. Wright drew a revolver and shot him. Nevertheless he managed to escape to his brother's house. A number of citizens were sworn in as special constables, who with Wright and Pullyblank surrounded the house and called on Sharp to give himself up, which he refused to do. They entered the house, but Sharp had secreted himself upstairs, which could be reached only by a trap door, which Sharp was guarding. A number of shots were fired up at him without effect, while he rained bricks down upon the officers, one striking Constable Wright on the head, inflicting a very severe scalp wound. A ladder was then placed to the wall outside and an entrance effected, to find that Sharp had taken refuge in the cellar, where he was discovered and arrested by Constable Wright, but not without a desperate struggle on his part, in which he received two more bullets. His father, H. Sharp, sr., was also engaged in the conflict, having struck Wright with an axe handle, who in turn knocked him down with the same weapon. He will also be arrested. Too much praise cannot be bestowed on the constables for their prompt and courageous action in making the arrest, as Sharp was known to be a dangerous man to have anything to do with. Dr. Coughlan pronounces Wright's wound serious.

More recent details from Hastings state that it was his brother's house in which Sharpe secreted himself and that being joined by his father and brother, an even more desperate attempt at resisting arrest would have been made, but for the intervention of influential citizens, who persuaded the father and brother not to take any active part in the fight which could have but one end. The house was then surrounded and every entrance guarded, after which Constable Wright entered the house and descending alone into the cellar discovered Sharpe crouching in a corner behind some boards. He called upon him to surrender, but his only answer was an oath, whereupon the constable drew his revolver and fired at his man. Another demand for surrender was met with a refusal and another bullet went crashing into the boards. The third call to Sharpe to throw up his hands was as ineffectual as the former ones and a leaden pill found a lodging place in the body of the desperado. Another bullet followed its predecessor and lodged in Sharpe's thigh with the result that his courage gave out, and he begged for mercy. He was promptly taken to the cells, and this morning he was lodged in the county gaol at Cobourg.

Constable Wright is highly commended by the citizens of Hastings for this important arrest, which, having announced his intention of making, he never faltered in consummating, although severely injured both by being hit with the club by the father and almost stunned by being struck with a brick by the son.

The prisoner, it seems, did not evade arrest since the warrant was issued for him, but rather defied it. He was always known to be fully armed, and a dangerous customer to tackle. By his arrest a bad gang has been broken up, it is hoped.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2, 1895.

THERE is no annexation party worthy of the name in Newfoundland. A few people of "no account" clamour for union with the United States, but their number and influence are insignificant."

A DESPATCH from Ottawa to Conservative papers says that Hon. Mackenzie Bowell "is in excellent health, and is looking forward to the session with the spirit of a Richard III." If this means the gentle spirit manifested towards the royal hunchback's nephews it may indicate that somebody is going to get smothered. If it means the spirit of desperation that he felt on Bosworth field the metaphor is rather ominous.

THERE is nothing settled by the Cabinet regarding the leadership of the House of Commons. Hon. Mr. Foster is favourite in the running, and now Sir Hibbert's name is never mentioned. It will be open for Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, Q.C., M.P., LL.B., K.C.M.G., to explain whether he really resigned because he wanted and couldn't get the leadership or went home and locked himself in for four days merely as a joke—in anticipation of April 1st.

THE proceedings before the Public Accounts Committee in the Local Legislature are next thing to being devoid of interest, even for the Opposition members, and they go away from the meetings listless and disappointed. With straightforward honest administration of provincial finances there is no room for faultfinding. Even the erstwhile irrepressible Mr. Marter seems to consider it infra dig to even simulate an interest in Ontario Easter eggs.

THE Association of Provision Traders, of Bristol, have signed a memorial to be forwarded to the Parliament of Canada saying the Association is strongly of the opinion that it would be to the advantage of both producers and distributors of Canadian cheese if the date and make were legibly and indelibly marked upon each cheese before it leaves the factory which it is made at. The memorial urges Parliament to pass a law making such marks compulsory. The interest taken in Canadian cheese by the Old Country shows that the latter are anxious for the continuance of the supply of a first-rate article of cheese.

The Younger Tupper is in the enjoyment of an experience somewhat similiar to that of a man who has been reported dead and who has been accordingly enabled to read obituary estimates of his own merits. He now knows, says the Montreal Herald, what his friends think of him. The parallel ceases here, because it is the custom to say nothing but good of a dead friend, while Sir Hibbert Tupper's sulking has given him a better chance than he could have had any other way to learn just how nicely his political yoke-fellows appreciated his weaknesses. This appreciation has been expressed in such nervous Saxon as would not have been employed had this gifted young gentleman been gathered to his fathers.

BABY AND ITS GRANDMOTHER.

A Grateful Mother's Praise.

Loving and grateful mothers never tire of praising and recommending Lactated Food.

The following letter is interesting to all who have babies and aged parents:

"Until I began the use of Lactated Food my baby was sick all the time. When three months old he was very frail and weak. I began to feed him with Lactated Food, and he gradually grew better. He is now eighteen months old and weighs twenty-pounds and is as well and strong as other children.

"My mother had a very weak stomach and could keep nothing on it until she began to use Lactated Food. It has made a marvellous improvement in her case, and she has now no difficulty in retaining her food. There cannot be enough said in praise of your wonderful Lactated Food."

Bible Reading in Schools Declared Illegal

Scranton, April 2.—By a decision of Judge Gunster, in the Waverley Borough school case the reading of the Bible in the Public schools of Pennsylvania was practically declared illegal. In his opinion Judge Gunster said: "Denominational religious exercises and instruction in sectarian doctrines have no place in our system of common school education. They are not only not authorized by any law common or statutory, but are expressly prohibited and forbidden by our constitution, the fundamental law of the commonwealth."

Located in New Mexico.

Strathroy, April 2.—John A. Patterson, the acting teller of the Traders' Bank here, who absconded about three weeks ago with over $4,000 of the bank's funds, has been located by the Guarantee Company at Las Vegas, New Mexico. Mr. F. P. Hughes, of the bank here, left for there last night, and it is likely Patterson will be brought back to stand his trial.

AN OLD LADY'S STORY.

A SUFFERER FOR YEARS FROM KIDNEY AND LIVER TROUBLES

Lost Her Appetite and Suffered from Lameness in the Back and Soreness Throughout the Body—Despite Advanced Years She is Again Hale and Hearty.

Brantford Expositor.

Scotland is the name of a pretty little village in the county of Brant, twelve miles from Brantford. One of the oldest residents of the village is Mrs. Mary Bowman, widow of the late James Bowman, and to say that she is known to every person in the community and to many outside the county is but stating a simple fact. A reporter of the Expositor, who recently had occasion to visit the village, was informed that Mrs. Bowman is another of the numerous army of sufferers made well by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and interviewed her with a view of getting the particulars. Mrs. Bowman is now nearly 72 years of age, but from all appearances is enjoying the best of health and bids fair to be spared to see more years than the allotted three-score and ten. Her story can best be given in her own words. She said:—"I had been afflicted with liver and kidney complaint for many years past, and a year ago this spring I was nearly used up and barely able to do anything. The symptoms of my trouble were lameness in the back and soreness all through the body. I had a kind of neuralgia in my head nearly all the time, and had completely lost my appetite. For relief I had tried many remedies, but they were of no assistance, and I continued to be troubled with these severe pains. One day a lady friend urged me to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills and I purchased a couple of boxes. While taking these my appetite returned and my lameness did not bother me so much. I then purchased seven more boxes and continued taking them, and continually felt an improvement, and and by the time I had used up the pills I was enjoying better health than I had done for years, and I am now entirely free from aches and pains. I know that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a grand medicine, and I have recommended them to many of my friends." Mrs. Bowman is so well known that no person will for a moment doubt the statements she makes as to the great benefit she has found from the use of Pink Pills.

KENNE.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The Sunday school lessons of the past quarter were reviewed by Rev. Mr. Andrews, in the basement of the Presbyterian church. There was a large attendance of scholars as well as parents and others, which is a proof of interest taken in Sunday school work. The pupils gave very prompt and decisive answers to all questions asked by Mr. Andrews, which was creditable to themselves as well as encouraging to superintendent and teachers.

The sidewalks on the streets should be kept in repair, as several bicycles have been imported here during the past week. We certainly are living in an age of advancement and prosperity. Our village is now the possessor of thirteen pianos and innumerable organs.

Our skating rink is now closed and some of our young people feel very despondent. The young man who was so intoxicated with love last week is, we are glad to learn, sobering up and perhaps will not make himself so conspicuous in the future.

On Monday evening, the 25th ult., a very interesting and profitable meeting was held by the Y.P.S.C.E. in connection with the Presbyterian church. A portion of Scripture was read in rotation by Miss Bella McFarlane and the members of the society. The lesson, being a temperance one, was taken by Miss Bella McFarlane, who very ably explained the evils of intemperance, and earnestly implored each and all to be ever watchful, and never touch, taste nor handle that demon, drink, which is injurious and ruinous to both body and soul. The prayer meeting was conducted by Miss Susan McLauchlan. It being consecration night each active member responded to the call of their name by reciting a verse of Scripture and asking God to so direct them that they, through His help, will be enabled to live a holy, consecrated life.

At the close of a meeting held here one night last week a rather amusing and peculiar mistake was made by a young man who is rather "gone on" a fair damsel of this village. The night being very dark he, in his hurry and excitement, stepped up to the wrong person, and did not detect his mistake until he had gone a considerable distance. He of course began to use taffy and sweet words when he was suddenly called down by a blow across his face. You can better imagine than I can describe his feelings on ascertaining that he was speaking to the girl's mother. Young fellow we are sorry for you, but it is a true saying that experience teaches fools. Love must be very blind that could not distinguish between daughter and mother.

A couple from this neighbourhood were made man and wife in Campbellford last Wednesday by the Rev. Mr. Scott.

Dead with a Masonic Record of 150 Years.

St. Louis, April 2.—Dr. W. Hotchkiss, alleged to have reached the age of 140 years, died suddenly at his home in this city of heart disease. The deceased came to St. Louis 40 years ago, and has always been known as the "color doctor." In his particular practice of medicine he termed his patients members of his "circles," and claimed to treat them by a magnetic process. Dr. A. J. Buck says that his Masonic record has been traced back 100 years, showing conclusively that he was at least 191 years old. A letter received from his old home in Dinwiddie county, Va., over a year ago, says he was born there in 1755 and lived there for a number of years' finally drifting west. Dr. Hotchkiss possessed many striking peculiarities, among them being a natural aversion to water. He is said by those nearest to him to have not taken a bath for over 25 years. He believed diseases were caused by the plus or minus rays of light which the system absorbed in different quantities and that the rays containing different prismatic color constituted the component parts of the human organism. In order to carry out this scheme he adorned himself with variocolored strips of ribbon to keep himself in sympathy with his patients, each of whom he presented with a strip of cloth of some particular color, to wear while undergoing "treatment." He claimed to have discovered the elixir vitæ. At regular intervals he stood over a smoking brasier and allowed the smoke to envelope his body and saturate his scanty clothing.

THE BRITISH IN EGYPT

England Has Not Ignored the Rights of Egypt in the Upper Nile.

POLITICAL PRISONERS LET OFF

The Welsh Disestablishment Bill Receives its Second Reading—The Sultan Convinced there is Misgovernment in Armenia—A Scheme of Reforms in Armenia.

London, April 2.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Sir Edward Grey, Under Foreign Secretary, said that the question whether the Nile valley between the lakes and the southern frontier of Egypt was within the British sphere, was the subject of discussion with France in 1894, but no definite conclusion had yet been reached. England, he said, did not recognise the Mahdi, nor had she ignored the rights of Egypt in the Upper Nile.

Herbert Asquith, Home Secretary, announced that the Irish political prisoners, O'Callaghan and McCann, had been released. Each had served 19 years of his term. O'Callaghan's eyesight is going fast, and Mr. Asquith said McCann has passed his 70th year.

The House of Commons passed the Welsh Disestablishment bill through its second reading by a vote of 204 to 260.

The Sultan is Convinced.

Berlin, April 1.—The Kreinische Zeitung professes to have the best authority for the statement that the Sultan has told Sir Philip Currie that he is convinced that lamentable misgovernment exists in Armenia, and that he is determined to reform the abuses.

A Scheme of Armenian Reforms.

London, April 2.—The Daily News correspondent in Constantinople says: "It is reported that the Porte projects submitting to the foreign envoys a scheme of Armenian reforms, namely, two or three provinces shall be united under a governor-general, beneath whom fifteen Armenians who have studied in a state school shall serve as carmakans, while ten Turks shall serve as mutessarifs. It is stated that the governor would be either Turkan Pasha, late of Crete, or Chikir Pasha, late ambassador in St. Petersburg. It is stated that Von Der Goltz Pasha will organize a gendarmerie composed of Christians and Musulmans."

The Czarewitch in a Critical Condition.

Copenhagen, April 2.—The condition of the Czarewitch, who went to Algiers for his health recently, is said to have grown worse and to give rise to the gravest fears. Both of his lungs are affected. The dowager Empress of Russia will cut short her visit here and go to him.

CONVENT OF THE HOLY NAMES OF JESUS AND MARY.

A Pleasing and Marvellous Record from A City Edueational Institution.

Testimony of the Highest Possible Character.

Paine's Celery Compound and Its Good Work.

The Sisters Call it the "Wonder-working Medicine," and Strongly Recommend Its Use.

No medicine in the world has ever earned or received the high and unstinted praise that has been justly accorded to Paine's Celery Compound. Testimonials (many of them of uncertain authenticity and questionable veracity) appear each week, advocating the use of medicines, worthless and of no value to the sick and suffering.

Paine's Celery Compound stands on a summit of fame, far removed from all the deceptive medicines of the day. Its letters of testimony come from the best people, and from institutions whose names are synonymous with honour and uprightness.

Among the large and noted institutions, whose people have been blessed by the curing and healing virtues of Paine's Celery, is the "Convent of the Holy Name," in the city of Montreal.

This thorough and magnificently equipped institution of learning, is amongst the largest of the kind on this continent, and has over thirty branch houses in Canada and the United States.

After a thorough trial of Paine's Celery Compound in the head house, by sisters who suffered from the troubles that make human life miserable, and seeing the truly grand results—health, vigour, strength and strong nerves—it was deemed advisable in the interests of suffering humanity, to make a declaration that would give comfort, assurance and hope to all sufferers in the land. The sisters have kindly and graciously written as follows:—

"We feel it a duty to add our testimony in favour of your "wonder-working" Paine's Celery Compound. Many sisters suffering from debility, dyspepsia, sleeplessness and indigestion, have been completely relieved after taking it.

"We shall strongly recommend its use in all our houses, as the best medicine to restore health, and give tone and vigour to the nervous system."

BISMARCK'S BIRTHDAY.

Seven Thousand Students Take Part in the Celebration.

Friedichsruhe, April 2.—Seven thousand students with six brass bands took part in the Bismarck demonstration today. After the reception Bismarck went to his room and rested for two hours.

All the afternoon the scene outside the castle] gounds reminded the onlookers of a crowded fair. Booths lined both sides of the road. Among them surged uncounted thousands, cheering and drinking and singing. Uniformed musicians wandered about, playing in groups and singly; organ-grinders with instruments full of patriotic melodies performed incessantly, and tramp acrobats, bear trainers, and singers had pitched their tents every few rods from the castle to the station.

Before retiring for the night Bismarck appeared on the verandah and thanked all for their kindness. He begged indulgence for retiring so early. Age and infirmity, he said, were his excuses. Amid cries of sympathy, cheers, a burst of music from the bands, and shouts of "Aur wiederschen," the old man waved his hand and went into the house with Dr. Seweninger and Count Herbert.

Hamburg, April 2.—The Bismarck fetes were repeated last night with redoubled zest. The banks, bridges, state buildings and most of the private houses were ablaze with candles and electric lights after 7 o'clock. The streets were filled with merry-makers. All the societies that did not go to Friedichsruhe held Bismarck dinners. Bands of music paraded the streets, and patriotic songs were heard from every hall and place of public resort. The students who visited Friedichsruhe gave Bismarck a carved beer barrel, inlaid with gold and silver, and bearing in relief portraits of the Prince in his 18th and 80th year.

London, April 2.—Count Hatzfeldt, German Ambassador, presided at the Bismarck celebration in Queen's hall last evening. The German consul-general, the staffs of the consulate and embassy, and most of the conspicuous Germans in London were present. The programme included songs, recitations and toasts. The enthusiasm was phenomenal.

Berlin, April 2.—Emperor William gave his Bismarck birthday dinner last evening in the White hall of the old castle. Among those present were the Empress, Chancellor Prince Hohenlohe, Prince Alexander Hohenlohe, the Princesses Hohenlohe, the high officials of the court, members of the Federal Council, and numerous naval and military officers. The president and vice-president of the Landtag were there, as were also Freiherr von Bul, president, and Dr. Spahn, second vice-president of the Reichstag. Schmidt, the Radical first vice-president of the Reichstag, declined his invitation.

ERRETING EXPERIMENTS.

Louisville Doctors Will Investigate Anti-Toxine and Another Specific.

Louisville, Ky., April 2.—The medical fraternity here have been particularly interested in the latest developments of the anti-toxine cure for diphtheria, and experiments will shortly be conducted on a large scale. They are also much taken with the reports from Canada and various cities in the States of the many cures which have been made of Bright's disease and diabetes by the use of the remedy called Dodd's Kidney Pills, a medicine which is being more and more extensively used in this state. It is to be hoped that a similar series of carefully conducted experiments will also be made with this specific and the results given to the world for the benefit of those suffering from these diseases.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

TORONTO, April 2, 1895.

Toronto prices of breadstuffs are quoted to-day as follows: Wheat, red, 63c; wheat, white, 64½c; wheat, Manitoba, 85½c; buckwheat, 40c to 41c; barley, No. 1, 49c to 50c; barley, No. 2, 46c to 47c; barley, feed, 43c to 45c; oats, 35c to 36c; peas, 60c; rye, 46c.

The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: English and foreign wheats have been maintained, except California, which is weaker at 29s 9d arrived. 29s 3d prompt shipment. Barley has had 3d rise; oats and corn have been steady. To-day English and foreign wheats are a slow sale. Flours are in fair request, barley and oats firm and corn 3d cheaper.

Wheat on the Hamilton market sold at 67c per bushel yesterday, an advance of 5c since Saturday, and the prospects are it will go higher. The local millers were unable to procure sufficient for their own use on Saturday, and a couple of Hamilton speculators, who had stored a quantity when it sold at 48c, got rid of 6,000 bushels to the millers at 70c per bushel. The price of flour was advanced to $3 a barrel.

The visible supply of barley at Buffalo is down to 787,000 bushels, a decrease of 185,000 bushels during the week, and stocks now exceed those of this date last year by but 150,000 bushels. The quantity in store has fallen from 248,179 bushels last week, to 971,210 bushels, and of this there is very little for sale. There is some inquiry for small lots, but hardly enough to quote. A little No. 2 Canada is on the market at 63c to 63c, but buyers want 1c to 1½c lower quotations to buy. At Milwaukee stocks increased slightly during the week, but this is the only primary market to show an increase.

Counter Claim for Damages Thrown Out.

Ottawa, April 2.—The Dominion Government some time ago took action in the Exchequer Court against the Montreal Woollen Company, for about $16,000 damages done to the Lachine canal through the erection of their mill. The company put in a counter claim for $12,000 damages from the Government for damage caused by the canal to the mill. Yesterday Justice Burbridge threw out the counter claim on the ground that he had no jurisdiction. The case of the Government against the company has not yet been disposed of. If the woollen company want to go on with their case against the Government they will have to do it by petition of right.

At Fort Erie on Monday Edward E. Dudley, while examining a revolver, accidentally discharged the weapon. The bullet entered his left eye and tore away a portion of the forehead. He is unconscious and not expected to live.

A Peculiar Case.

COVERED WITH PIMPLES.

AN ANXIOUS MAN.

The Disease Disappears in Three Weeks by the use of B. B. B.—Letter From Manitoba Describing it.

DEAR SIRS—During the Winter of 1892-93, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it, and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B.B.B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say it has never re-appeared.

His Services Appreciated.

At a united meeting of the session of managers of St. Andrew's Church, Peterborough, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:—

"That whereas the services of G. W. Mulligan, director of music in St. Andrew's Church for the past year, have been so very satisfactory, that we tender him our sincere thanks, and also request his services for the ensuing year."

Something Nobby in Walking Sticks.

"There's no use talking, they're a dandy lot of sticks." If you haven't seen them you should pay the Peterborough Bookstore a visit. There are a handsome lot of travellers sample canes—the most "swagger" stock for young men, elderly gentlemen and boys. In natural Canadian cherry, Congo oak, Equador oak, Georgia pine, Irish black-thorn, and other fancy woods. Come and see them, and note how cheap they are.

The "Calumet" System.

The annual meeting of the Oshawa Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church was held in the basement of the church, on Thursday evening, and the fifty-two talent holders who were given $1 each, a year ago, of which to make the best use possible, handed in their returns. The total sum raised in this way during the past year amounted to $700, in sums ranging from $10 to $142, the latter amount being raised by Mrs. M. D. Campbell, who has been an energetic and faithful worker in the cause. The amount will be added to the building fund of the church. The ladies are so elated with the success attending this mode of raising funds that they have decided to adopt the same course during the coming year.

Laid at Rest.

The funeral of Miss Stenson, eldest daughter of Mr. James Stenson, took place from the family residence, Reid street, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Religious services were conducted at the house by Rev. Dr. Torrance. The floral offerings, which were profusely beautiful, and were composed very largely of roses and Easter lilies, included wreaths from Toronto friends and floral tributes from the Christian Endeavour Society of St. Paul's, of which deceased was one of the first members, besides floral offerings from the friends of the family in town. A very large company of citizens in carriages followed the remains to the Little Lake Cemetery, an evidence of the great esteem and respect in which the deceased and her family are held. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. G. Morrow, Jas. Connal, Willie Dixon, Fred Gladman Harry Beale and Robt. Fife.

—Additional local news on eighth page

—The Street and Bridge Committee meets to-morrow evening.

—The next session of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario East, will be held in Norwood.

—Councillor Cahill filled the Mayor's chair most acceptably last night in the absence of His Worship, who had to leave early to catch a train.

—There will be a meeting of the non coms of the 57th Battalion in their mess rooms to-night at 8 o'clock. All ex-non coms are requested to be present.

—The Messrs. Boyd, of Bobcaygeon are building a steam yacht which will be fitted up most elaborately. She will be a twin screw and will cover twenty knots per hour.

—The electric lights suddenly went out last evening when the council was in session. Councillor Clifthscale facetiously remarked that he "guessed there was too much gas."

—Gen. Booth claims to have been the instrument in the salvation of 2,000 souls, during his five months' visit to America. This probably beats the Crossley-Hunter record.

—A youth named Graham, about 14 years of age, while playing with a number of companions yesterday on the C. P. R. bridge, took a header into the water below but was rescued after considerable difficulty by Mr. Guerin.

—The total Public school population of Ontario shows a decrease for 1893 of nearly 3,000 as compared with 1892. There is a falling off in the number of pupils registered, too, of 4,600. How is it? It cannot be that the province is losing population.

—Representatives of a Belgian syndicate are to be in Canada shortly for the purpose of buying horses. They could not come at a more opportune time. Nothing is so hard to sell just now as good horseflesh, and a new outlet for exports in this line would be hailed with gladness.

PERSONAL.

Miss Eva Kindred is visiting friends in Westwood.

Mr. F. J. Dwyer, of London, Ont., is home on a visit to his parents.

Miss Lyle McMillan, of Guelph, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Jno. Stanger, on her way through to Pembroke.

Mr. George Calcutt, of Chicago, will manage the Jubilee Point fishing and hunting grounds this coming summer.

Mr. "Bob" Lattimer, of the Campbellford Gazette, was in town to-day. Mr. Lattimer, it will be remembered, played lacrosse with the Peterboroughs last year.

Mr. C. E. Britton, High Chief Ranger of the Canadian Order of Foresters, will pay the county and town an official visit on Thursday, April 11th, when he will be tendered a reception by the four local courts of the order.

Mr. H. T. Strickland has been appointed valuator for the Peterborough-Lakefield section of the Trent Valley Canal. Mr. Strickland possesses the knowledge of real estate and has other qualities which will enable him to give satisfactory service in this capacity.

Misses Susie and Maggie Calcutt have returned home, after an extended visit to their friend, Mr. Moosom Boyd, Bobcaygeon. While there they had the pleasure of a drive behind his tame buffalo, and also saw his flock of Persian lambs. They say the latter are most cute little creatures.

Miss Ainley, of Barrie, while visiting in town, painted three pictures at Mr. Shaw's studio. One, entitled "No Letter," shows careful handling and excellent drawing. Both the aerial and linear perspective and the values are carefully managed. The expression of disappointment on the face of the young lady in the foreground, leaning against an open gate, is well worked out, and the painting of the retreating figure of the old postman gives evidence of careful study. The other two, "Alone," and "Close of Day," are bright and spirited bits of painting. Miss Ainley occupies an enviable position amongst the amateur painters of Canada.

Ordered Clothing.

Pete Simons & Co. in to-day's EXAMINER announce the arrival of a portion of their spring and summer goods, gent's. furnishings, etc. The reputation of this firm for fair dealing and first-class work is so well known that it appears superfluous for us to enlarge upon it. We have no hesitation, however, in saying that their present stock is one of the finest imported into Peterborough for some years and well deserves the attention of those desiring clothing made to order. The Large Growth Disappeared.

Douglas Bro. & Co., Napanee, Ont.

DEAR SIRS,—During the years 1890-91, I was troubled with a large lump growing on right side of my neck near the ear. Had consulted several physicians and used everything I could hear of, all to no use. Was told to use Douglas' Liniment. I did, and before I used half a twenty-five cent bottle was permanently cured. Since then I have used it for everything where outward application is required; am yet to learn of anything in reason that I can not cure with it. I believe anyone who has used it would not be without it under any circumstances.

Respectfully yours,
NATHANIEL W. REID,
Enterprise P. O.

Follow directions and our Liniment will do its work in every case.—Douglas & Co.

A Good Thing is Always Desirable.

So it is with the visits of Prof. Dorenwend to Peterborough. On his last visit he was so busy that many ladies and gentlemen were unable to be attended to. He is therefore returning to give all who desire it another opportunity of procuring his art goods for the head. Prof. Dorenwend is undoubtedly one of the leaders of his profession on this continent. His skill in arranging the coverings for the head of either lady or gentleman is well known. His goods are acknowledged to be perfect and in every way true to nature. They are the best protection to the head, besides giving a refined and youthful expression to the face. Call and examine these marvels of his art, and have them fitted in order to judge of the effect. Consult him about your hair; he will (free of charge) give you advice about the preservation of it. He will be at the Grand Central Hotel on Monday, 8th April. 5c

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Items of Interest to Local Sportsmen Aquatic and Field Sports.

In the struggle of forty-six years between the boat racing crews of the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, Oxford has won 27 times, Cambridge 18 times and one race, that of 1877, was a dead heat. Oxford's last win was on Saturday, March 30th, on the same course that has been used since 1845—from Putney to Mortlake and vice versa.

The Cricket Club will reorganize this evening at a meeting to be held in Mr. R. E. Rogers office at 8 p.m. sharp. A full attendance of all interested in this game is desired.

Wheelmen will watch with interest the progress of Tom W. Winder, who, last week, set out from New Orleans to ride around the United States on a 24-pound bicycle. Mr. Winder goes west from New Orleans, then up the Pacific Coast and east along the northern border of the country and down the Atlantic coast. By the terms of a wager which he has made, he must complete this journey of nearly 23,000 miles in 300 consecutive days, which means that he must average 73 miles a day.

The Kingston Bicycle Club intend having a big meet on May 25th. This date was chosen so as to catch the cyclers returning from Ottawa after the Queen's birthday. It is expected that a large sum will be given in purses.

ST. JOHN'S Y. P. A.

The Regular Fortnightly Meeting — Arrangements Made for a Series of Concerts.

The regular fortnightly meeting of St. John's Young People's Association was held at the school house last night, the president, Miss A. Sproule presiding. Reports were received from the various standing committees, and also from the special committee appointed to arrange for the concert, which will likely be held the third week after Easter. It was decided that the Association would not be responsible for the decorations of the church at Easter, but $1.50 was appropriated towards decorating the font, which will be taken charge of by the Executive Committee. It was also decided that the proceeds from the various concerts be placed in the general fund of the Society to be disposed of as the Society may see fit in the future. The secretary was authorized to make all the necessary arrangements with regard to advertising the concerts.

The next meeting of the Association will be held on Thursday, April 18th, 1895.

THE EVANGELISTS.

The Series of Meetings Will be Closed in the George Street Church, To-morrow Night.

The storm of yesterday prevented a very large attendance at the evangelistic services in St. Paul's church, last evening, the edifice, however, was well filled and the interest sustained throughout. Mr. Moore preached an interesting sermon from the text, "I even I am He that pardoneth transgressions for mine own sake," Isaiah 4, 3rd ch. 25th verse.

Mr. Whyte's solos were very effective and though he has been singing each night for the past four weeks his songs have lost none of the attractiveness and power.

The afternoon meeting to-day will be held in St. Andrew's church and the evening meeting in St. Paul's. To-morrow the afternoon service is in the Murray street church and in the evening the closing meeting of the evangelistic services, with a thank offering, will be held in the George street church.

MANTLE OPENINGS

AT

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'Y

—ON—

Wednesday, April 3rd.

Owing to the unadvoidable delay and late delivery of 200 Pattern Capes and Jackets, which only arrived on Friday last, we have decided to make a special display of these goods on above date.

The ladies who have seen these, have testified that they are without exception the most stylish and cheapest garments that ever came to this town, and those who attended the openings in the large cities, state that they saw nothing to compare with the goods we show, for style and quality.

A CORDIAL INVITATION

Is extended to all who would like to see the very latest Paris styles to call on above date. We don't ask anyone to buy.

THE PRIZE IS OURS

For the finest display of Pattern Hats and Bonnets, Millinery, Trimmings, etc.

All the ladies who attended the Millinery Openings were of one opinion. That was, that our display surpassed anything they had ever seen, and our prices are so much lower than any other house, that it did not take them long to decide where to leave their order.

PLAIN TALK.

The truth is always plain. We wish to make this plain statement:—That our prices are "Wholesale Prices" for this season. We mean that for the general bulk of the imported goods we handle, that we sell them to the customers at the same prices as other merchants buy the same quality of goods from the wholesale houses.

BICYCLE MEET GRANT.

On motion of Councillors Sproule and Denne, Mr. G. J. Hopkins, who was present to speak on the matter of the grant to the bicyclists, was asked to address the council. In a brief and concise manner he pointed out the various advantages to be derived from the holding of a meet in the town and stated that unless the committee was in a measure protected from loss by a grant from the council the matter would be dropped. Mr. Horkins stated that the meet was now assuming such gigantic proportions that it was improbable that another general meet would ever again be held, but that simultaneous meets would be held in the east and west. Three thousand wheelmen alone would be in town for three days at least, and it was if anything below the mark, to estimate that $50,000 would be left in the town by them and the excursionists who would come to see the races. The committee would be put to a big expense in bringing the meet here, as vast amounts had to be expended in prizes and in preparing the track and erecting the necessary grandstands.

The Mayor endorsed all that Mr. Horkins had said, and was greatly in favour of raising the amount of the grant to the sum asked.

Councillor Sproule followed in the same strain, and thought that with the crowd that would be attracted to the town $50,000 was a small estimate to place on the amount which would be spent. If this amount of money was left in the town every class would benefit from it indirectly.

Councillor Best had voted in the Finance Committee to make the grant $200, but at that time was unaware of the widespread interest which was manifested amongst the citizens regarding the meet. After hearing the statements made by Mr. Horkins he was convinced that the expenditure of $500 in bringing the meet to Peterborough would not be extravagant. If only one-third of the amount stated was expended in the town the citizens would be amply repaid for the outlay.

Councillor Mills was not in favour of increasing the grant. The prizes about which such a fuss was made amounted to very little after all. He did not think $200 was spent in prizes. Regarding the petition he could not understand how certain names had become attached to it as some of those very men had in his hearing cried down the giving of any grant at all.

Councillor Dawson was much opposed to giving a grant or at least increasing the $200 and pointed out how over $1000 would be expended this year in the town for the amusement of the citizens. The bringing of the meet to Peterborough would only profit a privileged few such as the hotel men.

Mr. Horkins again addressed the council to answer Councillor Mills' statement to the effect that only $200 would be given in prizes. Mr. Horkins declared that for the last five years the prizes given at the C. W. A. annual meets had been valued at over a thousand dollars each year and that as there were two different classes of bicyclists riding this year—amateurs and professionals—that the values would have to be almost doubled. The racing lasted from Monday morning until Wednesday night, which necessitated the riders coming into town on Saturday and remaining until Thursday.

Councillor Stone held that the poor would not be benefitted in any way by the race meet. They would be unable even to raise the necessary twenty-five cents to see it. Still he was willing to vote for the $500 grant, if the committee guaranteed to spend $1,000 in prizes.

The Mayor pointed out that the town would be greatly advertised through the holding of the meet here, as a large number would be drawn to Peterborough from all parts of the country. If a large amount of money was left here everyone must necessarily be indirectly benefitted.

Councillor Sproule took exception to the way Councillor Mills spoke of the names on the petition. He was sure none were coerced into signing it.

Councillor Phelan pointed out that the names were those of the shrewdest business men in town. No one could say they signed it unwittingly, for the petition set forth very plainly its object.

Councillor Dawson stated that the petition didn't represent one-sixteenth of the ratepayers, and if the council wished to keep the rate of taxation down to 17 mills money could not be wasted in this manner.

Councillor Sproule wondered how it was that nothing was heard of this cry of "keeping down the expenditure" when he wished to save $1500 by cutting the salaries of the civic officials.

A cry came from all sides for the opinion of Councillor Cahill, the Finance Minister. In response Mr. Cahill pointed out that the town would certainly derive many advantages from the holding of the meet here. For one thing the citizens would remain in town instead of going away to spend their money. Again, if 3000 strangers came here for three days, their individual expenses would, at a very moderate estimate indeed, amount to $10 anyway, which would leave $30,000 in the town. Still five hundred dollars was a great deal of money to pay out. He thought that $350 would be a sum more in accordance with the views of the ratepayers. He asked Mr. Horkins if this amount would do.

Councillor Mills announced that he had already asked Mr. Horkins how $350 would suit, but had been told it was not enough.

Councillor Stone asked Mr. Cahill if he would second the motion to make the grant $375.

The Mayor advised making the sum the even $400.

Mr. Horkins thought that if the council gave $400 the other $100 might be given by the hotelkeepers.

On motion of Councillors Sproule and Best the $500 was granted on the following division:

Yeas—Councillors Cahill, Sproule, Best, Denne, Mills, Phelan, Stone and Brady—8.

Nays—Councillors Dawson, Clinkscale, Sawers and Mason—4.

The

STREET AND BRIDGE COMMITTEE

reported as follows through its chairman, Mr. Best:

1. We recommend that the request of the County of Peterborough that this council memorialise the Dominion Government to take charge of all the swings on bridges on the Trent Valley waters be agreed to, and that a memorial be passed accordingly.

2. As the report of this committee presented last meeting was not adopted, we again present the recommendation that David Knox be granted $60 for the purchase of six inch vitrified sewer pipe for a drain from his vinegar factory, provided he establishes the vinegar factory as proposed.

Carried.

Councillor Denne, chairman, presented a report for stating that the market tolls had been sold this year for $2,250, an advance of $180 over last year, R. H. Green being the purchaser.

Carried.

Councillor Mason, chairman, reported for

THE HEALTH COMMITTEE

as follows:

1. Your Committee, as authorized, advertised for tenders for a dumping ground and received several tenders. The lowest tender was from William Forster, who offered to rent a ground for $48 or to rent the ground and dig and fill the trenches and do all care-taking for $198. We recommend that Mr. Foster's tender to give the ground and do all the work and care-taking be accepted, he to be responsible for all the work and for it being properly done.

Adopted.

Mr. E. B. Stone, chairman of the Committee on reported for his committee that tenders had been asked for four uniforms for the police and recommended the acceptance of the tender of T. Dolan & Co., the price being $18 per suit, with vests.

Adopted.

Through the chairman, Councillor Brady, the

FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT COMMITTEE reported as follows:

1. We recommend that the water carts be repaired and painted, and got ready for the season.

2. We also recommend that couplings and expansion rings for the hose be purchased, and that the stand pipe valves in need of repairs be repaired as required.

3. It will be remembered that some months ago the Bell Telephone Company gave notice cancelling the contract made a few years ago for the construction and maintenance of the fire alarms. Your committee has had several conferences with representatives of the company with regard to it and a new contract has been drafted, and will be submitted to you with a bylaw authorizing it to be signed.

On motion of Mr. Dawson, a clause was added authorizing the erection of two extra stand pipes, after which the report was adopted.

BYLAWS.

Mr. Stone introduced a bylaw authorising the signing of an agreement with the Bell Telephone Company. It received its several readings and was passed.

Councillor Cahill introduced a bylaw granting aid to the Salvation Army Band, the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society, and the Fire Brigade Band. It received its several readings and was passed.

THE MEMORIAL

to the Governor-General in Council regarding the swing bridges on the Trent Valley waters, was passed, being introduced by Councillor Best.

RESOLUTIONS.

On motion of Councillors Dawson and Sproule the matter of the Fairen pool table license was referred to the License Committee.

Councillors Sproule and Best moved that the Railway Committee be instructed to endeavour to make such arrangements as to secure as cheap rates to the town on Wednesdays as on Saturdays.

Carried.

Councillor Best moved that the Street and Bridge Committee be authorized to advertise for tenders for street watering, and that the Water Company be instructed to erect two extra stand pipes immediately.

Carried.

Mr. A. P. Poussette was present and spoke in regard to the application of the Peterborough and Chemong Park Railway Company.

It was moved by Messrs. Sproule and Mills that the council has no objection to offer against the application of the Peterborough and Chemong Street Railway Company (limited) for letters patent under the Ontario Joint Stock Companies Act, authorizing said company, among other things, to construct their line on such streets of the town as the council may hereafter designate.

Carried.

Councillors Sawers and Sproule moved that the Chief of Police be appointed Relief Officer, without salary, to act under the direction of the Charity Committee.

Councillor Stone was very much amused when the resolution was introduced, and laughingly related how Councillor Sawers had insisted on the dismissal of the Relief Officer and offered to undertake all the duties of that official himself without remuneration, the work being so light. Mr. Stone was indisposed to relieve Councillor Sawers of the responsibility which he had undertaken and which he had so soon tired of. He remembered distinctly that Councillor Sawers had offered to undertake the duties if he had to be in the civic buildings from January to December. The motion was lost, Mr. Sawers and his seconder being the only ones voting for it.

Councillor Sawers was much put out at the turn which affairs had taken, but as he made such a stand for the dismissal of the Relief Officer at the first of the year, the council expressed its intention of making him stick to his New Year's resolutions.

Mr. Sawers to turn the tables on Mr. Stone threatened to send every applicant for relief to his law office.

BETTER THAN A BANK.

"Would you put your money," we said to a bank manager, who had previously shown us a handful of policies upon his own life, "would you put your money in a bank if you had your life to live again?"

"Not I," he replied, "I should invest it in life assurance policies, on the endowment plan."

The same question was put to another banker, who smiled at its innocence, remarking that the bank rate was uncertain from day to day. It might be 3½ per cent.; it might be much less. On the other hand, he said, insurance companies obtain over 5 per cent. on their accumulated premiums. The fact of the matter is, he continued, there is no institution in the world which can be compared to life insurance; for by its means a man is enabled to make provision for his family, or for his dependents, at once.

Assuming that a young man did put by $50 a year in a bank, it would take a long time to accumulate an amount which could be secured forthwith by payment of the $50 to a life assurance society. For instance, an annual premium of $50, commencing at age 25, secures a policy in the Confederation Life Association of Toronto for about $2,200, with profits payable at age 60, or previous death. The provision, even if death occur when only one premium has been paid, is immediate; while in the other case it is a paltry $50 which his family will inherit, against $2,200 if an insurance has been effected.

The real point of contrast, however, between the insurance company and the bank, is the certainty which attaches to the one, and the uncertainty which marks the other. In point of fact, the bank investor is, more truly speaking, a speculator who stakes the welfare of his family on the chances of his own life, and his power of resisting the temptation to divert the investment; that is, to use it for some other purpose than that of family provision. If only he be spared, they may fare well enough; but if death or misfortune come before his plans are matured, their case is a sad one indeed.

The policy-holder, on the other hand, is the conscientious investor, for, having regard to a provision for his family, he seeks safety—the first condition of "investment," as opposed to "speculation"—before anything else. Thanks to the insurance companies, he finds that he can forthwith make this provision absolutely secure and certain, and at the same time can obtain profits on his outlay greatly superior to the utmost profits that would accrue if he "ran his own risk" under the most favorable circumstances.

Canadian manufacturers have a reputation for shrewdness; they are keen, hard-headed men of business, and no men insure more largely. Next to commercial men come doctors and clergymen in the practical recognition of the value of life insurance. Like merchants, they are keenly alive to the investment element, but press its moral aspect home to all who come within their influence. The reason is obvious; our spiritual and medical advisers are the first to be appealed to in a case of distress brought about by death. They are the first to devise means for relieving the widow and orphan; and, from the difficulty they encounter in securing efficient help, their experience forces them to realize the necessity for every man to make provision for his own family, and not leave them to the tender mercies of the world.

The Endowment Policy issued by the Confederation Life Association gives absolute and unconditional guarantee of payment of claims immediately upon receipt of satisfactory proofs of death, or should the insured survive the endowment period he may elect to take his money in any of the following six ways: First—The policy may be surrendered, and the entire value taken in

1. Cash.
2. Paid-up policy, payable at death.
3. Life annuity, an annual payment to the insured till death.

Second—Or, the policy may be exchanged for a paid-up policy of assurance, payable at death, without profits, for an equal amount of insurance, and, in addition, there will be paid an annuity for life of $45 per $1,000, applying the accumulated surplus either in

4. Cash.
5. Bonus addition to the sum assured.
6. Life annuity.

The Garden of Eden.

Editor Wm. H. Ward, of the Independent, said the other night that when he was journeying in that part of the world which the Bible said was once the Garden of Eden, the most beautiful and fruitful region of the earth, he saw no living thing throughout the extent of the Garden except two toads. "We have had the most finely strained plots founded on the theories of evolution," said one of Dr. Ward's hearers, "now cannot some story writer give us a plot starting on the reversion of type with the toads in the Garden as the ultimate? As the ape is an advancement upon the toad, there must have been toads before there were philosophers. And as a friend of mine used to say, 'It's a long way from an oyster to Plato, but it's been traveled.' Why not tell about the return journey?"

A BALLAD OF LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING.

'Tis a subtly sweet suggestive phrase,
But the simple soul who is lured thereby
Will make a sorrow for many days.
In secret oft will he moan and cry
And vote the thing a tremendous lie,
For it means, this phrase that sounds so fair,
A world of trouble and toil and care
And a wild distracting wish to go
Away from it soon and anywhere.
I speak of the things whereof I know.

It means all little transparent ways
To hide away from the common eye
The fact that your bread and butter stays
In your desk; that you bake and boil and fry
In a single dish. It means to try
To hang your garments, the best you wear,
In a folding bed, that last despair
Of honest souls; and, bitterest blow,
It means a kitchen parlor air.
I speak of the things whereof I know.

It means to shrink 'neath the stern amaze
Of the lordly butcher's and baker's eye,
Apologizing in meek dispraise
For your modest wants. To rave or sigh
Over the pangs of the boughten pie.
'Tis to pray a strong, heav'n reaching prayer
For the meal a man pronounces "square."
And to be once more in life below
Free from that peace destroying snare.
I speak of the things whereof I know.

ENVOY.

Ye who have 'tempted this life to share,
Pause ere ye enter the tiger's lair;
Consider the truth I fain would show.
For with hand on heart I firmly swear
I speak of the things whereof I know.

—Carlotta Perry.

A Mother's Way.

When the Rev. Horace Bushnell was a boy, he was very desirous of knowing something about music. No one in the family could teach him, however, and his mother, with that divine patience and insight which belong to mothers in general, found that if the lad was to have his wish at all it must be through her. She obtained a book and soon taught him all she knew—the scale, the keynote and how to find it, and the time of the notes.

This was only "book learning," however, and the question was to adapt it to the use of the voice. Little Horace wanted to sing by note, and that his mother could not teach him. She could sing by ear, however, and the two hit upon a species of reverse process. The mother sang familiar tunes, and the boy watched the notes, observing how the intervals and time ran along, and, as he expressed it, "soon began almost to sing with us."

And from singing airs they knew into notes that bore no meaning they finally learned to sing airs they did not know out of similar notation. The method had been unlocked, and further progress was easy. The mother's heart had found out the way.—Youth's Companion.

Leprosy in Canada.

The terrible nature of the disease of leprosy, which still lingers in New-Brunswick, is made evident by the report of the Dominion Minister of Agriculture, just laid before Parliament. Dr. A. C. Smith, the inspecting physician at the leprosy hospital at Tracadie, states that there are the same number of inmates as in 1891, 14 being males and eight females. Nine of the patients are in the early stages of the disease, the remainder are in various advanced stages the disease running its usual course till death supervenes. During the past year three patients died and three new cases were admitted; one from Nequa, one from Caraquet and one from the vicinity of Tracadie. In the latter district, Dr. Smith reports the disease as having died out, only one suspected case being there to his knowledge. The new admissions are from outlying districts and families who had previously removed from Tracadie. In his report for this year, Dr. Smith does not speak as hopefully as he did last year of stamping out the disease. He says, while on a tour of inspection during 1892, he found leprosy cropping out in unexpected places, and he fears that for years to come new cases will be met with, and that only by permanent detention and isolation can it be kept in check or stamped out, as the disease is now known to spread from centers of contagion and to gain a foothold without attracting attention. This shows the necessity for the utmost vigilance on the part of the authorities, and emphasizes the gravity of the statement made by the hospital doctor, to the effect that three persons suffering from leprosy are still at large in the province.

The Kaiser's Happy Thought.

According to a German contemporary, the placing of a motto "Nemo me impune lacessit" by the Emperor William under the portrait he sent to the Minister Friedberg was due to an accidental incident. The Emperor only learnt of his birthday on the very day when Friedberg had completed his eightieth year. Meeting the latter on that day at some court ceremony, the Emperor exclaimed: "What, you never even told me! I must hear it by accident!" Then, raising his finger in mock warning, he added: "That must not go unpunished;" and the same day the portrait was sent with an inscription.—London Daily News.

Evidence of the former existence of a type of dog now extinct has been found in remains obtained from Ely cave, Lee county, Virginia—a limestone cavern of an early geological age. This ancient dog was a badger-like creature, different in many respects from any existing species.

Effectively Cured of Indigestion and Nervous Troubles By South American Nervine—No Trifling With Disease—This Medicine Cures at the Nerve Centers and thus Effects a Certain Cure—Never Fails in Cases of Indigestion, Weakness and Nervous Prostration.

"In a multitude of counsellors there is safety," said a wise man centuries ago. A multitude of counsellors testify that South American Nervine cures disease and removes suffering as no other medicine will do. In these pages, from week to week, has appeared the testimony of well known people—men and women, in all parts of the Dominion, telling in distinct and thankful terms what this wonderful discovery has done for them. A large volume would be needed to contain all the evidence that comes to the discoverer of this medicine.

This talk is to-day illustrated with faces of three well known people who add their testimonials to the others. Here we have Mr. H. H. Darroch, of Mount Forest, who found himself weak to desperation after an attack of la grippe. South American Nervine was the only medicine to be found that gave him back his former strength.

Mr. Thomas Sullivan, a second figure in the group, was a sufferer for a number of years with aggravated indigestion. He had been treated by several doctors, with very little benefit. A friend recommended South American Nervine, and after taking a few bottles he has found himself completely relieved of swelling of stomach and other disagreeable evidences of indigestion. In a brief sentence, he says—"it has cured me."

Mr. Noble Wright, of Orangeville, was a sufferer for a long period with indigestion and sluggish liver, these culminating in gastric and nasal catarrh. Doctors and doctors' medicines were unavailing to cure. Having taken only two bottles of South American Nervine he found himself greatly benefited, and after six bottles had been used he is cured.

Baffled though doctors often are with disease, when the root trouble is discovered a cure is not difficult. Here rests the entire success of South American Nervine. Certain nerves control entirely the stomach, liver and all the internal organs of the body. Let these become weakened and disease follows and will continue until strength is given to these nerve centers. The motor power is centered there. Attempts to heal an organ is only patchwork of the worst kind and cannot possibly be effective. South American Nervine heals at the nerve centres, and for this reason people, after having tried doctors and doctors' medicines without success, because the effort is only to give temporary relief, find it effects an absolute, positive and unmistakeable cure.

ANOTHER GLACIAL PERIOD.

Geologists Think the World May Be Frozen Up Again

The question is again being discussed whether recent and long continued observations do not point to the event of a second glacial period, when the countries now basking in the fostering warmth of a tropical sun will unfortunately give way to the polar regions. The researches of geologists have proved the existence of Greenland and other arctic lands of fossil palms and the tropical plants, which shows that these regions were once covered with a lush vegetation, which only equatorial climes can now produce.

Then came the great age, which buried this vegetation beneath the mantle of cold which still prevails at the polar extremities of the earth. Is this kingdom of ice and snow again extending its sway toward the equator? From the arctic circles we have no data which supply an answer to the question, but it is asserted that the climate of Norway, Sweden and Iceland is annually becoming more severe. Great masses of ice are frequently observed by navigators in far more southerly position during the summer months in the Atlantic than was the case a few years ago, and the effect of these icebergs was to materially reduce the temperature of Scandinavia and Iceland. The latter island in late years has been suffering so severely that corn no longer ripens there, and the inhabitants, in fear of approaching famine and a still colder climate, are emigrating to North America.

The influence of the gulf stream on the climate of Norway, which has not been less marked than its effects on the coasts of Ireland and Scotland, is being effaced by the intensity of the cold brought by the masses of ice which it is for the gulf stream to carry toward the eastern side of the north Atlantic. This extraordinary cold appears, however, to be rather a periodical occurrence than of gradually and annually increasing in intensity, and the existence of larger quantities of ice than usual in the Atlantic rather points to warmer weather in the polar regions than to an unusually intensely and extension of the region of the polar cold. The annals of history show that from time to time since the advent of man into the world remarkable rigid winters and torrid summers have upset the calculations of learned geologists and ruffled the equanimity of the inhabitants of the temperate zones. Several times the frost king has been known to come down from the heights of Europe and seal the waters of the Adriatic. In 800 and 1204 the ice formed a secure bridge from Venice to the opposite Dalmatian coast, and in 1709 the Adriatic was completely covered with ice. All the rivers in France were frozen in the years 1205 and 1304, the ice on the river Rhone being in some places 15 feet thick. The winter of 1708-9 was rigorous throughout Europe. The Atlantic froze along its coast to a distance of several leagues, and vessels were unable to approach within some miles of Ostend, in Belgium, a port that ordinarily is open throughout the year. The winter of 1812-13 is memorable for its extreme degree of cold. Snow fell in England in every month of the year in 1816, and the weather was so uniformly chilly that scanty crops of every sort were harvested. On the 15th of May, 1894, snow fell to the depth of a foot.

In the winter of 1851-2 the Susquehanna river at Havre de Grace, Md., was frozen so hard that trains of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad ran over it. The large ferryboat which carried the cars across the river failed to keep the channel open, and there being no bridge at that time the track for the railroad cars was laid on the ice precisely as it was on land, with sleepers crossties and iron rails, and the cars were run across.—New York Times.

Oats and Scotland.

When Dr. Johnston had defined oats as a "grain which in England is generally given to horses, but in Scotland supports the people," Lord Elibank triumphantly retorted, "But where will you find such horses and such men?" We may admire the patriotism but we must regret the loyal mendacity of his lordship, for he must have known how dirty, slow and slovenly his rural countrymen were.

The food of the people was poor, for they had nothing to cook except oat and barley meal and greens from their yard, for no other vegetables were known, and beef or mutton they seldom saw, and pigs' flesh they would not eat if they had it. Their drink was fermented whey, kept for a year in barrels, or ale made from oats and heather. Milk they rarely had, for the meagre cows provided only two or three pints a day, and that was kept sour from being in foul dishes.

So averse were the people to cleanliness that the butter owed its consistency to the number of cows' hairs in it and was churned in kirns, which were kept filthy because it was "uncanny" to wash them. The men clad in their rugged, home woven plaiding coat, with shirts changed twice a year—at Martinmas and Whit Sunday—and feet without shoes, save on Sabbath and in winter snow, were miserably dirty, and their skin hard and withered from exposure outside and the peat reek indoors and subject to the obnoxious diseases that dirt alone engenders.—Scottish Review.

On the Decay of Paper.

The introduction of wood fibre into the manufacture of paper, its economical production and the attractiveness of the article so produced have combined to tempt the paper maker not to make for "all time," but for the day, and only sufficient for the day is the evil thereof.

Modern methods of book illustrations require a paper of fine, even surface, with the property of semi-absorption of printer's ink, and this latter requirement has resulted in the very considerable use of what is known as "half-sized paper, i. e., paper which has but a small proportion of gelatine, or other size, on which the permanent cohesion of the paper depends. Such paper cannot resist the influences of temperature and humidity to which all books are exposed, and thus ultimate decay is probable.—Notes and Queries.

The rapidity with which croup develops calls for instant treatment; and yet few households are prepared for its visits. An admirable remedy for this disease is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has saved hundreds of lives and should be in every home where there are young children.

To remove worms of all kinds from children or adults Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is a safe and sure remedy.

ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an extremely painful and annoying affliction, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worse at night when the warmth of the bed attracts the insects, and the feeling that it is impossible to prevent scratching. Many times the sufferer unconsciously scratches during sleep, and in the morning finds the parts bleeding from the effects of the scratching. Moisture in small pimples, which form and spread, often are peculiarly offensive. Ointments, creams, suppositories, etc., may relieve, but rarely cure. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a positive cure for Itching Piles of any description in any part of the body, and immediately allays and permanently cures by absorption. It will instantly relieve, and the roots and ulcers, dry up and disappear.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

Gives Instant Relief.

PIN WORMS is an almost entirely different affection to cause from Itching Piles, yet the effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same blistering itching; the same stinging, crawling, stinging sensation, characterizes both diseases. Dr. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

What John Wanamaker, the Most Heavily Insured man in America, Says:

(INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WANAMAKER.)

It is very generally known that Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries the largest amount of Life Insurance of any man in the United States. A representative of the press recently interviewed this gentleman while he was travelling with the Presidential party, and this interview will be found, we believe, of general interest:—

"You are said to be the most heavily insured man in the country, Mr. Wanamaker," remarked the press representative.

"How did you come to think of that?" he said with a smile. "You are not looking for any disaster under such excellent management as our friend Boyd is giving this train and party?"

"No," I replied. "A newspaper friend in San Francisco, who had heard the report, wanted me to ask you if it was true, and if so, what your business reasons are for it?"

"Well," he modestly answered, "I have heard it stated that I am the most heavily insured man in the country. I don't know about that. The amount of my policies is $1,550,000, and the value, with the accumulations since the policies were taken out, is about two millions of dollars."

"In what class of companies are your policies?"

"They are all in stock and mutual companies, and none of them in what are known as assessment or instalment companies."

"Are they full life term policies or on what is termed the 'tontine' plan?"

"I have generally taken ten and fifteen payment policies and very few life policies. With about all good companies a contract can now be made whereby there is no risk of losing a policy after two years' premiums have been paid. If the party insured chooses to withdraw he can get a paid-up policy. Indeed, I understand that some companies have forms whereby the insurer can after one year, if desired, withdraw and receive a paid-up policy. There is practically little risk, any more, in insuring in the old companies."

"Perhaps you would be willing to tell me how you came to insure so heavily?"

"I thought the matter out, and convinced myself that it was a good business venture. Besides, it seemed to me that I might, perhaps, give away more money in lifetime if there was a fixed certainty of putting it back into my estate by Life Insurance. I conceive that the best way for a man to carry on benevolence is not to leave it to be done through his will, but to do it in his lifetime, and I felt that Life Insurance would give me more freedom in carrying out some plans I have, and which I would be glad to see completed before I leave this world. If you want to ascertain what the circumstances were in placing the Life Insurance, I must go further in my answers and say that I should not have gone so far in my Life Insurance but for the skill of the agent who tackled me to insure to a greater extent than I would otherwise have done. He was an old friend who had been in mercantile business and who knew how to present Life Insurance without boring me. I feel to-day sincerely grateful to the man who followed me so discreetly with information about companies, and who kept the subject before me until I settled the question."

"When did you begin taking Life Insurance policies?"

"My first policy was taken when I was twenty-one."

"Do you consider it a good thing for a man of small means?"

"I certainly do. Most young men spend more for cigars during the year than the annual cost of a $2,500 policy in a good company. If they must have the cigars they might divide between cigars and Life Insurance and carry at least a $1,000 policy. I think every young man, before he is married, ought to try to get at least a $1,000 policy."

"Among how many companies are your policies divided, and where are they located?

"About forty companies. Most of them are located in the East. A few are in the West and a few in Canada."

"Do you recommend Life Insurance to others, especially those in whom you feel a personal interest?"

"I can perhaps answer that best by saying that I presented a few years ago a $1,000 policy, paid up for one year, to every insurable head of family in my employ. Many of the prudent men who received them not only kept them but added to them, and I have the satisfaction of knowing that in not a few cases those policies have been the means of saving worthy families from want."

It will doubtless be of interest to our readers to know that John Wanamaker carries a large policy in the Canada Life Insurance Company, thus evincing his confidence in the soundness of Canada's oldest and largest Company. During the last few years quite a number of American capitalists have been convinced of the SUPERIOR MERITS OF THE CANADA LIFE, and have accordingly placed their insurance therein, in preference to any other company.

The Canada Life is now being recognized in the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio as the Company that gives the best results for the least premium.

MUSCLE MEASURING.

THE INTERESTING SYSTEM IN VOGUE AT YALE COLLEGE.

By It Each Student's Weaknesses May be Ascertained—The Rule of the Institution and Its Effects—Keeping the Physical Records of Students.

On moving into the new gymnasium on September, 1893, the requirement of physical exercise for the freshmen was abolished and the work put on an optional basis, both as to exercise and examination. This is now the case at Yale, except that the corporation voted at its June meeting in 1894 that it be required that every man who presents himself for examination in the gymnasium, or who desires to use its privileges, should first submit to a physical examination by the medical director; or, in default of such an examination, should bring from his physician a written certificate (the form to be furnished by the medical director) that he is physically sound, or a written certificate from his parent or guardian that he wishes the student excused from the examination and that he himself will take the responsibility of the consequences of exercise without a previous examination.

Under this rule about 60 per cent. of the men in the freshmen class are given a physical examination and a prescription of such exercises as seem to be most helpful in building up the weaker parts of the body. They are also warned against taking exercises that would be likely to be harmful, as jumping when the student has varicose veins, etc. All cases of abnormality have thus an opportunity to receive care and special treatment by exercise without expense where this method is likely to prove efficient. In other cases, as in errors of vision, the student is informed of his abnormal condition, and, if the case be severe enough to warrant, he is referred to a specialist or the family physician.

The data secured at this examination cover a wide field, and many of the questions seem to certain men needlessly inquisitorial, but all have a bearing on the present or future welfare of the individual, and in general they are answered freely, as it is fully understood that all information of a personal nature is strictly confidential and will be used only for the good of the student.

The tabulation of this data has received some attention, and it will in the future receive still more. It shows us the influence that personal hygiene in preparatory schools has on the physical condition of the students. It shows us the type of the Yale student of to-day and the changes he undergoes during the period of college life. It shows us the disabilities under which he works or the advantages that he has, and, therefore, what may justly be expected of him. It often shows the direction in which he most needs help. It shows some of the deteriorating influences on growth and health, and it also shows us what exercise can do for bodily improvement.

A late development of this line of work is the use of a universal dynamometer invented by Dr. Kellogg, that can be used for showing the muscular power exerted by any of the groups of skeletal muscles, viz.: It shows not only the power of the flexor muscles of the hand, but also the strength of the extensor muscles; it shows the power of rotating the hand into pronation or supination; it shows the strength of the four groups of muscles in the neck when acting singly; it shows the comparative strength of the two sides of the body, etc. The dynamometer tests not only the muscles, but the nerves and nerve centres as well, so that it is a precise measure of the condition of the individual's motor apparatus. The tape-line merely gives the dimensions of a man; it tells nothing as to whether he is alive or dead. A dynamometer gives us an accurate picture of the living, active man.

Graphic methods are used to show comparative sizes, strengths, etc., the percentile method suggested by Francis Galton being employed in all the more recent tabulations.

The aim of this department at Yale is to turn out well-developed, healthy men as the product of the university, and to stand between the students and physical disease so far as it can be done.—J. W. Seaver, in New York World.

WORST KIND OF DYSPEPSIA.

GENTLEMEN,—I write to inform you that for years I had been troubled with Dyspepsia and having tried other medicines which entirely failed, I at last found relief and cure in Burdock Blood Bitters, of which I took two bottles, the result being a perfect cure. Although only a young lad I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for four or five years, but I can say now that B. B. THE FORTNIGHTLY CLUB.

Other Worlds Than Ours—An Interesting Paper by Inspector Garvin.

Mr. Garvin's paper on "Other Worlds Than Ours," read last evening, was strictly scientific, and, if compressed, a great deal of information into a small space. He confined himself to our own planetary system, and treated separately each of the celestial bodies. As Mr. Garvin has made himself acquainted with the most recent researches and discoveries in astronomical science, his lecture must have been listened to with interest, even by those who were totally familiar with the subject, while it was elementary and simple enough for the unlearned to gain much information.

THE WRITER OF THIS REPORT

feels some timidity about entering into the more scientific details of the paper, as his information is derived almost entirely from it, and the learned astronomers of the club and town might be afforded an occasion to make merry over his blunders. He is especially afraid of Mr. Drope, who was the first critic of the paper, and who certainly appeared to have a wide and intimate knowledge of the subject. He was disposed to question some of Mr. Garvin's statements. Mr. Drope maintained in opposition to him, that the stars had not yet been weighed, but only our own system, and that the Mars canal theory had been exploded. This belittling of the enterprise of the citizens of Mars—and it was even questioned whether the planet was inhabited—called forth indignant remonstrance from Mr. Dumble and Mr. Dennistoun. Mr. Dumble thought for believing in the canal system and the population. We had our information from many credible persons, who had seen the canals, and had almost seen the population. It was the only occasion in the history of the club that feeling ran high; it certainly was a delicate subject, and more consideration ought to have been shown by the speakers to each other's feelings. Many, I am sure, excused Mr. Dumble's heat when he warmly declared that the next thing we would hear would be "that there wasn't a man in the moon."

THERE WERE AMPLE GROUNDS

Mr. Dennistoun triumphantly answered Mr. Drope's objection that the "canals" had been observed to

HAVE CHANGED THEIR DIRECTIONS.

This, Mr. Dennistoun well pointed out, not only did not dispose the canal theory, but clearly proved the population, he said, "for it is evident, since the direction of the canals had been changed that there has recently been a general election in Mars."

Mr. Innes must be complimented on the excellent sketch he gave of the history of astronomical science. He spoke especially about the marvellous progress the Chinese had made in the study before 2000 B.C., and about the extraordinary accuracy of some of their calculations.

It was reserved for Mr. Peak to give the touch of speculation and human interest to the evening's entertainment. The title of the paper naturally suggested to him the debated question as to the probability of of life on the myriads of planetary systems the suns of which we see on clear nights. He held it to be preposterous to suppose that our "grain of sand" nourished the only or the highest life. Though we probably would never be able in this world to satisfy ourselves on the question of the living habitation of other worlds, yet we could indulge the hope that in another life the few spirits from this planet might meet the shining battalions from the countless worlds of space, and spend together as brothers their immortal life.

The evening, all agreed, was a very pleasant one, and the paper was well received and well discussed, which is the best indication of interest.

Those interested will remember that the next meeting, on Monday, April 22nd, is to be our third and last open meeting. Subject—"Social Evolution," by Rev. C. W. Hedley, B. A. The paper will be discussed by several gentlemen.

CRAZY

We have been called crazy because we advertise by giving our patrons premiums. Enterprising newspapers are called crazy because they try to increase their circulation by giving premiums. All pushing, enterprising firms, no matter what their calling is, are called by their competitors who don't know how. Can you buy better tea for the same money elsewhere? You know you cannot, and then at our stores you get something nice thrown in. Don't be and allow others to persuade you theirs is the best. We say ours is. You are the

CRAZY

CRAZY

Where Did You Get That HAT?

Give that old "Back Number" a Resting Place, and buy one of the "Latest" Spring Styles From

GOUGH BROS.

Don't hunt for anything wrong in them. There's nothing there. The price has nothing to do with the quality. The man with $2 can command as good a Hat from GOUGH'S as $3.00 can command elsewhere.

Our position is a little peculiar We don't have to live off Hats alone. We're not bound to any traditional notions of big profits. The difference which makes it so is—we buy right direct from the makers. That's why we've got such a grip on

The Best Hat Trade of Peterborough.

You were never made for the Hat you know. The Hat was made for you. If you like to be abreast with the times, replace that old head block with one of our Leaders for 1895, bought from the best factories of England and America. Our Hats are ALL NEW. Latest in shapes and colour; soft and stiff. Qualities are grandly generous—scarcely a sort that you'll find missing—because we have the biggest Hat Store within miles of Peterborough.

Stylish Hats for Stylish Dressers,

In Men's, Youth's and Boy's Sizes.

Selling Hats alongside of Clothing and Boots and Shoes cuts down expenses and makes prices less. That's the plain fact of the matter. Can you catch on?

Our ONE DOLLAR HAT is in keeping with good quality. Our $1.25 and $1.50 Hats are almost unbelievable—but the bargain is in them—while our $2.00, $2.50 and $3,00 Hats are something mystifying for finish, Trimming workmanship and style. PRICE draws, and when hitched up with our popular team—QUALITY and STYLE—makes a force that irresistibly draws into our stores the bulk of Peterborough patronage. You need a decent Hat—you need it now—don't spoil your credit by a seedy top-piece.

The Aristocrats Of Wall Papers.

OUR New Spring Designs in Wall Paper for 1895 are the most elaborate ever shown in the Dominion. They represent the finest effects in High Art Paper Decorations ever shown here, and are the Aristocrats of Wall Papers.

WE have done our level best to encourage Home Decoration by selling Handsome Room Paper, and allied combinations, but our samples this spring transcends every previous display we have opened out. The patterns embrace many beautiful designs to suit every taste and every purse. The most effective being in

COLOURED AND EMBOSSED GOLDS,
VARNISHED AND FLITTER BRONZES,
PLAIN AND FLITTER INGRAINS,

CEILING DECORATIONS.

OUR Prices are only a fraction of what you're accustomed to pay for equal qualities. At a small expense you can improve every room in the house, and landlords get tenants quicker when walls are newly papered. The best time to think of such things is now before the spring rush begins.

HOME ADORNMENT

Cannot be made complete with Wall Paper alone. The best papered room is incomplete without other harmonizing effects. Chief among these specialities, of which we are the almost exclusive dealers in Peterborough, and which are so closely allied with Wall Paper Hangings, comes—

ROOM MOULDINGS, WINDOW SHADINGS,
CORNICE POLES,
PICTURE FRAMES.

IN all these we have effects to match the different Papers, Furniture and Furnishings of your rooms. Inspection will convince you that in every line we carry we lead, and that our prices, like this line, are at the bottom.

SAYS HE DID NOT RESIGN

Sir Charles Tupper Characterizes the Report as Fictitious.

BLAMES THE NEWSPAPER MEN

The Minister of Justice Declares that Since He was Sworn in He has not Ceased to Fill that Position—Says the Correspondents Ignored the Truth.

St. John, N.B., April 8.—Sir Charles H. Tupper passed through this city yesterday, bound for Antigonish. He said that since he had been sworn in as Minister of Justice he had not ceased to fill that position. He said the recent report regarding his resignation was the work of newspaper correspondents who had little or no regard for the truth.

Ministers' Movements.

Ottawa, April 8.—Hon. A. R. Dickey, who took charge of the Militia Department, left again yesterday for Nova Scotia.

Hon. J. C. Patterson went west last night and will probably go to Haldimand.

DUPED BY THEIR COUNTRYMEN.

Over One Hundred Italians Shipped From Buffalo Under False Pretences.

Toronto, April 8.—For the past week two Italians, more cunning and more dishonest than the ordinary horde, have been collecting men in Buffalo for the alleged purpose of bringing them to Canada to work on the Ottawa, Arnprior and Parry Sound Railway. These men were Frank Russo and Dominick Pecci. Each man paid one dollar for the privilege of securing the work, and in addition gave the wily agents nearly three dollars each for railway fare. Having collected about $400 from the men in this way, they were all huddled together in box cars like swine and shipped to Toronto, where they arrived on Monday night in a half-starved condition, many of them totally destitute. All night they slept on the floors of the waiting rooms and in some passenger coaches.

Russo left the party at Hamilton, and has not been seen since. Pecci came on to Toronto, and tried to decamp, but the navvies by this time had become suspicious, and threatened to kill him if he left the station. They held him prisoner until noon yesterday, when he was arrested and taken to police headquarters.

When searched a bull-dog revolver fully loaded, was found in his pocket, and he was also armed with two murderous-looking knives. In his coat pocket was found a junk shop license signed by the Mayor of Buffalo.

The Italians will be taken to the House of Industry, and there kept by the city for a few days until they can secure work or arrangements are made with the G. T. R. for their return to Buffalo, where they belong.

SCANDAL CONDONED.

Deputy Warden Fitzsimmons Reinstated by the Minister of Justice.

Ottawa, April 8.—James Fitzsimmons, who was deputy warden of New Westminster, B.C., penitentiary, and who was dismissed by the late Sir John Thompson as a result of an investigation by a commission some time ago, has been reinstated.

The management of the institution has been a public scandal for years. Departmental investigation after investigation was made, and finally a commission was appointed, retiring the warden and dismissing the deputy warden.

The story about how a certain hospital close to the penitentiary was supplied by provisions from the penitentiary, how Justice Creaght's horse was stabled and cared for by the convicts, how a coffin was made for one of the inmates of the hospital at the penitentiary; all shown by the papers presented to Parliament last session, reads more like a romance than a reality.

The wonder, therefore, here is that the one largely responsible, more than all, for this, has been reinstated by the new Minister of Justice, seeing his predecessor had decided otherwise.

They are Liable.

Toronto, April 8.—The Canadian Relief Society, which did business on Victoria street, became insolvent several months ago and subsequently the Master-in-Ordinary held that about a thousand of the parties interested in the society were contributors. His finding was appealed against by a number of the parties. Yesterday at Osgoode Hall Mr. Justice Robertson's judgment was handed down upholding the Master's judgment that they are liable.

Rev. Mr. Annis' Successor.

London, Ont., April 8.—No steps have yet been taken by the congregation of the Queen's avenue Methodist church to secure a successor to their late pastor, Rev. J. W. Annis. Since Mr. Annis' death the pulpit has been supplied from various quarters by some of the leading men in the church. It is not likely that any action in the pastorate question will be taken until the conference meeting in June.

SUCCESSION DUTIES.

All Property Within the Province to be Made Liable.[]

Toronto, April 8.—The most important measure introduced by the Government at this session of Parliament was brought in yesterday by Hon. Mr. Harcourt. It deals with the succession duties, and if passed will prevent residents of Ontario evading the law by investing their funds abroad. This new bill makes all property situate within this province, whether the deceased person was domiciled in Ontario at the time of his death or was domiciled elsewhere, liable to succession duty. The Imperial Parliament, in the Finance Act, 1894, provides for the payment of succession duty on property situate in the colonies or elsewhere when the deceased was domiciled in Britain; provided that duty was not payable on the property where it was situated, in which case the difference only between the English duty and the duty in the colony or other country would be payable in England.

This amendment is designed to keep the duty for Ontario Section 3 of the Act makes the property of persons domiciled in this province or elsewhere at the time of their death liable for succession duty when it is at the time of death in another country, but is afterwards brought into Ontario for administration and distribution. What happens in many cases is that a resident of Ontario invests largely in stocks or other speculations in the United States. The trustees or executors of the estate realize upon these securities and bring the proceeds into Ontario for distribution, and it is to make the moneys so brought in liable to duty that this amendment is enacted. Where, however, the property so brought in has paid succession duty in another country, the amount chargeable in Ontario is to be the difference in the scale provided by the Ontario Act.

Mr. Ross moved that this House approves of a certain agreement made for the publication of certain text-books authorized to be used in the Public and High schools, a copy of which was presented to this House on the 21st March, 1895. He said that some important changes in school books were to be made, for instance the Euclid and Algebra text-books, which in the past had cost $1.35, would be supplanted by others containing sufficient information for pupils to pass their junior leaving examinations, and to cost but 25c. The French text-books will be changed. Formerly they were imported. Messrs. Squair and Fraser had prepared a French grammar which would be authorized and would cost much less than the old works. A new High school arithmetic will be used in future at a reduction in price of 15c. In the past there were eleven text-books on writing; this number has been reduced to six, and the cost reduced one cent per book. The companies named are to have the exclusive right to publish the new books for two years.

Dr. Ryerson asked that the matter should be allowed to stand for a few days and the Minister of Education agreed.

Second Readings.

These bills were read a second time:

Respecting the relations of landlord and tenant—The Attorney-General.

To amend the Industrial Schools Act—Mr. Gibson (Hamilton.)

To correct a clerical error in the Schedule to the Act respecting mortgages and real estate—The Attorney-General.

To establish fire insurance bureaus—Mr. Awrey.

To amend the General Road Companies' Act—Mr. Middleton.

To amend the Act respecting double tracks in snow roads—Mr. Biggar.

Electric Railway Bill.

Hon. Mr. Bronson moved the second reading of his electric railway bill.

Mr. Whitney agreed that some such an Act was a necessity, but thought that the clause dealing with expropriation of lands should be amended to provide that after the permission of the municipal council had been obtained the ratepayers should have an opportunity of voting upon the question.

Mr. Haycock objected altogether to the expropriation clauses, on the ground that they were greater than municipalities possessed in the matter of opening new roads.

The bill was read a second time and sent to the committee, where it may receive several important amendments.

Practical Work in Schools.

Hon. Mr. Ross moved the second reading of his bill to amend the school law. The bill provides for teaching of agriculture, cooking, etc.; also for the remission of fees where pupils whose parents pay taxes attend a school in an adjoining section. The motion passed.

Renewals Not Necessary.

Hon. Mr. Gibson introduced a bill to amend the Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgage Act. If the bill passes it will render it unnecessary to renew mortgages or conveyances given to secure the debentures or bonds of companies.

Fruit Fraud Bill.

Considerable discussion followed Hon. Mr. Dryden's motion to consider his bill in committee for the prevention of fraud in the sale of fruit. The bill provides for the marking of the grade and quality; also the name of fruit upon every package. Messrs. Hiscott, Whitney, Willoughby and others argued that the bill was not in the interest of the fruit grower, but only for the benefit of the middleman. They all opposed the bill and asked that it should be sent to a special committee, so that all parties might be heard before the bill passed. The committee simply reported progress but took no further action on the bill.

Sir Oliver Mowat gave notice yesterday that Government business shall have precedence over all other business, except private bills, on each day of the session, on and after Friday next, and that there shall be a meeting of the House at eleven of the clock on Saturday next, for Government business only, Mr. Speaker to leave the chair at one p.m. of the clock without the question being put.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

Republicans Make a Clean Sweep in St. Louis and Chicago.

MANY DISTURBANCES OCCUR

The People's Party Ticket Successful in East St. Louis, Ill.—Winona, Minn., Elects a Republican Mayor for the First Time in Thirty Years.

St. Louis, April 8.—Yesterday's municipal election turned all the city offices but two over to the Republicans. Of the 28 members of the House of Delegates chosen, two Democrats are elected, the remainder being Republicans. Six Republicans were elected to the city council, which will now be unanimously Republican. George Fallgrath, a Democratic ward worker, was shot in the breast by Henry Henderson, a colored Republican challenger, at the polling booth. Frank Campbell, a Democratic judge of election, was arrested for intimidating voters. In his pockets was found a bundle of 150 false ballots.

Chicago, April 8.—The entire Republican ticket with the exception of a few isolated aldermen were elected here yesterday. George B. Swift's plurality for mayor approximates 45,000. Among the successful Republican candidates for aldermanic honors is the notorious "Buck" McCarthy, of the 29th Ward. McCarthy was one of the shining lights of the corrupt county board which was broken up in 1885 by the conviction of several of its members of boodling, including McCarthy. This is McCarthy's first appearance in public life since his conviction. The only serious affray reported during the progress of the voting occurred in the 23rd Ward, where the aldermanic fight was particularly bitter. John Dalton, a Republican challenger, shot and fatally wounded his cousin, Patrick Dalton, outside a polling place. The police arrested John and took his victim to the hospital, where the doctors said he could not live. In the 18th Ward sidewalk fights and attacks on polling places were frequent.

Municipal and township elections were held throughout the state yesterday. Reports received at a late hour indicate Republican victories in almost every city and town.

Denver, Col., April 8.—The municipal elections passed off yesterday with a few minor disturbances. At 10 o'clock last night it was conceded that the Republican ticket was elected by 50,000 majority. Returns from the smaller towns of the state nearly all show Republican victories.

Winona, Minn., April 8.—The city elected a Republican for mayor yesterday for the first time in 30 years.

West Superior, Wis., April 8.—Rev. C. S. Starweather, Democrat, was elected mayor yesterday by 300 majority.

East St. Louis, Ill., April 8.—The People's party city ticket, representing the law and order sentiment, as opposed to Monte Carlo gambling and race tracks, was elected yesterday by a large majority over the Citizens' ticket, upon which Mayor M. M. Stephens was candidate for the fifth term as mayor.

"FLYING ROLLERS."

A Toronto Man, who Set Up a Mitle Colony in Detroit, Under Arrest.

Detroit, April 8.—One of the houses occupied by the "Flying Rollers" was raided by the police and as a result two men and two women are now in jail. They are Daniel Avey, Albert Stott, Maud Brown and May Webster. Avey hails from Toronto and is charged with adultery. The other three are unmarried and must answer to the charge of unlawful cohabitation.

About a month ago "Queen" Elizabeth Courts, who is now in Toronto hiding from the police, issued an order expelling the four from the colony, claiming that they believed in spiritual marriages, although that is the charge against herself. Since then they have been occupying one of the houses on Hamlin avenue, and might have continued to be so only for Avey's lawful wife making a complaint to the police.

Mrs. Avey accompanied the police to the house. All the lights were out, but it was found that the rear door was unlocked. The officers and Mrs. Avey got into the house without disturbing the inmates and carefully proceeded up the winding stairs to the second floor. Here Mrs. Avey led the way to a door and pushed it open. Sergeant Shoemaker went in and turned up the light. Turning to the bed he saw Avey and the Brown girl together. Both were asleep, and it was necessary to grab Avey by the whiskers to wake him up.

A visit was paid to the next room where May Webster and her companion were found in bed. They were ordered to get up, but the Richardsons, who occupied another bed, were not arrested, as they had a sick child to care for. The Webster woman is the one who was responsible for the arrest and conviction of Prince Michael, who is now serving a sentence out in Jackson. The Brown girl claims she is 21, but she does not look over 17.

The police claim that the same state of affairs exists in all the houses in the colony, but they cannot do anything unless some person concerned makes a complaint. The "Flying Rollers" in Windsor are keeping quiet, but is said they are also in the spiritual marriage business.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1896.

THE Orangemen of Pictou have demanded that if Sir Hibbert Tupper doesn't resign his place in the Cabinet and repudiate the remedial order which he prepared, they will nominate a candidate to oppose him. And they say they mean business and intend to follow Sir Hibbert's example of kicking.

MAYOR Stewart of Hamilton, is talked of as a candidate in Haldimand against Dr. Montague. He would be a formidable opponent of the doughty doctor. Mayor Stewart in reminiscence of his past office is bound to declare the present election a close season for Montagues.

THE C. P. R. recently announced an important reduction in the pay of all its employees. After the 1st of April, 10 per cent. was to be deducted from all receiving under $2,000, and 20 per cent. from all salaries over that amount. Sir William Van Horne will have to suffer with the rest, and he will hereafter have to struggle along as best he can on $48,000 a year and contingencies, instead of $60,000, which is his present salary. Conductors and engineers are not affected.

THE Dominion Government some time ago took action in the Exchequer Court against the Montreal Woollen Co. for about $10,000 damages done to the Lachine Canal through the erection of their mill. The company put in a counter-claim for $12,000 for damages caused by the canal to the mill. Mr. Justice Burbidge threw out the counter-claim on the ground that he had no jurisdiction unless the company obtained a fiat from the Crown permitting them to sue.

THE Manitoba Legislature has in contemplation the introduction of a bill which, when passed will have a tendency to enlarge the dairy business in the Prairie Province. The Government proposes to give a bonus in the shape of a loan repayable at a low rate of interest. This will be given, dollar to dollar, to all private dairies and creameries, for the amount invested up to $800. There are a great many farmers in Manitoba who, discovering that wheat raising is not as remunerative as they expected, have gone into mixed farming extensively, and not a few into dairying. The action of the Government will give an impetus to the latter industry, which promises in time to assume great proportions in Manitoba, and may affect the value of dairy products here.

IT is to be regretted that false reports concerning the condition and sentiments of Newfoundland should have been sent abroad as extensively as they have been. The island is, it appears, not in the extremely distressed condition it has been represented; there is no deeply rooted antipathy to confederation and no annexation sentiment. The chief want at present is trade reciprocity with the States in consequence of needs which would be altogether removed by entry to the Canadian confederation. It is time this comparatively isolated community were taken from their present condition and granted opportunities of development not at present afforded. From a commercial standpoint the entry of the island into the confederation would be of great value to this country.

DOURO COUNCIL.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Council met in the town hall on Monday March 4th, at 10 o'clock a.m. Members all present. The following accounts were presented: David Forsythe, right of way for road through east half of lot 3, con. Moved by Mr. McCliggott and Mr. Leeson, that the County Treasurer accept the taxes charged on the non-resident collector's roll of 1894, against the cr. part of the east half of lot 17, con. 7, less the statute labour tax. Moved by Mr. McCliggott and Mr. Walsh, that the reeve employ D. W. Dumble, solicitor, to prepare the bylaw for right of way for the Trent Valley Canal in connection with the highways of the municipality according to altered route of said canal. Moved by Mr. Walsh and Mr. Bullock, that $1,250 be appropriated on the roads and bridges for the year 1896 as follows: On Dummer road $175. To each ward $150. On boundary between Douro and Dummer $20; between Douro and Otonabee $100; between Douro and Ashburnham $50; on Telephone road $25, between Pine Grove factory and Lakefield $25; also that special grant of $25 be given on side road between lots 5 and 6, and the road used in lieu thereof through Ward No. 3. Bylaws passed—Appointing pathmasters, poundkeepers and fenceviewers, defining the duties of overseers of highways and of persons liable to perform statute labour, fixing height of fences, restraining certain animals from running at large, and defining the duties of poundkeepers and others, and repealing Bylaw No. 495. Poundkeepers—W. Spencelly, R. Campbell, D. Anderson, D. Forsyth, P. Torpey, J. Burke, W. Abbott, G. J. Galvin, E. Allen, J. Quinn, M. D. Sullivan. Fenceviewers—C. O'Brien, R. Sheehan, W. O'Connor, D. Moloney, Wm. Porter, S. Brown, W. E. Chamberlin, Jas. Jory, Jas. Walton, L. Hunter, Jas. Heatherington, D. O'Grady, G. Hamilton, W. Barry, J. Leahy, jr., W. Moher. THE CONSUMERS' GAS COMPANY ARE INVESTIGATING IT.

New Light on the Production of Gas That may Revolutionize the Distribution of Light—The Lucky Find of a Former Hamiltonian.

(Toronto World.)

The Consumers' Gas Company, of Toronto, has under consideration a new discovery in the materials from which gas is manufactured, which is likely to revolutionize the [illegible] as well as other manufactures. The discoverer is a Canadian, Thomas L. Wilson, a grandson of Senator Wilson, and a former resident of Hamilton, Ont.

In the theatre of the Society of Arts, London, Eng., on Jan. 16, Prof. Lewis, one of the highest authorities on illuminants, read a paper entitled "The Commercial Synthesis of Illuminating Hydrocarbons," in which he described Mr. Wilson's process and illustrated in an interesting way its scientific and commercial possibilities. And a very startling exhibition it was, as fresh and convincing as good master in the hands of a master in the art of science exposition could make it.

Carbide of calcium was a chemical curiosity until Mr. Wilson found out a way of preparing it in bulk in the course of his experiments upon the manufacture of calcium alloys by the agency of his electric furnace. When an article that has only existed in grains comes to be turned out by the ton, it is to all intents and purposes a new article, and its industrial possibilities are never still, inasmuch as only the most direct and obvious of these developments have as yet been even hinted at. Produced in large quantities, it is impossible to surmise what chemical industry will be able in the fulness of time to make of it.

The product of fusing together in an electrical furnace such common materials as lime and carbon was exhibited by Prof. Lewes as a greenish-grey, stone-like substance resembling the commonest description of serpentine rock. Upon handling it a faint, unpleasant odor resembling garlic manifests itself. Upon a piece of this material Prof. Lewes sprinkled a few drops of water, and put a lighted taper on it. The nascent gas, acetylene, immediately ignited, and continued to burn over the wetted surface until all the water was gone. Then came the display of the same gas evolved in a jar, which contained pieces of the carbide in water, and stored in glass holders. It was indeed a flame to wonder at. There is something startling in the suggestion that gas of 240 candle power, calculated on a basis of a consumption of five cubic feet per hour, can be burnt by an open flat flame burner. It is difficult to convey in words the impression of steadfastness, whiteness, and, so to speak, solidity, which the flames made on the observers. No smoke nor smell escaped from the flames, which, though exhibiting in their colour the evidence of intensely active combustion, were found to be much cooler than oil flames of the same size. This is the most striking feature of free burning acetylene. The incandescent electric lamps by which the the theatre was lit were made to look as dull as "red-hot hair-pins" by the aggressive acetylene, which, by the irradiation of its dazzling white flames, formed halls of almost blinding light.

In a paper recently read before a scientific society in New York, Mr. Wilson stated that acetylene gas could be produced at a cost of 5 cents per 1000 feet. When this is considered, along with the fact that it can be readily made and used in private residences, or compressed into a fluid form and used in portable lamps, it is not speaking too strongly to state that the discovery will revolutionize the lighting and heating process of the world.

A NEW BALLOT PAPER.

It will be Black, Except the Space for the Placing of the Cross.

Ottawa, April 3.—By an order-in-Council passed on Saturday, the Act of Parliament providing for the new ballot is to be brought into force immediately.

The new ballot will leave little opportunity, if any, for errors such as frequently spoil votes. It will be black except the black space opposite the name of each candidate, on which the voter is to place his decisive cross.

If mistakes occur under this plan they will either be from wilful ignorance or gross carelessness. The new ballot will be tried in the bye-elections, and that will test its utility for the general elections.

THE BISLEY TEAM.

Major Markham will Command and Lieut. C. N. Mitchell will be Adjutant.

Ottawa, April 3.—At a meeting of the council of the Dominion Rifle Association last night in the Russell house, Major Markham, 8th Hussars, St. John, N.B., was appointed commandant of the Bisley team, and Lieut. C. N. Mitchell, of Winnipeg, was made adjutant. It was arranged to send out notices to the members of the team asking them to send along medical certificates with their acceptances.

Fighting in Madagascar.

Berlin, April 3.—The Tageblatt's correspondent in Madagascar says that the Hovas have driven the French merchants from Marondava. The French squadron assisted the troops in capturing Marovoay, Lispisca, Mahumao and Betsiooka. The Hova commander-in-chief was killed. The French suffered no losses. It is rumored that the French have captured Fort Dauphin.

China Thanks Japan for the Armistice.

London, April 3.—The Standard's Berlin correspondent says: "The Emperor of China has instructed Li Hung Chang to ask for an audience with the Mikado to thank him for the armistice. If Li should be too ill his son-in-law will deliver the message. Li probably will ask that his assailant be pardoned or his sentence mitigated."

SATISFACTORY REPLIES.

A Marked Increase in the Sale of the New Specific Remedy.

Detroit, Mich., April 3—City druggists here report a great number of enquiries with regard to the specific remedy for Bright's disease, diabetes and all forms of kidney complaint, known as Dodd's Kidney Pills. A partial investigation has shown that in every case the replies of the druggists to the questions of their customers have been highly laudatory of the remedy and that they have been able to cite many cases from their own personal knowledge where the most signal benefits have been derived from its use. The result has been a very marked increase in the number of sales made, and several unusually large orders have been given.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Toronto, April 3, 1896.

On account of the municipal elections at Chicago there were no market quotations from that centre, a legal holiday having been declared.

The grain market, however, in the American centres is not strong. In Minneapolis May wheat fell from 67c to 66¾c. In Chicago May wheat opened at 66¾c and declined from that figure, but subsequently recovered to the opening mark. In the same market July wheat opened at 68c but declined to 67½c.

In Canada the wheat market is firm. There is not more than enough for local consumption and a decline here is not probable. Toronto street prices for white wheat are 70c to-day. For barley 49c is paid, and for oats 31c and 32c.

The finest lot of horses [illegible] in this city for several years were put under the hammer at Grand's repository yesterday. The prices paid were not considered up to the average for the class of stock sold.

Mr. Creighton Secures a Berth.

Ottawa, April 2.—The superannuation of Mr. C. J. Campbell, deputy receiver-general at Toronto, has been determined upon by the Government, the gentleman having given the country services which entitle him at his present advanced age to be relieved of duty. Mr. Campbell is 75 years of age and when he retires will have served twelve years. By an order-in-Council, the superannuation will take effect on May 10. Mr. Campbell's successor will be Mr. David Creighton, formerly manager of the Empire. The salary that attaches to the office is $3,000 a year.

WARSAW.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Our hopes of spring were realised when the balmy zephyrs of last week sent a slight thrill through nature's torpid vitals, but again we dream of wintry's chilly revels as we listen to the howling of the wind and the sleet and rain and snow that greeted us on Monday morning. Though April fool is abroad to greet many of his kindred yet we may advisedly long for the legendary April flowers, which so incongruously flow in his wake. Surely we may hope for them; our spirits long, yea, pant after the brooklets, which must run soon. Why, gentle spring, do you so coquettishly play with us! stealing us such bright glances, then so quickly darkening your smiling face that we are hurled from the tip of anticipation to the depths of despair. Pray, Lady Spring, pardon our apparent welcome of your outrivalled rival and smile on us again in a continuous spring, and we will thank and ever welcome you.

Notwithstanding these chilly receptive days, our churches here in the little village of Warsaw were filled to overflowing. Mr. Alex. Watts ably filling the pulpit for Rev. Mr. Hyde, who is away visiting a sick brother at Montreal. Rev. Mr. Watts discoursed to an appreciative audience, and Rev. Mr. Foster substituted for Rev. Mr. Robeson in a manner to interest and benefit his hearers.

Epworth League in the Methodist church was well attended on Monday evening, and an unusually happy time was experienced in the Presbyterian church, when the weekly normal class was led by W. J. Kidd. Lesson, "The Great Teacher," and a review lesson, "The Books of the New Testament," by Mr. Harry Snider, unusual interest being manifested. Mr. Alex. Watts takes the new lesson, "The Sunday School—its Programme," and Miss Campbell the review lesson, "The Holy Land." All are invited to attend.

Cupid's darts are flying, and many are struck.

We learn with pleasure that Mr. Angus McIntosh is out of danger.

THE UPRISING IN CUBA

Eight Thousand Troops Have Arrived from Spain During Last Week.

FOLLOWED BY 10,000 MORE

It is Confidently Expected that the Political Disturbance Will be Quelled Without Unnecessary Bloodshed—Rebel Leaders Surrendering.

Havana, April 8.—During the past week some 8,000 troops have arrived from Spain and have been landed at various ports, where they were received with great enthusiasm. It is understood that they will be followed immediately by further contingents of some 10,000 men. The majority of the people here are much pleased with the appointment of General Martinez as Governor-General of the island. It is confidently expected that he will succeed in suppressing the political disturbance without unnecessary blood shed. It is stated that he comes as authorised to establish the reforms recently passed by the Spanish Cortes.

There is not much to report on the uprising. Those in arms against the Government do not appear to be increasing in numbers, and it is not likely that the present trouble will extend beyond the Santiago de Cuba district, the reports from all other centres of the island being most satisfactory and assuring.

It is reported from Manzanillo that several rebel leaders intend to surrender.

A MADMAN AT THE WHEEL.

He Fires Five Shots in Rapid Succession at His Captain.

New York, April 8.—The Nova Scotian bark J. H. Marsters sailed from New York March 29 on a voyage to Demarara, and returned to port yesterday afternoon in search of police assistance and the services of a surgeon. On the night of March 30, about 66 miles east of Montauk point, Captain McNeil came on deck to take a look at the weather, which was somewhat hazy at the time, and called to the mate to bring the fog horn. The captain had hardly stepped outside the companion way when Seaman W. Holsheur, who was at the wheel, drew a revolver from his pocket and fired five shots in rapid succession directly at the captain, every one of which took effect. One ball entered the captain's face just below the right eye, one hit him in the neck, a third in the thigh, another in the left shoulder and the other in the arm. The captain, who was dazed by the suddenness of the attack and the rapid firing of the revolver, fell prostrate to the deck. The mate rushed to the rescue of the master and disarmed the would-be assassin, securing him before he could do further damage. Captain McNeil's wounds bled profusely before they could be bandaged by his wife, who was on board. Although he is very weak none of the wounds are considered dangerous. Holsheur was immediately put in irons and confined in the lazaretto. He is a native of Germany, about 26 years old. When seen yesterday he stated that he had no recollection whatever of shooting Captain McNeil, and appeared to be dazed. He was turned over to the police authorities of Stapleton, S.I., and Captain McNeil was sent to a Brooklyn hospital.

Satolli Honors His Pair on Saint.

Washington, April 8.—Mgr. Satolli, the Papal delegate, gave a dinner yesterday to a number of the local clergy in honor of his patron saint, Saint Francis. Among others present was Father Andrew Joseph Stephan, who has for his special charge the Catholic schools among the Indians. During the progress of the dinner Mgr. Satolli announced that the Pope had authorized him to make public the appointment of Father Stephen as private chamberlain to the Holy Father, with the title of Monsignor.

Now They Must Pay More Rent.

Uniontown, Pa., April 8.—The coke workers have been notified that rents will be advanced from thirty to forty per cent. for company houses. The rents were reduced at the time wages were cut. Now the wages have been raised the operators want higher rent for their houses. This action and the advance in prices at the company's stores offset the advance in the coker's wages and causes great dissatisfaction.

Secretary Gresham to Retire.

Washington, April 8.—Another vacancy in the Cabinet, it is rumored, may occur within the next few days. Secretary Gresham is the official who is slated for voluntary retirement. The rumor is that Judge Gresham will retire from the Cabinet before July 1. No date has been absolutely fixed.

COVERED WITH PIMPLES.

AN ANXIOUS MAN.

The Disease Disappears in Three Weeks by the use of B. B. B.—Letter From Manitoba Describing it.

DEAR SIRS—During the winter of 1892-93, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it, and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B.B.B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say it has never reappeared.

African Mahogany.

It seems likely that one of the most important benefits to civilization of Stanley's African expedition, will be the introduction of African mahogany to Western commerce. There is even now a flourishing trade in this wood, which is sold more cheaply in the United States than it formerly was in Liverpool.

Acknowledgment.

The Committee of Management of the Peterborough Protestant Home acknowledge with thanks the following donations for March: Baptist church, cakes and bread; Mrs. John Mann, dried apples; Mr. Dawson, cabbage; Mr. Thos. A Dose of Dipsomaniacs.

Let any victim of the liquor habit eat ripe tomatoes, sprinkled with salt, consuming as many each day as possible. Let the eating of tomatoes and salt to excess be continued several days and the tomato gormandiser will find liquor offensive, undrinkable, or if drunk, ungrateful to the stomach—so much so that it will be rejected. This is the cheapest gold cure we have heard of, and it is said to be effective.

Looking on the Dark Side.

The Belleville Intelligencer says:—"It is evident that the attempt to create a temporary inflation in Belleville, without any solid foundation for it, has failed. The professional puffers and their dupes have for the past six months been crying out "boom! boom! boom!" like so many bull frogs in a marsh, and with just as much effect as the bellowing of the batrachians."

Stereopticon Entertainment.

At the Ashburnham Town Hall last night an interesting and enjoyable stereopticon entertainment was given by Mr. Edward Pim, of Toronto, the subject "Wonders of Nature and Art" being profusely illustrated by dissolving views of excellent artistic quality. The programme included humorous subjects, natural phenomena, historical events, the leading places of interest in the Old World, and statuary of various kinds, the grouping of of the illustrations being arranged in a style that absorbed the intense interest of those present from beginning to close. The evening's entertainment was thoroughly enjoyable and was highly appreciated.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Alex. Elliott has returned from a business trip to Belleville.

The Rev. C. H. Marsh, of Lindsay, will preach in St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, to-night at 8 o'clock.

Street Inspector Pope is gradually recovering from his recent severe illness. He was able to be out on the street for a short time to-day.

Mr. Thompson, representing Ralph Smith & Co., of Toronto, is registered at the Oriental. He paid his Ashburnham friends a call yesterday.

Miss Minnie H. Armstrong, George street, went to Toronto this morning for a few months' vacation, and is the guest of Mrs. Manderville, 94 McCaul street.

Rev. A. J. Reid of Uxbridge, is the guest of Rev. J. C. Davidson, and this evening will deliver an address in St. John's church on "Pleasures of Sin—What are they Worth?"

Old Mrs. Molloy, who broke her arm by falling down the cellar stairs in Schofield's drug store the other day, is not progressing towards recovery as speedily as could be wished.

Mr. James Lang, who has for some time been employed with Mr. John Nugent, has secured a position in Crittenden's drug store, on Simach and Gerrard streets, Toronto, and left to-day to assume his duties in the Queen City.

Dr. J. N. Cadieux, the famous American orator and physician, of New York, of continental reputation as a scientific lecturer, is at the Snowden. The doctor will speak in this town next Sunday, and will lecture on Monday.

Miss Todd, who has had charge of Messrs. Hall, Gilchrist & Co's dress making department for the past two years, but who has been absent for the past three months through illness, has resumed work. Her many lady friends will be pleased to hear of her return to business.

At a meeting last night of the directors of the Peterborough Steam Navigation Co., Capt. B. M. Eden was appointed master of the "City of Peterborough" for the coming season. Capt. Eden has had an experience of salt water navigation of thirteen years, and an experience of twelve years on Stony Lake and connecting waters. This experience amply fits him for discharging the duties of his new position to the satisfaction of both the tourist public and the Navigation Company, while his well-earned reputation for courtesy and obliging attention to his aquatic guests will tend to make the Rice Lake route popular the coming season with the travelling public. Capt. Eden will have the able assistance of Mr. John Martin as purser and outside passenger agent.

Impersonating a Specialist.

The Otonabee farmers are complaining of having been swindled by a Jew, claiming to be Dr. Jebb, who travelled through the country a week or so ago testing eyes and selling spectacles. Dr. Jebb has taken the matter up and the impostor is liable to be brought up with a sharp turn, if caught.

Farmers, Beware!

The latest swindle being operated on the farmers in some parts of the country is a very ingenious one and well calculated to deceive. Two men come along painting signs on fences, barns, etc., and a bargain is struck for the privilege. The work is done, the money paid and a receipt book produced. That the painters should require vouchers is such a natural idea that the farmer never hesitates to sign an acknowledgment of the receipt of the money. The relations of the painters and farmer are broken off at this point and the latter thinks no more of the former till his "receipt" turns up in a near-by bank as a note for $200 or $300. The name-signing habit has cost a good many farmers dear.

Public Schools.

The enrollment of pupils in the town public schools (Kindergartens excepted) was 1,347, with an average attendance of 1,201, or 89.16 per cent. Kindergartens enrolled—Central, 46, average, 34; South Ward, 52, average, 38.5. Hence the total enrollment was 1,445 (50 more than in March, 1894), and the total average 1,273.5, or 88.1 per cent. Kindergartens not included, the Central enrolled 592, average 540, or 91.2 per cent.; Rubidge street school, 356, average 317, or 89.3 per cent.; Park street school, 216, average 188, or 87 per cent.; and the Barnardo avenue school, 184, average 156, or 84.8 per cent.

Northwest Missions.

Geo. Ruskin, of the Algoma and Northwest Evangelical and Colportage Mission is again visiting Peterborough in the interest of the twelfth year's work of the mission. By its agency during the past year 1,340 Scriptures and Scriptural books were supplied in the district, in six languages, and also 61,000 supplied outside the district, for which was received in payment $266.76, and $34.83 worth of saleable Bibles and books. Where given religious services and religious tract distributing accompanied the work; also, 10,000 copies of additional small Scriptural publications were printed, to help the work. The missionary gratefully acknowledges $31.78 contributed in Peterborough last year for the work, and again respectfully asks, in the great Master's name, a renewed assistance for the work of another year, and also to meet the liabilities of the past. Morning prayer services will (D.V.) be conducted on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, in connection with the work, in the Y.M.C.A. Hall, George street, at 8:30 a.m.

The C. B. and C. Railroad.

The Cahill, Burnham and Canal Railroad, known as the C. B. and C., has just been completed in one of the upper stories of the Peterborough Hardware Company's big establishment and its projectors feel very proud of its completion, although some fault is found with one of the curves for being too abrupt. A trial trip was taken on the line the other day by a well known local phrenologist. The car was ballasted with a keg of nails and was started on its trip with a vigorous push. The rate of speed, however, was too high to make the curve in safety and the result was that the car jumped the track sending its lone passenger into a pile of shovels with the keg of nails on top of him. The phrenologist has now quite enough to do to look after the new bumps which so suddenly appeared on his own head without bothering with the craniums of others. Mr. Cahill, general manager of the road, is most obliging and is quite willing to allow trial trips to be made over the line, special accommodation being provided for ladies.

GOES ON A "ST" FOUR TIMES A YEAR.

An Old Pensioner Has His Quarterly Outing Yesterday.

An old pensioner was up before the magistrate this morning. It was not the first time he had been in the presence of His Honour. In fact so often had he faced "the beak" that he had lost that sense of bashfulness and timidity which generally overtakes the luckless offenders whom the magistrate subjects to a preliminary scrutiny over his eye-glasses, before subjecting them to an examination. So when His Honour glanced at him, John merely smirked and grinned.

"Not up again, John?," quoth the magistrate.

"Its the first time this year, Your Honour.

"How many times a year do you get drunk, John?"

"Four times, Sir."

"You draw your pension four times a year, do you?"

"Yes, Your Honour."

"And only get drunk when you draw it?"

"Yes, Sir."

"Reasonable enough; you're discharged."

BICYCLE REGULATIONS.

The City of Toronto to Have Power to Enact Regulations by By-law.

The proposed legislation in reference to bicycles excited a good deal of interest in the Municipal Committee on Tuesday. The subject was exhaustively discussed, and finally Mr. Stratton withdrew his bill on the understanding that next year a bill, prepared on the basis of the results of a joint consideration of the subject by the wheelmen and those in favour of the regulation of bicycle riding, be presented to the House. At the suggestion of the chairman a clause was agreed to, giving the city of Toronto power to make by-laws to regulate and govern bicycles, with the understanding that the city will, with the cooperation of the wheelmen, secure all the information necessary to have embodied in the by-laws such regulations as are practicable and desirable in the mutual interests of the rights of the bicyclists and of the people.

As Well as Ever

After Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cured of a Serious Disease.

"I was suffering from what is known as Bright's disease for five years, and for days at a time I have been unable to straighten myself up. I was in bed for three weeks; during that time I had leeches applied and derived no benefit. Seeing Hood's Sarsaparilla advertised in the papers I decided to try a bottle. I found relief before I had finished taking half of a bottle. I got so much help from taking the first bottle that I decided to try another, and since taking the second bottle I feel as well as ever I did in my life." GEO. MERRETT, Toronto, Ont.

CRICKET.

The members of the cricket club held their annual meeting, last evening, the attendance being the largest in the history of the club for many years.

The president of the club, Dr. Burnham, took the chair and it was decided not to reorganise until it was ascertained how many members could be secured for the season. A committee composed of Messrs. Perry Goldsmith, Max Poussette and Walter Stocker was appointed to endeavour to swell the membership roll.

Another committee composed of Messrs. R. B. Rogers, W. J. Montgomery, W. J. Drope and N. St. C. Gurd was appointed to draft a new constitution and report at a meeting to be held Tuesday evening in the same offices.

The club is under very heavy expenses this year, owing to the fact that it is the only organization left in the P. A. A. A., all the other clubs having drawn out and arranged to take the Driving Park for the season. The whole expense therefore in keeping up the P. A. A. A. grounds falls on the shoulders of the cricket club. In order to tide over their difficulties the rates of membership have been raised to $5.00 for an active member's ticket, $2.00 for honorary membership and $2.00 for juniors.

BASEBALL.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of baseballists, last evening, organization was effected and the following officers elected.

Hon. Pres.—Geo. W. Hatton.
President—R. B. McKee.
Vice-Pres.—W. J. Green.
Manager—G. A. Horkins.
Capt.—Dr. Brennan.

Executive Committee—Geo. Horkins, J. Snyder, Geo. Paxman.

Delegates to C.A.B. B. A.—Dr. Brennan, Vice-Pres. C. A. B. B. A., and W. A. Buchanan.

It was decided that the uniform of the club would be a white sweater, canvas trousers, blue stockings and caps.

THE WHEEL.

Some mischievous boys in a London suburb have been arrested, soundly lectured and fined, for throwing short tacks on a highway frequented by bicycle riders, their object being to see the wheelmen come to grief as the result of punctured tires.

CURLING.

The last curling that the Millbrook men had was on Thursday evening last, when a one rink match was played between the Grits and Tories. It proved to be one of the most exciting of the season and up to the last stone was played the score was even with the Tories lying the shot. Skip Wood was left a very difficult shot to get, as the stone was well guarded and he attempted to draw around the guard. He came down a little too fast, went sailing by the shot, and the Tories won by one point. The following were the rinks:

FRASERVILLE.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The roads are in a very bad condition, at present almost impassable in this vicinity.

Sugar making has now begun, a good year is expected.

On Thursday, March 26th, Mr. Samuel Campbell had the misfortune to get one of his legs broken. Mr. Campbell, who has seen some sixty-five or seventy winters, was attending a sawing when one of the rolling logs struck his leg, breaking the bone. Dr. Montgomery, Bailliebore, set the fracture. We hope the old gentleman will soon recover from such a painful accident.

Mr. John Smyth, who has been confined to his room for the past week, is rapidly recovering.

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week four car loads of potatoes were loaded in our village, the price paid was 45c per bag. Four more cars will be loaded in the near future at 55c per bag. No hard times in our town.

Mr. Daniels, of Peterborough, has removed into John Bothwell's house on Front street, he having leased it for the summer. Mr. Daniels intends working with Mr. John Mouncey this season.

Mr. James Bullied, our new hotel keeper, has now everything in good repair. John is a very obliging, off-handed fellow, and travellers requiring good accommodation will find this house first class in every respect.

Our village blacksmith is kept hustling these days, as is also the wood-worker.

Miss Bessie Goodfellow, the village telegraph operator, has been kept busy since the roads have broken up.

Mr. Geo. Bothwell has been busy chopping wood and rails on the farm he recently bought south of here.

Miss Annie Donaldson, who has been attending the Ladies College at Oshawa, has returned home again.

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM—MUTUAL PRINCIPLE.

$150,000.00, or $50,000 per Month,

Is the gain in new business of The Provincial Provident Institution of St. Thomas during the past three months, as compared with the same period of last year. This Company furnishes sound life insurance at rates within reach of the masses, and the insuring public evidently appreciate that fact. Notwithstanding the hard times the agents of the P. P. I. are meeting with greater success than at any time in the past history of the Institution. This is no doubt accounted for by the fact that while the security is unquestionable the rates are so low as to prevent anyone having a family dependent upon him, from saying "I can't afford it," and thus the Company's agents are enabled to do business, not only with men of means, but with all classes of the community. The P.P.I. has a well-merited reputation of paying claims promptly, and has paid nearly half a million dollars to the widows and orphans since organization. Its reserve is assuming large proportions and is rapidly accumulating. The expense rates are lower than in any other Company, and owing to careful medical selection the death rate has been lower than that of any other Company reporting to the Insurance Department at Ottawa for the same length of time. All things considered, the success of the P.P.I. agents and the great and growing popularity of the Institution is not surprising. Persons contemplating life insurance or an agency should address the Secretary at St. Thomas. 1d1w

MILLBROOK

From Our Own Correspondent.

As the sporting season draws near the activity in lacrosse circles becomes greater and it is likely the game of the noble red man will boom in Millbrook this year. On Wednesday evening the annual meeting of the Millbrook Lacrosse club will be held and great efforts will be made to put a strong team in the field. Since 1888 there has been little lacrosse in Millbrook, but in that year they had a team that defeated the best teams of Peterborough, Port Hope and Norwood, and only lost one goal out of six matches played. Out of that team only Carveth is now playing, Hunter, Vance, Strain, Clarke and McMahon having all retired. Last year the team was composed of mere boys, with the exception of Carveth, Jack Natrass and L. F. Clarry, and should certainly have gone under the name of juniors. They made a very good showing considering the teams they played against, namely, the Checkers, of Beaverton, Lindsay, Shamrocks and II Peterboroughs. This year the team will be composed of last year's players, and there is some talk of that old veteran, McMahon, getting down to work again. McMahon played point in '88, and with Carveth, Clarry and Bateson, would make a strong defence.

The two Ocomba, G. Leach and Nattrass will be on the home this year and will undoubtedly make a good showing.

The boys will have to content themselves with the old grounds as the new ones will not likely be in condition. The proposal to form a league composed of Norwood, Lindsay, second Peterboroughs and Millbrook meets with general approval here and the matter will be thoroughly discussed at Wednesday night's meeting.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From our Own Correspondent.)

We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Lucy Hockarty, who after a lingering illness of two months, died at her father's residence here Wednesday evening, March 27th. The deceased young lady was 16 years and six months old, and was very much esteemed by her large circle of friends and will be much missed by all her young lady companions. The funeral took place Friday at 2 o'clock to the Lakefield cemetery.

Mr. Jas. Scott, of Chandos, passed through here Thursday evening with the remains of his daughter, Maggie, who died in St. Joseph's Hospital. The remains were taken to the Roman Catholic cemetery, Chandos, for interment. The many friends of Mr. Scott and family will sympathize with them in their sad bereavement.

We are glad to say Mr. W. J. Young, who was confined to his bed very ill, is somewhat better.

Miss Minnie Young has returned home after visiting friends in Peterborough.

Y.P.S.C.E. NOTES.

CONVENTION NOTES.

The programme for the County Convention on Easter Monday is about completed and promises to be a most interesting one. There are one or two speakers who were invited to take part who have not, as yet, given their consent. The full programme will no doubt be ready to give out in this column next week.

It is hoped that a large number from every society in the county will be present at all the sessions, and be sure and send your voting delegate, and the one who gives your report, in the morning session. This is for seniors and juniors.

Statistical reports of Junior Societies should be sent to Mrs. A. Parker. Junior reports should be sent to Miss Quinn, County Superintendent. It is the duty of these two officers to give a detailed statement of the whole field, and they cannot do this correctly unless every society reports. This work should be done by each local secretary, but the president of each society should see that the report is made out and sent to one of the above named ladies.

Kindly send the names of all delegates to Mrs. A. Parker, County Secretary, stating if they want billets, if so, whether for meals only, or for meals and lodging.

It will be well for all delegates who come to town by rail to buy their tickets on Saturday, thus securing them for one fare. These tickets are good coming on Monday and for return Monday night or Tuesday, thus suiting Lakefield, Norwood and Havelock delegates.

EASTER SUNDAY.

The town Local Union will hold an early morning prayer meeting in the Y.M.C.A. Hall, beginning at 7 o'clock.

AN INCIDENT OF 1847.

THE QUENCHLESS ANTI-SLAVERY HATE OF THAT PERIOD.

How an English Magazine Commented on an Injustice Done to Frederick Douglass on British Soil—A British Warning That Reads Like Prophecy.

We have for some time been anxiously waiting for a moment when the press of home matters might permit the resumption of the subject of American slavery; but an event has just occurred which compels us, despite that pressure, to return to it. Mr. F. Douglass, having finished his mission to England, has returned a free man to the land to which was honored by his birth and degraded by his bondage. It was well he came to England, for here was widely diffused afflicting truths and great principles, and acquired for himself a high reputation, and many valuable and honorable friendships, of men who remember him with affectionate interest. His private deportment and public appearances in this country have secured for him very general admiration. Moral philosophers, looking a him as a speciman of his sable brethren, a body amounting to three million of men, have inly said, Men of whom this is sample cannot be held in lasting thraldom. Their freedom is merely a question of time; they will, they must either receive, or take it, and none can hinder them!

If the slaveholders are wise they will be wise for themselves; but if they persevere in their folly and cruelty and injustice, they must just take the consequence. If society be prostrated and blood shall flow, on their own heads be it! They are warned—they have despised the warning! In vain in the day of their calamity will they look for sympathy to Europe. There time and circumstances are constantly bringing forth new aggravations of their already enormous guilt. Not satisfied, it would seem, with the exercise of a blood-stained tyranny in their own land, they are extending it to our shores, as the following letter, addressed to the editor of the Times by Mr. Douglass, will show:

Sir: I take up my pen to lay before you a few facts respecting an unjust proscription to which I find myself subjected on board the steamship Cambria, to sail from this port at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning for Boston, United States.

On the 4th of March last, in company with Mr. George Moxhay, of the Hall of Commerce, London, I called upon Mr. Ford, the London agent on the Cunard line of steamers, for the purpose of securing a passage on board the steamship Cambria to Boston, United States. On inquiring the amount of the passage I was told £40 19s; I inquired further if a second-class passage could be obtained. He answered no, there was but one fare, all distinctions having been abolished. I then gave to him £40 19s and received from him in return a ticket entitling to berth No. 79 on board the steamship Cambria, at the same time asking him if my color would prove any barrier to my enjoying all the rights and privileges enjoyed by other passengers. He said "No." I then left the office supposing all well and thought nothing more of the matter until morning, when, in company with a few friends, agreeably to public notice I went on board the Cambria with my luggage, and on inquiring for my berth found, to my surprise and mortification, that it had been given to another passenger, and was told that the agent in London had acted without authority in selling me the ticket.

I expressed my surprise and disappointment to the captain, and inquired what I had better do in the matter. He suggested my accompanying him to the office of the agent in Water street, Liverpool, for the purpose of ascertaining what could be done. On stating the fact of my having purchased the ticket of the London agent Mr. McIver (the Liverpool agent) answered that the London agent, in selling me the ticket, had acted without authority, and that I should not go on board the ship unless I agreed to take my meals alone, not to mix with the saloon company, and to give up the berth for which I had paid. Being without legal remedy and anxious to return to the United States, I have felt it due to my own rights as a man, as well as to the honor and dignity of the British public, to lay these facts before them, sincerely believing that the British public will pronounce a just verdict on such proceedings. I have traveled in this country nineteen months, and have always enjoyed equal rights and privileges with other passengers, and it was not until I turned my face toward America that I met anything like proscription on account of my color.

Yours respectfully,
Frederick Douglass.,
Brown's Temperance Hotel, Liverpool, April 3.

Here, then, is a company partly English and partly American deriving no small portion of its immense annual revenues for the conveyance of the English mail, with other more substantial advantages from English connection. To meet the tastes of both parts of the company two appropriate agents are selected, one resident in the metropolis to represent British feeling, destroying all distinctions both of price, class, and color; and another at the port to represent American feeling, preserving the distinction with reference to color, while the position of this latter agent amounts to a veto, and renders nugatory the proceedings of his metropolitan coadjutor. Mr. Douglass, after nineteen months' intercourse with all ranks and classes in Great Britain, and just issued from a select assembly, comprising some of our best and wisest citizens, met in London to bid farewell to the interesting stranger, on board the vessel which he hoped was to carry him in peace and honor to his native land, is reduced to the painful alternative of remaining behind, with the loss of his passage money, or surrendering his berth, taking his "meals alone," and being excluded from the "saloon company;" in a word, being treated as being of an inferior order, as a felon, an outcast, a vagabond.

We should like to know the American gentlemen who composed this saloon company, that the British people might judge of their mental and moral superiority to Frederick Douglass; for the probabilities are as a thousand to one that he was incomparably superior to the first among them. On these grounds, therefore, if the American portion of the "saloon company" could not associate with him, so be it—but let the less give place to the greater; let them retire from the saloon, give up their berths, and take their "meals alone."

One word as to the origin of this foul hate. Among the multitude of profundities which distinguish the pages of Tacitus there is not one more sagacious or pertinent to the present case than his declaration, that "Men hate those whom they have injured." This is the utmost stretch of philosophy upon the point—it reaches the bottom at once.

The quenchless hatred of the American whites to the man of color is founded solely in their boundless injuries toward him. The fires of their pandemonian enmity are constantly fed by the remembered cruelties they have perpetrated and do still perpetrate on 8,000,000 of men. Walking in so fierce an atmosphere of crime the hearts of evildoers are reduced to an alternative—they must either burn against themselves or their victims. To allow that the slaves are men is to confess themselves criminals of the deepest dye. So long, therefore, as wrong lasts hate will last; to destroy the enmity slavery must be abolished.

Was there ever an instance of greater commercial baseness? Not satisfied with silencing the living, even the voice of the mighty dead may not be heard among them, whose sweetest music is the groaning of the prisoner and the clanking of the chains. All things are subject to the terrible scepter of this man-hating despotism, which, we have just seen, regulates the passage to Europe, the movements of the printing press, and, as all the world knows, the arrangements of the railway, of everything social, yea, even of the house of God itself! Surely the cup of its iniquity is well nigh full. The doom of this hateful dominion is sealed of heaven, and at a day not very distant it must be overthrown for ever!

P. S.—From accounts received since writing the above we perceive that the captain, in the spirit of a true English seaman, gave up his cabin to Mr. Douglass, and one of the agents of the company has publicly stated that it had been offered to return the passage money when the ticket was withdrawn. In justice to all parties we state this fact.—London Christian Witness, 1847.

The State of Trade.

New York, March 30.—Bradstreet's today says: General trade for the third week in succession continues to show evidence of improvement. In no other direction is this so plainly indicated as in the tendency of prices. A week ago encouragement had been obtained from a generally unexpected advance in cotton and wheat. Following the slight reaction the week has witnessed a firm cotton market, further improvement in wheat with a sympathetic influence on corn and oats, the effect of which is greatly emphasized this week by advances in quotations not only for coke but prospectively for iron ore and for Bessemer pig-iron for steel billets, and actually for manufactured iron at western markets. Higher quotations for cut meats west are the outcome of restricted supplies of cattle, and this is behind increased demands for shoes for fall delivery, as quotations for leather continue upward and comparative scarcity of hides. As important as any other information bearing on the condition of trade, are reports from Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Iowa, that the soil is greatly in need of more moisture, which with the unseasonably warm and dry weather promises a restricted area of wheat. The better feeling in general trade circles which characterized reports from a number of cities has become more widespread, and even where no actual gain in movement of staples is reported, increased confidence in a better demand is marked. Reports of actual business failures throughout the United States, December 27, 1894, to March 27, 1895, to Bradstreet's, furnish a total of 3,812, only 157 fewer than in the first quarter of 1894. The decrease in number of failures for the quarter of about 4 per cent., is slightly exceeded by the falling off of total liabilities, the latter having declined 4.7 per cent. from the quarter's total a year ago to $46,911,000.

Until about a hundred years ago burial in coffins was by no means universal. In early times corpses were merely wrapped in linen shrouds.

Very few can reach deep into their own minds without meeting what they wish to hide from themselves.

That tired feeling, loss of appetite and nervous prostration are driven away by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which makes pure blood.

STRICKEN WITH A PARTIAL PARALYSIS

This Was the Case with Miss Minnie Stevens, of London, Ont.

The Parents Had Lost Hope of Her Recovery, But Even After Her Arm, Side and Leg Had Become Powerless South American Nervine Effected a Cure—To-day This Young Lady, Daughter of F. A. Stevens, of the Stevens Manufacturing Company, Enjoys Perfect Health.

MISS MINNIE STEVENS, LONDON, ONT.

Men and women in the exercise of physical or mental power can usually go a certain length, but a step beyond this proves too severe a test. It is the same in the field of medicine. If the case is not a trying one some simple remedy will cure, but it is when a medicine proves effective in an aggravated and extraordinary case that its real power is tested. South American Nervine has made some wonderful cures in cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, debility and nervous prostration, not to name other troubles. When nervousness, however, takes hold of the system to that extent that it becomes paralyzed and the limbs lose their natural power, then it is that the patient and her friends may indeed commence to lose heart. Miss Minnie Stevens, a fair daughter of London, Ont., had undergone this trying experience. She had been troubled with nervousness. The trouble grew and after a time assumed such shape that she could not lift or even hold anything in her hand. This member, in fact, was useless to her. The trouble spread down the side and partially into one leg. Her face began to twitch. In truth, all the indications of paralysis creeping over the system were manifest. Do we wonder that her parents lost hope of her recovery? They saw the fatal disease rapidly twining itself around their beautiful child. Surrounded with every comfort and possessing the means as well as the will to do every thing it was in their power to provide relief, yet, apparently, this could not be obtained, until influenced by the statements of the wonderful cures effected by South American Nervine in case of nervous prostration, the parents finally decided to try this medicine. After using twelve bottles their daughter became perfectly well, and to-day in the Forest City there is no young girl more healthy than Minnie Stevens, and her father, Mr. F. A. Stevens, of the Stevens Manufacturing Company, is indeed a happy man. The statement cannot be made in too positive and distinct terms that this great discovery is capable of marvelous demonstration in all nervous troubles.

The testimony that comes to the proprietor of Nervine shows that it has absolutely cured in the case of the young, as here cited, and those who have nearly reached, or gone beyond, the three score years and ten have likewise found a cure in this medicine.

CLEARING UP THE MYSTERY.

The Body of the Murdered Woman Found in the Streets of New York Identified.

New York, April 2.—The police are hard at work trying to clear up the mystery surrounding the death of the colored woman who was found strangled and mutilated on Sunday morning on Sixth avenue, near Waverley place. A number of people called at the morgue during the day to take a look at the corpse, but the first really substantial clue came shortly before noon in the shape of a telephone message from the offices of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at Hoboken. The message was from an official of the company saying there was a woman employe of the company who believed that she could identify the dead negress. She was taken to the morgue and led to the room where the corpse was lying. When she saw the face of the dead woman she exclaimed immediately: "That's she." The visitor gave her name as Madora Robinson, of 71 York street, Hoboken, N.J., a sewardess in the depot of the D. L. & W. railroad. Madora, who is a colored woman, said that last Tuesday forenoon the dead woman came into the depot on the 10.17 o'clock train from Newark. She got into conversation with her, and learned that the woman had come from Heathsville, Va., near Fredericksburg. She had a letter of recommendation, but Madora forgot the name of the person recommended. The Virginia woman and ten or eleven others were sent north by an employment agent. She had gone into service as a cook in a small town, not far from Hoboken, but not liking the work came to New York to seek employment. Madora also said that the dead woman told her that she was going to visit acquaintances in Thompson street, which is not far from the place where the body was found. It is expected that a careful search will be made by detectives of all Thompson street, and that every house and room will undergo careful scrutiny for evidences of a murder.

WENT ONE BETTER.

The Grand Trunk Cutting Freight Rates Between New York and Chicago.

Chicago, April 2.—Not only did the Grand Trunk make a twelve cent rate on cats yesterday, as it gave notice Saturday it would do, but it made the same tariff on other kinds of grain and flour to New York. To meet it the other lines were obliged to do likewise and the result was shippers found things very easy for them. Last week's cutting was shown in an increase of eastbound shipments of over 3,000 tons being recorded as compared with those of the preceding week.

Peculiar Insurance Proceedings.

Montreal, April 2.—The arrest of F. Dion, bar-keeper for the Broadway hotel, in this city, word of which was received yesterday, has brought to light some peculiar insurance proceedings. Dion, it seems, was arrested on a charge of stealing $800, which was part of the insurance premiums paid over to Madame Paquette, on account of certain policies negotiated by her son. Young Paquette, who was formerly connected with the New York Life, was some time ago appointed as agent for the Manufacturers Life, and placed heavy insurance upon the life of one Lafiamme, both in the Manufacturers and the Equitable, but the companies becoming dissatisfied withdrew their policies, the Manufacturers by a process of re-vindication, the Equitable by returning their premiums. It was the latter money that Dion is charged with stealing and interesting developments are expected.

Took an Overdose of Chlorate Hydrate.

Brantford, April 2.—Mrs. Dr. Heath died suddenly on Sunday afternoon. She had not been well for a few days past. When the doctor was out making his professional calls, Mrs. Heath, being nervous, went to the doctor's office and got a bottle of chlorate hydrate, and not knowing the strength of the drug it is supposed she took an overdose, which resulted fatally. The doctor, on returning home, found Mrs. Heath in an unconscious condition. He immediately summoned two other physicians, but their services were ineffectual.

DEMORALIZATION AMONG INDIANS.

White Men Imprisoned for Supplying Liquor and Indians for Drinking it.

Walkerton, April 2.—The jail population of Walkerton was increased yesterday by the addition of eleven Indians and two white men from the Saugeen Indian reserve, Bruce county. Ten of the Indians are committed to jail for ten days each for being drunk, and one Indian and two white men got 30 days each at hard labor for supplying them with liquor. The cases excited a good deal of local interest and were tried at Southampton before Mr. McNamara, J.P., of Southampton. Mr. A. Collins, of Walkerton, prosecuted for the Indian Department, and Mr. N. A. Ray, of Southampton, defended the prisoners. Mr. Allen, the Indian agent at Southampton, has been in poor health of late, and in consequence a good deal of demoralization among the Indians has resulted. Complaints were made to the department at Ottawa, which resulted in Constable Chamberlain, of the Dominion police, being sent up to restore order. These convictions are the result of his labors so far, but several more complaints against white men for supplying the Indians with liquor are yet to be investigated. The magistrate refused to impose a fine in any of these cases, holding that imprisonment without the option of a fine was likely to have a more salutary influence in the community.

Masonic Block for Cayuga.

Cayuga, April 1.—The members of St. John's Lodge, No. 35, A.F. & A.M., Cayuga, have formed a joint stock company for the purpose of erecting a three-storey Masonic block in Cayuga. The following brethren were appointed provisional officers and directors: W. Bro. J. G. Carruthers, President; W. Bro. James Mitchell, Treasurer; W. Bro. G. Powell, Secretary; and the following board of directors: Bros. L. L. Barber, D. Thompson, W. Riley. The building when completed will be a credit to the enterprise and energy of the company. Operations have already commenced.

The rapidity with which croup develops calls for instant treatment; and yet few households are prepared for its visits. An admirable remedy for this disease is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has saved hundreds of lives and should be in every home where there are young children.

To remove worms of all kinds from children or adults Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is a safe and sure remedy.

What John Wanamaker, the Most Heavily Insured man in America, Says:

(INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WANAMAKER.)

It is very generally known that Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries the largest amount of Life Insurance of any man in the United States. A representative of the press recently interviewed this gentleman while he was travelling with the Presidential party, and this interview will be found, we believe, of general interest:—

"You are said to be the most heavily insured man in the country, Mr. Wanamaker," remarked the press representative.

"How did you come to think of that?" he said with a smile. "You are not looking for any disaster under such excellent management as our friend Boyd is giving this train and party?"

"No," I replied. "A newspaper friend in San Francisco, who had heard the report, wanted me to ask you it it was true, and if so, what your business reasons are for it?"

"Well," he modestly answered, "I have heard it stated that I am the most heavily insured man in the country. I don't know about that. The amount of my policies is $1,550,000, and the value, with the accumulations since the policies were taken out, is about two millions of dollars."

"In what class of companies are your policies?"

"They are all in stock and mutual companies, and none of them in what are known as assessment or instalment companies."

"Are they full life term policies or on what is termed the 'tontine' plan?"

"I have generally taken ten and fifteen payment policies and very few life policies. With about all good companies a contract can now be made whereby there is no risk of losing a policy after two years' premiums have been paid. If the party insured chooses to withdraw he can get a paid-up policy. Indeed, I understand that some companies have forms whereby the insurer can after one year, if desired, withdraw and receive a paid-up policy. There is practically little risk, any more, in insuring in the old companies."

"Perhaps you would be willing to tell me how you came to insure so heavily?"

"I thought the matter out, and convinced myself that it was a good business venture. Besides, it seemed to me that I might, perhaps, give away more money in lifetime if there was a fixed certainty of putting it back into my estate by Life Insurance. I conceive that the best way for a man to carry on benevolence is not to leave it to be done through his will, but to do it in his lifetime, and I felt that Life Insurance would give me more freedom in carrying out some plans I have, and which I would be glad to see completed before I leave this world. If you want to ascertain what the circumstances were in placing the Life Insurance, I must go further in my answers and say that I should not have gone so far in my Life Insurance but for the skill of the agent who tackled me to insure to a greater extent than I would otherwise have done. He was an old friend who had been in mercantile business and who knew how to present Life Insurance without boring me. I feel to-day sincerely grateful to the man who followed me so discreetly with information about companies, and who kept the subject before me until I settled the question."

"When did you begin taking Life Insurance policies?"

"My first policy was taken when I was twenty-one."

"Do you consider it a good thing for a man of small means?"

"I certainly do. Most young men spend more for cigars during the year than the annual cost of a $2,500 policy in a good company. If they must have the cigars they might divide between cigars and Life Insurance and carry at least a $1,000 policy. I think every young man, before he is married, ought to try to get at least a $1,000 policy."

"Among how many companies are your policies divided, and where are they located?

"About forty companies. Most of them are located in the East. A few are in the West and a few in Canada."

"Do you recommend Life Insurance to others, especially those in whom you feel a personal interest?"

"I can perhaps answer that best by saying that I presented a few years ago a $1,000 policy, paid up for one year, to every insurable head of family in my employ. Many of the prudent men who received them not only kept them but added to them, and I have the satisfaction of knowing that in not a few cases those policies have been the means of saving worthy families from want."

It will doubtless be of interest to our readers to know that John Wanamaker carries a large policy in the Canada Life Insurance Company, thus evincing his confidence in the soundness of Canada's oldest and largest Company. During the last few years quite a number of American capitalists have been convinced of the SUPERIOR MERITS OF THE CANADA LIFE, and have accordingly placed their insurance therein, in preference to any other company.

The Canada Life is now being recognized in the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio as the Company that gives the best results for the least premium.

SAP'S A-RUNNIN'.

Fun and Hard Work in the Maple Bush in the Early Spring.

To get the best flow of sap the nights must be freezing and the days warm and pleasant. When it reaches the camp the sap is poured into the big kettle and a pile of dry boughs is soon crackling away under it. After that for several weeks the camp in the sugar bush is the scene of great activity and excitement. It is really a good deal of a picnic. In the evening the fires are set to roaring high around the kettle, and the boys sit near and tell stories. Sometimes the girls in the neighborhood come out in a body with a big basket of doughnuts and sandwiches, and then the boys "see them home," with the baskets empty.

After having been boiled partly down in the kettle the sap is dipped out into the pans and again boiled until it is thick and syrupy. Just before the time for "sugaring off" arrives the syrup is dipped out of the pans and placed in tubs, where the "sugar sand"—otherwise the malate of lime—can settle out. Then it is poured back into the last pan in the series and heated until it boils. One of the boys stands over it with a spoon and from time to time he drops a little syrup into a snow bank, and if it hardens or "sugars" it is time to pour it off. Sometimes it is "sugared" in tubs and sometimes in molds of various sizes and shapes. In these forms the big brown blocks go to the market.

Toward the end of the sugar season the yearly "sugaring-off" festival is held in many places, and it has come to rank with the husking bee and apple-paring party. Some pleasant April afternoon when the snow has been driven to the protection of the fence corners and the robins are hopping on the moist sod the people from all the country round gather at the "bush," bringing their lunches with them. Each boy and girl is provided with a spoon and a big white chip. When the syrup is thick and brown in the last pan a little of it is stirred with much jostling and laughter until it has "sugared" almost white. By this time the women of the party have lain out the bread and butter, the cold ham and the pickles—for pickles are always present at a sugar party. Then the lunch begins and continues until everything is eaten up.

Some big maples will yield as high as 30 gallons of sap daily, but the average is much below this amount. The sap has only about 2 per cent. of sugar in it, and the boiling, therefore, is for the purpose of driving off the immense quantity of water. This is accomplished in some sugar bushes by means of a patent evaporator in which the process is much more rapid. Sometimes the sap is not boiled down to sugar, but is allowed to remain in the form of syrup, weighing about ten pounds to the gallon.

The great element of success in sugar making is cleanliness. Much of the pure syrup and sugar on the market is believed to be adulterated, simply because the makers were not careful to keep leaves and twigs out of the sap, and neglected to clean out the kettle and pans frequently.

Maple sugar making is distinctly a Canuck industry. Practically maple sugar is made nowhere in the world outside of Canada and the United States, and we learned the process from the Indians. In many of the tribes sugar making was in times past one of the favorite pursuits. The first sap which flowed after the trees were hacked—for the Indians had no augers—was sacrificed by the medicine man to the Great Spirit. Then the braves built the fires and the women tapped the trees, chopped the dugouts and did all the rest of the work.

A large part of the country's supply of maple sugar comes from this province, where hundreds of farmers produce it. Trees are planted every year, so that a vigorous bush may always be maintained. Even the roadsides are lined with great maples, and in the sugar season these, too, are tapped. The taking of the sap from the trees in no way injures them. Canada used to send a considerable quantity to the United States.

It is a common impression that maple sugar is much adulterated, and to a certain extent this is true. Commercial maple syrup contains a large amount of ordinary granulated or "A" sugar. This variety is used largely in hotels or restaurants. A still cheaper grade is made by mixing a little maple sugar with a great deal of glucose. There are also certain "maple flavors" on the market which are put into a glucose compound and the resulting syrup is palmed off on an unsuspecting public as "pure maple syrup." Reliable dealers, however, do not countenance any such practices.

Maple sap is also used sometimes for making vinegar. By exposure to the sun for four days it becomes sour, and can hardly be told from the best vinegar.

WORST KIND OF DYSPEPSIA.

GENTLEMEN,—I write to inform you that for years I had been troubled with Dyspepsia and having tried other medicines which entirely failed, I at last found relief and cure in Burdock Blood Bitters, of which I took two bottles, the result being a perfect cure. Although only a young lad I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for four or five years, but I can say now that B. B. B. does its work faithfully in the worst kind of Dyspepsia, and has proved itself the only cure for me.

HUSTLING HAVELOCK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The trial between Hotelkeeper Smith and Cole for assault, resulted in Smith being fined $10 and costs and Cole $5 and costs. Considerable surprise was expressed at the verdict, as Cole did not receive much damage, and what he did get was under great provocation. The row started because Smith refused Cole a drink, considering he already had enough, and then Cole proceeded to "do up" Smith and his family by bad talk. Cole, we understand, was not able to pay the fine, and to keep off the handcuffs his poor old father had to fork out the required sum, as well as some old scores, for this is not by any means Cole's first offence.

A few weeks ago there arrived here a person calling himself Royce, who had only one arm. He was apparently about 50 years of age. He rented Dr. Jeff's old store and very soon boxes of goods began to arrive. He was accompanied by the present occupant of the store, Mr. Hall, who is a respectable young man. About a week after the arrival of the one-armed man, a lady with two or three children stepped off the train and claimed him as her husband and after making diligent enquiries regarding him. She found him and he then took her to a west end hotel and in the evening of the same day took the west train for parts unknown. Now the shoe pinches here, that he took all the money he could lay his hands on and said money he had no claim on whatever and it belonged to Mr. Hall and his mother. He gave himself out, too, as the husband of Hall's mother, a statement which is denied emphatically by the parties concerned. He is evidently a scamp of the first water and it is hoped that he will soon be brought to justice.

On the 1st of April it was reported around town that a man had his feet taken off by the noon train. NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

School Board meeting next Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Knapman, Peterborough, are visiting friends in Norwood.

Miss Clara Sperry of Peterborough spent a few days in Norwood last week.

Mrs. A. Tucker was visiting friends in Toronto last week.

The slumbers of a number of our citizens were disturbed about 4 o'clock on Monday morning by the ringing of the fire bell. It was a false alarm, rung no doubt by some smart Alick who was celebrating All Fool's Day.

The people of the village were shocked Tuesday afternoon to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Thos. Howson. Mrs. Howson was at the residence of her son, Mr. Wm. Howson, and was apparently in good health. Mrs. Wm. Howson drove into the village in the afternoon, and when she returned home she found that her mother-in-law had fainted and fallen on the floor. Mr. Howson was quickly summoned, but Mrs. Howson expired almost immediately.

The regular monthly meeting of the council was held on Monday evening, all the members being present. The minutes of the late meeting were read and signed. The auditors' report in full was received. Moved by Councillor Stuart, seconded by Councillor Drain, that the report be received and adopted, and an order issued for the payment of the auditors.

The following report of the Charity Committee was presented:—

To the Reeve and Councillors:

GENTLEMEN,—We, your committee, appointed at the first meeting of the year 1895, beg leave to report as follows:—

We have supplied to John Ford two and a half cords of wood at $1.40 per cord, $3.75, provisions $7.20; to Mrs. Murray, two and a half cords of wood, $3.75, provisions, $1.60; supper for vagrants, $3.00; order to Mrs. Emery, $2.10.

This is the amount expended by your Committee up to April 1st. We would recommend that John Ford be allowed $1 at Messrs. Tucker & Bro., and Mrs. Murray the same at A. S. Harrison's, after which their allowance be discontinued. You will find the accounts of Messrs. Tucker and Bro. and A. S. Harrison's here annexed. All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. J. STUART, } Committee.
H. REYNOLDS. }

The following accounts were ordered to be paid:

W C Harrison 1st quarter electric light	$144 00
Samuel Scott, wood	2 25
J Jotcham, shovelling snow	65
R Scriver, quarterly salary	12 50
Mrs Minaker, coffin for C Emery	8 00
Hamilton Davis, wood	5 00

Mr. McClelland appeared before the council and addressed them in reference to the Transient Traders' bylaw. He contended that he was not a transient trader and did not come under the bylaw. Although the council did not take this view of the matter, the following resolution was carried. Moved by Councillor Stewart, seconded by Councillor Buck, that Mr. Jos. McClelland has appeared before this council and assured them that he has become a bona fide resident of the village and having leased premises for a term of years, and this council being convinced that such is the case, that the clerk be instructed not to enforce the bylaw.—Carried.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Peterborough Navigation Company, Last Night.

At the annual meeting of the Peterborough Navigation Company, held last evening in the office of Hatton & Wood, the following officers were elected for the year, after a most satisfactory report of last season's business had been presented:—

President—H. Calcutt.
Vice-President—T. E. Bradburn.
Secretary-Treasurer—R. S. Davidson.
Directors—The above officers and Messrs. H. C. Winch, Adam Hall, G. W. Hatton and W. H. Robertson.

Captain Eden will be in command of the City of Peterborough this year, and Mr. Martin has been engaged as purser and passenger agent. The steamer is undergoing a thorough overhauling before the opening of the season. It will be a great convenience to passengers if, as contemplated, the street railway extends its line below the locks this year, as the time lost in going through the locks each way would thus be saved and a quicker transit ensured, more especially when a barge is taken in tow by the steamer.

Suspected of Arson.

Woodville, April 3.—County Constable Crawford, of Lindsay, visited this village last evening and arrested Alexander Carley on suspicion of having been implicated in setting fire to the Royal hotel here on 3rd March. Michael Malone, ex-proprietor of the Queen's hotel here, was also arrested in Cannington by Constable McMillan, as an accomplice. Both prisoners were taken to the county jail at Lindsay.

GOUGH BROS.

Don't hunt for anything wrong in them. There's nothing there. The price has nothing to do with the quality. The man with $2 can command as good a Hat from GOUGH'S as $3.00 can command elsewhere.

Our ONE DOLLAR HAT is in keeping with good quality. Our $1.25 and $1.50 Hats are almost unbelievable—but the bargain is in them—while our $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 Hats are something mystifying for finish, Trimming workmanship and style. PRICE draws, and when hitched up with our popular team—QUALITY and STYLE—makes a force that irressitibly draws into our stores the bulk of Peterborough patronage. WILL BE NO WEAKENING

Ontario Liberals Asked to Take the The Same Stand.

NO DIVISION IN THE CABINET

The Organ of Mr. Greenway's Government Says the Cabinet are Determined to Stand by National Schools—Compromises Will Not be Entertained.

Winnipeg, April 4.—Those who had the idea that because Premier Greenway delayed before making answer to the remedial order he was weakening, will probably find themselves mistaken. The Tribune, which speaks with authority, being the organ of Mr. Greenway's Government, said last night:

"There is not the slightest truth in the report of a division in the Local Cabinet on the school question. Each member is resolute in his determination to stand by the National schools, no matter what the issue may be. To yield any suggestions as to the appointment of a commission, or making a compromise, would, it is considered, be perfectly suicidal, and would never be approved by the public.

"The Government fully recognise that it has a mandate from the people of Manitoba to stand by the Public schools system, and there is no more intention of departing from that mandate than there is of handing over the Government of the province to the Roman Catholics.

"Manitoba counts upon the hearty support of Ontario in the struggle, as Ontario must recognise that if the clergy of Quebec are allowed to force Separate schools on [illegible] blow will be struck at equal rights in Canada from which the country will not recover. It is felt by our Government that the right-thinking people of Canada will never permit the French people of Quebec to have their way in this case and trample provincial rights under their feet.

"While the Government will take the very best advice it can obtain in the case and give due weight to all consideration," still there will be no weakening, and when the time comes it will be seen that the Government will stand resolutely by the National schools."

Editorially The Tribune calls on the Liberals in Ontario to pronounce on the school question, and stand by national schools. It warns them that they are wasting time to suggest compromise, and adds: "Commissions of investigation and all the other proposed compromises need only be mentioned to be dismissed. It is no time for compromises. The national schools must be maintained in their integrity, or the strife that is now raging will be intensified and perpetuated."

The Newfoundland Seal Fishery.

St. Johns, Nfld., April 4.—Steamer Terra Nova arrived from the seal fishery yesterday morning with thirty thousand. She reports some increase in the catch generally. The outlook is good for an aggregate catch of two hundred and fifty thousand. Great hopes are entertained from the visit of Sir Herbert Murray, British Commissioner, who is expected here to-morrow. It is thought the seal fishery will induce the commissioner to take a hopeful view of the situation and induce the Imperial Government to give a loan. Premier Whiteway is much improved.

A SINGLE TAX BILL.

The Thin Edge of the Wedge to Introduce Single Tax Into Canada.

Toronto, April 4.—Dr. McKay threw a political and economical bomb into the Local Legislature yesterday afternoon in the form of a bill to amend the Assessment Act. The members had been rushing through business at a furious rate when the snag was struck. Dr. McKay introduced his simple, innocent measure, which upon its face seemed most unobjectionable. It was not until Mr. Hardy had carefully read it over that the cat came out of the bag. The bill provided that any municipal corporation may change, reduce or abolish the assessment for taxation of all buildings and improvements on real estate, stocks of merchandise, machinery, personalty, securities and income, or may assess for taxation any or all of such classes of property.

Hon. Mr. Hardy said that if the bill passed it would simply provide for a single tax. He did not think the country was prepared to adopt the single tax. That was what the bill meant. The bill was cunningly worded, but that was all it meant. He trusted that the bill would be withdrawn or voted down. If the bill was passed Toronto would be bankrupt in a single year and disaster would follow all over the province.

Mr. Haycock was in favor of the bill. He said that there was a general discontent with reference to the present system of assessment as shown by the numerous amendments to the Act. He thought the municipalities should be free to do as they liked, and if this bill passed they would be able to do so.

Mr. Whitney said that the bill looked innocent enough, but he ventured to say the people of the country did not wish anything of the kind. He had been approached and canvassed by a single taxer to vote for the bill as the thin edge of the wedge by which single tax might be introduced into Canada.

Dr. McKay said that the single tax system was now in operation in Manitoba, British Columbia, and the Northwest Territories. Henry George's name had been used in the discussion as though he were the incarnation of all evil, and that because one of his principles was contained in the bill it should be voted down. He was satisfied with the result and was prepared to withdraw the bill, feeling satisfied that it would be introduced again next session and would then become law. The bill was withdrawn.

Women as Lawyers.

Yesterday was full to surprises. When Mr. Wood moved the second reading of his bill to permit women to not only practice as attorneys but also as barristers, it was received with storms of laughter, which suddenly died out when Sir Oliver Mowat arose and eloquently supported the bill. Mr. Awrey strongly opposed the bill. If, he said, women were made lawyers, why not judges, why not soldiers and members of Parliament?

Mr. Haycock supported the bill. Hon. G. W. Ross made the speech of the evening and supported the bill. Messrs. Whitney and German opposed the bill. The bill received its second reading on a vote of 61 to 27.

Hon. G. W. Ross introduced a Government measure to empower Toronto University to deal with certain Upper Canada College claims.

Mr. Howland introduced a bill to establish a municipal union. This Act provides for the formation of union Councils, at which counties, cities and towns may be represented by the mayor or warden, solicitor, engineer and treasurer.

Agriculture in the Schools.

Mr. Taylor—Is agriculture taught in the Public schools. Are there any limitations upon the study of this subject?

Hon. Mr. Ross said agriculture was not taught in the schools of cities, towns or villages, but that it was an optional subject in country districts.

Toronto Claims Russell Square.

Mr. Howland moved that a select committee be appointed to enquire and report as to the easement claimed by the inhabitants of the city of Toronto in Russell Square in the city of Toronto, with power to send for persons and papers and to examine witnesses upon oath.

After a heated discussion, lasting two hours, the motion was lost.

May Dock Horses.

Mr. Howland moved the second reading of his bill to prevent the docking of horses.

Hon. Mr. Dryden said if the bill passed he would introduce a bill to prevent the cutting of the tails of lambs, also to prevent castration of horses and other animals.

Mr. Howland withdrew the bill.

Members' Passes.

Mr. Haycock at eleven o'clock moved the second reading of his bill to prevent members of the Legislature receiving passes from railways.

The bill was voted down, 74 to 18. Mr. Pardo voted against the bill.

Notes.

It is reported here that a Patron lodge in Mr. Pardo's constituency has declared that he is no longer worthy of their confidence.

In the Private Bills Committee yesterday Mr. Richardson's bill to abolish market fees was thrown out. It was decided that municipalities should be allowed to charge fees when they furnished shelter and warmth.

Dr. McKay, the member for South Oxford, who acted in the capacity of Liberal whip during the last Parliament, and who became so popular with members of both sides of the House while in office, was the recipient of a handsome silver tea set at the hands of the Liberals of the House yesterday. Sir Oliver Mowat made the presentation and spoke in a feeling manner. Messrs. Marter and Willoughby spoke on behalf of the Opposition.

An Act to incorporate the Toronto, Hamilton and Niagara Falls Electric Railway Company and another to incorporate the Hamilton, Valley City and Waterloo Railway Company were passed by the Railway Committee yesterday with certain amendments to bring down within the line of the new Electric Railway Act.

Newfoundland's Delegates Arrive at the Dominion Capital.

THE MOST FAVORABLE TIME

They Have no Offers to Make to the Dominion Government—The Ottawa Board of Trade Expresses Pleasure at the Arrival of the Deputation—To Discuss Terms of Union.

Ottawa, April 4.—Newfoundland delegates arrived yesterday afternoon by the C.P.R. train from Montreal in a special car. They were met at the station by Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir Adolphe Caron and Hon. John Haggart, three of the Canadian delegates, and escorted to the Russell house.

All expressed themselves well pleased at what they have seen and heard since their arrival in the country. Arrangements have been made for a preliminary meeting to-day.

The object of the Newfoundlanders' visit to the capital is to ascertain the most favorable terms the Dominion of Canada is prepared to offer to the ancient colony to secure its admission to confederation.

Asked as to the conditions Newfoundland might propose, Hon. Mr. Emerson, one of the delegates, said he could not say. "We do not know even whether our people are prepared for confederation at all, but the question of throwing in our lot with Canada has long been under discussion, and we, that is the Newfoundland Government, thought that this would be a favorable time to ascertain on just what terms confederation could be arranged. You know some of our monetary institutions have come to grief and many of our people appeared to think that our financial troubles might have been avoided, or at least reduced, if we had been closer associated in a financial way with Canada. While this feeling was abroad we considered it would be the most advantageous time to ascertain what terms Canada was prepared to offer us to enter the Dominion, and if they were satisfactory to submit them to the people, for you know the question of joining the Dominion would have to be submitted to the popular vote. By the way, the question has already been once submitted to the colonial electorate and the plan was then defeated by an overwhelming majority. That was a long while ago, and in 1869, two years after the Act of Confederation was passed. No one can say just how public opinion has changed since then nor what the changes in the terms offered our colony are likely to be."

"You have no offers to make to the Dominion Government then?"

"No, we really have not; but as we compose the majority of the Government, we shall be able pretty well to speak with authority as to the proposed terms as they are brought up for discussion. Of course we know perfectly well that there are certain settled terms laid down in the British North America Act for the admission of the new provinces to the Dominion, but we also know that special terms were made, for instance with Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Manitoba. You know, of course, that peculiar conditions exist in Newfoundland and that many peculiar interests have to be considered."

The first conference between the Government and the delegates will take place this forenoon.

At a special meeting of the Council of the Ottawa Board of Trade this afternoon the following resolution was passed: Moved by W. T. Mason, seconded by Peter Whelan, that the Council of the Board of Trade hereby expresses its pleasure at the arrival of representatives from the people of Newfoundland to discuss terms of union with the Dominion, and welcome them to the Capital, and as a citizens' movement is on foot to entertain the delegates of the Council of the Board heartily endorses the proposal and is confident that the members the Board will co-operate warmly.

The Difficulty Settled.

The difficulty between the doctors and directors of the Protestant hospital has at last been amicably settled. Three of the doctors will retire every three years but will be eligible for re-election.

Captain McNeil Recovering.

New York, April 3.—Capt. Roderick McNeil, of the Nova Scotia barque J. H. Marsters, who was shot by a sailor named William Holspeur on Friday night, was reported at St. Vincent's hospital last night as progressing rapidly towards recovery. Two of the five bullets have been removed, those which took effect in the left shoulder and the right arm. The two which lodged in the head and the one in the right leg may have to remain where they are.

South Australia Will Abolish the Militia.

London, April 4.—The Times correspondent in Melbourne says: South Australia has decided to abolish her militia, thus saving £10,000 annually. The colony will rely in the future for defence on the gun boat Protector, the forts and the artillery and naval brigades. This course is justified while England commands the sea. The only danger is from foreign cruisers.

Fought for Five Hours.

London, April 4.—The Times correspondent in Calcutta says: "The Chitral expedition stormed Malandri Pass on March 3. There was sharp fighting for five hours. The enemy, who were 12,000 strong, lost heavily and ever since have been in full retreat. The British loss was slight. The First Brigade has crossed over into Swat.

THE Mail and Empire remarks:—"If the latter (Mr. Laurier) ever becomes Premier he may, as Mr. Mackenzie did years ago, find it necessary to sit up at night watching the Federal chest." Even that will be better, the Globe patly rejoins, than to sit up at night plundering the Treasury, as from the McGreevy and Lachine bridge revelations would seem to have been the policy since Mr. Mackenzie left office.

THE REMEDIAL ORDER.

(Ottawa Journal.)

Brother Sam Hughes, M. P., of the Lindsay Warder in explaining to his constituency (through the Warder) that the Dominion Government's Remedial order to Manitoba means nothing at all except that the matter is referred to Manitoba for settlement, goes further than most Conservatives who are saying that. He adds that the Dominion Government had better not try to make the order mean anything. He (that is, the Warder) says:

"The parliament of Canada has not yet been called upon to act, and will not likely be called on. Should the question be brought to the arena of Dominion politics there will be no misunderstanding the position of the representatives of the people from this part of Ontario, at all events.

"Manitoba's duty is clear. All so-called "religious instruction" should be abolished from all the schools; and any wrongs re ownership of school properties righted. Then there would be peace.

"But there must be no restoration of Separate schools, not at all events by the Dominion parliament. And there will be none."

Further interest is lent to this stout assertion by a reference by the Warder to Mr. Clarke Wallace's position. Defending the Controller of Customs against an attack by a Toronto paper, the Warder says Mr. Wallace will be all right if the time should come when he is needed:—

"There is no cause yet for his doing aught to sever connection with his colleagues. The Manitoba question may never appear in the federal arena. If it does and when it does Hon. N. Clarke Wallace will be found true to his principles and practices of doing his duty fearlessly and well."

While this sort of talk is going on in Ontario Conservative papers, the Quebec Conservative papers are telling their readers that the Remedial order is the announcement of a definite policy which the Dominion government is fully committed to enforce. Under such circumstances and without the parties or members of Parliament committed to a straightforward and definite course on the Manitoba question, what a farce and confusion a general election previous to a session would be!

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

TORONTO, April 4, 1895.

On large offerings wheat declined 5-8c yesterday at Chicago. Corn lost 1-8c and oats 1-8 to 1-4c in sympathy with wheat Provisions were lower.

There has been such a rapid and sharp advance that the consumpt'on of beef has been checked and dressed beef firms are not taking hold as freely as usual. The supply of hogs was light and an active general demand enabled sellers to dispose of their holdings at an early hour. Competition was good and good lots were advanced 5c per 100 pounds.—Sheep and lambs were active and steadier.

A TORONTO LADY 70 YEARS OLD.

Speaks About Paine's Celery Compound.

TEN YEARS A SUFFERER FROM KIDNEY COMPLAINT, PILES AND HEART DISEASE.

After Many Failures with Doctors the Wonderful Medicine Restores Mrs. Wales to Health.

Mrs. M. J. Wales, of 273 Gerrard Street, Toronto, was wonderfully saved from death by the use of Paine's Celery Compound. For ten years she was a martyr to some of the most dangerous diseases that are now so prevalent in Canada.

Kidney complaint, piles and heart disease were fast dragging Mrs. Wales to the grave. The treatment of physicians, and the medicines usually prescribed for those terrible troubles, were of no avail. Hope was almost gone when Paine's Celery Compound was urgently recommended. The marvellous life-giving medicine was used, and another victory was added to the thousands already won by the medicine that never fails to "make people well."

Mrs. Wales writes as follows:—

"I consider it a duty to tell what Paine's Celery Compound has done for me. I am now seventy years of age, and for ten years have been a sufferer from kidney disease, piles and heart trouble. I had tried everything that doctors could prescribe, but never was relieved until I used Paine's Celery Compound. All pains have left me and I now sleep well—a blessing I had not enjoyed for years.

"No one should be without Paine's Celery Compound when they are weak and sick; there is nothing else as good. If people would always keep a bottle of the Compound near them, we would hear of fewer deaths.

Burned to the Water's Edge.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 4.—The Pittsburg and Cincinnati Packet Company's steamer Iron Queen was destroyed by fire yesterday morning at Racine, Ohio. She was lying at her wharf taking on hop poles when the fire broke out in the engine room. Engineer George Ellis gave the alarm and started the pumps. Water was directed on the blaze, but proved of no avail as the flames spread rapidly. Seeing the fire was beyond control Captain Thomas P. Calhoun ordered the passengers to be brought out. All were got off with safety with the exception of Chambermaid Mrs. Martha Moseley, of Cincinnati, who became frightened and jumped off the railing into the water and was drowned. Her body has not yet been recovered. In three minutes from the time of the first alarm the boat was in flames from bow to stern, and in about fifteen minutes was a total ruin. The vessel burned to the water line. There were fifteen passengers and a crew of 70 people on board when the fire was discovered. The Iron Queen had a large cargo, which was destroyed. The boat was valued at $60,000 and insured for $30,000.

Chicago's New Mayor's Policy.

Chicago, April 4.—Mayor-elect Swift, in the course of an interview as to his plans and policy, said: "National questions were not considered by the electors in the campaign. The first work to be done by the mayor is to rehabilitate the city, financially and physically. It will require great care and the aid of an experienced business man as comptroller to carry on public affairs without endangering the city's credit. The people indicated by the big majority that they want the incompetent and corrupt city hall gang retired from the public service, and I shall try to do it. I have not selected my Cabinet yet." Mr. Swift will probably be inaugurated a week from next Monday.

CORROBORATIVE TESTIMONY.

The Recent Recovery of Mr. G. H Kent, of Ottawa, Discussed in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, April 4—The details of the case of Mr. G. H. Kent, of Ottawa, Canada, have been followed with great interest by a number of our citizens. The lengthy interviews recently published in the Ottawa newspapers have been widely read, not only on account of the very unusual nature of the case, but for the reason that there is a considerable Canadian colony here, more than one among whom is personally acquainted with Mr. Kent and is able to speak highly of his character for truth and probity. There is also many in our community, both Canadians and Americans, who have made personal trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills for various forms of kidney complaints, and claim that everything Mr. Kent said about their efficiency is absolutely true.

Trouble on a Spanish Steamer.

Kingston, Jamaica, April 4.—The British steamer Trent from Boston has arrived at Port Antonio. Captain Hopkins, who commands her, says that when the vessel was off Cape Maysi a Spanish gunboat bore down upon her. He hoisted the British flag and the gunboat fired a shot across the Ethelred's bows. He hove to and the gunboat steamed around without exchanging signals. She then steamed away and the Ethelred proceeded on her voyage.

Washington, April 4.—Commissioner Chamberlain, of the Treasury Bureau of Navigation, says that the Ethelred, reported as having been fired on by the Spanish cruiser off Cape Maysi, Cuba, is practically an American vessel, although she flies the British ensign. She is engaged in the fruit trade and runs between Boston and Cuban ports. The vessel is owned in Boston. No report of the incident has been received either at the State Department or by the Spanish legation.

Tuscany Shaken by Earthquakes.

Rome, April 4.—Tuscany has been shaken by earthquakes several times this week. At Tredisio a dozen houses collapsed. Seven dead bodies have been removed from the ruins and eight persons are missing. At Montepulciano, in Central Italy, roofs were shaken down and three buildings were wrecked. Two persons were killed and ten or twelve were injured. The earthquakes have been accompanied by heavy rains. The Government has sent a specialist to visit the places where the shocks were most violent.

The Mystery Cleared Up.

New York, April 4.—Last night Superintendent Byrnes told the story of murder. The woman was murdered, he said, on Friday night by her paramour, William Cæsar, who was taken into custody yesterday in their rooms, No. 148 West 27th street. On Saturday night Cæsar cut up the body and at 9 o'clock took it on a Sixth avenue car, which runs to Waverly Place. When the car stopped, finding it did not go to the river, he left the body where it was found. It is believed that Cæsar made a confession yesterday.

MILLBROOK

From Our Own Correspondent.

It is with much regret we have to record the death of Mr. Geo. Coombe, which sad event took place on Tuesday afternoon last, at the residence of his father, on Ann street. Deceased young man, who was in his twenty-seventh year, had been ailing a long time and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Coombe was one of the best lacrosse players Millbrook ever produced, although he has not played lately owing to his ill health. In 1892 he played on the home of the Millbrook lacrosse club and the following year he played with the Souris, Man., team, having gone there for that express purpose. The funeral, which took place on Thursday to Gardiner's burying ground, was largely attended.

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's father-in-law, Mr. R. W. Orr, when Miss Polly Orr was united in marriage to Mr. John Pearce, of Scugog Island. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lillian Orr, while Mr. Chas. Reynolds, of Sedgrave, ably assisted the groom. The newly married couple left on the 4.40 train for their home on Scugog Island.

The Keene correspondent of the EXAMINER in replying to a report of the Keene vs. Millbrook hockey match which appeared in a recent issue of the Millbrook Reporter, denies all the charges made against them, and concludes by stating that they are thankful they have enough civilization about them to give a true report of a hockey match. Why then did they report the game to the EXAMINER as 6 to 3 in their favour when the true score was 6 to 4?

Mr. R. VanNorrigh has been confined to his bed for the past week owing to an attack of pleurisy.

Adjured Roman Catholicism.

Quebec, April 4.—A couple of thousand persons were assembled last night around the Baptist Mission in St. Roche, where Desjardins, who was baptised the night before according to Baptist rites, gave his reasons for adjuring Roman Catholicism. All was quiet until the service was over, when a large crowd followed Desjardins home, who was escorted by forty policemen. The crowd began to hoot and jeer, calling Desjardins insulting epithets. Great excitement prevailed, but no important incident occurred. The majority of the crowd were boys.

Hot Fight in Haldimand.

Cayuga, April 4.—The feeling in Haldimand is quite intense over the report that a McCarthyite is to oppose Hon. Dr. Montague. All parties are working like beavers and the excitement is growing daily. It will be the hottest political contest ever known in old Haldimand, the scene of so many political battles.

The Liberal in Vercheres.

Vercheres, Que., April 4.—At the Liberal meeting held at St. Theodore yesterday Mr. C. A. Geoffrion was selected as the Liberal candidate. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Victor, Geoffrion, Choquet and Marcil.

COVERED WITH PIMPLES.

AN ANXIOUS MAN.

The Disease Disappears in Three Weeks by the use of B. B. B.—Letter From Manitoba Describing It.

DEAR SIRS—During the winter of 1893-94, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it, and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B.B.B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say it has never reappeared.

There will be an Initiation at the meeting of Court Lakefield, No. 43, C.O.F., this (Thursday) evening.

The feature of the week was the elegant display of spring millinery at the show rooms of Messrs. R. Graham & Son. The woman of fashion is particular about her head dress, for she knows that a modest or becoming hat or bonnet is essential to her appearance. Here she would have no difficulty in coming to a decision, so deftly have the modistes wrought to entice her fancy. Some of the novelties in the millinery line are very original in design and the latest of these is the "Napoleon" hat which is very pretty and stylish, being designed after the style of head gear worn by the Emperor. The large hats are very much admired and they are profusely ornamented with artificial flowers and other floral ornamentation. The majority of the hats are made out of fancy straw and look pretty and original. Their stock embodies the latest and most artistic ideas in all lines of millinery, while their variety of styles is limited only by the decrees of the season. In the display are the most bewitching of hats and bonnets, in the most approved shapes, and no end of pretty things in trimmings, including ribbons of delicate colouring, flowers that closely counterfeit nature, and an extensive variety of jetted goods. Since the opening of their show rooms they have been thronged with ladies, who have been delighted with the display.

The Sons of Scotland will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday evening, April 9th, instead of Thursday evening, in the Orange Hall.

Messrs. Strickland & Co., are turning out something new in the canoe line, viz., what is called the "Canadian Punt." It is built in the shape of a punt, but of similiar material to canoes, half-round ribs inside and covered outside with longitudinal quarter inch thick strips of basswood, African mahogany light and dark strips, and other fancy woods. These are being made for the English markets. Nearly every week this enterprising firm send a shipment of canoes and fittings to England.

A number of practical jokes were played off here on Monday, everyone taking them in good part.

The Mechanics Institute has secured the famous Indian reciter, Miss Pauline Johnson and Mr. Owen E. Smiley, for a recital in the town hall on Friday evening, April 19th. Miss Johnson is considered the finest elocutionist on the continent, and the selections she gives are of her own composition. Mr. Smiley is a comic vocalist and ventriloquist, as well as an elocutionist of no mean ability. The programme will be a good one, and all should go and hear the celebrated Indian girl, and thereby aid the Mechanics' Institute.

RHEUMATISM SUBDUED.

Mr. William A. Kelsey, Local Manager of the Bell Telephone Co., Burk's Falls, Tells How He Obtained a Cure.

Mr. Wm. A. Kelsey, local manager of the Bell Telephone Co., at Burk's Falls, Ont., is one of the most popular citizens of that town. Mr. Kelsey has been a great sufferer from rheumatism, and relates as follows how he found a cure. He says:—"In 1893 I was attacked and used rheumatic remedies, which were highly recommended, but without avail. In connection with these remedies, I also tried the rubbing process, but never obtained more than temporary relief, and I began to fear that I would not find a cure. In January or February, 1894, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended to me and I decided to give them a trial. I soon began to experience relief and could easily raise my hand to my head, something I had not been able to do without great pain for many months. From this out I improved rapidly, and for more than seven months past have not had a pang of the trouble. I know Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to be very effective, and can highly recommend them.

These pills are a specific for all troubles due to bad or impoverished blood or weakened nerves, and as a spring medicine have no equal, as they rapidly clear the blood of all impurities, give it renewed richness and ward off disease. At this season of the year every one should fortify the system by a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Remember, the genuine pills are sold only in boxes bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." All others are worthless imitations."

The Sweden-Norway Union Not a Success.

Christiania, April 4.—King Oscar has sent a message to Premier Emil Stang refusing to accept the resignation of the Norwegian Ministers to resign, as he does not see any possibility of maintaining a Cabinet otherwise. He explained that the efforts to settle the questions of the union have not been attended with success.

All Hope Abandoned.

Madrid, April 4.—Admiral Beranger, Minister of Marine, told Congress yesterday that the Government had no information which would explain Captain Bonelli's disappearance, although he had ordered an inquiry to ascertain the cause of the disaster.

AN AUTHORESS AT 93 YEARS.

THE CAREER OF MRS. CATHARINE PARR TRAILL.

She Sits in Her Home Beside the Otonabee River and Watches the Changing Canadian Seasons—Her Interest in Natural History.

(Toronto World.)

Mrs. Catharine Parr Traill, the well-known naturalist, was ninety-three years of age on the 9th of January, but in mind and spirit she is younger now than many women are at the age of thirty-nine. In her home beside the Otonabee River in the vicinity of beautiful Lakefield she still delights to watch the changing Canadian seasons and take the same active interest in plants, flowers, birds and insects as she did when she was a young woman. Her niece, Mary Agnes Fitzgibbon, in a biographical sketch, says: "Any one seeing her now in the pretty sitting room, busy with her gay patchwork, stitching away at quilts for the Indian Missionary Auxiliary basket, or putting down the ferns and mosses gathered last summer during her visit to the Island of Minnewawa, and watching the light in her blue eyes, the smile on her soft old face, unwrinkled by a frown, or listening to her clever conversation, sparkling with well-told anecdotes and incidents of men and things garnered during her long life, and retained with a memory that is phenomenal, would realize that the secret of her peaceful old age, her unclouded intellect and the brightness of her eye is due to her trust in Providence, her contentment with her lot, and a firm faith in the future where a happy reunion with the loved ones awaits her." Mrs. Traill is the daughter of Thomas Strickland, and was born in London, England, January 9, 1802. She is now the only survivor of the five famous Strickland sisters, all of whom

WON LITERARY SUCCESS.

Elizabeth and Agnes Strickland were the joint authoresses of "The Lives of the Queens of England," and each was the author of other historical biographies, poetry and other works: Jane Strickland was the author of "Rome, Regal and Republic," and other historical poetry and other works. Jane Strickland was the author of "Rome, Regal and Republican," and other historical works, while Susanna and Catharine, best known to the public as Mrs. Moodie and Mrs. Traill, are famous for their books on Canadian wild life. Catharine Strickland was the first of these clever sisters to attempt literary work, and it was the favour with which the young girl's first stories and sketches were received by the English public that led her older sister to imitate her example. Catharine was married to Mr. Thomas Traill in 1832 and immediately emigrated to Canada with him, being followed soon after by her sister Susanna, whose husband, Mr. Moodie, had been a brother officer of Mr. Traill in the 21st Royal Scotch Fusiliers. Mrs. Traill is the author of "Studies of Plant Life," "Lost in the Backwood," "Afar in the Forest," and a number of other stories and sketches all of which have had a wide scale, some of them running through many editions. Her "Studies of Plant Life in Canada," was published in Ottawa in 1884. She was then in her eighty-fourth year. Her last book, written in her ninety-third year, is entitled "Pearls and Pebbles," and has just been published in Toronto by William Briggs. It is bright and fresh as a May morning and shows that this grand old woman still retains all her faculties and has

THE FULLEST ENJOYMENT OF LIFE.

It is a book full of short sketches about plants, flowers, insects, birds and people, very like John Burroughs' charming essay which have given pleasure to so many people. The following quotation will give some ida of the character of the book:—"Some two years ago a great event happened to a pair of my yellow birds, which ended in a serious disappointment. One warm May morning as my daughter and I sat sewing on the verandah, a little passing puff of wind blew away some snips of the white material that we had been busy with, and carried them among the grass just below the syringa bush, where the foundation of a nest had been laid by the female bird. Her bright eyes quickly caught sight of the scraps of muslin, and down she came from her perch in the bush and carried off the prize to her nest, coming back and diligently picking up

ALL THE SCRAPS SHE COULD SEE.

Noticing that she was so well pleased with this new building material, we added some more scraps and some tufts of cotton wool to the supply. Charmed with her good fortune and grown bolder, the pretty creature ventured nearer to us, and took all the scraps we chose to scatter for her on the grass. The work of building went on so rapidly that in the course of two hours she had constructed a most delicate and dainty-looking nest, and the pair took possession of this novel-looking house with festal song. But, ah, me! their joy was destined to be of but short duration,—

'The best laid schemes of mice and men and in the present case so it proved with our pair of little architects. A heavy thunderstorm came on at noon of the next day. I leave my readers to imagine the result. The fairy-like castle, like all castles in the air, had collapsed, and like the baseless fabric of a vision, left but a wreck behind. However our brave little birdie cried, 'Never say die!' and set to work once more, made wiser by experience, building a more substantial nest in a little bush close by, but with a femine weakness for finery she paid many a visit to the frail ruin, selecting such of the more substantial materials among the rags as she found likely to prove useful in binding the walls of the nest together, but not sufficient to weaken the more suitable articles which she wisely adopted for her work. The new nest was an excellent specimen of skill, and the bits so judiciously woven in this time proved highly ornamental. I fancied the little builder felt proud of her work when it was finished and we gave it unqualified praise."
Gang aft a-gley.'

Consumption—Low Condition

Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt
Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

Said She Was Past All Help

and wanted me to send her to the 'House for Incurables.' But I said as long as I could hold my head up she should not go. We then began to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She is getting strong, walks around, is out doors every day; has no trouble with her throat and no cough, and her heart seems to be all right again. She has a first class appetite. We regard her cure as nothing short of a miracle." W. WYATT, 99 Marion Street, Parkdale, Toronto, Ontario.

THE PLEASURES OF SIN—WHAT ARE THEY?

An Instructive Sermon on the Subject, Last Evening.

Rev. A. J. Reid, rector of Uxbridge, took the service at St. John's church, last evening, and delivered an instructive sermon on "The Pleasures of Sin—What are They?"

In opening, the speaker drew attention to the sacrifice of Moses in giving up the pleasures of sin and casting in his lot with the people of God. He then went on to speak of the motives which impelled him this act. Moses realized that his real parentage had been in Israel, and was animated by the righteousness of God and the rewards offered in God's service.

Mr. Reid then proceeded to apply this fact to the changed conditions of the present day. We, he said, might be animated by the same motives and take the same step. We were called to leave the sins of the world and take our place in the Divine Family in which we had been adopted.

He then proceeded to discuss the question of what were sinful pleasures.

He cautioned all to beware of dogmatizing on this point. Calm consideration of the question was more advisable than sweeping assertions. The Church of England had not branded any of the ordinary enjoyments of life as sinful. The sin lay in unlawful excess and improper surroundings. Thus, claimed the speaker, dancing, smoking and card playing might be innocently enjoyed, and were so by multitudes of people, but smoking might be carried to excess, cardplaying degenerated into gambling, and dancing carried on in such surroundings and under such circumstances as to degrade the past-time infinitely. No condemnation could be too strong for these pleasures when they became thus degenerated.

Even when not carried to excess, every Christian should be master of his enjoyments and not governed by them. The season of Lent was one in which all should take stock of themselves in this particular and by cheerfully giving up their pleasures prove that they were not in bondage to them.

"Lent" was the old Saxon word for "spring." Spring was associated in the mind of every householder with house-cleaning and Lent was the time for the cleansing of the body and soul.

In concluding, Mr. Reid pointed out how much superior to the transitory pleasures of the world were the pleasures to be obtained at God's right hand for evermore by all those who truly served Him and denied themselves for His sake.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES AT GEORGE STREET CHURCH.

Messrs. Moore and Whyte Speak to a Large Congregation.

The closing meeting of the series of evangelistic services was held last evening in the George street Methodist church, and was attended by a congregation the size of which was only limited by the dimensions of the church, many being unable to obtain admission.

Rev. Mr. Moore delivered a timely and impressive discourse on the theme of "Go not Far Away," and Mr. White sang a number of solos with his usual effectiveness.

The series of services just closed have been characterized rather by their intense earnestness than by any sensational features. The result, therefore, has been that while the church membership were not increased to as large an extent through these services as others that have been held, yet those who have signified their intentions of leading better lives have done so in a manner which convinced all of their determination so to do with God's help. Spiritually, therefore, the services have been eminently successful and most satisfactory. Financially, also, the meetings have been most encouraging, the congregations loosening their purse strings and contributing most liberally. Last night, alone, the collection amounted to $75.

The services though discontinued, as conducted by the churches heretofore interested, will be kept up for the remainder of the week under the auspices of the George street church alone. Rev. W. R. Young will return from Kingston this evening to assume charge.

A Young Lady Badly Scared by a Tramp Last Night.

The tramp nuisance in Peterborough has become a plague indeed. The members of the fraternity have become more and more bold in their demands when begging and in cases where they have reason to believe that the men of the house are absent from home, their insolence has risen to a point hardly credible.

Even a worm will turn, however, and the citizens are now pouring in their complaints in a way which has roused the police force to such an extent as to ensure the next batch of tramps a warm time of it if any more visit the town.

As an illustration of the tactics pursued by the tramps, an incident occurring last evening, which might easily have had a most serious termination, might be related.

Miss Grundy, residing at the residence of her brother, Mr. H. Grundy, on the corner of Bethune and Hunter streets, being last evening, answered in person, a knock at the door at about a quarter to nine o'clock.

It was a tramp who had been applying his knuckles to the panels of the door, and he asked for something to eat. Leaving the man standing at the door, Miss Grundy prepared some bread and butter and cold meat, and brought them to him.

Instead of thankfully receiving the charity, the man turned upon Miss Grundy with a snarl of rage, and remarked that he'd take nothing if he was not invited inside.

Miss Grundy is of the opinion that as an accompaniment to his words he struck the lamp which she carried out of her hands with a stick, but of this she is not positive, as the brutal aspect of the tramp and his rough words caused her to instantly faint away. The crash of the falling lamp reached the ears of Mrs. Grundy, who was next door, and hastily returning home she found Miss Grundy in an unconscious condition surrounded by fragments of the broken lamp. The carpet was which providentially did not take fire, the light having been extinguished when the lamp fell.

There was no sign of the tramp about when Mrs. Grundy returned, but the police were instantly made acquainted with the facts of the case. The town was scoured in a search for the offender, and eleven pretty tough looking specimens were gathered in before morning. None of the prisoners, however, could be identified and this morning they were all given five minutes to get out af town.

The man for whom the police were looking very evidently took his departure from Peterborough as hastily as possible, probably leaving on some of the numerous freight trains which are constantly moving in and out. During the evening a few tough characters were noticed at the G. T. R. station, and probably the man wanted was one of a group who were suspected of trying to steal a ride on the blind baggage car of the Port Hope train last night.

BUSINESS BENEFIT TO PETERBOROUGH.

THE WHEELMEN'S MEET ON DOMINION DAY.

A Few Suggestions as to Benefits to be Derived—Loyalty to the Material Interests of the Town.

One essential element in the progress of the town is the existence of a spirit of local loyalty, that is, a spirit that takes a pride in Peterborough and a practical interest in anything that pertains to its progress and prosperity. The material prosperity of the town depends very largely upon rhe volume of

MONEY IN CIRCULATION,

"hard times" being caused, not by lack of money, but by lack of money in circulation. It is obvious that the more money spent in town and the less spent outside the town, the more prosperous we shall be and the more of the money of outsiders we can get spent in the town the better. The policy therefore of attracting visitors to Peterborough on public holidays is the proper one. The improper policy of drifting and allowing the town to be emptied of its citizens and of its ready money (for no one goes abroad without spending money) has obtained too long, and any proposal to so observe a public holiday as to keep the citizens in town, and to attract outsiders is, other things being equal, to be commended. The efforts of the local bicyclists and to bring the annual meet of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association to Peterborough means, in case of success, so much to the town in the way of material benefit that there few to condemn the grant of $400 made by the council for the purpose of assisting in entertaining the thousands of guests the occasion will attract. The meet will last three days—that is, the racing days will be July 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Judging by past meets three thousand wheelmen alone will be here for the three days, not to speak of the thousands of visitors that will be attracted to see the events of the three days' meet. Besides, about a thousand of these bicyclists will be in town for four days. On Saturday, June 29th, there will be two century runs—one from Kingston and one from Toronto—both ending in Peterborough, and it is estimated that these events will attract about a thousand wheelmen, who will remain in town on Wednesday evening. No visitor can stay in town without spending at least $2 per day, and many will spend much more. It needs very little skill at computation to gain an idea of the amount of money that will be placed in circulation during the bicycle meeting. If even the sum of $50,000 is reached it will be a general benefit, for no one person or class will reap all the profit. It is claimed by some that the hotels and boarding and lodging houses will be the chief gainers. But this will not be the case. The hotel keeper must pay the bills of the butcher, the baker, the grocer, etc., and these in turn must pay for their supplies, and the wages of extra employees. Thus to pay the bills of drygoods and other merchants, enabling them in turn to meet their obligations—in a word, there is no computing how many hundreds of dollars will be paid by the first dollar spent in town by a visiting wheelman. It may be thought this is a sordid way of regarding the matter—it is not; it is simply a business way. Times are slow and business quiet, all for lack of money in circulation. And it is much better for business to have seven or eight thousand people in town for three days, each spending a few dollars, than to have two or three thousand of our citizens leave town on Dominion Day, and leave their good money among outsiders.

TILL THE CLOSE OF THE MEET

MARRIED AT THE MANSE.

Celebration of the Cox—Baillie Nuptials last Evening.

Last evening, at half past seven o'clock, a very pleasant event took place at St. Andrew's manse, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Emma Elizabeth Baillie, only daughter of Mrs. Donald Baillie, town, to Mr. John Cox, a successful farmer on the west border of Peterborough.

The important ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. MacWilliams, B. A., of St. Andrew's, in the presence of a few witnesses.

Miss Baillie was for some time a member of St. Andrew's choir and also of Mr. MacWilliam's Bible class.

The happy couple will take up their abode on the farm where their many friends will join in wishing them many happy and prosperous years of wedded life.

CRIMINAL LIBEL CHARGE WITHDRAWN.

AN APOLOGY ACCEPTED BY THE CHIEF.

"Bravery" Publishes a Retraction of his "Defamatory" Statements which Reflected on the Chief of Police's Character.

At the police court this morning Mr. A. P. Poussette appeared for Mr. Andrew McNeil, against whom Chief of Police Russel had preferred the following charge

The said informant says that Andrew McNeil at the town of Peterborough, in the county of Peterborough, on Saturday, the 16th day of March, 1895, unlawfully and maliciously intending to injure and prejudice the said complainant, then holding the office of Chief of Police, of the said town of Peterborough, and intending to deprive him of his office and of his good name and reputation, and to bring him into public contempt and ridicule and disgrace, did publish and cause to be published in the Peterborough Times, a newspaper published in the said town of Peterborough, a false and defamatory libel, in the form of a letter containing divers false and defamatory matters of and concerning the said complainant, which letter is in the words and figures following:—

A LETTER.

Editor of the Times.

A few days ago a telephone message was received at police headquarters asking for protection in a row at the Italian colony. Chief Russel (alone) responded to the call, and to his consternation saw with his own eyes a subject of the canny south brandishing a dagger and placing life and limb in danger. Did he arrest him? Did he have the courage to arrest him? Did he show any disposition to arrest him? Did he try by any persuasion to make the sunny desperado subside into perfect quiet? These are questions I would like answered. In addition he might, while answering the above questions, answer the following:—Why did he not arrest the desperado on the spot? Why did he issue a warrant for his arrest and ask a subordinate to carry it into execution? How does he reconcile the above facts with a sense of duty—a duty which ought at all times to be exhibited with that degree of courage necessary to the true fulfillment of the position of Chief of Police.

Yours sincerely,

"BRAVERY."

Meaning thereby that the said complainant had seen a breach of the peace committed in the said town of Peterborough, and had, as Chief of Police of said town of Peterborough, acted in an unmanly and cowardly manner, and had utterly failed to do his duty as such Chief of Police in respect of such breach of the peace, and was unfit for his said office of Chief of Police, he, the said Andrew McNeil, well knowing the said defamatory libel to be false, contrary to the statute in that behalf.

Mr. Poussette stated that the Chief had consented to withdraw the charge, if ample apology was made for the publishing of the letter in question and the apology appeared in the last issue of the Times.

The Chief stated that he was satisfied with the apology, if it also appeared in the other local papers and the charge was withdrawn.

The apology read as follows:

(Editor of the Times.)

SIR,—Some days ago there appeared in your newspaper a letter over the name of "Bravery," reflecting upon the conduct of the Chief of Police in connection with a row in the Italian quarter. The information on which the letter was based was given to me by parties who I thought were telling the truth, and the matter being one of public interest I considered it proper to ventilate it in the public press, and it was simply in that view, and without the slightest malice to the chief, whom I have never believed to be wanting in courage in the discharge of his duties, that I wrote the letter referred to. I have since been told by a person who was present that the letter complained of does not contain a true account of the information given me, and I learn that there was really no ground for the statements made, which I frankly admit I was too rash in repeating. I am quite satisfied that all the aspersions contained in the letter are utterly without foundation, and I regret very much that I should have written anything so unjust, and I tender the Chief a sincere apology for having cast any stigma upon him.

Yours, etc.,

ANDREW MCNEIL.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH.

An Earnest and Impressive Sermon Delivered Last Night.

The Rev. C. H. Marsh, of Lindsay, was the special preacher in St. Luke's church last night. Mr. Marsh is well known as an earnest and impressive speaker, and his address was listened to with much attention.

Speaking from Exodus 3, 12—"Certainly I will be with thee," he said that the task to which Moses was called was one of peculiar difficulty. He had been living as a single shepherd for the past forty years, and now was called to demand the liberation of the slaves of the most highly civilized and most potent king then reigning. Well might he say, "Who am I that I should go unto Pharah, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt' But he was reminded that he had not to go in his own strength alone, but that certainly God would be with him. God sent him, therefore he need fear nothing. The promise was fulfilled and the work of Moses successfully accomplished. Hundreds of years have rolled away, but still it is true that God calls us to work for Him, and promises His support in the conflict with sin. Still, too, it is true that we fear to undertake it, forgetting His promise to be with us. From the slavery of sin to the freedom of His service we are called. And we fear because we are asked to give up evil habits, dishonest practices, bad companions. Certainly in our own strength we cannot break the chains of our sins, but if we simply and confidently trust in the promises of God He will support us, and give us the victory.

On Friday at 8 p.m. the Rev. G. Warren, of Lakefield, will give his third address, entitled "The Consolations of God through Christ."

DISCOVERED A VEIN OF NATURAL GAS?

The Farmers of Smith in a Fever of Curiosity.

Mr. James Telford, who is digging a well for Mr. Anderson Irvine, of Smith, on the old target grounds, received a surprise yesterday which was somewhat of a stunner and calculated to try the nerves of any man.

Mr. Telford was busily engaged in the prosecution of his work in the bottom of the twenty feet well and had delved down through four feet of hardpan, when his pick axe suddenly went into space, seemingly. Thinking he had struck on the short route to China, and not wishing to take the trip unprepared, Mr. Telford scrambled up out of the well in a hurry, his speed being considerably accelerated by the fact that a rumbling, as of a distant freight train, ascended from the bottom of the excavation.

A moment later and a strong odor of gas filled the air, and a stream of water shot up fully a foot above the top of the well. The flow continued about an hour, and the well was partially filled with the fluid, which is slowly subsiding. The greatest curiosity is awakened in the neighbourhood through the strange circumstance and the opinion is freely expressed that a vein or pocket of natural gas has been struck in the township.

It will do wonders for you if you require building up and fattening, but you must begin in time and take it regularly, as you do your meals.

CHILDREN like it better than any other. Its potency has created an active local demand, and a constant request from other cities and towns of Canada.

WEARS LI HUNG CHANG

THE THREE-EYED PEACOCK PLUME AND YELLOW JACKET.

Chinese Nobility, From Emperor to Petty Counts—How Li Hung Became a Duke—A Million Dollars' Worth of Birthday Presents—Honors After Death.

Li Hung Chang has been given back his yellow jacket and his three-eyed peacock-feather.

As to the yellow jacket, this is only to be used when the man who has it is in personal attendance upon the emperor in the field or upon journeys. It is a sort of a riding coat, and it has been awarded to two Europeans, one of whom was Gen. Gordon and the other a Frenchman named Giquel, who established the arsenal at Foo Chow. Li Hung Chang has been getting all sorts of presents from the emperor all along. I have before me a list of the gifts which he received on his 70th birthday. This was about five years ago, and all the officials gave him presents. He had cartloads of silk, a ton or so of gilt scrolls and jewelry and other stuff valued at more than a million of dollars. Both the emperor and Empress dowager sent him valuable presents. The emperor gave him sixteen pieces of costly satin, one dragon robe, an image of Buddha, and a lot of autograph proverbs signifying good wishes and good luck. The empress also wrote him a lot of autographs, and gave him a statue of Buddha. She donated him twelve pieces of satin and a robe which was made of the throat skins of sables, which are in China considered the most valuable of all furs and can only be worn by the special permission of the throne. At another time the emperor gave Li Hung Chang $10,000, and he has already received more honors than any other Chinaman who has not noble blood in his veins.

Li has risen in rank as well as in power. He is now an earl and when I saw him last summer at a banquet in his palace his head was decorated with a cap out of the back of which stuck his three-eyed peacock feather, says Frank Carpenter. This last is even a greater distinction than the yellow jacket. It is one of the greatest things an emperor can give, and is usually conferred only upon princes and nobles of the highest degree. The feather was about two feet long and was fastened to a big cap with a turned-up brim by a great button, which rested on the centre of the crown of the hat, and which was also a mark of high rank. The feather stuck out behind the hat and quivered as Li Hung Chang put his yellow fists together and bowed low in saluting his guests. There were other peacock feathers upon some of the high officials among the guests, but Li Hung Chang was the only one who had a three-eyed peacock feather. The double-eyed peacock feather is a much lower honor, and the single-eyed peacock feather is worn by many ordinary officials, and it is possible to buy the right to use it. Even lower than that is what is known as the blue plume or the crow feather. This is conferred as a reward for services upon officials below the sixth degree of rank, and is worn by the Imperial Guards.

Li Hung Chang is a diplomat, as well as a statesman, and he worked his way up from one position to another until he got to be commander-in-chief. He took Chinese Gordon into his confidence and made him one of his generals. Gordon drilled the Chinese according to foreign tactics, and together they vanquished the rebels. The result was that Li became the greatest man in China. He was given one big office after another until he became only second to the emperor. This is the position which he holds to-day. He is superintendent of the northern trade, and controls the commercial matters of all North China, numbering more than 170,000,000 of people. He is the governor-general of the province of Chili, and is practically the Secretary of State. He has for years been the chief medium of communication between the Chinese and foreign nations, and he is the most progressive Chinaman in the empire. It was he who introduced the telegraph into China, and the wires that run into his palace at Tientsin connect him with every court of Europe and with every part of the United States. He is said to be a very rich man, and his income ranges between $80,000 and $100,000 per year. No one knows how much he has made outside of his offices. I heard it said in Tientsin that he was worth $80,000,000, and on the other hand his friends claim that he is not worth more than $8,000,000 or $5,000,000. Whatever he has must come from his own idea of his share of the receipts, for the Chinese Government pays small salaries and expects the officials to steal the balance.

Few people have any idea of the nobility of China. The country is divided up among the officials and it is generally supposed that offices are only given on account of literary merit. The truth is that the best places are given out through influence, and every Chinese state is surrounded by intrigues and intriguers. There is no court in the world about which there is so much plotting about as that of Peking, and there is none which has so many nobles and officials of different rank. The emperor is, of course, at the top. He is the son of heaven, and is supposed to hold communion with the gods. All of his relatives are nobles, and the imperial clan has a court of its own, which holds secret meetings and regulates matters concerning the family. There is a genealogical record kept in Peking and at Mukden, and this contains a record of all the branches of the emperor's family. Each of its members has an allowance from the government, but they have not a great deal of power. The emperor is supposed to be supreme, and he can appoint his own successor, choosing which of his children shall succeed him. He is supposed to make this selection in secret and the announcement of his choice is not to be made until his death. The present emperor has a number of relatives who are known as princes, and among these are Prince Ching who is now at the head of the bureau of foreign affairs and who is said to be somewhat progressive in his tendencies. These princes have their own rank, and there are twelve different orders of nobility among the members of the imperial household. The highest princes get about $18,000 a year, and they each have a retinue of 300 servants and an allowance of rations, so that it costs the government about $75,000 a year apiece for them. These highest princes are the brothers or sons of the emperor. Next to them are his majesty's cousins, who get about $45,000 a year, and the other relatives get less, until the lowest of the imperial family are paid about $4 a month and rations. In addition to these there are dukes, counts, barons and marquises, which ranks are conferred by the emperor, and not a few of which are sold. The Manchus or Tartars have a nobility and the different ranks are conferred upon the Chinese as well as the Tartars. The empress must be a pure Tartar and all the ladies of the imperial harem are of Manchu blood. It is not necessary that they be of royal blood, and a pretty Tartar girl, even though her father be a ploughman, has a chance of getting into the palace. The mother of the Emperor Hienfung was a keeper of a fruit store. She was very beautiful, and one day the prime minister saw her and took her into the palace. She was taken up by the emperor and made his favorite concubine, and in due time became mother of the succeeding emperor.

The Death of Nelson.

It may be of interest, in connection with the Nelson bazaar, to quote a passage from the memoirs of Robert Guillemard, who was posted in the shrouds of the Redoubtable during the battle of Trafalgar: "Near the stern of the Victory was an officer decorated with decorations and having only one arm. From what I had heard of Nelson I felt no doubt that it was he. He was surrounded by several officers, to whom he appeared to be giving orders. At the moment of my perceiving him several sailors fell near him, struck by the shots from the Redoubtable. Receiving no orders to descend, but seeing myself forgotten in the shrouds, I thought myself bound to fire at the deck of the English vessel, which I saw unprotected and very near me. I might even have aimed at the individuals, but I fired in succession on the different groups formed by the sailors and their officers. "Suddenly I noticed a commotion on the Victory. People hurried round the officer whom I believed I had recognized as Nelson. He had fallen, and was being carried away wrapped in a cloak. His star at that moment showed me that I was not mistaken, but that it was really the English Admiral. A moment later the Victory ceased firing, the deck was deserted by all who had been stationed there, and I presumed that the consternation caused by the Admiral's fall was the cause of this sudden inactivity." Guillemard, on learning that Nelson had died from a shot entering the shoulder and passing through the spine, was confirmed in the belief that in this, his first engagement, he had killed the dreaded English Admiral.—Paris Correspondence London Times.

Glory at Cost Price.

Marshal Lefevre, created Duke of Dantzic by Napoleon the First for his services in battle, was called upon one day by an old comrade who had not succeeded in the world. He seemed very envious of his friend's riches and beautiful house and made unkind remarks about them to the marshal. "Well, now," said Lefevre at last, "you shall have it all, but at cost price. We will go down into the garden; I will fire at you sixty times; and then, if you are not killed, everything shall be yours."

STRICKEN WITH A PARTIAL PARALYSIS

This Was the Case with Miss Minnie Stevens, of London, Ont.

The Parents Had Lost Hope of Her Recovery, But Even After Her Arm, Side and Leg Had Become Powerless South American Nervine Effected a Cure—To-day This Young Lady, Daughter of F. A. Stevens, of the Stevens Manufacturing Company, Enjoys Perfect Health.

MISS MINNIE STEVENS, LONDON, ONT.

Men and women in the exercise of physical or mental power can usually go a certain length, but a step beyond this proves too severe a test. It is the same in the field of medicine. If the case is not a trying one some simple remedy will cure, but it is when a medicine proves efficacious in an aggravated and extraordinary case that its real power is tested. South American Nervine has made some wonderful cures in cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, debility and nervous prostration, not to name other troubles. When nervousness, however, takes hold of the system to that extent that it becomes paralyzed and the limbs lose their natural power, then it is that the patient and her friends may indeed commence to lose heart. Miss Minnie Stevens, a fair daughter of London, Ont., had undergone this trying experience. She had been troubled with nervousness. The trouble grew and after a time assumed such shape that she could not lift or even hold anything in her hand. This member, in fact, was useless to her. The trouble spread down the side and partially into one leg. Her face began to twitch. In truth, all the indications of paralysis creeping over the system were manifest. Do we wonder that her parents lost hope of her recovery? They saw the fatal disease rapidly twining itself around their beautiful child. Surrounded with every comfort and possessing the means as well as the will to do everything that was in their power to provide relief, yet, apparently, this could not be obtained, until influenced by the statements of the wonderful cures effected by South American Nervine in cases of nervous prostration, the parents finally decided to try this medicine. After using twelve bottles their daughter became perfectly well, and to-day in the Forest City there is no young girl more healthy than Minnie Stevens, and her father, Mr. F. A. Stevens, of the Stevens Manufacturing Company, is indeed a happy man. The statement cannot be made in too positive and distinct terms that this great discovery is capable of marvelous demonstration in all nervous troubles.

The testimony that comes to the proprietor of Nervine shows that it has absolutely cured in the case of the young, as here cited, and those who have nearly reached, or gone beyond, the three score years and ten have likewise found a cure in this medicine.

AN INTERPROVINCIAL BRIDGE.

Ottawa Citizens will Urge the Ontario Government to Pass the Scheme.

Ottawa, April 3.—Hon. E. H. Bronson, had a conference yesterday morning with leading citizens in reference to the inter-provincial bridge, which is intended to cross the Ottawa river between this city and Hull. The object of the meeting was to discuss the best means to push the inter-provincial bridge scheme. Ex-Mayor McDougal and others spoke strongly in favor of the bridge being bonused by the Ontario Government.

Hon. Mr. Bronson expressed his continued hearty sympathy with the project and said that the city could count on his doing his utmost to secure a grant from Ontario. He suggested that in addition to the petition the city council had addressed to the Ontario Government on the matter, a deputation should be sent to Toronto. In this connection he said he had made an appointment with the Ontario Ministry for the deputation for to-morrow afternoon.

At a meeting of the city council last night, a delegation was appointed to go to Toronto. There will also be deputations from the Board of Trade and the citizens.

THE COLUMBUS CHILD MURDER.

Mrs. Williams Describes her Domestic Troubles.

Columbus, Ohio, April 3.—Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, who killed her two children at the Park hotel on Monday, was examined by Coroner Harbst yesterday. She was perfectly calm and showed no signs of insanity, relating the story of her domestic troubles, the disregard of her husband for her and the children, her conclusion to end her misery and theirs by murder and suicide, and how she partially carried the plan into effect.

A letter found at the house in Grove City and addressed to her husband was shown to her by the coroner. Though it was not signed, she admitted that she wrote it. It was a long letter and in it she upbraided him for his cruelty to his family. She said he had never cared for anything but his own pleasure and comfort and that he would have that at any cost.

She announced in the letter her determination to kill her children and commit suicide.

He is putting up chutes of the latest pattern and will soon be in shape to coal boats either by barrows or chutes with the greatest possible despatch.

S. S. Carmona Sold.

Toronto, April 3.—Yesterday the steamer Carmona was sold by Messrs. Smith & Keighley to Mr. Brown, of Port Arthur, for $15,000. As soon as the ice leaves the bay she will be taken to the dry dock at Kingston and thoroughly overhauled, after which she will be placed on the route between the Soo and Windsor.

Hon. Mr. Hackett Banqueted.

Quebec, April 3.—Hon. M. F. Hackett arrived in town yesterday and was given a grand reception by the members of the Cabinet and friends of the Conservative party. Last night he was presented with an address from the Cartier-Macdonald Club, to which he responded with much feeling and eloquence.

A Writer's Trials.

"The man who writes," remarked a young fellow who has done a good deal of work for newspapers and periodicals, "has grief the great world wots not of."

"For instance?" inquired his listener.

"In respect to several things," he went on wearily. "If I happen to write a verse in an album for some of my autograph friends, the first thing they ask is 'Is that original?' when at the very time they can read their own names on it or a description of themselves. Then again if I send anything to anybody—it doesn't make any difference what it is—that person gets the idea somehow that I wrote it, and the first question is, "Did you write it?" Sometimes I send my own things, and then the question is not so inappropriate, but when I send something by some great writer, and the same old question comes to me, I want to rise up and hit somebody over the head. By jove," he concluded, striding up and down the room, "do you know that last week I gave a handsomely printed copy of 'Beautiful Snow' to an acquaintance, and as sure as you are alive she looked over it a moment and exclaimed: 'Oh, isn't it charming? Did you write it?' Now what do you think of that sort of thing?" and the rising genius kicked an ottoman quite over the goal.—Detroit Free Press.

What John Wanamaker, the Most Heavily Insured man in America, Says:

(INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WANAMAKER.)

It is very generally known that Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries the largest amount of Life Insurance of any man in the United States. A representative of the press recently interviewed this gentleman while he was travelling with the Presidential party, and this interview will be found, we believe, of general interest:—

"You are said to be the most heavily insured man in the country, Mr. Wanamaker," remarked the press representative.

"How did you come to think of that?" he said with a smile. "You are not looking for any disaster under such excellent management as our friend Boyd is giving this train and party?"

"No," I replied. "A newspaper friend in San Francisco, who had heard the report, wanted me to ask you it it was true, and if so, what your business reasons are for it?"

"Well," he modestly answered, "I have heard it stated that I am the most heavily insured man in the country. I don't know about that. The amount of my policies is $1,550,000, and the value, with the accumulations since the policies were taken out, is about two millions of dollars."

"In what class of companies are your policies?"

"They are all in stock and mutual companies, and none of them in what are known as assessment or instalment companies."

"Are they full life term policies or on what is termed the 'tontine' plan?"

"I have generally taken ten and fifteen payment policies and very few life policies. With about all good companies a contract can now be made whereby there is no risk of losing a policy after two years' premiums have been paid. If the party insured chooses to withdraw he can get a paid-up policy. Indeed, I understand that some companies have forms whereby the insurer can after one year, if desired, withdraw and receive a paid-up policy. There is practically little risk, any more, in insuring in the old companies."

"Perhaps you would be willing to tell me how you came to insure so heavily?"

"I thought the matter out, and convinced myself that it was a good business venture. Besides, it seemed to me that I might, perhaps, give away more money in lifetime if there was a fixed certainty of putting it back into my estate by Life Insurance. I conceive that the best way for a man to carry on benevolence is not to leave it to be done through his will, but to do it in his lifetime, and I felt that Life Insurance would give me more freedom in carrying out some plans I have, and which I would be glad to see completed before I leave this world. If you want to ascertain what the circumstances were in placing the Life Insurance, I must go further in my answers and say that I should not have gone so far in my Life Insurance but for the skill of the agent who tackled me to insure to a greater extent than I would otherwise have done. He was an old friend who had been in mercantile business and who knew how to present Life Insurance without boring me. I feel to-day sincerely grateful to the man who followed me so discreetly with information about companies, and who kept the subject before me until I settled the question."

"When did you begin taking Life Insurance policies?"

"My first policy was taken when I was twenty-one."

"Do you consider it a good thing for a man of small means?"

"I certainly do. Most young men spend more for cigars during the year than the annual cost of a $2,500 policy in a good company. If they must have the cigars they might divide between cigars and Life Insurance and carry at least a $1,000 policy. I think every young man, before he is married, ought to try to get at least a $1,000 policy."

"Among how many companies are your policies divided, and where are they located?"

"About forty companies. Most of them are located in the East. A few are in the West and a few in Canada."

"Do you recommend Life Insurance to others, especially those in whom you feel a personal interest?"

"I can perhaps answer that best by saying that I presented a few years ago a $1,000 policy, paid up for one year, to every insurable head of family in my employ. Many of the prudent men who received them not only kept them but added to them, and I have the satisfaction of knowing that in not a few cases those policies have been the means of saving worthy families from want."

It will doubtless be of interest to our readers to know that John Wanamaker carries a large policy in the Canada Life Insurance Company, thus evincing his confidence in the soundness of Canada's oldest and largest Company. During the last few years quite a number of American capitalists have been convinced of the SUPERIOR MERITS OF THE CANADA LIFE, and have accordingly placed their insurance therein, in preference to any other company.

The Canada Life is now being recognized in the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio as the Company that gives the best results for the least premium.

CANADA'S GOOD WILL.

Newfoundland Delegates will be Asked to Accept a Banquet.

Ottawa, April 3.—At Mayor Borthwick's instance a number of citizens met in the office at the city Hall yesterday to discuss what could be done to show the good will of the capital to the expected Newfoundland visitors. There were present besides his Worship, Ald. Greene, Ald. Stewart, Ald. Payment, Ald. Starrs, Ald. Wallace, City Solicitor MacTavish, J. W. McRae, Wm. Hutchinson, P. D. Ross and others.

The Mayor said that they would not conflict with the Government, as the Premier had told him they had no programme laid out, although they of course intended to entertain the delegates. Sir Mackenzie Bowell also said he hoped the citizens of Ottawa would decide to do something; in fact the Government would take it as a compliment if the citizens did, as tending to show Canadian good will.

After a brief discussion the meeting decided that the delegates from Newfoundland be waited on after their arrival and asked to accept a banquet from the citizens of Ottawa.

Cordially Received in Montreal.

Montreal, April 3.—Hon. R. Bond, Colonial Secretary; George H. Emerson, of the Executive Council; Hon. W. H. Harwood and Hon. E. P. Morris, who comprise the delegation from the Government of Newfoundland to Canada to ascertain terms of confederation, were in the city yesterday, and left for Ottawa this morning to meet the Ministers. They were given a most cordial reception here and it is expected a banquet will be given in their honor before their return home.

Defrauded the Fisheries.

Ottawa, April 3.—Mr. A. P. Sherwood, Commissioner of Dominion Police, returned yesterday morning from London. While there Mr. Sherwood, for the Department of Justice, had a man named John Jackson, fisheries officer for the Midland district, arrested on a charge of defrauding the Department of Marine and Fisheries of some $600. These were monies paid to him, and not accounted for to the department. The man is in jail awaiting trial.

Local Sittings of the High Court.

London, Ont., April 3.—The Advertiser says: "The local sittings of the High Court of Justice, provided for by the Act of the Legislature last session, are not conducted as satisfactory as was expected. There is a general complaint among the legal profession in London and Western Ontario that the High Court judges, instead of arranging that one of their number should come to London once a week to hold sittings, have begun to delegate the work to the county judge. We are informed that a distinct indisposition has been shown by the bar generally to have the western sittings of the High Court of Justice thus shorn of their importance, and this is evidenced by the refusal of the lawyers to go on with important cases when the County Court judge is named as the presiding officer. A remedy should be demanded, or the benefits arising from this most important reform in the administration of justice will be greatly curtailed."

Thurston Refuses to Talk.

San Francisco, April 3.—Lorin A. Thurston, the Hawaiian Minister, arrived here yesterday, en route to Honolulu, and will sail next Saturday. He said he could not with propriety discuss his relations with this Government. As to his future movements he would be unable to speak until he reached home.

On Saturday the British steamship Alvah collided off Messina with the British ship Brinkburn, which was carrying French officers and ammunition to Madagascar. The Alvah was stranded and probably will be a total loss. The Brinkburn was damaged so badly that she must seek refuge at Messina. There was no loss of life.

The old territorial court house at Regina was burned to the ground on Monday, and the Government law library and the judges' library were destroyed with all the valuable papers and records. All the files in the land office are also gone. The pecuniary loss will be about $25,000.

Mr. F. Desjardins, who was condemned last fall in the Criminal Court at Quebec for selling immoral books to six months imprisonment, was baptized with his sister, according to Baptist rites, at the Baptist Mission on Tuesday night. Fifty police were on guard at the mission, and thousands of sight-seers crowded about the place. All was quiet. On returning home Desjardins was jeered by some youths, but everything was orderly.

WORST KIND OF DYSPEPSIA.

GENTLEMEN,—I write to inform you that for years I had been troubled with Dyspepsia and having tried other medicines which entirely failed, I at last found relief and cure in Burdock Blood Bitters, of which I took two bottles, the result being a perfect cure. Although only a young lad I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for four or five years, but I can say now that B. B. There Was a Deficit in Almost Every Branch of the Service.

STEAMSHIP LINE EXCEPTED

A Lively Discussion on the Report—Working Expenses Said to be Too High—The Old Board of Directors Re-Elected—H.B. Railway Bonus.

Montreal, April 4.—Of the $4,000,000 special cash deposit arranged for in 1892 to meet any possible deficiency in the earnings applicable to dividends of the Canadian Pacific railway, only $1,000,000 is left. This was shown at the annual meeting held yesterday. Thanks to this arrangement, however, the company for the present has no floating debt.

It was also admitted by Sir William Van Horne that the payment of the half-yearly dividend last August was an unwise move, but the excuse was that no one could have foreseen what was going to happen so shortly after. Both Sir William and Sir Donald Smith, however, indignantly denied that either of the directors had used their inside information to sell out stock.

"If I had done so," Sir Donald said, "I would have saved $600,000, but I preferred to hang on and take my chances like other shareholders." He had the utmost confidence in the company and its future, and he thought that as it was its position was fortunate as compared with many roads in the United States which were in the hands of receivers.

The unexpected losses last year were heavy; $550,000 was lost by the floods in British Columbia, to be applied for new construction, and the depreciation in value of the land bonds alone amounted to $656,618.82, notwithstanding the temporary paralysis of the earning power of the two newly acquired roads, the Minneapolis, St. Paul, and the Duluth and South Shore, it is hoped that they will prove a good investment, but the former will need some help. There was a deficit in the net profits of almost every branch of the service, excepting the Pacific Steamship Line, which shows an increase of $90,467.

The financial statement shows a deficit for the year of $[illegible].731.82, but, thanks to the amount of surplus earnings at the end of 1893, which was $7,361,218.14, there still can be shown a surplus earning on the balance sheet of $2,789,722.53.

The gross earnings are $18,789,167.71, the gross working expenses $12,396,858.63, leaving $6,423,329.08 for the net earnings.

A lively discussion took place on the motion to adopt the annual report. Mr. John Morrison, one of the stockholders, condemned the working expenses as too high. The shareholders could not expect to secure any dividends if the earnings were all put into working expenses. He did not believe in a highly paid executive; in fact the work which the heads of the company did could be done, he believed, by men upon salaries of $500 and $1,000 a year. In any case the president and vice-president should have so much stock in the company that they would be willing to work for nothing. Mr. Morrison suggested that they should change half the capital into four per cent. debenture stock, which would give the shareholders a dividend.

Mr. Donald MacMaster, Q.C., asked to what extent the reserve of four millions had been henched upon.

Sir William Van Horne replied that it had been drawn upon to pay interest upon the large bonds and other maturing discharges, but that there was still two millions of cash available.

Mr. MacMaster severely criticized this action, holding that the deposit had by resolution been for the express purpose of paying a regular five per cent. dividend upon the ordinary stock and now it was admitted that most of the four millions had been used for other purposes.

Mr. MacMaster in strong terms attacked the system of financing, and said that while the president was no doubt a very good railway man, he had proved a bad financier.

Sir William Van Horne said that the decrease in earnings had made it necessary to draw on the reserve. The directors might have made mistakes but they acted for what they thought was in the interests of the company.

The report was then adopted.

After the adoption of the report the old board of directors was re-elected. They are Sir Donald A. Smith, Sir W. C. Van Horne, T. G. Shaughnessy, R. B. Angus, E. B. Osler, Sandford Fleming, Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick, General Sam Thomas and George R. Harris. At a meeting of the Board subsequently held, Sir W. C. VanHorne was re-elected president and Mr. T. G. Shaughnessy vice-president. The following were appointed the Executive Committee:—Sir W. C. VanHorne, Sir D. A. Smith, T. G. Shaughnessy, R. B. Angus, Richard J. Cross, Wilmot Matthews, Hon. Donald MacInnes, Thos. Skinner, John W. Mackay.

The list of shareholders shows that the directors hold shares of the company's stock as follows:—Sir D. A. Smith, 10,000 shares; Sir W. C. VanHorne, 1,500; Mr. T. G. Shaughnessy, 255; R. B. Angus, 2,000; E. B. Osler, 500; Sandford Fleming, 2,000; Lieut.-Governor Kirkpatrick, 250; Geo. Harris, 200; Hon. D. MacInnes, 250; Thos. Skinner, 530; John W. McKay, 500.

The H. B. Railway Bonus.

It is understood that the directors have passed a resolution in the shape of a protest against the Government of Canada giving the bonus proposed, and already ratified by the Privy Council, to the Hudson Bay railway project.

They contend that the line, if ever built, will divert traffic from them, that nearly [illegible] miles of road parallels their road west of Winnipeg, and that the road is not required.

It is also stated that if the Hudson Bay road is aided the C. P. R. will ask for an additional allowance on account of transportation of mails to different parts of the country, so that besides the other questions, there will be a railway question before the members at the coming session.

THE WHEEL.

In answer to an enquirer, Chairman Gideon, of the L.A.W. Racing Board, places the following clear interpretation upon certain phases of the working of the amateur rule:

First—If a racing man sells a wheel won as a prize, no matter when won, he is a professional.

Second—If a racing man changes a prize for other merchandise and sells the merchandise, he is a professional.

Third—Proof that a racing man offered to sell a prize for cash cannot be considered sufficient evidence for the charges, as he may not have succeeded in selling it. If, at the same time, it can be shown that the prize is not in his possession, it is certainly a good circumstantial case.

Fourth—A record of a class A rider paced by a class B would not be allowed unless it can be proved that the class A man did not know that his pacemaker was in class B. The rule is knowingly competing.

Fifth—Any rider could not join a team, go for records, as in question four, and declare himself in B, expecting to get the record accepted, as he would have full knowledge of the class of his pacemaker.

Sixth—In transferring men employed in the trade, it will only be done in the event of such men using their connection with the trade to further their interests on the track. For instance, if they give unusual amount of time away to training, or if they are presumed to be getting a larger salary than the work would warrant, they would be transferred without further explanation.

Should the next holders of the C. W. A. presidency and vice-presidency each be a gentleman who writes M.D. after his name says the Mail and Empire, the general public must not jump at the conclusion that both have been elected to office for professional reasons. That there may be two doctors in high office is within the range of possibility. The only candidates at present in sight for the vice-presidency are Dr. Balfour, president of the London Bicycle Club, and C. W. Wells, of Waterloo. The former has many warm supporters in the West, and his friends are making a strong canvass on his behalf. Other candidates mentioned in this connection are W. B. Clark, jr., of Sarnia, and G. J. Hopkins, of Peterborough, but it is understood that neither of these gentlemen will consent to a nomination.

BILLIARDS.

The Cobourg Sentinel-Star says:—"Last Wednesday a Peterborough man struck town, and seemed terribly anxious to arrange a game of billiards with Billy Jakes, the ex-champion. He was soon accommodated and the matter was arranged, but when the time to play arrived, the stranger and his "stuff" did not show up. He is likely a great deal richer by not having done so.

Those Who Work Hard!

Are you a man that works for a living—a man that gets up at 5 a.m. and builds the fire, and then goes out and builds a house?

Are you a Printer, a Painter or a Factory Hand? Are you a Mason, a Bricklayer or a Plasterer? Are you a Moulder, a Machinest or a Blacksmith? Are you a Drover, a Butcher, a Baker or a Lock maker? We carry just the sort you want. Clothing for the working classes—clothing for your particular sort of work—clothing "Built on Honour."—clothing made to wear!

We carry Stout Tweeds (all wool) and Serge Suits that you can bank on every time at $5, that you can't match elsewhere at $7.50. See them—don't take our word for it.

Uses of Beef.

In an interview a large foreign shipper of dressed beef makes a statement which is not entirely in accordance with the facts. This meat exporter, who sends weekly to England thousands of carcasses, explains the fact that the choice cuts of beef may be purchased abroad at a lower price than with us by saying that here every one demands the choice portions, and consequently three-fourths of the animal must be sold at actual cost or even below it. All the butcher's profit must therefore come from the remaining one fourth. In England, on the other hand, every part of the beef is in demand and sells at a good price, which enables the choice cuts to be disposed of at a lower price than with us. His explanation of this is that the English understand far better than we do how to cook in a tempting way even the rough meat. While this explanation would twenty years ago have been plausible, it is not so at the present time. The demand in this country for every part of a dressed beef is as great as in any other nation. This has come about through the large accession to our population of people of the Latin race, who have a thorough knowledge of how to utilize even the most indifferent portions of a slaughtered animal. The reason why foreigners are able to purchase our beef at a less price than ourselves is that they do not have to contribute to the profits of jobbers or middlemen. While the prices of all other commodities have fallen largely, that of meat remains at a maximum figure.

Some Schoolboy Answers.

Here are some schoolboy answers to examination questions: "A point," wrote one boy, "is that which will not appear any bigger, even if you get a magnifying glass." "Two straight lines cannot inclose a space unless they are crooked," said another who may have had Irish blood in his veins. "Parallel straight lines are those which meet at the far end of infinity," is equal to some poetry. "Things which are impossible are equal to one another," is common sense, even though it is not exactly mathematical.—Living Church.

WILL NOT ARBITRATE

Great Britain Will Have No Interference in the Venezuela Trouble.

A HOSTILE CLASH MAY OCCUR

The United States Has Made the Cause of Venezuela Her Own—A Great Deal Now Depends on the Action of the Two Governments in the Disputed Territory.

Washington, April 5.—"Venezuela," said a gentleman yesterday who has lived many years in South America, "would rather be reduced to ashes than permit Great Britain to occupy permanently the country in dispute between her and British Guiana."

This declaration seems correctly to express the sentiments of the Venezuelan people with reference to this long-mooted question. What action Venezuela may ultimately take in the matter is not known, but it is doubtful if the Crespo administration is considering the probability of war with Great Britain as a result of the latter's refusal to abandon this territory. The Venezuelans are hopeful that the dispute between themselves and Great Britain may yet be referred to arbitration. They insist strenuously that the territory belongs to them and that Great Britain has been encroaching upon it for years because of Venezuela's inability to prevent her.

Great Britain, on the other hand, has long maintained that while she will arbitrate some of the points in dispute between the two countries, she will not arbitrate her control of the country now held by her, which embraces a tract 180 miles long by 85 wide, stretching from the coast eastward and embracing a portion of the mouth of Orinoco river. There is nothing new in this position taken by Great Britain. In the correspondence between Mr. Bayard and the Salisbury Government as far back as 1888, when Mr. Bayard filled the office of Secretary of State, Great Britain asserted that this territory was as much a part of her country as any of her colonial possessions, and that she could not permit her right to occupy it to be arbitrated. More recently the British representatives have claimed that their ownership of this land could be no more the subject of arbitration than Great Britain's right to Surrey or Essex or any other of the counties in England.

The United States Government has practically made the cause of Venezuela her own. A great deal will now depend upon the action of the two Governments in the disputed territory.

Both Venezuela and Great Britain have established small outposts along the Guyuni river, which flows through the centre of the territory in controversy.

These outposts overlap each other, some of those established by Venezuela being nearer to the territory which is admittedly British than are some of the British outposts.

The situation is such that a hostile clash may be brought on at any time.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.

Navigation on Lake Erie Opened by the Steamer City of Detroit.

Detroit, April 5.—Navigation on Lake Erie was opened yesterday by the Detroit and Cleveland Steam Navigation Company. The steamer City of Detroit has been lying at the dock here for the past two days waiting for the ice to move out of the harbor at Cleveland. Word was received from that city at noon that a tug had forced a passage through the ice barrier there, and at 3 o'clock the City of Detroit left here for the first trip of the season.

Amherstburg, Ont., April 5.—The large palace steamer City of Detroit passed here late last night for Cleveland. She is the first boat this season. Lake Erie is almost free from ice.

Sealers Will not Earn Expenses.

Victoria, B.C., April 5.—Under the international sealing agreement, sealing on the coast will cease April 30, and present prospects indicate that the catch for the first half of the season will be very light. It has been the old story of rough weather, making it impossible to hunt seals when herds have been located. Ten days ago the highest catch reported was 295, which at the current rates would not pay expenses. No reports have been received from the Asiatic coast and those from this coast are as yet quite meager.

Panic in a Church.

Montreal, April 5.—During a woman's retreat in the parish church of Ste. Cunegonde last night an hysterical woman shouted fire and a panic took place. The church was crowded with women and they made for the door, the result being a scene of confusion, during which several women were rather severely injured, but none fatally.

Shot by a Crazy Indian.

Winnipeg, April 5.—Near Gleichen, Alberta Territory, Frank Skyner, the Dominion Government issuer of rations to the Blackfeet Indian reservation, was shot dead by an Indian named Atchawan. A posse of mounted police is now on the trail of the assassin. The Indians on the reservation say Atchawan is crazy.

THE QUEEN AT NICE

A Report Announcing Her Death Happily Proves Unfounded.

IN GOOD HEALTH AND SPIRITS

The Rumor Evidently Circulated by the Bear Element for the Purpose of Influencing the Stock Markets—How Her Majesty Spends Her Time.

London, April 5.—Yesterday a rumor reached here of the death of her Majesty Queen Victoria, and created considerable excitement for a time. Later the report was denied and an investigation developed the fact that the rumor was circulated in Chicago and Montreal long before it reached here. The false report was evidently started for the purpose of influencing the stock markets, which showed a strong downward tendency.

London, April 5.—The latest official report in regard to the Queen received from Nice last evening, says: "The Queen, accompanied by Princess Beatrice, drove to Beauleau along the mountain road leading to La Bastide. She paid a visit to Lord and Lady Salisbury and returned to Cimies by the way of Villefranche. In the evening her Majesty entertained Sir Edward Malet and others at dinner. Her Majesty was in good health and spirits.

Another despatch from Nice yesterday afternoon said: At 3 p.m. the Prince of Wales attended the christening of a son of his groom-in-waiting, Sir Francis Knollys.

Earl Spencer, who has been serving as Minister in attendance upon the Queen, returned from Nice at 6.30 o'clock last evening. Lord Ripon will leave here for Nice on Saturday to fulfil a similar function.

No official references are made to the state of the Queen's health. Last night's advices reported her to be in excellent health.

A despatch sent from Nice at 8.30 o'clock last evening says the Queen in the morning visited the Zoological Gardens and upon her return gave an audience to the Comtesse Trani. Later in the day she drove to Sabron and paid a visit to the Duchess of Saxe-Coburg, and in the evening gave a small dinner party at the Cimies hotel.

THE FIRST CONFERENCE.

The Resolution Adopted by the House in 1869 to be the First Order.

Ottawa, April 5.—Newfoundland delegates had their first conference with the Government yesterday morning. Those of the Cabinet here present were: Sir Mackenzie Bowell, chairman; Hon. John Haggart, Sir Adolphe Caron and Hon. G. E. Foster. The delegates asked the Government to make their proposition first. Then it was agreed that the order of subjects named in the resolutions passed in the Canadian House in 1869, embodying an agreement between Newfoundland and Canada, that was afterwards defeated in Newfoundland, should be followed, each item discussed separately, and a conference will be held each day at 12 a.m. and 3 p.m., and the delegates filed a statement as to the colony's condition, and adjourned for the day, no discussion having ensued. The delegates are unable to say whether they will visit Toronto at present. Yesterday they received an invitation from the Board of Trade there.

The Newfoundland delegates will be entertained at a banquet at the Russell on Tuesday evening next by the citizens of Ottawa.

Government Telegraph and Newspapers.

London, April 5.—Arnold Morley, Postmaster-General, spoke in the House of Commons last evening concerning the business relations of the Government telegraph lines and the newspapers. He reiterated the statement made by him last month before the Congress of the Chambers of Commerce that the Government's annual loss upon press telegrams was £30,000. He was willing to institute an impartial inquiry, he said, if he could get the assurance that the press would abide by the result and assent to a legislative revision of the tariff.

The Deposed Queen of Hawaii.

London, April 5.—Sir Thomas Esmonde, anti-Parnellite M.P. for the west division of Kerry, will ask the Government on Monday whether Lilliuokalani, the deposed Queen of Hawaii, is a prisoner in the barracks at Honolulu, and if so whether the Government will not request the authorities to let her reside in the palace under guard.

A Brigade Missing.

Calcutta, April 5.—It is reported from Simla that the Chitral expedition sustained losses more severe than was at first reported. Umra Kahn is reported to have captured two British officers. Hundreds of natives are flocking to his standard. All of the reported casualties to the British force refer to the Second brigade.

A New Safe Explosive.

Vienna, April 5.—The president of the Nobel Company, makers of explosives, announced at the general meeting in Vienna yesterday the discovery and successful production of a blasting explosive which is not affected by fire damp and can be used with safety in the most dangerous mines.

New Zealand Wants a Treaty.

London, April 5.—The United Press correspondent learns upon good authority that New Zealand is willing to negotiate a commercial treaty with Canada.

Telegraphic Briefs.

It is rumored that a defalcation to the amount of $10,000 has been discovered in the Crown Lands Department of Quebec. The swindle was perpetrated during the Mercier administration. The details will likely be known shortly.

Augustus Spreckels, son of Claus Spreckels, has commenced an action against his father for libel for statements made while he was manager of the Spreckels Philadelphia Refinery.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Prorogation Day Fixed for a Week From Saturday.

Toronto, April 5.—It was a featureless day in the Legislature yesterday. After the excitement of the debate of Wednesday the members did not seem prepared for anything but routine. Several unimportant bills were given a third reading and the Government had the House pass several resolutions approving of contracts that had been entered into for school text-books.

Sir Oliver Mowat gave the members to understand that he wished the prorogation to take place a week from Saturday. Mr. Marter said that the Opposition were willing in case none of the business would be neglected in the effort to do so. The succession duties bill was read a second time without a division.

A large deputation composed of leading financial, railway and other interested parties waited upon the Government yesterday asking aid for the Ontario and Rainy River Railway. Mr. Conmee introduced the deputation to Sir Oliver and the other members of the Cabinet. They asked $5,000 per mile for the 105 miles that remain to complete the present road to Rainy Lake, and also ask the Government to guarantee a 3½ per cent. dividend upon the bonds of the company for 20 years. The Government promised to consider the matter.

The Toronto Junction bill was passed by the Private Bills Committee yesterday. It was amended so that interest due to bondholders shall be payable half yearly instead of yearly.

Market Fees.

Mr. Richardson's bill to abolish market fees was withdrawn yesterday in the Municipal Committee upon the understanding that an effort would be made during the recess to have representatives from the cities and towns and farmers to meet at the Parliament buildings and agree upon a measure to be introduced next session dealing with the whole matter. It was suggested that county councils should, at their June session, appoint delegates on behalf of the farmers to meet at Toronto during the next Toronto Exhibition.

Farm Lands in Cities

Mr. Awrey's bill to assess vacant lands in cities, towns and villages as farm lands was amended to include as farm lands blocks of five acres. Had the bill passed the Municipal Committee in its original shape all vacant lands in cities, towns and villages used as farm lands would have been exempt from taxation for waterworks sewers and other civic improvements.

Ontario Immigration

Hon. Mr. Dryden laid the annual report of the Immigration Department on the table yesterday. The report deals only with immigrants who landed at the ports of Halifax, Quebec and Montreal. The number of immigrants who settled in Ontario in 1894 are given as 5,968, as compared with 6,871 in 1893 and 5,254 in 1874. The reason given for the decline is that a general reduction has taken place in the outflow from Europe.

First Readings.

Hon. Mr. Gibson moved the first reading of a bill which provides that no charitable institution shall receive aid from public moneys in respect of paying patients; paying patients to be those paying not less than $3 per week; and this does not apply to institutions which have been receiving aid for ten years.

No aid will be paid to a hospital hereafter where there is a hospital already established and in operation, unless the Government has approved of this establishment. It regulates the liabilities of municipal corporations for maintenance of pauper patients, so as to prevent persons moving into one municipality from another immediately becoming a charge on the municipality into which they have removed for hospital treatment.

Mr. Commee moved the first reading of a bill to amend the Mines Act. It is to give the employes and workmen in mines a similar lien to that possessed by workmen under the Mechanics' Lien Act, so that where the sub-contractor does not pay, the workmen may look to the contractor and if he fails there he may enforce his lien against the mine.

Dr. Ryerson moved the first reading of a bill to make the trustees of hospitals liable for damages, to be paid out of the trust funds for the negligence, ignorance or want of skill on the part of the medical attendant.

Bills Introduced.

Mr. Haycock introduced a bill to amend the Medical Act. This Act fixes the maximum of all fees which may be charged by the Medical Council to any person for admission, examination and registration to fifty dollars. The fees now amount to about one hundred dollars.

Mr. Stratton introduced a bill to amend the Woodman's Lien for Wages Act. It extends the provisions of that Act to persons getting out cordwood and all other kinds of firewood.

Mr. German introduced a bill to amend the Evidence Act. The bill provides that the person opposing or defending, or the wife or husband of such person, shall not be compelled to give evidence of the trial of summary matters cognizable under the laws of Ontario, before justices of the police and police magistates.

Mr. Pardo introduced a bill which provides that where upon the separation of a town from the county for municipal purposes allowance is made to the town for the amount contributed by it previously for the construction or repairs of the county buildings, the town shall thereafter pay to the county for the use of the county buildings, although that use is a use in common with the other municipalities in the county.

ECONOMY CALLED FOR.

The advocates of the N. P. are apt to answer arguments against a substantial reduction of the high tariff by a counter question, as to the means of raising a revenue. A very great measure of relief from grinding taxation could be effected by economy in every department of the public service. Millions, it is safe to say, are wasted in extravagant expenditures that have no relation to the requirements for the efficient carrying on of the public service. Take the abuses of the superannuation system. This system, like everything else under the jurisdiction of the Dominion government, is handled with outrageous extravagance, involving no little crookedness and favouritism. The original intention of the superannuation system was not so much open to objection. The act is founded on the theory that when a man has become old and infirm in the public services, he should be retired on an allowance and an efficient successor appointed. The age at which a civil servant is entitled to a superannuation allowance, except under exceptional circumstances, is sixty years. In part the beneficiaries of the superannuation fund merely receive what they have paid in. Two per cent. of the salaries of $600 is retained yearly and one and a quarter per cent. of those under that amount. But large grants have been voted from the public coffers to supplement this fund. Since the system begun—over 20 years ago—two and a quarter millions have been paid out over the receipts from civil servants.

Money is wasted on the superannuation of able-bodied and healthy civil servants who are displaced for political reasons—to make places for cormorantic Conservatives. Many do not wish to be shelved, but it is either superannuation or discharge. Look at a case or two as specimen bricks of the manner in which the system is abused. Mr. Lamothe, postmaster of Montreal, was superannuated, and on the basis of his payments was entitled to a salary allowance of $1350, but to make him eligible for superannuation eight years were arbitrarily added to his service, and now Mr. Lamothe is drawing the comfortable sum of $2,000 per year. Mr. Dansereau, a prominent Conservative, was appointed to the place that had been created for him, and he draws $4000 per year. Thus the actual cost of the postmastership of Montreal is $6,000. Another specimen. Mr. Shakespeare, ex-M.P.P., of Victoria, B.C., wanted Naboth's vineyard, represented by Mr. Robert Wallace's postmastership, and he got it, for he was a politician that must be pleased. Mr. Wallace did not want to be superannuated but the Dominion Government added 8 years to his life and he was retired on a superannuation allowance of $1,300 a year, on which he is living comfortably in England, and Mr. Shakespeare is drawing $2,000 a year. This is only a sample of abuses by which the superannuation fund receives contributions from expectant beneficiaries to the extent of $64,000, while $263,711 is actually paid. If this department were honestly managed, its expense could be greatly reduced, and so on through the whole gamut of Government administration. If so much public money were not wasted, taxes would not require to be so high. But the Government only considers its own interests; those of the people are a secondary affair.

THE Province would doubtless go to the dogs if it were not for the keen vigilance of Mr. Marter, the leader of the Opposition. Having lost interest in eggs and prohibition, he has become addicted to sal-soda. Mr. Marter and fourteen other members of the Public Accounts Committee and a stenographer sat for two hours on Wednesday morning probing the dark depths of a charge, made by the leader of the Opposition, that the bursar of the London Asylum for the Insane had paid two prices for sal-soda—that is, that he bought one lot at 1½ cents per pound and another lot at 1¼ cents per pound. This discrepancy was shown by a rigid investigation to amount to $2. Now $2 isn't much; but it's not the money but the principle that troubles Mr. Marter. Mr. Marter always stands on principle—till (vide prohibition) he finds it unpopular, and then, presto, flop.

THIS is Patron Leader Haycock's manner of saying "you're another"—I beg to say the hon. member is speaking from the depths of the most profound ignorance.

DEEP WATERWAYS.

Visitors to the Great Convention Take Away Valuable Information.

Toledo, April 5.—The question of the best scheme for a deep channal to the Atlantic has been for sometime a matter of much consideration to Toledo business men and engineers. The city was well represented at the great convention held in Toronto, and in addition to other valuable information they became, while there, strongly imbued with admiration for the new remedy for Bright's disease and diabetes known as Dodd's Kidney Pills. It is stated that the sale of the specific has increased very appreciably of late and that it is being highly recommended in many cases with undoubted success.

PEACE NEAR AT HAND

Negotiations Expected to Terminate by Saturday or Sunday Next.

RUSSIA WILL NOT INTERFERE

The Chinese Army in North Formosa Said to Include a Large Number of Beggars—Vigorous Measures in Swatow and Canton to Resist the Invaders.

Washington, April 5.—The close of the peace negotiations between China and Japan, from all accounts received here, is near at hand. So rapidly are the negotiations proceeding that it is believed they will be terminated by Saturday or Sunday next. While no details have reached Washington it is understood that Japan will secure practically everything she has asked for—the possession of Formosa, a war indemnity of 400,000,000 yen, independence of Corea, and the possession of that part of the province of Shan-Tun which includes Port Arthur, and a sufficient amount of territory surrounding that place for military and strategic purposes, at least until the indemnity shall have been paid. It is again asserted that Russia will make no interference with these conditions of peace.

Simonoseki Filled With Police.

London, April 5.—The Times correspondent in Simonoseki sends this despatch under the date of March 31: "Military activity in Japan has not abated. Five transports of infantry and cavalry were hurried away yesterday before the armistice was proclaimed. The conditions arranged indicate the desire of China to save Pekin at all events. Simonoseki is filled with police to protect the Chinese envoys."

Foreigners Believed to be Safe.

From Hong Kong, the Times has this despatch. "The Chinese are fleeing from South Formosa to the mainland and Hong Kong. The Japanese are reported to be marching upon Takau. The Chinese army in North Formosa is 80,000 strong. Of this force 50,000 are splendid troops well armed. The remainder are raw recruits, including even many beggars. Fighting is imminent. The foreigners are believed to be safe. Vigorous measures have been taken in Swatow and Canton to resist the invaders. Booms have been placed in Canton river and torpedoes have been placed in Swatow harbor."

The Formosa Cable Broken.

Paris, April 5.—The European edition of the New York Herald has this despatch from Shanghai: "Telegraphic communication has been suspended with Formosa, as the cable is broken. A German warship present during the operations at the Pescadores reports that the resistance at Mai-Kung was feeble and the artillery was ineffective. The garrison at Tai-Wan Foo consists of 80,000 Chinese. Six Japanese warships will remain at the Pescadores."

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC SITUATION.

The Management Said to be on a Par with that of Most American Roads.

London April 5.—Commenting on the Canadian Pacific situation, the Westminster Gazette says the management of the road is on a par with that of most American roads. The Gazette advises the shareholders to take matters into their own hands by arranging that the meetings shall be held in London instead of in Montreal.

The St. James' Gazette ascribes the recovery of Canadian Pacific on the stock exchange to the fact that nothing was disclosed at the meeting that was not known or suspected already.

The Financial News to-day says in a leader on the Canadian Pacific report and meeting: "We fail to discover any facts that justify investors in putting their money into the company with the idea of an immediate return. We shall welcome gladly any signs of returning prosperity, but anybody studying the situation carefully and impartially must see that such signs are so faint as to be almost invisible.

London, April 5.—The Standard to-day says that the Canadian Pacific report is not good reading from any point of view, least of all where the excuses regarding the reserves are given. The writer asks who is answerable for the losses of British investors.

THE CAMPAIGN IN HALDIMAND.

The Contest will be Fought Out Chiefly on the Manitoba School Question.

Cayuga, April 6.—In this election-racked constituency there is much excitement over the contest between Dr. Montague and the McCarthyite, whose nomination will be made to-day. In the coming contest the election will in all probability be fought out on other grounds than a straight Liberal and Conservative fight. On the Manitoba school question, more than on anything else, will the coming campaign be fought out. This question is in everyone's mouth, and no matter how desirous one is to keep the question out of politics, it will be impossible. The county of Haldimand contains about 900 Roman Catholic electors, and between 700 and 800 Orangemen. The chief Liberal paper of the county says that the party which it represents will not seek to make political capital out of the matter, but it also calls for the maintenance of provincial rights.

GODERICH GETS A SCORCHING.

The Grand Opera House Destroyed and Several Business Firms Burned Out.

Goderich, April 5.—A disastrous fire broke out here yesterday morning shortly before eight o'clock, which destroyed the Grand Opera House, the large general store of C. G. Armstrong, with the millinery store adjoining, and the book and stationery store of D. B. Calbick. In addition the dry goods store of James Robinson was completely gutted, the larger portion of the goods having, however, been removed. The total loss will be about $30,000.

The fire originated from the furnace in the cellar of Armstrong & Co.'s store, and spread so rapidly that little opportunity was given that firm to save much of their stock, which had recently been largely increased by spring importations.

During the fire Mr. Calbick, in endeavoring to save a portion of his goods, fell through a trap-door in his cellar and sustained severe injuries, two of his ribs being broken. It was with difficulty that he was enabled to get out, owing to the heat and smoke.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

TORONTO, April 5, 1895.

The local market is especially strong in breadstuffs. Prices both here and at Montreal are considerably higher than those paid outside. Two cents more was paid on the streets here yesterday than was given for car lots in the United States.

Generally the prices continue higher than those paid elsewhere. Flour is also firm. There has been an advance of just 10c in the week closing yesterday.

Millfeed is inclined to weaken and has lost 50c in the week. The demand for barley is active, and car lots are selling at 45c and 46c. For one lot 47c was paid.

There is a scarcity of rye, and 43c could be obtained. Buckwheat is also in good demand at 41c to 42c for cars.

C.P.R. stock is improved in London. It opened firm at 41¾ yesterday. In Montreal it was firmer, the opening figures being 40 and 39¾.

In the afternoon a rumor reached London, Eng., of the death of Queen Victoria, and this unsettled the market for a time. Later the report was denied and at the close nervous traders who had recovered their composure were buying back the stock sold on the false rumor of the Queen's death. An investigation developed the fact that the rumor was circulated in Chicago and Montreal long before it reached there.

Street Railway Riot in Chicago.

Chicago, April 5.—A riot occurred at the corner of 22nd and Grove streets today, caused by the General Electric Street Railway Company attempting to run a car across the tracks of the Chicago City Railway Company. Over 200 employes of the latter company seized the car, and after derailing it chopped it into kindling wood. None of the participants in the riot were seriously injured.

Must Not Handle Foreign Sugar.

Philadelphia, April 5.—The sugar trust have ordered the Philadelphia sugar men to stop handling imported sugars. A number of brokers say that they will not be materially affected by the order, as they handle but little of the imported product.

When the blood is kept pure and the system thoroughly invigorated by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, sudden changes of temperature and extremes of heat and cold, so characteristic of certain climates, are rarely attended with injurious results. Take it now.

MR. ENGLIS IN TROUBLE.

Methods of a Young Man Who Claimed to be Senator McInnis' Secretary.

Montreal, April 5.—There arrived in Montreal from the west about two weeks ago a young man who styled himself Captain Englis, and claimed to be the secretary of Senator McInnes, of British Columbia. Mr. Englis was in trouble from the moment that he landed here. He stated that he gave his baggage checks into the hands of a Canadian Pacific Railway porter and proceeded to the St. Lawrence hall, where he secured a room and gave instructions to the porters of the hotel to bring down his baggage. The porters could find no baggage and none has been found since. Mr. Englis was notified that his baggage was not to be found and he expressed much surprise and indignation. He declared that the loss of his personal effects was a trifle, but that one of his valises contained political documents of great value, relating to the election campaign in British Columbia and the property of his chief, Senator McInnes. He said that the Senator would be naturally much annoyed at the loss, and requested several newspaper men not to mention the occurrence so that he might have a chance to recover the property before his employer arrived. Mr. Englis also hinted that there was a political conspiracy at the bottom of the theft and that startling developments might occur. After about a week of this, during which the stranger had a good time with his new acquaintances, he was presented with his hotel bill. Then there was more trouble for Mr. Englis. It was not convenient for him to settle just at that time. As he had no baggage, and the hotel people thought he never had, he was politely requested to move out. Among Mr. Englis' new city acquaintances were a young lawyer, to whom he confided his intention of taking rooms in a boarding house. It was so much quieter. The lawyer mentioned casually the name of a lady who manages an exclusive boarding house on Mansfield street. Englis straightway proceeded there, and giving the lawyer as his reference, had himself installed in his new quarters. His next move was to replace his vanished wardrobe. In his conversation with the lawyer he learned the name of that gentleman's tailor, a well-known merchant, and presenting himself there as a personal friend of the lawyer, he obtained a stock of clothes on credit. On Friday afternoon last Mr. Englis presented himself at the Herald office, and after introducing himself, requested that the following personal be inserted: "Senator McInnis, of British Columbia, is expected in Montreal on April 12, on business connected with the opening of the session. Captain Englis, secretary to the Senator, is at the St. Lawrence hall." What his object was may be surmised. The peculiar methods of the young man and his story of a political conspiracy aroused some suspicion, and in answer to a telegram sent yesterday to Senator McInnes, at Victoria, B. C., the following was received: "To Editor Herald, Montreal. Have no private secretary in Montreal; know no such person as Englis. (Signed) Thomas. R. McInnes." Mr. Englis is a young man of pleasing appearance and plausible address, and likely to inspire confidence with the public generally.

BURIED MINERAL TREASURE.

Interesting mineral discoveries are often made during the process of artesian well boring on the plateaus of the Rocky Mountain slopes. Coal, gypsum and soda beds, and traces of the economic and the precious metals are revealed in the chippings of the drill, usually at a depth so great below the surface as to render them impracticable to mine. A remarkable discovery of this nature was recently made in sinking an artesian well at a place called Big Springs in Southern New Mexico, where, at a depth of 1,400 feet, the drill struck a bed of solid rock salt 420 feet in depth. It is probably the thickest known salt vein in the world, and if situated near the surface would represent a vast fortune to the owner who could utilize it.

A Peculiar Case.

COVERED WITH PIMPLES.

AN ANXIOUS MAN.

The Disease Disappears in Three Weeks by the use of B. B. B.—Letter From Manitoba Describing it.

DEAR SIRS—During the winter of 1892-93, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it, and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B. B. B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say it has never reappeared.

CHEAP TRIP TO EUROPE.

BUT IT HAS ACTUALLY BEEN ACCOMPLISHED AT THE FIGURES.

Doing the Continent in a Most Interesting and Inexpensive Manner—Dinner in Cardinal Richelieu's Palace for Thirty-five Cents.

Think of going to Europe and back—not in a hurry, either—on the half of $200 or less!

You can cross the ocean for $10 in the steerage, of course. When on the other side you can do your touring on foot, as Lee Meriwether did, and the cost will be fifty cents a day!

Mr. Meriwether wrote a book on the subject of his travels on a cheap trip over the Continent. Beginning with Sicily and the southern part of Italy, where first-class hotels only charge thirty cents to forty cents for rooms, he says, "the price increases little by little, until in Belgium and Holland, countries immediately across the channel from England, sixty cents to eighty cents is the charge by second or third rate inns. Hotels that are frequented by Americans and English charge English and American prices—$2 a day. Hotels of the same class frequented by Italians charge from eighty cents to $1 a day, while private lodgings of a respectable character may be had from fifteen cents to thirty cents a night. The item of lodging for a man is very small—four cents if you are willing to room with others, and only fifteen cents where you have a bed and a neat room to yourself. And your food: For three cents you may get a pound of excellent black bread; a large bowl of milk will cost two cents; a plate of macaroni three cents; figs four cents a pound, and a quart of sour wine for from eight to twelve cents. This diet was varied occasionally by an egg omelet or something of that character. While mingling with the working classes for the purpose of studying their condition and general mode of living, my daily expenditure for food in Naples averaged seventeen cents and lodging four cents, making the total cost of living per day in Naples just twenty-one cents.

"In Venice you can find any number of rooms at fifteen cents a day each. Gondoliering is twenty cents for the first hour and ten cents for each hour thereafter. The price is the same for one or four persons.

"The cheapest hotels mentioned in any of the guide books for Constantinople charged from $3 to $4 a day, but you can find a very nice room not mentioned in the guide books for seventeen cents. I got my meals at a Greek restaurant for three and a half cents to four cents each, consisting, nearly every time, of a piece of bread and a plate of rice, macaroni or potatoes.

"In Berlin I assumed considerable style, occupying a front room on the third floor of a house on Frederich strasse, the principal street of the city. The room was carpeted. There were white curtains at the window. The furniture was plain but neat—all together, it was a very cozy, snug little room, with pretty, rosy-cheeked maids to bring my coffee and buttered rolls, all for thirty-six cents a day. My dinners in Berlin cost twenty cents. There were cheaper places, but I was becoming extravagant. My dinner for twenty-four cents consisted of soup, roast beef, mutton, vegetables, dessert of fruit, and beer or soda water.

"In Paris it is possible to live very cheaply. On Sundays I got my dinners in old Cardinal Richelieu's palace, an excellent dinner, with wine, for thirty-five cents, and on week days frequented cheaper and less aristocratic quarters, where I could study the working people of Paris. Connected with one of the largest bazaars in Paris is a restaurant where 3,000 people dine daily at a cost not exceeding fifteen cents each.

"The most important item of living in Paris is fuel. I had a cosy little room on the Rue de la Harpe, for which I paid fifteen cents a night. Wood sells by the pound. A single stick costs five cents. I found it much cheaper to go to the theatre on a winter night than to remain in my room. I saw Bernhardt for ten cents, while, had I remained in my room twenty cents' worth of wood would have been required to keep me in comfort."

Below are the figures given by this eccentric traveler as the lowest rates for traveling in Europe. Beginning with the steerage passage across the Atlantic at the present low rate of $10 we have:

From New York to Naples, 4,456 miles, $10.

Railroad fare in Italy, taking in Naples, Rome, Florence, Pisa, Bologna, Venice, Milan, Como, 506 miles, $11.11.

Railroad fares in Switzerland, $7.25.

Railroad fares in Germany, taking in Strasburg, Baden-Baden, Heidelberg, Stuttgart, Munich, 362 miles, $4.30.

Railroad fares and Danube boat fares in Austria, taking in Linz, Vienna, Buda-Pesth, $5.65.

Buda-Pesth to Constantinople from Bulgaria, $12.65.

Constantinople to Odessa, Black Sea steerage, $3.

Odessa to Berlin, taking in Kijew, Moscow, and St. Petersburg, 2,239 miles, $20.26.

Berlin to Cologne, 364 miles, $5.80.

Cologne to Paris, 306 miles, $5.75.

Paris to London, 235 miles, second class, $10.

London to New York, $15.

Total cost of transportation from New York and back, $120.87.

The distance covered is nearly, if not quite, 14,000 miles, 7,000 of which on steamers includes subsistence as well as transportation.

Allowing's subsistence at half a dollar a day amounts to $182.50, thus the entire cost of a year's trip, embracing overland from Gibraltar to the Bosphorus, amounts to $303.37, if you are willing to travel second class and third class and foot it at times.

The Record Broken.

In the month of January last, in the district of Algoma, the company of Cuttler & Savage, lumbermen, made a wide spread display by putting 160 logs on one sleigh, and drawing the same by one team for some distance. The company of C. E. Eddy & Son, an American company in the same district, full of ambition, broke the the record. Mr. Frank Kane, foreman in Camp No. 1, ordered his men to load up. A sleigh with 12½ foot bunks was secured, drawn by an ordinary team, to a skidway, on the main road, when 190 logs were bound firmly on that sleigh, and drawn 1½ miles by the team attached. This is the greatest number of logs ever drawn by one team in Canada, and no doubt the north country was in a tremble as that monstrous load moved along.

THE HOCKEY CHAMPIONS BANQUETTED.

The Vice-President Entertains the Boys at His Residence—Hearty Hospitality Given the Hockeyists.

Last night Mr. H. S. Greenwood, C.E., vice-president of the Hockey Club, handsomely entertained the members of the championship team and officers at his residence, Rubidge street. A charming supper was provided. The spread was a dainty and elaborate one, the table, besides being resplendent with plate, being most beautifully ornamented with cut and blooming flowers. The dining room also shared liberally in the floral adornment. After the menu had been discussed, Mr. G. W. Hatton, president, was placed in the chair, and introduced a brief and informal toast list. In a complimentary speech embodying the thanks of the guests for the grateful hospitality they had received, he proposed the health of the "Host and Hostess" which was most cordially honoured.

Mr. Greenwood, on behalf of himself and Mrs. Greenwood, responded in terms expressive of the great pleasure it afforded them both to honour a team which had passed through the season with so brilliant and triumphant a record! He very highly appreciated the honour done him in making him vice-president of the club, an honour the more to be valued on account of his being a comparative stranger in Peterborough. He hoped the club would meet with the same success they had achieved this year, in an effort to win the senior championship. He concluded by proposing the toast of the Peterborough Hockey Club, which brought eloquent responses from Messrs. J. P. Hurley, secretary of the club, and W. J. Montgomery, captain of the team.

The remainder of the evening was most delightly spent in song and story. Those contributing songs were Messrs. Phelan, Montgomery, Wonham, Hatton, Greenwood, LeFevre and others.

A most enjoyable evening was brought to a close by the chorus of "Auld Lang Syne," and "Good Night Ladies."

Mr. Wm. Cook, manager, of Warrington's exporting business, who has been in England, and who is well known in Peterborough, is expected home in a day or two.

Mr. Grassett, teller of the local branch of the Ontario Bank, was taken suddenly ill while at his desk yesterday and was unconscious for some time. He is reported better to-day.

Dr. McKay, M.P.P., South Oxford, for two sessions Liberal whip, was, on the occasion of his retirement from that position, presented with a magnificent service of plate. The presentation took place on Wednesday, and the accompanying address were made by Sir Oliver Mowat.

Herr Klingenfeld, violin virtuoso and teacher, Toronto, is getting a monopoly of the pretty and promising lady violin pupils of Peterborough. Miss Lottie Bell of Keene, is the latest to take a course of instruction with him. She is talented and has a promising future.

Mr. J. H. Scriver of Hastings, editor and proprietor of the Hastings Star, is in town to-day, and favoured the EXAMINER with a call. The Star has removed into a new constellation, or in other words, has been favoured with new premises on Front street, which are a great improvement on the former habitat of Hastings' enterprising journal.

Miss Ethel Burnham, who has been studying the violin in Toronto, under Herr Klingenfeld, has returned home for the Easter Holidays. She made her debut as a solo violiniste at the Klingenfeld symphony orchestra concert in the pavilion, and performed De Benot's "Fantaisie de Ballet" with gratifying success. She met with a most cordial reception.

Boys Three-Piece Suits.

It often seems nonsense to advertise prices, for really you cannot tell anything about the extraordinary value that Gough Bros. are offering in boys' clothing for spring, unless you come and take a look. We are selling boys' three-pice suits at $3.50, $4 and $5 that are better value than we have ever before had. See them. GOUGH BROS., the wonderful cheap men.

Hopelessly Embarrassed.

A rumor to the effect that Mr. James H. Wilson, the well-known horseman and ex-reeve of Manvers, having become hopelessly embarassed and left for Uncle Sam's domains was circulated about town a few days ago. Mr. Wilson is widely known throughout the district as the owner of Lewie Gordon, and the German coach horse, Elias. He has also been associated with a number of other noted Clydesdale horses. He was popular with all who knew him, and many will regret his step. —Lindsay Watchman.

The People's Store.

The undersigned is pleased to announce that he has opened out a strictly first-class stock of new spring dress goods, &c., in the store occupied by the Misses Cahill & Houlihan, milliners, and formerly occupied by Miss Delaney. I will make a specialty of fine black dress goods, gloves, hosiery, corsets, laces, etc. Ladies will find the Peoples' Store headquarters for these goods. Prices will be lower than usually quoted, as I buy for cash and having no heavy expenses in business, I am in a position to give extra good value to my customers. A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies to call and inspect my new stock just opened out at 408 George street. D. O. LEBENDRE.

Hunt all Day and Hat all Night.

A couple of Mr. Sam. Ray's hounds have temporarily taken up their residence in the country and are from all accounts having a high old time of it. The skinned carcase of a cow is lying in a field several miles out of town and a number of foxes attracted by the scent have been drawn to the spot. The hounds discovered the carcase a few days ago and cannot be persuaded to leave the neighbourhood. All day long the two dogs, it appears, chase foxes through the hills and return at night and make a meal off the cow. Yesterday several hunters tried to lay hands on the hounds, but though they were heard barking after a fox in the immediate vicinity, it was impossible to get near them. One of the hunters had four shots at the fox but failed to bring it down.

—A number of cottages at Sturgeon Point were recently broken into and robbed. Those who have cottages back at the lakes will soon be taking a trip back to find out how their summer domiciles have wintered.

—Fifty shantymen from the Howry shanties struck town this morning, and are still here. They are returning to their homes in the Saginaw District, Michigan, having been imported from there last fall by the Howrys.

—During the year 1892 there were committed to the Peterborough jail, 174 prisoners; in 1893, 164 prisoners; and in 1894, 168 prisoners. The cost of maintaining the jail was, in 1892, $2,774.47; in 1893, $2,624.70; and in 1894, $2,540.07.

—The following delegates from the Presbyterian Y. P. S. C. E., Norwood, will attend the Endeavour convention here, on Easter Monday:—Miss Smart, Miss Roxburgh, Miss M. Moffat, Miss T. Cameron and Alfred Beckett.

—Indications are that navigation will not open on the island waters before May 4th or 5th. The ice is as solid as ever. Sleighs with loads of wood and grain are still coming to town by the ice. Parties who know say that the ice is nearly three feet thick on the lakes.

—The Private Bills Committee of the Ontario Legislature, on Wednesday, decided that municipalities should not be allowed to levy market fees except where warmth and shelter are provided. A bill for the entire abolition of market fees was thrown out.

—The following have been appointed delegates from the Norwood Epworth League of Christian Endeavour to the Endeavour Convention, to be held at Peterborough, on Easter Monday:—Miss L. Lewis, Miss B. Scott, Miss E. Lewis, Mrs. D. A. Fraser, Miss Lillie Reynolds and J. Geo. Keefer.

—Signs of spring are very shy in showing themselves, but they are increasing slowly in addition to almanacic indications. Last night a citizen heard his first robin cautiously warbling in the depths of a fir tree, and this morning he heard the "honk, honk," of an aerial wild goose sailing southward.

—On the day of his death, Robert Louis Stevenson wrote a letter to Edmund Gosse in which he said: "I am a childless, rather bitter, very clear eyed blighted youth. I have, in fact, lost the path that makes it easy and natural for you to descend the hill. I am going at it straight; and where I have to go down it is a precipice."

—The Norwood Register says—Mr. J. B. McWilliams, of Peterborough, was in town on Monday looking after his property. He intends to have the buildings opposite the town hall put in good repair at once. The "sky blue" property will also be overhauled and fitted up for two dwelling houses by the addition of summer kitchens.

—One of Ashburnham's big dogs came over town yesterday afternoon, but was too friendly and unsuspicious, as a citizen took advantage of its innocence, and tied a tin can to its tail. One rattle of the can and the dog started for home heedless of everything. The result was that a lady was thrown violently to the ground in front of the post office and a farmer's team ran away near the bridge.

—The Toronto Globe, Ottawa Journal, the Brantford Expositor and the Belleville Sun announce the issue, during the present month, of a petticoat edition—that is, ladies will have sole charge of the editing, news contributing and mechanical departments of the special editions. If a woman rules the world, why not the Globe; if she runs the father, why not the Sun? These special editions will be newsy if sewing circle tactics are applied to the news finding department.

—Mr. John Kelly, of Red Rock, Verulam, had the misfortune to have one of his fine horses drowned in the Sturgeon lake on Friday evening of last week. The team, with the driver and two other men, were returning home from Babcaygeon, during the storm, and getting out of the regular course came across bad ice and broke through. The men, not knowing the proper way to go about an accident of this kind, only succeeded in saving one of the pair. The team were an exceedingly well matched pair and were considered one of the best in the county.

AN OLD PENSIONER'S TROPHIES.

Medals Received at Balaklava and Inkerman.

This afternoon Mr. Irwin, of Cambray, was in town and interviewed Mr. Richard Hall and Mr. R. S. Davidson of the Nicholls Hospital Board of Directors with regard to several medals left in the hospital by an old English pensioner named Thompson, who died there some three years ago.

Mr. Irwin, being a cousin of the deceased, laid claim to the medals in question, which were won at Balaklava, Inkerman and other noted battlefields by Private Thompson.

Once before a claim was made for these medals by Colonel ——— but, as the directors thought he wanted the trophies for himself, his request to have them forwarded to him was not acceded to. Mr. Irwin, however, states that the Colonel wrote on his (Mr. Irwin's) behalf.

Taking into consideration the fact that Mr. Irwin is only a cousin of the deceased and that the hospital had to meet the expense of the burial, the two directors thought that they were perfectly justified in keeping the medals and persuaded Mr. Irwin not to press his point.

A YOUNG WOMAN IN TROUBLE.

An English Emigrant Girl Betrayed.

(Millbrook Reporter.)

Considerable excitement was experienced around town one day last week, by the arrival of a young woman carrying an infant a few weeks old, which she stated was the rightful property of a young man belonging to town.

The girl came here from England about two years ago, expecting to meet her brothers, but they had moved to Tiverton, Bruce county. Having no means to proceed further she obtained employment here and was afterwards seduced under false pretenses and promises of marriage. The girl left shortly afterwards to join her brothers, and with one of them returned last week to see what her betrayer would do towards the support of the child.

The heartless fiend, however, would do nothing, but promise her money, which he either could not or would not produce and the mother and child were, through the efforts of Mr. Thos. Gillott, J.P., furnished with a ticket by the council to return to her mother, who also came out from England last summer. The brother is forced to remain here until he earns enough to take him back. It is a great pity that the law does not permit a good application of the lash administered without further preliminaries to such wolves, who have no respect for themselves, their friends, or their victims.

ALLEGED TO HAVE STOLEN A TRUNK FULL OF CLOTHES.

Two Young Domestics Leave Suddenly for Toronto.

A complaint was made at the police station this morning of a rather singular nature.

Two girls, who have been engaged in town as domestics for a number of years, left for Toronto on Monday last, but before going are alleged to have taken a trunk, which did not belong to them. The trunk in question was left to be called for at an up-town grocery store, by a young woman, and in some way the other two became acquainted with the fact and sent a carter for it. It was removed to a hotel, from where it was taken on Monday last to the C.P.R. station, and it is at present in the baggage room at the depot, the girls, for some reason, having decided not to take it with them. A search warrant, it is understood, was issued this afternoon for the reclamation of the trunk.

The two girls in question have had some strange experiences within the last few years. At one time they took rooms in Norwood, stating that they intended opening up a dress making establishment, and as references stated that a well-known C.P.R. conductor was their uncle and a popular hotel-keeper's wife in Peterborough their aunt. Subsequent investigation revealed the untruthfulness of these statements, and the young women soon returned to domestic life in Peterborough.

WILL RESIDE NEAR WARSAW.

A Young Farmer from Dummer Marries.

On Wednesday, 27th March, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Osborne, Marmora, Miss Hattie Osborne was married to Mr. David Taylor, a prominent young farmer of Dummer.

The ceremony was performed at twelve o'clock noon by Rev. D. Balfour, pastor of the Methodist church. Over twenty of the relatives and friends of the bride and groom witnessed the happy event. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Mabel Osborne, of Marmora, and the groom was attended by his brother, Albert Taylor, of Warsaw.

After the nuptial knot had been properly tied the happy young couple were very warmly congratulated by their friends. The company then partook of a dainty repast, and after a few hours spent in social enjoyment the newly married couple drove to Norwood, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Doughty. On Thursday they proceeded to their future home near Warsaw. The bride received some very beautiful presents. Mrs. Taylor is well known here and in Norwood and is highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends, who extend to her and her husband their best wishes.

A HEARTLESS PROCEEDING.

A Carter Runs Over a Child and Leaves Him Lying Where he Fell.

On Thursday the little four and a half year old son of Mr. Thomas Wilson, Homeward avenue, and another little fellow about the same age, climbed on the track of a carter, whose name is not known, who had been delivering goods in the vicinity. He went on his way down town and when near Babb's lane playfully, it is supposed, told the youngsters that he was going to take them home with him. Frightened at this they made vigorous efforts to jump off the truck. The little lad Wilson, in his haste, got off the side and falling the wheel of the vehicle passed over one of his legs, nearly lengthwise, very badly bruising it, but fortunately not breaking it. The carter looked behind him, it is said, and saw the child lying in the mud motionless, but proceeded on his way indifferent as to his injuries. The other little fellow, who escaped without hurt, ran and told Mr. John Babb, who carried the injured child to his home near by.

THE LAUNCH OF ROB ROY II., YESTERDAY.

The Gallant Little Craft Floats the Water Like a Duck.

Mr. R. M. Roy's second venture in the line of steam yacht building was launched most successfully, yesterday afternoon, in the presence of a large number of spectators, who congregated at the river side and cheered heartily when the tidy little craft slid slowly over the ice and snow, and after a mighty plunge into the waters of the Otonabee, floated on the placid surface like

A THING OF LIFE.

The new boat is a beauty, and no mistake. Beyond all doubt it will be the nattiest craft of its class which will steam out of Peterborough harbour this season. It is 32 feet in lenght, seven in breadth and four in depth, the draught being only two and a half feet. The hull is painted black and the bottom is of oak with pine sides. The lumber in the whole boat being most carefully selected by Mr. Roy himself, it is of the very best and a knot or flaw of any kind would be a difficult thing to lay one's finger on.

A cabin extends from fore to aft, the front and rear partitions being enclosed with glass and the sides neatly curtained. The glass windows referred to as to be easily removed, thus allowing the occupants of the boat the full benefit of the breezes on a warm day. When the weather is not so propitious the curtains, which are ingeniously contrived as to to interlap and lace up tightly, can be drawn, the windows closed, and the passengers kept as warm and cosy as possible.

The fittings throughout, decks, ceiling, sides, etc., are of alternate stripes of butternut and pine, and the effect is strikingly handsome. The boat is large enough to comfortably seat twenty-five passengers, and yet is so arranged that by transferring the wheel from the front to the side that, if so inclined, its genial owner can at any time handle his craft without assistance, and go for a cruise by himself.

The engine, which was designed and built by Mr. Ed. Roy, who was at home for a few weeks last winter, is, indeed, of skilled workmanship, and though apparently small, is very powerful, furnishing six and a half horse power. The boiler is a water tube one, and was furnished by Best & Metherall.

A MARVELLOUS TRIUMPH

The remarkable buoyancy of the new boat and the even keel upon which she rode, even when first put into the water, was surprising even to the old and skilled waterman, who witnessed the launch. The credit of the perfect piece of work is entirely due to Mr. Roy himself, as the boat was built upon lines and specifications drawn up by himself and the different portions of the yacht completed under his personal directions and supervision and in accordance with ideas originating with himself.

A PLACE FOR EVERYTHING

and everything in its place will apparently be the motto for the new Rob Roy, as there is indeed a place for everything imaginable which could be useful on a launch. Lockers and drawers abound on every side and even the bottom of the boat has been utilized and instead of being a receptacle for stale bilge water, has been neatly lined and fitted up as a refrigerator in which to store ice and provisions. The fuel boxes are arranged on either side of the boiler and are so neatly contrived and covered as to add to, rather than detract from, the handsome appearance of the boat.

Oilcloth, of a pretty pattern, covers the floor, and plush cushions of the finest quality adorns the seats. The cushions, it might be said, were presented to Mr. Roy by some of his friends who were privileged in spending many a merry evening on the first Rob Roy last season.

This afternoon the launch is making its trial trip on the river and the results are anxiously looked forward to, as it is expected that the little craft will develop a rare turn of speed on account of the beautiful lines upon which she is built and the great buoyancy with which she floats upon the water.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

The following letter appears in to-day's Globe:—

Sporting Editor Globe:—Sir,—In yesterday's issue of the Globe you made the assertion that when in the city a few days ago I inquired into my chances of securing the C. W. A. timership, and finding that I would not have a "ghost of a chance" retired.

Now, Mr. Editor, the only man in Toronto or elsewhere that I have spoken to regarding this matter, is Mr. F. J. Whatmough.

He met Mr. Hay and myself on King street, and asked me if he could count on Peterborough's support for the office of timer.

I did not give Mr. Whatmough the slightest reason for supposing I was a candidate for that position. As Mr. Whatmough was the only one who conversed with me on this subject, I naturally infer that you got your information from him. I am not now and never have been a candidate for this office.

As for not having a "ghost of a chance" not having canvassed on the subject, I can't contradict it, but it is not generally safe to make predictions of that kind till the vote is taken.

In conclusion, I would say, Peterborough wants the meet, not the timership, and we are prepared to properly entertain all visitors on July 1 and following days if our bid is successful. Thanking you for your valuable space, I remain, yours sincerely,

GEO. J. HORKINS.

THE WHEEL.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Lindsay bicycle club was held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, on Tuesday evening last, at 8 p. m. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Hon. Pres.—Jos. Riggs.
Pres.—W. F. McCarty.
Vice-Pres.—R. Armitage.
Sec.-Treas.—A. L. Campbell.
Captain—P. Morgan.
1st Lieut.—E. Houghton.
2nd Lieut.—R. J. Halliday.
Adjutant—A. W. McGee.
Pacemaker—L. J. Bowes.
Bugler—S. Calvert.

THE C. W. A. MEET.

The Toronto World says: "It was the general feeling at the Wanderers' Bicycle Club meeting last night that Peterborough would get the annual C.W.A. meet, although the club's delegates were not instructed to vote that way. Waterloo seems to run the eastern town the closest, but cannot offer the track or hotel accommodation to be found in Peterborough. The club's seven delegates were instructed to exercise their own discretion at the meeting on Good Friday in general affairs.

THE TRIGGER.

The more enthusiastic members of the Gun Club are looking forward to a splendid season's sport, and it is probable that the Peterborough sharpshooters will reorganize in better shape than ever this year. The gun clubs of Oshawa, Port Hope, Cobourg, Whitby, Lindsay and Campbellford have already organized for the season, or are just about to do so, and it is thought that these five clubs, together with Peterborough could form a league amongst themselves which would be attended with most beneficial results.

Last season the attendance at the gun club practices was fair but not what it should have been and it is thought that if a league was formed, the desire to be at the top of the list would be just the stimulus required to bring the members out with their guns on every practice day.

All success to the proposed league then, which cannot be formed too soon for the more enthusiastic of the gun club members.

FOOTBALL.

A meeting of those interested in football was held in the Simpson House parlour, Lindsay, on Tuesday evening last. After preliminary business was disposed of the election of officers for the coming season took place, and resulted as follows:—Hon. president, John Kennedy; President, W. H. Simpson; Vice President, Geo. Lytle; Secretary, L. Flood; Treasurer, W. H. Reid; Captain, George Reeves; Manager, A. Gillies. An energetic committee was also appointed to carry on the affairs of the club. The boys are putting a strong team in the field, and hope to have many a hot match during the next campaign.

MILLBROOK LACROSSE.

The annual organization meeting of the Millbrook Lacrosse Club, was held on Wednesday evening. It was the largest and most enthusiastic that has been held in years, and the prospects for the coming season are exceptionally good. The following officers were elected:

Hon. President—W. T. Wood.
President—R. J. Doak.
Vice-President—W. Hampton.
Sec.-Treas.—L. F. Clarry.
Captain—T. B. McMahon.
Committee—John Nattrass, Stanley Carveth and Walter Coombe.

The club will meet again at an early date to select the uniform, but it is likely the team will appear on the field with black guernseys and canvas trousers.

The proposal to form a league composed of Lindsay, II Peterboroughs, Hastings Norwood and Millbrook, was favourably spoken of, and the secretary was instructed to write the Peterborough team for information on the matter.

N. A. A. A.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Newspaper Amateur Athletic Association is called at the Oriental Hotel for to-morrow evening, when facts relative to the securing of grounds for practice will be laid before them for discussion.

LACROSSE.

The Granites lacrosse club will organize at the Palace Restaurant parlours Tuesday evening.

SPRING.

Said you spring was not here? Bless you, it fairly forced itself upon your notice to-day. Sunshine was smeared all over the town like creamery butter; there was running water chuckling and gurgling on every side; the sap sang songs soft and low in the maple trees; the skies were blue and fair and the air had the buoyant gladness that only comes when the world is getting ready to grow green again.

And the ladies were out looking at the pretty gowns and headgear in the dry goods store, and the boys were spinning top and playing marbles on the sidewalks the while the daughters of the house took healthy exercise with skipping ropes. Where was the man with the street piano? He should have been abroad to-day in the yellow sunshine.

Then in some of the shops there were such big stands of flowers, hyacinths, and daffodils, all smelling of spring, and looking like spring, too. And piles of maple sugar—well, they called it maple sugar—and balls and cakes of sticky pop corn—just such balls and cakes of sticky pop born as used to be there in the little shop around the corner when you were a youngster with pennies of your own to spend.

ABOUT NEW HEADGEAR.

AN INTERESTING CHAPTER ON SPRING HATS AND BONNETS.

Novelties Described in Detail—Feathers, Flowers and Lace Will Rule in the Seasons to Come—A Dainty Toque—The Little Dutch Bonnet.

We grow more or less restive during a long-continued existence of any one thing and sigh for and must have that acceptable "spice of life." Even nature gives us positive proof of this condition in her many changes of seasons and by her complete donning each time of something fresh and new, which shows it is a good thing to do.

Spring, the youngest, and seemingly the most favored of all the seasons, generally brings with it a superabundance of all that is bright and attractive, and the feminine heart especially leaps high at the sight of all the results of the manufacturer's artistic planning that have found expression in ribbons and velvets, silks and muslins, flowers, feathers and lace.

The girls' hearts are turning just now very seriously to the beauties of the new spring bonnets, for such dainty confections of a woman's toilet are especially deserving of consideration this season.

They are of every conceivable shape, to suit every possible style of face, with trimmings that, in tints and brilliancy, defy the rainbow, and yet all so exquisitely blended as to please rather than offend the eye, and convincing one at once that to Mme. la Parisienne alone must be ascribed all the honor for the originality of the unique in headgear for the spring of '95.

For day wear, inclusive of all occasions, shopping, calling and receptions, large hats with drooping blooms will be mostly in vogue. For one preferring quiet elegance to brilliancy of combination, colors are mostly in the subdued shades of brown, green and gray, with black always in the lead.

A novelty for the first days of spring is a moire felt, as soft as a Leghorn straw, pinned into any shape desired by means of long, fancy headed pins, with a "Colonel" aigrette finishing the back, and fastened just above the coil of hair.

For evening wear the most exquisite thing that met my eye was a small toque consisting of a heavy gold cord crown, designed in a conventional pattern, with turquoise blue velvet forming broad loops on each side of the front; producing the desired broad effect to the head. Gold wings appeared just above the loops of velvet, while resting at the parting of the hair was a knot of velvet, fastened with a rhinestone buckle. Tiny pink and blue forget-me-nots peep out here and there from the folds of blue velvet, a bunch forming an aigrette effect at the front and, combined with velvet, finished the back.

In the Continental shape was a lovely thing with jet foundation, immense fan bow of delicately tinted Dresden ribbon, for front trimming separated just above the forehead by a jet buckle. Immense Jacque roses of a deep red tint, out of which came bird of Paradise feathers, formed a lovely finish for the back.

The prettiest of the new ribbons are those of Dresden patterns; the foundation colors being of the most delicate tints, with tiny flowers, in exact counterpart of the Dresden china ware.

A revival of many old-time ribbons, mostly those in vogue about 1840, are observable, but have not as yet gained full sway.

The quaintest sort of headgear possible and charmingly suitable, the Priscilla styled bonnety, is the Dutch bonne and here is the idea.

The half moon shape is designed in dark green velvet. Red and cream roses are cunningly bunched in front; the back curved and finished in velvet. Just back of the ears comes a bunch of cream lace, fastened with gold ornaments and roses to correspond with the front trimmings. Broad streamers of cream satin ribbon fall below the waist, and prove a fitting finish to this odd creation.

If one had suggested some months since a combination of chiffon edged with patent leather, for hat trimming a generally incredulous feeling as to its fitness would have been readily expressed. Yet it is the prettiest novelty of the year.

A high peaked crown, just such a shape as the Mother Goose favored, is made entirely of patent leather, with a brim of shirred chiffon finished at the edge with narrow strips of the same glazy black material. Soft plumes curl about the crown and droop gracefully over the hair, truly a symphony in black and white.

Inexpensive and dainty is the new material called trickatine, and over which the gauziest of chiffon looks well. It combines delicacy with strength and is most desirable, as for years one has been obliged to shirr thin materials over.

There is a marked improvement in the jewels for millinery use. They do not offend the eye as in former years, and no pretty evening toque is complete without them, and rhinestones lead the day.

Imitation grasses are graceful and wear well.

Laces spangled in gold and silver are used on every possible occasionn, and impart a soft grace and expression to the face of the wearer, and particularly when used to form the "ear loops."

There is a whisper that violets must go, as they are altogether too common, but still they trim some of the prettiest of the opera toques.

Very often a hat is seen that has a crown of close and a brim of open straw, with huge pink and red roses bunched here and there, and producing a very flowery and pretty effect.

For very dressy occasions a toque, composed entirely of primroses is lovely enough for a queen. In front a brilliant rhinestone buckle holds a bunch of primroses placed at each end and a large bow of black velvet. On the right a marabout aigrette is added, while the flowers tapering to a mere band, allow the coiffure to be plainly visible.

Black beaded wheat is a dainty novelty and is used for aigrettes.

The big, Leghorn hat, bent a little over the face, rolled at one side, with a half hidden bandeau of soft crushed roses, with long plumes falling easily on either side, is especially suited to the tall, stately maiden and promises to be much worn.

The broad ribbon streamers, which are being revived again, are more attractive when the hat hangs high on exhibition than when it rests on the head, so that this style, doubtlessly, will be short-lived.

The craze for toques and bandeaux tell more eloquently than words that woman in the near future is no longer to be illbred at the theatre in her head gear, but is to drift amiably into those poems of lace and flowers which for evening wear have no rival in beauty—Mary Belrne.

"Love Your Neighbor as Yourself."

The recent effort of some conspicuously pious men to seize for their own country's benefit a country which belongs to another race, points the moral of Herbert Spencer's assertion that what men believe they believe is very different from what they really do believe. The actions of Americans in regard to Hawaii render these words of Spencer peculiarly interesting: "A society in which the most exalted principles of self-sacrifice for the benefit of neighbors are enunciated may be a society in which unscrupulous sacrifice of alien fellow-creatures is not only tolerated but applauded. Along with professed anxiety to spread these exalted principles among heathens there may go the deliberate fastening of a quarrel upon them with a view to annexing their territory. Men who every Sunday have listened approvingly to injunctions carrying the regard for other people to an impracticable extent may yet line themselves out to slay, at the word of command, any people in any part of the world, utterly indifferent to the right or wrong of the matter fought about."—Boston Transcript.

Last of the Druids.

We regret to announce the death of the High Priest of the Sun, at the ripe age of ninety-two. To the eye of faith he was the last of the Druids; the profane knew him only as Dr. William Price, of Llantrissant, in Glamorganshire, and characterised him as "a most eccentric man." It must be admitted that they were not altogether without excuse for this opinion. He attempted to imitate the pontifical raiment of his predecessors in the priesthood, wearing a whole fox skin on his head, a light green coat with trousers to match, and a scarlet waistcoat. As a reproduction of Druidic costume the profane may perhaps be again excused for thinking this a little unconvincing. Even High priests of the Sun are not without human weaknesses, and Dr. Price signalised this truth at the age of eighty-one by marrying his housekeeper, a girl of nineteen. One must allow that this step is a touch of prose in such a character, but he redeemed it shortly afterwards by attempting to burn the body of his dead child on a funeral pyre which he erected in a neighboring field. The Druid could hardly take account of the constable.—Pall Mall Budget.

MERRY THOUGHTS.

It's odd that when we want a watch to run we have to set it.

Where the Men Come In.

A woman in Tennessee wore a hoop-skirt to church. A man made some remarks about the garment, which she considered insulting, whereupon her husband proceeded to whip the offender. Relatives of both sides joined in and the fight became general, regardless of the time and place. If the anti-hoop-skirt advocates have as much spirit as these Tennesseeans, they will at once begin drilling preparatory to declaring war on France in case the hoop-skirt invasion is not stopped.

ALD. A. F. STAGG, OF BROCKVILLE, ONT.

Restored to Perfect Health by South American Nervine.

Had Tried all the Local Doctors, but Failed to be Benefited.

Visited Massena Springs, but Returned in Despair—To-day Enjoys Perfect Health After Taking Nervine.

ALD. A. F. STAGG, BROCKVILLE, ONT.

A citizen whose influence carries a good premium in the growing town of Brockville is Ald. A. F. Stagg, an extensive stock dealer in that section of the province. For over fifty years he has carried on business in Brockville. The people know the man. How much he has accomplished during this half century is building up the municipality is known to them, and they have been ready to show their appreciation of these labors by making him a town father. Mr. Stagg, however, failed just where so many other men of active and aggressive temperament fail, namely, in exceeding his strength. About two years ago his nervous system became broken and shattered, and he was unable to do work of any kind. This was a serious blow to a man of so active a temperament, and with the volume of business he had on hand. He did, as any one else would do, and which is the natural thing to do, sought the assistance of the local doctors of the place. He tried not only one but all of them. Whatever the trouble was they seemed unable to master it, and did him no good. He went to Kingston, hoping to find greater medical skill in the Limestone City. He was no better off for his trouble. A friend influenced him to visit Massena Springs, it being believed that the peculiar charm that surrounds that spot would have its effect in giving back to Mr. Stagg his lost health. But it was simply a case of history repeating itself everything failed, and he remained home in utter despair, seeing nothing but early death before him. His neighbor, a Mrs. Johnston, who had been using Nervine with great success, recommended him to try a bottle. It cannot be said that he did so with any bright hopes of being benefited. To his great delight, however, he found almost instant relief. After taking several bottles he to-day says, in his own words, that he enjoys perfect health. To those who do not know the particular virtues of South American Nervine all this may sound like a miracle. Here was a man whose condition was known to every one in Brockville, for everyone knew Ald. Stagg, who was completely broken up in health, and whose disease the best medical skill could not relieve, much less remove, and yet a few bottles of this wonderful discovery, Nervine, gives back to him the health that two years previous he had completely lost. This is what Nervine will do in every case. Physicians fail usually because they doctor, as it were, on the surface. Nervine succeeds in every case because it immediately acts upon the nerve centers of the body, from which, as science has unmistakably demonstrated, flows the life blood of the system. When these nerve centers are kept in healthful condition disease that may exist in any part of the body speedily becomes an unknown thing.

MRS. BEATON'S CASE.

A Verdict Given for the Defendants in all Cases.

Hamilton, April 4.—The spring assizes opened Tuesday afternoon before Judge Ferguson with 26 civil and two criminal cases on the list. The Beaton libel suits were first taken up and occupied the time of the court until 3 o'clock and nearly all of yesterday. These suits are brought by Mrs. Beaton, of Burlington, against The Toronto Globe, St. Thomas Times, Guelph Herald, Stratford Herald, Strathroy Despatch, Central Press Agency and Toronto World. These cases were tried together but each newspaper had a separate counsel and there was a great array of lawyers in the suit. The Globe was sued for $25,000, and the other papers for $5,000 each. George Lynch Staunton appeared for Mrs. Beaton and B. B. Osler for The Globe. In the case against The Toronto World and Central Press Agency plaintiffs failed to prove publication of the articles complained of, and these actions were dismissed with costs. Mr. Staunton produced the article complained of, which was published in The New York World of August, 1893, and reproduced by defendants. It is to the effect that on June 30, when the old Dominion line steamship Guyandotte arrived in New York, it was reported that a wealthy old gentleman named Cicero Harrison Case, of Norfolk, Va., had been lost overboard. A woman who said she was his widowed daughter, Mrs. Oliver, was with Case on the voyage, but disappeared on arrival of the steamer at New York. The body of the old man was subsequently found on the Virginia coast, and although he was known to have a large sum of money on him when he left Norfolk, Va., there was none found on the body. The New York World reporter stated that he had traced Mrs. Oliver and identified her as Mrs. Beaton, of Burlington village. The old man had previously lived in Burlington, having retired with a fortune of $35,000, which he accumulated at carriage building. The article alleged that Mrs. Beaton obtained an influence over Case and used to visit him in Norfolk to extort large sums of money from him. In subsequent interviews with The New York World reporter and Toronto Globe reporter Mrs. Beaton denied having been on the steamer with old Case, and denied having visited or of having been at all intimate with him. In her examination before B. B. Osler a few days ago Mrs. Beaton admitted having been criminally intimate with Case, and said the father of her last child was Case. She also admitted living with him in Norfolk and other places as his wife, and of having been on the steamer with him when he was lost overboard. Mrs. Beaton broke down in her examination before Mr. Osler this morning and had to be removed from court while weeping hysterically. Mr. Osler made a lengthy and impressive address to the jury and in which he arraigned the plaintiff in the most scathing terms. Mr. Staunton, for Mrs. Beaton, made a powerful address, and said that the Canadian papers in their comments on Mrs. Beaton's connection with old man Case had insinuated that she had led the old man to his death, and that she had murdered her child born to Case. Judge Ferguson summed up the case in a very impartial manner and the jury retired about 3.30 p.m. A verdict for defendants in all cases was rendered.

A Tiger Near Belleville.

Belleville, April 4.—Yesterday a tiger was killed in Prince Edward county. The animal measured nine feet eight inches from tip to tip, and was a beautiful specimen. For weeks the farmers have been missing hogs and sheep, uneaten portions of the carcases showing that the wild animal had done the killing. Saturday one farmer found two cows killed and partially eaten, and a party of hunters tracked the beast to a thick swamp.

The first shot wounded and enraged the tiger, which attacked the hunters. As he jumped a hayfork was buried in his side, whereupon five shot-guns were emptied into him, and a club did the rest. The tiger, which had evidently escaped from some menagerie, will be stuffed.

A Linguistic Coroner.

An exchange tells a story of a coroner who was called upon to hold an inquest over the body of an Italian. The only witness was a small boy of the same nationality, who spoke no English. The examination proceeded thus: "Where do you live, my boy?" The boy shook his head. "Do you speak English?" Another shake of the head. "Do you speak French?" Another shake. "Do you speak German?" Still no answer. "How old are you?" No reply. "Have you father and mother?" The boy gave no sign. "Well," said the coroner, "I have questioned the witness in four languages, and can get no answer. It is useless to proceed. The court is adjourned."

A Spring That Runs Up Hill.

One of the few instances of a stream running up hill can be found in White county, Ga., says the Cincinnati Enquirer. Near the top of a mountain is a spring, evidently a siphon, and the water rushes from it with sufficient force to carry it up the side of a very steep hill for nearly half a mile. Reaching the crest, the water flows on to the east, and eventually finds its way into the Atlantic ocean. Of course, it is of the same nature as a geyser, but the spectacle of a stream of water flowing up a steep incline can probably be found nowhere else in the country, and appears even more remarkable than the geysers of the Yellowstone.

The Napoleonic Fad.

A peripatetic exhibitor of the phonograph in Holland seems determined to outdistance all competitors as regards the excellence of his records. He was exhibiting the machine in the streets of Utrecht and a number of customers were listening to selections of tunes. Suddenly the tune ceased and there was a pause. Then in a loud, clear tone was heard the one word, "Halt!" delivered in a tone bespeaking authority. "What is that?" asked one of the listeners. "That," was the reply, "is the voice of Napoleon Bonaparte giving an order at the battle of Waterloo!"

The rapidity with which croup develops calls for instant treatment; and yet few households are prepared for its visits. An admirable remedy for this disease is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has saved hundreds of lives and should be in every home where there are young children.

To remove worms of all kinds from children or adults Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is a safe and sure remedy.

What John Wanamaker, the Most Heavily Insured man in America, Says:

(INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WANAMAKER.)

It is very generally known that Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries the largest amount of Life Insurance of any man in the United States. A representative of the press recently interviewed this gentleman while he was travelling with the Presidential party, and this interview will be found, we believe, of general interest:—

"You are said to be the most heavily insured man in the country, Mr. Wanamaker," remarked the press representative.

"How did you come to think of that?" he said with a smile. "You are not looking for any disaster under such excellent management as our friend Boyd is giving this train and party?"

"No," I replied. "A newspaper friend in San Francisco, who had heard the report, wanted me to ask you it it was true, and if so, what your business reasons are for it?"

"Well," he modestly answered, "I have heard it stated that I am the most heavily insured man in the country. I don't know about that. The amount of my policies is $1,550,000, and the value, with the accumulations since the policies were taken out, is about two millions of dollars."

"In what class of companies are your policies?"

"They are all in stock and mutual companies, and none of them in what are known as assessment or instalment companies."

"Are they full life term policies or on what is termed the 'tontine' plan?"

"I have generally taken ten and fifteen payment policies and very few life policies. With about all good companies a contract can now be made whereby there is no risk of losing a policy after two years' premiums have been paid. If the party insured chooses to withdraw he can get a paid-up policy. Indeed, I understand that some companies have forms whereby the insurer can after one year, if desired, withdraw and receive a paid-up policy. There is practically little risk, any more, in insuring in the old companies."

"Perhaps you would be willing to tell me how you came to insure so heavily?"

"I thought the matter out, and convinced myself that it was a good business venture. Besides, it seemed to me that I might, perhaps, give away more money in lifetime if there was a fixed certainty of putting it back into my estate by Life Insurance. I conceive that the best way for a man to carry on benevolence is not to leave it to be done through his will, but to do it in his lifetime, and I felt that Life Insurance would give me more freedom in carrying out some plans I have, and which I would be glad to see completed before I leave this world. If you want to ascertain what the circumstances were in placing the Life Insurance, I must go further in my answers and say that I should not have gone so far in my Life Insurance but for the skill of the agent who tackled me to insure to a greater extent than I would otherwise have done. He was an old friend who had been in mercantile business and who knew how to present Life Insurance without boring me. I feel to-day sincerely grateful to the man who followed me so discreetly with information about companies, and who kept the subject before me until I settled the question."

"When did you begin taking Life Insurance policies?"

"My first policy was taken when I was twenty-one."

"Do you consider it a good thing for a man of small means?"

"I certainly do. Most young men spend more for cigars during the year than the annual cost of a $2,500 policy in a good company. If they must have the cigars they might divide between cigars and Life Insurance and carry at least a $1,000 policy. I think every young man, before he is married, ought to try to get at least a $1,000 policy."

"Among how many companies are your policies divided, and where are they located?

"About forty companies. Most of them are located in the East. A few are in the West and a few in Canada."

"Do you recommend Life Insurance to others, especially those in whom you feel a personal interest?"

"I can perhaps answer that best by saying that I presented a few years ago a $1,000 policy, paid up for one year, to every insurable head of family in my employ. Many of the prudent men who received them not only kept them but added to them, and I have the satisfaction of knowing that in not a few cases those policies have been the means of saving worthy families from want."

It will doubtless be of interest to our readers to know that John Wanamaker carries a large policy in the Canada Life Insurance Company, thus evincing his confidence in the soundness of Canada's oldest and largest Company. During the last few years quite a number of American capitalists have been convinced of the SUPERIOR MERITS OF THE CANADA LIFE, and have accordingly placed their insurance therein, in preference to any other company.

The Canada Life is now being recognised in the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio as the Company that gives the best results for the least premium.

BRAINS ON THE FARM.

A LAWYER'S UNIQUE EXPERIENCE AND HIS NAIVE CONFESSION.

Some Fundamental Truths Spoken by the Governor of One of the Southern States—His Remarks, However, Are Apropos The World Over.

Governor Northern has a very sensible article in the Southern Cultivator on the subject of brains on the farm. Governor Northern tells us of an eminent lawyer who, as the result of experience on the farm, arrived at the conclusion that it took more brains to manage his farm than to manage his law office, for he succeeded best in law. This, our distinguished writer concludes, was rather a matter of aptitude than a matter of brains. After some discussion of the question he says:

"It is a great mistake to adopt the generally received opinion that any man can successfully farm if he will only stick at it and put into it plenty of elbow grease and personal sweat. I do not believe this to be any nearer the truth than that any man of ordinary intelligence can practice physic carefully simply because he stays steadily beside the bedside of his patient and industriously administers medicine at every apparent change of symptom.

"Just so long as we believe and practice the belief that any stupid dolt that never had an original idea in his life and has given evidence of no higher capacity than to hold a plow and beat and starve a mule, will make a good enough farmer to till our lands and make our material wealth, just so long will we invite ruin to our agriculture and desolation for the best interest of our sections. We must away with such suicidal practices and put more brains on our farms. Let muscle do the work, but intelligence direct the management and the methods."

Governor Northern brings out a great fundamental truth in the following sentence:

"In the soil God has given an inheritance not exclusively to the generation that now butchers it on our farms, but to generation after generation to follow, and we have no more right to turn loose upon it such savage slaughter than allow hordes of quack doctors to become unrestrained vendors of poisons to the destruction of human life."

There are few more pitiable industrial spectacles than that of a farmer reducing the fertility and character of his farm. It is a standing advertisement of his mental incapacity and sluggishness and his entire failure to seize upon the grand fact of a very plain fundamental obligation of life. One who is satisfied to leave the world poorer than he found it has not the ring of true manhood in him. The whole class of soil robbers and farm dispoilers are not only, as Prof. Robertson concludes, traitors to their country, but they are more—they are traitors to nature and to their God. We want a race of men and women on the farm far above the low ideal of agriculture that governs many farmers.

Physical Culture.

In walking the heel should not be brought down too firmly. A part of the weight of the body belongs upon the toes, and when a due proportion is thrown there it gives an elasticity to the gait which is lost when it is not properly distributed. Walking with the heels raised from the ground is a good exercise although a fatiguing one. Hopping on each foot alternately is another. Dancing is a valuable accomplishment for children. The consciousness of being able to dance well gives ease and self possession to many a young man and woman who were otherwise bashful and awkward on their first entrance into society. The little people usually delight in the rhythmical motion, and if it is not combined with late hours it does them nothing but good, says a writer in the Ladies' Home Journal, who adds:

All outdoor games that involve running and active movement of any kind are useful adjuncts in physical development. An immense amount of exercise is taken under the guise of diversion. Battledoor and shuttlecock, which was long a favorite amusement, is a capital indoor game where there is room to play it and might be revived with advantage. Bean bags, colored bags filled with beans and aimed at a ring or other mark, and the form of quoits played on shipboard with rings of rope may be utilized to furnish exercise on rainy days. Especial attention should be paid to ventilation when the children are exercising indoors. The respiration is quickened, the lungs demand more air, and there should be a plentiful supply of oxygen to meet it.

New Use for Electricity.

Electricity has now, it seems, beaten the record of the gold beater, and can produce a foil of the mineral from five to ten times thinner than ordinary gold leaf. Joseph Wilson Swan, the chemist of electric lighting fame, has presented to the Royal Society specimens of this wonderful thin foil made by depositing gold on copper with the electric current and then dissolving away the copper from it with perchloride of iron.—San Francisco Examiner.

An Apt Comparison.

The man who boasts that he works with his head instead of his hands is respectfully reminded that the woodpecker does the same and is the biggest kind of a bore at that.—Waterloo Courier.

WORST KIND OF DYSPEPSIA.

GENTLEMEN,—I write to inform you that for years I had been troubled with Dyspepsia and having tried other medicines which entirely failed, I at last found relief and cure in Burdock Blood Bitters, of which I took two bottles, the result being a perfect cure. Although only a young lad I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for four or five years, but I can say now that B. B. B. does its work faithfully in the worst kind of Dyspepsia, and has proved itself the only cure for me.

A Big Timber Deal On.

Ottawa, April 5.—A big deal is on between a wealthy syndicate of American capitalists in Philadelphia and Canadian lumbermen for several large tracts of timber limits on the upper Ottawa river. The limits are some of the most northerly in the valley of the Ottawa, and in some cases have not yet been worked to any extent. It is said that a Hamilton firm, which recently purchased Ald. Lauson's limits, is interested in the sale and these same tracts of land which were disposed of so advantageously, will likely change hands again. The negotiations were opened up some time ago, a prominent Toronto auctioneer acting as middleman between the interested parties. Competent bush rangers acquainted with the country will be despatched shortly to furnish information for the intending purchasers.

Charged with Stealing a Letter.

Niagara Falls, Ont., April 5.—William J. Farr, of the township of Thorold, was arrested Wednesday evening by Officers Griffin and Mains, of the Ontario police, charged with stealing a letter containing a post office order for $18.50 out of the Niagara Falls village post office. The letter was addressed to one William Faro. It seems the accused told the postmaster that the letter was intended for him. He opened it and had the order cashed. The information was laid by P. O. Inspector Burnham, of Toronto. The prisoner is supposed to bear an unsavory reputation of having been arrested and tried for stealing wheat about four years ago, but managed to get himself acquitted of that charge. He was up before Police Magistrate Hill yesterday afternoon for the post office robbery and was remanded till to-morrow, bail being refused.

Hamilton is Aroused.

Hamilton, April 5.—The action of the Private Bills Committee of the Provincial Legislature in throwing out the city of Hamilton's bill to amend the charter of the Hamilton Gas Company, which was given a perpetual charter by the Legislature, unknown to the city, has been condemned by the press and the public generally, and the feeling is so strong in the matter that Mayor Stewart has decided to call a special meeting of the city council for to-night to discuss the matter. It is probable that the Private Bills Committee will be requested to re-consider the city's bill, and it is hoped a more favorable decision to the city will be given. The city council will also consider the electric railway bill now before the Legislature, as many of the aldermen are opposed to an Act which will prohibit the running of cars on Sunday.

Canadian Freight Rates.

Montreal, April 5.—The Canadian Freight Agents Association have decided to advance rates from south-western points in the States to western points in Canada forty per cent., but no change will be made in Canadian rates. The association last night elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, John Burton, G.T.R., Montreal; 1st Vice-President, J. N. Sutherland, C.P.R., Toronto; 2nd Vice-President, N. Weatherston, Toronto; Secretary-Treasurer, W. D. Ruling, G.P.R., Montreal. The Classification Committee met and re-elected officers.

Need Fueling Docks for Amherstburg.

Amherstburg, Ont., April 5.—The Mullen-Gatfield Coal Company has awarded the contract to Fluke & Babcock, of Windsor, for the construction of one of the most modern fueling docks on the chain of lakes at Amherstburg. The dock will have a ship in the rear for unloading, and will be fitted with modern steam derricks for the quick handling of fuel. This point is one of the most important points for fueling, and the business has been yearly growing until as much coal is handled at this point as at all the Canadian ports on the lakes.

British Columbia Wants a Loan.

Montreal, April 5.—Hon. J. H. Turner, Premier of British Columbia, arrived in Montreal last night. He is on his way to float a loan of two million dollars for provincial purposes. Premier Turner goes to Ottawa to-day.

Tramping for a Purpose.

An amusing story is told of the late Prof. Henry Morley. Some years ago, when the "slumming" boom was occupying general attention, he was accosted one day by a peculiarly emaciated and ragged individual, who solicited aid in moving terms. Prof. Morley, who was never proof against such petitions, responded with a silver coin.

"Thank you, Prof. Morley; I'm much obliged," said the man.

"You know me, eh?"

"Yes, I attended your lectures at King's College in 1860."

"Dear, dear! I'm sorry to see you in this state."

"Not at all, my dear professor. I am doing some articles for my paper, and the editor insists on my making my researches in character. Will you dine with me to-night?" And he handed a card bearing a well-known name.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Invited to South Jersey.

Cape May, N.J., April 5.—The American Forest Association has accepted the invitation of the New Jersey Forestry Association to come to South Jersey from the 15th to the 19th of May next. The party will consist of about 75 prominent people from all parts of the United States and Canada. Some of the prominent gentlemen of the party will be the Hon. J. S. Morton, Secretary of Agriculture; N. H. Newell, United States Geological Survey; Hon. H. J. Lotbiniere Joly, Quebec; Hon. Edward Burroughs, Hon. Franklin Dye and Prof. J. C. Smock.

The Kaiser as an Art Critic.

Kaiser Wilhelm, as a critic of art, has put his foot down on the decisions of the jury of the Berlin art exhibition. He has annulled the award of the gold medal in Prof. Wallot, the architect of the new parliament house, which the emperor two years ago at Rome declared to be the acme of tastelessness, and has himself given the medal to Mme. Vilma Palaghy, the painter. She was kept out of the Berlin academy, but by the emperor's orders her pictures will be exhibited at the royal national gallery.

NEW ZEALAND SEEKS RECIPROCITY

Particulars of Newfoundland's Trade, Debt, Etc., Submitted to the Conference—Two Projected Railways—New Ruling Re Duties on Packaged Tea.

Ottawa, April 6.—Hon. Mr. Ives, Minister of Trade and Commerce, received a cable message from the High Commissioner to-day, stating that Hon. Mr. Ward, Treasurer of New Zealand, is at present in London and had intimated a willingness on the part of his Government to negotiate a trade arrangement with Canada on a preferential basis. Mr. Ives immediately cabled to Sir Charles Tupper for particulars of the nature of the proposed arrangement, previous to authorizing him to discuss the matter officially with Mr. Ward.

The conference between the Dominion and Newfoundland delegates this morning was of short duration. The visitors had a mass of information bearing upon the financial condition of the island, containing statistics in regard to trade, subsidies and other particulars of a like nature. It was decided to have these documents printed at once, and they will be available for the use of the conference at Saturday's session.

The Premier entertained the visitors and some of the Ministers at lunch at the Rideau Club to-day.

The Toronto promoters of James' Bay Railway had better look to their laurels. McIntyre and Sinclair of this city give notice this week of application to Parliament for an act to incorporate the James' Bay Railway Company, to build a railway from Parry Sound, or from a point on the Canadian Pacific Railway, between Sudbury Junction and North Bay, to James' Bay, where Moose River enters the bay.

Application is also made for incorporation of the Lindsay, Haliburton and Mattawa Railway Co., to build a railway from a point on the Midland division of the Grand Trunk, north of Lindsay to Mattawa, and also a branch line to connect with the Lindsay, Haliburton and Mattawa Railway, or Midland Railway.

The St. Clair and Erie Ship Canal Company will apply for an Act to amend the Act of Incorporation of the company by increasing its power to issue bonds, and for other purposes.

The revenue for March amounted to $2,748,153, a decrease of one million as compared with the corresponding month of last year. The expenditure fell off $200,000, reducing the net loss by that amount. The total revenue for nine months was $24,553,099, compared with $27,845,846 for the same period last year. The surplus revenue over expenditure on March 31 was $708,107. Expenditure on capital account so far this year has been $3,273,195, as compared with $3,852,340. Net debt on March 31 was $248,150,854, a decrease of $1,118,[illegible] in the month.

By the militia general orders to be issued Saturday, the Government will recognise the distinguished services of Lieut.-Col. W. P. Anderson of this city in promoting and encouraging rifle-shooting in Canada, by granting him the rank of Lieut.-Col. in the active militia on the special list.

Recently it was announced that Lieut.-Col. Turnbull, commanding the Royal Canadian Dragoons, had retired from the service. The reasons assigned for this step have not transpired, but it is said it was owing to some difference of opinion with General Herbert. Col. Turnbull, however, has never been gazetted out, and this week's general order appoints him Inspector of Cavalry for the Dominion, in addition to his present duties, implying that whatever action was contemplated by Gen. Herbert is revoked. Col. Turnbull will take up his residence in Toronto again very soon.

An officer formerly well known in Toronto military circles and an old Queen's Own man, in the person of Major W. E. Hodgins, succeeds Col. Toller this week in command of the Governor-General's Foot Guards of this city. Col. Hodgins is every inch a soldier. By his promotion Capt. A. L. Jarvis thereby secures the vacant majority. Major Jarvis is well known throughout Ontario as being formerly private secretary to Sir John Carling.

The order-in-council appointing certain officers to be deputy surgeons-general in the active militia is applicable to the following: Surgeon-Major F. W. Strange, R.R.C.I., from Sept. 1 last; Surgeon-Major J. L. H. Neilson, R.C.A., from Feb. 1 last; Surgeon-Major F. W. Campbell, R.R.C.I., from Feb. 1, 1895; Surgeon-Major C. C. Sewell, R.C.A., from Feb. 1, 1895; Surgeon G. S. Ryerson, 10th Batt'n Hon. Royal Grenadiers, from March 26, 1895; Surgeon William Tobin, retired list, from March 30, 1895.

In the Royal Regiment of Canadian Infantry Major M. D. Gordon is granted the brevet rank of Lt.-Col., from April 18, 1891, as a special case. Major B. H. Vidal is granted the brevet rank of Lt.-Col. from March 8, 1895, as a special case. Lieuts. A. O. Pages and C. F. O. Fleet are granted the brevet rank of captain from March 18, 1895.

Captain R. W. Rutherford of the Royal Canadian Artillery is granted the brevet rank of major as a special case. Similar rank has conferred upon Capt. J. B. Donaldson of the headquarters staff, secretary of the Dominion Artillery Association. Capt. Benoit from the retired list, secretary of the Militia department, is granted the rank of captain in active militia.

There has for some time been a disposition among importers to read the tariff item referring to tea in small packages to mean that such are to be admitted free of duty, the same as tea in the larger boxes in which it is imported direct from the countries of production. The intention in framing the new tariff was to impose a duty on the package, which was simply carrying out the spirit of the general tariff policy, in order to encourage the re-packing in pound and half-pound packages in this country. In furtherance of this intention tea lead was placed on the free list, so that having his labels printed in Canada the local packer would have a slight advantage over the foreign dealer in the home market. This construction of the new tariff has been submitted by the Controller of Customs for legal opinion with the result that Hon. Mr. Wallace's ruling has been sustained. Under the old tariff item tea in small packages was admitted free, while local repacking was handicapped by duty on lead and labels. It was to correct this trade paradox that the wording of the item was changed in the new tariff.

The Department of Justice has not received any communications asking on grounds of alleged insanity for an examination of Chatelle, the murderer of Jessie Keith, at Listowel. The only report to hand is one from Chief Justice Armour intimating that he had sentenced the prisoner, or in other words, the ordinary report sent to the Department in capital cases.

MURDERER SHOT DOWN.

The Assassin of Frank Skynner at Gleichen Shot by Police.

Winnipeg, April 6.—Frank Skynner, the young man murdered by an Indian on the Blackfoot Reservation, Gleichen, yesterday, was a son of Col. Skynner of Port Hope, and lived for some time in Toronto. The Indian who murdered him was pursued by a posse of Mounted Police and shot dead when he offered resistance.

The murderer was entrenched behind the coffins of Chiefs Crow Foot and Three Bulls, and several shots were exchanged.

He was near the grave of his child, whom he lost by illness several weeks ago, and for whose death he blamed the whites. The burying-ground is on the top of a hill, and the Indian had a commanding position.

FRANCE'S REPLY TO BRITAIN.

She Will Maintain Her Plain Rights in Africa, But Looks for a Reconciliation of Interests.

Paris, April 6.—M. Hanotaux, Minister of Foreign Affairs, spoke in the Senate last evening concerning Sir Edward Grey's statement in the House of Commons last week. The debate in the Commons as to the British and Egyptian sphere of influence in Africa, he said, had astonished him. France opposed decidedly the pretensions of the Royal Niger Company, which aimed to monopolize trade in a vast region. The negotiations as to the territory affected by the company's claims were now in progress. As to the Upper Nile region, France demanded that England state her claims explicitly. France would reserve her decision and liberty of action pending England's reply. It was advisable to abstain from imprudent statements. France would maintain her plain rights. He preferred, however, not to make any affirmations likely to hinder the present negotiations. He was convinced that when the time of decision should come, the two great nations would find means of reconciling their interests with those of civilization and progress.

Why No Mention of the Expedition?

London, April 6.—The Standard says: M. Hanotaux's speech was moderate and courteous, but did not relieve the strain. In some respects it rather accentuates the points of difference. His silence as to the French expedition to the Nile Valley could not have been accidental, although the subject cannot be treated as immaterial. We hope that communications will be resumed speedily, and that the Nile and Niger expeditions, which can only be regarded as barriers to a friendly settlement, will be recalled.

The Times says: We acknowledge with pleasure M. Hanotaux's moderation and evident desire to avoid placing obstacles in the way of friendly discussion. We must regret, however, that no corrective was applied to the inflammatory statements of the press.

THE CONSUMPTION HOSPITAL.

The Amendment to the Agriculture and Arts Bill—Inspection of Building Society's Books—An Electric Railway Bill Thrown Out.

Toronto, April 6.—The proceedings of the House yesterday were very dull and uninteresting. A number of Government bills were considered and reported in committee of the whole House, among these was the bill respecting succession duties.

Hon. Mr. Dryden added a clause to his Agriculture and Arts bill, providing that directors of exhibitions shall prohibit all kinds of gambling and games of chance within 300 yards of the fair grounds.

Despite the determined opposition on the part of road companies all over the province, the Municipal Committee passed Mr. Flatt's bill reducing the toll on one-horse rigs by one-half and on two-horse rigs by one-third. The new rates will be: For one-horse rigs 1 cent per mile and for each additional horse 1 cent. The present rates are: For one-horse rigs 2 cents, and for each additional horse 1 cent.

A deputation, led by W. J. Gage, representing the Board of Trade and city medical men, waited upon the Government yesterday with reference to the proposed hospital for consumptives. They asked that a per diem allowance be made for each patient, and they also requested that such allowance should be continued when patients were removed from Toronto to the branch hospital to be established in the Rocky Mountains. Sir Oliver Mowat, in reply, expressed the opinion that there was a general feeling throughout the country that the Government was contributing as much to hospitals as the revenue justified, and as for the hospital outside of Ontario, he thought it extremely improbable that the Government, or the House, would consent to make any allowance. They would, however, consider the question. "We will," he added, "be glad to do whatever we can properly or consistently with the demands on our revenue."

The special committee appointed to consider Dr. McKay's bill, providing for the inspection of building societies, held its first meeting yesterday. Representatives of all the leading building societies were present, and evidence both favoring and opposing inspection was adduced. It was the general opinion that the Government might so arrange the law as to permit the old line loan companies to do business under one act and the building societies proper to conduct their operations under the provisions of a separate act. The principle of a minute inspection of financial societies was looked upon as impracticable.

In the Railway Committee yesterday there was an interesting and close fight between two small electric railroad companies and a big one composed of a syndicate, a prominent member of which is H. A. Everett of the Toronto Street Railway. By the skin of their teeth the little fellows were victorious. The two small companies belonged to London and St. Thomas respectively, and they asked for powers to construct local lines. Their opponent was the London and Western Ontario Co., who wanted to run a line, including both these districts. Mr. Awrey contended that if Mr. Everett's company were given the privilege it would simply mean granting a monopoly for the entire western district. The vote in committee was 16 to 16, but Chairman Bronson turned the balance in favor of the local companies.

A delegation from the Provincial Constabulary Association waited on the Government with a petition, embodying the resolutions passed at the recent convention of the association at Hamilton. Among the deputation were:

ANOTHER BATTLE IN INDIA.

The Boori Tribesmen Repulsed With Heavy Losses.

Calcutta, April 5.—The first brigade of the British force sent to Chitral is reported to have had an engagement with natives beyond Malakand Pass. The British were advancing to occupy the banks of the Swat River, when a considerable body of Doori tribesmen attacked them. The natives fought stubbornly and eventually tried to rush the British lines, but they were checked by the guards and cavalry and were forced back with heavy losses. The second brigade has not yet crossed the Pass. Its progress has been very slow, as the enemy had torn up and barricaded the road.

14 KILLED IN AN EXPLOSION.

Buried Under Two Three Story Buildings Which Were Wrecked.

New Orleans, April 6.—This morning an explosion took place in a ship chandlery establishment run by Charles Sathe. The store was located in a three-story building, which was entirely destroyed. Sathe, with his wife, one child, and three servants, were caught by the falling walls and killed. A saloon, run by Emile Boulet, situated next door, was crushed by the tumbling ruins and five or six fishermen, who were sleeping upstairs over the saloon, were killed. The killed number 14.

NEWFOUNDLAND AND FRENCH CLAIMS.

Great Britain seems to be in for paying the penalty of colonial greatness. She is coming into collision, or at least France is coming into collision with her in the Nile region in Africa. Venezuela on the Orconoco is encroaching on British territory and the proposal of Newfoundland in regard to entering the Canadian Confederation is likely to bring in another French complication. The French view of the question is set forth in a timely letter from St. Pierre, the chief town of Miquelon, one of the small group of islands off the south coast of Newfoundland, which belongs to France. This letter has been written evidently with a view of influencing the Canadian people against the union of Newfoundland with the Dominion, and has been timed with reference to the arrival of the Newfoundland mission in Canada to negotiate the terms of confederation. The treaty rights, if not the claims, of France to the north shore of Newfoundland are, evidently with a purpose, greatly exaggerated. One would suppose from reading this letter that the French had a territorial jurisdiction over a part of the coast, which is not true in any sense. Every foot of the island belongs to the British; the French have by treaty fishing rights on what is called the French coast concurrent with British fishermen, including the right to erect on the shore temporary fishing sheds and stages or flakes, as they are called, and with this the right to land supplies for the fishermen free of duty on this part of the coast, but they have no further rights by treaty, whatever they may claim. It is not probable that any action France may take will influence the situation. Great Britain has taken a firm stand against French aggression in Africa, and there is no reason to fear that there will be any relaxation of the firmness of her attitude in the Newfoundland matter. If France has any hope for moral or material aid from the people of Quebec she is calculating without a full knowledge of the facts. The people of Quebec are French in origin and language, but they are Canadians, living peacefully and prosperously under British rule, to which they are loyal, and to which they will remain loyal, and they can be counted upon to oppose in common with the rest of Canada and Great Britain, French aggression on the Newfoundland coast.

Mr. J. H. Delamere, of the Minden Echo, who is an aspirant for parliamentary honours in North Victoria, calls the EXAMINER's attention to the fact that he does not pose as a "moderate prohibitionist," but as a "moderate protectionist," though he is a total abstainer and an earnest advocate of temperance principles. We did not do Brother Delamere so much injustice by a clerical lapse. After all, there is not much difference in the matter of a restrictive fiscal policy between a protectionist and prohibitionist. "Protection" is practical "prohibition" of rational trade intercourse.

It is often said, "talk is cheap," but it doesn't look like it when a company has been formed with one hundred and sixty million dollars capital to establish a rival company to the Bell Telephone Company, whose patents have expired. However, now that we are advised of competition, it may be that talk will not only be cheap, but cheaper.

WOULD it be disrespectful to refer to the Newfoundland delegates now visiting Canada as codfish aristocracy?

Women Suffrage in Salt Lake.

Salt Lake, April 6.—The question of female suffrage was finally disposed of in the constitutional convention to-day. By a vote of 58 to 42 the convention refused to refer the matter to a committee to submit the matter in a separate article to the voters, and the clause adopting suffrage as part of the constitution was adopted 75 to 15.

ABOUT HOGS AND BACON.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—We were taking in live hogs to-day and there was one lot of 12 hogs that I consider are the best quality for the English bacon trade that I have ever bought. They were fed by Mr. Arthur Bell of Verulam, and are a cross of Tamworth and Yorkshire. They were the real long lean hogs that are so much desired, six months and two days old, and weighed 2,220 pounds, or 185 pounds each.

I have bought hogs from other farmers that were equal to these in weight for their age, but the extra good points about these hogs were the LONG LEAN BODY, LIGHT SHOULDERS and VERY LIGHT HEADS, and I know that when killed and split down the back the fat on the back will be an even thickness from the tail to the head, of not less than 1¼ inches or more than 1½ inches thick, which is the quality required for the highest class of English trade.

From what I know of the English bacon trade I have no doubt that if we could get a steady supply of hogs just the same quality as these, we should be able to pay about one dollar per 100 pounds more than we can pay for the hogs we are buying now.

We get some very good hogs, but a large percentage, perhaps three-fourths, of all we buy have the thick heavy shoulders so characteristic of the Berkshire hogs, and although the age and weights are right, still, the heavy shoulders prevent our getting the prices in the English market that we should obtain if the sides of the bacon were uniform as to quantity of lean and fat, and light in the shoulders.

This question of the right quality or breed of hogs rests entirely upon the farmers, and they are the parties who will reap the benefit when they get it right. The packers have spared no expense in providing buildings, machinery, etc., to enable them to turn out the article that their customers in England require, and have succeeded so well that it is acknowledged by the trade in England that for cut and cure the Canadian bacon is equal to any imported goods, but we have to take a considerably lower price than the Danes, because our bacon varies so much in the thickness of sides, especially in the shoulders, while the Danish bacon is all the same thickness evidently made from just such hogs as those received to-day from Mr. Bell.

If all the farmers of Ontario would go into this question earnestly (as some of them have done) we could place our bacon on the English market in the same proud position as Canadian cheese, at the top of the list of prices of imported goods.

Some of our customers who take a certain number of boxes of bacon every week also sell Danish bacon, and when we see them they say, "Oh, yes, your bacon is equal in cut, cure and colour to the Danish, but look at the number of short thick sides there are in your boxes; if they were the same styles of sides as the Danish, long and lean, with light shoulders, we would pay you the same prices as we pay them."

I hope that the farmers will go on with the object in view of raising Canadian meats to the highest standard. The packers have done all they can and turn out goods equal in cut and cure to any in the world, and now only wait for the farmers to give them the right style of hog to put our meats where they should be, at the top.

Yours truly,

March 25th, 1895. GEO. MATTHEWS.

CONTRACTOR DAVIS KILLED.

Fell From a Building to the Ground 55 Feet Below.

Robert J. Davis, aged 45, who resided with his wife and family at 58 Wright-avenue, fell from the roof of a building at College-street and Brunswick-avenue yesterday and was killed. Davis and a companion had the contract for demolishing a house at the above corner, and they were engaged lowering a lot of debris by means of a pulley. Davis was standing at a height of 55 feet from the ground, when by some means the scaffold, pulley and all gave way, throwing the unfortunate man onto a pile of brick in a lane in the rear. He alighted on his head, breaking his neck, and died instantly.

Britain Has Enough Nicaragua Territory.

Washington, April 6.—The British Minister of Foreign Affairs has informed United States Ambassador Bayard that Great Britain will not seek in her present controversy with Nicaragua to acquire any part of the latter's country; that Great Britain does not desire an increase of Nicaraguan territory; that her colonial possessions are sufficiently large to satisfy her ambition, and that all she desires of Nicaragua is that a proper indemnity shall be paid to the British Consul Hatch and other of Her Majesty's subjects who were driven out of Bluefields during the troubles in the Mosquito reservation last autumn.

Wreck of a Tramp-Laden Freight.

Alton, Ills., April 6.—Four tramps were almost instantly killed and 15 others badly injured in a freight wreck on the Chicago and Alton Railroad near here to-day. The wreck was caused by a broken truck which allowed a dozen cars to pile in a heap. It is estimated that 75 tramps were stealing rides on the train.

Cape Delegate Hofmeyer Ill.

Jilted, He Shot Himself.

Omaha, Neb., April 6.—F. Adams Colvin, formerly editor of The Register at Randolph, Ia., committed suicide at 617 South 28th-street, this afternoon by shooting. The ball passed through his head. He was disappointed in love.

Case Not Guilty of Manslaughter.

Guelph, April 6.—The case against John Cass, for manslaughter, and Alexander Keating, as an accessory, came up for hearing yesterday afternoon before Mr. Justice Rose. The crime which they are charged with was the result of a barroom quarrel last November, when the deceased Johnston, a farmer near Guelph, who was on his way to the lumber woods, got into a trifling altercation at Borsch's hotel with Cass, which led to blows, and in the clinch that followed Johnston fell underneath Cass and never regained consciousness. Keating is charged with being an accessory for interfering with others who endeavored to separate the combatants. The medical witnesses at the inquest who held the post-mortem on Johnston's body testified that his skull was of unusual thinness. After hearing the evidence for the Crown and Dr. Caven's testimony, his Lordship held that Cass had not used undue violence to defend himself, and directed that a verdict of not guilty be entered. Both prisoners were discharged.

A Hot Fight Expected in Vercheres.

Montreal, April 6.—The Vercheres election, which will take place on the 17th instant, is exciting great interest and a big contest is to be waged between Mr. Geoffrion, the Liberal candidate, and Mr. Bissaillon, the Conservative nominee. Both candidates left last night for the scene of the contest, and will be followed by a crowd of politicians. The nominations take place on April 10th, and both candidates are expected to define their position on the Manitoba school question.

Capt. Alfred T. Mahan, United States Navy, has applied for one year's leave of absence in order to finish certain literary work.

A Peculiar Case.

COVERED WITH PIMPLES.

AN ANXIOUS MAN.

The Disease Disappears in Three Weeks by the use of B. B. B.—Letter From Manitoba Describing it.

DEAR SIRS—During the winter of 1892-93, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it, and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B.B.B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say it has never re-appeared.

Author of "A Modern Heathen."

The Famous Southern Novelist, Mrs. E. Burke Collins, Tells of Her Complete Recovery From Nervous Debility by the use of Paine's Celery Compound.

The London Graphic, in its recent summing up of the half dozen successful novels of the year, includes with DuMaurier's "Trilby," Hall Caine's "Manxman," Conan Doyle's "Sherlock Homes," "The Heavenly Twins," and "Ships that Pass in the night." Mrs. E. Burke Collins' "A Modern Heathen."

Speaking of this last work of the distinguished southern author, the Graphic says:—"What Geo. W. Cable's writings are to the Creoles of New Orleans, Miss Murfree to the rough strata of humanity among the Tennessee mountains, and Gertrude Atherton to California, Mrs. E. Burke Collins' are to the Acadians of the Louisiana Pine Lands. In her latest work Mrs. Collins has struck a new vein in literature, opening to the novel reading world a vision of the real life of the Acadians of the backwoods, among the wild, scarcely known region of the bayous and swamps of Louisiana."

Besides her novels she contributes each week short stories, sketches, etc., to the prominent magazines and to a great variety of other publications.

Although her writing has always been a labour of love, yet such incessant mental exertion, constantly harvesting the ideas of her brain without a single idle season or fallow time for rest and refreshment, could not fail to have its effect on the recuperative power of her nervous system. At one time she found herself tired out and weak from such uninterrupted work; she became nervous and incapable of work; she even saw nervous prostration staring her in the face. The general toning up that her system needed so badly she found in Paine's Celery Compound. To-day she is perfectly well and strong again, busy as ever with her brain and pen, and grateful to Paine's Compound for the timely help when failure and trouble and despair seemed about to close round her and shut her off from everything that was dear to her. She says:

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 21, 1894.

"I wish to add my mite to the thousands of testimonials which you have received in regard to the efficacy of this wonderful compound. In my profession of author, such a strengthening medicine is invaluable. I have just completed my 95th novel and constant work at the desk had weakened my constitution, injured my nerves, and I suffered from general debility. When a person in that condition writes continually, living in the realm of action and romance, the effect upon the nervous system is lamentable. I was weak and debilitated, suffered from insomnia and was irritable and nervous. Four bottles of Paine's Celery Compound gave me strength, quieted my nerves, and brought sleep to my pillow. I owe lasting gratitude to this wonderful medicine, and I take pleasure in adding mine to the long list of testimonials."

Yours gratefully,
313 Valence street. Mrs. E. Burke Collins.

Paine's Celery Compound is found to best supply the great need of studious, sedentary people. Its extensive use by brain workers, both men and women, suffering from sleeplessness, indigestion, or other defects of a deficient nerve force, shows its ability to feed tired, emaciated, nervous tissues. Nothing else has ever possessed anything like the power of Paine's Celery Compound to restore a healthy nervous tone to the entire body and to thoroughly cleanse the blood. School teachers, professional men, newspaper men, ministers, public officials, men whose daily outlay of vitality because of hard, trying, anxious work, is excessive, find renewed strength, not only of the nerves, but, through their healthy action, of the entire body, in Paine's Celery Compound. Its use shortly dispels headaches, rheumatic pain, dyspepsia, heart trouble, general debility and languor, and all other outward signs of the grave mischief that comes from disordered nerves and impure blood.

American Trade Report.

New York, April 6.—Bradstreet's says: The appearance of more settled weather, with the announced increase in prices for Bessemer pig-iron and steel billets, continued strength of cotton, stimulating manufacturers to demand higher prices for fall delivery, rains in the northwestern wheat regions where greatly needed, further increases of wages of industrial employes, heavier shipments of wheat abroad, and the rush of the volume of the week's bank clearings above the $2,000,000,000 mark are evidences of the continuation of a better feeling in trade circles and returning confidence in many lines of business. There are 220 business failures reported to Bradstreet's this week, as compared with 229 last week. Some New England cotton manufacturers have sold a year's output for export and have cheap raw material to meet the contracts. Wool and woolen industries report less activity, but improved prospects in iron and steel, and advances in petroleum and for lumber at almost all centres, with activity in the building trades are having an influence. Exports of wheat, flour included as wheat, from both coasts of the United States this week amounts to 2,853,933 bushels, nearly 200,000 bushels more than in the preceding week.

Hutton will Oppose Extradition.

Toronto, April 5.—In the police court yesterday Mr. Johnston, counsel for Rothschild, alias Hutton, the jewellery swindler, declared the intention to oppose extradition, and the case was adjourned for a week. In the meantime the Crown Attorney will aid the extradition proceedings.

Appeal in the Wiman Case.

New York, April 6.—The District Attorney has served notice of appeal from the decision of the General Term, reversing the verdict to the case of Erastus Wiman, who was convicted for forgery. The case will, it is understood, be fought to the bitter end.

Trade in the Dominion.

New York, April 6.—Bradstreet's says: "General trade at Halifax continues dull. This is true at Toronto also, where prices remain steady, notwithstanding unfavorable weather. Montreal merchants are reported meeting their paper falling due a weak ago fairly well. General trade is stimulated by the near approach of the opening of navigation. Bank clearings at Winnipeg, Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax aggregate $16,875,000 this week, compared with $15,261,000 last week, and $20,612,000 in the week last year. There are 21 business failures reported from the Dominion of Canada, against 40 last week, 29 in the week a year ago and 38 in the week two years ago.

Kingston to Have a Blast Furnace.

Kingston, April 6.—The city council have ratified the agreement entered into between a special committee it had appointed and the Ontario Iron and Steel Company, which proposes to establish a blast furnace here. By the agreement the city is to give a free site and exemption from taxation for ten years and a loan of $350,000, to be repaid from the Government bounty on the output. Property owners will now decide the question by their votes.

Mr. Sproule Against Interference.

Collingwood, April 6.—A McCarthy club was organised in Thornbury, Grey county, Thursday night. Dr. Sproule, M.P. for East Grey, sent this telegram to the delegates, which explains itself: "Inform all that I am opposed to any interference with Manitoba's right in school matters, and will vote against any Government or party who attempts to interfere with them. T. S. Sproule, Markdale." Cheers greeted the reading of this telegram.

Sick headache and constipation are promptly cured by Burdock Pills. Easy to take, sure in effect.

Clever Swindler Caught.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., April 6.—This morning the police arrested a man who gave William H. Day as his name. He was arrested for non-payment of a board bill. It has developed that he is a most clever and successful swindler, who is wanted in many places, including Chicago, Ogdensburg, Toronto and Lebanon, Pa. He was held for the Ogdensburg authorities to face a charge of forgery and larceny. His scheme was to have pianos sent to him which he would sell. Day was known to J. Batterby & Co., Montreal, as James Johnson; to A. B. Coates & Co., Toronto, as Charles Baker, and by the same name to the Tadpole Carriage Company, of Napanee, Ont. His other aliases would fill a good sized directory. He is a well-dressed, slick looking customer, 55 to 60 years of age, and has a son in Canada.

G. T. R. Withdraws the Cut Rate.

Chicago, April 6.—The Grand Trunk railroad, which has been the leader in the recent heavy cutting of eastbound grain rates, has given notice to the Inter-State Commerce Commission that it will cancel its 12c rate on grain between Chicago and New York on April 13. The rate has been in force via Grand Trunk, Lehigh Valley and Erie since last Monday. The Erie east of Buffalo was by this arrangement made to unwillingly take grain over its lines at the reduced tariff. It made strong protest, and it is in part due to the opposition thus developed that the rate was withdrawn. The Grand Trunk claims it was justified in cutting the rate to secure large shipments of oats, which in a few days would have been taken by boat at very low prices. It took one shipment of 550,000 bushels at 10c per hundred pounds.

Experience Has Proved It.

A triumph in medicine was attained when experience proved that Scott's Emulsion would not only stop the progress of Pulmonary Consumption, but by its continued use, health and vigor could be fully restored.

Boys Three-Piece Suits.

It often seems nonsense to advertise prices, for really you cannot tell anything about the extraordinary value that Gough Bros. are offering in boys' clothing for spring, unless you come and take a look. We are selling boys' three-piec suits at $3.50, $4 and $5 that are better value than we have ever before had. See them. GOUGH BROS., the wonderful cheap men.

Ruined! Ruined! Ruined!

A well-known young citizen was sentenced to ten days in gaol this morning for being drunk and disorderly on the streets last evening. Upon the pronunciation of the sentence quite a dramatic scene was enacted, the prisoner averring that he was a ruined man, and as he stalked from the prisoner's box to the cells the words "Ruined! Ruined! Ruined!" came floating up the stairway.

The Saturday Market.

The market to-day was only fair in size, but the demand was above the average and a brisk sale resulted. Butter has risen in price to 18 and 20 cents and eggs have also gone up being sold at 12 and 14 cents per doz. Chickens brought 50 and 75 cents. There were no ducks to be seen at all, this being the laying season. Geese also were very scare and were worth 60 and 75 cents. Turkeys were high, from 75c to $1.50 being asked.

A Big Treat Coming.

On Friday, April 18th, the public will have the pleasure of hearing the celebrated Mohawk Indian poet and reciter, Miss E. Pauline Johnson, who is a member of the Six Nations tribe of Indians, and a daughter of Tekahionwake, late Chief Johnson, of the Mohawk Indian Reserve, at Brantford, Canada, and Mr. Owen A. Smiley, the clever society entertainer and impersonator, who will both appear in Bradburn's Opera House, under the auspices of the Peterborough Hockey Club. Wherever Miss Johnson and Mr. Smiley go they are greeted with crowded houses, and in many cases they are asked to return. The entertainment is a treat that should not be missed by any, as perhaps an opportunity may not be had of hearing them again. 1d

A Good Thing is Always Desirable.

So it is with the visits of Prof. Dorenwend to Peterborough. On his last visit he was so busy that many ladies and gentlemen were unable to be attended to. He is therefore returning to give all who desire it another opportunity of procuring his art goods for the head. Prof. Dorenwend is undoubtedly one of the leaders of his profession on this continent. His skill in arranging the coverings for the head of either lady or gentleman is well known. His goods are acknowledged to be perfect and in every way true to nature. They are the best protection to the head, besides giving a refined and youthful expression to the face. Call and examine these marvels of his art, and have them fitted in order to judge of the effect. Consult him about your hair; he will (free of charge) give you advice about the preservation of it. He will be at the Grand Central Hotel on Monday, 8th April. 5t

Death of Mr. J. Twomey, sr.

Fenelon Falls lost an old and respected citizen on Thursday, March 28th, by the death of Mr. J. Twomey, sr., one of the early settlers. Mr. Twomey had been ailing for some time, and his death was expected, but nevertheless the event caused much sorrow in the village. The deceased was born in the county Cork, Ireland, in the year 1820, and came to the town of Peterborough in the year 1852, where he worked for George Allan a short time, moving to Fenelon Falls several years later, where he established a blacksmithing business until about two years ago. In the year 1855 he was married to the eldest daughter of Mr. S. Power, and this union was blessed with eleven children, eight of whom survive him. The funeral took place from the family residence on Bond street on Saturday morning. The remains were taken to the church, where the funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Father Nolan, after which they were conveyed to the R. C. cemetery, followed by the members of the family and friends. The funeral was the largest ever seen there, and showed the respect and esteem in which the deceased was held by all who knew him.

Quality will carry the trade with it in paints as well as in other goods. The ready mixed paints sold by George Stethem & Son last year are bearing fruits for this year already, and a large trade in them is well assured. One customer who was using them last year was induced to try another make, and while he was about it thought he would try all the so-called first quality paints. He went back to Messrs. Stethem and told them that after trying them all he found that theirs WEIGHED MORE, WENT FURTHER, AND GAVE BETTER FINISH than any other. Messrs. Stethem say that they can give the largest variety of beautiful colours, and that their floor paint will dry over night, hard and glossy. Satisfaction warranted in every way. THOMAS G. DUNFORD TAKEN FOR A CROOK.

AN OLD LAKEFIELD BOY ARRESTED.

A Fair Sample of how Elections are Conducted in the United States—The Police Evidently take a Hand in Conducting them Crookedly.

Mr. Thomas G. Dunford, formerly of Lakefield, and having many friends in Peterborough, forwards the following clipping from the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, containing an account of a rather thrilling experience through which he passed in being arrested for a crook.

"Private Detective Willis A. Wright, of this city, and one of his men, George Dunford, had a narrowing experience during the town election in Lyons yesterday afternoon. While they were watching the polls in the interest of a citizens' committee to see that no votes were bought Chief of Police Sharp got after them, and locked them both up in a dark and gloomy room under the town lock-up. Detective Wright was charged with being Michael Joseph Teddy, who escaped from Toronto after embezzling $1,000 from the Grand Trunk Railroad Company, and Dunford was alleged to be John Fraser, the man who robbed a railway company in Toronto of $15,000, and who was captured in St. Louis some time ago.

Some of the members of a cititizens' committee called on Detective Wright at his office in the Powers building on the afternoon of the day before the election, and told him that they wanted two men and to collect evidence against men for buying and selling votes if any such could be found. The detective said he thought he could oblige them, and yesterday morning he took Dunford and started for the town.

It was a day of intense excitement in Lyons. It had been a long time since any such election day had been seen there. There were some bitter party rivalry, and the streets were filled with politicians engaged in all sorts of disputes. The polls opened at one o'clock, and the detectives began their work. They found that there were two other detectives from Rochester on hand, and they arranged with each other that Detective Wright and his man would do their work openly, while the others worked under cover. The detectives collected a good deal of evidence against certain men at the polls in the first hour or two, and the politicians got wind of the fact that the two strangers were and evaded them as best they could. The detectives followed them from place to place, however, and the politicians were sorely distressed as to what to do.

About 3:30 o'clock, a little slim man with a gray moustache appeared in front of one the polling places and tapped Dunford on the shoulder.

"Young man," said he, with an air of authority, "I am the chief of police of this town, and I've come to arrest you."

"Arrest me!" shouted Dunford. "What for?"

"For stealing $15,000," said the little man, severely. "I have a picture of you over in my office. You're wanted in Toronto."

In spite of the young man's protests the chief of police took him to the lock-up and locked him up alone in the basement.

When Detective Wright heard of the arrest of his man he was wroth. He hastened to the office of Lawyer "Thad" Collins, jr., and asked what was best to be done.

"Come with me and we'll get him out," said Mr. Collins, and he and the detective went down the stairs to the street. Just at the foot of the stairs out popped from a corner. He tapped the detective on the shoulder, just as he had done to the other man, and said, as he had said before:

"I am the chief of police of this town, and I've come to arrest you."

"What?" said the detective.

"I said I'd come to arrest you," said the chief of police.

"Do you know who I am?" asked the detective.

"You!" shouted the chief of police, bulging out his chest and jingling his handcuffs. "You are Michael Joseph Teddy, the embezzler, who stole $1,000 in Toronto. Don't say you're not, I'm on to you. I have a picture of you in my office."

The detective stood aghast. "Well, I can prove," he said, "that I am not Michael Joseph Teddy. I know here who can vouch for me."

"Can't help it," said the chief of police," come along."

For just forty-five minutes by the private detective's watch, he and man sat on the three-legged stools under the lock-up and smoked cigars. As they sat there a crowd of infuriated citizens howled outside to have them set at liberty. The chief of police came down into the dark room, and seeing the crowd through the bars, seemed nervous.

"I have your pictures here", he said, look at them."

Detective Wright said Teddy didn't look anything like him and called the chief's attention to the fact that Fraser had already been arrested in St. Louis.

Then the chief said he was convinced that they were not the right men and allowed them to go.

Now the two alleged robbers say they will sue the village for $20,000 damages for false arrest."

Of course it will be understood that the police were on the side of the party with whose nefarious practices the detectives were combating. This was the incentive to arrest the two men on some pretext or another.

IN HIS NEW QUARTERS.

Mr. John Armstrong's Beautifully Appointed Store.

The offices and stores in the new Cox building, on the corner of Hunter and Water street, are being rapidly taken up.

Mr. John Armstrong has secured the best store in the new building. It faces on Hunter street, (opposite the Post Office), runs back quite a distance and, turning in the form of an "L," has another entrance on Water street.

The store is light, airy and most commodious. The counters, shelving and other furnishings are of polished oak, and the effect is very handsome. The store is heated through the medium of the most modern improvements in this line. Although only opening up this morning in his new stand, Mr. Armstrong has a splendid display of staple and fancy groceries. The rear portion of the store fronting on Water street is the flour and feed department, while the Hunter street part is devoted to general groceries. Just at the turn of the "L" a neat little office has been erected, prettily finished in plate glass and oak. If appearances go for anything, Mr. Armstrong is already doing a thriving business in his new quarters, as the store was crowded all morning.

A FALSE ACCUSATION.

Substitution of Inferior Remedies in St. John Strongly Condemned.

St. John, N. B., April 6th.—A report has been circulated in this city to the effect that there had been a systematic attempt on the part of a certain druggist to palm off upon his customers an inferior imitation of Dodd's Kidney Pills with the statement that they were equally effective. An investigation has shown, however, that there is no truth in the report, druggists invariably declaring that the remedy is the best they can sell, and that as one purchase of the medicine invariably leads to another it would be contrary to their own interests to attempt the substitution of anything inferior.

It has often struck me as strange that reading aloud has not become a more popular domestic recreation. When we notice how fond are children of being read to, and how popular good readings are at entertainments we can scarcely doubt many a long winter evening might be happily passed in reading aloud:

"The poet's or historian's page by one Made vocal for the amusement of the rest."

The spread of education has brought this pastime within the reach of almost every family. An evening a week or even part of an evening when

"The fire is in a cheerful glow,
The curtains drawn against the night"

would prove a delightful and useful recreation,

IF THE BOOKS WERE VARIED,

now a work of history, an essay of Ruskin or Macaulay, followed by a story or a poem.

Reading clubs have often been formed, but the wonder is that they have not been more popular. A reading club should be limited in number and composed of persons of mainly similar tastes. Professor Lindsay tells us that when Robertson-Smith published his lectures on the Old Testament in the Jewish church, "in outlying country parishes, small farmers, ploughmen and shepherds; in the cities small shopkeepers, clerks, and artisans clubbed together to read and discuss it." Probably there is no better way of working up a "topic of the day" than through a reading club.

In the English Universities during the long summer vacation students, ambitious for honours, frequently form themselves into reading parties often accompanied by a tutor. A development of the reading party is the "summer school," which is year by year growing in favour. Chatauqua is the home of the summer school, but there are many others in which instruction is given by competent lecturers and real hard work being done by the students. The Alumni meeting at Queen's is the only thing of the kind I know of in Canada at present, but as interest deepens in intellectual pursuits, it is not unlikely that summer schools will be indefinitely multiplied.

Reading clubs are not to be confined to the winter, but composed of kindred souls might spend an enjoyable fortnight camping out. The subject to be read, and the books to be taken should, of course, be carefully selected beforehand. After a day's fishing or paddling, a couple of hours reading, with discussion, would give a delightful ending to the day.

I should like to conclude these letters on reading with a few remarks on one kind of literature too much neglected in our day, viz:—Religious or devotional reading. Our English language is peculiarly rich in great master-pieces of religious thought, cast into a devotional form. The reality of spiritual things is assured by the existence of great devotional books; but just as our individual intellects require cultivation 'ere their powers can be used, so is it with our spiritual faculties.

Our Sunday services may be compared to our week-day schools. The former are for the spirit what the latter are for the mind. But neither are complete without individual exercise. Education would be very imperfect without homework, and useless if it were not applied after school days were over.

Devotional reading is the home-work of our spiritual schools—the churches—just as our "godly, righteous and sober lives" are but the application of our spiritual education.

When some years ago an enterprising editor requested a number of men, distinguished in the world of literature, art, and science to give a list of what they considered all who included it (and those who excluded it did so from motives of reverence) placed the Bible at the head of the list. For devotional reading, the Psalms, and passages of the Prophets are the most valuable parts of the Old Testament. Of the former the judicious Hooker said:

THE BEST HUNDRED BOOKS,

"The choice and flower of all things profitable in other books the Psalms do more briefly contain, and more movingly also express, by reason of that poetical form wherewith they are written. What is there necessary for a man to know which the Psalms are not able to teach? They are to beginners an easy and familiar introduction, a mighty augmentation of all virtue and knowledge; in such as are entered before, a strong confirmation to the most perfect among others. Heroical magnanimity, exquisite justice, grave moderation, exact wisdom, repentance unfeigned, unwearied patience, the mysteries of God, the sufferings of Christ, the terrors of wrath, the comforts of grace, the works of Providence over this world, and the promised joys of the world which is to come, all good necessary to be either known or done or had, this one celestial fountain yieldeth. Let their be any grief or disease incident unto the soul of man, any wound or sickness pained, for which there is not in this treasure-house a present comfortable remedy at all times ready to be found."

Of the New Testament no selection should be made, only most often and most thoughtfully should be read.

THE WORDS AND DEEDS OF OUR SAVIOUR

Amongst devotional books, apart from the Bible, none has so great a circulation as "The Imitation of Christ." Of English books, I suppose there is no manual of devotion comparable to the Book of Common Prayer. Jeremy Taylor's Holy Living and Dying, Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, Baxter's Saints' Rest, Leighton on St. Peter, Law's Serious Call, are classics of devotional reading. Of modern books, Goulburn's Thoughts on Personal Religion, Stalker's Imago Christo, the Sermons of Liddon, Robertson, and Phillips Brooks, Keble's Christian Year, and many others may be mentioned.

No church or society of Christians has any monopoly of devotional literature, a truly spiritual work may be read of all spiritually-minded men.

EVERYONE SHOULD OWN AND USE SOME DEVOTIONAL BOOK OR BOOKS.

Here are the words of one who is popularly supposed to be an Agnostic, Mr. John Morley:—

"You may have often heard from others, or may have found out, how good it is to have on your shelves, however scantily furnished they may be, these or four of those books to which it is well to give ten minutes every morning before going down into the battle and choking dust of the day. Men will have these books for themselves. One will choose the Bible, another Goethe, one the "Imitation of Christ," another Wordsworth; perhaps it matters little what it be, so long as your writer has cheerful seriousness, elevation, colour, and above all, a sense of rise and strength, which shall open out the day before you and bestow gifts of fortitude and mastery."

HOME INDUSTRY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—While I was in town last summer I noticed in one of the evening papers that the merchants, for their protection, were petitioning the town council to pass a peddlers' and hawkers' bylaw. It was passed after a short consideration. And now I want to draw your attention to the inconsistency of some of the merchants whose names appeared on the petition. During the last few days I have noticed on George street several photographers taking photos and flash lights of the interior of merchants' stores, and after thinking over the matter I found that these merchants were paying these people for the photographs. Now, Mr. Editor, I ask is this a consistent course for these gentlemen, who are properly objecting because the people spend their money out of town, to follow? We have some of the best, if not the best, photographers in Canada and why should they not be given the benefit of what local trade is going, in place of our merchants giving it to outsiders.

Yours sincerely,
HOME INDUSERY.

THE STORY OF A WOMAN WHO HAS SUFFERED DEEP AFFLICTION.

Intense Mental Strain and Sleepless Nights Brought Her Almost to the Verge of the Grave—Help Came When Hope Had Almost Fled.

Mrs. Sarah Wood, widow of the late Alex. Wood, of North Elmsley, Lanark Co., has had more sorrow than usually falls to the lot of human beings, and it is no wonder that, under the intense mental strain, she was completely prostrated, and her friends are rejoicing with her that she has again been restored to health. To a reporter she told the following story:—"Until about three years ago I had always been in good health, except for occasional spasmodic headaches which had bothered me for some years. I am now sixty-three years of age, and my troubles came as much by mental anguish and sleepless nights as by overtaxing my physical system. Two years ago last August my son, W. J. Wood, was killed on the C.P.R. in a collision, and his lifeless, mangled body was brought home. Six weeks later my sister, Mrs. Lucky, of Kitley, was foully murdered. During those days I was taking care of my youngest daughter, Mrs. O. Bissell, near Merrickville, who was ill with consumption, and who died four months later. Few people have been called upon to undergo so much affliction, and with sleepless nights and days of labour, I became reduced almost to a living skeleton. In the fall of 1894 I was obliged to take to my bed, where I lay for several weeks hovering between life and death. During this time I was under the care of a doctor, but his treatment did not help me much. My head now continually troubled me, and a severe pain in my back, just above my left hip, caused me great agony. I had heard a great deal about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and determined to give them a trial. Before the second box was entirely gone my headache disappeared and I found myself growing stronger, and after taking the pills for a time longer the pain in my back disappeared also. I then felt so well that I decided to visit another daughter who lives near Merrickville, determined to continue taking the Pink Pills until thoroughly restored. In passing through Smith's Falls I procured more pills, but found afterwards they were a counterfeit, as I did not then know that they were not sold in bulk. The result was that my old infirmities began to return, and I began to mistrust that the pills were not genuine, and sent into Merrickville for more. A comparison soon showed that, while both pills were coloured Pink, the ones I had got in Smith's Falls were spurious, for they were not exactly the same shape and did not look the same when the two were compared. As soon as I began the use of the genuine Pink Pills I began to grow better, and after the use of a few more boxes, found myself entirely cured, and I am now enjoying as good health as ever I did in my life. I believe if it had not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I would have been in my grave, and I am glad to give my testimony, hoping that some poor sufferer may be made well as I was.

Mr. Wood's unfortunate experience with imitation Pink Pills make it necessary to again impress upon the public that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, by the dozen, hundred, or ounce, or in any shape except in the company's boxes, every one of which is enclosed in a wrapper printed in red ink, and bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." If these Pills are offered in any other form, even if Pink in colour, they are imitations and should be promptly refused. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail. Imitations are worthless and may be dangerous to health.

Land and Water Tricycle.

A tricycle which can be made to travel either on land or water is the invention of a Hamburg genius named George Pinkert. The machine is so large and heavy that no such speed can be gotten out of it as is made every day upon the boulevards, but Herr Pinkert thinks he has accomplished much in doing nine and one-fourth miles an hour on land and seven and one-half on the smooth surface of a river. His tricycle has motor wheels fifty-three inches in diameter and nearly twenty inches thick. They are made of sheet iron, and are divided into three water-tight compartments, which are filled with air. On the outside of those wheels are flange-boards about four inches wide by seven and one-half in length. The steering wheel is about a yard in diameter and sixteen inches thick, and has two water-tight compartments. The heels have rubber tires which allow them to run on land. The whole machine weighs about 310 pounds.

Any Jury Would Convict Him.

"Young man, what right have you to kiss my daughter on such short acquaintance?"

"What proof, sir, have you that I have done any such thing?"

"No positive proof, young man, but that hairpin in your mustache is strong circumstantial evidence."

Very Likely.

Mrs.—Hasn't your husband got wheels in his head?

Mrs. Higwit—I guess he has. He's working out a new roulette system to break the bank.

A HARD FIGHT FOR MONTAGUE

No Walkover For the Dr. In Haldimand.

M'CARTHYITE CANDIDATE CHOSEN

Jeffrey McCarthy of Barrie Nominated in Mass Meeting at Cayuga—Manitoba Schools the One Issue in the Fight—Manitoba Sending Speakers.

Cayuga, Ont., April 6.—At the mass meeting held in the Court House here yesterday to name a candidate in opposition to Dr. Montague on the Manitoba school question, Mr. Jeffrey McCarthy, a member of Mr. D'Alton McCarthy's firm at Barrie, was the unanimous choice. The contest promises to become a national one, as a strong delegation of speakers is on the way here from Manitoba to fight the battle of provincial rights.

The attendance at the meeting was not so large as expected, although locally there was a good deal of interest in the proceedings. Yesterday Organizer Fee met the McCarthyite executive and submitted several names, from among whom they chose Jeffrey A. McCarthy.

The candidate-elect arrived in the morning, in company with E. Douglas Armour, Q.C., of Toronto. D'Alton McCarthy was billed to appear, but wired that he was unexpectedly detained by a case at Perth. There was considerable disappointment over his failure to come. The speakers of the afternoon were Mr. Armour and the candidate, whose acceptance was received with applause.

The issue on which the campaign will be fought is on the Manitoba school question. The speakers maintained that the Roman Catholics had no more right to have Separate schools than any other denomination in Manitoba. Manitoba was settled by people from the European countries. Many of them had settled in colonies and had their own religious views. It would be unjust to other religious denominations to grant Separate schools to the Roman Catholics. The McCarthyites are determined to force the fight on this issue. They also touched on the trade policy, claiming there should be a revision and lowering of the tariffs. Nothing could be learned of the feelings of the people in the contest from the meeting to-day.

The feeling around Cayuga is that Dr. Montague's personal popularity will win the election for him. He is said to be on excellent terms with people of all shades of politics, and they will continue to support him. The county town of Haldimand has never been disturbed by race or creed troubles.

Nearly all the Roman Catholics in the riding, representing about 250 votes, live here or hereabouts. There are no Separate schools, no Orange lodges and the P.P.A. is only known in this vicinity by report; hence the people are not particularly worked up over the school question.

Around Hagersville, however, there is said to be much more feeling. The McCarthyites allege the Government is taking unusual measures to insure victory. Tales are flying round about $10,000 having been sent up, but the purchasable element say they have not yet seen any of it. The Liberals, who are looking on at the fight, expect Dr. Montague to win. He will get the Roman Catholic vote to a man and all the Indian vote.

On the other hand, the German Liberals of Rainham are said to be utterly indifferent as to whether Manitoba has any schools at all or not, and therefore they are taking very little interest in the contest. It will be necessary for this vote to come out against Montague to make the contest interesting.

A despatch was read to the meeting from Stewart Mulvey of Winnipeg, Past Grand Master of the Manitoba Grand Lodge. He said: "Manitoba will do what it can, will send good men to help you. Wish you every success." The reading of this message elicited considerable applause.

The McCarthyites intend to put up a hot fight. Among the speakers who will take part are the Hon S. C. Biggs, of Toronto, ex-Mayor Pearson of Winnipeg, Colonel O'Brien and Messrs. A. T. Hunter, John Armstrong and J. M. Godfrey of Toronto.

It is also more than probable that Hon. Clifford Sifton, Attorney-General of Manitoba, will take a hand.

NOT GUILTY OF LIBEL

The Charges Against Oscar Wilde were True and Made in Public Interest.

ADMITS HIS SHAMEFUL GUILT

The Marquis of Queensberry Acquitted—The Disgraced Author in Custody at Scotland Yard—His Name Removed from Play Bills and Advertisements.

London, April 6.—The Old Bailey court room was crowded almost to suffocation yesterday morning when Mr. Carson resumed his speech on behalf of the Marquis of Queensberry. It would be his painful duty, he said, to put upon the witness stand men who would speak freely of their connection with the plaintiff Wilde. They were of the class of servants, valets, etc., not belonging to Mr. Wilde's station in life, nor interested in literature, yet they addressed this distinguished dramatist by his Christian name, Oscar, he in turn calling them Charlie, Freddie, etc.

Sir Edward Clarke, Wilde's counsel, had come to the painful conclusion that in view of Wilde's literature he could not expect the jury to find the Marquis of Queensberry guilty of libel on the actual words used by the defendant.

The jury then returned a verdict of not guilty, to which Sir Edward Clarke assented, and supplemented their verdict with the declaration that the charges made by the defendant against Wilde, which constituted the libel complained of, were true, and that they had been made in the public interest.

When the verdict was rendered the Marquis of Queensberry left the dock amid loud cheers.

The judge granted an order requiring Wilde to pay the costs of the defence. Mr. Wilde was not in court.

The Marquis of Queensberry's solicitor sent to the public prosecutor a copy of the statements of all the witnesses which the defence intended to call to the stand, together with a full report of the trial as far as it had gone.

Later in the day application was made at the Bow street police court before Sir John Bridge, the presiding magistrate, for a warrant for the arrest of Oscar Wilde, and the magistrate granted the application.

The evidence in connection with this case was quite unfit for publication, and revealed a state of affairs not unlike the scandal which was unearthed by Mr. W. T. Stead, the particulars of which were published a few years ago in the Pall Mall Gazette.

During the investigation, Mr. Wilde furnished the court with names of prominent men he had met at various times, and who are believed to be equally guilty. These names were not made public.

Wilde was subsequently found by the detectives, who arrested him and took him to Scotland Yard. Before being taken to his cell the charge indicated by his testimony in court was read to him. He stood with his hands in his pockets silent and apparently unconcerned.

In his interview this afternoon, Mr. Alexander, of the St. James' Theatre, said that "The Importance of Being Earnest" would be kept on the stage pending the public verdict. If he should be compelled to withdraw it some 150 persons would be thrown out of work as he had nothing ready to replace it.

It is reported that the Criterion, to which "An Ideal Husband" was to be transferred from the Haymarket, has declined to put the play on the stage.

The audiences at the Haymarket and St. James' theatres, where Mr. Wilde's plays are being given, were rather small last night, but they made no hostile demonstrations. At the St. James' there were few persons except those who had bought their tickets in advance. The gallery was somewhat critical and two or three audible comments confused the players slightly.

In an interview the Marquis of Queensberry said: "I have sent this message to Wilde: 'If the country allows you to leave all the better for the country; but if you take my son with you, I will follow wherever you go and shoot you.'"

Sworn informations have been lodged against several persons mentioned in the trial, some of whose names were not made public, and the civil officers are only waiting the authority of the Treasury Department to make the arrests.

Detroit, April 6.—Mr. Leslie, the manager of Rose Coghlan, who has been playing Oscar Wilde's "A Woman of No Importance" here this week, was asked by a representative of the United Press if the play woud be shelved because of the scandal affecting Wilde. He said it would be impossible under the contract to take Wilde's name off the play bills and out of the advertisements of "A Woman of No Importance," and therefore it had been decided that the play should be taken out of Miss Coghlan's repertoire.

New York, April 6.—Mr. Frohman, of the Lyceum theatre, where Oscar Wilde's play, "An Ideal Husband," is now running, has decided on account of the termination of the suit against Wilde to have the playwright's name erased from all the bills and programmes of the theatre after to-day. All the printing contracts have also been cancelled, in order to admit of these changes being made in the advertisements also. No change will be made in the play itself, however, as the management of the Lyceum hold that it is a wholesome production.

Spafford Ordered to Refund.

Picton, April 6.—The young man Burton Spafford, sent down for trial two weeks ago by Police Magistrate Curry, for using the mails with intent to defraud on information laid by Acting Postoffice Inspector McCarow, was up yesterday for trial he having elected to be tried by County Judge Merrill. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and all costs and ordered to refund all money obtained by the fraudulent advertisements.

What John Wanamaker, the Most Heavily Insured man in Amerloa, Says:

(INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WANAMAKER.)

It is very generally known that Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries the largest amount of Life Insurance of any man in the United States. A representative of the press recently interviewed this gentleman while he was travelling with the Presidential party, and this interview will be found, we believe, of general interest:—

"You are said to be the most heavily insured man in the country, Mr. Wanamaker," remarked the press representative.

"How did you come to think of that?" he said with a smile. "You are not looking for any disaster under such excellent management as our friend Boyd is giving this train and party?"

"No," I replied. "A newspaper friend in San Francisco, who had heard the report, wanted me to ask you it it was true, and if so, what your business reasons are for it?"

"Well," he modestly answered, "I have heard it stated that I am the most heavily insured man in the country. I don't know about that. The amount of my policies is $1,550,000, and the value, with the accumulations since the policies were taken out, is about two millions of dollars."

"In what class of companies are your policies?"

"They are all in stock and mutual companies, and none of them in what are known as assessment or instalment companies."

"Are they full life term policies or on what is termed the 'tontine' plan?"

"I have generally taken ten and fifteen payment policies and very few life policies. With about all good companies a contract can now be made whereby there is no risk of losing a policy after two years' premiums have been paid. If the party insured chooses to withdraw he can get a paid-up policy. Indeed, I understand that some companies have forms whereby the insurer can after one year, if desired, withdraw and receive a paid-up policy. There is practically little risk, any more, in insuring in the old companies."

"Perhaps you would be willing to tell me how you came to insure so heavily?"

"I thought the matter out, and convinced myself that it was a good business venture. Besides, it seemed to me that I might, perhaps, give away more money in lifetime if there was a fixed certainty of putting it back into my estate by Life Insurance. I conceive that the best way for a man to carry on benevolence is not to leave it to be done through his will, but to do it in his lifetime, and I felt that Life Insurance would give me more freedom in carrying out some plans I have, and which I would be glad to see completed before I leave this world. If you want to ascertain what the circumstances were in placing the Life Insurance, I must go further in my answers and say that I should not have gone so far in my Life Insurance but for the skill of the agent who tackled me to insure to a greater extent than I would otherwise have done. He was an old friend who had been in mercantile business and who knew how to present Life Insurance without boring me. I feel to-day sincerely grateful to the man who followed me so discreetly with information about companies, and who kept the subject before me until I settled the question."

"When did you begin taking Life Insurance policies?"

"My first policy was taken when I was twenty-one."

"Do you consider it a good thing for a man of small means?"

"I certainly do. Most young men spend more for cigars during the year than the annual cost of a $2,500 policy in a good company. If they must have the cigars they might divide between cigars and Life Insurance and carry at least a $1,000 policy. I think every young man, before he is married, ought to try to get at least a $1,000 policy."

"Among how many companies are your policies divided, and where are they located?

"About forty companies. Most of them are located in the East. A few are in the West and a few in Canada."

"Do you recommend Life Insurance to others, especially those in whom you feel a personal interest?"

"I can perhaps answer that best by saying that I presented a few years ago a $1,000 policy, paid up for one year, to every insurable head of family in my employ. Many of the prudent men who received them not only kept them but added to them, and I have the satisfaction of knowing that in not a few cases those policies have been the means of saving worthy families from want."

It will doubtless be of interest to our readers to know that John Wanamaker carries a large policy in the Canada Life Insurance Company, thus evincing his confidence in the soundness of Canada's eldest and largest Company. During the last few years quite a number of American capitalists have been convinced of the SUPERIOR MERITS OF THE CANADA LIFE, and have accordingly placed their insurance therein, in preference to any other company.

The Canada Life is now being recognized in the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio as the Company that gives the best results for the least premium.

NEWFOUNDLAND'S DEBT

Delegates Submit a Statement of the Condition of the Island.

NO STATEMENT OF TERMS YET

The Amount of the Public Debt Shown to be About $10,000,000—The Visitors will be Banqueted by the Citizens of Ottawa on Tuesday Next.

Ottawa, April 6.—There was another short conference between the Newfoundlanders and the members of the Government in the Premier's office yesterday morning. The delegates submitted a statement of the condition of the Island, financially and otherwise. This statement shows the amount of public debt as being about $10,000,000, and gives information from the official reports of the island as to the state of trade.

The conference then adjourned until this morning, to permit of this statement being printed. So far no statement of terms has been laid before the conference.

Complimentary Dinner,

A meeting to complete arrangements for the complimentary dinner to the Newfoundlanders from the citizens of Ottawa was held at the Russell yesterday morning. Mayor Borthwick was in the chair. Others present were: Sandford Fleming, C.M.G., Ex-Alderman Heney, Sir James Grant, J. W. McRae, George F. Henderson, Alderman Stewart, N. M. Pike, P. Baskerville, S. Maynard Rogers, Frank McDougal, O. Durocher, Joseph Kavanagh, president of the Board of Trade, C. Ross, Sheriff Sweetland, Samuel Bingham, R. G. Code, P. D. Ross, William Hutchison, Dr. Wicksteed, J. R. Askwith, R. W. Shannon, A. F. McIntyre, W. Y. Soper, D. O'Connor, N. A. Belcourt and Alderman Cook, secretary. It was decided that the banquet should be on Tuesday evening at the Russell, and that tickets should not include wine. The subscription was placed at $3. As there will be extra expenses which that figure will not cover, a number of those present put their names down on a guarantee fund for the extras. The only guests will be the Newfoundland visitors and the Governor-General. At first it was thought of inviting the members of the Government, but the meeting thought that the Ministers would prefer to come as citizens of Ottawa, and that the dinner would be a more distinctive welcome if the only guests were the Newfoundlanders and her Majesty's representative. Sub-committees were appointed to arrange all details. As the time between now and Tuesday is limited there can be no systematic canvass of the citizens, and it is expected that all who care to attend will send in their names to the Mayor, or get tickets at the Russell house, where they will be ready to-day.

Sir Herbert Murray Interviewed.

St. Johns, Nfld., April 6.—Sir Herbert Murray, British Commissioner, who arrived here by steamer Grand Lake, was interviewed at Government house, where he is staying. He says briefly his mission is strictly non-political. He comes solely with the view of relieving any existing distress. He brings a sum of money with him for that purpose, but will not distribute it until he knows the state of affairs from actual observation. He would give no opinion on the possibility of the Imperial loan based on the favorable report of the condition of affairs he might render, neither would he say if England desired confederation or crown colony.

RAID ON A BUCKET SHOP.

Several Prominent Citizens of St. John, N.B., Scooped in by the Police.

St. John, N.B., April 5.—A sensation was created yesterday by the arrest of four prominent citizens, Edward Sears, jr., A. M. Philips, James Philips and a telegrapher named Walter Gommery. They were arrested in the bucket shop in the Stock Exchange in the Pugsley building by Chief Clark, Capt. Jenkins, Sergt. Baxter and Detective King about 3.40 p.m. The bucket shop is operated by Baldwin Bros., a well-known stock brokers firm of New York and Chicago, and it is understood has been in existence for a long time. A. M. Philips is said to be the agent and his brother James the clerk. Gommery is the telegrapher and Mr. Sears was a patron. Under the new criminal code these places are illegal and heavy penalties are provided for conducting and frequenting them. When the four were arrested Sergeant Baxter took them to the police station. Of course they all went along quietly. The Chief and Captain Jenkins remained behind to take charge of the premises. After a short delay the prisoners were admitted to bail and their case will come up Monday. All the papers, furniture and money in the exchange was taken away by the police. There was only about $300. If the raid had taken place half an hour before at least one dozen prominent citizens would have fallen into the hands of the police.

Canadians Entered for the Henley Regatta

London, April 6.—Among the foreigners who have been entered for the Henley regatta this year are the Cornell crew, who will compete for the challenge cup; the Argonauts, of Toronto, who will compete for the stewards cup, and F. H. and E. A. Thompson, of the Argonauts, who will contest the match for the diamond sculls.

WORST KIND OF DYSPEPSIA.

GENTLEMEN,—I write to inform you that for years I had been troubled with Dyspepsia and having tried other medicines which entirely failed, I at last found relief and cure in Burdock Blood Bitters, of which I took two bottles, the result being a perfect cure. Although only a young lad I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for four or five years, but I can say now that B. B. THE WHEEL.

The wheelmen of Owen Sound and Woodstock announce their intention of going in for the annual meet of the C. W. A., and trying to secure it for their respective towns. The latter boasts of a new quarter mile track, 25 feet in width on the home stretch and 20 in the back. This track is nothing to boast of when compared with the magnificent half mile track which Peterborough possesses at the Driving Park. The latter averages between fifty and sixty feet in breadth, being twice as wide as the Woodstock track in any place. The advantage of having a wide track, in view of the many collisions which occur, is obvious.

There is no doubt the home track is the best half mile track and the fastest; especially for bike business, in Canada, as was demonstrated at the meet here last year, on July 1st. Its width is all that can be desired and its curves (the park being almost square) are nearly those of a circle. This fact together with the width makes the course unusually safe.

The Madoc Bicycle Club have elected the following officers:

Hon. President—Mr. A. W. Coe.
President—Mr. Fred. Rollins.
Vice-President—Mr. M.W. Connor.
Secretary—Mr. Ed. Cross.
Treasurer—Mr. D. A. Caldwell.
Captain—Mr. J. R. Orr.
Committee—Messrs. R. Collings, K. Stewart, G. F. Maybee and R. R. Casement.

THE N. A. A. A.

The Executive Committee of the Newspaper Amateur Athletic Association meets to-night at the Oriental Hotel to discuss the question of practice grounds. A full attendance is urged.

LACROSSE.

The secretary of the Peterborough Lacrosse Club is in receipt of certificates for two delegates to attend the annual meeting of the C. L. A. in Stratford on Good Friday. On account of the great distance, however, it is improbable that the Peterborough Club will be represented at the meeting. Several letters have also been received urging that Mr. W. A. Sanderson attend the meeting and announce himself as a candidate for the office of First Vice-President, hearty support being promised. The popular president of the Peterboroughs, however, will be unable to attend the gathering.

The following notice of proposed amendments to the rules have been received:—

E. H. Wilson, of Markham Lacrosse Club, proposes:

"That section 10 of rule VI be struck out, and following inserted:

"In the event of any person attempting to play under an assumed name, or without being fully qualified to play, the referee, having positive knowledge of the same, shall have authority to award the match to the opposing club."

Article VI., section 6: "That after the letters C.L.A. in line five, the remainder of the section read as follows: 'For one year, and the certificates of the individual members of the club, who have played on the team with him, shall likewise be suspended for one year, provided the judiciary committee has reasonable grounds for supposing that such member or members were aware of the fact."

Mr. Jas. A. MacFadden, president, proposes as follows:

Article IV., section 7, of the constitution; "Strike out the words 'and hold,' in the 18th line of said section, and add after words 'of the association, 'and deposit them in a chartered bank to the credit of the Association, to be drawn by cheque signed by president and secretary,' and strike out the words, 'and disburse the same upon the order of the president.'"

Also amend rule IV. section 1, by adding the words: "And they shall be bona fide residents of the town where the club is situated for which they play.

M. B. Tudhope, of Orillia, gives notice as follows:

That the last sentence of rule 13, section 2, be struck out, and the following inserted: "That the receipts in semi-final matches shall be kept by the home team, and in case the finals be home and home matches, the receipts be kept by the home team; that in case the finals be played off at one place, the receipts shall be divided equally. After the railway expenses of each team (14 men) and the necessary expenses of the match are defrayed, or, in case the receipts are not sufficient for such expenses, the amount shall be divided between the clubs in proportion to the number of miles they have to travel."

Rule XI, section 12—That the following be added: "All postponed games be played within a week of the time first set," and "That district games be arranged before August 15th."

J. J. Craig, of Fergus, has the following amendment to offer:

"That in all semi-final and final matches the competing clubs have the power of selecting referee and umpires, but in case the clubs fail to agree two days before match, then the president shall appoint such officials."

THE TRIGGER.

A meeting of the members of the Gun Club is called for this evening at eight o'clock in Mr. Sam Ray's tobacco store. A full attendance of those interested is urged as business of importance will come up for discussion.

P. C. I.

Yesterday afternoon the boys of the Collegiate Institute assembled after school hours and at a meeting, with Mr. W. J. Drope in the chair, held a discussion relative to what particular athletic game should be taken up this season. Lacrosse, baseball and cricket had all their advocates, and after many opinions had been expressed on the subject, it was decided to leave the matter to a committee, composed of Messrs. McGill, Pousette and Lewis, who will ascertain the wishes of the boys and report at a future meeting.

A correspondent of the Pittsburgh, (Pa.) Despatch makes this curious statement: "In Uruguay some of the rivers are so impregnated with the roots of Sarsaparilla as to possess sanitary qualities for bathing purposes, and the people who drink their waters are said to be exempt from skin diseases arising from impurities of the blood." The Uruguay Sarsaparilla is probably the same variety of plant as that of the neighboring state of Honduras, of which Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla is made, and which is richest in medicinal qualities of any sarsaparilla root known to science; hence, of course, the extraordinary curative properties of Ayer's famous blood medicine. 1d

HOW TO LEARN TO RIDE A WHEEL.

Some Excellent Hints on the Acquiring of the Accomplishment.

As there are a large number of bicyclists learning to ride this year, the following hints on how to acquire the trick may be considered apropos.

Among the thousands of cyclists, says the Rochester Herald, are a few who are so well advanced in life that there beard and hair are not alone gray, but positively white; and, by the way, there are no more enthusiastic wheelmen in the city than these same gray beards. A reporter yesterday asked one of these veteran white-haired cyclists how he learned to ride, and as his method may prove a help to some other grey-head, who wants to ride a wheel, but thinks the danger of learning a little to hazardous, his answer is here given. Said he:

"How did I learn to ride a bicycle? My first attempt four years ago resulted in so many bruises and sprains that I determined this time to succeed without such injuries, and also to learn

HOW TO RIDE.

"I hired a low wheel, took off the pedals, lowered the saddle, and mounted with my toes just touching the ground, and pushing myself along, gradually learned to lift my feet and balance myself by means of the handle bar as far as my feet would make the 'cycle' go. Practice with that made me ready for the next step, which was putting on the pedals, and getting a start with one foot on a pedal, and the other pushing on the ground. Then I did the same with the other foot, and thus back and forth, until I dared to try both feet, and run as far as my contrary wheel would allow without running against the curb-stone. But my low saddle saved me from a fall, because my feet could easily touch the ground.

"The hardest part was done. I learned on slightly down-grade, and to dismount from the side, by standing up on one foot on a rising pedal, swinging the other foot around behind and stepping off.

TO MOUNT FROM BEHIND

"The moral of this is: In learning to ride on the bicycle, only practice at first on one thing at a time. Balancing is the most difficult and the most important. Tackle that and learn to do it so well that you are not bothered when you start on next, and so keep on till you are master of the wheel, and not the wheel master of you, as is apt to be the case on the first trial.

"But, you ask, how is a woman to learn to ride? I think that if I were a woman, I should take a wheel up into somebody's big garret, put on a bathing suit, and go at it as above. Or, better yet, half a dozen join in obtaining the use for a few days of a vacant store or unused hall. As to mounting, a woman needs to lean with one foot on a pedal ready to go down, and both hands on the handles to rise to position on the saddle and catch on to the other pedal when it comes round."

FRENCH SHORE QUESTION

Sir Robert Bond's Remark Being Largely Criticized.

MAIL SERVICE TO NEWFOUNDLAND

This One of the Stipulations for Union—Sandford Fleming's Opinion on the Advantage of a Trans-Newfoundland Railway.

Ottawa, April 8.—One of the stipulations which the Newfoundland delegates will make in the event of Union taking place will be a fast steam service between the nearest Canadian point available and the west shore of the Island, there to connect with the railway which is now under construction.

Few men in the Dominion have had a more varied professional career than Mr. Sandford Fleming, the well-known engineer. Learning that some years ago he had taken an interest in the development of Newfoundland, your correspondent called upon Mr. Fleming yesterday and asked him for some information upon the point.

"More than 30 years ago," Mr. Fleming remarked, "I first began to make diligent enquiries about Newfoundland and its possibilities. In my preliminary report on the surveys for the Intercolonial Railway made in 1864 you will find at some length a reference to Newfoundland.

"In making the explorations between Quebec and Nova Scotia I found the country very sparsely settled, and it became my duty to seek out possible sources of traffic for the projected railway on which an enormous amount of Canadian money was to be spent. I conceived the idea that in connection with a line across Newfoundland the Intercolonial could be utilized as a link in a great passenger and mail route between the continents of America and Europe. My views on this subject are fully set forth in my first report on the Intercolonial Railway, published in the spring of 1865. They are likewise appended to my history of the Intercolonial Railway, published by Dawson Bros. in 1876.

"I may say that my thoughts were first directed to Newfoundland in 1863, when I crossed the Atlantic on board the Great Eastern, and found that although the passage between Liverpool and New York occupied 12 days, that great ship ran with ease from land to land in five and three-quarter days. When I became chief engineer of the Intercolonial the same year I formed the opinion that the matter was worth looking into. As I have said, I referred to it in my official report to the Government in 1865, and two or three years later I instituted, on my own responsibility and cost, an examination of the Island.

"In 1867-68 I despatched an engineer, Mr. Walter Bellairs, to make the examination. Mr. Bellairs was about the first civilised man to pierce the interior and to cross Newfoundland from the extreme east to the extreme west. About the time the examination was made I crossed the Atlantic thoroughly imbued with the idea of a great inter-continental communication with a steam ferry across the narrowest part of the Atlantic. I visited ship builders and naval architects on the Clyde, in Manchester and elsewhere and satisfied myself that steam vessels of greatly improved speed and comfort could be constructed so that the ocean passage could be reduced to four days. Since that date the speed of steamers has been so much increased that the short passage could, indeed, be made in little more than three days. I likewise visited Valencia and other points on the west coast of Ireland to gain a knowledge of the best harbors to be used in connection with the Newfoundland project. Having discovered that there were possible difficulties in connection with the French treaty claims on the west coast of Ireland, I determined to proceed to France to seek an audience with Napoleon III., and lay the whole project before him. While in London, however, taking steps in the proper quarter to obtain an audience at the French Court, I was dissuaded from carrying out my intentions. I was informed that it was a matter within the domain of diplomacy, and that gentlemen of the diplomatic service could succeed where I would fail. This information may have been quite correct. Be that as it may, the matter has remained in the domain of diplomacy ever since, and I have always regretted that my designs were frustrated. Having some knowledge of the peculiar character of the late Emperor, I cannot help thinking that progress in the enterprise would have been made, and there is a strong probability that Newfoundland would have been opened up to the traffic of the world and the fortunes of the ancient colony would long since have been linked with Canada."

"Was anything more done to carry out the scheme?" asked your correspondent.

"Oh, yes," Mr. Fleming replied, "although my personal efforts were to a large extent suspended owing to pressing engagements, the project was talked about a good deal, and after some years an instrumental survey for a railway was made across the island under my own directions as engineer-in-chief."

"Was anything more done in connection with the project, or did the whole matter end there; and, if I may ask you, how did you expect to be compensated for all the trouble and expense?" queried your correspondent.

"I cannot say it came to an end; I can only say that I have been unable to follow it up. I was deeply engaged in the construction of the Intercolonial Railway then and for several years afterwards, and in 1871 there was added to my duties the Pacific Railway, which for the following 9 or 10 years absorbed my thoughts and every moment of my time. In the little I had to do with Newfoundland I may say that I was inspired solely with a desire to serve my country and my generation, and the feeling, rightly or wrongly, that I was so engaged was my ample reward."

Naturally, Mr. Fleming is taking a deep interest in the proceedings of the present conference and he is strongly in hopes that the result will be the entry of Newfoundland into Confederation.

The remark of Hon. Robert Bond of Newfoundland that the French shore difficulty is more sentimental than real is being greatly criticised. In the last volume of Dr. Kingsford's History of Canada, the learned writer deals with this subject at some length, and quotes in full the text of the royal declaration annexed to the treaty of Versailles in 1783, under which the fishery rights of France on the west shore of Newfoundland were confirmed.

The royal declaration says: In order that the fishermen of the two nations may not give cause for daily quarrels, His Britannic Majesty will take the most positive measures for preventing his subjects from interrupting in any manner by their competition, the fishing of the French, during their temporary exercise of it, which is granted them upon the coasts of the island of Newfoundland, and he will for this purpose cause fixed settlements which shall be formed there to be removed. His Britannic Majesty will give orders that French fishermen be not incommoded in cutting wood necessary for repairs of their scaffolds, huts and fishing vessels.

Dr. Kingsford demonstrates clearly what an injury to the development of Newfoundland this valuable concession has been, and very pertinently he remarks that in any other treaty with France the continuance of these fishery rights will form a matter for serious consideration. Referring in his work to blunders of administration in North America, committed by British statesmen in the past, the historian says: "No man of capacity in public life in Canada can at this hour suppose that what we may describe as Imperial interests ought at any time to be unduly sacrificed to assure the weal of the Dominion. On the other hand it must be plainly understood by Imperial statesmen and by British officeholders, many of whom cling to past traditions, that our just and fair claims are not to be set aside in subordination to party exigencies of the ministry in power in England."

These are bold words of Dr. Kingsford's, and yet they are quite justifiable, even in these modern days. Canada has many a fight for justice and fair play. The struggle for home rule on the copyright question has been in progress for the last six years, and Canada will never rest until she has achieved victory. Similarly for nine years Canada has been asserting her rights to hunt seals in the Northern Pacific. The Paris award went in her favor, but after what a struggle? And with what result? A win for Canada on every point, and had it not been for the high-handed procedure of Sir Julian Pauncefote in signing a treaty of reference to arbitration despite Canada's protest that the arbitrators should be asked to award the amount of damages, if any, to which sealed sealers were entitled, this vexed and still unsettled question would have been disposed of in our favor long ere this.

For some time past the practice has been growing of endeavoring to discredit the Postoffice Department by allegations that money enclosed in letters has gone astray or been stolen. Unscrupulous parties have written letters to business houses with whom they have had dealings pretending to remit moneys owing by them, but never enclosing the money in the letters. When an alleged money letter has thus reached its destination, the firm receiving it has at once communicated with the writer notifying him that no remittance was contained in it. Thereupon the Postoffice Department has been blamed for having dishonest officers in its employ. Careful enquiry has been made by the chief inspector's branch in cases of this kind, with the result that it has been shown that often the charge against the service was altogether false. With a view to putting a stop to this irregular proceeding, which is an indictable offence under the criminal code, the Department has issued a warrant against an individual in Ontario and has secured the imposition of a sentence of two months with hard labor. This should prove a salutary warning to any parties who may think they can fool with the Department with impunity.

A copy of the will of the late Colonel Allan Gilmour was mailed to-day to Toronto. It involves the largest sum of any will ever admitted to probate in Ottawa, the total in Ontario being $1,422,825, of which one and a quarter millions represent bank stock or deposits. There is also $67,000 in Quebec. The colonel's collection of paintings is valued at $11,000. Among the bequests are: To the Protestant Hospital $25,000, Old Men's Home and Orphanage $5000 each. Two sisters in Scotland get $10,000 each. John Mather, lumberman, gets $20,000. To John Manuel, his lifelong companion, is willed the bulk of the estate, valued at $1,800,000.

The Colonial Office has sent to Lord Aberdeen the copy of an Imperial order-in-council dated Feb. 2, 1895, giving effect to the extradition treaty between Great Britain and Germany.

F. M. Hamel, Assistant Engineer of the Public Works Department, is under suspension for shortage in his accounts. It is understood that the amount has been made good.

The Governor-General and Sir Mackenzie Bowell have accepted invitations to the civic banquet which is being tendered to the Newfoundland delegates.

The Department of Railways and Canals will shortly call for tenders for supply of 25,000 barrels of Portland cement, it being the practice of the Department to supply all cement used on works under its control. In order to guarantee the quality of the article, Canadian manufacturers are urging that the Canadian cement only be used.

In view of the opposition which is being manifested by shippers of live stock to the change by order-in-council in regard to spaces for cattle on ship-board, it may be of interest to quote the precise verbiage of the new regulation. It reads as follows:

No. 2. Fat cattle carried on the upper or spar deck must be given a space of 2 feet 6 inches clear in width, by 8 feet clear in length each, and not less than 6 feet 8 inches in height, but cattle carried on any other deck must be given a space of 2 feet 8 inches clear in width by 8 feet clear in length each, and not less than 6 feet 3 inches in height, and in no case shall more than four head of cattle be allowed in each pen, except at the end of a row where five may be allowed together; provided, however, that five cattle, each 1000 lbs. weight or under, commonly known as "stockers," may be carried in a pen instead of four fat cattle. Pens for sheep shall not be less than 7 feet in height, divided into two compartments, 3 feet 6 inches in height each. Not more than eight or nine sheep will be counted equal to one fat ox on the spar deck, and not more than eight or ten sheep will be counted equal to one fat ox between decks according to the discretion of the inspector. Cows in calf are to be given the same space as fat oxen.

Letters patent of incorporation have been issued to the Dominion Gold Dredging and Placer Mining Company, the Featherstone Piano Company and Maclaren Match Company.

Fireman Shot on His Train.

Montpelier, Ohio, April 7.—Train 44 on the Wabash Railway coming eastward was fired upon eight miles west of this city last night. Fireman Fred Smith received a bullet in his head and is fatally injured. One bullet went through a window of the smoker, but none of the passengers were injured.

117 Smallpox Cases in St. Louis.

AN INDUSTRIOUS FORGER.

"Sandy" Campbell Defrauded Numerous Banks of Small Amounts.

Whitby, Ont., April 7.—A. J. Campbell, a commercial traveler well known as "Sandy" Campbell, was put on trial Saturday for fraud and forgery. He was stormstaid here six weeks ago and used this plausible excuse and a forged letter of credit to draw through the Western Bank upon a Port Hope hotelkeeper for $10, who dishonored the draft. A warrant was at once issued for Campbell's arrest, but before this could be accomplished he had managed to put through drafts upon the Whitby Evaporating Works for sums ranging from $12 to $15 from Millbrook, Norwood, Brockville, Sterling, Kingston, two from Cornwall, two from Smith's Falls, Iroquois and Carleton Place. He was arrested at Belleville, just after he had succeeded in discounting a bogus draft for $15. When arraigned he pleaded guilty, and sentence was suspended for a week to enable the Crown to gather information as to his antecedents. He was formerly a resident of Brighton, but his wife and family are supporting themselves in Toronto.

A BANK TELLER'S SUICIDE.

Spencer Millichamp Sends a Bullet Into His Brain.

Toronto, April 8. — C. Spencer Millichamp, paying teller of the Bank of Toronto, committed suicide at 2.30 Saturday afternoon. The tragedy was enacted within the wires of the tiller's cage at the head office of the bank, Church and Front-streets. The bank had been closed for business at 1 p.m. and the 15 clerks employed were engaged at their books. Their tasks were almost completed and the time was drawing near for closing the bank, when Hector Read, receiving tiller, who was at work close to Millichamp, heard a sound resembling a moan or stifled groan. Thinking it was the cry of a child he raised his eyes from his books and was horrified to see his fellow-teller flourishing a revolver.

"O don't, for God's sake, don't!" shouted Read as Millichamp's purpose flashed to him. At the same time he rushed for the cage in which Millichamp stood, in the hope of intercepting the arm on its mission of death. Millichamp raised the revolver to his head, and as Read reached the cage door the report rang out and the victim fell in a lifeless heap.

DEATH FROM ASPHYXIATION.

Mrs. Sim of Woodstock Killed by Gas—Her Husband Seriously Affected.

Woodstock, Ont., April 8.—Gas escaped from the stove in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sim, and both feeling the effects of the gas, got up but were too weak to do anything. Mrs. Sim dropped in a chair and died. Mr. Sim fell to the floor. They were found in these positions when the neighbors broke in after church Sunday morning. Mr. Sim is very ill, but is expected to recover. Both are over 70 years old.

MONDAY, APRIL 8, 1895.

THE inexorable contraction of the circle of the personal rights of Canadians, by the amending operation of the law, is squeezing individual freedom in a vital part. Now the right of a political candidate is trenched upon; though he may be in the habit of treating his friends in a personal capacity three hundred and sixty-four days in the year, the amended election law reduces him to the level of an ordinary citizen on election day. His treating anybody on that day will be an offence—not necessarily against the individual selected, but against the law.

THE contest in the Haldimand by-election is a family fight as well as a faction fight. Both candidates, Hon. Dr. Montague, the ministerial champion, and his opponent Mr. Jeffrey McCarthy, a relative of Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, are conservatives and Mr. McCarthy is a member of the unorganized P. A. A. order, and will force the fighting on the Manitoba school question. The fight promises to be a bitter one.

MANHOOD SUFFRAGE REGISTRATION.

Mr. Ross' bill to amend the Manhood Suffrage Registration Act makes the provisions of the Act applicable to all towns as well as cities. Members of a permanent militia corps are to be entitled to registration on furnishing evidence that they are entitled to registration under the Dominion Franchise Act, but not otherwise. The term "mariner" is construed to mean persons employed on any steamboat or sailing vessel during the period of navigation. There is a provision enabling students in attendance at any university, college or school situated in any city or town to which the Act applies to be registered, and to be entitled to vote in any such city or town, on condition that they have no other fixed place of abode, and do not possess the qualifications of other classes of voters. In county towns the Board of Registrars is to consist of the County Judge, the Police Magistrate and the Clerk of the County Court. In all other towns the Police Magistrate, the Town Clerk, and the Clerk of the Division Court shall constitute the Board.

BLACK KNOTS—BEWARE!

E. Morden, of Welland, writes to the Tribune: Every cherry or plum grower that reads this should drop the paper and examine every plum and cherry tree that he controls. If a few knots are found carry them at once to the stove and burn them. If any trees or sprouts have a large number of knots chop them down close to the ground and burn the whole of them at the earliest moment. Any one that refuses to do these things deliberately conspires to destroy the cherry and plum interests of his neighbourhood. Attend to this matter at once. If all the plum and cherry trees are sprayed now with a solution of blue vitriol—about 1 pound to 20 gallons of water—some of the spores of black knot and other fungus will be killed. Neglect not to burn the knots—now.

WORD FROM CALGARY.

Another Town in the Northwest Praises the New Remedy.

CALGARY, N.W.T., April 8.—There are a number of people in this neighborhood who have been much interested in noting the account of Mr. Arthur Coley's recovery from Bright's disease, through the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The remedy is already very well known here, and quite a number of the residents in the town and vicinity have received the greatest benefit from their use. It is expected that several people who have been restored to health will communicate the details of their cures to the general public, particularly as there will probably be a considerable amount of sickness this spring of a kind which the remedy is calculated to cure.

CHINA MUST ADMIT FOREIGNERS.

This is One of the Terms of Peace in Japan's Demands.

London, April 8.—The Central News correspondent in Shanghai states the conditions of peace proposed by Japan, in addition to the independence of Corea, the war indemnity and the cession of Formosa and Liao-Tung Province, including Port Arthur, Japan requires, he says, that China shall allow the unhampered importation of machinery into her territory and the establishing and management of manufactures by foreigners. She must pledge herself, moreover, to open to the vessels of all nations the Yang-Tse River as far as Chung-King-Foo, the Siang-Kiang as far as Siang-Tan-Kien, the Canton River as far as Ous-Hoo-Foo, the Wusung River and the canal as far as Soo-Choo to the north and Hang-Chu-Foo to the south. China must remove permanently the Wusung Bar and provide means to maintain constantly a depth of water sufficiently for large vessels, and the cities of Chung-King-Foo, Ous-Hoo-Foo, Soo-Choo-Foo, Hang-Chu-Foo and others, to be hereafter agreed upon, must be opened up to foreign commerce.

Japan emphasizes the fact that she does not desire for herself commercial advantages that are now extended to the other treaty powers.

SEWERAGE WORKS AND WATER SUPPLY.

IMPORTANT AMENDING LEGISLATION.

Enlarging the Powers of the Provincial Board of Health—Amendment to the Public Health Act—The Text of a Bill Now Before the Legislature.

The following is the text of a bill introduced into the Ontario Legislature by Hon. R. Harcourt, Provincial Secretary. It is an amendment to the Public Health Act. It will be observed that the bill vests, beyond all power of dispute, the control of water supply and the disposal of sewage, in the Provincial Board of Health, subject to appeal to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council. A perusal of the bill will show that the proposed amendments will prevent the expensive controversies that arise, in the matter of sewerage, over the conflicting claims of municipalities affected by sewerage operations, such as Peterborough is expensively familiar with.

Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

* * * * *

2. Section 39 of The Public Health Act is hereby repealed and the following section and sub-sections are substituted therefor:

(1) There shall be a local board of health in each township and incorporated village to be composed of reeve, clerk and three ratepayers, to be appointed by the municipal council in the following manner: One member to be appointed for three years, one member for two years, and one member for one year, each member retiring to be replaced by a member appointed for three years from the date of his appointment.

* * * * *

(3) There shall be a local board of health for each city and for each town containing more than four thousand inhabitants, according to the municipal enumeration of the previous year, to consist of the mayor and six ratepayers, to be appointed by the municipal council as follows: Two members to be appointed for three years, two members for two years, and two members for one year, the retiring members to be replaced by two members appointed for three years from date of appointment.

3. Section 30 of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following section and sub-sections substituted therefor:

(1.) Wherever the establishment of a public water supply is contemplated by the council of any city, town or village, it shall be the duty of said municipal council to submit to the Provincial Board of Health, together with the plans, an analysis of the water from the proposed source or sources of supply, and an affidavit stating that the water analysed is taken from the proposed source and that the analysis submitted to the Board exactly represents the conditions of the sample examined. In case the source of any proposed public water supply does not in the opinion of the Provincial Board of Health, meet the sanitary requirements of the municipality, either by reason of the quality of the water, or because the water is likely, owing to the situation of the proposed source of supply, to become contaminated, it shall not be lawful to establish such waterworks without first obtaining from the Provincial Board of Health a certificate signed by the chairman and secretary stating that the proposed source is the best practicable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, and that all proper measures have been taken to maintain the supply in the highest possible and practicable state of purity.

(2) Whenever the construction of a main sewer or of a system of public sewerage shall be contemplated by the council of any city, town or village, it shall be the duty of the said council to place itself in communication with the Provincial Board of Health, and to submit to the Board before their adoption all plans in connection with said sewer or sewerage system. It shall be the duty of the Provincial Board of Health to enquire and report upon said sewer or system of sewerage, as to whether such is calculated to meet the sanitary requirements of the inhabitants of the said municipality; and as to whether such sewer or system of sewerage is likely to prove prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants of the said municipality or of any other municipality liable to be affected thereby.

(3) The Provincial Board of Health may make any suggestions or amendments concerning the plans submitted, or may impose any conditions with regard to the construction of such sewer or system of sewerage, or the disposal of sewage therefrom as it may deem necessary or advisable in the public interest; and the construction of any main sewer or system of sewerage shall not be proceeded with without being reported upon and approved of by said Provincial Board of Health, and no change in the construction thereof or in the disposal of sewage therefrom liable to injuriously affect the public health shall be made without previous submission to and approval of said Board.

(4) The decision or report of the Provincial Board of Health with regard to any system of water supply, or any public sewer or public system of sewerage or the disposal of sewage therefrom shall be subject to appeal to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, such appeal to be made within one month after the filing of the report or decision in the office of the minister of the department to which the Provincial Board of Health is attached; and such decision or report when not so appealed against and when so confirmed or amended and confirmed upon appeal by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, shall be binding and conclusive upon all the municipalities and persons affected by the same; provided always that whenever it shall appear that any change of circumstances or conditions has arisen the Provincial Board of Health may, if it deem it advisable, made further enquiry and report as to any system of water supply or main sewer or system of sewerage or the disposal of sewage, which report shall be subject as aforesaid and have the same force and effect as aforesaid.

(5) The said Board may from time to time modify or alter the terms and conditions as to the disposal of sewage imposed by any award authorising any system of sewerage or the extension of a sewer and the report or decision shall be subject to appeal as aforesaid and have the same force and effect as aforesaid.

4. Section 39 of the said Act is amended by adding thereto the following sub-section:—

(3) Whenever any medical health officer, sanitary inspector or other health officer of the Board of Health knows or has reason to believe that blood, offal or the meat of any dead animal which has not been previously boiled or steamed when fresh or before becoming putrid or decomposed, or which, although boiled or steamed, is putrid or decomposed, has been or is being fed to hogs, he may summon the owner, the person in charge, or any person found feeding the same, before a justice of the peace for violation of the provisions of this section; and wherever such blood, offal or decomposed flesh is found on any premises the burden of proof that such was not intended to be so fed shall rest with the person charged. Should the charge be proven the health officer making the charge may seize and carry away, or caused to be seized and carried away, the animals, whether dead or alive, to which the aforesaid blood, offal or unboiled or putrid meat has been fed, in order that said animals may be destroyed or so disposed of as to prevent them from being exposed for sale or use for food for man.

MAIL ROBBERY AT BRUSSELS.

Silt Made in a Bag and Registered Letters Abstracted.

Brussels, Ont., April 6.—A mail robbery was committed here on Thursday morning between the town office and the railway station. The mail clerk that received the bag reported that there was a slit made in the side large enough to allow the abstraction of registered letters, of which there was a number missing. The suspected party left on the next train.

RAN OUT A TRESTLE.

Five Lives Lost in a Railway Accident in Ohio.

Zanesville, O., April 6.—At Whigville, five miles west of Summerfield, on the Bellaire, Zanesville & Cincinnati Railway, a wreck took place this morning. A coach on the west-bound passenger train jumped the track, just before reaching a trestle which spans a small stream. The coach dragged the engine from the rails, and the trestle went down. Eli Lucas, the engineer, and Jesse Johns, fireman, both remained at their posts. Both were killed. Three passengers were also killed.

TUPPER LOST HIS TEMPER

A Challenge the Minister Did Not Accept.

CAMPAIGNING IN ANTIGONISH, N.S.

Sir C. H. Tupper on Manitoba Schools—Declines to Answer Questions by the Reform Candidate—His Indefinite Way of Handling the Subject.

Halifax, N.S., April 7.—A good deal of interest was attached to the political meeting held in the town of Antigonish Saturday afternoon in connection with the bye-election for Antigonish County. It was anticipated that Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, who was one of the speakers, would make an important pronouncement on the order in council regarding remedial legislation for the Catholic minority of Manitoba. Although the Minister of Justice devoted nearly the whole of his address to that question, he treated it in a rather indefinite manner.

Sir Charles Tupper was the first speaker. The Manitoba school question, he declared, was the one great and overwhelming issue of the campaign. He said he would not charge Mr. Laurier or the Liberals with arousing the prejudices of the electors, but D'Alton McCarthy and a band of other agitators were engaged in the foul purpose of perpetrating an injustice to the minority in the province of Manitoba.

The Government looked for encouragement in their educational policy to the electors of the County of Antigonish. The defeat of the Government candidate in this constituency would be a severe blow to the Government.

For his part, he did not believe Mr. Laurier would oppose the purpose of the Government on this educational question. Indeed, he expects that the Government could force Mr. Laurier to vote in support of the Government policy on this question.

He pledged himself that if his party were false to honor and justice he would turn his back on them. The Government had taken the first step and were now asking the electors of Antigonish to follow them. If the Liberal candidate were elected, a greater blow would be inflicted to the Government by this county than could be given by any other county in Canada. But the Government were prepared to risk such a fatal blow.

He expressed the hope that Premier Greenway, in the interval between now and the date when Manitoba Legislature re-assembled, would decide that justice should be done to the minority. If that were so it would be all the more satisfactory. If he did not, the difficulty of settling the matter would devolve upon the Parliament of Canada to carry the measure foreshadowed by the Remedial Order.

Sir Charles' references to the Manitoba school question at this meeting and at a meeting at St. Andrew's on Friday were much more indefinite than at an earlier meeting of the campaign.

Hon. C. F. McIsaac, the Liberal candidate, challenged Sir Charles to state whether or not the Dominion Government would pass remedial legislation if Manitoba Government did not, but the Minister did not accept the challenge. Mr. McIsaac's vigorous arraignment of the knight caused the latter gentleman several times to lose his temper.

VENEZUELA WILL FIGHT

If Britain Refuses to Arbitrate the Boundary Dispute.

Washington, April 8.—Notwithstanding the generally-expressed opinion by the State Department officials and British officials that nothing but a peaceful outcome will develop out of the Venezuelan boundary dispute, those familiar with the temper and feeling of the Venezuelan Government and people on this subject emphatically and unequivocally declare that Venezuela will go to war if Great Britain retains its present attitude and refuses to submit to arbitration the right to the territory which Venezuela claims has been usurped by British Guiana. There is no question that Venezuela, in the event of trouble between herself and Great Britain, would look to the United States for moral, financial and material support. But this, after all, is a secondary condition. Venezuela feels that the country in dispute belongs to her, and insists that self-respect will not permit her to remain passive one minute after it becomes clearly evident that Great Britain purposes retaining possession of it. Venezuela's army on a peace footing does not exceed 8000 men, but it is claimed she could in an emergency place 100,000 troops in the field within 60 days. Many of these troops are veterans.

BEAT THE INSURANCE CO.'S.

Coal Oil Poured on Half-Burned Goods After the Fire.

Sunday, Ohio, April 7.—A sensational insurance case was concluded here Saturday. April 8 of last year the large dry goods store of L. & W. R. Carnahan was burned. The owners computed their loss at $75,000, for which amount the goods were insured in 22 companies. The companies refused to settle and the firm brought suit. The companies set up that the goods were insured for twice their value and that the store was set on fire. Many witnesses swore to having squeezed coal oil out of the partly burned goods, it being claimed that W. R. Carnahan put the oil over the goods and then fired the store. The Carnahans contend that insurance detectives poured on the oil after the fire and then hired people to discover the traces. The jury looked at it that way and brought in a verdict for the full amount of the insurance, with interest.

Upper Canada College gets $83,000—The House may not Rise This Week.

Toronto, April 8.—The session of the Local Legislature was short on Saturday, though several measures of importance were pushed on a stage. It was the intention of the Government to finish the business of the session on Thursday next, but it is doubtful now whether they will be able to carry out this program. In case the session lasts over Easter it will run well into the week following before prorogation. In the Public Accounts Committee Mr. Marter attempted to discredit the evidence of Mr. Walter Scott, foreman of the Central Prison workshops, but utterly failed.

U. C. C. GETS $83,000.

Hon. Mr. Ross moved the second reading of his bill to empower the University of Toronto to settle the claims of Upper Canada College to the Russell Square lands. Under the agreement Upper Canada College was to receive $100,000 from the sale of the lands at the end of seven years. The bill authorises the University to pay on June 1 next the value of the $100,000 which would have seven years to run at 4 1-2 per cent. The amount payable in June will be something about $82,500.

Mr. Howland feebly opposed the bill, but was so rambling in his remarks that his argument could not be followed. No one on the Government benches thought his effort worthy of reply. The bill received its second reading.

ONE MAN ONE VOTE.

Hon. Mr. Ross moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Manhood Registration Act. He said that it extended the provisions of the act to towns and provided that members of the permanent militia and students attending any educational institution might vote in the cities or towns in which they might be situated on election day.

Mr. Howland objected to the passage of the bill on the ground that it was introduced at too late a stage of the session. He wished the bill left over until next session.

Hon. Mr. Ross said that the bill was such a moderate extension of the Manhood Suffrage Bill of last year that it required no special consideration. The bill of last year had been argued at great length in Parliament and it would be useless to continue the discussion. The bill was read a second time.

NOTES.

Hon. Mr. Hardy moved the second reading of his bill to empower the rangers in the Algonquin National Park to arrest persons taking furs in the park, and also to seize the furs. The bill passed the second reading.

The Metropolitan Street Railway bill was considered by the Railway Committee on Saturday. The company asked to be allowed to run their cars on Sunday. This was prohibited, except in the case of milk cars.

The electric railway companies made a strong fight before the Railway Committee on Saturday to have the new Electric Railway Act amended so as to allow the running of Sunday cars. Nearly every electric concern in the province was represented. Mr. William Laidlaw, Q.C., acted as their spokesman. He said that if the clause prohibiting Sunday cars was allowed to stand the Hamilton and Dundas road would not be changed from steam to electricity, and that the Government would ruin the promotion of the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville Railway Company, who had begun the construction of their road upon the understanding that they would be allowed to operate their railway on Sundays. Sir Oliver Mowat promised that the Government would fully consider the matter. Petitions by the thousand are crowding in from members of the W.C.T.U. from all over the province protesting against allowing cars to run on Sunday.

[illegible] OF PEACE

Japan's Demands Which China Must Accede To.

London, April 6.—A Central News despatch from Shanghai says it is reported on good authority that the principal conditions of peace include the independence of Corea, the payment of indemnity of 400,000,000 yen, and the cession to Japan of Formosa and Liao Tung, including Port Arthur. The last mentioned condition, the cession of Liao Tung and Port Arthur, is objected to by China.

A Peculiar Case.

COVERED WITH PIMPLES.

AN ANXIOUS MAN.

The Disease Disappears in Three Weeks by the use of B. B. B.—Letter From Manitoba Describing it.

DEAR SIRS—During the winter of 1892-93, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it, and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B.B.B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say it has never re-appeared.

The local branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society, through Rev. Mr. Macwilliams, has just forwarded $250 to the Society's headquarters. John Arnott, an employee at the Peterborough Canoe factory, who boards at the Balmoral Hotel, slipped in descending the hotel stairs, on Saturday night, with the result that he sustained two fractures of femur or thigh bone and also had his head severely cut.

He was immediately taken to the Nicholl's Hospital, as soon as it was ascertained that his leg was broken. The fracture has been reduced and Arnott is reported to be resting easily this morning.

The special committee appointed at the last meeting of the directors of the C. N. & P. R., will meet Mr. Bowen in Cobourg on Wednesday next, April 10. Ashburnham Chicken Thieves.

Quite a number of the Ashburnham villagers are complaining of mysteriously losing their poultry and various other articles. They think that it is the work of the "Coreyites," which fraternity is most numerous in and about the village, and are at the same time a most seedy looking gang. It is the Chief's intention to rid the village of all suspicious characters coming under his observation.

Silly, Heartless and Dangerous.

This morning a gentleman was informed that a well-known citizen had dropped dead. Shocked at the statement he went at once to the office of the gentleman whose death was reported, and was greatly surprised to be greeted cheerily by the reported deceased, who was in excellent health. Jokes of this character are simply wicked and criminal. Apart from the heartless cruelty of exciting fear among the friends of the person spoken of, there is danger of serious injury resulting to friends troubled with heart affection, in which a sudden shock often causes a fatal termination.

Temperance Salad.

In Bradburn's Opera House yesterday afternoon Dr. J. N. Cadieux gave his lecture on the many scenes mentioned in the Bible. To say that the audience was delighted does not convey the pleasing impression made. Dr. Cadieux has all the qualities to draw the multitude and fix their attention for hours at a time. No time lost; every sentence has it aim, every comparison to the point, each illustration startling and varied, every assertion proven as Euclid. The doctor gives his unique lecture, "A Struggle for Life," illustrated by steel plates and chemical experiments, to-night in the same hall. Reserved seats for ladies with gentlemen. Silver collection of 10 cents and upwards at the door.

THE C. W. A. MEET.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR.—On Good Friday the important question will be decided whether Peterborough will get the meet or not. Peterborough's chances are considered by the outside papers to be the best.

If we are successful every citizen should do his utmost to make it pleasant for the boys while they are with us, so they may go to their homes in all parts of the Dominion with none but the most pleasant recollections of their visit to Peterborough.

The main points on which we base our claim for the meet are:—

1st,

HOTEL ACCOMMODATION.

We have 27 hotels which can accommodate between three and four thousand guests, at rate from $1 to $1.50 per day. Our private boarding houses can take care of at least one thousand more, and already several of our best citizens have offered to take charge of some of the boys.

This is nearly double the accommodation of Waterloo and Berlin together, and they are named as our most dangerous rivals.

Second—

RAILWAY ACCOMMODATION.

We have both the C.P.R. and G.T.R., (including the Midland and connections) and visitors can reach here from any direction and at much cheaper rates than to a town which is not a competitive point.

Third—

TRACK.

Our track is easily the fastest track in Canada, and its record for safety is unexcelled. Last August we ran off twelve events in two hours, one race having nineteen starters, and there was no fall or accident during the day. Harley Davidson and H. D. McKellar arrived too late to compete, but said, if prizes were offered for beating Canadian records, they would go against them. The official timer of the C.W.A., Mr. Geo. H. Orr, who was present, in his official capacity said he considered it the fastest track in the province, and the time limits put on the different races was an evidence of the speed of the track.

4TH—CENTURY TOUR.

Dr. Doolittle, of Toronto, and R. J. Wilson, of Kingston, are prepared to organize century parties to wheel from Toronto and Kingston, meet at Port Hope and run in to Peterborough together.

5th—BOATING AND FISHING.

For those of the visitors who enjoy boating and fishing, our lakes afford opportunities not equalled in the Dominion. Stony Lake is well known by the canoist, as is also Rice Lake. The two summer resorts, Idyl Wild and Chemong Park need no comment.

In conclusion, the town of Peterborough extends a hearty invitation to the wheelmen of Canada and their friends, and promises them the best kind of a good time on July 1st and succeeding days.

Three Lads Place Obstructions on the Tracks—No Damage.

As the west bound C. P. R. express, was pulling into Peterborough on Thursday last, and when about a mile below the Ashburnham diamond, the engineer in charge noticed a couple of big stones, one on top of the other, lying exactly between the two rails. Before he could reverse the lever or take any precautions the engine was on top of the obstacles and the sudden shock apprised the driver that although he had brought his engine safely past the danger yet some damage had been done.

Upon arriving at Peterborough an examination showed that the iron band around the bottom of the pilot or cowcatcher had been broken by coming into violent contact with the stones, one of which had flown up and put a dint, as big as one's fist, in the cross piece over the pilot, through which the push bar projects.

Complaint was made to Station Agent Bamford, who immediately sent a man down the track to investigate. The two huge stones, either of which were large enough to wreck a train, were found and in the near vicinity three young lads were encountered walking up the track. Their names were taken, but upon being interrogated by Mr. Bamford, all knowledge of occurrence was denied.

A detective was asked for and yesterday succeeded in fastening the crime on the shoulders of the three lads, each of whom, apparently, was told that the others had "peached" on him, This was all that was necessary and a clean breast was made of the whole affair. The boys could assign no reason for their rash act, but one of them said that as soon as he saw the engine approaching he would have given a good deal to get the stones off the track, but it was too late.

On account of the extreme youth of those concerned the lads were let off with a warning, although the extreme penalty for just such cases is imprisonment for life. It is hoped that the present instance will be a lesson to all other boys and deter them from placing obstructions of any kind upon the tracks.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Special music is being prepared in all the churches for Easter Sunday.

As an evening anthem St. Paul's choir sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" last night.

The trustees of the George street church will meet Monday evening immediately after service.

The anthem "How Beautiful" was sung in good voice in the Charlotte street Methodist church last evening.

In St. Paul's church yesterday morning the anthem "Praise the Lord Oh My Soul" was sung most harmoniously.

Mr. Harkness, a student at McMaster University, conducted services at the Baptist Park street Mission yesterday.

Evangelistic services will be continued in St. Paul's, George street and Charlotte street churches every evening this week.

The local branch of the Women's Missionary Society meets in George street church to-morrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

The offertory next Sunday in the George street church will be devoted to the augmentation of the superannuation fund.

Miss L. Miller took the solo most acceptably in the anthem "So near to the Kingdom," at the Park street Baptist Mission, last evening.

The regular montaly meeting of St. Paul's Women's Auxiliary will be held on Thursday evening next instead of Friday, the latter being a holiday.

The music in St. Andrew's was especially good last evening. The anthem by the choir was excellent, and the solo by Mr. Mulligan was greatly appreciated.

"Oh! How Lovely," was the title of the morning anthem in the Charlotte street church, yesterday. Miss Florence Hall took the solo part with great effectiveness.

The attendance at the George street Sunday school, yesterday, was 637. A week ago there were 640 scholars present. The Home department has now a membership of 60.

Rev. Dr. Torrance in his sermon, last evening, in St. Paul's church, made feeling reference to the recent death of Miss Ferguson, Miss Stenson and Mr. Carmichael.

Rev. Mr. MacWilliams appealed yesterday to the people of the congregation to assist the managers in procuring seats for those applying until the seating capacity be enlarged.

Yesterday afternoon every teacher and every officer in the the George street church Sunday school was in attendance—something almost unprecedented in so large a school.

The Sunday school scholars of the Park street Mission and their friends will be treated to a lecture on the Holy Land, illustrated by magic lantern views, in the Mission building, to-morrow evening.

A quartette composed of Mrs. Seward, Miss Butcher, Mr. John Miller and Mr. Skitch sang "Lead me Gently Home," yesterday, in the George street church, in a manner which was greatly appreciated.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed next Sabbath in St. Andrew's. Preparatory services will be held on Friday evening at 8 p.m., when the Rev. Mr. Reeves of Lakefield will preach.

Yesterday the Rev. Mr. MacWilliams occupied his own pulpit both morning and evening, preaching impressive sermons from Ps. xxxii, 5, "I will confess my transgression unto the Lord, and Thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin," and in the evening from Heb. x, 31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

THE WHEEL.

The Globe says:—"The C. W. A. meet is the great desideratum to Peterborough, Waterloo, London and Owen Sound just now, and though the latter two are not making as strenuous efforts as the first named do, they are still in the race. Placid waters may be of great depth and it is not wise to jump at conclusions. The struggle for the meet has resolved itself into a question of sectional strength. An analysis of the votes controlled by the eastern and western portions of Ontario does not show an advantage either one way or the other. Assuming that the clubs in town to the west of Toronto are as a unit for Waterloo, and that the clubs in the east take the same stand as regards Peterborough there would be almost a dead lock on Good Friday, counting Toronto out of the discussion. Therefore, the Toronto clubs, controlling as they do, almost 800 votes, really hold the balane of power, and it is with them that the settlement of the matter rests. The eastern town, apparently, has the call in local circles, and though prophesying is not all that it is cracked up to be, if the disclosures regarding the methods of the Baldwins be true, we are strongly of the opinion that Peterborough will get the coveted honour. The feeling in the city anent the matter has veered around considerably since the topic became a live one, as Waterloo opened up a strong favourite, but outside of a few screeds they have done very little since that the time to show that they were out to win. Of Peterborough the opposite can be said: their club members have been increasing in their efforts to boom the stock of their town, and to impress upon the C. W. A. the desirability of Peterborough for the annual meet. They have been most extravagant in claiming for Peterborough qualities which are extremely rare in metropolitan cities. Both Waterloo and Peterborough have exceptionally good tracks, and in that respect their supporters cannot claim any superiority over one another. The eastern city, in the matter of accommodation, has a little the best of it, though Waterloo's proximity to Berlin makes it possible for it to press the hotels of that place into service. A most interesting contest will undoubtedly be evolved at the Good Friday Convention, and the winning town will not have a wide margin to boast of when the result is announced."

The Belleville Intelligencer says:—"The Ramblers Bicycle Club met last evening and talked over several matters of importance to the club. It was unanimously decided that the delegates to the C. W. A. meeting on Good Friday should support the claims of Peterborough for the annual meet. If Dr. Doolittle is nominated for the Presidency of the C. W. A. it is safe to say our delegation will support him."

LACROSSE.

If clubs that are not sending delegates to the Canadian Lacrosse Association convention on Good Friday will forward their fees to President Macfadden or Secretary McConaghy, those gentlemen will see that the clubs are represented in the deliberations of the convention. A meeting of the Peterborouns will probably be held some time this week to decide on the advisability of entering the C.L.A. this year.

The Campbellford club looks for a busy season this year: The new officers are:—President, R. Dinwoodie; vice-president, B. Mulhern; honourary president, C. L. Owen; honourary vice-president, C. S. Gillespie; secretary-treasurer, S. J. Gibson; manager, R. A. Latimer; committee, Thos. Bell, R. Johnston, J. Hamilton, R. Brooks and J. H. Rear.

The Campbellford Gasette says: "Lacrosse will boom this year. Last night the junior club met in the St. Lawrence Hall, and organized, electing the following officers:

Captain—W. Crossen.
Sec.-Treas—J. Blute.
Committee—E. Crowe, W. Camming, E. Maraden, H. Little, J. Gibson.
Field Captain—N. Hubble.

The members of the Granite Lacrosse Club meet to organize for the season to-morrow night.

TO LACROSSE PLAYERS.

Those who have to purchase new sticks for this season should look for Lalley's No. 1. They fill the bill completely. Apply to R. M. Glover, at EXAMINER Office.

CRICKET.

The Cricket Club meets for organization and the adoption of a constitution to-morrow evening in the Trent Valley Canal offices, at eight o'clock. It is hoped that the attendance will be as large as at the previous meeting.

N. A. A. A.

At a meeting of the Executive of the Newspaper Amateur Athletic Association on Saturday evening it was thought that the P.A.A.A. grounds would be the most suitable for the requirements of the Association, and the President was authorized to make an offer for the use of these grounds. The baseball team will endeavour to arrange for an out of town nine to come to Peterborough on the Queen's Birthday.

Cobourg Sentinel-Star:—The newspaper men of Peterborough have organized a baseball association and will play a series of games with the printers of Cobourg, Port Hope, Lindsay and Belleville. We are happy to say that we have within our ranks a heaven-born manager, whom we take pleasure in nominating to take charge of the Cobourg typos, Mr. Wm. Gowans, of the World. With Gowan as manager, Piper on first base, Snarkey as "coacher," and Longnose as the mascott, who could break this combination! Our rural neighbours simply wouldn't be in it.

THE TRIGGER.

At a meeting of the Gun Club held Saturday evening in Mr. Sam Ray's tobacco store the following officers were elected for the year:

Hon. President—H. Calcutt.
President—D. W. Dumbla.
Vice-President—T. Rutherford.
Sec.-Treas.—S. Ray.
Captain—H. Tivey.
Executive Committee—Messrs. Ferguson, Roberts, Webb, Morris and James.

It was resolved that the club accept the invitation to shoot a match with the Campbellford team at that place on the Queen's Birthday.

BASEBALL.

The Canadian Sporting News says: For the presidency of the Canadian Amateur Baseball Association on Good Friday, the only name mentioned is that of Dr. F. H. Brennan, Peterborough, the present first vice-president. The doctor is well qualified for the office and is entitled to it by virtue of holding this present office for the past two years and being in the line of succession.

DELFT AND ITS CHINA.

ONE OF THE FAMOUSLY CLEAN TOWNS OF THE NETHERLANDS.

But Its Great Boast is That It Was the Home of the Prince of Orange—A Typical Inn—Buying the Famous Ware—The Leaning Tower of Delft.

The town of Delft, whence all this chinaware comes, is one of the famously clean towns of the Netherlands, being situated in the southern central part of Holland. The word "Holland," is incorrectly used by the English-speaking people, being in reality the name of only one province of the Netherlands. The English and Americans have thus improperly transferred the name of a province to that of a whole country, as bad a mistake as if England were called "Sussex" or the United States "New York." This old town is a collection of remarkably clean canals, overshadowed with lime trees and bordered by the cleanest of clean brick houses, the water for all this cleansing being furnished by the river Schie, which flows into the Maas at Delfshaven. The cleanliness of many of these Dutch towns is really marvelous. They are so clean that it seems a desecration to do any work within their limits. Various travelers have given various explanations for this habit of cleanliness existing among the Dutch; the climate, the abundance of water and the superabundance of servants have all been brought forward as causes. But it seems to me that there is a force back of all these elements which is the real cause of this phenomenon: it is due simply to the temperament of the Dutch people; they are methodical and cleanly by nature, and hence they cannot stand anything that smacks of even a suspicion of dirt.

Delft is famous for other things besides its china and its cleanliness. In the first place, the great boast of Delft is that it was the home of the famous William of Orange and the scene of his unfortunate death, and, secondly, it was the birthplace of Hugo de Groot, the great statesman and scholar, whose fame is linked to that of the neighboring university of Leyden.

The celebrated Prinsenhof, which was the palace of William the Silent, the founder of Dutch independence, is on the Oude Delft canal.

Opposite the Prinsenhof stands the famous "Oude Kerk," or old church of Delft. It has a leaning tower which, while by no means as marked as that of the famous tower at Pisa, is still far enough out of plumb to attract attention and invite investigation. Its inclination was probably produced accidentally for the tower is tall and heavy and its base is surrounded by various canals, which would tend to weaken the stability of its foundations. Moreover, the Dutch have no desire to do such an unorthodox thing as to build a church with a leaning steeple. In this old church is a monument to the memory of Admiral von Tromp, who is the great naval hero of Holland.

In the square market-place which lies to the west of the Prinsenhof stands the so-called Nieuwe Kerk, or new church of Delft, which, although called new, was built in 1412, and is in reality older than the old church.

In the open square which lies in the Groote Markt between the Nieuwe Kerk and the Stadhuis is a bronze statue of the other great celebrity of Delft, Hugo Grotius, or Hugo de Groot. This great Dutch scholar was born in this town in 1583, the day before the assassination of the Prince of Orange. He became involved in political troubles early in life and was imprisoned for several years but finally escaped and became eventually the Swedish ambassador to France, in which service he died. His principal claim to fame is as the founder of the science of international law.

Delft is off the line of the conventional sightseer; what few visitors it does attract generally run down there for the day from The Hague, which is only a few miles distant. Therefore when we stopped at Delft we found that our presence created quite a sensation in that section of the town. Our little inn evidently was not honored often by the presence of travelers. The best rooms were small and dark, while the beds were single, each one being completely enveloped in curtains of heavy dark-colored calico. Everything about the hotel, however, was scrupulously clean. We could not find any one who was able to understand the simplest English; even our best German provoked no intelligent response. As our attempts at Dutch were as thoroughly hopeless, it was hard to make even our simple wants known. Imagine our surprise then, on being awakened in the morning by hearing a voice ask at the door in excellent English whether we would have tea or chocolate for breakfast.

On going to the breakfast-room we found a sweet, bright-faced, intelligent-looking Dutch girl who said that she was the niece of the proprietor of the inn; that her aunt had sent for her to attend us and serve as guide to the town as long as we stayed.

On leaving our inn in the morning we walked straight to the nearest china store to buy Delft ware. Shades of Delft! We were offered the common Japanese ware which has filled our own shops for years to the full as being better and more novel than Delft ware. Finally, we succeeded in getting some original ware, but we were regarded rather suspiciously—probably as being either feeble-minded or very eccentric. We visited also the potteries, which are beginning to be again the show-places of the town.

Our New York Dutch girl proved an excellent guide, for with her care we learned much of Delft and its customs. Here, on the edge of the town, we found the great Polytechnic School of Engineering, which is the real military school of Holland, for here the Dutch youth is taught to fight against the sea. This study of civil engineering is necessary to the existence of Holland; a country that lies in great part below the level of the sea must be guarded, that it may not be swept from the map again. This action was taken with a portion of the Netherlands to save the country from the Spanish in the sixteenth century.

Many of these dykes were so expensive to build that the sum represents the value of an equal amount of massive copper. Holland is a fortress; its mills are its towers; its cathedrals are its gates; the islands the advanced forts; and, like a true fortress, it shows to its old enemy, the sea, only the tops of its bell-towers and the roofs of its houses in defiance and derision.—J. Howe Adams, in the Peterson Magazine.

A Pretty Domestic Scene.

The night watchman in a Chestnut street bank isn't happy unless he dandles his 8-months-old baby for awhile each evening. He cannot get out, nor can mamma get in, but every fair night she passes baby in between the big iron bars of the front window. Papa watchman receives the youngster, and passers-by witness the charming family picture of mamma's smiling face watching between the bars and papa romping with baby in the brightly lighted interior of the bank.—Philadelphia Record.

Preserving Cut Flowers.

Do you know that you should always pull all the leaves off the stalks of flowers before putting them in water? I mean, of course, all the leaves which would otherwise be in the water, not those above it. And another wrinkle given here is that with such flowers as lilac, for instance, or any other hard-stocked sort of shrub, the bark should be peeled off as well as the leaves. The flowers live ever so much longer if these precautions are taken. A scrap of charcoal in the water is also a great preservative.

Merely an Irishman's Hemorrhage.

There was a crowd on the street corner below a sky-scraper in course of erection. A painter had let his pot of green paint fall and the emerald liquid now streaked the sidewalk gorgeously. About this a crowd of idlers had gathered. A newcomer, trying to push his way to the unseen magnet of attention, met a man equally eager to get out, and accosted him: "What's it all about?" "Nothing, much," said the other; "just an Irishman had a hemorrhage."—Vanity Fair.

A BOON TO ALL SICK ONES

Cures When Other Medicines and Doctors Have Failed

RESTORES THE SICK TO HEALTH.

"I Can Attribute My Restoration to Health Solely to South American Nervine." Says C. J. Curtis, of Windsor.

C. J. CURTIS, WINDSOR, ONT.

When one has climbed a high mountain it is not difficult to mount the ordinary hill. A medicine that will cure when the case is a desperate one, may be safely taken as a good all round medicine in ordinary cases, and it is not alone the very sick who need medicine.

The statement is borne out by a multitude of facts, thousands of testimonials from reputable citizens, that South American Nervine cures, after what are considered the best medicines in the country have failed, and where the skill of the ablest physicians has come to naught.

The acknowledged scientific principle of disease is weakness and disorganization at the nerve centers. These nerve centers are the main spring of the whole system. When the stomach is out of order the certain remedy is to set the nerve centers in right condition again, so with every other trouble. Thus it is that it may be liver complaint, nervousness, indigestion, heartburn, sour stomach, loss of appetite, impoverished blood, consumption of the lungs, catarrh of the stomach, sick or nervous headache, sleeplessness, pain in the kidneys, or other ailments from which a person is suffering South American Nervine will cure, and cure quickly, and best of all cure effectively and lastingly in every such case.

Much as we were disposed to laugh at La Grippe as a trifling complaint when it first made itself known in this country, later developments have proved that it is a serious malady. The after effects are such that very thorough measures need to be taken to ensure perfect restoration to health. South American Nervine has proven wonderfully efficacious in giving back health to the victims of La Grippe. Mr. C. J. Curtis, a wealthy and well known farmer near Windsor, Ont., suffered from a severe attack of this malady, leaving him exceedingly weak and with no appetite. No medicine seemed to do him any good until he was influenced to try South American Nervine and his testimony is this: "After taking one bottle I found very great benefit from it, my appetite improved wonderfully, and I felt my strength returning very fast." Mr. Curtis then purchased five bottles, but after taking only three out of the five, to use his own words: "I am feeling as nearly well to-day as I ever did, and I can attribute my restoration to health and strength solely to South American Nervine."

FAVORED ELDEST SON.

THE DOCTRINE OF PRIMOGENITURE IN DIFFERENT NATIONS.

The First Born Was of Sacred Import Among the Jews—Greeks, Germans, France. All Divide Equally Among the Children—The Law as It Is in Canada

Mr. Cecil claims to be the first writer who has, so to speak gone all round the world, and all through history, in search of primogeniture. He glances at the Jews with their habit of attaching a sacred import to the title of first born. In classical Greece he finds no trace of primogeniture. As in ancient Germany, equal division was the rule. The Mahomstans know nothing of it. They gave each male twice as much of the inheritance as two females, and so stopped by anticipation all nonsense about women's rights. The invading Teuton grafted primogeniture on the Roman jurisprudence by using his system of chieftainship as the thin end of the grafting wedge. It grew slowly among us as a feudal measure, but it was long after the Norman conquest before the descendants of the first-born obtained a settled priority over an elder representative of the previous generation. According to Sir Henry Maine, it owes its eventful supremacy to the pitiably low level of social organization which characterized the declining days of the Carlovingian Empire. Anything was better than chaos, and the old scramble was carrying affairs into that domain.

In the sevententh century Jersey prayed for a law of entail to stop the infinite subdivision of its land, and its prayer was granted. "The children of the better sort, depending on their partitions, give not themselves to trades." It was a mistake, and the island is now slowly working its way back to the old stage of things. Our colonies take their own course, in this as in other matters. In Canada primogeniture has virtually disappeared. That is to say, it has not enforced by law, and in practice no one thinks of making an eldest son. This is exactly the state of things in the United States. An American enjoys perfect liberty of bequest, but he rarely employs it in beggaring all his children but one. A few of the older families have indulged in that luxury, and they have their reward, such as it is, in a hereditary succession of millionaires. But public opinion is altogether against the practice, and it is generally understood that rough coarseness and brutality must be counteracted at less cost. In Lower Canada equal division is the rule, without distinction of sex, or primogeniture. They are not of Johnson's way of thinking. "An ancient estate should always go to males. It is mighty foolish to let a stranger have it because he marries your daughter and takes your name. As for an estate newly acquired by trade, you may give it if you will to the dog Towser, and let him keep his own name." The Lower Canadians compel even Towser to share and share alike with the rest of the family.

So, notoriously, they do in France. There is an equal distribution among all the children without distinction to sex or age. With this, however, as the principle, there is an option of leaving away a fraction of the property, and out of the fund thus created slightly increasing the share of any child. But each of the children is quite sure of getting a portion, and by that great principle France stands or falls. It is the chief reason why she stands, though our author fails to see it. The general diffusion, not of wealth, but of means, is the cornerstone of French prosperity. Everybody has something, or the hope of something. None is so poor but he has his prospect of a little inheritance. Hence the enormous wealth of the community as a whole, the facility with which the people, as distinct from the mere financiers, raise millions in a single night at the back of a Government. There is nothing like it elsewhere in the whole world.—London Daily News.

A Cold Light.

The recent investigations of Professor Ebert form an interesting sequel to the researches of Tesla on the production of electric light with the minimum amount of heat. The goal, of course, is to get the light with no heat at all, except that which naturally belongs to the luminous rays; that is, to get rid of the obscure or dark heat altogether. Only about five per cent. of the energy expended in an incandescent lamp is turned into light, the remaining ninety-five going into waste heat. Professor Ebert has now not only deduced the laws according to which apparatus should be made to produce cold light by means of alternating currents of high frequency, but he has succeeded in obtaining a light of about one-thirteenth of a candle power, with about one-thousandth of the energy required in one of the standard candle power lamps. This, of course, is a very small light, but Professor Ebert is confident that lights of practical brightness may be obtained according to his method.

Don't Snub.

Don't snub a boy because he chooses a humble trade The author of "Pilgrim's Progress" was a tinker.

Don't snub a boy because he stutters. Demosthenes, the greatest orator of Greece, overcame a harsh and stammering voice.

Don't snub a boy because of the ignorance of his parents. Shakespeare, the world's poet, was the son of a man who was unable to write his own name.

Don't snub a boy who seems dull or stupid. Hogarth, the celebrated painter and engraver, was slow at learning, and did not develop as soon as most boys.

A woman says that a man will in reigh against the amount of his tailor's bill, but will ask double the value of his wornout suit from the old clothes woman.

What John Wanamaker, the Most Heavily Insured man in America, Says:

(INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WANAMAKER.)

It is very generally known that Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries the largest amount of Life Insurance of any man in the United States. A representative of the press recently interviewed this gentleman while he was travelling with the Presidential party, and this interview will be found, we believe, of general interest:—

"You are said to be the most heavily insured man in the country, Mr. Wanamaker," remarked the press representative.

"How did you come to think of that?" he said with a smile. "You are not looking for any disaster under such excellent management as our friend Boyd is giving this train and party?"

"No," I replied. "A newspaper friend in San Francisco, who had heard the report, wanted me to ask you it it was true, and if so, what your business reasons are for it?"

"Well," he modestly answered, "I have heard it stated that I am the most heavily insured man in the country. I don't know about that. The amount of my policies is $1,550,000, and the value, with the accumulations since the policies were taken out, is about two millions of dollars."

"In what class of companies are your policies?"

"They are all in stock and mutual companies, and none of them in what are known as assessment or instalment companies."

"Are they full life term policies or on what is termed the 'tontine' plan?"

"I have generally taken ten and fifteen payment policies and very few life policies. With about all good companies a contract can now be made whereby there is no risk of losing a policy after two years' premiums have been paid. If the party insured chooses to withdraw he can get a paid-up policy. Indeed, I understand that some companies have forms whereby the insurer can after one year, if desired, withdraw and receive a paid-up policy. There is practically little risk any more, in insuring in the old companies."

"Perhaps you would be willing to tell me how you came to insure so heavily?"

"I thought the matter out, and convinced myself that it was a good business venture. Besides, it seemed to me that I might, perhaps, give away more money in lifetime if there was a fixed certainty of putting it back into my estate by Life Insurance. I conceive that the best way for a man to carry on benevolence is not to leave it to be done through his will, but to do it in his lifetime, and I felt that Life Insurance would give me more freedom in carrying out some plans I have, and which I would be glad to see completed before I leave this world. If you want to ascertain what the circumstances were in placing the Life Insurance, I must go further in my answers and say that I should not have gone so far in my Life Insurance but for the skill of the agent who tackled me to insure to a greater extent than I would otherwise have done. He was an old friend who had been in mercantile business and who knew how to present Life Insurance without boring me. I feel to-day sincerely grateful to the man who followed me so discreetly with information about companies, and who kept the subject before me until I settled the question."

"When did you begin taking Life Insurance policies?"

"My first policy was taken when I was twenty-one."

"Do you consider it a good thing for a man of small means?"

"I certainly do. Most young men spend more for cigars during the year than the annual cost of a $2,500 policy in a good company. If they must have the cigars they might divide between cigars and Life Insurance and carry at least a $1,000 policy. I think every young man, before he is married, ought to try to get at least a $1,000 policy."

"Among how many companies are your policies divided, and where are they located?

"About forty companies. Most of them are located in the East. A few are in the West and a few in Canada."

"Do you recommend Life Insurance to others, especially those in whom you feel a personal interest?"

"I can perhaps answer that best by saying that I presented a few years ago a $1,000 policy, paid up for one year, to every insurable head of family in my employ. Many of the prudent men who received them not only kept them but added to them, and I have the satisfaction of knowing that in not a few cases those policies have been the means of saving worthy families from want."

It will doubtless be of interest to our readers to know that John Wanamaker carries a large policy in the Canada Life Insurance Company, thus evincing his confidence in the soundness of Canada's oldest and largest Company. During the last few years quite a number of American capitalists have been convinced of the SUPERIOR MERITS OF THE CANADA LIFE, and have accordingly placed their insurance therein, in preference to any other company.

The Canada Life is now being recognized in the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio as the Company that gives the best results for the least premium.

PROWLING PUSSY.

Not Gossip and Flirtation Alone That Takes Her Out.

It is no merely love of gossip or flirtation, not alone the lust of battle or a passion for music, that leads the cat to prowl at midnight round the garden. And the bones that lie so thick at the bottom of the hollow where the owls have lived for generations give us some ideas of the swarms of small game that are to be found by those that have eyes to see them. There are few gardens probably, even within the suburbs of a town, to which some of these wild creatures, the long-tailed field mouse, the bank vole and the shrew, for instance, do not make their way. Even a hedgehog has been seen going home in the small hours along a road bordered on both sides by walls and houses, hurrying, with half a dozen little prickly copies of herself behind her, toward the family hiding place on the wooded hill above the town. As we go farther afield, we become aware of the existence of yet more of these seldom seen inhabitants of the woods and the meadows. Yet even there we see their traces much oftener than we catch sight of the creatures themselves. Few people, even in the country, see much of stoats or weasels, except perhaps just around a farm, or rotting on the keeper's tree. They are children of the night, stealthy and secret in their movements, keeping as far as possible aloof from man. The mole, too, though he so constantly betrays his presence by chains of earthworks in the meadows, seldom comes into our ken. A strange existence his, almost wholly spent underground, almost all of it in darkness. Yet he has eyes, and, unlike many of his kindred, can see with them clearly enough. So, too, can bats, in spite of the proverb to the contrary. Eleven species of bats are native here, and four more have been taken at least once in this country. Yet how little we seem to know of them, of their ways and of their hiding places. Now and then we may see a bat asleep—as they all are in weather like this, even four weeks at a stretch—hanging head downward, with its leathern wings folded close upon its tiny body, clinging in a dark nook under the turret stair. Much more rarely may we chance on one in full daylight—dazzled, no doubt by the unaccustomed glare, hung up, perhaps, against a tree trunk, flapping its ears, blinking its bead-like eyes, baring its tiny teeth and making grimaces that might well make a village urchin think twice before meddling with so strange an apparition. But our glimpses of bats are, for the most part, only for a moment, as they flutter past in the twilight, or swoop down among the insects that, on summer evenings, hover on the water.—London Chronicle.

WHAT A BABY LOOKS LIKE.

Fancied Resemblance to Father or Mother Said to Be Imaginary.

Nothing is more remarkable than the comparison of the same sized profile views of the same person at six and at thirty years of age; the growth of the nose and the development of the forehead are so great that the jaws appear to have diminished in size, and this is really what the jaws have done, in proportion to the whole face.

It is a fond delusion with visitors and nurses that the baby is just like its father or mother. No one who has had that scientific training necessary to proper observation could make such a statement. It is a gross libel, sometimes on the baby, sometimes on the parents. Properly taken, photographs show that the proportions of nearly every feature in the face of a baby and an adult are entirely different, but the greatest difference exists in the size of the jaws. If when adults we had features like our babies we should have a countenance of a negroid type. Unless positive evidence be available, it would hardly be credible that the small-jawed, long and prominent nosed individual with high forehead was in babyhood prognathous, short and snub-nosed, with a remarkable receding forehead. The difference resulting from the change during life, as shown by two photographs reduced to the same size, not the same proportion, is greater than the difference between many species; yet the very fact and the possibility of its earlier transmission from generation to generation may be the basis of specific mutation, without calling in the aid of natural or sexual or physiological selection to account for that phenomenon.

The prognathism of a child is less noticeable than it should be, because such prognathism, owing to the disposition of weight, alters the whole carriage of the head, and the difference in the method of carrying the head obscures the prognathism to a certain extent.—Popular Science Monthly.

In England, where good roads are not an iridescent dream, cycling parties of blind persons are sometimes seen. It is not to be inferred that the blind lead the blind, for the steersman of each connected group is fully competent to avoid obstructions.—Boston Transcript.

A YOUNG LAD AND His Faithful Friend.

Ernest McGregor, of Whitby, Ont., Gives an Account of His Experience—Cured of Persistent Dyspepsia by B. B. B.

WORST KIND OF DYSPEPSIA.

GENTLEMEN,—I write to inform you that for years I had been troubled with Dyspepsia and having tried other medicines which entirely failed, I at last found relief and cure in Burdock Blood Bitters, of which I took two bottles, the result being a perfect cure. Although only a young lad I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for four or five years, but I can say now that B. B. B. does its work faithfully in the worst kind of Dyspepsia, and has proved itself the only cure for me.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

"I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs, and I did what is often done in such cases, neglected it, thinking it would go away as it came; but I found, after a little while, that the slightest exertion pained me. I then who found, on examining my lungs, that the upper part of the left one was badly affected. He gave me some medicine which I took as directed, but it did not seem to do any good. Fortunately, I happened to read in Ayer's Almanac, of the effect that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral had on others, and I determined to give it a trial. After taking a few doses my trouble was relieved, and before I had finished the bottle I was cured."—A. LEFLER, watchmaker, Orangeville, Ont.

Consulted a Doctor

WILDE MAY GET TEN YEARS.

The Disgraced Poet and Author Arraigned in Court

London, April 6.—Oscar Wilde's friend, Taylor, was arrested and taken to the Bow-street Police Station this morning.

When Wilde was arraigned in the Bow-street Police Court this morning, Alfred Taylor was placed in the prisoner's dock, charged with being accessory to Wilde's crimes. As Taylor stepped into the dock Wilde smilingly recognised him. Taylor is a man of medium size with sharp features and a fair complexion.

Charles Parker, 19 years of age, was the first witness examined. He gave in detail the particulars of his introduction to Wilde by Taylor, and stated that the latter said Wilde was "Good for money." Parker testified that he had frequently dined with Wilde at various restaurants, and detailed the conversations between them on these occasions. He also told of visits to the Savoy Hotel with Wilde, and of meeting Wilde at his chambers at St. James' Place.

The story told by Parker, if true, proves the case of the Treasury against Wilde. Counsel for Wilde and Taylor reserved the right to cross-examine Parker.

May Get a Life Sentence.

The World's London cable says: If Oscar Wilde's indifference during the revelations in court to-day was assumed, it was an excellent piece of acting. It seems certain that he will be convicted. The minimum penalty for the offence with which he is charged is 10 years' imprisonment; the maximum punishment is penal servitude for life. There will be a demand for an exemplary sentence, as public sentiment is aroused against the group to which he belongs. Other prosecutions may follow. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Wilde, who is a very estimable woman, and for his two beautiful children. A singular feature of English law is that, even if her husband is convicted and sentenced to penal servitude, Mrs. Wilde cannot get a divorce on either ground.

$600,000 AT MANITOBA'S BACK.

Greenway Receives a Remarkable Letter From the United States.

Winnipeg, Man., April 7.—At Gleichen, N.W.T., yesterday a coroner's inquest was held on the body of Frank Skynner, Government issuer of rations, murdered by Scraping Hides, a Blackfoot Indian. Constable Rogers, who shot dead the murderer, was acquitted after formal trial.

The weather throughout Manitoba and the Territories continues magnificent, and farmers are making great progress with their seeding. The unusual earliness of the season well-nigh assures an abundant crop.

Joseph Louie, one of the pioneer settlers of Selkirk, while crossing the ice of Red River yesterday, broke through and was drowned. A dozen people saw him drowning, but could render no assistance, fearing to venture on the ice.

The attention attracted by the Manitoba school question appears to be limited only by the bounds of the earth. Letters are being received by the Government from all parts of the American continent and the Old Country, some endorsing the stand taken by the Government and others asking for information. A characteristic epistle came to hand yesterday from a gentleman in Washington, D.C., who, after referring to the stand taken in the United States for equal rights and non-sectarian education, promised the aid of 100,000 men and $3,000,000 to back up the Government in case they had to defend their position by a resort to arms. The offer came from an organization that has a membership of 3,000,000 in the States.

The Winnipeg Tribune, Premier Greenway's organ, says: "With 800 Orangemen in the constituency of Haldimand mad with the Manitoba school question made the main issue, the people of Canada will have an opportunity of seeing to what extent principle counts when partyism is in the scale."

KEENE.

(From our own Correspondent.)

A goodly number of fish were hooked through the ice on Rice Lake during the past week.

The first spring ode was sang in Keene, on Saturday morning, by cock robin.

If times do not take a change for the better a number of young men from this vicinity purpose to try their luck in some other clime.

House cleaning has commenced in our village and all the females have a hustle on. They certainly will be rulers of the house until every room and corner is renovated.

Owners of fruit trees should have all the black knot removed from them as a fine can be imposed on all who neglect to do so.

This season has proved to be almost a failure as regards sugar-making.

A young man in this village on April 1st received a written invitation through the post office to dine with a lady friend out in the country. He very tastefully arrayed himself in his Sunday attire, and arrived at her home at the appointed hour, but much to his surprise and chagrin received rather a cool recention. He was neither asked to divest himself of his overcoat or to dine with his lady friend. He began to surmise that all was not right, and after careful consideration came to the conclusion that he was April fooled. It is no doubt his intention to get even with the instigator of this scheme at some future time.

Bear Your Own Burden.

Every man should bear his own burden of sorrow. When the burden comes upon him he has a right to expect sympathy from his friends; he has a right to expect help and fellowship from those that are near and dear to him. But one has no right to carry his gloom into others' lives; no one has a right because he is walking in a shadow to shadow the paths of those about him. That is my objection to the wearing of mourning. I do not mean to the wearing of every kind of black, but to the wearing of that form of black which says to everybody, "I am in grief." I object to it because in its essence it is selfish, because in its essence it gives notice to every one, "I am in trouble" and so rolls off a part of that trouble upon others' shoulders. When sorrow comes to us let us receive into our hearts' recesses our friends; let us even ask them to watch by our side while we wrestle in our garden of Gethsemane; but let us not throw the burden of our grief on other hearts.

I see from the newspapers indications that suicide is on the increase. I am not sure whether this is true or whether it is only true that the newspapers are more enterprising and we get more widespread reports than we used to. But every suicide, unless he is insane, is a coward, and every temptation towards suicide is a coward's temptation, for when a man faces bankruptcy or shame or ignominy of any kind and goes out of life by his own hands he rolls that burden off upon a wife, upon a child, upon a friend, upon a home, upon some one else to bear for him; he runs away and leaves the poisoned arrows to pierce other hearts. The suicide is a coward.

This is our duty to bear bravely, heroically, courageously, nobly each one his own burden.—Rev. Lyman Abbott.

Why and Wherefore.

WHY DOES A PENDULUM CLOCK GO FASTER IN WINTER THAN IN SUMMER?

Because the the pendulum-rod becomes contracted by the cold in winter and lengthened by the heat in summer. The shorter the rod the quicker the stroke or vibration.

I am prepared to regulate and adjust all Clocks, Watches and Chronometers, to suit the varying conditions of the weather, and guarantee them to keep good time in every case where the mechanism has not become seriously worn or badly out of repair.

RUNNING CARS ON SUNDAY

Electric Roads May Operate 1½ Miles From Towns.

PROVINCIAL AID TO HOSPITALS.

A Bill to Give Municipalities Control of Advertising on Fences—Amendment to the Insurance Law—The Members on Sabbath Observance.

Toronto, April 9.—The Sunday car question was the chief topic of discussion in the Ontario Legislative Assembly yesterday. Hon. Mr. Bronson's Electric Railway bill came before the committee of the whole House. The bill provides that electric railways shall not operate on Sunday more than 1 1-2 miles outside cities and towns. Mr. German was the first to protest. He could not see why steam roads should be allowed to run on the Lord's Day and electric roads be debarred from the same privilege. He could not see why the Government should attempt to make Christians by legislation. He thought that this function should be left to the churches. (Cries of, Hear, hear!) He said that it would do the workingman and his family far more good on Sunday to go to a cool park or garden than to sit in a hot church and listen to a stupid sermon. "Why," he said, "should the rich man be allowed to have his coachman and pair to drive him about on Sunday and the poor man deprived of the right to go abroad with his family? Would you deprive me of the right to go to a livery and hire a rig to take my family into the country?" He thought that the whole matter should be left to the conscience of the people. "Don't attempt to legislate people into heaven," he concluded.

NO UNNECESSARY DESECRATION.

Hon. Mr. Bronson said that the Government had no intention to make the attempt to legislate religion into the people, but he held that no unnecessary temptations should be placed in their way. (Hear, hear.) The running of electric roads, he continued, on Sunday would be affording the means of desecrating the Lord's Day.

Mr. Haycock said that if the act was not retroactive roads at present built would be allowed to run on Sunday, while a road running parallel which might be built after the passage of the act would not be allowed to run.

PRESENT ROADS NOT AFFECTED.

Sir Oliver Mowat said that it was still an open question whether street cars could run at all on Sunday. In any case the present bill did not deal with that subject. If the bill passed the rights of existing roads would remain exactly as they were.

Mr. Conmee said that this looked like class legislation. He said that the parks in Toronto were open on Sunday and there was nothing to prevent any man who had sufficient money having a livery rig and driving through them. Why then should the man who had not sufficient money to do this not be allowed to get to them on a car?

Mr. McDonald, a Patron member, said that if the people of the province had not enough respect for the Lord's Day to keep it holy it was the duty of the members to compel them to do so. (Cries of "Oh! oh!" and loud laughter.)

It was finally decided to insert words to make the bill conform to Mr. Bronson's view, and also to extend the limit Sunday cars might run outside cities and towns to one and a half miles.

HOWLAND'S JOKE ABOUT PASSES.

Mr. Howland introduced an amendment compelling all electric roads to issue free passes to all Legislative and municipal officials.

At Mr. Bronson's request this amendment was allowed to stand until the bill comes up for its third reading.

GRANTS TO HOSPITALS.

Hon. Mr. Gibson moved the second reading of his bill respecting charitable institutions. It provides that no Government grant shall in future be given towards the support of paying patients; hospitals are not to receive aid when they are established in municipalities where there is already a hospital; municipalities are to pay for poor patients who reside in their districts for light weeks, at the rate of $2 per week. The bill passed its second reading.

INSURANCE LAW AMENDMENTS.

Hon. Mr Gibson moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Insurance Law. He said that when the law was first passed three years ago, the clauses dealing with friendly societies were not complete. Since than several of these institutions have gone into liquidation. The chief feature of the bill was to provide speedy and cheap machinery for the winding up of these concerns. The manner in ordinary and two other local masters had fully considered the bill and had agreed that its provisions were required. They all had experience in winding up these companies and knew what kind of machinery was necessary. The bill was read a second time.

Mr. Howland moved the first reading of his bill to amend the Ontario Architects' Acts. It changes the terms of apprenticeship and the qualifications for registration, and makes it penal to use the title "architect" unless registered as a member of the Ontario Association of Architects.

Mr. German moved the first reading of his bill to amend the Municipal Acts. It gives power to municipalities to pass by-laws regulating the use of the streets for advertising.

Hon. Mr. Ross' amendment to the Manhood Registration Act was changed in committee so as to make the extension of the act apply only to county towns.

In committee of the whole Hon. Mr. Gibson introduced a clause into his bill for the further protection of children, providing that in cases of alleged wrongful detention of children the county judge may upon application instruct the district superintendent under the act to hold an inquiry.

Mr. Langford will ask the ministry whether it has been brought to the attention of the Government that the capital stock of the Toronto Street Railway Company is $6,000,000, notwithstanding that the act of incorporation of 1892 limits the stock to $1,000,000? Has the company in any way corresponded with or consulted the Government in reference thereto?

HER HUSBAND A BIGAMIST.

Toronto, April 9.—With a five weeks' old baby on her arm, Mrs. Hymeon Haber, a Hebrew woman of middle age, arrived in Toronto from New York city Friday evening in quest of her faithless husband, only to find that he had married another and fled at the first intimation of her presence in the city.

Nearly 11 years ago Haber and Mrs. Haber No. 1 were married. They lived happily together until two years since, when Haber met with Miss Annie Bower, a comely Jewish maiden.

Nine months ago Haber left New York, telling his wife he was going to Canada, where he had procured a good situation, and would send for her and their 9-year-old daughter.

Haber left and with him left Miss Bower. Their destination was Toronto, and they found a home with Harris Swarts, Chestnut-street. Haber was a fur-cutter by trade, and procured employment almost immediately with R. Wolfe, Yonge-street. From January to July his remuneration was $12 per week, and from July to January $15. To allay any misgivings which might arise in the minds of his lawful wife through his failure to communicate with her, he sent her letters containing small sums of money, at irregular intervals. These missives were sent from here to London, Ont., from which place they were dated and re-posted by a friend of Haber's. This caused Mrs. Haber to believe that her husband was in London, and, having heard of only one London, she concluded her husband had crossed the Atlantic.

Haber and Miss Bower were married shortly after their arrival here. Mr. Swarts had been suspicious for some little time, but soon after the marriage came into the possession of facts which disclosed to him the identity and true character of his guest. A Jewish lady who was leaving Toronto on a visit to New York was entrusted with the task of locating Haber's legal wife, and informing her of her husband's whereabouts and second marriage. Mrs. Haber arrived in the city Friday evening and proceeded to the address in Chestnut-street of Mr. Swarts.

Haber in some manner became aware of his wife's presence in the city, and when Mrs. Haber went to Mr. Wolfe's store on Saturday morning, expecting to meet her runaway spouse, she was disappointed, as he has not since reported for duty. The matter was placed in the hands of the city detective force, who have since been searching in vain for Haber.

When seen by a reporter last evening at 112 Teraulay-street, where she and Haber have lived since their marriage, wife No. 2 admitted her flight with a subsequent marriage to Haber. In broken English she told her story pleading as justification for her act, that Haber had shown her papers which he represented to her as showing that he had been divorced from his wife, and was free to marry a second time. The last she saw of Haber was when he left the house Saturday morning, saying he was going to his work. She heard of Mrs. Haber's arrival when the detectives called Saturday afternoon to enquire for Haber.

Mrs. Haber No. 1 is in destitute circumstances, and is being assisted by the Hebrew residents of the city. It is her intention to remain in the city until her husband is located and a settlement effected between them.

New York Central Electric Road

Buffalo, N.Y., April 8.—This morning the New York Central put a big gang of laborers at work upon the new electric line that will run between Buffalo and Niagara Falls. The roadbed from Tonawanda to the falls has been improved, and the tracks will be straightened somewhat. Three cars which will be used on this line are at Tonawanda. They are furnished with great elegance.

Balmy Spring in Colorado.

Denver, Col., April 8.—Owing to the terrific snowstorm which has prevailed in the vicinity of this city and Eastern Colorado, Kansas and Nebraska, trains have been stalled on all the railway lines east of Denver and hundreds of men and several snowplows are now engaged in clearing the tracks of drifting snow and sand.

NEWFOUNDLAND'S UNION ASSURED

Delegates Confident That Terms of a Basis of Union Can Be Agreed Upon Reported Influx of Settlers Into the Edmonton District

Ottawa, April 9.—There was no conference between representatives of Canada and Newfoundland to-day, each side being engaged, it is understood, in drafting a basis of union for submission to the full conference. From these two proposals it is anticipated that an agreement will be reached. Up to Saturday, the financial condition of the island was under discussion. It is stated that both sides are satisfied, from what has already been done, that terms of union can be arranged.

Reports received at the Interior Department indicate an active immigration movement into Northern Alberta this spring. "During the month of March," one report says, "370 settlers have arrived and settled north of Calgary, and this in the month when nothing more than locating the land and perhaps getting out a few logs or fence rails can possibly be done. The bulk of these settlers have come from the Western States, our neighbors, and are people who know exactly what the country is like before coming, having either sent delegates to inspect the country's resources or have heard from their friends, who have been here before them. These settlers are not coming empty handed. Thirty-four carloads of stock and effects were brought in by them. There were eighty-five settlers on the last train leaving Calgary, over half of whom came through to Edmonton, four from England and sixty-nine from various parts of the United States."

The Department of Trade and Commerce has received a report from its correspondent in Norway, Mr. Sontuum, of Christiania, in which he makes mention of the growth of the exportation of frozen milk from Norway to Great Britain. The freezing process has been patented, and the inventor expects to be able to ship by May 1 100,000 pounds of milk per week to the leading cities of Great Britain. The commencement of this business has led to a loud outcry in England. The Mark Lane Express the leading agricultural authority, calls upon the Government to check it by means of regulations such as apply to the sale of oleomargarine and like products.

In a letter received by the Marine Department from Mr. Smith, Deputy Minister, he states that Sir Edward Reed, chairman of the departmental enquiry into the undermanning of ships, is at present down with influenza, and consequently the committee is unable to prepare its report.

Considerable comment has been aroused in this city from the fact that Mrs. Langtry is billed here for a one-night stand on Good Friday. Local church people are indignant at the selection of this night for the presentation of Mrs. Langtry's play. The matter is being very strongly condemned by some of the Anglican and Roman Catholic clergy. Since the matter was referred to from the pulpit by Archdeacon Lauder (in Christ Church), Rev. Mr. Pollard, St. John's; Rural Dean Bogert, St. Alban's; Mr. Snowdon, in St. George's, and others have taken it up.

In December last there was a reorganization of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Ottawa upon a scale which did not include in the new management any of the old party stalwarts. Then followed a similarly constituted convention in March. The latter move stirred up the older heads, and in the morning papers they duly advertised the annual meeting for the 15th. The evening Opposition organ contains a similar notice signed by the new officers, so there are likely to be two annual meetings next Monday night.

American Swindler Caught in Paris.

Paris, April 8.—The Temps says an American swindler named Wing has been arrested in Paris for obtaining advances upon the bogus securities of the Rock Island, Peoria and St. Louis Railroad, a concern which, according to the railway authorities, has no existence. Wing, formerly occupied grand apartments in the Hotel Continental, but when he was arrested he had only two francs on his person.

TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 1895.

"I am of the opinion that for purely trading concerns, with, perhaps, the exception of lumber and leather, the year may be regarded as perhaps the most unsatisfactory, if not the most disastrous, since confederation. It is impossible to give a reliable forecast of the future. The outlook is not encouraging. The best that can be said is, that business can hardly be worse than it is now, and that any change must therefore be in the direction of an improvement."

This is not the opinion of a "grit" politician, nor of a rabid N. P.-phobe, but of a man occupying a prominent position in a non-partizan trade organization, whose opportunities and habits of observation enable him to pronounce a reliable judgment. Its advocates claim that a hostile hand, laid ever so lightly on the N. P., means ruin to the country. The remarks quoted were made by Mr. Blain, retiring president of the Toronto Board of Trade at the last annual meeting. It it unfortunate that the truth of what he says has to be admitted. The facts cited are in strong contrast to the promises of rampant and perpetual prosperity made in the name of high taxation. Since these promises have failed, and since the experiment has been a costly and burdensome one to the taxpayers, the treasonable suggestion is ventured that a change in our fiscal policy would be for the benefit of the country and a relief to the people at large.

WHERE is the report of that $126,000 Liquor Commission? Does anybody, asks the Ottawa Free Press, know anything about it? The chairman preserves an air of intense mystery when spoken to about it. No member of the Government seems to have heard of it. Opinion is about even on the question of its being presented to Parliament this session, with a strong leaning to the negative. Still it has cost the people $126,000, and they ought at least to get something for their money. The Commission, however, seems not to have been wholly without some good effects. The people to the south of us have evidently heard of it, and the Massachusetts Legislature, which has just appointed a Liquor Commission, has had the forethought to rigidly fix the sum it is to cost beforehand, and has named $10,000 as a sufficient amount. This kind of thing would not be at all to the tastes of the parasites who afflict the body politic of Canada. No chance for "extras!" Perish the thought.

THE foreign-born population of the province of Ontario, according to the census of 1881 was 429,463; according to the census of 1891, it was 405,618, a decrease of 23,844. During this period the official returns of the Ontario Immigration department show that the number of immigrants settled in Ontario in the ten years, 1881-1891, was 186,660, and that in addition to these there were returned from the customs as having arrived and settled in Ontario with their effects during the same period 85,703 immigrants, or a total of 272,363. If to these is added the 23,844, it will be found that there had disappeared from Ontario in these ten years the vast number of 296,197 immigrants. The loss of native-born population in the Province of Ontario during the same period amounted to 193,552. This brings the total loss of population in this province close upon half a million, not counting the natural increase of the immigrants who should have remained. Why?

THE customs collectorship of the Port of Montreal has been vacant for two years, and the Council of the Board of Trade, Montreal, is making a demand that the office be filled. Now that the office has been vacant so long the Government might open its heart and give the position to Mr. Richard White, M.P., Cardwell, but that would involve opening a constituency, which is a rather dangerous thing at present, as it has been any time the past two years. Mr. White has the promise of the office, and as he is losing two years salary, one would not be surprised if he puts in a claim for the amount, and he will get it if he employs Mr. Onderdonk for counsel.

IN SOUTH VICTORIA.

The Reformers of South Victoria have been particularly fortunate in their choice of a candidate. In selecting Mr. George McHugh they have not only secured a strong candidate looked at from the popularity standpoint, but they have also secured a consistent, reliable, and unwearying supporter of Liberal principles. The principle that has prevailed in the South Victoria convention is a good one—namely, a generous recognition of steadfastness and of past services in the ranks of Liberalism.

Mr. McHugh was born in Ops, his father being one of the early settlers, one of the first Wardens of the county, and a man universally liked and respected. The son has inherited his good qualities, and to say that he is popular from one end of the riding to the other is only to state what even his political opponents would not deny. Of him the Lindsay Post in a recent issue said:—"Mr. McHugh has done yeoman service in the Reform cause. He has always been an active and energetic member of the party, and has rendered invaluable service in every campaign. While an active party man, he has always retained the respect and esteem of his opponents. It is beyond question that he is personally the most popular man with all parties and all classes in the riding. He has earned this popularity by his uniform straightforward manly course. He has always been a warm-hearted friend to every man, irrespective of his politics, and has never turned a cold shoulder or a deaf ear to anyone. In a word, he has always been a true man."—Globe.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT NEWFOUNDLAND.

Its Situation, Size, Population and Resources.

Confederated with Canada or not, the geographical position of Newfoundland must always render its welfare and good government a matter of concern to the Dominion. Its south-western shore at one point comes within seventy miles of Cape Breton, while on the northern extremity the Straits of Belle Isle, which separate it from Labrador, are only twelve miles wide.

The island's area is 42,000 square miles, about one-sixth larger than Ireland, and nearly as large as the state of New York. St. John's, the capital, is 490 miles from Halifax, and 1070 nautical miles from Montreal. The large indentations made by the Bays of Placentia and Trinity into two peninsulas, of which the southern one, facing the Atlantic, and containing many fine harbours, adjacent to the Grand Banks, and the best fishing grounds, is by far the most thickly populated and prosperous.

According to the census of 1891, the population was 202,040, including 4000 white residents in Labrador and 1,400 Esquimeaux. The population of St. John's, the capital, was over 29,000, of whom about 16,000 were Roman Catholics and 12,000 Protestants. Of the total population of 202,040 it was calculated the Church of England had 69,834 adherents; Roman Catholics, 72,696; Methodists, 53,276; Presbyterians, 1,449; Salvationists, 2,092; Congregationalists, 782, and Baptists, 37.

Though reports of the Geological Survey show that nearly 3,000,000 acres in the great valleys alone are available for settlement and a large agricultural population, the area of land under cultivation is estimated at only [illegible] acres, the bulk of the population [illegible] interested in the fishing [illegible]. As regards minerals Newfoundland takes a place among copper producing countries and the Geological Survey reports the existence of considerable coal seams near Grand Lake in the centre of the Island—a lake 56 miles long by 192 wide. Rich deposits of lead also exist, and gypsum, marbles, roofing slate and building stone are abundant in several localities.

The climate of Newfoundland owing to its insular position is variable and subject to sudden change, but it is rarely the thermometer sinks below zero in winter, or exceeds 80 in the summer months.

The cod fishery is the great feature of Newfoundland and is the largest of its kind in the world, the average annual value being put at $6,000,000, while the export of dried cod averages 1,250,000 cwts. The cod fisheries lie about 50 miles east of Cape Race, extending for about 600 by 200 miles along and across the great banks.

The seal fishery ranks next in value. The yearly number taken in recent years has varied from 250,000 to 350,000, with an annual average value of $750,000.

Canned lobsters are exported largely, and herrings are extensively caught on the Labrador coast. The value of the salmon fishery is placed at $100,000 per annum.

The total number of persons engaged in the various fishing industries is put at nearly 60,000.

THE MIDDLEMARCH MURDER.

Chief Justice Meredith Refuses to Reserve a Case for Prisoner Hendershott.

Toronto, April 9.—At the conclusion of the trial of W. D. Welter and John Hendershott for the murder of William Henry Hendershott at St. Thomas, Mr. J. A. Robinson, counsel for the prisoner Hendershott, asked His Lordship, under the provisions of the new Criminal Code, to reserve a case for Hendershott for argument on the following ground, viz.: That the evidence against him was not sufficient to go to the jury; that the evidence of Mrs. McConnell, Mrs. French and the lad, Delacey, was illegally admitted, and that there was no proof of the insurance on the life of the deceased.

Chief Justice Meredith has decided not to reserve a case on either of the points asked. Mr. Robinson says the defence may yet go to the Court of Appeal with the same application, but this is highly improbable.

BRITISH LOCAL VETO.

The Bill Passes Its First Reading in the Commons.

London, April 8.—In the House of Commons to-day Speaker Peel made the announcement that owing to the condition of his health was obliged to resign his office. He expressed regret at leaving the post, which he had filled for 11 years. During that time, he said, he had constantly been the recipient of evidences of consideration and forbearance from all sides of the House, and for these manifestations he desired to express his sincere thanks.

Sir William Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, introduced the local veto bill, which is substantially the same as the measure submitted in 1893. Sir William Harcourt, referring to the question of making compensation to keepers of public houses who had been legislated out of business, said that compensation to them was not practicable upon a pecuniary basis. The only compensation that the Government could offer, he said, was that a fair and reasonable length of time should be offered before the licenses were withdrawn.

The House of Commons passed the Local Veto Bill through its first reading without division.

Sir Edward Grey, replying to a question by Sir Thomas Esmonde, said the Government could not interfere in the case of ex-Queen Lilluokalani of Hawaii.

Replying to a question by Sir George Baden-Powell, Sir Edward said that the Government had not yet received any response from Venezuela in regard to England's demand for an explanation of the recent insult to the British flag in British South American territory.

The Coming Speaker.

Mr. William Court Gully, who is the Government candidate for the Speakership when Mr. Peel vacates the chair, is a distinguished member of the English bar. He is a leading counsel on the Northern Circuit, and for several years he has regularly attended Carlisle Assizes, where he has been engaged in many important cases. He became a student at the Inner Temple at the age of 18, in 1853, was called in 1860, took silk in 1877, and was appointed recorder of Wigan three years ago. He is the second son of the late Dr. J. M. Gully, formerly of Great Malvern, and he was born in London. His grandfather was in his youth a well-known pugilist. Mr. Gully graduated at Trinity College, Cambridge, where he was president of the union. After twice making a valiant but vain attempt to oust Mr. Cavendish-Bentinck from the representation of the neighboring borough of Whitehaven, he was, in 1886, returned for Carlisle, and has sat for that constituency ever since.

STILL DISCUSSED.

Mr. Kent's Friends in Montreal Still Interested in His Cure.

MONTREAL, April 9.—The recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of Ottawa, is still very freely discussed here. His friends in the city have ascertained to their satisfaction that the details of his cure from Bright's disease are correct in every particular, and that his recovery is entirely to be attributed to the agency of the now well-known remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills. There is no hesitation on the part of the majority of Montreal physicians in admitting the facts to be as stated, several of the faculty answering your correspondent that since the publication of the cures of Drs. Rose and McCormick and Mr. Kent, medical opinions are undergoing a considerable change on the question of Bright's disease.

In The Spring Time!

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND MAKES PEOPLE WELL.

Thankful People Everywhere Gladly Endorse the Great Medicine.

It is a Blessing to the Whole Canadian Dominion.

Physicians Acknowledge its Great Curing Virtues.

It Makes Strong Nerves and Pure Blood.

It Cures Disease and Long-standing Troubles.

An Ontario Man Strongly Testifies.

"I am a living witness to the worth of Paine's Celery Compound."

This is the statement of Mr. G. J. Smye, of Sheffield, Ont.

It makes people well!

This fact is so widely known and so fully borne out by thousands of magnificent cures, that the simple statement is in itself sufficient.

The whole Dominion has been blessed by the marvellous work of the great medicine and an army of rescued and saved men and women bless the noble discoverer, Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M.D., LL.D.

Master minds amongst the medical men of the present day readily acknowledge the potent and curing virtues of Paine's Celery Compound. They find that it makes strong nerves and pure blood, two essentials necessary for perfect health and strength.

Long standing troubles and diseases are cured by Paine's Celery Compound, when all other medical agencies fail in their work. For kidney and liver troubles it is the infallible remedy. Nervous debility, exhaustion, sleeplessness and headaches are quickly swept away by the curing powers of Paine's Celery Compound.

This is the season when the sick must of necessity, recuperate lost strength, and gain the healthfulness so necessary to make life pleasurable for the summer. All should bear in mind the fact that Paine's Celery Compound "makes people well."

The following letter from Mr. G. J. Smye, of Sheffield, Ont., speaks of a wondrous cure after all ordinary means had failed to do the work:—

"It is with great pleasure that I testify to the value of your great medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. For nearly two years I suffered from indigestion, kidney and liver troubles. After trying several medicines that did not effect a cure, I decided to try your Compound. Before using it I was so low in health that I could not eat or sleep. I could not lie in bed owing to pain in my back; it was only by resting on elbows and knees I was enabled to obtain a slight degree of ease. Before I had fully taken one bottle of your medicine I began to improve. I have in all taken fourteen bottles with grand results. I am a farmer and am now working every day. Anyone may refer to me in regard to these statements, or to any of my neighbours around Sheffield, where I am well known. I am a living witness to the worth of Paine's Celery Compound."

JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE.

A Penetang Man Killed by Another in Self-Defence.

Penetanguishene, April 9.—"From the evidence we consider that the wound caused Thompson's death, and that Muirhead gave the blow in self-defence; therefore, we consider the case one of excusable homicide." This was the finding of the jury empanelled to enquire into the death of John Thompson, killed by W. J. Muirhead by breaking his skull with a whiffletree. Thompson and one Bowlin, while drunk, assaulted Muirhead in his own house, Thompson striking Muirhead with a chair and later viciously assaulting him with an axe. Muirhead took refuge upstairs, closing the stairway with a few boards. In attempting to get upstairs Thompson was dealt the blow which resulted in his death.

Naturally fair complexions would be the rule rather than the exception, as unfortunately it is at present, if the ladies would wholly abandon cosmetics, and more generally keep the blood pure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only reliable blood-purifier.

Of Interest to Gentlemen!

Every gentleman in Peterborough appreciates good value. We endeavour to buy right and buy such goods as are VALUE for the money.

We are HATTERS, successful in our business. We sell cheap and sell the quantity and the quality.

We know Clothiers that sell Clothing. Their capital is in their business. Close buyers patronize them. They are a good solid trade. But there are other clothing people who devote half a column of a newspaper advertising Hats and Caps, and would lead you believe they were the great and only.

When we can't compete with the Clothing and Dry Goods trade in Hats and Caps and Furs we will go out of business and apply to them for a situation.

We are sole agents for J. B. Stetson's celebrated Soft Hats, the finest in the world.

Christy's English Stiffs, the oldest hat factory in England, and to-day the largest producers of head wear in the world.

See our display of new Spring Goods and be convinced. Do not take our word or any person elses.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

THE WAR IN INDIA.

Hords of the Swat Carried—Lancers Pursue the Enemy for Miles.

London, April 8.—Advices from Calcutta received to-day report that the Chitral expedition succeeded in carrying the fords of the Swat River on Saturday. The entire expedition, with provisions, munitions, etc., were transported and proceeded by forced marches to Dir. The second brigade forced the passage, doing excellent work with their battery and Maxim guns. The Bengal Lancers after fording attacked the enemy, who retaliated slowly. The Lancers charged the enemy, who broke into a run. They were pursued for miles by the Lancers, who killed hundreds of them. Further up the river the Scottish Borderers made a crossing and succeeded in capturing Umra Khan's fort. The British losses were slight.

Italian Victories in Africa.

Rome, April 8.—The Government has received information from Massowah that the Italians, after a series of skirmishes, have succeeded in capturing Saleme, where they took 46 guns from the enemy. Gen. Baratieri has occupied Gamama. An Italian syndicate is projecting a railway from Massowah to Kassala.

French Campaign in Madagascar.

Paris, April 8.—A despatch from Tamatave, by the way of Port Luis, Mauritius, says Charles Sherventon, the British commander-in-chief of the Malagasy forces, has resigned from the service of Madagascar and intends to return to England. The Hova works near Tamatave were bombarded by French cruisers on April 4. The forts feebly replied to the fire of the ships. The health of the French troops in Madagascar is excellent.

Two British Warships for Corinto.

Panama, April 8.—The British cruiser Wildeman has arrived in port. She will probably join the cruiser Royal Arthur in the hostile demonstration at Corinto, Nicaragua, in case the Nicaraguan Government fails to pay Great Britain's claim for the expulsion of Pro-Consul Hatch.

CANTON THREATENED.

Forty Jap Transports in Readiness to Attack the City.

London, April 8.—A despatch from Hong Kong to The Globe says forty Japanese transports have assembled at the Pescadores, and it is reported that it is intended to make an attack upon Canton. Preparations are actively making to defend that city, and torpedoes are being placed in the river to prevent the enemy's ships from ascending.

A despatch from Tokyo says: Dr. Bate reports that Li Hung Chang's wound is completely healed.

Minard's Liniment cures Dandruff.

OPENING OF NAVIGATION.

Soo Canal Will Not Be Clear of Ice Before May First.

Sault Ste. Marie, April 9.—Everything points to a late opening of navigation, May 1 being the earliest date set, and it may be two weeks later. On March 10 last year small boats were running to the Canadian Sault. At this date the ice is solid, making the probable date of opening much later under similar conditions than it was last season, when it opened April 17. The present prospects are boats can reach the Sault earlier this year than they can get through to Lake Superior.

BALFOUR READY TO MEET ACCUSERS.

Says the Attack Upon Him Was Made for Political Reasons.

Buenos Ayres, April 9.—Jabez Spencer Balfour told me, just before sailing for Europe, that he was prepared to meet the charges against him, based upon assumed losses and would endeavor to retrieve the deficits of the Liberator Group.

Chamberlain and others had attacked him, he declared, purely for political reasons, and to overthrow Rosebery. Influential friends in England sent Balfour £5000. This was spent in paying legal fees and expenses, and he was now penniless.

Had less hostility, he said, been shown to him by the press and his political enemies when the warrant for his arrest was issued, he would have started for England at once.

Franco-Canadian Treaty Not Ratified.

Paris, April 9.—The ratification of the Franco-Canadian treaty is held in abeyance pending the Dominion's legislation on certain points involving the "most favored nation" provision.

A Peculiar Case.

COVERED WITH PIMPLES.

AN ANXIOUS MAN.

The Disease Disappears in Three Weeks by the use of B. B. B.—Letter From Manitoba Describing it.

DEAR SIRS—During the winter of 1892-93, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B.B.B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say it has never reappeared.

That Pelican.

The large stuffed pelican in the window of Mr. D. O. LeGendre, has attracted considerable attention. The giant bird, which measures over nine feet from tip to tip of its wings, was shot up in the region of the Great Bear Lake, in the northern wilds of the Dominion. The capacity of the huge pouch attached to its bill is calculated to be about two gallons. The bird is very rare indeed in Canada.

Miss Dexie.

The EXAMINER has received from Mr. Wm. Briggs, publisher, of Toronto, a neatly printed and covered novel, "Miss Dexie; a romance of the Provinces," the scene laid in Halifax. It is a bright, sprightly tale abounding in several thrilling episodes. It is rather of the domestic order and the sentiment is clean and wholesome, while the literary style is captivating. It is a story of deep interest and yet such a one as a mother would feel safe in placing in the hands of a daughter. For sale at the Peterborough Book Store.

A Big Treat Coming.

On Friday, April 18th, the public will have the pleasure of hearing the celebrated Mohawk Indian poet and reciter, Miss E. Pauline Johnson, who is a member of the Six Nations tribe of Indians, and a daughter of Tekahionwake, late Chief Johnson, of the Mohawk Indian Reserve, at Brantford, Canada, and Mr. Owen A. Smiley, the clever society entertainer and impersonator, who will appear in Bradburn's Opera House, under the auspices of the Peterborough Hockey Club. Wherever Miss Johnson or Mr. Smiley go they are greeted with crowded houses, and in many cases they are asked to return. The entertainment is a treat that should not be missed by any, as perhaps an opportunity may not be had of hearing them again. 1d

Dr. Cadieux's Lectures.

Bradburn's opera house was crowded last night long before the hour announced to hear the promised lecture on physiology and chemistry of Dr. Cadieux, and see his very instructive experiments and illustrations. The lecturer kept his audience for two hours and a quarter with his tests, experiments and thrilling incidents, red hot bursts of eloquence coming between. Dr. Cadieux's lectures do infinitely more lasting good in educating the public mind than those hurrah meetings of noise. He does not play upon the emotions with pathetic yarns, but seeks to convince the common sense and impress the calm reason of his hearers. The doctor is a skilled speaker, overflowing with French verve and keeps his audience intensely interested. To-night Dr. Cadieux gives his farewell lecture, "Women of To-day, Men of To-morrow." Ladies are especially invited with gentlemen or alone. They will have front seats reserved. No small children admitted. Silver collection of 10 cents at the door.

ARRESTED OR ANOTHER CHARGE OF FORGERY.

Sibley, Though Acquitted on the First, is held on a More Serious one.

There was a surprise awaiting W. H. Sibley, formerly of Peterborough, in the Montreal police court, yesterday morning, that he did not anticipate. It will be remembered, as recounted in the EXAMINER, that Sibley was arrested some ten days ago on a charge of being an accomplice of one Victor Anderson, who was arrested by the Canadian Secret Service while attempting to pass a forged cheque on the Bank of Montreal, in Montreal. From the evidence adduced at the examination, His Honor Judge Desaeyers announced yesterday morning to Sibley that he could not convict him, although there had been sufficient proof that he was guilty of pulling the wires in the affair. "But," continued His Honor, "although you are dismissed on the first charge, I hold a warrant for your re-arrest on a graver charge, that of having forged the name of your mother on three promissory notes."

The prisoner was then taken back to the cell to await his trial, which is being held to-day. Mr. R. A. E. Greenshields was immediately retained by Sibley to conduct his case.

The warrant for the accused's re-arrest was sworn out by Supt. Silas Carpenter, of the Canadian Secret Service, who alleges that Silby forged his mother's name to three promissory notes for amounts of $275, $300, and $250, on November 1, 1894, February 4, 1895, and March 8, 1895. All three notes were presented at and discounted by the Bank of Montreal.

Last week a detective, employed in working up the case, was in Peterborough for several days.

Mrs. Sibley, when seen at her home in Port Arthur, denied all knowledge of the notes in question to a detective who called upon her. She will be called upon to testify in the pending examination.

Sibley when called upon to answer to the charges laid against him yesterday pleaded not guilty.

DEPUTATIONS FROM THE TOWN AND TOWNSHIPS.

They Wait on the Government in Regard to the Outfall Sewer Matter.

The dispute as to the disposal of sewage which exists between the town of Peterborough and the townships of North Monaghan and Otonabee was the subject of a joint deputation which waited on the Ontario Government Monday evening.

Messrs. Joseph Forster, Wm. Anderson, Thomas Johnson and Dawson Kennedy represented the townships, Mr. George H. Watson, Q. C., of Toronto, being their spokesman, while Councillors Dawson, Sawers, Best, Clinksale, Sproule, Cahill and Mills represented the town, Mr. E. B. Edwards speaking for them.

The townships asked that they be exempted from the clauses of Hon. Mr. Harcourt's public health bill, which give to the Provincial Board of Health full power as to directing the disposal of sewage; their reason being that they recently protested successfully against the town of Peterborough polluting the Otonabee by emptying its sewage into the stream, although the Provincial Board of Health sided with the town, and were afraid that the board would in consequence reverse the advantage they had gained.

The town opposed the request of the townships, and the matter was argued out before the Government, which reserved its decision.

PEDLERS OF STOVES.

It Always Pays to Do Business With Resident Dealers.

When will farmers learn that it is safest and pays the best in the end to deal with reliable, established and legitimate local dealers? "There is a certain Wrought Iron Range Company in Canada, which is a practice of ignoring the wholesale and retail trade and selling direct to the consumer. Their modus operandi is to carry their goods around the country after the manner of pedlars, and dispose of their ranges on the spot to those who will buy." The members of the stove trade cannot prevent this, but the evil, for such it is claimed to be, is likely to work its own cure, and dealers will be afforded assistance from the outside public. The peculiar methods of the peddling fraternity are not by any means profitable, as those who have dealt with them find out to their cost. Letters published in local papers where the agents of the company in question have operated show that their methods are not satisfactory. Representations of a most glowing nature as to the fuel-saving qualities of their ranges are made and the farmer is induced to buy and a further inducement is held out in the shape of an agreement that the range is to be returned if not satisfactory, which is signed, but by some peculiar manipulation is not delivered to the purchaser—on the ground that such agreement is not necessary, as some neighbour, who has been induced to accompany the agent, is witness. In the case mentioned, the range and on the proper representations being made to the company in the city, the latter refused to take back the range on the grounds that they were not responsible for the acts of their agents outside of their instructions. The writer of the letter says, "I think it my duty to expose their way of doing business so that others may reap the benefit of my experience. Several of my neighbours who bought these ranges are not using them, and their experience is the same as mine."

DID NOT PROVE SATISFACTORY

The lesson taught by these facts is that farmers will always find satisfaction in dealing direct with the home dealers who are known to be reputable, substantial and responsible business men. The latter will in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred sell a better article for less money and will always be found at their places of business to make anything right that may not work satisfactorily. People generally pay dearly for the "bargains" they get from travelling merchants. They pay higher prices for books bought from pedlers than they would have to pay at a reliable bookstore; they pay higher prices for the cloth bought from pedlers, and the quality is not as good as they would get in a shop in town; they pay higher prices no doubt for wrought iron ranges, which do not prove satisfactory, and they have no redress. They cannot come to a reliable resident dealer and have what is wrong made right. The resident dealer has his place in the community; he has his reputation to keep up and he will keep his word and make things right; these considerations do not weigh with the average range pedlar who is here to-day and gone to-morrow.

In these matters it always pays to patronize the home dealers.

DOURO DOINGS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Cold weather for this time of the year. The roads are in a bad condition and will continue so for some time.

Farmers are anxiously looking forward for spring, but it is slow in coming, and Old Sol hasn't shone forth with all his grandeur as yet.

Mr. Thos. Maguire, of Cache Bay, is at present employed with Mr. Whibbs, of Indian River. He intends returning to that place in a a few days, where he intends running a saw mill for the summer.

Mr. Maurice Neade is at present visiting friends in Norwood and vicinity.

While Michael McCann was strolling through the woods, on Friday last, he espied a Rocky Mountain wild cat on the top of a large tree. Michael's heart beat merrily at the thoughts of having such a fine chance to display his markmanship. In an instant his rifle was to his shoulder and by his unerring aim one shot brought the vicious brute to terra firma. Michael was elated over his capture and some say it was the largest cat they had seen for years.

Messrs. Young and Walsh have just returned from Young's Point, after spending the winter in that burg.

Mr. Yourex, of Keene, has purchased the old grist mill formerly owned by Mr. Borland, about one mile north of Indian River. Farmers who require chopping done can do no better than give Mr. Yourex a call. In addition to the grist mill he is getting in a circular saw for cutting lumber. The work is under the direct supervision of Mr. Dennis O'Brien, and everything will be done in first-class style.

Mr. P. G. Walker, of Indian River Station, has built a new blacksmith and wagon shop. He has already got orders for several rigs. He guarantees to keep first-class materirl on hand, and as far as workmanship is concerned P. G. is second to none in the province. He has already engaged the services of Mr. John Gorman, a workman of no mean ability.

A MAN'S ADVICE TO GIRLS.

When you go to the theatre in an exaggerated bonnet don't forget that the man behind you probably paid as much as you did for a seat. Don't try to have a long waist if you were born with a short one. Man do not admire a laced figure. Don't be inquisitive about the affairs of even your most intimate friends. Don't underrate anything because you don't possess it. Don't believe that everybody else is happier than you. Don't conclude that you have never had any opportunities in life. Don't believe all the evil your hear. Don't repeat gossip, even if it does interest a crowd. Don't go untidy on the plea that everybody knows you. Don't reserve all your smiles for your lovers; keep a few for your mother. Don't forget to keep an appointment to the minute with a business man. Don't buy a man's necktie; it may tempt him to hang himself with your purchase. Don't be playful at meals; your favourite dog will snap at you while he is gnawing a bone. Don't affect masculine attire, cigarretes or slang; men adore femininity. Don't jeer at religious beliefs: the most hardened man despises an impious woman. Don't try to be anything else but a gentlewoman, and that means a woman who has consideration for the whole world, and whose life is governed by the golden rule, "Do unto others as you would be done by."

A DARK PICTURE OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

Major Morris Delivers an Address on the Condition of the Island.

Major Morris, of the Salvation Army, who was formerly stationed at Newfoundland, but is now located in Kingston, addressed a large audience in the barracks of the local Salvation corps, last evening, on the subject of the intense suffering of the people of Newfoundland and the causes which led up to it.

The present condition of the colony, he stated, was due to three things:

The politicians.
Sectarianism.
The Credit System.

The peculiar business methods of the colony were dwelt upon to considerable length. The credit system prevailed to so large an extent as to lead many to believe that cash was not wanted. The merchants would soon get a man so deeply in debt that he gave up all hope of ever getting out and in many cases went to the wall.

The politicians ran the country and political corruption, he stated, was rampant. On election days votes were bought and sold almost openly, and little or no effort made to conceal the corrupt practices in which the politicians indulged.

Few people realised the intense suffering through which the people of Newfoundland had passed, and the only hope for the country was federation with the Dominion of Canada. The instructive address was closed with a practical talk regarding the fisheries and other resources of the island, which was described as abounding in mineral wealth.

TO TELL A PERSON'S AGE.

An Easy Way to Have a Little Fun in the Evening.

Here is something from a German newspaper which will do two things for you besides what it pretends to do. It will amuse you and give you good practice so as to enable you to appear to your friends to be an extraordinarily gifted person.

Says the newspaper in question, the age of a person and the month in which he was born may be discovered as follows:—First ask him to go to the other end of the room to prevent you seeing what he is going to write. Then you ask him to put down the number of the month in which he was born, and multiply it by two, then add five to the sum, and multiply the latter by fifty, add his age to the product, then deduct 365, add 115 to the remainder.

Suppose he is forty-nine years of age and was born in February, the computation might stand thus: 2x2 equals 4, plus 5 equals 9, x50 equals 450, plus 49 equals 499, minus 365 equals 134, plus 115 equals 249. Last two figures indicate the age, namely 49, and the first figure, 2, February, the second month of the year. You simply ask the person to state the result of the calculation, and then declare that he was born in February, and is 49 years of age. Experiment with this as often as you please, and it is sure to work provided you do it correctly.

PLEASANT VALLEY—SOUTH MONAGHAN.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The farmers of this vicinity are all making preparations for the work of the coming spring. Very little syrup has been made, owing to the late opening of the season.

Miss Amy Donaldson, of Demill College, Oshawa, is visiting friends here. We are pleased to learn that she has completely recovered from her recent illness and intends returning after Easter vacation.

Mr. John Mouncey, who about eight weeks ago had the misfortune to have his leg broken, is now so far recovered that he is able to be around again. More like old times to see John moving about.

Miss Martha Donaldson has returned from Peterborough after a visit of two or three days with her sister.

We are pleased to hear that Miss Ann Hutchinson intends giving music lessons, vocal and instrumental, as soon as the roads permit traffic upon them. A music teacher is something that many in this vicinity have felt the want of, but now we are sure this want will be satisfied to the utmost, as Miss Hutchinson undoubtedly possesses a wonderful talent in that direction.

JAKE GAUDAUR PASSES THROUGH.

He Will Leave For Texas at the End of the Week.

Jake Gaudaur, of Orillia, champion single scull champion of America, passed through Peterborough this morning on his way home from Belleville, where he has been spending the past week. Belleville is agitating for a summer carnival and if the schemeis a "go," Gaudaur and "Wag" Harding, of England, will probably be offered a purse of $1,000 for a race for the championship of the world.

To the Bellevillians the champion explained certain details upon which he thought a race could be arranged between himself and Harding, champion of England, whom he is so anxious to try conclusions with, and so satisfied were the committee with the terms named by Mr. Gaudaur, that they directed the Secretary to write at once to the committee of the Austin (Texas) Regatta, who are endeavouring to induce Harding to come to America, to ascertain definitely if he would come out ar not.

An EXAMINER reporter had a pleasant chat with Champion Jake this morning. In appearance he is every inch an athlete. He stands about 6 feet 2 inches, and [is as lithe and supple as a young willow. He has but very little superfluous flesh on him at present as he has kept up his training all winter. His complexion is dark and swarthy, and his countenance denotes determination and shrewdness.

Of course the conversation at once drifted to oarsmen, and Jake, as he is familiarly called, recounted some of his experiences during his struggle to attain his present proud position. He was present at Chautauqua Lake when Courtney and Hanlan were to row, and the former, it is said, sawed his boat in two, that he would no be abls to race, so afraid was he that the Toronto sculler would worst him.

Gaudaur leaves the last of this week for Texas, to go into training for the regatta at the end of May. If the Belleville committee decides to put purses for other rowing events, Gaudaur will endeavor to induce some of the men taking part in the Austin regatta to come north.

The champion rows all his races in a shell built of Spanish cedar, 31 feet 6 inches long, and weighing about 28 lbs. He rows with a 9 ft. 6 in. oar. He is now thirty-six years old, and has been rowing as a professional for fifteen years. He does not look more than 28 or 30 years at the most.

"We Thought He Could Not Live."

POOR INFANT DIET NEARLY ROBBED A MOTHER'S HEART OF ITS TREASURE.

A lady whose little one was saved by the use of Lactated Food, says:—

"When quite small baby began to fail, and we had to give him the bottle. We thought for some time he could not live. Our doctor recommended us to use Lactated Food, and baby began to improve immediately. We continued giving it until he was a year old, when he was a fat healthy boy. I keep one of the boxes for him to see, when he grows to the age of understanding, what saved his life. I can never say enough in praise of Lactated Food."

Try Lactated Food, dear mother, at this season, if your baby is weak, sickly, cross and peevish; it will work wonders for the little one.

LENTEN LILIES.

Sweet Lenten lilies light the lengthening days,
Stately and sacred as the holy time;
Gold-dusted catkins drop upon the ways
And pinky sheaths are falling from the lime.
Then since the fields a solemn gladness wear,
Since drifted blossoms show the way he went,
We, too, would in the royal worship share,
And innocent in heart would keep our Lent.

It was the new Harvard team's first contest, and they naturally lost, though only after a hard struggle, to the Boston Lacrosse Club. Score 5 to 3. The Boston men were the stronger in team play, excepting Klein, the strong man, who tended the Crimson goal, was very weak.

THE PRINCE OF ROMANY

SKETCH OF THE RICHEST NOMADIC HORSEDEALER IN THE WORLD.

This Prince Loved All Things Gorgeous —He Travelled in Splendor and Dazzled the Eyes of Countrymen With Whom He Traded Horses on the Square.

Prince Williams is dead—the prince of Romany, the richest nomadic horse-dealer in the world. He was an Englishman, and his word was as good as his bond—a strange quality in a peripatetic horse-dealer. During the American Civil War he was located in Buffalo, where he bought horses for the Government, and many times he ran over into Canada in pursuit of his business. During the first ten years of his residence in America the Prince travelled about altogether in the Southern States, where he was a great favorite with the horsemen and plantation owners. During the last thirty years, however, his headquarters have been in East Hartford, Ct.

No one understood better the effect of gorgeous finery on the minds of the back country population, and whithersoever he travelled he went about with pomp and pageantry. The country folk received him with open-eyed wonder and somewhat of the deference that is paid to a monarch. The Prince was by no means an ordinary everyday trader, but all his horses—there were always a score or more in his train—were sleek and blooded animals, the finest in the land, whose glossy coats shone with the polish of skillful grooming.

All day the business of horse dickering went briskly on. At dusk the rural traders set off homeward with their purchases, and then the Prince and his attendants kindled their evening camp fires. Horses were tethered or fed here and there among the forest trees, the glittering canvas waggons drawn up in a circle, and then the nomads partook of their supper. They slept in their waggons, in roomy chambers on wheels that were fitted up in elegant and comfortable style.

Very orderly and proper, and neat withal, was the Prince's encampment always, for "the Chief," as his people fondly termed him, was rigorous and inexorable in respect of his temperance convictions, and would not tolerate disorder, intemperance or licentiousness.

Lavish as the Prince unquestionably was in his mode of living and travelling, dispensing hospitality with an open and prodigal hand, nevertheless his charitableness was even more bountiful and extraordinary. His purse was always open to the needy applicant—it is said that a person in pecuniary distress never applied to him in vain—hence his memory is revered by many thousands of poor persons in every part of the land.

All his life the Prince travelled in great magnificence, with imposing equipage and harness gloriously bedecked. A few years ago he had a wonderful chariot constructed for himself that exceeded in its splendor anything of the kind ever produced.

Those were followed in turn by troops of haltered, high stepping steeds, clattering over the stony country roads, kicking up clouds of dust. Prince Williams always rode ahead in royal style, in a sort of triumphant every-day processional majesty, and he, no less than his rumbling chariot, was at once a wonder and a revelation to the hard-fisted and penurious farmers, among whom he journeyed and sojourned.

He had that towering chariot, which was even bigger and grander than the one in which the fat queen rides and quakes in the circus procession, designed for him by an artist of his trade, who spent many a sleepless night concocting novel schemes to bedaub it with sunset splendor. It cost him not a dollar less than $5,000 or $6,000, and it was worth every penny of the sum, at that, for it fairly wallowed, the chariot did, in gleaming gold, silver, paint and trimmings.

Half a dozen beautiful horses drew it, as round and sleek and pompous as Percherons, and they stepped along a back country road, resplendent harness jingling with bells and silver buckles, flashing back the sun's rays in contemptuous mockery of Phoebus Apollo's bedizzled splendor, with stately coach plumes nodding and fluttering in the breeze.

All this gewgaw spread just delighted the Prince, and what was of vastly more account, it dazzled the country, lured traffic and dicker about his caravan as nothing else could do; for the Prince was a mighty shrewd and sagacious judge of the pecuniary side of a gilt-edged business phenomenon.

So the Prince rode and glittered habitually for many a year, and all the time shining hard dollars of the realm rolled into his capacious coffers, his bank account waxed steadily more plethoric, and folks said: "H'm! the Prince is getting rich."

The Prince always chose an ideal spot for an encampment. The brilliantly-painted and decorated wagons were quietly hidden in the woods, with groups of horses tethered beside the highway, all combining to form a romantic and bewitching scene. In the company were from 15 to 20 persons—men, women and children—and all in all they had 25 horses, and magnificent animals they were. The great chariot, of course, attracted most attention on the part of the awe-struck countrymen, for it is like a buffet parlor railroad car, equipped with all the necessaries and luxuries demanded by the most luxurious travellers. Indeed, it is a perfect boudoir inside, with beds covered with spotless counterpanes and hung with silken curtains and drapery. The camp trimmings alone in that encampment were valued at more than $2,000; the persons there were all young and handsome, and the whole camp was as neat and pretty as that of an ideal picnic party.

A Modern Munchausen.

Here is a story of a colonel who was much addicted to travelling, and who once reached home when the house was full of his son's guests and stayed to dinner. One of the company, a notorious drawer of the long bow, told a story of his being off the Cape of Good Hope, in an Indiaman, when a floating object was discovered which proved to be a cask, whereupon a man was seated clinging to a small staff in the bunghole.

"Come on board?" retorted the ocean waif when hailed. "No, thank you. I'm very comfortable here. I'm bound for the Cape. Can I take letters there for you? Don't bother about me. I'm all right."

Then, amid the silence which followed this incredible yarn, Colonel G—— arose and gravely addressed the narrator:

"Sir," he said, "for years I have been trying to find anyone belonging to that ship to return thanks for the great courtesy shown to me on that occasion. At last I am enabled to do so, sir—I was the man on the cask."—Tit-Bits.

CONTRASTS.

I see the tall church steeples,
They reach so far, so far;
But the eyes of my heart see the world's great mart
Where the starving people are.

I hear the church bells ringing
Their chimes on the morning air;
But my soul's sad ear is hurt to hear
The poor man's cry of despair.

Thicker and thicker the churches
Nearer and nearer the sky;
But alack for their creeds while the poor man's needs
Grow deeper as years roll by.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Cures When Other Medicines and Doctors Have Failed

RESTORES THE SICK TO HEALTH.

"I Can Attribute My Restoration to Health Solely to South American Nervine." Says C. J. Curtis, of Windsor.

C. J. CURTIS, WINDSOR, ONT.

When one has climbed a high mountain it is not difficult to mount the ordinary hill. A medicine that will cure when the case is a desperate one, may be safely taken as a good all round medicine in ordinary cases, and it is not alone the very sick who need medicine.

The statement is borne out by a multitude of facts, thousands of testimonials from reputable citizens, that South American Nervine cures, after what are considered the best medicines in the country have failed, and where the skill of the ablest physicians has come to naught.

The acknowledged scientific principle of disease is weakness and disorganisation of the nerve centers. These nerve centers are the main spring of the whole system. When the stomach is out of order the certain remedy is to set the nerve centers in right condition again, so with every other trouble. Thus it is that it may be liver complaint, nervousness, indigestion, heartburn, sour stomach, loss of appetite, impoverished blood, consumption of the lungs, catarrh of the stomach, sick or nervous headache, sleeplessness, pains in the kidneys, or other ailments from which a person is suffering South American Nervine will cure, and cure quickly, and best of all cure effectively and lastingly in every such case.

Much as we were disposed to laugh at La Grippe as a trifling complaint when it first made itself known in this country, later developments have proved that it is a serious malady. The after effects are such that very thorough measures need to be taken to ensure perfect restoration to health. South American Nervine has proven wonderfully efficacious in giving back health to the victims of La Grippe. Mr. C. J. Curtis, a wealthy and well known farmer near Windsor, Ont., suffered from a severe attack of this malady, leaving him exceedingly weak and with no appetite. No medicine seemed to do him any good until he was influenced to try South American Nervine and his testimony is this: "After taking one bottle I found very great benefit from it, my appetite improved wonderfully, and I felt my strength returning very fast." Mr. Curtis then purchased five bottles, but after taking only three out of the five, to use his own words: "I am feeling as nearly well to-day as I ever did, and I can attribute my restoration to health and strength solely to South American Nervine."

SOME GHOST STORIES.

A THEORY WHICH MAY FULLY EXPLAIN SOME OF THEM.

The Self-Hypnotism Fumic—Several Cases Minutely Explained. Showing the Possibility of the Mesmeric Power Lying Within One's Own Will Power.

The two following histories demonstrate the source from which many puzzling cases have their origin—cases of hysteria in all its innumerable forms of hypochondriasis.

Case 1.—An ex-supreme judge, a gentleman of education, culture and wealth, at the age of 60 became interested in Spiritualism, starting from curiosity, with a disposition to investigate. He read exhaustively the subject. During the first period of his study he visited many Spiritualists, and the conclusion he arrived at was that these people were frauds. Having satisfied himself of this, he pursued his studies alone. With much practice, he was at last able to perform mental concentration, which, as he explained, was the condition to arrive at, in which one could free his spiritual body and commune with the spiritual world. At one of these times, when practicing mental concentration, a body which had all the appearance of being material appeared before him. It was the form of a woman in black. The conversation he carried on with her surprised him, as she was as well versed as he on topics to which he had devoted much of his time. She also told him things which no other than himself could possibly know, yet he acknowledged that the spirit had told him nothing more than he already knew. From this time on he frequently conversed with the spirits of deceased friends and relatives. He could see them as he used to see them in life, and their voices were identical. These spirits would disappear as they came—into space. This man never used alcohol; he has used tobacco moderately, and would not allow anyone to guess that he was interested in this subject; even his friends and family have been ignorant of the fact. He attends to his business as satisfactorily as ever, and has no semblance to one who is insane on one subject.

Case 2.—In 1892 a recent graduate in medicine made a wager with some of his associates that he could sleep in a room with a corpse. He had dissected a great deal; even at times he had worked alone at night in the dissecting room, had attended many autopsies, and had been associated considerably with the dead. Everything had been arranged with his friends; joking to be excluded. At 10.30 p.m. he was taken to a room in an empty house in Brooklyn, N.Y. In the room were a small table, a chair, a lamp, and in the centre of the room a male corpse clad in ordinary clothing. Pins had been put through the clothing and driven into the table to make sure that it would not be removed. The young man was locked in the room with the understanding that he was to be called for at 6 a.m. At that hour, when his friends arrived, to their dismay they found him undoubtedly insane. He was taken home, where he did not improve, and at last he was taken to a private asylum. Among other therapeutic agents, hypnotism was used. In six months he returned home cured.

The story of that night is as follows: On being left alone he had no fear of the corpse whatever, and went over to look at it, assuring himself that it was a corpse, and no joke had been attempted. He strolled around the room and finally sat down at the table to read. Now and then he glanced nonchalantly at the dead man. As time passed and he became tired, he noticed that he was glancing more frequently at the body. What had an hour previously not interested him particularly seemed to attract his attention considerably. Every minute he found himself looking at it, and as it became late and he grew more tired it absorbed his mind to the exclusion of everything else. He gradually became much annoyed at it, and wished he was home. He thought upon the subjects of life, death, the soul and spiritualism. To hide the corpse from view and cease thinking on these subjects, he determined to try sleep. He removed some of his clothing and pulled the blankets over his face. He heard noises, but settled that in his mind by reasoning that it was either the wind or the settling of the house. He, however, glanced at the dead man from time to time, and at last got into a position in bed to keep it in view. His eyes were terribly strained and he had a frontal headache. His eyes were riveted upon the figure and he felt drowsy, but could not close them. The corpse at last rose in a sitting posture, then stood up and walked toward him. Its eyes were open, and had a stary, glassy appearance. It spoke. After that he could remember no more until he was taken from the house; even then what occurred he had only a slight recollection of, and even now that he is recovered he is positive that what occurred that night actually happened.—Pacific Medical Journal.

What John Wanamaker, the Most Heavily Insured man in America, Says:

(INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WANAMAKER.)

It is very generally known that Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries the largest amount of Life Insurance of any man in the United States. A representative of the press recently interviewed this gentleman while he was travelling with the Presidential party, and this interview will be found, we believe, of general interest:—

"You are said to be the most heavily insured man in the country, Mr. Wanamaker," remarked the press representative.

"How did you come to think of that?" he said with a smile. "You are not looking for any disaster under such excellent management as our friend Boyd is giving this train and party?"

"No," I replied. "A newspaper friend in San Francisco, who had heard the report, wanted me to ask you if it was true, and if so, what your business reasons are for it?"

"Well," he modestly answered, "I have heard it stated that I am the most heavily insured man in the country. I don't know about that. The amount of my policies is $1,550,000, and the value, with the accumulations since the policies were taken out, is about two millions of dollars."

"In what class of companies are your policies?"

"They are all in stock and mutual companies, and none of them in what are known as assessment or instalment companies."

"Are they full life term policies or on what is termed the 'tontine' plan?"

"I have generally taken ten and fifteen payment policies and very few life policies. With about all good companies a contract can now be made whereby there is no risk of losing a policy after two years' premiums have been paid. If the party insured chooses to withdraw he can get a paid-up policy. Indeed, I understand that some companies have forms whereby the insurer can after one year, if desired, withdraw and receive a paid-up policy. There is practically little risk, any more, in insuring in the old companies."

"Perhaps you would be willing to tell me how you came to insure so heavily?"

"I thought the matter out, and convinced myself that it was a good business venture. Besides, it seemed to me that I might, perhaps, give away more money in lifetime if there was a fixed certainty of putting it back into my estate by Life Insurance. I conceive that the best way for a man to carry on benevolence is not to leave it to be done through his will, but to do it in his lifetime, and I felt that Life Insurance would give me more freedom in carrying out some plans I have, and which I would be glad to see completed before I leave this world. If you want to ascertain what the circumstances were in placing the Life Insurance, I must go further in my answers and say that I should not have gone so far in my Life Insurance but for the skill of the agent who tackled me to insure to a greater extent than I would otherwise have done. He was an old friend who had been in mercantile business and who knew how to present Life Insurance without boring me. I feel to-day sincerely grateful to the man who followed me so discreetly with information about companies, and who kept the subject before me until I settled the question."

"When did you begin taking Life Insurance policies?"

"My first policy was taken when I was twenty-one."

"Do you consider it a good thing for a man of small means?"

"I certainly do. Most young men spend more for cigars during the year than the annual cost of a $2,500 policy in a good company. If they must have the cigars they might divide between cigars and Life Insurance and carry at least a $1,000 policy. I think every young man, before he is married, ought to try to get at least a $1,000 policy."

"Among how many companies are your policies divided, and where are they located?

"About forty companies. Most of them are located in the East. A few are in the West and a few in Canada."

"Do you recommend Life Insurance to others, especially those in whom you feel a personal interest?"

"I can perhaps answer that best by saying that I presented a few years ago a $1,000 policy, paid up for one year, to every insurable head of family in my employ. Many of the prudent men who received them not only kept them but added to them, and I have the satisfaction of knowing that in not a few cases those policies have been the means of saving worthy families from want."

It will doubtless be of interest to our readers to know that John Wanamaker carries a large policy in the Canada Life Insurance Company, thus evincing his confidence in the soundness of Canada's oldest and largest Company. During the last few years quite a number of American capitalists have been convinced of the SUPERIOR MERITS OF THE CANADA LIFE, and have accordingly placed their insurance therein, in preference to any other company.

The Canada Life is now being recognized in the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio as the Company that gives the best results for the least premium.

ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and annoying affection, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the sufferer becomes warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—bleed and suppurate, excessive moisture is exuded. Females are peculiarly afflicted from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and ofttimes tumors and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the worst case and ulcers, dry up the moisture.

INTMENT

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause from Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling sensation, characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

THE ARIZONA KICKER.

How Ye Editor, Who is Also Mayor, Helped a Brother Chip.

Helping an Editor.—While a certain per cent of the journalistic fraternity of this Territory are down on the Kicker, and never miss an opportunity to give us a whack, our feeling toward the entire lot is a fatherly one, and we are always cheerfully willing to do a brother editor a favor. Last week we got word from Brother Babcock of the Pine Hill Recorder that things were not going right with him. Day before yesterday we mounted our mule and rode over to see what the trouble was. We soon ascertained that he had been licked so often that the sand had all pertered out of his craw. He started the Recorder with the intention of making it a rival of the Kicker; but, alas, he doesn't know one end of a gun from the other and is too weak in the back for a rough and tumble fight. Whenever he has published a spicy paragraph during the past six months, someone has called at the office and wiped the floor with him and made him feel that life was not worth the living. He was expecting two or three callers when we got over there and it didn't take much coaxing on our part to induce him to stand back and let us take a seat at his editorial table. In fact, he had gone home and gone to bed, and we were running things, when a big buffer of a teamster struck the office to lick the editor for publishing an item to the effect that spotted horses were going out of style and had suffered a drop in prices. The duffer didn't want to argue the matter or demand a retraction. He was boiling over to lick somebody, and he was no sooner inside the office than he made a dive for us. He picked up a hot iron from the very start. We had him on his back and thoroughly licked in less than five minutes, and we had no sooner let him up than he subscribed for three copies of the Recorder and paid in advance.

We had only got our second wind when in came a citizen of the town to lick Brother Babcock, for saying there were too many saloons in the place. He didn't know one editor's back from another, but when we wheeled on him and proceeded to bump and bang the breath out of his carcass such a look of amazement stole into his face that we thought he was preparing to drop dead. In the course of five hours, which was all the time we could spare that day, four different individuals came in to make Bro. Babcock get down on his marrow bones and plead for mercy and be mopped over the floor. There were four separate and distinct surprise parties, and in each case we came out on top and secured cash in advance subscribers for the Recorder. We smashed two knuckles on our right hand, but the pain and annoyance were more than offset by seeing the radical improvement wrought in Bro. Babcock. When he came over and learned what we had done, he was a new man. We put him up to a trick or two in the manly art, and before leaving had the satisfaction of seeing him wallop the proprietor of a poker-room, who had called to stop his paper and punch the editor's head. We believe the Recorder man has passed the Rubicon and will be all O. K. from this time on, but some day next week we shall ride over again and give him a few boxing lessons and teach him the use of a revolver. We will willingly do as much for any other editor within 50 miles of us. We have always held that an editor should be on top, and, though we have had to knuckle on several occasions, our average is way ahead of the game.

Postal Matters.—The Lone Tree Herald, which, by the way, is a very good weekly newspaper for one run by a red-headed cross-eyed man, was pleased to say last week that the editor of the Kicker was still hankering to be Postmaster of this town. We acknowledged the corn. The only thing we have reached out for and failed to get since we struck Arizona is a post office. When we had the Kicker on a paying basis and had been elected Mayor of the town, Territorial Senator, president of the Publishers' Association and several other things, we grabbed for the Post Office. The present incumbent is a mean man from the ground up. He is not in sympathy with any party or any human being except himself. If he can find one single man in the town who does not hate him for a skunk, we'll forfeit $500 to any charity he may name. It was our firm belief that we could boost him out in a week, but after long years he still sticks. It is one of the mysteries of politics. We have licked him on the street and shot at him through the general delivery window. We have sought to buy him off, and we have sent three different petitions to Washington praying for his removal and our appointment.

We frankly admit that we have left no stone unturned in our efforts to handle Uncle Sam's mail in this locality, but we are no nearer the zenith of our hopes than when we began. While confessing to defeat and disappointment, we are trying to be a philosopher about it. Even post offices come to him who waits. In the course of time this plum will fall into our hands, as other plums have done, and realising this we have contracted to build an addition to the Kicker office to be used as a post office. Nothing is too good for an editor, and the editor who is not constantly reaching out after the fat things of life deserves to end his days in the poorhouse.—M. Quad.

MARTIN TO HELP M'CARTHY

Montague Will Have to Fight for Every Vote.

HOT CAMPAIGN IN HALDIMAND.

The Patrons May Have a Candidate D'Alton McCarthy Billed for Several Meeting Manitoba Sending Assistance Against the Government Candidate

Caledonia, Ont., April 9.—The election fight between Hon. Dr. Montague and Mr. Jeffrey A. McCarthy is on in earnest. Mr. Fee, McCarthy's organizer, has made Caledonia his headquarters, and consequently there is more stir here than in any other part of the country. A number of young men from Toronto arrived here to-day, and were sent to different parts in the McCarthy interest, and D'Alton McCarthy will speak three or more times this week.

Dr. Montague speaks here on Thursday evening, when he will have a large meeting.

The Patrons have an idea that if they bring out a candidate their man may sit in the House the balance of this Parliament. They will have a convention in Cayuga on Tuesday to discuss the advisability of contesting the riding.

The McCarthyites are to have speakers here from Manitoba on Monday, and the program includes two meetings daily up to polling day. Fighting Joe Martin wired from Winnipeg that he expected to be in the riding on Saturday.

Nominations take place on Wednesday, and with good roads that day week Haldimand will poll the biggest vote in its history.

Conservatives declare that Hon. Dr. Montague's majority will be counted by hundreds; the McCarthyites assert that their man will come under the wire a winner, while the Reform element not under the Third party wing concedes an easy victory for the Doctor.

JOE MARTIN GOING TO HALDIMAND.

He and Mr Sifton Will Speak for McCarthy—Manitoba Local Option Declared Ultra Vires.

Winnipeg, April 9.—The long-pending fight between the liquor men and prohibitionists ended to-day disastrously to the latter. The judges of the Court of Queen's Bench to-day handed down a decision quashing the local option bylaws passed by several Manitoba municipalities, holding that the province cannot prohibit the sale of liquor, the legislation being its ultra vires. Manitoba will now in all probability join Premier Mowat in his appeal to England on this point.

Firebugs are causing much alarm and trouble in Regina. Several incendiary fires have been started, one resulting in the destruction of the Court House, and last night Rielly Bros.' planing mill had a narrow escape.

A Conservative convention for Selkirk constituency will open in Winnipeg to-morrow. George Bradbury of Ottawa is running as a Conservative, but a section of the party oppose him. The Patrons and Liberals each have strong candidates in the field.

Joseph Martin, member for Winnipeg and author of the Manitoba school law, which is stirring up so much trouble, leaves on Wednesday for Haldimand to deliver a series of addresses in the interest of Jeffrey McCarthy. Attorney-General Sifton goes with him and will also speak several times in Haldimand. The principal object of Sifton's trip, however, is to consult with D'Alton McCarthy and other eminent lawyers on Manitoba's position in reference to the Remedial Order in the school case.

In the Slocan Mining district of British Columbia they are shortly expecting a visit from President Van Horne. It is said Sir William has a scheme for connecting the principal mines by electric tramway.

INCOME TAX RE EVIE HALVED.

Portions of the Law Declared to Be Unconstitutional

Washington, April 9.—The decision of the Supreme Court on the income tax law was rendered to-day. Chief Justice Fuller read the decision of the question whether or not the tax on rents from real estate is a tax on real estate and therefore a direct tax, and announced that the court has decided that it is a tax on real estate, therefore a direct tax, and as provided for in the present law unconstitutional. The opinion of the chief justice also declares that the tax on municipal and state bonds is unconstitutional. On all other points the court is equally divided and no opinion thereon is given. The decision of the court below on these points is reversed and a similar entry made in the case of John G. Moore.

Justice Harlan was of the opinion that a tax on gains, profits, income derived from rent of lands was not a direct tax, that under numerous decisions of this court the income derived from municipal bonds was not the subject of specific taxation in any form by the United States.

Associate Justice Field read an opinion declaring the whole income tax provisions of the tariff law of 1894 to be unconstitutional. Associate Justice White dissented from the view of the court and protested against a re-opening of the decisions of the court of a hundred years past. He concurred with the majority of the court, however, upon the question of the taxation of state and municipal bonds.

On the question of the constitutionality of the taxation of incomes from state and municipal bonds, it was unanimously in the negative. Upon the question of the taxation of rents the court stood six against the law, two for. Upon the general question of the constitutionality of the law the court divided as follows: For the law, Justices Harlan, Brewer, Brown and White. Against the law, Chief Justice Fuller, Justices Field, Gray and Shiras.

Will Cut the Revenue in Half.

The effect of the Supreme Court decision in the income tax law so far as the Treasury Department officials can determine after a hurried estimate will be a reduction of about one-half in the revenue originally estimated as obtainable from that source, thus making the annual revenue to be expected about $15,000,000. The original estimate of $30,000,000 per year was passed on the assumption that the law would be held to be constitutional in all its provisions.

Collectors of internal revenue will be notified of the decision and instructed to make whatever corrections may be necessary through the decision rendered in the blank form furnished them by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. No new forms will be issued and the work of preparation for the collection of tax will proceed without delay.

Will Make the Tax More Unpopular.

Rochester, April 9.—The Democrat and Chronicle says editorially regarding the decision of the United States Supreme Court on the income tax:

"The law stands except as to the parts decided adversely. It is not, however, rendered more equitable or just or tolerable by these eliminations. For instance, the owners of great landed estates, like the Astors of New York, will not be taxed on their princely incomes derived from rents, nor will aliens who own lands in the United States. The planters of the South are also exempt from taxation on earnings from their broad acres. But manufacturers who have hundreds of thousands of dollars invested in active enterprises must hand over a share of their incomes to the Government, as also must bankers, merchants, business men and the salaried and professional classes who receive $4000 a year or upwards. Thus there is a grossly unfair discrimination which will make the law more unpopular than ever and will undoubtedly lead to its early repeal."

No Extra Session of Congress.

Washington, April 9.—The President on being asked this afternoon whether, in view of the decision of the Supreme Court on the income tax law, an extra session of Congress would be called, said that neither he nor the Secretary of the Treasury saw any necessity for such action, and that, unless there was an unexpected change in conditions, he had no idea that Congress would meet again before the time appointed for its regular session.

FLOODS AT GORRIE.

A Sawmill and Dam Swept Away—Loss Over $4500.

Gorrie, Ont., April 9.—One of the most disastrous floods that has taken place in Gorrie on the River Maitland took place to-day, in which William Dane, miller, and Hammond Bros., lumber merchants, were the chief losers. The flood washed away Dane's dam and totally wrecked Hammond Bros.' steam saw mill and office. At present every indication is that the new bridge, built last summer, will go. The total losses are estimated to be not less than $4500.

Duke of Edinburgh's Daughter Betrothed

Rome, April 8.—The Giornale announces the betrothal of the Prince of Naples to Princess Alexandra of Saxe-Coburg.

A despatch from Darmstadt says that the Princess Alexandra is already betrothed to Prince Ernest of Hohenlohe, eldest son of the Viceroy of Alsace-Lorraine.

Will you pay the Tailor his two prices, or may we fit you in the regular up-to-date Spring Garment for the single price? Grafton & Co.

There's Something in This.

"Men will believe anything you tell them about themselves," said the clever woman in New York as we sat over our Bohemian breakfast, served on the flap of a davenport by the aid of a gas drop stove and sundry paper bags. "Anything nice?" I suggested. "Nice or the other thing. Only the better make of man is more apt to believe the other thing." I thought I'd try how this worked one day since, and began on a man who knows nothing whatever about art. I asked his opinion of a painting, hastening to assure him that I should think a good deal of it because people know he was an authority, and that I had heard him quoted on several occasions. That was all true, with twist in it. He gave his opinion, and not a week after I heard him say, "You know I'm a bit of an authority on color, and what I say generally goes." But for all this I don't quite believe in what the clever woman said about "the other thing." Men would be much more likely to resent any information about their failings, and to think little of their informant. And so they should.—Lady Gay, in Saturday night.

An Altruistic Harmonic.

There will soon be quite a library of "blue books" dealing officially with the cause of women—the real serious cause of women who have been born toilers and workers, and who actually have experienced the at times brutal tyranny of man. One of the most interesting, too bulky even to precis here, deals fully with the various conditions of labor under which women work, and which it is hoped legislature will ameliorate. A genuine tale of the good influence of a woman working in the midst of the utmost temptation is told not inappropriately here; it tells of a barmaid in a seaport town where crews were frequently paid off, who made it her business to be as attractive and nice to the men as possible and then persuade them to fly from temptation and get home with their money to their wives.—Lady's Pictorial.

A Comparison.

How much per square yard did you pay for your Carpets, Curtains, Draperies, etc? A single picture which is worthy a place on walls decorated with one of our medium priced papers, cost many times more than the whole Wall Paper combination, side walls, frieze, border and ceiling paper.

No argument is required to prove that a room tastefully decorated is more than half furnished. Taking effect into consideration, WALL PAPER is by far the cheapest adornment, towards rendering it stylish, cosy and homelike.

WALL PAPER,
WINDOW SHADES,
CORNICE POLES,
ROOM MOULDING,
PICTURE FRAMES,
BABY CARRIAGES,

At 10c per roll Wall Paper costs less than 3c per square yard. At 15c per roll, it costs less than 4c per square yard. At 25c per roll it costs less than 6c per square yard. Compare this with the cost of your Carpets, Curtains, etc, and see how much cheaper Wall Paper decorations are.

We can show Wall Papers from 3½c per roll to $2.00 per roll. In other words, you may buy from us enough paper to cover the walls of an average room for 35c or $20.00.

MARTER LOSES A SUPPORTER

Beatty of Parry Sound Renounces Toryism.

FOUR DIVISIONS IN THE HOUSE

Objectionable Clauses in the Fruit Bill Withdrawn — Col. Matheson Called Down—Conservatives Would Print School Books by Convict Labor.

Toronto, April 10.—The sole topic of conversation at the Legislature yesterday was the active support Mr. Beatty, member for Parry Sound, had decided to give the Government. Mr. Beatty has been a life-long Conservative and was elected as such. He has seen the error of his ways before the end of his first session in Parliament. He voted four times with the Government yesterday upon important issues, much to the surprise and chagrin of the Opposition. When asked why he had left his party he said although he had been elected as a Conservative he had received a large Reform vote and felt it his duty to regard the interests of his constituency in the House before those of party. His constituents wished him to support all Government measures that were right and just and in the best interests of the people. They wished him to vote with the Opposition and against the Government when he could not agree with the action of the Government upon any particular point. He had come to Toronto believing that he would be able to give a conscientious support to the Opposition, but as the session progressed he found that it would be in the best interests of his constituents to give more support to the Government, since he could not in conscience find objection to many of their measures.

The Opposition leaders feel Mr. Beatty's departure from their ranks very keenly, and are wondering who next. Speaking of Mr. Beatty's turn-over, one prominent Conservative said: "We are drifting without a leader. Marter is no leader at all. He has lost the confidence of the people and the members. Meredith's place can't be filled in a hurry. I should not be surprised to find others of our men going over. We have lost heart. What we want is a good clean able leader, and until we get one we shall not get any more influence than we have at present. I don't blame Beatty so much when you consider that he comes from an outlying district that needs Government aid. He wants to do the best he can for his people in the way of getting money for their roads, etc. He can't get anything as a Conservative, and I suppose that is one of his reasons for going out of our camp. What I fear is that more will follow."

CARNEGIE SET BACK.

Mr. Carnegie took it into his head late last evening to block the progress of business. The House was in concurrence on an item of $1750, the salary of the Provincial Inspector of Licenses. Mr. Carnegie moved in amendment that the item be struck out. The amendment was lost, the vote being 52 against and 35 for. The Patrons divided.

The next item was then proceeded with, when Mr. Preston moved an amendment word for word as appeared upon the order paper in the form of a resolution over Mr. McNaughton's name. The Speaker ruled the amendment out of order.

OBJECTIONABLE CLAUSES IN THE FRUIT BILL WITHDRAWN.

An agreeable surprise awaited the House yesterday afternoon. Hon. Mr. Dryden took occasion to remove the objectionable clauses in his fruit bill when the committee of the whole was considering it. Last week when the bill came up for its second reading strenuous objection was taken to the clause which provided that all fruit should be graded and every package marked. Since the second reading a number of deputations have waited upon the Government and urged that this clause should be struck out. Hon. Mr. Dryden finally decided to consent in deference to the wishes of representatives of all classes, both farmers, fruit growers and dealers. On behalf of the fruit growers, Major Hiscott rose in his seat and thanked the Government for having made the concession. The other clauses of the bill remain. Small apples or other fruit may not be placed at the bottom of the barrel, but must be uniform throughout and the city dealer must give full particulars to his customers within a week after shipment.

CENTRAL PRISON BROOMS.

Hon. Mr. Gibson (Hamilton) moved, That this House doth ratify an agreement laid before this House on March 27, instant, bearing date on August 18, A.D. 1894, expressed to be made between the inspector of prisons and public charities and H. A. Nelson & Sons, for the manufacture of brooms and whisks at the Central Prison for the said H. A. Nelson & Sons by the prisoners confined in the Central Prison.

Mr. Whitney objected to the passage of the resolution, and moved in amendment that the Government should make no agreement with any one particular firm for prison labor without having afforded competing firms the opportunity to tender. Two evils had arisen. The Government had not secured as much as it might for the prison labor, and honest traders and workmen had been made to suffer because of unfair competition.

Hon. Mr. Gibson said that the Government had experienced great difficulty in the past in dealing with irresponsible firms. Messrs. Nelson & Sons were financially sound, and dealt more outside the province than other firms. The competition was thus not so keen as if the contract had been made with a local firm. Messrs. Nelson & Sons own certain of the patents in connection with the machinery used. If they were not allowed to operate they might make it extremely difficult for others to do so profitably. He had never known any Government to advertise for tenders for prison labor. If it were contended that there was fraud or collusion between the Government and the Nelson firm, then there might be good grounds for complaint. This had not been contended, nor would any man dare to say that there was any political motive in the contract. The matter was purely a business affair and in the best interests of the people. He asked therefore that the amendment should be voted down, since if it were passed it would be a reflection upon the motives of the Government.

Dr. Ryerson said that the public printing of the province should be done at the prison. The Government was paying large sums for printing. Why did they not have the prisoners do it, and let them stop manufacturing articles that lower the open market and the wages of honest workmen.

Dr. Meacham thought that public school books should be printed by the prisoners at the Central Prison.

Hon. Mr. Hardy said that all the discussion about prison and outside labor was outside the question. The resolution simply asked that the Government agreement with a certain firm be affirmed, while the amendment was a condemnation of the Government's policy, and a request that the members should insist upon tenders in all cases being called for. It was not in any sense a question of prison and outside labor, this question was not touched upon by either the resolution or the amendment. He trusted that the members would stick to the subject properly under discussion. The reason why the Government dealt with the Nelson firm was the same as would govern any sound business firm. They wished to deal with a reputable and responsible firm. They wished to know their man.

Mr. Haycock said that if the principle was admitted that prisoners should do no work, then honest laborers would soon attempt to get all the men they could in prison to get rid of their competition. He was in favor of prison labor and was opposed to the Government policy with reference to this question. He thought that public tenders should be asked for this prison labor. He intended supporting the amendment.

The amendment was lost—37 to 51. All the Patrons, with the exception of Mr. Pardo, voted with the Opposition.

MATHESON CALLED DOWN.

In the Public Accounts Committee yesterday, Col. Matheson made some serious charges against the management of the Central Prison. He said that if he could secure the evidence of two witnesses he would prove that bad lumber was unloaded upon the prison and used in the wood-working shops. Inspector James Noxon gave a flat denial to the charges made and demanded that Col. Matheson make good his charges. He had no right to make such serious charges, which would go to the country through the press, unless he was prepared to go on and at least make an attempt to prove them. Col. Matheson made no reply.

The evening was taken up by the Opposition, the members of which moved a number of unimportant amendments while the House was in concurrence.

Director Blue, in his fourth annual report of the Bureau of Mines, states that the gold fields of the province are attracting greater notice, and says that during the past year the Rainy Lake region especially drew many explorers and capitalists towards it. Numerous discoveries of gold-bearing ore are reported there. Four or five locations are being actively developed, and one gold mill is nearly ready for operation. In the Lake of the Woods district the mine and mill on Sultana Island have been worked continuously. Three other promising properties are in course of development, with British, American and Canadian capital, and it is proposed to put a mill on each of them this year. At the present time a mill is in course of erection near the upper waters of the Seine River, a few miles from the south of the Atik-okan River. The Creighton Mine in the Township of that name, was idle the whole year, but towards the close of it fresh exploratory work was commenced with a diamond drill, and it is reported that a strike of considerable promise has been made; operations to more satisfactorily prove the extent and quality of the ore body are now in progress. In the Lake Wahnapitae district, one location has attracted much attention by the exceedingly rich samples of ore taken from it. A company has been organized to work the property, and a shaft is in course of being sunk upon the vein.

The nickel and copper mines in the Sudbury region were actively worked during the year, and the production of matte was much larger than in either of the preceding two years. Mr. Blue has sanguine hopes that the iron industry will assume active form in the province this year.

DEALT IN FORGED STAMPS

U.S. Postal Authorities Unearth a Fraud.

HAMILTON SAID TO BE THE CENTRE

Advertised Two Cent Stamps at a Discount—The Fraud Detected by a Broker in Chicago—A Novelty Company in Hamilton Under Suspicion.

Chicago, April 10.—A package of counterfeit stamps, which was seized yesterday by Government officials, was addressed to Nathan Hersog, a cigar dealer in the rotunda of the Chamber of Commerce. They were shipped by express from Buffalo by the Canadian Novelty and Supply Co. of Hamilton, Ont. When a messenger brought the package Mr. Hersog examined it, and finding the stamps were counterfeit refused to receive them. He then telephoned the U.S. Marshal and Postoffice Inspector Stuart. Four packages similar to the one Hersog received were delivered by the express messenger to the people to whom they were addressed, paying for them without raising any objections.

Mr. Hersog said to-day, in explaining his innocent connection with the scheme: "I dispose of about $100 worth of stamps daily, my customers being the tenants of the Chamber of Commerce. I buy the stamps from wholesale dealers and firms who do a mail business. They get a surplus of stamps and I buy them at a small discount. I saw an advertisement in a Chicago newspaper a week ago last Sunday, reading as follows:

"We have $115 United States 2-cent stamps which we cannot use here. Will send them by express c.o.d., privilege of examination, for $100. Canadian Novelty and Supply Co., Hamilton, Ont."

"I answered the advertisement, writing that I would take all the stamps they had at that figure. In reply I received a letter saying they could not let me have more than $300 worth a month. They added that they were making the first shipment Friday via Buffalo so as to save the expense of sending the stamps across the line. An express messenger brought in the package yesterday. On examining the stamps I found the color light and I suspected from the general appearance that they were not genuine and I told the messenger of my belief. The messenger replied that I need not be afraid, as he had delivered four similar packages within an hour and had received pay without hesitation. As the Hamilton concern had said only $300 worth could be supplied each month, I knew then the stamps were counterfeit and notified the postal officials, who obtained possession of the packages."

Captain Porter of the Secret Service has 28,750 of the bogus stamps in his possession, the packages delivered to the other four Chicagoans having been secured. Captain Porter refused to disclose the names of the other consignees, as all are innocent of wrong-doing. Although the Secret Service agents at Buffalo and in Canada were notified last night, he believed the premature publication of the facts would result in the escape of the gang.

The "Novelty Co." a Mystery.

Hamilton, Ont., April 10.—The premises of the Canadian Novelty Supply Company, referred to in to-day's United Press despatches, as being suspected of counterfeiting United States postage stamps, was located this evening in a store occupied by F. Dunham, painter and glasier, at No. 22 King William street.

The place is less than a block distant from Police Headquarters, but the names of the parties who compose the Novelty Supply Company cannot be learned to-night, Nor can any one be found who is aware of the nature of the business carried on by the alleged company. The local postoffice authorities have taken the matter in hand, and it is understood the police have secured an important clue, on which they are now working.

The Story Disbelieved in Buffalo.

Buffalo, April 10.—The postal authorities here have no knowledge of the alleged frand perpetrated by using bogus stamps and put no faith in the story of importations into this city from Hamilton, Ont. They have never had their attention called to such a fraud by anyone and have received no caution from the Postoffice Department.

Countess Russell Penitent.

London, April 9.—The Countess Russell, in her cross-examination to-day, said her sole object now was to return to her husband. She believed him to be a virtuous man, and wished him to forgive her if there was anything to forgive. The case was adjourned for the day.

TRAIN DERAILED BY A BOULDER.

Engineer and Fireman Killed in an Accident Near Sherbrooke.

Sherbrooke, Q., April 10.—Last night's Boston, Maine, south-going train, from Sherbrooke, when within half a mile of Smith Mills' Station, at a spot known as "The Cut," the engine struck a large boulder, which immediately threw it off the rails and down an embankment, twisting itself free of the baggage car, but leaving the latter on the track. The engineer and fireman, Roney and Emerson, went down with their engine, and were removed from it, both dead.

The boulder had been dislodged by the rain. The train was an unusually heavy one, having a large number of passengers and extra cars from the lines of the Grand Trunk and Quebec Central Railways.

Six Killed by Collapse of a Store.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 10.—The T. C. Hutchisson brick four-story wholesale hardware store in Maine-street collapsed this morning, carrying with it the building on either side. Six persons in the Hutchisson building were killed, including Rev. Father F. H. Park, a Catholic clergyman, passing the building at the time, who was buried in the ruins. The building adjoining caught fire, but the flames were soon under control. The money loss will reach $200,000. The cause of the accident was the defective construction of the Hutchisson building, which was weakened a year or so ago by the addition of two stories.

23 Killed in a Mine Explosion.

Whatcom, Wash., April 10.—An explosion from fire-damp took place in the Blue Cannon Coal Mine on Lake Whatcom yesterday. Twenty-three bodies of miners who lost their lives have been already discovered, and, so far as can be learned, only two who were in the mine when the explosion occurred escaped. The disaster was undoubtedly caused by an accumulation of fire-damp, which was exploded by a blast in the breast of the gangway.

Brakeman Killed in a Coal Train Wreck.

Scranton, Pa., April 10.—An Ontario and Western coal train was thrown from the track at Germyn by the tracks being undermined by a flood. A large number of cars were wrecked. Brakesman Farrell of Carbondale was killed.

The Disease Disappears in Three Weeks by the use of B. B. B.—Letter From Manitoba Describing it.

DEAR SIRS—During the winter of 1892-93, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it, and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B.B.B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say it has never re-appeared.

On Sabbath afternoon, April 7th, 1895, an ordination of elders was held in the North Smith Presbyterian church.

The congregation had been without representative elders for some time, and upon being requested they elected to the office of elders, Messrs. Joseph Greer and J. Hall Sanderson.

This ordination took place last Sabbath afternoon, the minister of the church, Rev. A. C. Reeves, B.A., officiating. In addition to the moderator there were present Messrs. David Smith and Andrew Fairbairn, representing the Lakefield congregation.

Naturally fair complexions would be the rule rather than the exception, as unfortunately it is at present, if the ladies would wholly abandon cosmetics, and more generally keep the blood pure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only reliable blood-purifier.

THE CANADA LIFE.

Forty-Eighth Annual Report of the Company.

END OF A QUINQUENNIUM

Splendid Progress of a Great Institution.

Surplus of the Past Five Years to be Distributed to the Policy Holders—Results of Sound and Prudent Management.

DIRECTORS' REPORT.

The annual meeting of the Canada Life Assurance Company was held Monday at the head office in Hamilton, when the following report was submitted to the meeting, which was largely attended:

The past year, 1894, being the 48th, of the company's history, and the termination of a quinquennial period, when the surplus of the five years falls to be ascertained and distributed to the policyholders, the occasion is of more than usual interest, and the directors are highly gratified in being able to present another record of that continued success which has attended the operations of the company.

The applications for assurance during 1894 were 3678 for $8,259,501, of which 3438 for $7,708,801 were accepted. The sum of $550,700 upon 240 lives, which the board did not consider it desirable to accept, were declined, and 246 for $495,744, not having been carried out, the new business of the year was $7,213,057 of assurances under 3192 policies, with a new premium income of $246,310.50. The year's addition to the business made the total amount of assurances and bonus additions $66,807,397.25, upon 32,696 lives, under 430,968 policies.

The total income of the year was $3,661,985.74.

The year's claims by deaths of assured and by payments to assurers under endowment policies which matured during the year amounted to $651,618.58, under 330 policies, upon 427 lives, and after payment of these and of all outgoings, the assets of the company were increased to $15,607,723.49.

As was pointed out five years ago, the gradual fall in the rate of interest obtainable upon satisfactory investments made it prudent and desirable that a lower rate of interest should be assumed for the future than 4½ per cent. upon which the legal reserve of life companies had been based, and to add to the safety and security of the policyholders the ½ per cent. basis had been changed by our company to a future assumption of 4 per cent. By that change the company has voluntarily increased the reserve for its policy-obligations at the present time from $12,233,399.45 to $13,075,777, thereby setting aside for the future security of its policyholders no less than an additional sum of $842,377.55, and the fact that it has been able to do so without materially affecting the surplus cash bonuses to be paid to the policyholders is a striking evidence of the sound and satisfactory position occupied by the company.

The accompanying statements show that the total assets amount to $15,607,723.49, and after deduction of all liabilities therefrom, there remained a surplus of $2,292,927.43 available for distribution, and out of which 95 per cent., $2,168,686.06, has been allotted to policy holders.

To meet the cases of policies becoming claims by death before the next division of surplus in 1906, prospective or intermediate allowances will be made at the rate of a bonus addition of 1½ per cent. per annum upon ordinary life and endowment systems.

As required by the Company's charter, the following directors retire by rotation at the present time: John Stuart, Adam Brown and William Hendrie, Esquires, of Hamilton; His Honour Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick of Toronto, and A. G. Ramsay, Esq., all of whom are eligible for re-election, as is also the Hon. Senator MacInnes of Burlington, who filled the seat of the late Sir Alexander Campbell, K.C.M.G.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH.

Gentlemen,—The Directors' report and full statements of the financial position of the company being now before you, I beg to move its adoption, and say, that while we may esteem ourselves fortunate in that our annual meetings have hitherto afforded us the agreeable duty of continually reporting the successful progress of the company, the occasion of the present quinquennial division and distribution of the surplus of the past five years is of more than usual interest, and I am very glad, indeed, to see with us so many of our District Managers and local representatives, to whom we are indebted for so much of the company's progress and success.

We again meet you under very favourable and encouraging circumstances, for we are able to report the past year to have been one of advancement and prosperity.

Although the general trade and commerce of this country, and of the whole civilized world, in fact, have suffered from an unparalleled shrinkage and depression, the business of the Canada Life has during the year been marked by a liberal and solid increase. The new assurances were larger than ever before, and the total business in force at 31st December amounted to $66,807,397, or just about double what it was in 1885. The annual income and assets of the company have also each likewise rather more than doubled since then, the past year's income having been $3,661,985, or over $8,000 per day for every business day of the year. In 1885, the assets were $7,044,944. They now amount to $15,607,723, and throwing the figures of these respective heads into tabular form, for better comparison during the past 45 years, they stand as follows:

Date.	Assurance in force.	Annual Income.	Total Assets.
1850	$ 814,903	$ 27,338	$ 41,573
1855	2,349,606	89,968	217,756
1860	3,865,407	133,446	664,397
1865	4,013,268	114,698	717,379
1870	6,404,437	273,723	1,090,098
1875	13,280,057	582,735	2,412,362
1880	21 647,759	836,856	4,297,852
1885	34,890,800	1,346,661	7,044,944
1889	46,848,870	1,839,980	9,984,450
1894	66,807,397	2,661,985	15,607,723

As you will have observed by the report of the directors, the death claims of the year were $651,618, a very moderate amount, largely under what was calculated and provided for, and less, I may say, although our risks were larger than they had been during the previous two years. The result was no doubt to some extent due to the absence of the severe forms of la grippe and its results, which were so general and so fatal in 1892 and 1893, but it is also an indication of the care exercised in the selection of the lives offered for assurance.

As I mentioned to you at our annual meeting last year, an investigation into the mortality experience since the commencement of the company's operations in 1847, was in progress, and we are now able to present to you a most interesting detailed publication of its results, and in doing so I would invite your attention to the evidence which is afforded of the very favourable mortality experience which our company has enjoyed during the lengthened period of its 48 years of existence. The various tables which are included in the publication gave proof of the salubrity of the climate of Canada and of the northern portion of the United States, to which we have confined our operations. They also show that the expectation of life there is found to be more favourable than has been experienced by the life companies of Great Britain, the United States and Germany, whose mortality tables have been made public. We can hardly be wrong, I think in attributing some portion of our favourable experience to the careful attention to which I have already alluded as having been constantly given by the board and the management to the selection of the lives offered for assurance.

Having, as you are aware, upon 31st December last, completed five years since the last distribution of surplus, the amount which has risen during that period has now to be divided, and it is very gratifying to be able to state that, notwithstanding that we have, as already explained, set aside the large additional reserve of $842,378, there remains the handsome surplus of $2,292,827, enabling us to give our policyholders a cash return equal to about 25 per cent. of all the premiums they have paid during the past five years, and it will here be interesting that I mention what has been the surplus allowed to policy holders during the last 24 years:

It was at 1870	$ 157,794
1875	368,311
1880	670,406
1885	1,126,433
1889	1,501,773

for 4 2-3 years, and this year, $2,168,868, which latter sum would have been $3,011,063 had we not changed from the 4½ per cent. basis to that of 4 per cent.

Allusion being sometimes made by persons who are not well informed on the subject to the proportions of the surplus allotted to the policy holders, it may be well that I mention the facts as to these:

In 1870 it was 75 per cent.
In 1875 it was 75 per cent.
In 1880 it was 90 per cent.
In 1885 it was 93½ per cent.
In 1889 it was 95½ per cent.
And this year 95 per cent.

In conclusion I would say that it will afford me much pleasure to supply any information or explanation which may be desired, feeling well assured that critical inquiries and explanations will but add to the confidence you may have in the company.

The President then moved the adoption of the report, which was seconded by Vice President F. W. Gates, in a short speech.

Other resolutions were spoken to by Messrs. B. E. Walker, General Manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce; Major McLaren, His Honour Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick, William Gibson, M.P., Adam Brown, Esq., and others; while responses were made by Mr. J. W. Marling, on behalf of the agents; Dr. J. D. Macdonald, for the medical examiners, and Mr. Warren F. Burton on behalf of the solicitors of the company.

The following gentlemen were re-elected on the directorate: John Stuart, Adam Brown, William Hendrie, A. G. Ramsay, His Honour Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick and Hon. Senator MacInnes.

The proceedings of the meeting were of a very harmonious character, and passed off very successfully.

Of Interest to Gentlemen!

Every gentleman in Peterborough appreciates good value. We endeavour to buy right and buy such goods as are VALUE for the money.

We are HATTERS, successful in our business. We sell cheap and sell the quantity and the quality.

We know Clothiers that sell Clothing. Their capital is in their business. Close buyers patronize them. They do a good solid trade. But there are other clothing people who devote half a column of newspaper advertising to Hats and Caps, and would lead you believe they were the great and only.

When we can't compete with the Clothing and Dry Goods trade in Hats and Caps and Furs we will go out of business and apply to them for a situation.

We are sole agents for J. B. Stetson's celebrated Soft Hats, the finest in the world.

Christy's English Stiffs, the oldest hat factory in England, and to-day the largest producers of head wear in the world.

The Lindsay Evening Post.

The first number of the Lindsay Evening Post comes to hand in very neat form. Typographically it is equal to or even better than the weekly edition, which has for so many years stood at the head of the country weeklies of the province. Being a newsy little sheet, the Evening Post should merit the hearty support of the Lindsay public, which has for so long been agitating for the establishment of a daily paper in the town.

THE CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

In our present issue we print full statement of accounts for the year 1894, together with the report of the annual meeting of Canada's largest and oldest life insurance company. The figures given will be of the utmost interest to the large number of policy holders in this district, more particularly as the year 1894 marks the end of the quinquinnial period, and makes this the company's bonus as well as banner year.

After its 48 years of existence it is cheering to find that (without any adventitious aid in the shape of protection from foreign competition) the business written was larger than ever before. We also note that, notwithstanding the deduction of nearly a million dollars from the profits of the 5 years for the strengthening of the reserve, the balance of surplus paid to policy holders as bonus is far in advance of any previous distribution. We commend the report to the attention of our readers, as an evidence of what can be done by careful, conservative and honest management in the building up of an institution whose stability and progress reflect credit, not only on the management, but on the country, which is its home.

Ontario S. S. Union.

A meeting of the Normal Committee of the Ontario Sabbath School Teachers' Association was held on Monday afternoon in the association's headquarters in the Manning Arcade. The chief feature of the meeting was the report of Rev. John McEwen, Secretary, showing the appointments made for normal instruction during the months of April and May. Lectures on Sunday School work will be delivered to teachers in the following places:—Ottawa, April 15 and 16; Maxville, April 17; Pakenham, April 19; Pembroke, April 22 and 23; Renfrew, April 24 and 25; Almonte, April 26; Perth, April 29 and 30; Peterborough, May 6, 7 and 8; Oshawa May 9 and 10; Whitby, May 13 and 14.

A Run-off at Claremont.

The C. P. R. local passenger train from Toronto, last evening, which was due at Peterborough at 7.53 o'clock, was five or six hours late, owing to a slight mishap on the line between Claremont and Myrtle. The engine and tender of freight train No. 3 left the track at the point named early in morning, blocking the line for some hours and necessitating the transhipment of passengers. None of the cars left the rails and the only damage done was to the permanent way. The road was cleared by nightfall and traffic resumed. Some further delay was caused at Toronto by sending the evening train round by the Junction on account of a slight settling of the Winchester street bridge on the Don spur line, but this will not prove a serious matter to repair, and the branch will probably be in running order again to-day. A number of Peterboroughans were on the delayed train.

A Famous Brand.

A novelty in the way of window dressing may be witnessed at Mr. Alex. Elliott's Palace Grocery, where one of the big show windows is piled high with packages of that celebrated and well known brand of tea placed on the market by the Mazawattee Tea Company of London, England. This company imports its own teas directly from the Orient and has agencies established from one end of christendom to the other. Mr. Elliott has been selected to handle the Mazawattee teas for Peterborough and therein has the company shewn its shrewdness, as a more popular agent would have been difficult indeed to find. This brand of tea has already obtained a strong hold on the Peterborough custom, its particularly fine fragrance obtaining for it a ready sale.

ANOTHER SCANDAL.

A Man Takes a Trip out of Town to a Domestic.

Still another scandal loomed up, last week, for the Peterborough public to discuss, when the almost simultaneous disappearance of a well known railway man occurred at the same time as that of a young woman to whom he has been showing a great deal of attention for some time past.

Although the pair did not leave Peterborough together on the same train, yet Dame Rumor hath it that the two were seen together in Toronto since leaving town.

The man is married and has several small children, but the "woman in the case" was fully aware of this fact before she threw in her lot with him, as the police, becoming cognizant of the state of affairs which could have but one end—the downfall and disgrace of the woman, warned her repeatedly against receiving the attentions of the man in question.

ROBBERY COMMITTED IN THE VILLAGE OF NORWOOD.

Two Arrests in the Case—Being Tried To-day.

A daylight robbery was committed in the village last Sunday. Some person or persons entered the house of Mr. George Hendren and made away with about $200 which belonged to Mr. Stanley Hendren. All the members of the family were away except Mr. and Mrs. Hendren. It is supposed that the thief entered by the back door and reached the room where the money was without being heard. On Tuesday Fred Woods and Philander Edgar were arrested on suspicion of having committed the robbery. It is alleged that they were seen loitering around the house together about the time the theft was committed. The homes of the suspected parties were searched but nothing was found. The case will come up on Wednesday.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A. met last night to confer regarding the work for the young men of Peterborough.

There were present Messrs. Knapman, Morrison, Roger, Sheriff Hall, Martin, Kidd, Stanley, Ackerman, Madill, Parker, McFadden, President Bennett and the Secretary.

Four active and associate members were received.

A report of the month's work showed that at 5 men's Sunday meetings the average attendance was 35, and at 5 song services the average attendance was 52.

The parity talks started with 95 men. The attendance at the evangelistic Bible class averaged 9.

A dumb-bell class of 10 workers is in training and a class of 13 men is taking up the special study of books of the Bible and "How to do personal work." Of 24 men dealt with by the workers, 21 professed conversion, and the rest are being followed up.

Treasurer Madill made a statement of financial standing, and a discussion on finances followed.

The questions were raised: "Do the people of Peterborough want the Association?" "Do they think there is any need for it?" "If so they must support it. The work belongs to the people." A committee was appointed to ascertain the feeling of the people on the subject and report at an early date.

Miss Melville has just received a new lot of children's bonnets, tam o' shanters, etc., in silk, cashmere and muslin—all prices. Stamping done.

"CURIOUS FACTS."

A Charming Little Volume by Mr. Sparham Sheldrake.

Peterborough is turning out no small nor insignificant band of authors. We can boast of several live authors of books that have been actually published, opened by our hands, and gazed on by our eyes, the names of men we know smiling at us from the title page. Mr. Principal Fessenden is the author of a work on Statics which, though it is facile princeps amongst works of its class, is hardly adapted for summer reading. Mr. J. Hampden Burnham is the author of "Canadians in the Imperial Service," which in character is a shade lighter than the solid meat of the mathematical treatise. Still another step Parnassus-ward and we have the venerable bard of Smith, Mr. Wm. Telford, in his elaborate volume of poems, and later, Mr. J. Carlon comes forward as author of "The Crucifix; Songs and Poems." Then we have poets and raconteurs, who contribute to literary periodicals and magazines. Besides, we have the mournful, dirge-like inspiration that finds expression in dead poetry—lines in memory, etc., which figure in common, every-day newspapers, and last but not least—in numbers—we have the evergreen spring poet—whose ebullitions of genius generally waste their sweetness on the desert air of the sanctum, and find their tomb in the waste paper basket.

These are facts, but not the "Curious Facts" referred to at the head of this little article. "Curious Facts" is the title of a neat little volume from the pen of "Sigma," Mr. Sparham Sheldrake, "The Grove," Lakefield, who, with Mrs. Catharine Parr Traill, of the same hamlet, the venerable authoress, is near enough, territorially, to be enumerated with the litterateurs of Peterborough. "Curious Facts" is a handsome little volume of about 125 pages, in the "handy pocket" duodecimo form, with uncut edges, beautifully printed, neatly bound and published by Williamson & Co., Toronto. But the external form and material composition of this welcome little volume is not its chief merit by any manner of means. A happy moment was chosen for its publication, for, in sympathy with the bright and bithsome sprightliness of the vernal season, is the literary character of "Curious Facts." The contents of this cheerful little volume are a series of incidents, more or less true in fact, but full of live and racy interest. These comprise the first part of the book. A feature of the first part is a charming little comedietta entitled "Bouleversement," with four dramatis personæ, detailing in interestingly humourous style the "overthrow" of an easy going Englishman who came to this country to invest his money and grow rich rapidly, who, trusting not wisely, but too much, fell into the hands of sharks and was deprived of his pounds. But if the author intends "Simon Smart," as a type of a class of Canadian sharpers, his "facts" becomes pure fiction. The last twenty-five pages are devoted to what is modestly called "verses," though the several subjects treated have the hall mark of poetry, and excellent humourous poetry at that, suggestive of the breezy measures of Tom Hood. The concluding poem, "The Legend of Lovesick Lake," apart from its topical interest, overflows the banks in ripples of sparkling humour. The whole volume forms excellent reading, and will, doubtless, as it merits, be popular with those who can appreciate delicate humour, dressed in elegant literary garb, and enjoy keen little satiric stabs (at somebody else, of course) delivered with a smile. Toronto: Williamson & Co. On sale at the Peterborough Bookstore.

Have you ever noticed how your system seems to crave special assistance in the spring? Just the help required is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The hymns are from "Sacred Songs and Solos." Bring your book along with you

CONSECRATION SERVICE.

This part of the programme is under Miss Quinn's charge and if entered upon in the right spirit will be one of the most interesting parts of the proceedings.

It is proposed to have the responses by committees, each committee having a portion of the church set apart for the members to sit together. It is probable that placards will be put up to save confusion. Will the members of the various committees go to the sections set apart for them, and thus help to make the service the success it should be.

The Junior Conference, at 11 a.m., under charge of Miss L. Kennedy, ought to be an exceedingly helpful meeting to all who are interested in this branch of C. E. work. All superintendents, as well as their assistants, are urged to be present, if at all possible, and to come prepared to make suggestions and ask questions. If there are those present at convention who have not yet a Junior Society in connection with their church, it would be well for them to make a point of attending this conference. The presidents of the Junior Societies are also invited to attend.

The Junior Rally, commencing promptly at four o'clock, and which is to be held in the body of the church, will, it is confidently believed, be one of the most inspiring and interesting sessions of the convention. This meeting meeting will be conducted by a Junior, and the programme, with the exception of an address by Rev. T. S. Bartlett, of Cobourg, will be given entirely by the Juniors. An interesting exercise, entitled, "What Our Junior Committees are Doing," will include representatives from nearly every society in the county; those rendering it will be dressed to represent their committee. Besides this, there will be one or two recitations, an address of welcome and reply, and special music led by a juvenile choir. Mr. Bartlett is too well known as an interesting speaker to children to need any further recommendation.

In Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton, and wherever the Junior Rallies are held, it has been difficult to secure even standing room, and we hope ours will test the seating capacity of the church.

The Juniors will be seated in Societies in the middle seats, the remaining portion of the downstairs will be given up to other boys and girls of the Sunday schools, and the grown up people will kindly take their places in the gallery.

The members of the Junior Local Union will kindly bear in mind the meeting for rehearsal at the Y.M.C.A. on Saturday next at 4.30 o'clock.

The Mothers' Society of Christian Endeavour of St. Paul's church completed its organization last Friday evening, when the following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. Sheriff Hall.
Vice-President—Mrs. W. Simpson.
Secretary—Miss Quinn.

The object of his Society is "to co-operate in every way possible with the Junior Society and its workers," and it is very reasonable to expect that it will be productive of much real good, indeed its influence is already felt in St. Paul's J. S. C. E. The regular meetings are held on the first Wednesday of the month at 7.15 p.m. Special meetings for prayer or conference may be held at the call of the President. The following is the pledge adopted:

"Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength, I promise Him that I will strive to do whatever He would like to have me do, especially that I will endeavour to bring the children to Christ and train them for Him. To this end I will co-operate with the Junior Christian Endeavour Superintendents in any way I can. I promise to seek daily the Master's blessing on the children. I will attend each meeting of the Mothers' Society of Christian Endeavour, unless prevented by a reason that I can conscientiously give to my Saviour, and will come prepared to add to the interest of the meeting. When obliged to be absent from the consecration meeting, I will send, if possible, a message to be read in response to my name."

The following remarks about conventions by the General Secretary of the United Society of C.E., Mr. J. W. Baer, and published recently in the Golden Rule, may be helpful to Endeavourers of this county now:

A good convention

Is preceded by much prayer for that spiritual power which comes only from the Spirit of God.

Open, continues and closes on schedule time.

Has a timekeeper that combines firmness with discretion.

Has a local committee of arrangements that is everywhere felt, if not seen.

Does not make up for delays by shortening devotion or cutting off debate from the floor.

Has enough singing, and not too much; does not give thirty minutes of solo to ten minutes of praise by the great congregation.

Honours the Scriptures by reading at least a brief selection from them at each session.

Brings the laymen (and lay women) to the front, as well as doctors of divinity.

Gives its prominent speakers the time promised them on the programme.

Leaves ample time for the closing consecration meeting, taking pains that business and reports are previously disposed of.

Goes on and on for weeks to come, in every part of the State, as the delegates and their note-books return home.

These methods are worth trying.

YOU CAN KILL A CONVENTION

By keeping half an hour behind schedule time.

By a bungling, long-winded presiding officer, who does not know his business.

If you encourage no applause of speakers.

By attending in the spirit of indifference and spiritual lethargy; come to get warmth and give it as well.

By having nothing but froth and foam, sharp hits, piths and points, in the speeches, and little spiritual earnestness.

By making little of devotional services, and less of the consecration service.

By having nothing but long speeches, papers and reports, and no interchange of thought or "free parliament."

These methods are warranted to kill any Christian Endeavour convention or local union meeting. Don't try them."

Quebec Residents Discussing the Best Remedy for Spring Complaints.

Quebec, April 10th.—In view of the approaching spring and the train of complaints which invariably follows her coming, people here are beginning to discuss the best remedies for the prevention of their ills. A certain impetus has been given to the discussion by the published reports of the almost fatal attack of Bright's disease of Mr. G. H. Kent, of Ottawa, and his recovery through the agency of Dodd's Kidney Pills. It is now well known that the kidneys are the keynote to health and that their failure to do their work is responsible for a number of what are known as spring complaints. The general consensus of opinion seems to be that the remedy which cured Mr. Kent of what has always been considered a fatal disease is one which may thoroughly be relied on.

As baldness makes one look prematurely old, so a full head of hair gives to mature life the appearance of youth. To secure this and prevent the former, Ayer's Hair Vigor is confidently recommended. Both ladies and gentlemen prefer it to any other dressing.

HUSTLING HAVELOCK.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The erection of Messrs. Phillip Bros. new store has begun.

A well is being dug on the lot where the English parsonage is to be erected.

Quite a change is being made on the road owing to the discharge of several employees.

The boys are already out with their lacrosses. They had better wait "till summer comes again."

The friends of Dr. Fowler will be pleased to hear that Mrs. Fowler is somewhat better.

It seems in this town that some people think that some of the hotelkeepers are not able to run their own houses properly, and then proceed to show them how to do it. A case of this kind was seen a few nights ago when a young man was going to "do up" Mr. Jas. Graham, who gave him a severe punishment for his pains.

People who enjoy a musical treat should take in the two coming concerts, the Cosgrove and Van Amburg families, April 18th and 19th.

Several of the American newspapers have been prohibited to be sold in the town.

Mr. P. J. Hogan has resumed work again after two weeks severe illness with rheumatism.

Mr. R. V. Fuller has employed another clerk from Springbrook. Business seems to be rushing.

What is the town coming to? or, where is it going to? appears to be the unsettled questions now, for the gossips.

Mr. J. Coon is intending occupying the house now being occupied by the Rev. R. Williams.

Go in for baseball this season, boys.

There seems to be a scarcity of empty houses this spring.

On Friday evening of last week the Royal Templars gave a private entertainment in the Oddfellows' Hall, which proved to be a grand success. A delightful programme was presented, which consisted of speeches by the Rev. Messrs. Coon and Williams, dialogues, vocal and instrumental solos. Special praise is due the Spinks family, who rendered a dialogue in song, which was encored. Mr. Spinks responded and rendered a sentimental solo. Mr. Coon gave several requested speeches and at the close delivered a short lecture on temperance in which he remarked that he had seen in the last few days more drunks than ever before in the history of the town, which was probably due to the "free drinks" during the change of the proprietors of the two hotels. On the whole the entertainment was most heartily enjoyed by both great and small, and closed with the National Anthem.

The highways are in a very bad condition at present, and people ought to see about getting their Easter eggs before it is too late.

The fife and drum band intend giving another grand concert in Drain's hall in the near future. Watch for the large posters and lay by a "shillin."

The singing class is progressing wonderfully under the tutorship of Prof. Lasher, who is a competent teacher.

HONOUR ROLL.

The following is the honour roll of S. S. No. 6, Belmont, for March. H. C. Kindred, teacher. Fourth sr. — Thaddeus Scott, Richmond Wigmore, Wm. Gillespie. Fourth jr. — Widmer Nicks, Pearl L. Johnston, Mabel McBurney, Sarah Johnston. Third — Frances Scott, Mildred Smith, Norman Griffith, Blanche Johnston. Second—Arthur Wigmore, Edith Hubble, Andrew McKay, Howard Peters. Part II, sr.—Caroline Scott, Hiram Johnston, Thos. McMillan, Marion Smith. Part I—Fred Hubble, Richie Kellar.

YOUNG'S POINT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Winter still lingers in the lap of spring, although the season is already far advanced, the weather continues cold. From present indications navigation will not be open until the beginning of May, which will be much later than in former years.

Mr. P. P. Young who has been busily engaged during the past month buying and measuring logs, got through last Tuesday. Large quantities were purchased above Burleigh Falls, on Deer Bay and on different parts of Stony Lake. When navigation opens the steamer Mary Ellen will tow them to the mill here, where they will be manufactured the coming season.

Mrs. Ed. Lynch, who formerly resided here, now living in North Bay, is on a visit to friends and relatives.

Capt. Scollard has returned home, after spending the winter months in North Bay. The Captain will resume his old position as soon as navigation opens.

Miss Lottie Kearney is visiting friends in Peterborough and Lakefield.

Our old and esteemed friend, Mr. P. Young, sr., paid Peterborough a visit last week, it being his first in about ten years. The old gentleman returned yesterday and relates with pride the wonderful progress made by the town since his last visit.

A PENSION FOR LIFE.

"I cannot understand" said a capitalist to a friend, "why men are so imprudent as to allow themselves to sink into money embarrassments. There is a simple rule that I follow myself, and that I have always found a great safeguard—it is never to let one's balance at the bankers fall below five thousand. By strictly adhering to this rule, one is sure to be able to meet any unexpected and immediate necessity."

The rich man's rule is golden, but his prescription not only lacks practicability but common sense. It reminds one of the advice given poor Joe, whom Dickens has immortalized; but underneath it there lies this thought: Live within your income. The difficulty of having a balance at one's bankers has increased during the last few years, for competion is greater, the margin of profit has lessened and the chances of retiring upon a fortune are not so numerous as they were. Under these circumstances, it becomes necessary to adopt other means of providing for the inevitable rainy day which comes to most men, whether professional or commercial

The only available method of providing a pension for life is that of life assurance, the original object of which was to indemnify the family for the loss of its bread-winner; but the endowment plan has now become the most popular form of insurance. Under this system, a man may receive his money at a given time, the age being fixed when effecting the insurance. "But I want to retire before I am an old man," remarks an objector. Very well, if you can afford to retire when you reach middle age, nobody will object. Your determination is praiseworthy. May you be able to carry it out! Most business men remain in harness until the end. The anxiety to become rich is one of the curses of civilization. It robs a man of all the pleasures of life; it prevents him enjoying the good things placed before him by a bountiful Providence, and from acting the part of the good Samaritan. It is not to such a man that we appeal, but rather to the man who wants to live on the sunny side of the hedge.

"Gather ye rose-buds as ye may,"

was the advice of the Poet Herrick, and no better advice could be given. We knew a man who was afraid of having a holiday, for fear his family would need the money if anything happened to himself. Now, if he had insured his life, he could have gone away with an easy mind; for a policy-holder, though not justified in living up to his income, may indulge himself with more comforts than the man whose life is not protected by insurance. While an insurance policy tends to alleviate the wants of the future, it also enables the holder to accept more fully the advantages to be enjoyed while he is yet living. He can secure to himself and family many little luxuries that otherwise he would feel called upon to deny, in order to leave something behind to provide for them. The policy is the protecting shield, which, while guarding his loved ones, gives confidence meanwhile to its possessor in fighting the battle of life.

A pension for life is something to look forward to, even if it does not become payable until middle life has been passed. The sweets of life are not monopolized by youth. There are a few, green sunny spots in the desert of life even in old age. "Life is so very pleasant," declared Crabb Robinson, when he had turned three score years and ten, "that I do not like to think how old I am." Some men never do grow old. They seem to have discovered the secret of perpetual youth; they retain both vigor of body and strength of mind. But whether a man be strong or weak there comes a time in his life when he would like to relax, to sever his connection with business pursuits and to follow his own inclinations. With the aid of the money derived from his insurance policy, this laudable desire may easily be carried into effect, and the afternoon and evening of life spent in comfort and peace. In short, an endowment policy in the Confederation Life Association gives absolute protection to your family during the existence of the policy and secures to yourself a sum of money at a given age, which may, if desired, be applied in any of the following ways:—

First.—The policy may be surrendered and the entire value taken in (1) cash, (2) paid-up policy, payable at death; (3) life annuity, an annual payment to the insured till death.

Second.—Or, the policy may be exchanged for a paid-up policy of assurance, payable at death, without profits, for an equal amount of insurance, and, in addition, there will be paid an annuity [illegible] of $45 per $1,000, applying the accumulated surplus either in (4) cash, (5) bonus addition to the sum assured, (6) life annuity.

IGNORANCE OF THE BIBLE.

Modern Literature Filled With Reference to the Great Book.

Take this matter of ignorance of the Bible. Recent statistics show that it exists, to an extent inconceivable to any person a generation ago, in college students. And this ignorance is disclosed not in attempted religious instruction, but in the study of the ordinary branches of a literary education in our universities and colleges. The pupils are entirely unable to understand a great mass of illusions in the masterpieces of English poetry and prose. Some of these pupils are victims of the idea that the Bible should not be read by the young, for they will be prejudiced in a religious way before their minds are mature enough to select a religion for themselves. Now, wholly apart from its religious and from its ethical value, the Bible is the one book that no intelligent person who wishes to come into contact with the world of thoughts and to share the ideas of the great minds of the Christian era can afford to be ignorant of. All modern literature and all art are permeated with it. There is scarcely a great work in the languages that can be fully understood and enjoyed without this knowledge, so full is it of illusions and illustrations from the Bible. This is true of fiction, of poetry, of economic and of philosophic works, and also of the scientific and even agnostic treatises. It is not at all a question of religion, or theology, or of dogma, it is a question of general intelligence. A boy or a girl at college, in the presence of the works set for either to master, without a fair knowledge of the Bible, is an ignoramus, and is disadvantaged accordingly. It is in itself almost a liberal education, as many great masters in literature have testified. It has so entered into law, literature, though the whole modern life of the Christian world that ignorance of it is a most serious disadvantage to the student.

How this is to be overcome in our machine system is a grave question. It results partly from the discontinuance of the use of the Bible in the public schools, but more especially from the change in the estimation in which it is held in the family. In comparison with its position in the family a generation ago, it is now a neglected book. It is neglected as literature. There are several suggestions for reviving interest in it. One of them is already in operation in Sunday school work. Another is its study as literature in the schools and colleges. But we believe that the change will only come effectively by attention to the fundamental cause of this ignorance, the neglect of its use in the home in childhood. If its great treasures are not a part of growing childhood, they will always be external of the late possessor. In the family is where this education must begin, and it will then be, as it used to be, an easy and unconscious education, a stimulus to the imagination, and a ready key to the great world of tradition, custom, history, literature.—Harper's Magazine.

Shaving Set to Music.

The latest thing in barber shops is a musical box which the boss of the establishment regulates to suit the times. On Monday, for instance, he keeps the machine up to light opera airs just fast enough to keep his assistants shaving customers at a nice steady gait. Tuesday being a quiet day in the barber shop, "Home, Sweet Home" and "You'll Remember Me" are good enough. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the barber confines the musical box to popular selections of a rather lively nature. On Saturdays he puts the reels and jigs on top, and every barber in the house is on the run —Philadelphia Call.

TEA INTOXICATION.

A Noted Doctor Tells Some Things That May Not be Believed.

The intoxicating effects of tea is not appreciated as fully as they should be, either by the indulger in its effusion or by the physician who is later called upon to combat its untoward influence on the system and to give advice in regard to its further continuation. So very little is to be found in our text-books on the subject of tea-poisoning that, unless the facilities have been such as to make a study of it possible, a recognition of the condition is far from likely. That it is a potent factor in causing functional derangements of the gravest character is well known to those who have given its physiological action serious attention.

Of 1,000 consecutive cases applying for general treatment in our largest dispensary, 100, or 10 per cent. were found to be liberal indulgers in tea, and suffering from its deleterious effects, and no one of which came for treatment of the tea habit, but for various other complaints. They were loath, when apprised of the cause of their illness, to believe that such a harmless household commodity ever produced any bad effects.

Of these 100 cases reported 20 per cent. complained of persistent dizziness, 19 per cent. of indigestion, 45 per cent. of headache, 20 per cent. of despondency, 19 per cent. of palpitation of the heart, and 15 per cent. of insomnia. Truly the foregoing is an array of troublesome symptoms of which any pernicious drug should be proud.

There is a great difference between physiological and poisonous effects of a drug on the system. When tea has been used for a considerable period in excess and its detrimental action has been constant, we have well defined symptoms supervene, a few of which are such as vertigo, mental confusion, sensible palpitation of the heart, restlessness, insomnia, hallucinations, "nightmare," nausea, neuralgia, anorexia, constipation, prostration and anxiety, and a peculiar kind of intoxication ending after hours of vigil in a torpor from exhaustion.

What worse line of symptoms could follow the use of a beverage so commonly employed it is hard to imagine, and that many people use it to excess is unquestionable. Many have confessed to an inability to "get through the day," without copious imbitions of what is, in many cases, a strong decoction. Some drink every twenty-four hours as much as fifteen pints, and some there are who are unable to judge of how much they consume. Whether a confession would be considered a matter of shame, it is hard to say; the general lack of moral tone and the total perverseness are so great. They are nothing more or less than genuine inebriates, and look upon tea as the same agent of support as an alcoholic does upon alcohol. It is high time that physicians should recognize these cases of disomania and study a method for their amelioration.—Dr. James Wood in Medical Record.

THE LAWS OF TEMPESTS.

Influence of the Earth's Motion on the Direction of Winds.

Suppose a railroad train at first stationary. A traveller fires a shot towards some exterior object; it will require say two seconds for the ball to reach the object. Imagine next the train moving at the rate of thirty feet a second. The traveler aims at object the instant he is opposite it; but the ball in addition to the impulsion which has communicated to it preserves the general movement of the train, which in two seconds makes it travel laterally sixty feet. It will strike then at some distance beyond the object.

The rotation of the earth produces an effect of the same kind upon movements which occur on its surface. All the points of the globe turn together from the west to the east in twenty-four hours; but they all have in reality different rates of velocity according to the position which they occupy. At the poles the velocity is nothing; it increases regularly to the equator, where it reaches the enormous rate of 1,520 feet a second.

Let us take for consideration two places in our country (France)—Paris and Dunkirk. While the Parisian, affected by the movement of the earth, passes through about 1,000 feet, the inhabitant of Dunkirk traves only about 968 feet.

Let us imagine now at Paris a wind from the south that is blowing towards Dunkirk, which is almost directly north from Paris. As Paris moves from west to east at the rate of thirty-seven feet a second faster than does Dunkirk, the wind from the south at Paris will be like the ball fired from the moving train; it will be deviated towards the east, that is, towards its right. From being a south wind, which it was at Paris, it will become a southwest wind; and it will reach Liege or Cologne instead of Dunkirk, which it would have reached had the earth been motionless. Thus all winds are turned from their first direction, and in the Northern Hemisphere this deviation is always towards the right, while in the Southern Hemisphere it is towards the left.—The Chautauquan.

A BOON TO ALL SICK ONES

Cures When Other Medicines and Doctors Have Failed

RESTORES THE SICK TO HEALTH.

"I Can Attribute My Restoration to Health Solely to South American Nervine." Says C. J. Curtis, of Windsor.

C. J. CURTIS, WINDSOR, ONT.

When one has climbed a high mountain it is not difficult to mount the ordinary hill. A medicine that will cure when the case is a desperate one, may be safely taken as a good all round medicine in ordinary cases, and it is not alone the very sick who need medicine.

The statement is borne out by a multitude of facts, thousands of testimonials from reputable citizens, that South American Nervine cures, after what are considered the best medicines in the country have failed, and where the skill of the ablest physicians has come to naught.

The acknowledged scientific principle of disease is weakness and disorganization at the nerve centers. These nerve centers are the main spring of the whole system. When the stomach is out of order the certain remedy is to set the nerve centers in right condition again, so with every other trouble. Thus it is that it may be liver complaint, nervousness, indigestion, heartburn, sour stomach, loss of appetite, impoverished blood, consumption of the lungs, catarrh of the stomach, sick or nervous headache, sleeplessness, pains in the kidneys, or other ailments from which a person is suffering South American Nervine will cure, and cure quickly, and best of all cure effectively and lastingly in every such case.

Much as we were disposed to laugh at La Grippe as a trifling complaint when it first made itself known in this country, later developments have proved that it is a serious malady. The after effects are such that very thorough measures need to be taken to ensure perfect restoration to health. South American Nervine has proven wonderfully efficacious in giving back health to the victims of La Grippe. Mr. C. J. Curtis, a wealthy and well known farmer near Windsor, Ont., suffered from a severe attack of this malady, leaving him exceedingly weak and with no appetite. No medicine seemed to do him any good until he was influenced to try South American Nervine and his testimony is this: "After taking one bottle I found very great benefit from it, my appetite improved wonderfully, and I felt my strength returning very fast." Mr. Curtis then purchased five bottles, but after taking only three out of the five, to use his own words: "I am feeling as nearly well to-day as I ever did, and I can attribute my restoration to health and strength solely to South American Nervine."

McCARTHY'S POOR PROSPECTS.

The Outlook in Haldimand Mixed Up by a Montague Man.

Caledonia Station, Ont., April 10.—What your readers are perhaps most anxious to learn in regard to the Haldimand contest is as to the strength and prospects of the McCarthy party. McCarthy's headquarters are located here, with Organiser Fee in charge of affairs. The party are, of course, without organization of any kind, except what they have been able to call into existence within the past few days. It is quite evident that D'Alton McCarthy is running this campaign as a purely personal affair. The same personal animus that brought him out against Sir John Thompson has induced him to cross swords with Dr. Montague. McCarthy has no better following now than he has had all along. As a matter of fact he seems to be weaker, for as yet there is no sign of even Col. O'Brien coming on the scene to help him. Beyond Mr. Armour and the candidate Mr. McCarthy has pitchforked into the constituency, no public man who is known outside of his own township is associated with him in the campaign.

Yet Mr. McCarthy is exceedingly anxious to score a victory, and with that end in view he has set in motion the machinery at his command.

This machinery consists of a score or more of law students and law clerks from Toronto, who are here occupying almost every available room in the hotels. What they have done up to date is not very evident, but Organiser Fee is getting considerable literature printed at the local printing offices, and it is likely Mr. McCarthy's young men will in a day or two be despatched through the country, each with a bundle of cards and posters on his arm.

The young men will also speak in the various township school houses. Five meetings, for instance, have been advertised for Friday night, and the same kind of thing will be kept up till polling day.

Mr. McCarthy is apparently making this the effort of his life. It is the crisis of his political existence, but the fact that he can summon no public men of influence to assist him; that he cannot secure a local candidate to oppose Dr. Montague; that he has no local organization; shows how weak he really is, and how slim are his prospects of success.

No one here seriously believes that McCarthy's candidate will poll more than a respectable vote. There is certainly no expectation that he will be elected.

The friends of Dr. Montague, on the other hand, are confident of victory, and the expected majority reaches away up in the hundreds. The meeting that was held at Hagersville to-night is said to have been a splendid success. Long before the advertised hour the opera house was filled with supporters of Dr. Montague, and many were unable to get into the building.

No Patron Nominee

Cayuga, April 10.—At the Patron convention to-day it was decided not to put a candidate in the field, as the issue was the Manitoba school question, which is not a Patron plank. The members are free to vote as they please. The action of the Patron members in the Provincial Legislature was endorsed.

Manitobans Leave for Haldimand

Winnipeg, April 9.—Following Joseph Martin, Winnipeg's member, and Attorney-General Sifton, Rev. Finn, a prominent Manitoba clergyman and at present grand chaplain of the Grand Orange Lodge of Manitoba, left by to-day's train to address meetings in Haldimand. Mr. Finn is strongly opposed to interference by the Dominion Government in the Manitoba school question.

A Lively Day in Vercheres.

Montreal, April 10.—Mr. Ouimet, Minister of Public Works, will go out to Vercheres in the morning to attend the nomination of candidates for the bye-election for the House of Commons. A large number of prominent politicians will accompany the minister, and a lively joint debate is expected.

Russian Oil Output Increasing

London, April 10.—A despatch to The Daily News from Odessa says that the Ministerial Department of Trade and Manufactures recently sent an envoy to Paris to confer with delegates of the Standard Oil Company, which had made overtures to Russia looking to an arrangement to obviate ruinous competition. Nothing definite was decided upon, and now it is stated that Russia's hesitancy arises from reports that the American oil wells show signs of exhaustion, while the Caucasian wells increase both in number and output.

Derailed by a Washout.

Bradford, Pa., April 9.—A bad wreck occurred on the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Railroad early this morning between Punxsutawney and Big Run. The official account of the accident received from the company is that the train struck a washout and left the rails, piling up the locomotive and 18 empty gondolas promiscuously. Engineer Ed. C. Taylor and Fireman Morris Shea were buried under the wreck and killed. The conductor escaped uninjured.

$300 Taken by Housebreakers.

Norwood, April 9.—A peculiar robbery took place here yesterday, in which the house of George Hendren was entered some time during the day, and $300 in cash was stolen belonging to his son, Stanley Hendren. A note for $60 was also taken.

WORST KIND OF DYSPEPSIA.

GENTLEMEN,—I write to inform you that for years I had been troubled with Dyspepsia and having tried other medicines which entirely failed, I at last found relief and cure in Burdock Blood Bitters, of which I took two bottles, the result being a perfect cure. Although only a young lad I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for four or five years, but I can say now that B. B. B. does its work faithfully in the worst kind of Dyspepsia, and has proved itself the only cure for me.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

A MEDICINE
WITHOUT AN EQUAL.

Statement of a Well Known Doctor

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is without an equal as a blood-purifier and Spring medicine, and cannot have praise enough. I have watched its effects in chronic cases, where other treatment was of no avail, and have been astonished at the results. No other blood medicine that I have ever used, and I have tried them all, is so thorough in its action, and effects so many permanent cures as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Dr. H. F. MERRILL, Augusta, Me.

THE WHEEL.

A Waterloo man writes to the Globe as follows—

"In the editorials in the sporting news of to-day's Globe I notice you say:—"The Canadian Wheelman says that perhaps the membership of the C.W.A., dating from March 15th, may be granted representation at the annual meeting. The announcement has been made from the Secretary's office that only members at the time of closing the books, March 15th, could vote at the meeting, but there is nothing in the by-laws to support that ruling."

C. W. A. by-laws, article 5, section 12, says:—"Membership fees are payable for each ensuing year, on or before the 15th of March in each year. Members whose subscriptions are unpaid at that date shall have the privilege up to the 1st of July of reinstating themselves upon the payment of the usual fees, but such members shall not be accorded any rights of members in good standing."

You say in the same article: "No time is set for judging their standing, and the rule can only be interpreted to mean in good standing at the time of the meeting. I think the bylaw quoted above is plain enough on this subject, and says conclusively that all the applications for membership that have been received since March 15th are not members in good standing, and are not allowed representation on Good Friday.

According to the C.W.A. constitution, article 3, section A, and bylaws, article 5, section 2, a list of applications for membership, published in the Canadian Wheelman in the issue of April 1st cannot be accepted as full-fledged members till two weeks have elapsed, in which objections to any names may be sent in. In case no protests have been received by April 1st (two days after Good Friday) the membership of such a list of applicants is confirmed. You can well understand how Waterloo should feel such an interest in this matter. Our eastern rival for the meet, Peterborough, has sent in 214 names, and with a membership of 256 represented at the annual meeting, this "coup" means a great advantage to her chances of securing it. Waterloo and Berlin are also at present sending in a "boom" membership list that will in all probability surprise our friends from the east. We feel that in case of a ruling in favour of new members, we might as well have what advantage there is.

There are many objections, however, to changing the system of representation which has been in use. Several years ago towns bidding for the meet played at auction, and the place which offered the largest percentage of the net receipts usually got it. This year it would appear as if the rival towns bidding for the meet were reviving the custom, but were offering members instead of percentages of receipts. If clubs were allowed to send in "boom" lists each year after March 15th up to Good Friday to vote at the annual meeting it would keep the secretary too busy, in fact it would upset the system which makes the business of the association run smoothly. Some time must be set for closing the membership books and making calculations as to delegates, who is to vote, election of representatives, etc. Why not March 15th, instead of a month later?

Of course it is cold and not very encouraging to try to get up "boom" lists of members before March 15th. Do we want booms? Don't you think a good substantial growth far better than, say, 40 one year, 250 the next, perhaps what the next year? Not another boom, I venture to say.

The amount of enthusiasm in C. W. A. matters is quite proper here. Everybody is talking about it and our chances of coming out on top on Good Friday. A subscription list has already gone over $500, and is growing fast. A large delegation from Waterloo and Berlin will be present at the Wanderers' ball on Thursday night, and to look after our interests and those of the association at the big meeting on Good Friday."

The Globe says that the writer has entirely overlooked the Globe's contention, which did not refer to members in arrears nor to those coming in after the 15th of March. It was for those whose members in good standing dating from the 15th of March that the Globe claimed representation at the meeting of the 12th of April.

FOOTBALL.

The Crack Norwood High School Club has elected officers as follows, and is ready for challenges:

Hon. President—J. Davidson, M.A., LL.B.
President—S. Hill.
First Vice-President—A. O. Kidd.
Second Vice President—O. R. Goodfellow.
Secretary-Treasurer—John E. Roxburgh.
Captain—T. Wigmore.

CRICKET.

The cricketers met last night, and with Mr. R. B. Rogers in the chair, elected the following officers:

Honorary President—Dr. Burnham.
President—C. McGill.
Vice-President—C. Vesmenden.
Secretary—R. B. Rogers.
Treasurer—W. J. Drope.

General Committee—Sam Ray, Walter Stocker, N. St. C. Gurd, W. J. Montgomery, M. Poussette.

A constitution drawn up by a committee appointed for that purpose at the last meeting, was read and adopted. It is probable that the club will give an entertainment of some nature to raise a fund to defray the expenses incurred in keeping up the grounds.

The Newspaper Amateur Athletic Association applied for the use of the grounds in the evenings, and power was vested in the general committee to deal with the matter.

THE TRIGGER.

The P. A. A. Gun Club will have a practice match at their range, Riverside Park, Ashburnham, to-morrow, commencing at 3 o'clock sharp. Captain R. Tivey is desirous of seeing all members of the club in attendance on this occasion as matters of importance will be discussed.

NO LOAN TO CANADIAN SEALERS.

The Imperial Government Not Asked—The Nicaraguan Canal—Vote of Thanks to Speaker Peel.

London, April 9.—In the House of Commons to-day, Mr. Sydney Buxton, Under Colonial Secretary, announced that one-half of the troops in British Honduras would be withdrawn on April 30, and the remainder at the end of July.

Sir Edward Grey, replying to a question by Sir Thomas Esmonde, said that the Republic of Hawaii had been recognised by Great Britain.

Sir William Harcourt moved a vote of thanks to the retiring Speaker, Right Hon. Arthur Wellesley Peel. The motion was seconded by Mr. A. J. Balfour, the Conservative leader, and supported in eulogistic speeches by Mr. Joseph Chamberlain and Mr. Justin McCarthy, and the House passed it by acclamation.

Sir Edward Grey, in replying to a question by Sir Edward Harlan, said the Government had not sent a commission to co-operate with the United States commissioners in regard to the Nicaragua Canal, nor would they do so unless they were invited by the Washington Government. The Government, he said, was fully sensible of the importance of the canal to British shipping and would take measures in the event of the completion of the waterway to secure as favorable treatment for Great Britain as was accorded to other nations.

Sir Edward Grey, replying to an interrogation by Sir George Baden-Powell, said the Government had received no proposal that they advance money to pay damages awarded to sealers under the award of the Paris Tribunal, pending the settlement of those claims by the United States.

Tough Clothes

FOR

Those Who Work Hard!

* * * * * * * * *

Are you a man that works for a living—a man that gets up at 5 a.m. and builds the fire, and then goes out and builds a house?

Are you a Printer, a Painter or a Factory Hand? Are you a Mason, a Bricklayer or a Plasterer? Are you a Moulder, a Machinest or a Blacksmith? Are you a Drover, a Butcher, a Baker or a Lock maker? Are you a Reinholder, a Motorman, a Hack Driver or a Conductor? Are you a Barber, a Bartender, a "Peddler" or a "Drummer"?

Are You Doing Any Work That Takes Tough Clothes to

"STAND THE RACKET?"

We carry just the sort you want. Clothing for the working classes—clothing for your particular sort of work—clothing "Built on Honour."—clothing made to wear!

We carry Stout Tweeds (all wool) and Serge Suits that you can bank on every time at $5, that you can't match elsewhere at $7.50. See them—don't take our word for it.

We carry Overalls and Cotton Pants that wear like leather. We carry Leather Coats and Rubber Clothing. We carry all sorts of Clothes, for all sorts of men, to do all sorts of work in.

FOR "DUDES"

And others who don't work so very hard we carry finer grades of Suits. Just fancy a fine Black Cut-away Suit for $9.75, quite as good as the merchant tailors will charge you $18 for. When you see them you can't help but admit they're all and more than what we say they are. It'll cost you nothing to look. No offence if you don't buy.

We're in the swim to catch your trade, and if we can't drown all opposition, why then we'll sink. We're practical clothiers, and can substantiate our assertions.

A Comparison.

How much per square yard did you pay for your Carpets, Curtains, Draperies, etc? A single picture which is worthy a place on walls decorated with one of our medium priced papers, cost many times more than the whole Wall Paper combination, side walls, frieze, border and ceiling paper.

No argument is required to prove that a room tastefully decorated is more than half furnished. Taking effect into consideration, WALL PAPER is by far the cheapest adornment towards rendering it stylish, cosy and homelike.

WALL PAPER,
WINDOW SHADES,
CORNICE POLES,
ROOM MOULDING,
PICTURE FRAMES,
BABY CARRIAGES,

At 10c per roll Wall Paper costs less than 3c per square yard. At 15c per roll, it costs less than 4c per square yard. At 25c per roll it costs less than 6c per square yard. Compare this with the cost of your Carpets, Curtains, etc, and see how much cheaper Wall Paper decorations are.

We can show Wall Papers from 4c per roll to $2.00 per roll. In other words, you may buy from us enough paper to cover the walls of an average room for 40c or $20.00.

Our Window Shades are meeting with quick sales. We can give you a nice shade with dado for 25c, mounted on Spring Rollers; for 30c a Fringed Shade; for 60c we can give you an Opaque Shade, with Fringe, worth 85c. Better qualities, equal value.

CAUTION—Don't pay large commissions to have samples of Wall Paper brought round to your house, but come to the Peterborough Bookstore where you can buy 40 per cent. cheaper.

Why and Wherefore.

WHY DOES A PENDULUM CLOCK GO FASTER IN WINTER THAN IN SUMMER?

Because the the pendulum-rod becomes contracted by the cold in winter and lengthened by the heat in summer. The shorter the rod the quicker the stroke or vibration.

I am prepared to regulate and adjust all Clocks, Watches and Chronometers, to suit the varying conditions of the weather, and guarantee them to keep good time in every case where the mechanism has not become seriously worn or badly out of repair.

HALDIMAND BATTLE royal

McCarthy and Montague at the Nominations.

RIDING FULL OF TORY STUMPERS

Mr. McCarthy States That the Remedial Order Was Passed to Knock Out Mr Laurier in Quebec Decidedly Lively Nomination Proceedings.

Cayuga, April 11.—Yesterday was an eventful one in the County of Haldimand. Everyone who pretended to be of any account took an early train for Cayuga, where the nomination to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons caused by the accession of Hon. Dr. Montague to the ministry was to be held. The two parties that will contest the seat did their level best to create the strongest possible impression in the eyes of the public.

The review of forces took place in the court room. The weather was splendid, the turnout of people large, the meeting was full of dash, variety and life. Everyone declared the nomination one of the best political meetings ever held in the county.

Dr. Montague's party came to Cayuga from Hagersville by the first train. Among the party were Hon. J. C. Patterson, Col. Tisdale, M.P., A. B. Ingram, M.P., Ed Cochrane, M.P., A. F. Campbell, ex-M.L.A., Dr. Boome, M.P., R. R. Hesson, ex-M.P., and a few others.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy came from Hamilton by the early train to Caledonia.

At 12 o'clock Mr. Robert E Walker of Caledonia took his seat in the court room and read the election writ. He then produced the nomination papers of the two candidates. That of Jeff McCarthy was signed by 25 names of Caledonia men. Dr. Montague's was signed by 61 from various parts of the county. Every available space in the chamber seemed to have its occupant. Towards 2 o'clock the candidates put in an appearance, amid loud cheering.

When Col. Tisdale took the chair he proceeded to outline the order of proceedings. It took fifteen or twenty minutes to settle on the order the speakers should take in addressing the audience. Dr. Montague suggested that D'Alton McCarthy should speak first for one hour; that he himself should follow for the same length of time, and that Mr. "Jeff" McCarthy should finish up in an hour.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy objected to this, and said he would decline to speak under those conditions.

Various compromises were suggested, and this program was finally adopted: D'Alton McCarthy one hour, Dr. Montague one hour and thirty minutes, "Jeff" McCarthy thirty minutes, D'Alton McCarthy fifteen minutes. This program was carried out except in regard to Dr. Montague, who limited his remarks to one hour.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy then took the floor. He said he had been called the leader of the new party. He didn't disclaim the position, and admitted that Mr. Jeffrey McCarthy had accepted the nomination under pressure from himself. Mr. McCarthy then proceeded to outline the events that led up to the passing of the Remedial Order by the Dominion Government. These facts are already so well known to the public that it would be superfluous to repeat them. Mr. McCarthy dwelt on the fact that the Conservatives and Reformers of Manitoba alike approved of the Greenway School bill of 1890. More than one-half of the Roman Catholic children in Ontario, where they can have Separate schools if they like, do not attend them. He quoted Mgr. Satolli, the Pope's representative in America, to show that that dignitary approves of Catholic children attending the Public schools where the Separate schools do not exist, or where they are inferior to the Public schools. The Roman Catholics of Manitoba numbered only 20,000 out of a population of 152,000 in 1891. Bearing such facts as these in mind, it was not unjust to insist upon one school system in Manitoba. When the Act of 1890 took effect nearly one-half of the then existing Separate schools of Manitoba embraced the public school system.

Coming down to the question as it now exists in Dominion politics, Mr. McCarthy said that all the law had determined was that the Dominion Government has authority to interfere in regard to the Act of 1890, just in the same way as it has authority to veto every act that comes up.

Hon. Mr. Montague: Oh, no!

Mr. McCarthy: It is just exactly the same as the Dominion Government has power to annul every provincial act, or to pardon criminals. This pretence that they are bound by their high sense of duty to interfere with the provinces of Manitoba is not going to go down. This matter must be dealt with as a purely political measure. Concluding, his speech Mr. McCarthy said the Dominion Government had passed the Remedial Order merely to knock out Laurier in Quebec by diverting the trade policy, in which he was gaining headway, and by substituting for it this question, which would arouse the passions of the French habitants.

Hon. Dr. Montague was then called. It is usual, said the speaker, for a new minister to be elected by acclamation. When Hon. Mr. Harcourt, Provincial Treasurer, was made a minister I personally intervened and asked that the hon. gentleman should be elected by acclamation. I am glad to think that the Liberals of Haldimand now promise to return the same courtesy. But just at that moment my friend, Mr. McCarthy, personally intervenes and, very friendly as he is to me, he hunts in Hamilton for a candidate to oppose me. He hunts for a candidate in Toronto. I can give him the names if he wants them. He hunts through Haldimand for a candidate, but he finally found himself obliged to select a member of his own firm. I don't know whether he comes under compulsion or not. (Laughter.) I am pleased to see Mr. McCarthy come here at no expense to us, because that is a privilege we never enjoyed before. (Laughter.) We have had six or seven contests here and during them all we have never, Liberals or Conservatives, said one word to stir up religious rancor in this county. Mr. McCarthy has broken our record, and by his course this campaign is to be a religious campaign, as far as he is concerned. For my part, I refuse to make it a religious campaign. I am not appealing to religious prejudice, but I am here upon the justice of my cause, and I am prepared to submit that cause with the absolute evidence of its justice. I am here simply as having carried out the law as God has given the highest court in this realm judgment to see the law. (Cheers.)

The speaker then outlined the basis under which Confederation was brought about, and showed that a spirit of compromise was essential to secure a union of the many different elements that were united into one one country. We must, said he, stand by the tenets of Confederation. One of the obstacles that stood in the way of Confederation was the question of education. The Protestants of Quebec said, "We will not go into Confederation unless you establish our Separate schools sufficiently firm, so that after the union they cannot possibly be disturbed by a Catholic Legislature." In order to protect the Protestant minority of Quebec, a clause was introduced into the B.N.A. Act, section 93, sub-section 8. Now the Catholic minority of Manitoba are appealing to us under the same clause that affords protection to the Protestant minority of Quebec, and yet Mr. McCarthy is here declaring we have sold ourselves to Rome. Mr. McCarthy never for one moment to-day dealt with the question as to whether there was an intention that the Roman Catholic minority under the constitution should have their Separate Schools formally [illegible] him to tell us if that was not the intention when the agreement and compact was made. Was it not intended that that agreement should be carried out in good faith?

When the highest court in the realm declared that the minority of Manitoba had a grievance, that their rights had been interfered with, how were we to act? Were we to be governed by justice, or were we to be governed by political expediency? Is there a single man here who will say we should be governed by political expediency?

A voice—No.

Dr. Montagur—The Government has not decided this question according to the way Mr. McCarthy would have adopted. We were guided by the law, by the constitution, by justice as laid down by the constitution and the highest court of this Empire.

I disagree with Mr. McCarthy, when he says the Dominion Government has as much right to interfere This is not a question of provincial rights. It is a case whether Manitoba shall be governed by her law and constitution or whether justice and right shall be thrown aside and political expediency put in its place. To make the matter clearer let us suppose that Manitoba had developed into a Catholic instead of a Protestant province. Suppose a Roman Catholic legislature abolished Protestant schools and compelled Protestant pupils to attend Catholic schools. Suppose this Protestant minority had appealed under the law and get their judgment from the highest court in the realm. What would you Protestants say then? What would you Orangemen say to us? What would D'Alton McCarthy say to us? (Applause.) It would be the opportunity of his life. He would be here roaring through this constituency, that we had sold ourselves to the Church of Rome and refused to listen to the grievances of the down-trodden Protestants of Manitoba. (Applause.) All I am contending for is that we give right and justice to our neighbors, as we would give it to ourselves. We should remember that the fight of the Roman Catholic minority in Manitoba may become the fight of the Protestant minority in Quebec. Suppose that to-morrow the Catholic Legislature of Quebec did away with the privileges that were given to the Protestants; suppose the Protestants of that province appealed to the Government at Ottawa under the 93rd section of the act, and suppose we refused to listen to their appeal, what would you Orangemen say? You would say once more that we were sold to the Church of Rome, just as D'Alton McCarthy has said here to-day. We are not sold to Rome. It is a question whether the constitution shall stand or not. It has been said by some that this will either defeat me or kill me in this campaign. I am prepared to drop in my tracks while defending the constitution of this country, the constitution that was given to us for Canadians and Protestants alike. (Applause.) And if I should fall by the way, I would ask that no other inscription be written on my slab than that I stood up for the right as God has given me light to see the right and justice of the constitution of this country. The only way to secure harmony among the people is to avoid tyranny. This school question could have been settled in Manitoba if the Government had gone about it in the right way. They could have arranged a common basis of agreement that would have been acceptable to all. But no people will have their rights stolen from them without resisting to the utmost. The way to perpetuate Separate schools and schisms is for men to preach dissension as Mr. McCarthy is doing. (Applause.)

The speaker said the Government didn't want to interfere. The Manitoba Legislature had adjourned for the purpose of considering the question of remedial legislation, and I am here as a member of the Government, said the doctor, to say that any possible settlement that they may make, that will be satisfactory to the Protestants and Catholics of the province, will be entirely satisfactory to the Government, of which I am a member, and we won't interfere one hair's bredth.

Mr. Jeffrey McCarthy spoke for 30 minutes, and laid particular stress on the argument that the question was not to be dealt with judicially. As Mr. Blake had admitted, it was a matter of political expediency, and that meant dealing with it in the best interests of the country as a whole. It was in the best interests of the country to have but one system of schools.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy had 15 minutes in which to reply to Dr. Montague. The meeting came to an end at 5.30.

In Vercheres

Vercheres, P.Q., April 11.—The nomination proceedings did not develop anything very new. Mr. A. U. Archambault was the returning officer. Mr. F. X. Bisaillon, Q.C., was placed in nomination as the Conservative candidate, and Mr. C. A. Geoffrion, Q.C., as the Liberal standard-bearer. A very large number attended from Montreal, and among them were: Hon. J. A. Ouimet, Hon. P. E. Leblanc, Hon. Thomas Chase, Casgrain, A. Jeannotte, M.P., and Ald. Hurteau. The feature of the after meeting was the address of the Minister of Public Works, in which he reviewed the fiscal policy of the Government and their action on the Manitoba school question. He talked much on the same lines as in his former speeches. He made no statement as to whether legislation would be introduced this session.

An interesting incident took place. Mr. Ouimet urged the electors to vote in the presence of God and their conscience. Some laughed at this, and Mr. Ouimet, removing his hat, proceeded to rebuke them.

Mr. Geoffrion referred to Hon. Thomas McGreevy as "un gueux," a very offensive epithet. He promised that he would vote for remedial legislation which did justice to the Manitoba minority even if introduced by the Conservatives. However, he had not confidence in the Government, and blamed Mr. Ouimet for not resigning when Orangeman Bowell refused to disallow the Act of 1890.

Mr. Bisaillon's speech was well received.

McIsaac and Chisholm in Antigonish.

Antigonish, N.S., April 10.—Hon. Colin F. McIsaac, Liberal, and Joseph A. Chisholm, Conservative, were nominated to-day.

Quiet Campaign in Quebec West

Quebec, Que., April 10.—The nomination of the Quebec West candidates today was a very quiet affair, there being but the returning officer and his deputy present. Mr. R. R. Dobell, one of the candidates, is absent in England. Hon. Thomas McGreevy being interviewed expressed himself condident of success in spite of his experience in Parliament three years ago. Mr. McGreevy says he understands his late constituents very well and is working his election very quietly, hardly showing himself out of his residence.

To Oppose J. F. Lister, M P

Sarnia, Ont., April 10.—The Liberal-Conservative party of West Lambton held a convention here and nominated W. J. Hanna, barrister, to contest the riding in opposition to the present Reform member, J. F. Lister.

GULLY THE NEW SPEAKER.

The Conservatives Nominate Mr White Ridley—Gully's Majority on a Division Only Eleven.

London, April 11.—The House of Commons met yesterday and proceeded at once to the election of a Speaker to succeed Right Hon. Arthur Wellesley Peel, resigned. Samuel Whitebread proposed the name of William Court Gully, Liberal, whose nomination was seconded by Augustine Birrell. Sir John Mowbray nominated, and John Lloyd Wharton seconded, the nomination of Sir Matthew White Ridley, Conservative.

Discussing the nominations for the Speakership, A. J. Balfour, leader of the Opposition, said that the Government's support of Mr. Gully was without precedent, and he believed dangerous to the future efficiency of the House. Mr. Gully, he said, was unknown as regards the work of the House, having neither taken part in its debates nor served on any of its committees.

Sir William Harcourt severely criticised Mr. Balfour's bad example in making the question of the election of a Speaker a matter of party discussion.

Mr. Gully was elected by a vote of 285 to 274 for Sir Matthew Ridley.

The Parnellites voted for Ridley.

Mr. Gully expressed his thanks to the House for his election and his appreciation of the high and great responsibility which they had conferred upon him.

Sir William Harcourt and Mr. Balfour congratulated Mr. Gully on behalf of their respective parties.

The House adjourned until April 22, the interim being the Easter recess.

BALFOUR HELD BY FORCE OF ARMS.

Argentina Made an Effort to Take Him Off the Boat.

Buenos Ayres, April 10.—The steamer Tartar Prince, with the fugitive defrauder of the English building societies, Jabez Spencer Balfour, on board, is still detained here by low tide.

Yesterday the criminal judge of Salta sent officers on board the steamer to demand the surrender of Balfour. The captain of the ship communicated with the British Minister on the subject, and the latter officially laid the matter before the Foreign Minister.

The result was that the Foreign Minister sent a detachment of soldiers to prevent Balfour from re-landing.

Daily Examiner.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1895.

THE imports of Great Britain for the twelve months of 1894 amounted to £408,505,718, and the exports to £216,104,230. As compared with 1893 this was an increase of imports £3,817,540 and a decrease of exports of £1,900,626.

THE grand total of pupils attending High, Public, Separate and Model schools in the Province of Ontario in 1867 was 408,130; in 1872, 463,430; in 1877, 500,989; in 1882, 484,919; in 1887, 511,875; in 1892, 509,777; in 1893, 505,340. There was paid for educational purposes in 1867, $1,920,023; in 1877, $3,567,481, and in 1893, $5,238,115.

THE Hon. Mr. Bronson is deserving of the thanks of organized labour in introducing a maximum scale for the hours of labour on electric railways, says the Toronto News, but it goes, perhaps, beyond what is practicable and practical when it says that the honourable gentleman has not gone quite far enough yet. He should now fix a minimum scale of wages as well.

BRITISH GUIANA is coming rapidly to the front as a gold producer with the natural result of exciting the attention of capital. The Government returns for 1884 only amounted to 250 ounces. In 1894 the total value was £3,282,045 5s. 7d. It is no wonder that the Venezuelans are anxious to steal a slice of British territory that yields so largely of "the sinews of war."

THE Globe, in commenting on the Beaton case, advises those who consider themselves aggrieved by statements which appear in the press to apply to the newspaper containing them for redress before going to a lawyer. The advice is sound. There is not a newspaper which would deliberately and knowingly make false statements concerning an individual. There is not one which, in the hurry inseparable from newspaper work, unwittingly perpetrates an injustice, that will not willingly put the matter right if appealed to. To rush to a lawyer and threaten proceedings only makes a settlement more difficult and unpleasant. It is always better to try the peaceable plan first.

THERE are four bye-elections pending. The Government candidates are urging their claims to election on the grounds of the benefits the National Policy has conferred on the country, and the necessity of that policy to a continuance of prosperity. Let us examine a little as to how the N. P. has produced prosperity in the matter of population. In the four bye-election ridings, Quebec City, Vercheres, Antigonish and Haldimand, the population in 1881 totalled 119,516; ten years later, 1891, these figures had been increased you will say to—nothing—there was a decrease of 3,370. Thus is shown how the "policy" which was to do so much in building up a great country has fulfilled the promises made in its name. It is the people that make a nation great. We can't have a home market without population, and the national policy that was to increase our population, furnish a sufficient home market, and prevent the exodus, is actually decreasing the population, or rather, the population is decreasing under its benign influence.

IT is perhaps only reasonable that the dissensions which exist in ministerial circles should be reflected on the rank and file of the party. The process of disintegration, says the Ottawa Free Press, is very rapid in such cases. The Conservative papers announce that there are two annual meetings of the "Liberal Conservative Association" of Ottawa to be held on Monday. Of course, each will proclaim itself to be the great original, the true and only genuine "Liberal Conservative Association" with positively no connection with the institution across the road. Each will denounce the other as a spurious article, and each, no doubt, will have its supporting faction. Well—when political knaves fall out, honest voters may come by their rights, and so the country benefit. This journal has no direct interest in the quarrel, but has a favourable eye for the schism which comes along with its advertisements. Under which King Bezonian? Why, we go for the one which advertises of course, and hope the strife in the camp may continue long and be conducted with vigour.

TELEGRAPH CABLES.

What a marvellous change has occurred in international intercourse in twenty-four years! In 1870 there was not a single line of cable communication to Africa, except the one through the Mediterranean and the Red Sea. The first line to Australia had not been completed. There were but three Atlantic cables, and the only line that touched South America was a short one from Cuba to Colon, via Jamaica. The first cable to India was completed in 1870. During the following year China and Australia were connected with England. In 1874 the first direct cable to South America was laid, and Africa was linked to the general system in 1879.

To-day there are eleven cables to Canada and the United States, three to India, three to Australia, two to New Zealand, three to South America, three to Africa, and almost the entire coast line of Europe, Asia, Africa and America is looped with submerged telegraphs. Progress in other branches of the service has kept fully abreast of construction. When the companies were started twenty-five years ago, the system of code messages had not been invented, and the estimate of receipts was based upon all telegrams being sent in open language. If this estimate had been maintained, the revenue of the companies would have been much larger than at present; but it is only fair to say that the existing cables would not have been able to carry the traffic.

Paine's Celery Compound Makes Them Well.

After Suffering For 18 Years The Great Spring Medicine Cures Mrs. G. H. Parker.

Eighteen years of intense suffering, disappointment and anxiety!

Failure after failure with doctors and worthless medicines made life sad and dreary for Mrs. G. H. Parker, Winona, Ont.

After some persuasion, Mrs. Parker was induced to give Paine's Celery Compound a fair and honest trial.

What happy grand results! Such a victory over suffering! Complete cure and renewed health.

The following is Mrs. Parker's unsolicited testimony:

"I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia for nearly eighteen years; these sufferings at times were so bad that words fail to describe them. After having tried every known remedy, and different physicians, and receiving no help I was persuaded to try your Paine's Celery Compound, which I have been using for the past four months. I am happy to say that I am now a different woman and completely cured. I can recommend your Paine's Celery Compound to all my friends, for it has been worth hundreds of dollars to me."

TAXES TAKEN BY MANUFACTURERS.

The Government Duty not the Only Tax—What is Taken Out of the Pockets of the Consumers.

In considering the cost to the consumer of the National Policy, it has to be remembered that an immense amount of money is annually taken from the people by the manufacturers, besides the tax which goes into the public revenue. It is of the essence of a protective tariff that the manufacturers shall be enabled to collect from the consumers a larger sum than goes into the treasury. As a rule the home manufacturer will charge all he can without admitting the foreign article. This is made easier in a small market like Canada by the ease with which rings and combines can be formed. To illustrate:

Last year the duties were, say $20,000,000 in round figures. The wholesalers and retail dealers' profits upon their increased outlay as a result of their having to pay the duty would be forty per cent., or a total of $8,000,000. That was an incidental tax. Then, too, many political economists lay down the basis of calculation that for every $3 of duty paid into the Government the farmer pays $5 of incidental taxation to the domestic manufacturer. Upon that basis the incidental tax the consumer has paid to the domestic manufacturers in consequence of the existence of the duties upon the class of goods brought into the country which are manufactured in the country has amounted to $34,000,000. So the gross amount besides the $20,000,000 is: the merchants' profit upon the duty, which is practically a first cost, $8,000,000, together with the incidental taxation of the enhanced cost of the domestic goods produced in this country, $34,000,000. The sum of $64,000,000 is thus extracted from the pockets of the consumers, of which only $20,000,000 goes into the revenue of the country. This may not be mathematically correct; it is an approximate calculation. It is probably well within the mark. Whatever the exact figures the sum is enormous and the farmer is bled in the manner illustrated by these figures.

GALWAY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Edward Sheehan's infant on Thursday last.

On March 30th, in Kinmount, a meeting of the farmers of this vicinity was held for the purpose of establishing a cheese factory. The attendance was large. In the chair was Mr. M. Burns, who placed his views very accurately before the meeting. Although no definite conclusion was reached, it is thought that the step meditated will be successful. The difficulty lies in the location. Some desire a site in the village, while the majority contend that the most preferable and central point would be a location about two and a half miles south of the village on the Galway road.

We are pleased to learn that Messrs. Wm. Peacock, Ralph Byrnes, John Coffey, Jno. Pearson and Robert Dalton have recently returned home.

Mr. Wm. Devlin, of Otonabee, was visiting friends here last week.

Miss J. Clouston was visiting friends in Kinmount.

Miss M. E. Flaherty is the guest of Mrs. R. Caid, of Summerville.

Mr. W. J. Torpey, teacher of No. 4, is going to spend his Easter vacation, visiting friends here.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Thos. McNamara and Mrs. Thos. Clarke, who have been seriously ill for the past few weeks, are fast recovering.

The manufacture of maple sugar and syrup is a favourite pursuit at this time of the year; but owing to the continual cold and unfavourable weather, not much progress has been made during this season.

COMMENDABLE PROMPTITUDE.

A Resident of St. John, N.B., Makes a Successful Trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. John, N.B., April 11.—Mr. Robert Moore residing in Indiantown, a suburb of this city, has recently made what is allowed by all who are acquainted with the facts to be a most remarkable recovery. He has been a sufferer from a serious complaint of the kidneys for over seven years, and during that time has suffered excruciatingly. He has also suffered considerably in pocket, having paid large sums for medical advice. Quite recently he happened to read of the many cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and with commendable promptitude made trial of them, with the result that after taking three boxes of the remedy he was entirely restored to health.

NORTH DOURO DOINGS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. Ephraim Towns of Brighton, is visiting his nephew, Mr. John Towns.

A great many of our boys have returned from spending a long and successful season in the lumbering camps of the far north. By their appearance we would judge that the hardships of shanty life had little or no effect on their brawny muscles.

Miss Lena Hayes has undergone a severe trial with a felon on her finger. It was at one time feared that amputation would be necessary but by constant vigilance the finger is saved, as the crisis has passed.

Mr. John Allen has purchased 473 sap buckets and an immense evaporator, through the agency of Flinn, Crow & Co., to operate in sugar-making in his two hundred acre maple bush in Harvey. He will benefit by the ripe experience of an old sugar-maker, Mr. John Crowley, and the public at large will be thereby guaranteed first-class sugar.

Our usually quiet neighbourhood was the scene of an amusing incident on one evening of last week. A young man of popularity was returning at a late hour from visiting his lady-love, and as the night was intensely dark, he bethought himself of calling on Mr. Martin McManus for his lantern, to light his way. He found it necessary to make unusually loud noise to awake his neighbour, and Mr. McManus, thinking he was attacked by a burglar, and being a prudent man, slipped out the back door and ran to secure the assistance of his nearest neighbour, Mr. H. P. Crowley. They returned, armed with a shot-gun and a lantern, and were met by the supposed desperado, in the person of their friend, who kindly requested the loan of the lantern.

Naturally fair complexions would be the rule rather than the exception, as unfortunately it is at present, if the ladies would wholly abandon cosmetics, and more generally keep the blood pure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only reliable blood-purifier.

ANOTHER SEALERY DISPUTE

Ottawa Opposes a Behring Sea Convention.

WILL STICK TO THE PARIS AWARD

Order in Council Passed Objecting to the International Convention as Prohibition of Pelagic Sealing Would Ruin the Industry for Canada

Ottawa, April 10.—As Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Hon. John Costigan has succeeded to the perplexities of the Behring Sea question at, perhaps, the most critical juncture in the negotiations, which Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper carried on with varied success from the decision of the Paris Arbitration to the recent protest against a renewal of the regulations for the present season. Mr. Costigan takes up the controversy upon an entirely new issue. For no sooner is the regulation protest despatched on its way to England than the Foreign Office forwards for the consideration of the Canadian Government the proposal of President Cleveland for the cessation practically of all sealing operations in the North Pacific Ocean. This is the phase of the question with which the new Minister of Marine is confronted.

Briefly put, the United States proposes joint action on the part of Great Britain, the United States, Russia and Japan to protect the seal herds from extinction. Pending enquiries by a commission to that end it is suggested that sealing in Behring Sea be prohibited, and the Paris regulations as to close season and the inhibition of firearms be extended over the entire waters north of the 35th parallel of latitude.

An Order-in-Council has just been passed embodying Canada's reply to those proposals. The document is now on its way to England, and in course of time will be sent to Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Ambassador at Washington, for transmission to the Government of the United States.

The Minister of Marine, when asked about it, declined to recite even the leading features of this state documment. From other sources, however, chiefly from a conversation with a prominent officer of the department, what may be regarded as the departmental view was ascertained.

"It is plain to me," said the gentleman in question, "that nothing short of the prohibition of pelagic sealing will satisfy the United States, and that is simply carrying out the idea of a proprietary interest in the seal herds—a contention which was wholly set aside by the finding of the Paris award, as it would confine operations to the islands which are leased by the United States.

"When a set of regulations was established by that tribunal, the United States Government was in a tremendous hurry to have them enforced. Great Britain was blamed for the slight delay that took place in bringing them into effect by imperial enactment, although, by the way, our neighbor has exhibited far less alacrity in carrying out its own obligations to compensate us for the illegal seizure of British ships and imprisonment of their crews. However, the cry was, 'Give us the regulations, for it was believed that these would put a stop to the Canadian sealing business.

"Well, the regulations prescribed by the award were given effect to by legislation that even increased their stringency. They were enforced during the season of 1894, and what was the result? The catch of seals by pelagic hunters that first year of the Paris regulations was about at least the largest in the whole history of the industry. Our neighbors awoke to the fact that the enforcement of the regulations did not mean death to pelagic sealing, and now they are clamoring for their rejection altogether. You must bear in mind that two-thirds of the catch of 1894 were fished in Japanese and Russian waters, which now the United States Government proposes should be placed under restriction. As for Behring Sea, the proposal is to prohibit sealing entirely—no, not entirely, for there is no suggestion of a stoppage of the slaughter on the islands—but to forbid pelagic sealing.

"Now," continued my informant, "observe what this means. At great expense, and by summoning to the settlement of an international dispute one of the most august tribunals of modern times, a decision was reached, among others, upon the measures necessary for the preservation of seal life. I contend that that question should never have been submitted at all with the question of right in controversy. However, it was included among the subjects for adjudication and was settled favorably to the contentions of the United States, at least so it was thought, and Great Britain also accepted the verdict. But now comes from the United States the astounding proposal that we ignore that decision altogether and resort to other measures than those imposed by the tribunal. Could any proposition be conceived more subversive of the principle of modern civilization embodied in the august procedure of international arbitration? It seems to me that simple courtesy to the several nations represented on that tribunal demands a more dignified treatment of its decisions.

"Hear Mr. Phelps' opinion upon this point: 'There can be no doubt that these recommendations are judicious and that a compliance with them would be most beneficial to the industry. They are made in the light of much evidence and unwearied investigation. A proper respect for the tribunal which has at great personal inconvenience rendered us so great a service would seem to require that these suggestions should be attended to.

"And so I still say," added the speaker, with some earnestness, "after a lapse of two years, let us pay that proper respect to the tribunal of loyalty, abiding the issue of its deliberations. Provision was made in the award for the revision or discontinuance of the regulations at the end of five years, if so desired. We are now in the second year of that period, and in consideration of the very facts set forth by Mr. Phelps, I think we should at least endure the conditions for the remainder of the term."

"The department, I gather, believes that Canada could not fail to get the worst of any international enactment regarding seal catching made by a convention respecting the four nations named in President Cleveland's proposal. Great Britain," the official said, "is the only nation whose citizens are necessarily confined to sealing in the open seas. Themselves, possessed of territorial rights which would enable their people to take seals on the breeding grounds, Russia and Japan would probably be only too glad to join the United States in putting an end to pelagic sealing."

The Department of Trade and Commerce has received advices of the arrival at Vancouver of the C.P.R. steamer Empress of Japan, bringing letters warning the quarantine officer at British Columbia quarantine station of an outbreak of genuine cholera in Southern Japan, with 10 deaths in 12 days, at the naval station of Moji. The disease was imported from China, and complaint is made that, while cholera is appearing at Hong Kong, an effort is being made to conceal the fact.

Everybody is talking to-day of the success of the banquet to the Newfoundland delegates last evening. Everybody is commending the civic committee for the excellent manner in which the details were carried out. While nothing was said as to the progress of negotiations the inference is drawn from the speeches that the entrance of the island into the Dominion is practically assured. It is simply a question of terms. This afternoon the eight gentlemen who are discussing the knotty problems involved in the proposed admission of the new province were again in conference, and were joined by His Excellency the Governor-General.

Reports received at the Fisheries Department from different hatcheries show that the work of hatching earlier-hatching varieties has been very successful. A splendid collection of eggs was obtained in the fall, and these have been carefully handled and hatched out earlier than usual, and the work of distributing the young fish is now in progress. The quantity of fry is larger than that of last year. It is worthy of remark that Americans had to come to Canada for supplies of eggs, and even where they have not asked permission to take eggs it is known that they have been procured in Canadian waters.

Inquiry at the Department of Trade and Commerce elicited the information that no intimation has been received from France as to the interpretation which that country puts upon the words "third power," in the Franco-Canadian treaty. As stated some days ago the British view has been received, and this being satisfactory to Canada the Government look to it that Canadian interests will be protected should the treaty go into effect and France raise the question as to what the words really mean.

An order in council has been passed awarding a binocular glass to Capt. J. J. Mehegan of the British sloop Glenwood and a gold watch to first mate J. E. Tripp of the same vessel for their gallant and courageous conduct in rescuing the shipwrecked crew of the schooner St. John of St. John, which was cast ashore in September last near Cape Hatteras.

Capt. Howard has reported to the Fisheries Department that undersized lobsters are being exported from Yarmouth. Hon. Mr. Costigan has given instructions to his officers to see that the law is strictly enforced.

A REPLY TO SENATOR MORGAN

Earl Kimberley Will Analyze the Senator's Statements in the Commons

London, April 11.—Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs Earl Kimberley will probaly lay before the House of Commons an elaborate reply to Senator Morgan's speech on the Behring Sea question. The reply is an analysis of Mr. Morgan's statements, prepared by Sir Julian Pauncefote, and shows that the statements are erroneous in many particulars, and unjust in their conclusions. It appears, it is said, that Mr. Morgan's statement that interest was added is erroneous, as no interest was included. It also shows that Mr. Morgan erred in stating that fictitious values had been put on some of the seals and carcasses seized. The total amount is declared to be only about one-half of a just and reasonable allowance, and to have been agreed to as a compromise, although they finally agreed to a reduction of their claims. The purpose of presenting the subject to Parliament is mainly to correct alleged misapprehensions created by Mr. Morgan's statements in the American Congress.

DEAR SIRS—During the winter of 1892-93, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it, and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B.B.B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say, it has never reappeared.

A WINNIPEG SCHOOL BURNED.

Together With the Nucleus of the Manitoba Natural History Museum

Winnipeg, Man., April 10.—The Mulvey School, one of Winnipeg's best school buildings, was totally destroyed by fire early this morning. The Provincial Government's natural history collection, which was to have been the nucleus of a Manitoba museum, was stored in an upper flat, and was entirely destroyed. Loss is nearly $50,000, with only $17,000 insurance. Several suspicious circumstances indicate that the fire was of incendiary origin.

Yesterday at the Conservative convention George H. Bradbury of Ottawa, who has been planning for a year or more to capture the nomination, was turned down in favor of Hugh Armstrong. Now Bradbury declares he will run any way, and the Conservatives are in a quandary.

Dog vs. Cock.

The town sports were all out in the suburbs last night, where in an impromptu pit a fight took place between a cock with steel spurs and a small dog. A number were in attendance from Hastings, Campbellford and Omemee, and considerable money was put up on the result. The cock was finally victorious driving the dog from the pit.

Indefinitely Postponed.

Mr. Jas. Tully, Noble Grand, of Otonabee Lodge, to-day received a letter from the Noble Grand of Lindsay Lodge indefinitely postponing the fraternal visit from the latter lodge which was to have taken place on Wednesday evening next. The members of Otonabee Lodge are greatly disappointed over the default and preparations had already been commenced for the entertainment of the visitors.

Easter Concert.

An Easter concert will be given on April 18th, in the Ashburnham Town Hall, under the auspices of the Girls' Guild of St. Luke's church. Amongst the attractions of a most excellent programme will be the presentation of the amateur theatricals known as "Cinderella" and "Bluebeard." A fancy drill with children's choruses and other accessories will also be given. The admission fee has been placed at fifteen cents. 1d Religion out of Doors.

A special short out-door Service will be held to-morrow afternoon on the grounds of the South Ward school, Sherbrooke street, by kind permission of the chairman of the school board. This enterprise has been arranged by the workers of St. John's Parish, but much help has been given from other sources, and the service is intended, not as a denominational effort, but as a general religious enterprise in harmony with the spirit of Good Friday. Christians of every name are invited to participate. No collection. Service will begin punctually at 4 p. m.

Hockey Club Concert.

The concert to be given under the auspices of the Hockey Club, on Thursday evening next, promises to be a great success. Miss Pauline Johnston, the Indian poetess and elocutionist, accompanied by Mr. Owen E. Smiley, humourist and musical monologue specialist, are the attractions for the evening and will furnish the programme, which will assuredly be the most refined and entertaining of the season. The concert will, without doubt, receive the hearty patronage of the public. 2td

THE SITUATION AT THE ELECTRIC WORKS.

ABOUT 250 EMPLOYEES NOT AT WORK.

About 250 Employees of the Electric Works Decline to Sign an Agreement—In Consequence They Have "Got Their Time."—A Summary of the Circumstances.

A rather serious condition of things exists at the works of the Canadian General Electric Company this afternoon. Of about 350 hands usually at work only about 100 are at their places in the several departments this afternoon. It is somewhat difficult to select a word to describe the situation. It is hardly proper to call it a strike on the part of the hands, nor is it exactly a lock-out.

The circumstances are these. This morning, according to instructions from the head offices, cards were distributed for signing amongst the employees.

THE NATURE OF THE DOCUMENT was an agreement to the effect that the workman was to agree to have the amount of any damage or waste of material due to him or her deducted from the wages due, and in the event of not sufficient wages being due to satisfy the amount of damage done, the workman was to hold himself responsible in respect of future earnings.

While a few signed this card, the larger number refused. These include, it is understood, the majority of the skilled workmen, numbering among them employees that have been in the service of the company for years—who came to Peterborough from Sherbrooke. The the card of agreement referred to were given the option of signing during the noon hour, or of being refused admission at the works at one o'clock. The result is that this afternoon there are only a little over 100, out of about 350, at work, chiefly girls and lads. A considerable proportion of those out are skilled workingmen—machinists, lathe workers, tool makers, brass finishers, etc. If the men hold out the managers do not expect very much trouble in supplying their places within a reasonable period. The company took the action decided upon, it is understood, for the reasonable protection of their interests. By the carelessness of a workman a valuable article or piece of material may be destroyed, and the desire is to fix the responsibility on the careless workman, and place a premium on careful attention to duty.

THE EMPLOYEES' VIEWS.

The workmen who have received cards of dismissal for specified cause—"refused to sign card," claim that the conditions required by the card are such as the most careful workman cannot accept. Some of them claim that with the greatest care accidents would happen that would represent loss in value of material equal to a month's wages, and that it is impossible for them to accept employment at the works on the conditions required by the card.

SOME OF THE MEN DENY

that there are any employed at the works this afternoon, but information comes from another source that the number stated above are at work. At present the company and its late employees are wide apart The co'y do not, it is said, anticipate very great difficulty in procuring men to take the places of these that have retired or been retired, but it remains to be seen whether the new workmen will, if required, as they probably will be, agree to the terms which their late employees refused to accept.

The EXAMINER is not in a position to decide as to the merits of the case of either party to the present disagreement, but there is no doubt that for the company, for the employees, and if the present condition of affairs should continue, for the town.

The company has considerable work on its order books which will necessarily be delayed at the best, the men, many of them in receipt of good wages and steady employment, will find the cessation of their income a matter of serious inconvenience to themselves and their families, while the town at large, especially the business portion, will miss the withdrawal—for a short time, of a wage bill that amounts to between $8,000 and $10,000 a month.

The matter has been dealt in the light of the most reliable information that can be gathered from both sources, and it is possible that a few days may make important modifications in the situation, which is an unfortunate one from any point of view.

THE EXAMINER has been asked to print the card which the employees were required to sign; but it seems inadvisable to take any action which would tend to interefere with a readjustment of the difficulties between the company and the employees, which it is hoped may yet be reached.

HOLY THURSDAY AT ST. PETER'S.

Pontifical High Mass Celebrated—Blessing of the Holy Oils—Procession of the Host—Services for Good Friday and Holy Saturday.

The solemn festival of Holy Thursday was fittingly observed at St. Peter's Cathedral this morning. His Lordship Bishop O'Connor at 8.30 sang solemn Pontifical mass in the presence of many of the visiting clergy of the diocese and of a large congregation. His Lordship was assisted by V. Rev. Vicar-General Laurent, Lindsay, assistant priest, Rev. Father Scollard, deacon, and Rev. Father McColl, Ennismore, sub-deacon. At this annual service the holy oils used at the administration of the holy sacrament, are blessed by the Bishop. Immediately after the mass the blessed sacrament was borne in solemn procession to the chapel of the Cathedral, and reverently placed in the repository, where it rests till Good Friday, when it is borne back to the high altar in the church when the mass of the pre-sanctified is sung.

The Good Friday ceremonies begin at 9 a.m., and these include the mass of the Pre-sanctified. In the evening at 7.30 the Stations of the Cross will be sung, and a sermon on the Passion of our Lord will be preached by Ven. Archdeacon Casey.

On Holy Saturday at 7 a.m. will begin the ceremony of blessing the Easter Water and the Paschal Candle, followed by mass at 8.30.

The visiting diocesan clergy at this morning's services were Very Rev. Vicar General Laurent, Lindsay; Rev. Father Conway, Norwood; Rev. Father Connolly, Campbellford; Rev. Father Nolan, Fenelon Falls; Rev. Father McColl, Ennismore.; and Rev. Father McCloskey, Brighton.

The repository of the Blessed Sacrament mentioned above is represented by the altar recess in the chapel, which has been most elaborately and beautifully decorated by the sisters of the Congregation de Notre Dame. A brilliant blaze of light gleams on banks and mounds of blooming flowers disposed with most artistic effect; the coup d'œil is strikingly effective, and reflects the greatest credit upon the taste and skill of the good sisters, whose success is accounted for, perhaps, by the fact that their hearts and souls were in the pious work of providing a fitting resting place for the sacred and supreme emblem of the passion and death of our blessed Lord.

FAIR PLAY IN TRADE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—As a business citizen, whose interests are entirely in Peterborough, I am naturally anxious that both my own interests and those of the business community generally, which are dependent one upon the other, should be protected. I am a firm believer in business fair play—believe that a citizen who has his capital and energies employed in a business to meet the wants of the community, has a first claim upon the patronage and support of all other citizens similarly situated—in a word, a man who makes his money out of the citizens of Peterborough is under obligations to spend his money with the citizens of Peterborough.

I write in reference to the operations of a stranger in town, who is engaged, I understand, in taking photographs, ostensibly to illustrate a proposed "Souvenir of Peterborough."

A person representing himself as connected with this undertaking asked permission to take a flash light photograph of the Golden Lion. I was busy at the time and did not pay much attention to the explanations given, but gave the desired permission on the distinct understanding that that there was to be no money involved and that the picture was to form a part of the proposed "souvenir." I felt that it was proper enough not to throw difficulties in the way of a suggested undertaking calculated to advertise the business resources and beauties of Peterborough. But a breach of the understanding followed. I was greatly annoyed to learn that the following day the operator in question brought around copies of the photograph of my premises and solicited purchases from the members of the staff of the Golden Lion, endeavouring to secure money that should go to local photographers and which I never intended should be diverted from their pockets, as I only gave the permission to photograph the Golden Lion to procure a picture for the 'souvenir.' We have several first class local photographers who could have done the work as well, and perhaps better, and if I had thought that the object was to obtain photographs, with a view of disposing of them personally to members of my staff, I should most certainly have withheld my permission. Our local photographers are our fellow citizens, pay taxes, and have an interest in the progress of the town beyond that of merely making money out of it; and, as they spend their money in town, they are entitled to the business support of the citizens. I would urge upon all my fellow business men and citizens who wish photographs of their residences or business premises to patronize home artists, because it is the fair and square thing to deal with those who deal with us. If the pictures in question were intended alone for "souvenir," well enough; but the action taken to sell copies personally afterward is reprehensible, and I hope others will not permit the improper advantage that was taken in the case cited.

Yours very truly,
ROBERT FAIR,
"Golden Lion."

THE HIGH CHIEF RANGER IN TOWN.

AN EVENT IN LOCAL CANADIAN FORESTRIC CIRCLES.

Court Littlejohn Does the Honours—To-night a General Reception Will be Tendered to Which Invitations Have Been Issued.

Mr. C. E. Britton, High Chief Ranger of the Canadian Order of Foresters, who will be tendered a reception this evening in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street, arrived in town last evening and was met at the station by Messrs H. Nesbitt, F. J. Jamieson, D. S. Harvie and A. L. Rundle.

The visiting official was driven to the Oriental Hotel and from thence proceeded to the Foresters' Hall, where Court Little John was in session and where Mr. W. Kemp, C.R., of the Court, read the following address:

C. E. Britton, Esq., High Chief Ranger, High Court C. O. F.

BRO. BRITTON,—On behalf of the officers and members of Court Littlejohn, No. 92, I give you a most hearty and cordial welcome to our Forest Home.

I assure you we esteem it not only a source of unalloyed pleasure but a special mark of favour to be honoured with your presence among us; and we cannot help being conscious of a sense of pride at being permitted to accord you the freedom of our Court room while you remain our distinguished guest for a short time this evening.

We desire to avail ourselves of this our first opportunity of personally congratulating you upon your promotion to the highest office in the gift of our Order.

We hope the Supreme Ruler of the universe may permit you a long life to occupy positions of usefulness, and that our Order may continue to enjoy the benefit of your ripe experience in the pursuit of our philanthropic work for many years to come.

The members of Court Littlejohn cannot but regard with satisfaction and pleasure the bestowal of the various High Court honours upon the Courts in Peterborough and vicinity by the selection of their members from year to year for official positions in High Court. It helps to keep Peterborough Foresters in closer touch with all matters appertaining to High Court.

As the members of this Court are to enjoy the further pleasure of seeing you again to-morrow evening, and assisting in the joint reception to be tendered you by all the local Courts, we have to refrain from further allusions, which we have been advised come more properly under the scope of the Joint Committee.

I have now much pleasure in inviting you and the High Court Officers who accompany you to a seat of honour.

The High Chief Ranger made a few practical remarks in reply to the address, upon the workings of the order and the duties of the individual members toward building it up. The advice given was sound and of a nature to command the closest attention on the part of the members in attendance.

One point in particular upon which the High Chief Ranger dwelt most strongly was the cautioning of the members with regard to looking closely after the physical requirements called for in the application for membership. Sympathy or friendship would often incline members to admit an applicant into the order, whose physical condition should debar him from membership. Reflection would convince the members, he was sure, that if this order of procedure was followed in all the courts, the present great strength of the order would be speedily undermined.

The steady growth of Canadian Forestry, he said, was a source of much gratification to the High Court officers. There had been no boom, but a gradual and steady increase in membership, which spoke volumes for the confidence it was obtaining with the public.

As an organizer, Mr. Britton thought that Mr. H. Nesbitt was deserving of the highest praise. Through his efforts Peterborough had become the centre of a district through which were scattered most prosperous courts.

A few words of praise and encouragement were given to the members of the Juvenile Order, after which those assembled adjourned to the dining room, where a most appetising repast was served.

To-day Mr. Britton is being shown through the manufacturing and other industries of the town by the members of the Reception Committee, and during the morning dropped into the EXAMINER sanctum for a pleasant chat.

THE WHEEL.

It is quite probable that at the session of the Canadian Wheelmen's Parliament, which is now almost here, instead of defining the two classes by the first two letters of the alphabet, a straight out-and-out division into amateur and professional will be decided on. As it is only a question of definition, and not of principle, opposition to the idea as here promulgated ought not to be general. The A and B classes are only a makeshift, and will have by this time next year been superseded in the United States, and if the C.W.A. decide to adopt the amateur-professional division, without any beating around the bush, it would likely force our neighbours to the south to fall into line. Mr. R. A. Robertson, the able and energetic Chairman of the Racing Board, will be surprised at the number of supporters in this matter that he has in Toronto. His own influence itself will have great weight, for he is quite "up to date" and wanted last year the division that everybody sees must come in some form this year.

The coming meeting of the C. W. A. is fraught with great import to the wheelmen of Canada, and it is right that when matters which will affect the future of cycling so materially are on the tapis for adjustment fair and impartial hearing be accorded to all persons who have something on their minds. This remark is prompted by the fact that in the excitement of the "meet" campaign there is great danger that affairs which are of more moment than even that will be lost sight of in the shuffle, or carried or squelched before a proper presentment of the arguments pro or con is heard.

To-days Mail and Empire contains the following racy skit on the contest for the meet:—

"In the race for the C. W. A. meet all other competitors are distanced by Waterloo and Peterborough. Waterloo went to the post a favourite, and easily showed the way to the quarter pole, where Peterborough came out of the bunch and joined in the hunt. Waterloo set the pace to the half, but Peterborough, drawing in alongside, hugged the leader like a phantom shadow, and was growing more dangerous at every stride. To the three-quarters they came thundering and panting and fuming, lighting around the turn together, and straightening with the stretch neck and neck. And now the two of them are into the stretch with only a dash between them and victory. One moment Jockey Horkins' whip is in air, and under the lash Peterborough's nose shoots to the front; the next moment Jockey Rip uses the goad, and old Waterloo's ears are pricked out three inches in advance of his terrible rival. So they go to the wire, whips lashing, flanks foaming, nostrils distended, [illegible] a hurricane of entreaties, a mountain-tide of waving hats, sticks and umbrellas. Which wins? It is for the judges to say; it is for the magnates who meet to-morrow to decide. One who stands near the judges' stand fancies that at half a stride from the wire one noble charger has an advantage of half a head. Which is it, Waterloo or Peterborough?

The Toronto News has evidently "got it in" for Peterborough for some reason or other, and is taking Waterloo's side of the argument for the C.W.A. meet. The News says:

"Canadian wheelmen all over the country are much amused at the struggle between Peterborough and the Waterloo-Berlin combination over this year's C.W.A. meet. Either town have any number of reasons to offer why they should get the call, and from either end come alleged valid reasons why the other should not get it. This contest may be considered by some to be a great medium for advertising the respective towns, but it is doubtful if this is the fact, as whatever good is said of one place is besmeared with mud by the other. There is no question that first-rate sportsmen are behind the movement in either of the opposing towns, but some of the arguments that are being used by both parties to convince wheelmen generally of their superior claims sound too silly for anything. For instance, Peterborough says: "We have the fastest track in Canada. We started nineteen competitors in one race last year and not an accident occurred." And Waterloo retorts by saying that the Peterborough club could easily start a hundred riders on the same track if they chose, as they have nothing but a common every day trotting course to offer the wheelmen. Then Peterborough goes on to point out that she has 27 hotels, which will accommodate 4,000 people, and Waterloo supporters come back quickly and say: "Yes, if you put them on the bunk and steerage plan, but we intend that the wheelmen shall have first-class passage when they come here." Peterborough also claims that Berlin and Waterloo combined have only 14 hotels, which is rank absurdity, as the twin towns have just as good hotel accommodation as any large town in the province. There appears to be little choice between the two places, but wheelmen are assured of a right royal time, no matter which side gets the majority of the votes on Good Friday."

The News, it will be seen, states that it is silly to say that Peterborough has the fastest and safest track in the province. Mr. G. H. Orr's word that the track is fast will carry more weight, as official timer for the C. W. A. than that of the News and that the track is safe is proven by the fact that there were no accidents on it at last year's meet, while at Waterloo, in one race alone, five men fell over the banking and had to be carried off the track. Several of them have never ridden a wheel since.

The News says again, that it is rank absurdity to say that Waterloo and Berlin together have only 14 hotels, while Peterborough has 27. It may be absurd that the two towns only have 14 hotels, but there is no absurdity in saying so, as a glance into the directory is all that is needed to prove the fact. Then, besides, of these 14 hotels there is only one first-class one in the lot.

The News, by advocating Waterloo's claim in this fashion, has worked itself great injury in Peterborough.

LACROSSE.

The Edison lacrosse players met at the Grand Central hotel last night and organized for the season. The following officers were elected:—

Honourary President—D. Elliott.
Honourary Vice-President—E. Good.
President—R. Layfield.
Vice-President—J. V. Hedenbergh.
Secretary—W. Sawyer.
Treasurer—F. Adams.
Captain—W. Tanner.
Field Captain—R. J. Hillier.
Committee—W. A. Moore, J. A. Hicks, W. McMahon.

Secretary McConaghy, of the O.L.A., yesterday emphatically denied the statement that there was any conniving between himself and President MacFadden to pack the O.L.A. at Stratford to-morrow for purposes of their own. He said that it was quite customary for clubs at a distance to have some one who could not conveniently attend the meeting to represent them. He was willing to assist in securing representatives for distant clubs for the simple reason that he desired to make the convention as large and representative as possible.

NEWFOUNDLAND'S WEALTH

Hon. R. Bond on the Island's Natural Resources.

THE COLONY IS NOT BANKRUPT.

The Visiting Delegates Dined by the City of Ottawa—Lord Aberdeen and Members of the Cabinet Present—The Soo Canal to Open Next Month

Ottawa, April 10.—The citizens' banquet to the visiting delegates from Newfoundland in the Russell House last night was one of the most brilliant social gatherings ever held at the Capital. About 150 guests sat down under the presidency of Mayor Borthwick. Among the guests present, in addition to Messrs. Bond, Morris, Emerson and Horwood, from Newfoundland, were the Governor-General, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir A. P. Caron, Messrs. Haggart, R. N. Scott, Costigan, Curran and Wood, Judge MacMahon and others. The dining-room had been magnificently decorated with flags, bunting and shields, and presented a very pretty appearance. The menu was specially appropriate, and was surmounted with the coat of arms of the ancient colony. The usual loyal toasts were enthusiastically drunk.

In replying to the toast of his health, which was proposed by the chair, Lord Aberdeen said that the occasion on which they were gathered was highly commendable. As neighbors and fellow-colonists, if he might use the term, it was proper that they should give the delegates a hearty welcome to the city. As to confederation, he said that no doubt very soon a satisfactory solution would be arrived at. That was about all that he could say in regard to the subject, which was still under consideration. It was proper that we should entertain strangers, but more especially those strangers whom we expected some day to be part of our own kith and kin, as in the present case. (Cheers.)

Sir James Grant, in proposing the toast of "Our Guests," said that Newfoundland occupied the same position in the mouth of the St. Lawrence as Gibraltar did in the Mediterranean, and therefore the importance of its becoming part of Canada was apparent. He spoke of the value of the Newfoundland fisheries, and added that there was no time when Canada was looking forward so anxiously for confederation with the island as at present. Union was absolutely necessary for the maintenance of the power and prestige of the empire, as Newfoundland was one of the links which connected that chain between England and India. (Cheers.)

Hon. Robert Bond, in reply, said that it was not the first time that he had been the recipient of princely hospitality at the hands of the people of Canada. He referred to the time when he met Sir John Thompson and the other Canadian delegates at Halifax in 1892, and afterwards touched upon the generosity of Canada when hardship and destruction overtook the Island. The great generosity of that occasion did away with the innumerable transgressions of which Canada had been guilty towards Newfoundland.—(Laughter)— for it must be remembered that Newfoundland had its grievances against Canada, and Canada its grievances against Newfoundland. But there never was a better prospect of establishing peace with honor than there was at present.

As to the question of union, he said that 37 years ago, in 1858, when the Government of Canada asked the different provinces to meet, with a view of Confederation, Newfoundland was the only one to respond at that time. He said there must be something radically wrong somewhere when she is the last to remain outside. Was the cause due to Canada or the unreasonableness of Newfoundland? Between the two countries there was a great gulf, and consequently very erroneous opinions were held about Newfoundland. He might tell them that Newfoundland was only two and a half hours' sail from Canada. With Canada the Island was connected by electricity.

He would like to give some idea of the extent and wealth of the Island. Newfoundland covered 42,000 square miles. It was equal to the size of Denmark, Norway and Sweden. Its position at the mouth of the St. Lawrence made it the key for England to its North American possessions. Being within three days' steam of England, it was the natural terminus. Along the 2000 miles of coast line of Newfoundland there were some of the finest harbors in the world. Then there were the bait fisheries, without which neither the United States nor the Canadian fisheries could be prosecuted. There were engaged in the fisheries some 36,000 fishermen. England owed her strength to the navy, and Newfoundland was the nursery for her seamen. The value of the fisheries annually was $6,700,000. It ought also to be remembered that they were but partially developed and unprotected.

There were 6000 square miles of white pine and the output of the forests this year was valued at $300,000. This industry was but comparatively new. It was only about nine years ago since lumber was first exported.

Then there were 3700 square miles of mineral land untested. In mines already in operation there were $5,250,000 invested. This was the result of random discoveries along the coast lines. Up to a very recent date there were no connections between the coast line and the interior. A large coal area had been retained in the hands of the Government. This would be an inducement to the ministers to win over the island to Confederation, because, as he understood, a large part of the coal fields of Canada had been given over to an American syndicate.

The fourth largest exports to any country from Canada were sent to Newfoundland, and still there was only a population of 207,000 people.

He had heard great tales as to the debt of Newfoundland. It was only in the neighborhood of $10,000,000 and that included the cost of its railways up to the present time. There were also drydocks and a municipal debt of $1,250,000 included in these figures. The fact was that Newfoundland had assets for all its liabilities. There was no truth in the story of the Island being bankrupt. When the crash came there were $4,500,000 deposits in the banks, or about $20 per head. Newfoundland also had a dependency four times the size of herself. On the Labrador coast she had possessions of 140,000 square miles. The timber land was of great value. The hanging up of the convention, which they had succeeded in making with the United States, had prevented the opening up of markets, which helped to bring on the financial troubles on the Island.

Newfoundland was not knocking at the door of the Dominion, but was merely taking advantage of that invitation which was open to them for the past 28 years to come in and join confederation. They were in Ottawa anxious to know what the Dominion was to do for them. If Canada would do for Newfoundland what would enable her to stand the storms of the future, then she would join the Dominion. (Cheers.) Not only would she join the Dominion, but would aid in building up a structure bound together with bonds of patriotism and adding lustre and prestige to the empire of which she is a part. The empire at present comprises one-fifth of the globe, and of which Canada then would form one-half. (Cheers.)

Messrs. Morris, Emerson and Horwood also replied, each of them expressing the hope that union would be the result of the conference now going on between both countries.

Mr. Joseph Kavanagh proposed the toast of the Parliament of Canada. Sir Mackenzie Bowell was the first to reply. He spoke of the parliament as being second to none, not even the Imperial House. Referring to the time when Confederation of the Dominion took place, he said that all political parties forgot their differences, even their quarrels about Separate schools, to accomplish that great work. He trusted that the result of the conference would be to establish satisfactory terms of union.

Sir Adolphe Caron and Hon. R. W. Scott also spoke to the toast.

Mr. Sandford Fleming proposed Trade and Commerce, and Hon. Mr. Haggart replied, stating that if confederation was not brought about, the fault would not be with Canada. His Excellency proposed a vote of thanks to the chairman, which closed the proceedings.

It is expected that the Sault Canal will be available for the passage of vessels of 14-foot draft the first week in May. There is a little cleaning up to be done at both the eastern and western entrances, and a week later it is anticipated that the largest sized craft on the lakes will be in a position to pass through the canal. The Minister of Railways and Canals has taken a deep interest in the utilization of electricity for opening and closing the lock gates. The system was tested on the Beauharnois locks last year, and naturally there is a desire that it should be successful on the new canal.

The Newfoundland conference was in session this morning, but there was no meeting in the afternoon.

The inland revenue accrued last month amounted to $501,024. In the same month last year it exceeded a million, owing to a scare paragraph in the newspapers that the government intended increasing the excise tax on whisky, which led to a rush to release a large quantity of spirits from bond.

Mr. Kemp, oyster expert of the Fisheries Department, leaves for the Maritime Provinces at the end of this week, going first to Tracadie, N.S., where an oyster bed was cleaned up last year. Mr. Kemp purposes to plant it with young oysters this spring and then proceed to some other location to continue the work of oyster cultivation.

Dr. Wakeham, International Fishery Commissioner, has just received a communication from Mr. Rathbone, his colleague, proposing that the work of the commission shall be resumed early next month. Dr. Wakeham has acquiesced, and the two gentlemen will likely spend the whole of May on the Coast of Nova Scotia inquiring into the condition of the shore mackerel fishery. From there they will go west to the Pacific Coast.

Argument upon evidence adduced before Referee L. A. Audette took place this afternoon, Mr. Hogg, Q.C., representing the Crown and Mr. Guerin of Montreal representing the suppliant in the case of Mrs. Catherine O'Connell v. The Queen. This case arose out of an accident during the construction of the famous Cascan bridge at Montreal, whereby the husband of the petitioner was killed. Mrs. O'Connell filed a petition of right claiming damages against the Crown in an amount of $10,000, and upon motion the case was referred to the registrar of the court for enquiry and report as to the cause of the accident and the damages. Reference was commenced at Montreal on June 8 and 9, 1894. The petition of right of James Owens for $5000 for the death of his son arising out of the same accident, by agreement, has been made to depend on the result of the O'Connell case.

READING THE HUMAN FACE.

How to Trace in its Lineaments Intellectual Characteristics.

As the varying emotions of life are written upon our plastic faces, the dermatologist, in examining and treating so many facial blemishes and irregularities, becomes skilled in reading the character as expressed in the lines of the face. Thus the horizontal lines seen upon the forehead are produced by mental anxiety, the worry and fret of life. They indicate a tendency to nervous anxiety, and are wholly opposed to the serenity of unruffled brows. If the upper part of the forehead is intersected with conspicuous lines, especially if they are circular, arched wrinkles, while the under part of the brow is smooth, the subject is certainly droll and stupid, and almost incapable of any abstraction.

Benevolence is indicated by short horizontal lines just above the roof of the nose. When found just below the roof of the nose they show one used to exercise authority, especially when it takes the form of forbidding.

Noses which easily and continually turn up in wrinkles are seldom to be found in truly good men.

A single vertical wrinkle between the eyebrows shows strict honesty in money matters. A disposition to require justice in others is shown by two wrinkles each side of the first. Wrinkles outward from these show conscientiousness.

These lines are often marked in those deeply absorbed in business, in thinkers, writers and inventors; and with straight lowered brows indicate strong concentration of purpose, long and hard thinking, absorption in affairs. The lines raying outward from the eyes show capacity of employment as well as the two deep furrows forming the mouth by the upper lip; they are the penalty we pay for mirth and for the future channel of the tear.

Clearness on the power of perceiving and expressing truth clearly, especially when the lines turn outward from the nose to the cheek. These lines are deepened when pleasurable sensations draw back the upper lip, or it is extended by laughter, therefore they indicate capacity for such sensations.

Scorn forms a transerve line between the lower lip and the end of the chin, the under lip is pushed outward, the chin rises upward.

The close-shut mouth, with downward lines at the angles tells of a miser, deaf to the cries of human needs.

Hospitality marks the face with irregular curved lines not far from the outer angles of the month—when they are pronounced a warm welcome is given the stranger within the gates. Economy broadens the nose, making it rather short and thick above the nostrils; it gives in age a broad double chin.

The wrinkle extending from the side of the nostrils toward the end of the mouth is one of the most significant. On its obliquity, its length, its nearness to or distance from the mouth depends the evidence of the whole character. If it is curved without gradation or undulation it is a certain sign of stupidity. Also when the extremity joins without an interval the ends of the lips as well as when it is at a great distance from the ends of the lips.

A masculine character is shown by straight eyebrows; arched eyebrows show a feminine character. When this is accompanied by a round, open eye, one sees much but reflects little. One often finds this type among curious children before reason has developed but while memory is active.

The pug or retrousse nose shows a quick, pert and saucy nature, one quick to take offense, while the aquiline nose indicates a mild, prepossessing, sensitive and loving disposition.

The month, ears, eyes, all are affected by the mind and reveal the higher or lower tendency of the character as faithfully as the looking glass reflects the objects before it.

The skilled dermatologist can do much to develope the desirable lines and features of the face and can remove most of the objectionable ones, but it remains with the individual to remove the cause of objectionable features by adopting a higher moral plane of thought and action.

Intermittent Drinking.

There would be little use in my describing what I believe to be the cause and the course of intermittent drinking, unless I set forth my experience as to the various methods in use to check or cure the disease. It may be asked, "Has not a man a will power, and can he not of his own volition abstain from what he knows to be simply self-destruction?" My answer, unhappily, must be that a man who has once fairly fallen into the drink habit, whether constant or intermittent, has scarcely any will power while that fit is on him, and, as I have said, each fit leaves his will feebler and less able to withstand the temptation of a sedative of which he has proved the power, and of which he is too prone to forget the danger.

The intermittent drinker, as soon as he has abstained for a few weeks, forgets the disastrous effects of his attack. He believes himself as temperate and discreet a man as any of his friends who takes his pint bottle of claret at dinner and seldom takes more. He does not see why he should not do likewise. It is the hardest thing to convince an intermittent drunkard, who is able to abstain for a period, that he can never by any chance become a moderate drinker. Nevertheless, the principle of his drinking is distinct from that of a moderate man. If he tries to return to his two or three glasses of claret he is absolutely certain to go on to his secret "nip" of brandy or of whiskey, and his "nips" will increase and he will find himself back again in the old road to ruin. That patient, if he really wants to be cured, must clearly make up his mind that it must be total abstinence or self-destruction—gradual, perhaps, but not the less sure.

What John Wanamaker, the Most Heavily Insured man in America, Says:

(INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WANAMAKER)

It is very generally known that Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries the largest amount of Life Insurance of any man in the United States. A representative of the press recently interviewed this gentleman while he was travelling with the Presidential party, and this interview will be found, we believe, of general interest:—

"You are said to be the most heavily insured man in the country, Mr. Wanamaker," remarked the press representative.

"How did you come to think of that?" he said with a smile. "You are not looking for any disaster under such excellent management as our friend Boyd is giving this train and party?"

"No," I replied. "A newspaper friend in San Francisco, who had heard the report, wanted me to ask you it it was true, and if so, what your business reasons are for it?"

"Well," he modestly answered, "I have heard it stated that I am the most heavily insured man in the country. I don't know about that. The amount of my policies is $1,550,000, and the value, with the accumulations since the policies were taken out, is about two millions of dollars."

"In what class of companies are your policies?"

"They are all in stock and mutual companies, and none of them in what are known as assessment or instalment companies."

"Are they full life term policies or on what is termed the 'tontine' plan?"

"I have generally taken ten and fifteen payment policies and very few life policies. With about all good companies a contract can now be made whereby there is no risk of losing a policy after two years' premiums have been paid. If the party insured chooses to withdraw he can get a paid-up policy. Indeed, I understand that some companies have forms whereby the insurer can after one year, if desired, withdraw and receive a paid-up policy. There is practically little risk, any more, in insuring in the old companies."

"Perhaps you would be willing to tell me how you came to insure so heavily?"

"I thought the matter out, and convinced myself that it was a good business venture. Besides, it seemed to me that I might, perhaps, give away more money in lifetime if there was a fixed certainty of putting it back into my estate by Life Insurance. I conceive that the best way for a man to carry on benevolence is not to leave it to be done through his will, but to do it in his lifetime, and I felt that Life Insurance would give me more freedom in carrying out some plans I have, and which I would be glad to see completed before I leave this world. If you want to ascertain what the circumstances were in placing the Life Insurance, I must go further in my answers and say that I should not have gone so far in my Life Insurance but for the skill of the agent who tackled me to insure to a greater extent than I would otherwise have done. He was an old friend who had been in mercantile business and who knew how to present Life Insurance without boring me. I feel to-day sincerely grateful to the man who followed me so discreetly with information about companies, and who kept the subject before me until I settled the question."

"When did you begin taking Life Insurance policies?"

"My first policy was taken when I was twenty-one."

"Do you consider it a good thing for a man of small means?"

"I certainly do. Most young men spend more for cigars during the year than the annual cost of a $2,500 policy in a good company. If they must have the cigars they might divide between cigars and Life Insurance and carry at least a $1,000 policy. I think every young man, before he is married, ought to try to get at least a $1,000 policy."

"Among how many companies are your policies divided, and where are they located?

"About forty companies. Most of them are located in the East. A few are in the West and a few in Canada."

"Do you recommend Life Insurance to others, especially those in whom you feel a personal interest?"

"I can perhaps answer that best by saying that I presented a few years ago a $1,000 policy, paid up for one year, to every insurable head of family in my employ. Many of the prudent men who received them not only kept them but added to them, and I have the satisfaction of knowing that in not a few cases those policies have been the means of saving worthy families from want."

It will doubtless be of interest to our readers to know that John Wanamaker carries a large policy in the Canada Life Insurance Company, thus evincing his confidence in the soundness of Canada's oldest and largest Company. During the last few years quite a number of American capitalists have been convinced of the SUPERIOR MERITS OF THE CANADA LIFE, and have accordingly placed their insurance therein, in preference to any other company.

The Canada Life is now being recognized in the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio as the Company that gives the best results for the least premium.

WITH POISON AND PISTOL.

An Unusual Number of Victims of Suicidal Mania Reported Yesterday.

Buffalo, April 9.—There is more than the usual display of spring suicides in Western New York. To-day's budget of suicides and other fatalities is as follows:

Rich, who tried the laudanum route at the Falls yesterday, died this morning. John Call went into an unoccupied house which he owned in Batavia, and was found last night suspended from a hook in the ceiling. He had been dead several hours.

Judson Spring of Lockport, who shot himself just below the heart Saturday, March 30, and who despite his protests the doctors had brought around to a fair recovery, started out for a jag Saturday night, and to-day inflammation set in and he is dying.

A Polack named Yanski shot a fellow-countryman named Babitsi last night because a pretty barmaid with whom he was in love trusted Babitsi for a round of drinks. Yanski is locked up on a charge of attempted murder.

Carpenter Wisewell of Nunda fell from a scaffold to the ground, a distance of 14 feet, and received injuries from which he died in a few hours.

Nine-year-old Willie Knight was with his parents in a woods near Attica making maple sugar, when he fell into a kettle of boiling syrup and was so badly scalded that he died in a few hours.

A work train, on which were a number of Italians, descending a small mountain near Hornellsville yesterday, jumped the track. One man was killed outright, two more badly injured and nearly every one of the rest of the crew was injured.

Shot Himself in the Stomach.

Montreal, April 9.—Arthur Gelinas, a traveler for Mongenais, Boivin & Co., and a son-in-law of Mr. Boivin, shot himself in the stomach in the Richelieu Hotel about 3 o'clock to-day, and is lying in a dangerous condition at the Notre Dame Hospital. The only reason that can be assigned is that he has been used to living expensively, and his income has been reduced recently. He has two young children.

Discrimination on British Railways.

London, April 11.—The Railway Commission, which on March 8 heard an appeal on the Traders' Association, with a view of preventing the London and Southwestern Railway Company from carrying American and Canadian products between Southampton and London, at cheaper rates than those charged for the transportation of home products, rendered its decision to-day. The commission decided in favor of the railway, except in the matter of its carrying hops, hay and fresh meats, in regard to which products the appeal of the Traders' Association was sustained.

Our Horses in Scotland.

London, April 10.—The Scotch newspapers comment very favorably on the report made by A. R. Angers, Canadian Minister of Agriculture, regarding the restriction upon the importation of Canadian cattle. Herbert Gardner, President of the Board of Agriculture, is understood to be studying the report. As yet he has given no sign of the effect it may have upon his policy.

In the last week several newspapers have directed attention to the growing favor in which Canadian horses are held here. The omnibus and van companies, however, report that they have found several cases of septic pneumonia among the horses recently brought over. They suggest that the vessels in which the horses are imported be more carefully disinfected.

Suicide of a Farmer.

Dunham, Que., April 11.—George Laraway, a well-to-do farmer, living three miles from this village, suicided by hanging.

Laid Down to Die With Her Babe

New London, Conn., April 11.—An unknown woman and baby were killed at Mystic to-day by an express over the Providence road from Boston. As the train neared Mystic station the woman with the child in her arms lay down on the track.

Cuban Insurgents Defeated

Havana, April 9.—The Governor of Puerto Principe reports that a band of Insurgents numbering 48 men, moving westward, was attacked by the Government troops in the vicinity of San Miguel and Baga. The leader of the band was killed, and a number of his followers were wounded. One of the band was taken prisoner and the rest fled toward the River Cauto. Gen La Chambre reports that a Government reconnoitering party to-day met a band of insurgents who had landed at Duaba. The troops attacked the insurgents, taking three prisoners. The rest of the band fled, and are being closely pursued.

Eloped With His Sister-in-Law.

London, Ont., April 10.—The meanest kind of elopement is reported from Brisco-street, South London. The wronged husband is an estimable, hard-working carpenter about 50 years of age. His wife is much younger. The husband's brother came as a guest last fall, and on the plea of being ill imposed all winter upon his brother's hospitality. Two or three days ago he eloped with the latter's wife, who leaves behind four of five small children. Prior to going she induced her husband to buy her a new outfit and borrowed $10 from a prominent citizen on the plea that a bailiff was in the house.

WORST KIND OF DYSPEPSIA.

GENTLEMEN,—I write to inform you that for years I had been troubled with Dyspepsia and having tried other medicines which entirely failed, I at last found relief and cure in Burdock Blood Bitters, of which I took two bottles, the result being a perfect cure. Although only a young lad I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for four or five years, but I can say now that B. B. B. does its work faithfully in the worst kind of Dyspepsia, and has proved itself the only cure for me.

CAUGHT IN THE FOG.

Drove on the Ice in a Cutter for Over an Hour.

Genial George Simpson, of the Simpson House, Lindsay, who is so well known in Peterborough and to the public in general, met with an awkward experience on Monday afternoon.

The Lindsay Post says that accompanied by Mr. M. Donnell, of Toronto, a guest at the house, he started out to drive to Sturgeon Point by the ice. When they had made about four miles of the distance a genuine Scotch mist descended and blotted out the landscape completely, making progress very difficult and unsafe. Thinking it would disappear, they plodded onward, keeping as sharp a look out as possible for air holes and finally succeeded in making the mouth of the river, but there the fog seemed thicker than ever and even the horse between the shafts looked ghostly and unnatural. It was a case of turn back or attempt to steer a straight course to the other shore, two miles distant, and Mr. Simpson thought he could do it and Mr. Donnell willing.

After driving for about fifteen minutes George slowed up and peered about for a gravel bank, or a tree or anything that would be suggestive of Sturgeon Point, but could see nothing. Finally, ten minutes after he leaped out of the cutter with an exclamation, got in again and drove onward. Some time after he struck shore at Willock's, when he enlightened Mr. Donnell as to his strange behaviour. It seems when they started to cross the lake the horse travelled in a circle, and while George was looking for Sturgeon Point he observed the light house, which he had left an hour before, close at hand. It was a lucky chance that brought them back to the same spot, instead of plunging into open water somewhere.

LUMBERING IN THE NORTH COUNTRY.

What the Big Firms are Doing in Haliburton and Victoria.

A larger quantity of saw logs than usual have been taken out during the past winter on the waters north of here, viz., the Gull and Burnt rivers. The Rathbun Co. will have 80,000 pieces; the Dominion Bank, 25,000 pieces; John Dovey & Sons, 5,000 pieces; John Carew, 20,000 pieces; Dundas & Flavelle Co., 20,000; Burke Bros., a large quantity of elm and basswood logs to be manufactured into staves and headings.

All the above will be manufactured in Lindsay. Howry & Sons have taken out a large cut of good pine, about 40,000,000 feet—about 25,000,000 feet are on the Burnt river, and 15,000,000 feet were taken out in the township of Sherbourne, and will come down the Gull river. John A. Ellis has about 30,000 pine logs. Howry & Sons and Ellis will manufacture in Fenelon Falls. M. Boyd & Co., have taken out 60,000 logs, which will be taken down to Bobcaygeon. Craig & Austin have about 30,000 logs, which will be sawn at Kinmount.

On account of the large cut the Ontario Government has several gangs of men, under Superintendent Walters, building some new dams and slides and repairing some of the old dams in order to assist in driving the large cut of logs down the different streams.

A new dam and slide has been built on Bear Creek; the dam is 8 feet high, with a trough slide 227 feet long. W. H. Walsh, of Lindsay, is foreman. A new dam and slide is being built at Otter creek; foreman George Deleury has charge of this work and it will greatly help in driving out the logs. Foreman Wm. Walters has a gang of men repairing the dam on Varcoe lake, and will make some needed repairs at the high falls on Burnt river.

FIRE IN SEYMOUR.

The Deputy Reeve of Belmont First on the Scene.

One day lately, the dwelling house of Mr. Henry Gibson, situated in the north-east corner of Seymour, was destroyed by fire, and his barns, which are good buildings, only about one hundred feet distant, had a narrow escape from the same fate. The wind was blowing in the direction of the barns, and they ignited several times, but were saved through the greatest efforts of the five men who were on the ground. More than fifty times fire started in the dry straw and manure in the yard, but it was kept under control.

Mr. Gibson was severely burned about the head, neck and hands while at work getting out his household effects. The stoves and considerable bedding and furniture were destroyed. There was no insurance. The fire started from the stovepipes.

Mr. J. L. Aunger, deputy reeve of Belmont, who was driving past when the fire started, was the first on the scene, and removing his boots he climed to the roof and with water soon had the flames subdued. But in trying to remove the ridge boards, his hold of a piece of cross-grain wood gave way, causing him to lose his balance, and the roof being then wet, he slipped off and fell to the ground. Then the fire re-kindled and the house soon became a prey to the flames. It was half an hour before Mr. Aunger was able to move about, and then only to creep around the yard putting out fire.

DUMMER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Some of the people around here (Stony Lake) have been suffering severely from the grippe.

Mr. M. Grant, of Lakefield, has been engaged as cheesemaker in the Stony Lake factory.

A very happy matrimonial event took place a short time ago in the marriage of Mr. David Taylor, of Warsaw to Miss Osburne, of Marmora. The happy couple have the well wishes of the community. This is the second of a long list which will soon take place.

There are many changes in Warsaw this year. Mr. Alex Smith has taken up his abode in the country, and Mr. Thos. Choate has moved to town.

We noticed in last week's paper an article from the Warsaw correspondent. The author of it uses an extensive vocabulary. We noticed something about "legendary April flowers." Now, what does this mean? We are totally in the dark regarding it, having never heard many legends about them, and we must confess great verdancy in respect to their being "incongrous." And as to the "brooklets which soon must flow," we are not sure whether it is the Trent Narrows or the Indian River which is hinted at, and at least we never heard of "spirits panting" very much for brooklets, as we can find many flowing along the roads and hillsides. It is true about "Cupid's Arrows." They are flying in a northerly direction from Warsaw.

Royal Templars of the Midland District Assemble To-morrow.

The Midland district meeting of Royal Templars will be held in Campbellford tomorrow. Programme of meetings as follows:—From 9 to 10 a.m., temperance prayer meeting, led by Rev. Marcus Scott; 10.15 to 12, business meeting open to all members of the Royal Templar society; 2 o'clock, meeting open to public discussion on "How to Promote Temperance Work." These meetings will be held in the Templar hall.

The evening meeting will be held in the basement of the Methodist church. Rev. T. W. Jolliffe, pastor of the church, will take the chair at 7.30. A good programme of music and singing has been prepared and addresses will be given by delegates and resident ministers.

A Comparison.

How much per square yard did you pay for your Carpets, Curtains, Draperies, etc? A single picture which is worthy a place on walls decorated with one of our medium priced papers, cost many times more than the whole Wall Paper combination, side walls, frieze, border and ceiling paper.

No argument is required to prove that a room tastefully decorated is more than half furnished. Taking effect into consideration, WALL PAPER is by far the cheapest adornment towards rendering it stylish, cosy and homelike.

WALL PAPER,
WINDOW SHADES,
CORNICE POLES,
ROOM MOULDING,
PICTURE FRAMES,
BABY CARRIAGES,

At 10c per roll Wall Paper costs less than 3c per square yard. At 15c per roll, it costs less than 4c per square yard. At 25c per roll it costs less than 6c per square yard. Compare this with the cost of your Carpets, Curtains, etc, and see how much cheaper Wall Paper decorations are.

We can show Wall Papers from 4o per roll to $2.00 per roll. In other words, you may buy from us enough paper to cover the walls of an average room for 40c or $20.00.

NO COERCION SAYS SIFTON

Manitoba Will Resist Remedial Legislation.

THE ATTY. GENERAL IN HALDIMAND

Grand Orange Chaplin Also Speaks in Support of Mr. McCarthy—A Rousing Anti-Montague Meeting in Caledonia Last Night.

Caledonia, Ont., April 13.—Attorney-General Sifton, Grand Chaplain Finn of the Orange Lodge addressed a meeting last night of some 500 people, made up of supporters of both candidates. The former made a speech which lasted over two hours, and when he had sat down, the latter, an old gentleman who hails from Portage la Prairie, stepped to the front and for a few minutes poured forth a perfect torrent of oratory, in which he appealed to the feelings of his audience. It was a perfect whirlwind while it lasted.

Rev. Mr. Finn said he came with a message from the people of Manitoba, who asked Haldimand for help in their hour of need. He said that the Manitoba Legislature had been actuated by the best motives in passing the Public School Act. He denied emphatically that the property of the minority had been confiscated by the Government when it was passed. On the contrary the Catholics had been permitted to share the benefits of $247,000 worth of school property. Not only, said he, are the Government going to provide Sisters for the people of Manitoba, but, according to report, they are going to send out Sir to us a Governor to rivet them on. He may find when he gets there, however, that the air of Manitoba is not good for his health. (Laughter.)

Some people, went on the chaplain, have been talking about bullets. If Haldimand marks its ballots right there will be no need for it to send its sons to Manitoba with bullets. There was nothing very new in Mr. Finn's remarks, he confining himself entirely to generalities.

Mr. Sifton started out with an apology for his appearance. If it were not, he said, that the people of Manitoba considered they required the assistance of the people of Haldimand he would not be present. The fact that he was was an evidence that the election in which they have been called upon to exercise their suffrages was no ordinary election, and that no ordinary principles were involved in the contest. He did not, he said, propose to make an oratorical speech, but a plain and clear explanation. Then he went on to state the circumstances under which the present educational law of Manitoba was passed and the reason why it was passed, the principles upon which it was passed and the circumstances under which it had been attacked at the present time.

He announced emphatically that the Manitoba Legislature would refuse to accept and act upon the Remedial Order, and would leave the Government at Ottawa to do its worst.

No greater harm could be done to the Roman Catholic population of Manitoba than to enforce the Remedial Order and restore the former conditions. It was for them that the Government of Manitoba had endeavored to enforce the act and remove the stigma of illiteracy that formerly hung over them. Let them not think that there was an attempt to oppress the Catholic minority. Outside of a few centres the great bulk of the Catholic people desired to be let alone, that they might secure the advantage of the Public schools. Continuing, Mr. Sifton, told how, upon assuming charge of his department, he had sent out a French graduate of McGill College to explain to the French Catholics the advantages of the Public school system. He was instructed not to go secretly, but to tell the priests first that he proposed to talk to the people. After three years the report was that out of the 91 Separate schools prior to 1890, 24 had been disbanded, and the children now attended the Public schools; while others had accepted the Public school system. Mr. Young reported that in newly-formed districts, where the Catholics had full control, they elected at least one English Protestant trustee, in one case the only English Protestant in the district being chosen. That did not look as if the Catholics believed the Government and the Protestants were riding roughshod over the Roman Catholic people.

Mr. Sifton said he had been amazed at the statement of Dr. Montague, that the order was made as a matter of law, and that the Dominion Government had only done what they were required to do. All the Privy Council had decided was that the Government were at liberty to make, or not to make, a remedial order, as they saw fit. It must be decided as any other question of policy, and there was no law either to accuse or to excuse the Government in their decision. Any sane man would say that in deciding that the Government had jurisdiction the Privy Council did not mean to decide the greater question.

The Privy Council said Manitoba Catholics had a grievance. The word was used in a technical sense. The council did not say it was a grievance to be removed. One of the lords of the council expressly said that he would not advise the Dominion Government as to what their action should be.

Dr. Montague said even now that a request only had been sent to Manitoba, while Mr. Ouimet declared that the Government had thrown a protecting arm around the Catholics of Manitoba—two very different views. Mr. Patterson expressed the hope that Manitoba would do justice to the minority. They wanted it settled by Manitoba. If they did why did they not throw out the appeal? Why did they not leave Manitoba to settle it? They had taken it out of Manitoba's hands. What was the fact? The Government wanted to buy 65 votes in Quebec with that Remedial Order. They wanted to buy the votes, and then send the question to Manitoba to be settled. After they had made their deal and got their votes everybody else was to act in a fair and statesmanlike manner.

There had been no complaint against the system in Manitoba. If there had been they would have been promptly redressed. It had been said in certain quarters that the schools were Protestant schools, Protestant religious exercises having been given. From the school law Mr. Sifton quoted to show that the religious instruction was at the option of the trustees, but it was entirely non-sectarian. The passages of scripture were read without note or comment by the teacher, and these were selected so that they would convey nothing of a controversial character.

The order, which, if carried out, would sweep away this system, required the reintroduction of a Separate school system, not as it existed in Ontario or Quebec, with all the improvements of right of inspection and certificated teachers, but as it was in Manitoba prior to 1890, without any of these things. It provided that the Catholic Church should, through its Boards of Education, control a certain proportion of the public money.

It was a principle of the Canadian Confederation that when a province had power to do a certain act the other provinces should not interfere even when they did not agree to it, so long as the act in question did not effect the general policy of the Dominion. That was the Liberal platform, and when Sir John Macdonald was alive the platform of the Conservatives also. He had refused to disallow the school laws of the Maritime Provinces and the Jesuit Estates Act of Quebec. Had he (the speaker) been in the House on that occasion he would not have voted with Mr. McCarthy for disallowance, flagrant as the outrage was, but would have voted against interference, because the act did not interfere with the general policy of the Dominion. Conditions were changed now. Would the Remedial Order have been made if Quebec had had five votes in the Domiulon House and Manitoba 65? There was not a member of the Government that was not ashamed of it, not one that wanted to make it; not one, French or English, that did not know he was trading sound constitutional principles for votes. Dr. Montague had said the order did not mean that the Government would introduce remedial legislation—the order was a sort of toy gun. Mr. Ouimet in Vercheres said that if Manitoba did not act on the order the Government of the Dominion would introduce a bill restoring the rights of the Catholics of Manitoba, and Mr. Ouimet was right. The Government were bound to carry out their order-in-council or become the laughing stock of the people. So sure as Parliament would meet on April 18, and the Legislature of Manitoba resuming on May 9, refused, as it would refuse—to carry out the Remedial Order, the Dominion Goverment would introduce remedial legislation.

Talk of rebellion in Manitoba was heard in the event of an attempt being made to enforce such a law. As far as he knew, the people of Manitoba were as loyal to the Crown and as proud of the flag as any people in Canada, and, as the constitutional advisers of the Crown and loyal Canadians, the Government of Manitoba would not resist the law or do anything illegal. So far, however, as the law would enable them to resist it, so far as it could be done by law and through the constitution, it would be resisted to the end.

If Dr. Montague were elected the Government would be able to say: "We have got a mandate to pass remedial legislation," and they would be right. The people of Haldimand, by re-electing him, would declare that they approved of the attempt to restore Separate schools in Manitoba.

The Northwest was the hope of the Dominion. If it did not develop and become populous and wealthy it would be a sad thing for Canada. Its people were striving to lay a proper foundation for the future, and were met by a most unjustifiable attempt to destroy the school system and place the province in a position where it would be impossible to carry on efficient schools. The electors of Haldimand must decide between Dr. Montague and the destruction of the Manitoba school system.

D'Alton McCarthy was present, and so was A. T. Hunter of Toronto, who in reply to an attack made upon him the night before by Dr. Montague, characterized the candidate as an oratorical bruiser.

Mr. McCarthy's speech was a repetition of his recent utterances on the school question.

As baldness makes one look prematurely old, so a full head of hair gives to mature life the appearance of youth. To secure this and prevent the former, Ayer's Hair Vigor is confidently recommended. Both ladies and gentlemen prefer it to any other dressing.

THE LEGISLATURE CLOSED.

Formal Prorogation To Take Place On Tuesday.

A TWO-ACRE PLOT IS FARM LAND.

Discussion On Mr. Awrey's Bill, and After Some Cross-Voting the Above Amendment Carried. Women As Barristers—A Busy Closing Day.

Toronto, April 13.—The business of the Local Legislature was concluded Thursday amid a show r of compliments and expressions of goodwill. Sir Oliver Mowat, who seems to have obtained a new lease of life, as well as power, was in his best form. He was all smiles and good health. It was remarked that the Premier had exhibited more vim and activity this session than in many years previous. He congratulated the Speaker at the close of proceedings, upon the able manner in which he had presided over the debates, and thanked the Opposition and other members of the House for the business-like manner in which they had transacted the affairs of the Province. He wished everybody health and prosperity during the recess, and concluded by expressing the hope that all would return to their duties next session with renewed health and vigor.

Mr. Whitney, who has acted as leader of the Opposition since Mr. Marter became ill last week, responded on behalf of the Conservatives. He concurred in all that Sir Oliver has said with reference to the fairness and impartiality which had characterised Speaker Balfour's rulings, and said that he congratulated that hon. gentleman upon the fact that his health had greatly improved during the session. He thanked Sir Oliver for the many courtesies that had been shown the members of the Opposition. He expressed the hope that the Premier would long be spared to the province. (Loud cheers.)

Mr. Haycock was not behind in paying gracious compliments. He paid a glowing tribute to Speaker Balfour, and addressed himself in appropriate terms with reference to the Premier and leader of the Conservatives.

Speaker Balfour acknowledged the kind things that had been said of him in a characteristically brilliant speech. He said that it was a sore trial to him to be compelled to sit silent during the progress of the debate, but the task would be lighter in future, in view of the fact that his efforts to be fair had been so heartily appreciated.

The feature of the day was the big fight over Mr. Awrey's bill to amend the Assessment Act. The Toronto members, who had been thoroughly frightened by the storm of disapproval that had been visited on them by Toronto citizens, because of their stupidity in allowing the bill to pass through the Municipal Committee without protest, were determined to have the bill altered. When Hon. Mr. Hardy moved the third reading of the bill Mr. Crawford moved in amendment that the objectionable clause compelling councils to assess vacant lands as farm lands be struck out. A hot debate followed, and members on both sides of the House divided. Many of the country Conservative members voted with Mr. Hardy, while Messrs. Bronson, Harty, Gibson, Harcourt, Middleton and other city and town members supported the amendment. Mr. Middleton then moved an amendment which was lost by 16 votes. towns and villages should be assessed as farm lands, unless they were 10 acres in extent. Hon. Mr. Gibson strongly supported this, which was violently opposed by Mr. German, Awrey and others. A hot debate followed, and finally the amendment was carried by one vote. Then Mr. Awrey gathered his forces and prepared for another attack upon the city members, who became frightened and wanted to compromise.

Mr. Awrey would have none of it, and proposed in amendment that all vacant lands of two or more acres in extent should be taxed as farm lands. The city members grew wildly excited at this proposition, and did their utmost to retain their majority of one, but the farmers got up in arms and cried them down. On vote Mr. Awrey's position was sustained by a majority of 19, and the bill became law, providing that all vacant lands in cities, towns and villages of two acres and more shall only be taxed as farm lands.

Mr. Wood moved the third reading of his bill to permit women to practice law in all courts the same as men.

Mr. Howland moved in amendment "That the Law Society shall not be bound to make regulations for the admission of women as barristers or solicitors, but may make special regulations in certain cases."

The amendment was not even debated. It was simply voted down.

The members then began pelting each other with papers and acting generally like a lot of school boys. Sir Oliver put a stop to their fun by rising in his seat and singing "God Save the Queen," all the members joining in the chorus.

Then followed the regular routine business. Bills were rushed through the various stages, at least those bills to which there was no objection, and the balance were dropped.

A GLENGARRY MIRACLE.

THE STORY OF A YOUNG GIRL WHO THOUGHT DEATH WAS NEAR.

Her Condition That of Many Other Young Girls—Heart Action Feeble, Cheeks Pallid, Easily Tired and Appetite Almost Gone—How Her Life Was Saved.

From the Cornwall Freeholder.

Nothing in this world is more distressing, and unfortunately it is too common in this Canada of ours, with its extremes of climate—its almost artic winters and summer days of tropic heat—than to see a young life fading away like a blighted vine. Its early days have been full of promise, but just when the young maiden becomes of a lovable age with everything to live for, or the young man evinces signs of business aptitude, they are suddenly stricken down and too often in months, or it may be weeks, there are empty chairs at the fireside and sore hearts left behind. Not always is this the case, however. Fortunately science has discovered remedies to check the ravages of decline, when it has not gone too far. Recently a case of this kind was brought to our notice, and the circumstances were so notable and attracted so much attention in the neighbourhood that we felt impelled to inquire into them more fully and give them the benefit of as wide publicity as possible.

Henry Haines who has for several years past acted as farm foreman for Mr. Daniel Currie, of Glen Water, Glengarry county, has quite a large family, among them one daughter Mary, now about 18 years of age. Until her 12th year she was much as other children, fairly rugged and without sickness of any kind. Then of a sudden she became delicate and as the months went on her parents were afraid she was going into a decline. Her heart beat feebly; she was feverish and flushed, slept badly and had but little appetite. Doctors were consulted, who talked about growing too fast, and such common places, and prescribed different medicines, none of which, however, appeared to be of any permanent benefit. A year or so ago the young lady hoping a change of air might accomplish for her what medicine could not, went to Fort Covington N.Y., where she had some relatives, and engaged as a nurse. Even this light employment, however, proved too much for her and in the spring she returned to her parents a perfect wreck, with nothing to do but die, as she thought. But when least expected aid was at hand. Mr. Haines had been reading of the marvellous cures made by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and reasoned within himself that if they had cured others, they might save his daughter's life. On the next visit to Cornwall he bought a half dozen boxes of Pink Pills. It may be easily imagined that Miss Haines required little persuasion to try the much talked of remedy, and well for her it was that she did so. In the course of a week she felt an improvement. By the time she had taken two and a half boxes she realized that she was experiencing such health as she had never known before, and her friends began to remark and congratulate her on the change in her appearance. Still persevering in the use of the pills, she found herself when at the end of the fifth box in perfect health and able to engage in all the work of the household and the amusements from which she had up to that time been debarred. She had an excellent appetite and no one could wish to feel better. Hearing of the marvellous change her sister from Fort Covington came over to satisfy herself, and could hardly be persuaded that the robust, happy looking girl was indeed her sister whom she had never expected to see alive again. Miss Haines says she cannot say enough in favour of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, to which she feels assured she owes her life.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing cure for all troubles resulting from poverty of the blood or shattered nerves and were given a fair trial they never fail in cases like the above related. Sold by all dealers, or sent postpaid at 50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. SUDDENLY DISAPPEARED.

A Resident of Lakefield Acknowledges Having Committed a Theft.

For some time past a number of the inhabitants of Lakefield, on the Smith side of the river, have been missing wood from their wood piles, and being unable to account for it, they decided to watch some night and see who took it away.

On Wednesday night last, a watch was set with the result that a young man was observed taking wood from other people's wood piles, but before he could be arrested he made himself scarce.

A warrant was issued for his arrest on Thursday morning, which was served on him by Constable Doidge, and he was brought before John Hull, J. P., for a preliminary hearing. He pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing wood and the magistrate committed him to the county jail to stand his trial, as he had no jurisdiction in the matter.

He was allowed to go home after the trial, but when the constable went there to take him to Peterborough he was nowhere to be found.

RECIPROCITY IN CONVICTS.

An Appeal on Behalf of a Murderer Brings Out a Protest.

Albany, N.Y., April 18.—In 1878 John Fitzgibbons, a British subject, was sentenced to Sing-Sing Prison for life for manslaughter. Percy Sanderson, British Consul-General at New York, has petitioned Governor Morton for the pardon of Fitzgibbons.

Influential citizens of New York city have requested Senator O'Sullivan to present a resolution to the Governor, asking the latter to request the British authorities, before they ask Executive clemency in Fitzgibbons' case, to look into the case of James Curtis Kent, a citizen of New York, who is now serving a life sentence in England for complicity in the Gallagher conspiracy 12 years ago.

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.

Mr. Robert Brown, of St. John, N.B., Confers a Benefit on Humanity.

St. John, N.B., April 13—The use of that valuable and well tried remedy for kidney diseases of all kinds, Dodd's Kidney Pills, is becoming very general throughout this country. Since the publication of dispatches relating to the recovery of Mr. Robert Moore, of Indiantown, a great many enquiries regarding the details of his cure have been made and so satisfactory have the answers proved, that the pills may be said to have become the household remedy in all the neighbouring villages. Mr. Moore has also come in for a good share of praise for having been the means by which the admirable qualities of the remedy have become so well known throughout the district and he is looked upon as a public benefactor.

BETWEEN TIMES.

A soft, gray day, but the rain fell not,
Though it seemed on the point of falling;
And in the orchard over the hedge,
A blue bird was cheerily calling.

No faintest pink of blossom showed
On peach boughs, glossy and slender;
No clustered leaves were pushing up
Of pansies fragrant and tender.

'Twas just the time when the winter gray
Far over the line was fleeting,
And to the spring that was almost here
The bluebird offered a greeting.

I knew to-morrow the rain might fall,
And freeze while it descended,
And maybe a flurry of snow would come,
When the bluebird's carol was ended.

But never mind—the sun would shoot
His arrows straightway through it,
For the spring was donning her flower crown,
And the merry bluebird knew it.

—Hattie Whitney.

Naturally fair complexions would be the rule rather than the exception, as unfortunately it is at present, if the ladies would wholly abandon cosmetics, and more generally keep the blood pure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only reliable blood-purifier.

To remove worms of all kinds from children or adults Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is a safe and sure remedy.

Every gentleman in Peterborough appreciates good value. We endeavour to buy right and buy such goods as are VALUE for the money.

We are HATTERS, successful in our business. We sell cheap and sell the quantity and the quality.

We know Clothiers that sell Clothing. Their capital is in their business. Close buyers patronize them. They do a good solid trade. But there are other clothing people who devote half a column of newspaper advertising to Hats and Caps, and would lead you believe they were the great and only.

When we can't compete with the Clothing and Dry Goods trade in Hats and Caps and Furs we will go out of business and apply to them for a situation.

We are sole agents for J. B. Stetson's celebrated Soft Hats, the finest in the world.

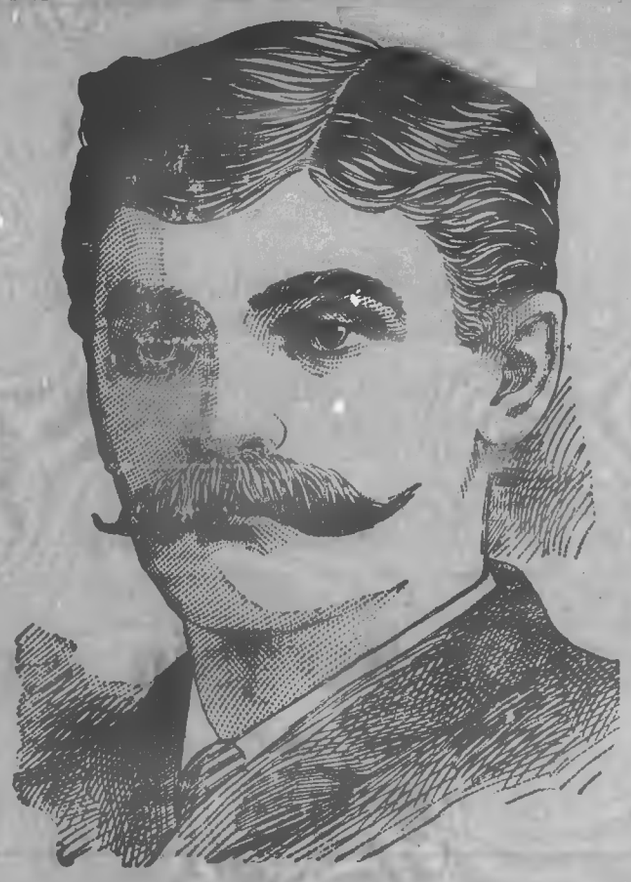
Like a Solid Ball.

The Horrors of Terrible Indigestion.

The Awful Sufferings can only be Banished by Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr. Pethick, of Bowmanville, Ont. Tried all the Advertised Sarsaparillas and Pills Without Any Good Results.

WAS CURED BY NATURE'S MEDICINE.



Are you a sufferer from indigestion, one of the most common diseases of modern times? If you are, be assured this awful trouble demands instant attention, because it is one of the most obstinate and lingering diseases.

The symptoms are, coated tongue, putrid or bitter taste in the mouth, want of appetite, headache and heaviness in the head, dullness, constipation, inactive bowels, nausea, and frequently vomiting of food and bile.

As a perfect cure physicians now prescribe and recommend Paine's Celery Compound; the action of this noted medicine is prompt and decisive. It never fails to regulate the action of the digestive organs, and it always restores to perfect health. Numberless testimonials have been sent in from the people of Canada, proving clearly that no other medicine in the world can so thoroughly meet the tortures of indigestion and dyspepsia, as Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr. Thos. Pethick of Bowmanville, Ont., writes for the benefit of suffering men and women; he says:

"In the interests of sick and diseased people I have decided to testify in favour of Paine's Celery Compound. For three years I suffered from indigestion and all the horrors it usually brings. Day after day my food lay like a solid ball on my stomach, and I could not get relief. I tried all the sarsaparillas and pills advertised without any good results. A friend advised me to use Paine's Celery Compound. This was indeed the medicine for my case, as seven bottles completly cured me, I am now able to eat, sleep well and attend to my work. I strongly advise all to use Paine's Celery Compound, as it is sure to cure."

Robbed a Treasury Wagon of $15,000.

Cripple Creek, Col., April 13.—At 10.30 o'clock this morning the overland Wells-Fargo treasury wagon from Grassy Station, the terminus of the Midland road, was held up by two masked men and robbed. The robbers took all the valuables, with the treasury box, bills of lading and way bills. They then shot and beat the guard, Robert Smith, so badly that he will die.

How Chicago Police Raised Their Salaries

Chicago, April 13.—Mayor Swift is in possession of affidavits giving the names of police officials who received in an aggregate $7000 a month in bribes from gamblers. It is related in the affidavits that there came here from New York a year ago four notorious thieves, who brought with them a band of boys who had been trained to be pick-pockets. An arrangement was effected with certain officials by which these young criminals were to be allowed to operate in the streets here.

Wilde's Books Not Withdrawn in London

London, April 13.—The chief librarian of the British Museum denies the statement circulated yesterday that the books and publications written by Oscar Wilde had been withdrawn from public use in the library of that institution. An act of Parliament compels the museum to keep in its possession and accessible to the public copies of all publications copyrighted in the United Kingdom, except such as may be personally libelous. The question of withdrawing Wilde's works has not been considered at all. The rumor of their withdrawal was probably due to the difficulty experienced by enquirers for the books in getting them, owing to the great rush of curious persons who desire to look through them.

Parnell Offered the Irish Secretaryship.

Dublin, April 13.—United Ireland learns on the highest authority that John Dillon, M.P. for East Mayo, after last election was offered the position of Chief Secretary for Ireland.

WANTS A DIVORCE

The Wife of Lascelles, Alias Beresford Seeks Her Freedom

New York, April 13.—The report that Mrs. Sidney Lascelles, whose maiden name was Maud Lillienthal, and who is heiress to $1,000,000, is about to begin an action for divorce against her husband, who represented himself to be Lord Beresford, revives popular interest in that accomplished swindler. Lascelles is serving a five years' sentence in Georgia for swindling a citizen of that state out of $1000 by a note in 1891. Lascelles met the Lilienthals, mother and daughter, in London. His appearance and accomplishments fascinated the girl, and it was in vain that her mother, suspicious of the suitor, hurried her daughter to Algiers, and then back to the family homestead on the Hudson. Lascelles followed, and in January, 1891, lured Miss Lillienthal into a secret marriage in Beaver, Pa.

Lascelles, who traveled through Canada in 1891 as Lord Beresford, swindled a St. Thomas bank manager out of $1200 and cut a wide swathe in that city and Toronto for a time.

An Uncomfortable Ride.

Georgetown, Ont., April 11—Last evening, when the mail train from the west arrived here, a man was found on the truck, under the last car, tangled up in the break gearing, and unable to release himself. He was nearly insensible, and presented a pitiful sight, being covered with gravel and cinders. He had got under the coach to steal a ride, and the working of the brakes caught one of his feet and held him fast. A pry had to be used to release him.

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

Important Medical Discovery Reported From Germany.

Washington, April 13.—From Germany comes the first official news of a great discovery, said to cure consumption and cancer. Consul-General Dekay at Berlin, in a report to the State Department, says the discovery, which was announced late in March in the most serious and trustworthy medical school in Germany, is likely to receive considerable attention at the coming Medical Congress in Munich. The discovery was made by Dr. Louis Waldstein. The new treatment consists of injecting minute doses of pilocarpine until the lymphatic system is stimulated and the white corpuscles of the blood overcome the poisonous particles which produce disease.

Oscar Wilde on Trial.

London, April 11.—Oscar Wilde and Alfred Taylor were arraigned for examination in the Bow-street Police Court this morning. Wilde was defended by Commoner Clarke, who announced that he would not cross-examine any of the witnesses until they testified at the trial of the charges against Wilde. Counsel for Alfred Taylor examined the young man, Parker, who admitte dhe was 21 years of age, and had been guilty of heinous offences with many persons besides Wilde. Parker also admitted that he received £20 from persons whose pursuit it was to extort money from gentlemen. The hearing was adjourned for a week, and Wilde and Taylor were remanded without bail.

The Disease Disappears in Three Weeks by the use of B. B. B.—Letter From Manitoba Describing it.

DEAR SIRS—During the winter of 1892-93, I was covered with pimples on the inside of my right leg between the knee and the ankle. As I never had anything of the kind before, I was anxious about it, and sought medical advice, but getting no relief from the doctor I tried a bottle of B.B.B., applying some of it to my leg as well as using it internally, and to my surprise the nasty disease, whatever it was, disappeared within three weeks, and I am thankful to say it has never reappeared.

The premises on George street, known as the Menzies property, being the large and handsome residence recently occupied by Mr. A. H. Mr. Sheppard will take up his residence in Peterborough almost immediately.

Edgar and Woods, the two young men who were arrested in Norwood on suspicion of having been concerned in the robbery of $300 from Mr. Hendrea, of Norwood, have been released, as nothing could be found against them. It is all right for boys to have amusement, but when valuable property is destroyed, either wantonly or carlessly by boys, it is time that the police exercise a little vigilance.

Mrs. Alford apprised the police of the circumstances and states that she thinks she could identify the man if caught.

THE SEWAGE DIFFICULTY.

The Work to be Proceeded With at Low Water.

The following clause has been added to the Public Health Act by the Legislature:

"The said board may from time to time modify or alter the terms and conditions as to the disposal of sewage imposed by any award authorising any system of sewerage or the extension of a sewer, and their report or decision shall be subject to appeal as aforesaid and have the same force and effect as aforesaid. Put this shall not entitle the Board to modify or alter the terms and conditions of a certain award dated the 5th day of March, 1895, made by Judge Ketchum, in the matter of reference between the Corporation of the Town of Peterborough and the Corporation of the Township of North Monaghan until after the expiration of the five years therein mentioned, but this provision, as to the said award is only to apply in case the award is held by the Court to be in point of law a valid award."

This clause taken with the amending sections, published in the EXAMINER on Tuesday last, means that in case the award of the arbitrators is set aside that the difficulty will be settled by the Provincial Board of Health, with an appeal from their decision to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council. In case the award is held to be valid the award stands for five years after which term the Board of Health will consider and deal with the situation.

The sewer will now be proceeded with as rapidly as the weather, the lowness of the water and the condition of the soil will admit of.

A Flourishing Congregation.

Last evening preparatory services were conducted in St. Andrew's church. Notwithstanding the rain, a large audience was present. The Rev. Mr. Reeves of Lakefield was present, and preached an appropriate sermon from Ps. xxiii, 1, "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want." After worship, the pastor, Rev. A. MacWilliams, administered the Sacrament of Baptism to two adults. A very large number were again received into the church membership—16 by certificate and 21 by profession of faith, making 37 in all. This is a very large increase, when it will be remembered that about as many were received about three months ago. St. Andrew's still continues to flourish under Rev. Mr. MacWilliams, and is fast becoming one of the large congregations of the church. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in St. Andrew's Sabbath morning. In the evening there will be an Easter service with special music.

Cameron's Terrace Burned.

At about midnight on Thursday the old Cameron terrace on George and McDonel streets was discovered to be in flames and a large number of citizens were attracted to the spot, as from the appearance of the fire many were led to think that the George street Methodist church was in flames. The fire brigade were on the scene in no time and the fire was soon well under control. After playing water upon the flames for some time the fire was supposed to have been thoroughly quenched, but such apparently was not the case, as at half past ten on Friday the ruins again blazed up fitfully, but the prompt action of the brigade prevented the fire making any headway. The terrace was unoccupied at the time of the fire being uninhabitable through the fact that it was visited by fire and flame last year, since when it has been in a tumbledown condition. Incendiarism is suspected to exist in connection with the affair.

Johnson-Smily Recital.

The Toronto Globe, of yesterday, says:—"There were camp-stools down every aisle, and dozens were standing in Bond Street Church last night when, before an audience of 1,500 people, Miss Pauline Johnson and Mr. Owen A. Smily gave one of their popular dual recitals. Every selection upon the programme was recalled, which, taking into consideration the fact that the artists are the authors of the numbers they recite, reflects a double credit upon them. Miss Johnson's last number, "His Sister's Son," in which she wore a striking Paris gown, and Mr. Smily's "Behind the Screen," were the best numbers upon the programme, and received unbounded applause. The Ladies' Aid of the church are to be congratulated upon the success of the affair, and the handsome sum netted thereby." These two talented artists have been engaged by the Hockey Club to give an entertainment in the Opera House on the evening of Thursday, April 18th. A liberal patronage of the affair is bespoken, as the Hockey club are well deserving of the support of the public.

THE SITUATION AT THE ELECTRIC WORKS.

THE COMPANY'S VIEW OF THE MATTER.

Mr. Nicholls, General Manager, Puts the Company's Position on Record—The "Agreement" Forced Upon the Company—A Recent Legal Decision Renders it Necessary—Other Details of the Company's Position—The Employees Take Counsel Together.

In the last issue of the EXAMINER—on Thursday—reference was made to the misunderstanding between the employees and the Canadian General Electric Company, which resulted in the retirement of a large number of the employees from the Company's service.

At that time the hope was expressed that the difficulty would be adjusted, and the probabilities are said to be that some adjustment of the difficulty may be arrived at. The employees had a meeting this morning to consider their attitude in relation to the agreement, and the company has extended the time in which a decision may be arrived at by the men, till Tuesday morning.

By the request of the management, the representatives of the press met Mr. Fred Nicholls, General Manager of the Canadian General Electric Co., and Mr. Geo. Stephens, the Superintendent of the Works, at the offices of the Company's solicitors, where Mr. Nicholls set forth the company's position in relation to the misunderstanding which Mr. Nicholls described as a "tempest in a tea pot," for the reasons he gave.

Since the establishment of the Works here, rules have been posted about the buildings requiring that employees be responsible for the

or injured by them. But a recent decision in a local count rendered the signing of an agreement by employees, a necessary step to protect the interests of the company. An employee sued the company for an amount of wages, representing the amount withheld in accordance with the rules as as to the workman's liability as to responsibility for the work injured. The decision was against the Company, the judge stating in effect that a workman was entitled to his wages and that the Company was not entitled to withhold wages to offset damage done work unless the individual workman signed an agreement to that effect, This decision rendered it necessary that such an agreement should be signed, and such an agreement was presented to the workmen on Friday morning. Mr. Nicholls went on to state that the works had been administered under the rules and he claimed that the company had not been exacting, as for instance, out of $250,000 only some $600 in fines for injury done had been imposed. There had been done damage far in excess of the amount of fines, but the company had "tempered justice with mercy." He cited one case in which damage to the amount of $300 had been done to a piece of machinery and the amount of the fine upon the workman responsible was only $5. The object of the agreement was to put it in the company's from careless employees, for by the decision of the court referred to the workman, no matter how much damage he had done, could collect the full amount of his wages, and the company had no appeal from the decision directing such payment. When it came to this that the company's rules in this regard did not count, it behooved the company to take some such action as had been taken in the matter of the agreement. Mr. Nicholls said it was only a matter of form. He said that this morning a deputation of four, representing the employees, had waited upon him and after hearing his remarks he thought they saw the agreement in a different light. He admitted that the agreement had been presented to the men rather suddenly and that the men had not had time enough to consider it.

The company would take no arbitrary advantage of the employees. They would have to have new men and to pay good prices. The company wished to treat the men fairly. Mr. Nicholls did not think there had been another case similar to the present one. All factories, he said, had rules respecting responsibility of employees for injury done, but in the Electric Company's case these rules had been over-ruled, and the company had no resource but to insist on an agreement which the Court said was necessary to permit the company to recover, and from the great danger of loss to which they were always exposed. Mr. Nicholls instanced the case of armatures improperly made; the man had to do the work over again, and in the matter of the cost of material wasted, the company bore half the expense and the workman was expected to bear the other half. It was stated that there was no severity exercised in the imposition of fines—men were allowed to pay in installments, as was convenient. Mr. Nicholls repeated that the agreement was a matter of form, and had been forced upon the company by the decision of the Court. A man who contemplated leaving could do careless and rapid work so as to make as big a wage bill as possible during the last fortnight, and if by his carelessness work was injured the company had no redress except by the agreement. As to taking the men back Mr. Nicholls stated that the company had a good class of men whom he would prefer to new hands. The matter had no effect on wages, nor made any change in the application of previously existing rules. While the company would be glad to waive the agreement in favour of trusty employees, of whom the company had many, it was obvious that no such distinction could be made—the agreement must in fairness apply to all. The absence of some such agreement would be

A PREMIUM ON CARELESSNESS.

The average amount of fines imposed was 50 cents. The company and the men had been satisfied, Mr. Nicholls said, with the rules under which they had been working till the late legal decision rendered an agreement imperative. There was no matter of wages involved; the company, as a matter of fact, paid higher wages generally than other works of the same character. The average rate of wages throughout the works here was from $1.40 to $1.60 per day. Mr. Nicholls said he had extended the time till Tuesday to give the employees an opportunity to consider the situation. He was sorry to have to insist upon the agreement—the company had no wish to act arbitrarily, but they could not recede from the position they had taken. As to wages, the company had to pay the market price. They had to meet strong competition, and if competition could not be met, the works would have to close. The Company showed its anxiety to give their men employment by building special machines to keep the men employed—machines which could be more cheaply imported. New departments had been added to keep up the average of employment. Mr. Nicholls concluded by saying that the adoption of the agreement would make no change in the administration of the works. All the men who wished to come back could do so by signing the agreement.

THE EMPLOYEES IN CONFERENCE.

A largely-attended meeting of the employees,—including the female operatives—was held at the Knights of Labour hall, Water street, this morning. A delegation which had been appointed to confer with Mr. Nicholls, General Manager, reported to the meeting. After considerable discussion another delegation was appointed to meet Mr. Nicholls again and report at a meeting to be held at four o'clock, which is in progress as the EXAMINER goes to press In view of the negotiations now going on it would be impolitic to suggest any idea of the manner in which the misunderstanding will terminate.

THE AGREEMENT.

The following is a copy of the agreement which was tendered the employees of the electric works to sign on Thursday, and which refusal led to the present relations between the company and the employees,

C. G. form 3.

PETERBOROUGH, April 11, 1895.

I, the undersigned, agree with the Canadian General Electric Company, Ltd., that if I am now, or at any future time, shall be employed by them on task or piece work, to undertake and complete such work in every respect in a proper, skilful and workmanlike manner, to the satisfaction of the foreman of the department to which such work belongs, and at the prices fixed therefor by the schedule of prices in the Company's office at Peterborough, at the time of entering upon such work.

And that if any work heretofore or hereafter done by me has been or shall be rejected by the inspector as imperfect or defective, that I shall be bound by his decision and shall not be entitled to be paid for such work, and will also make good to the Company the value (less scrap value) of, or damage to, all material wasted, injured or destroyed by reason of such imperfect or defective work, together with the value of the work of all other workmen done thereon, and agree that such amounts shall be deducted from any money then due me by the company or afterwards earned until same is satisfied.

Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

HE IS NOT HERE; FOR HE IS RISEN.

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow;

And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the woman, fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified;

He is not here; for he risen.—St. Matthew xxviii, 1-6.

CANADIAN ORDER OF FORESTERS.

THEY ACCORD A RECEPTION TO THEIR H. C. R.

A Most Complimentary Address Presented, and in Reply the High Chief Ranger Makes Some Interesting Remarks—An Entertaining Musical Programme and a Bounteous Repast.

Mr. C. E. Britton, High Chief Ranger of the Canadian Order of Foresters, who has been spending the last few days in town on a visit, in his official capacity, to the local brethren, was tendered a reception, Thursday evening, by the members of the four courts of the town.

The large assembly room of Court Peterborough was utilized for the occasion, and was crowded to the doors. Mr. A. L. Rundle occupied the chair, and before presenting the programme for the evening's entertainment made a short address, bringing out the various good points in connection with the order.

Miss Rose Clarke opened the programme with a brilliant instrumental, after which Mr. F. J. Jameson introduced the High Chief Ranger to the chairman. Mr. Rundle then read the following address of welcome to the visiting official:—

PETERBOROUGH, April 15th, 1895.

C. E. Britton, Esq., High Chief Ranger, High Court, Canadian Order of Foresters:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—We, representing the Canadian Foresters of the Town of Peterborough, desire to express to you our most cordial personal and fraternal greetings on this, the occasion of your first official visit to this town, and on behalf of the Foresters of Peterborough, Town and County, give you a most hearty welcome. It gives all the more zest to our welcome when we remember that you have been associated with the interests of Canadian Forestry since its inception, some fifteen years ago. There are many among those who greet you to-night who have also been associated with the flourishing fortunes of Canadian Forestry from the beginning, and we are sure you will cordially join with us in congratulations upon a phenomenal growth, represented by a numerical increase from a modest 300 or 400 members to a grand total of 21,000, and by the growth of a Reserve Fund from zero to the magnificent sum of over $361,000.

We recognise the fact that this gratifying prosperity and growth are largely due to the inherent merits of Canadian Forestry as a beneficiary order, founded upon sound economic principles, but we also recognize the fact that they are due in no small degree to the loyalty of the membership, engendered by the energetic and efficient administration of its High Court officers. Remembering your efficient services, which have won you the honour of being twice unanimously elected as Chief Ranger, services given unsparingly, and with no little sacrifice of personal convenience, we hail your official presence with pleasure, and we would respectfully suggest that our welcome will be none the less agreeable to you when you are informed that it comes from a town which is the peculiar home of Forestry, a town that boasts of four large and flourishing Courts, one of them having the largest membership of any Court in the Dominion, besides fourteen other Courts situated within a radius of fifteen miles.

We know, Sir, and Brother, that you heart is with us in the noble work of our Order, and bidding you most heartily welcome, and wishing you all possible personal as well as official success, we tender you on our part the freedom of the Town of Peterborough, feeling sure that it is but a local echo of your praises that ring throughout the wide Greenwood of Canadian Forestry.

Signed on behalf of the Courts of Peterborough.

AT THE CONCLUSION

of the reading the members of the Order present rose, at the call of the chair, and extended to their distinguished visitor, the grand salute being an interesting ceremony to watch.

In reply to the address Mr. Britton, who is a remarkably pleasant speaker, stated that he was highly flattered by the complimentary personal references paid him in the address, but he wished to assure all that he did not consider the references as made to him as an individual, but rather accepted them as being a tribute to the office which he had the honour of holding.

Continuing, the High Chief Ranger stated that he has never visited Peterborough before, as Forestry was in so flourishing a condition in the county that there had been no need of his presence. The officials of the High Court considered it wiser to direct their attention to those districts where the merits of the Order were not so well known as they must be in Peterborough, where in the town itself he understood, were in existence. One of them, Court Peterborough, had the largest membership of any Court in the Dominion of Canada. The audience, he thought, therefore, could understand how he felt almost out of place in advocating Forestry in a town where all were so freely acquainted with the advantages to be derived from association with the Order.

His particular province, he stated, was to advocate the principles of the Canadian Order of Foresters to the public at large, but his reason for coming to Peterborough was not to attempt to do anything like this, as he knew no other town which was so well looked after in this respect. His idea was simply to pay a visit to the brethren and before stepping out of his position become better acquainted with the enthusiastic members of the Order whom he knew from report resided in Peterborough.

In a few brief remarks concerning the management of the affairs of the Order by the executive, Mr. Britton most enthusiastically on their careful manipulation of the finances. He, himself, as the official head of the Order, if he acquitted himself well would just be granted $500 at the end of the year. The secretary, who was one of the hardest worked men he knew, only drew a salary of $1200 a year, and the other financial details were all as carefully looked after as the question of salaries. Concerning the standing of the C.O.F., in this particular the Order could challenge comparison with any society in the world, and at any time could take a place as an old line company, having a reserve fund already which was sufficient for the purpose of making the necessary deposit with the government. Even now, if the Order should for any reason decide to discontinue taking any more risks, the policy holders could all draw half the amount or fifty per cent. of the sums for which their policies called. With a few more remarks Mr. Britton closed his interesting address by a reference to the uncertainty of life and the moral obligation imposed on every man to make provision for his family through the medium of insurance.

COMPLIMENTED THE HIGH COURT OFFICERS

THE MUSICAL PROGRAMME

was presented as follows after the enthusiastic applause had subsided:

Vocal solo	Mr G H Mulligan
Vocal duet	Misses Hall and Pollard
Cornet solo	Mr Finch Miller
Vocal solo	Miss Hendren
Whistling solo	Master Everett Hall
Instrumental duet	Miss Rose Clarke and Miss Mary Stratton
Vocal solo	Miss Florence Hall
Vocal solo	Miss Hendren
Vocal solo	Mr. G. W. Mulligan

Naturally with a programme of such unusual excellence recalls were numerous, and the evening proved a most enjoyable one indeed.

At the close of the programme over five hundred guests assembled at the supper table, which was laid in the newly acquired hall which Court Peterborough has secured adjoining its former suite of apartments. The repast was everything that could be desired and the local courts are deserving of great praise for the splendid effort which was made to comply with the wants of all.

The High Chief Ranger left Peterborough yesterday morning, expressing himself as more than delighted with his visit to the town, and with the manner in which the reception committee looked after him while he was here. The committee in question was composed of such past grand masters in the art of entertaining as Messrs. Alex. Reid, R. E. Layfield, D. S. Harvie, H. Nesbitt, F. J. Jameson, S. Bailey, John Alexander, Wm. Menzies, E. A. Kemp, Wm. M. Green, W. Kemp, A. L. Rundle, W. Isaacs and Harry Evans.

THE LATE WILLIAM TELFORD.

The Venerable Bard of Smith Passes Away to Rest.

Thousands in town and country will learn with deep regret of the death of Mr. William Telford, a prominent resident of Smith, and bard of St. Andrew's Society, at the family residence. Mr. Telford has for some years been in weak health, but this winter he was confined to the house, and a fatal termination came this morning.

Mr. Telford, who was 67 years of age, was born in a small village in Leitholm, in the parish of Eccles, Berwickshire, Scotland. He came to Canada, arriving in this county on June 15th, 1850. For a time he worked for Mr. Thomas Tully, Mr. John Archer, and Mr. Isaac Nicholson, of Smith. In 1852 he was united in marriage to Miss Hannah Nicholson, only daughter of Mr. Isaac Nicholson. To this union were born six children, all living and well settled in life. They are Mrs. John Logan, town, Mrs. Wm. Nicholls, and Mrs. John Grant, Smith, Mr. John Telford, of Ennismore, and Messrs. William and Robt. Telford, Smith. The deceased gentleman's wife is still living upon the homestead on which she was born.

In the death of Mr. Telford a prominent and estimable gentleman is removed from the arena of life. Besides his many noble qualities of character as a man and a citizen, Mr. Telford had no few sparks of poetic genius in his nature. He has been the honoured bard of St. Andrew's Society since its organization, and has been present at every annual gathering for 33 years. He was present at the last annual supper with his annual poem, which showed no signs of mental impairment, but was full of fire and loyalty to his native as well as adopted land as any previous poem. Mr. Telford was a tireless writer of verse. In 1887 he published a volume of poems which met with wide sale, and since that he has from time to time wooed the muse of poetry. He was a broad minded man, with great integrity of character, enjoyed universal esteem among his personal friends and was recognized on two continents as a worthy member of the guild of Scottish national poets. His memory embalmed in his strong verse will long remain in the community in which he passed the years of his useful and honoured life. The funeral takes place from the family residence, Communication Road, Smith, on Monday, April 15th, at eleven o'clock. The remains will be interred in Little Lake Cemetery; the following will be the pall bearers,—Dr. Carmichael, Dr. Cauldwell, Charles Cameron, John Fowler, Alex. Gibson and Wm. Menzies.

THE EDISON DIFFICULTY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—In your article on Thursday on the dismissal of the employees from the Electric Works you speak as if the extent of the disaster would be the cessation of wages for some days and of doubt as to whether other skilful workmen could be secured. Now, sir, that may be so from a cold hard business standpoint, but there is something more than business in the hearts and minds of this community as also there must be in the officers of the Canadian General Electric Company. We have an interest in and a friendship for these workmen which we cannot transfer to others. These particular men and their families have been for some time our fellow citizens and fellow members of our churches and societies, besides being connected with us by many other ties of a business, personal and religious nature. We are therefore interested in this matter, and we look forward with hope and confidence to a satisfactory settlement being reached by employers and employees dealing with one another in a spirit of justice and kind consideration.

We do not know the exact factors in this case, so we make no decision as to who is in the right. But we do know at least two things. First, that at these times employers are strongly tempted to take undue advantage of the state of the labour market and employes to give vent to intemperate language and hasty deeds. Secondly, we know that these cases involving justice, private feelings and public interests cannot to-day be arbitrarily decided by any commercial Star Chamber. They have to come before the tribunal of the public conscience and before a still higher Tribunal.

But surely the difficulty can be adjusted without appeal to either of these. If men come together and give play to the better side of their nature it ought to be managed.

Yours, etc.,
J. C. DAVIDSON.

TORONTO MPP'S IN BAD ODOR

"They Need Never Show Their Noses in Toronto Again."

THE SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES

Mr. Whitney Wants the Ontario School System "Broadened," But Does Not Explain What He Means—Assessment of Five Acre Plots as Farm Lands.

Toronto, April 11.—The four Conservative members for the city of Toronto are in a sweet mess. The mayor of the city vows vengeance. He says that neither Crawford, Ryerson nor Howland need ever ask the people to elect them again. "They need never show their noses in Toronto again," were His Worship's exact words. The whole row is over Mr. Awrey's bill with reference to the assessment of vacant lands in cities, towns and villages. The bill was considered by the Municipal Committee yesterday, and was violently opposed by the Mayor, the City Solicitor and other interested parties. The bill provides that in assessing vacant ground or ground used as a farm, garden or nursery, and not in immediate demand for building purposes, in cities, towns or villages, whether incorporated or not, the value of such vacant or other ground shall be that at which sales of it can be freely made for cash, and where no such sales can be freely made the assessor shall value such land at a value not exceeding that at which it should be valued if held only for farming or gardening purposes, with such percentage (in no case exceeding 25 per cent.) added thereto as the situation of the land reasonably calls for; and such vacant land, though surveyed into building lots, if unsold as such, may be entered on the assessment roll as so many acres, or portions of acres of the original block or lot, describing the same by the description of the block or by the number of the lot and concession of the township in which the same is situated, as the case may be.

Under the old Assessment Act the council had the option of assessing such vacant lands as farm lands, or not. Under this bill they are compelled to do so. There was another clause in the bill which practically made the same provision. The fight was made on this clause, which was struck out and the Toronto members swallowed the bill by voting for it, which left the city in a position, as Mayor Kennedy says, to lose $70,000 annually in taxes upon these lands. The Toronto members are angry with Mayor Kennedy. They say that if it was a matter of so much importance that he should have been present at the committee yesterday afternoon to aid them with his counsel.

Late in the evening the bill came up again in the House, and the Toronto members attempted to have the objectionable clause eliminated. It was decided, after a great deal of discussion, to leave the clause as it stood, much to the disgust of the city members. The bill will come up for its third reading to-day.

OUR SCHOOLS ARE PERFECT.

Mr. Whitney, on motion to go into supply, moved in amendment that in view of the fact that 95 per cent. of the pupils of Ontario attend Public schools, that the system of education in these schools should be broadened and improved. He admitted that the present system was good, and that it had shown good results, but he would like to see it broadened. He would like to see more money spent upon the Public schools, since they were so important to the people.

Hon. G. W. Ross said that Mr. Whitney would like to see the Public school system broadened, but he had not made a single suggestion as to how he would do this. The Public school system of Ontario sent twice as many pupils relatively to higher schools than did the Public schools of the United States, and three times as many as the English Public schools. The complaint had been made that too much money went to the High schools and too little to the Public schools. Twenty years ago, under the Conservative Government, the High schools received $9.48 for every pupil, and the Public schools but 45 cents. To-day the High schools received but $4.33, about half what they got under Conservative rule, while to-day the Public schools received 56 cents for every pupil, or 25 per cent. more than they got from John Sandfield Macdonald. Mr. Whitney had begun by praising the system, then by saying they were bad.

Mr. Whitney: I did not say the system was bad.

Hon. Mr. Ross: Do you say that it is a good system?

Mr. Whitney: I have said that the schools were good, but they might be broadened.

Hon. Mr. Ross, continuing, said that it was no argument to admit that the schools were quite good enough, but that they ought to be "broadened." What did Mr Whitney mean by broadened? Why had he not said what he meant? Why would he not say what he meant by the expression? When Reformers advocated reforms, it was their practice to indicate the methods they would employ. The fact of the matter was that Mr. Whitney was dumb for the reason that he had nothing of a practical nature to suggest. The High School system was popular and was fast becoming self-sustaining. In 1867 the pupils paid in fees towards their support but $15,000, while last year they paid $105,000. The course pursued by the Government was gradually to decrease the grant to the High Schools and in the same manner to increase the grant to public schools. This was seen from the fact that in 20 years they had already reduced the grant per capita to High Schools by 50 per cent., while the per capita grant to public schools had increased 25 per cent. The vote was then taken and the amendment lost 55 to 48. The Patrons, with two exceptions, voted with the Opposition.

THEY NEED NOT PAY.

When the bill respecting charitable institutions came up for a third reading yesterday it was referred back to Committee of the Whole House with instructions to strike out the fifth clause. This clause provided that in case of any charity patient who had not been a resident of the municipality for at least three months, a weekly sum should be paid by the municipality from which he came.

The supplementary estimates were presented by the Provincial Treasurer yesterday. The Ontario Bee Keepers' Association gets $150; the Agricultural College gets $10,000 to erect an experimental building; Architect Waite gets $4000 in settlement of his $25,000 claim. The Government has set aside $2000 for the erection of a registry office at Minden and $1500 for a lock-up at Little Current. Port Arthur gets $1100 for hot water heating in the court room. Kingston gets $2300 to complete the erection of her dairy school.

THE C.L.A. CONVENTION.

Stratford, April 12.—The eighth annual convention of the Canadian Lacrosse Association was held to-day in Oddfellows Hall.

The following clubs have made application for membership: Stars, Bright; Eloras, Elora; Elms, Toronto; Tecago, Newmarket; Midland, Midland; Richmond Hill, Richmond Hill; Auroras, Aurora.

The financial statement shows the receipts, including cash on hand of $260, fees paid $127, etc., or a total of $451; expenditures, including salaries of $60, cash on hand of $327, etc., Total $451.

The assets are: Cash on hand $327, banners $300, arrears $29; total $656, and the liabilities are: Toronto L.C., overpaid, $2, leaving $654.

Secretary McConaghy presented his report of the council, setting oout that new districts had been opened and some 20 new clubs added. The senior championship had not been competed for since 1894, and it was recommended that special efforts be made reform it during the coming season or abolish the senior series. In the district or intermediate championship the number was more than double the previous season.

It was also recommended that the new council be instructed to provide banners or trophies for all districts.

The association's finances were never in a better shape, notwithstanding the falling off the share in semi-final gate receipts.

The various championships are held as follows:

Seniors—Stratford.
Western—Stars of Windsor.
Southwestern—Brants of Paris.
Stratford District—Beavers of Seaforth.
Grey—Owen Sound.
Wellington—Thistles o. Fergus.
Eastern—Peterboro.
Northeastern—Orillia.

In the Senior Series

Brampton, St. Catharines, Toronto, Tecumseh, Seaforth, Fergus, Stratford signified their intention to enter senior series.

It was recommended that the C.L.A. ask the Amateur Athletic Association to re-instate Charles Mayers and J. J. McKay for professionalism.

After a spirited discussion it was resolved that the association banners must be produced at the next convention. Fraternal greetings were exchanged. The amendments to the rules and regulations proposed by E. H. Wilson of Markham, by James A. MacFadden of Stratford, M. B. Tudhope of Orillia were carried. Other amendments proposed by Mr. Wilson and by Mr. MacFadden, re rule 4, section 1 (bona fide residents), were defeated, while the amendment proposed by J. J. Craig of Fergus, regarding selection of referee and umpire was withdrawn. A motion authorizing the executive to extend $100 in the formation of new clubs and advancing the interests of the C.L.A. was carried, and the sums of $50 each were donated to Secretary McConaghy and Ex-Secretary O'Loughlin for past services.

The election of officers resulted: Hon. president, James A. McFadden; president, Dr. J. G. Roberts; first vice-president, W. C. Kennedy; second vice-president, J. J. Craig; secretary-treasurer, Hugh C. McConachy; council, J. C. Brodie, Newmarket; Arch Campbell, Markham; K. E. Jackson, Seaforth; J. D. Bailey, Toronto; Ed. Doolittle, Orillia; Fred Nelson, Toronto; C. W. Eberle, Owen Sound; J. Vance Ingersoll; W. Miller, Swalford; H. J. P. Good, Toronto.

The next meeting of the association will be held in St. Catharines.

ROBBED IN DAYLIGHT.

Canadian Pacific Railway Relieved of $7500 in Cash.

Woodstock, N.B., April 13.—A bold burglary was perpetrated yesterday afternoon at the Canadian Pacific Railway Queen-street Station, which was broken into and $7500 in cash stolen.

The agent was attending to his duties at the lower station.

THE CHITRAL CAMPAIGN.

Extraordinary Difficulties Surmounted—Officers Captured By Treachery.

Calcutta, April 13.—A despatch from Simla dated noon to-day says that Col. Kelly, the commander of the British forces which have been attempting to reach Chitral from Gilgit since March 25, have succeeded in crossing the Shandar Pass and were about 60 miles from Chitral on April 7.

The march of the troops was a most arduous and brilliant military exploit. The pass is 12,000 feet high and is impassable to beasts of burden. Consequently the pioneers had to carry the field and mountain guns during the last seven miles of the route through deep snow and with the weather intensely cold. The troops suffered in many cases from frost bites.

When these advices were forwarded to Simla the enemy was in position 20 miles distant from the force commanded by Col. Kelly and an engagement was expected.

It is learned that Lieuts. Fowler and Edwards, the two officers belonging to the British garrison at Chitral, who have been reported missing for some time past, were invited to a polo match at Roshun, where they were treacherously seized and their escort, consisting of 20 Bengal sappers, was overcome by superior numbers and slain.

Another report says that Lieut. Fowler was killed by a foster-brother of Amir-Ul-Mulk, the present ruler of Chitral, who assumed the rank of Mehtar after having murdered his elder brother, Nizam-Ul-Mulk, the late Mehtar of Chitral.

Another despatch from Simla says that the latest news from the front points strongly to the collapse of the power of Umra Khan. It is added that the fanatical gatherings upon whose help he counted and who have hitherto offered the most serious resistance to the British forces are now dispersing.

A Bengal Sapper who was taken prisoner at the same time with Lieut. Fowler, but escaped, reports that Mr. Robertson, the British agent who is shut up in the Chitral fort, made a sortie recently, but was defeated after a sharp engagement, in which Lieut. Gordon and several Sepoys were killed.

What John Wanamaker, the Most Heavily Insured man in America, Says:

(INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WANAMAKER.)

It is very generally known that Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries the largest amount of Life Insurance of any man in the United States. A representative of the press recently interviewed this gentleman while he was travelling with the Presidential party, and this interview will be found, we believe, of general interest:—

"You are said to be the most heavily insured man in the country, Mr. Wanamaker," remarked the press representative.

"How did you come to think of that?" he said with a smile. "You are not looking for any disaster under such excellent management as our friend Boyd is giving this train and party?"

"No," I replied. "A newspaper friend in San Francisco, who had heard the report, wanted me to ask you if it was true, and if so, what your business reasons are for it?"

"Well," he modestly answered, "I have heard it stated that I am the most heavily insured man in the country. I don't know about that. The amount of my policies is $1,550,000, and the value, with the accumulations since the policies were taken out, is about two millions of dollars."

"In what class of companies are your policies?"

"They are all in stock and mutual companies, and none of them in what are known as assessment or instalment companies."

"Are they full life term policies or on what is termed the 'tontine' plan?"

"I have generally taken ten and fifteen payment policies and very few life policies. With about all good companies a contract can now be made whereby there is no risk of losing a policy after two years' premiums have been paid. If the party insured chooses to withdraw he can get a paid-up policy. Indeed, I understand that some companies have forms whereby the insurer can after one year, if desired, withdraw and receive a paid-up policy. There is practically little risk, any more, in insuring in the old companies."

"Perhaps you would be willing to tell me how you came to insure so heavily?".

"I thought the matter out, and convinced myself that it was a good business venture. Besides, it seemed to me that I might, perhaps, give away more money in lifetime if there was a fixed certainty of putting it back into my estate by Life Insurance. I conceive that the best way for a man to carry on benevolence is not to leave it to be done through his will, but to do it in his lifetime, and I felt that Life Insurance would give me more freedom in carrying out some plans I have, and which I would be glad to see completed before I leave this world. If you want to ascertain what the circumstances were in placing the Life Insurance, I must go further in my answers and say that I should not have gone so far in my Life Insurance but for the skill of the agent who tackled me to insure to a greater extent than I would otherwise have done. He was an old friend who had been in mercantile business and who knew how to present Life Insurance without boring me. I feel to-day sincerely grateful to the man who followed me so discreetly with information about companies, and who kept the subject before me until I settled the question."

"When did you begin taking Life Insurance policies?"

"My first policy was taken when I was twenty-one."

"Do you consider it a good thing for a man of small means?"

"I certainly do. Most young men spend more for cigars during the year than the annual cost of a $2,500 policy in a good company. If they must have the cigars they might divide between cigars and Life Insurance and carry at least a $1,000 policy. I think every young man, before he is married, ought to try to get at least a $1,000 policy."

"Among how many companies are your policies divided, and where are they located?"

"About forty companies. Most of them are located in the East. A few are in the West and a few in Canada."

"Do you recommend Life Insurance to others, especially those in whom you feel a personal interest?"

"I can perhaps answer that best by saying that I presented a few years ago a $1,000 policy, paid up for one year, to every insurable head of family in my employ. Many of the prudent men who received them not only kept them but added to them, and I have the satisfaction of knowing that in not a few cases those policies have been the means of saving worthy families from want."

It will doubtless be of interest to our readers to know that John Wanamaker carries a large policy in the Canada Life Insurance Company, thus evincing his confidence in the soundness of Canada's eldest and largest Company. During the last few years quite a number of American capitalists have been convinced of the SUPERIOR MERITS OF THE CANADA LIFE, and have accordingly placed their insurance therein, in preference to any other company.

The Canada Life is now being recognized in the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio as the Company that gives the best results for the least premium.

RUNS A LOTTERY WIDE OPEN.

A Policy Game at Fort Erie Which is Said To Be Legal in Canada.

Buffalo, April 13.—This week the programs of Buffalo theatres have borne an advertisement reading: "Red and green, or rubies and emeralds, daily at Fort Erie, morning 11.30, evening 5.30. In public. G. Washington Kohl."

A reporter for a local paper crossed to the Canadian side yesterday and found a full fledged lottery game in operation. Kohl is manager for Joseph Whitman Long, identified with the Kentucky and Louisiana games in this city. In an interview Whitman said: "My lottery is the only one in the world on the square. It is running under the laws of Canada. They tried to break me when I started, but I got a decision from the highest court. My policy drawing is open. The Kentucky lottery was always a fake after they quit legalizing it in Kentucky. I'm beating these fellows out every day. I don't try to do much business in Buffalo. I'm out for New York, Boston and Philadelphia business. That's where the money is. I can contract for gigs in Canada and deliver them any place in the world."

It may be news to the Attorney-General's Department that the highest court in Ontario has decided that the operation of a policy lottery game in Canada is legal. But if there is a legal flaw which permits its existence, there is no good reason for suppression of poolrooms, which, besides the policy-lottery, game, compares as June roses to September thistles.

MANITOBA WATCHING HALDIMAND.

Winnipeg, Man., April 11.—Intense interest is felt throughout Manitoba in the bye-election in Haldimand, and Manitobans are watching the progress of the fight eagerly, as they feel that the result may be fraught with great importance to this province in the matter of the school difficulty.

The Tribune, which speaks for the Greenway Government, will say to-morrow: Sir Charles Tupper in Antigonish and Hon. J. A. Ouimet in Vercheres are stating clearly and positively that if Manitoba refuses to obey the Remedial Order the Dominion Parliament will be asked at the approaching session to pass the legislation requisite to restore the Separate school system as it existed prior to 1890. It is true Montague in Haldimand is not so strong in statement as his colleagues, but he does not and cannot deny that they accurately indicate the intention of the Government. There can now be but one issue before the electors of Canada. The electors of Haldimand are the first to have it placed squarely before them; upon them is imposed a high duty; it is their privilege to now settle this burning question, which is setting Canada aflame. If Dr. Montague is beaten the Government will not fulfil its pledge to Quebec. That is perfectly clear. The battle for this province is now being fought out in Haldimand. If beaten there the Government is beaten everywhere. Let us fervently hope, therefore, that the men of Haldimand will rise to the momentous question. The Liberals there who have always adhered to the doctrine of provincial rights should rush to the support of Mr. McCarthy, whose whole platform is embraced in these words: "Never since Confederation has there been a time when the electors are so urgently called upon to display patriotism and to sink partisanship.

Nor do we believe that Mr. McCarthy will find the support confined to the ranks of the Liberals, for the Orange element, which is the backbone of Ontario Conservatism, is strong in Haldimand. If the electors of that historic constituency punish one of those ministers, who, in servile obsdience to the bidding of ecclesiastical Quebec, have declared themselves ready to humiliate this province before the civilized world they will merit the profound gratitude of our people. We do not fear the consequence of defeat. Ultimately we must succeed, but give us this one victory and our national school system, our right to deal with our local affairs, free from outside interference, are alike established upon a permanent foundation.

THE STAMPS WERE SPURIOUS.

They Were Neither Rejected Nor Stolen From the Department.

Washington, April 13.—Third Assistant Postmaster-General Kerr Craige to-day said that statements made that the supposed counterfeit stamps were really those rejected by the Postoffice Department were untrue; that the rejected stamps were destroyed by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Neither were they a portion of those stolen several months ago by an employe of the bureau. He said that they were counterfeit stamps; that he had received a number of them, and there was no doubt that they were spurious.

The fact that the counterfeit stamps are done up in perforated sheets of 100 each knocks out the idea that they are old stamps cleaned up. It has been discovered, too, that the "2" in each lower corner of the counterfeit is a shade larger than the genuine stamp.

Mrs. Mack Arraigned.

Hamilton, April 13.—Mrs. Mary T. Mack was brought up in the Police Court on on Thursday, but her case was adjourned until Monday.

The charge against prisoner is that she did, within the past ten days, unlawfully and knowingly utter, sell or expose for sale, or utter or use a large number of counterfeit adhesive stamps, issued for the purpose of revenue by the Government of the United States.

The U.S. officers, while not positive as to the woman's identity, do not believe she belongs to New York city. They are of the opinion she belongs to Chicago.

A YOUNG LAD AND His Faithful Friend.

Ernest McGregor, of Whitby, Ont., Gives an Account of His Experience—Cured of Persistent Dyspepsia by B. B. B.

WORST KIND OF DYSPEPSIA.

GENTLEMEN,—I write to inform you that for years I had been troubled with Dyspepsia and having tried other medicines which entirely failed, I at last found relief and cure in Burdock Blood Bitters, of which I took two bottles, the result being a perfect cure. Although only a young lad I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for four or five years, but I can say now that B. B. B. does its work faithfully in the worst kind of Dyspepsia, and has proved itself the only cure for me.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

A MEDICINE WITHOUT AN EQUAL.

Statement of a Well Known Doctor

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is without an equal as a blood-purifier and Spring medicine, and cannot have praise enough. I have watched its effects in chronic cases, where other treatment was of no avail, and have been astonished at the results. No other blood medicine that I have ever used, and I have tried them all, is so thorough in its action, and effects so many permanent cures as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Dr. H. F. MERRILL, Augusta, Me.

THE GRASS OF THE FIELD.

O'er the mountain walls
Young angels pass,
Before them fleets the shower,
And burst the buds,
And shine the level lands,
And flash the floods,
And stars are from their hands
Flung thro' the woods.

—TENNYSON.

A great modern writer, who beyond any other man in any age or country, has profoundly and minutely studied nature in all its phases, makes much of the fact, that landscape, as such, never exercised a strong influence on any pagan nation or artist, and that the Bible is distinguished from all other ancient literatures by its delight in the beauty or sublimity of natural scenery. Whenever nature is alluded to by the ancients, it is either agriculturally, sensually, fearfully, or superstitiously, any higher sensibility being rarely exhibited. On the other hand, every reader of the Bible can recall numberless expressions showing the deepest sympathy with, and the most intense delight in, natural things for their own sakes, quite apart from their human associations. The sacred writers give souls to the rocks, the forests and the streams. Isaiah speaks of the cedars of Lebanon rejoicing over the fall of the king of Assyria. And in the Psalms, the floods lift up their voice, the hills clap their hands, the mountains skip like rams, and the trees of the wood sing for joy. The great Hebrew prophets never tire exulting in the majesty of the hills, the power of the waters and the tempests; and the beauty and tenderness of their references to the quieter aspects of nature have gone to the hearts of generations. "The cedars of God!"—how loving the phrase, and how these men made all things voiceful with praise to him!—"Mountains, all hills, fruitful trees, and all cedars, praise ye the Lord." Light and darkness, sunshine and tempests, the rugged mountains—all created things—expressed the power and majesty of Jehovah, and were His servants and messengers: and His ministers a flaming fire."

IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

the same feeling is present, though not so prominent, the hearts of all being intent on one supreme matter, and Christ Himself has not left us without witness to His appreciation of the beautiful, and His sense of the Divine care for the smallest creature or the slightest blade of grass that springs by the wayside.

This love of Nature, then, so intense in the prophets of God, and in the Son Himself, would seem to be a peculiarly sacred feeling, and closely bound up with, if not a part of, true religion. And it is not one of the least distressing signs of the times, that for a small pecuniary advantage, we so ruthlessly destroy natural beauty. But what is it we do not make merchandise of in our supreme struggle "to get on in the world"? It is high wisdom, I think, for all of us (even though there be "no money in it") to strive, with what powers we have, to keep or gain the priceless faculty of admiration and reverence for the handiwork of God, as He unfolds it day by day in leaf, flower and cloud

We are so apt to pass by these things with the careless glance of thoughtless admiration, which sees nothing new, because it sees nothing that cannot be taken in at first glance. It is even possible there are many like a "thoroughly educated" young lady who, pointing to some growing acorns, asked me what kind of a tree that was! It is a pity that the interests and the aspirations of so many young ladies are fixed almost exclusively on the social life, for they thereby miss much of the beauty and the joy of life. "I do not wonder at what men suffer,"

SAYS A MODERN THINKER,

"but I often wonder at what they lose."

I confess I do not feel nor even understand that intense delight in Nature shown by poets and persons of high poetic feeling; yet I believe that the practice of close and accurate observation would reveal to us, apathetic though we be, the secret of their ever-active admiration and wonder, and thus increase the joy of living beyond what we dream of. I believe we may all of us deepen these sacred sensibilities of our nature, and hear (for ourselves) "the voice of God upon the waters," the "God of glory thundering even upon many waters"—for "He sitteth as King of the flood." Or if this seem too great a hope in this materialistic age, let us at least, as we watch the grand sweep of our broadening river, and the tumultuous plunging and leaping of the flood, occasionally measure the might and majesty of it all by some scale other than the "head" and the "horse power."

One should begin observations during the balmy days of early April, when the "river of God is full of water," (try to fit that phrase to the Otonabee as well as to the Jordan), and the grass is yet brown on the hillside. There is a strange charm, after the water is just over, in watching and listening for the beginnings of life, in catching the first glimpse and sound of it, even if your reward be to see only brown fields and a leafless landscape, and to hear only the murmurous oozing of the soft sod, the rippling of the streamlet in the meadow, and the

of the tiny waterfalls among the rocks. But you will hear, too, the first loud calling of the crows from the leafless woods, and see the first blackbirds (so lustrous in early spring) playing in and out among the spruces. The mystery of life is beginning anew, the time for the singing of birds is come, and soon every bush will be "full of amorous flutterings and little rapturous cries." The power of the season lies more in the suggestion and promise than in the aspects and sounds about us. At this time come the thoughts that "do often lie too deep for tears," and happy are they, who, at peace with the world and themselves, can cry:

"O, follow, leaping blood,
The season's here,
O heart, look down and up,
Serene, secure,
Warm as the crocus-cup,
As the snow-drop pure."

It was on the 15th of April that we, last year, first went to the woods. The grass was not then green on the lawns or roadways, but in the forest we found myriads of sprouts under the dead leaves, sprouts of adder's tongue, violet and spring beauty, silently boring their way through masses of dead leaves. One week later the whole landscape was green, and adder's tongue, hepatica, and spring beauty were in bloom; and five days later still (April 27th) numberless flowers, trilliums, mitrewort, violets, wake-robin, foam-flower, etc.,—so eager is the earth to blossom at the first sunshine. Those interested may compare these dates

WITH THIS YEAR'S BLOSSOMING.

I do not know that we enjoyed the full splendor of spring so much as that first spongy walk along the brown roadside into the brown woods. It was a balmy day, and there was everywhere the low laughter of moving water in our ears; and the broad expanses of landscapes, which make the scenery of Peterborough so beautiful, were glistering with tiny runnels and lakelets, all cleansed of their earlier muddiness. Now the season is here again, and I suggest that all who can should with an unburdened and open mind take an early excursion before the warm days

"Bring orchis, bring the foxglove spire,
The little speedwell's darling blue,
Deep tulips dashed with fiery dew,
Laburnams, dropping—wells of fire."

If you do, you will love these better when they come. But look around you now, even now, where you stand. For the tender grass, more beautiful and beneficient than these, is springing forth, and is soon to be glorious on lawn and field. The grass of the field!—How little we regard it, yet how wonderful is the adaptation of that embroidered carpet of the earth to all our needs, and how it "girds the hills with joy," from the time the delicate spires spring multitudinous, enamelling the landscape, to the time they wave and dance upon the August plains and hillsides, with "shaking threads of fine arborescence, each a little belfry of grain-bells all a—chime."

A Comparison.

How much per square yard did you pay for your Carpets, Curtains, Draperies, etc? A single picture which is worthy a place on walls decorated with one of our medium priced papers, cost many times more than the whole Wall Paper combination, side walls, frieze, border and ceiling paper.

No argument is required to prove that a room tastefully decorated is more than half furnished. Taking effect into consideration, WALL PAPER is by far the cheapest adornment towards rendering it stylish, cosy and homelike.

WALL PAPER,
WINDOW SHADES,
CORNICE POLES,
ROOM MOULDING,
PICTURE FRAMES,
BABY CARRIAGES,

At 10c per roll Wall Paper costs less than 3c per square yard. At 15c per roll, it costs less than 4c per square yard. At 25c per roll it costs less than 6c per square yard. Compare this with the cost of your Carpets, Curtains, etc, and see how much cheaper Wall Paper decorations are.

We can show Wall Papers from 4o per roll to $2.00 per roll. In other words, you may buy from us enough paper to cover the walls of an average room for 40o or $20.00.

Our Window Shades are meeting with quick sales. We can give you a nice shade with dado for 25o, mounted on Spring Rollers; for 30o a Fringed Shade; for 60o we can give you an Opaque Shade, with Fringe, worth 85o. Better qualities, equal value.

CAUTION—Don't pay large commissions to have samples of Wall Paper brought round to your house, but come to the Peterborough Bookstore where you can buy 40 per cent. cheaper.

RUMORED JUDICIAL CHANGES.

Hamilton Projectors Apply for a Blanket Electric Franchise Covering Nearly the Whole of Western Ontario—General News From Ottawa.

Ottawa, April 15.—A notice has been issued by the Collector of Customs at Victoria, B.C., pointing out that of the amount allotted to seal hunters and seamen by the award of Her Majesty's Government in respect of the modus vivandi in Behring Sea during 1891, a balance of the sum allotted to hunters and seamen on board certain of the vessels whose claims have not yet been presented remains unpaid.

The commissioners have granted an extension of the time for receiving claims from these hunters and seamen up to March 31, 1896.

It is the prevailing belief in political circles that Hon. J. C. Patterson has bidden good-bye to parliamentary life for some years to come. On Tuesday the ex-Minister of Militia leaves for California, and it is possible he will not take his seat in the House of Commons again, as in June he is to assume the duties of Lieut-Governor of Manitoba.

Dame Rumor says that during the next few weeks there will be a change in the personnel of the Supreme Court bench. Chief Justice Strong has, it is said, manifested a desire to retire, while Justices Gwynne and Fournier are, it is understood, not unwilling to resign. Had the bill promoted by Sir John Thompson last session became law, it is possible that the three judges named would have retired, as this measure provided that when a Supreme Court judge attained the age of 70 years, and had acted as a Superior Court judge for 15 years, of which five must have been on the Supreme Court bench, he could then retire on full pay instead of two-thirds as at present. The bill was introduced late in the session, and as it met with considerable opposition it was massacred along with other innocents. It is not known whether a similar bill will be introduced this session, but even if it be not, there seems to be some ground for the report that some of the Supreme Court judges will shortly retire.

Considerable correspondence has within the past two weeks passed between the salmon canners of British Columbia and the Fisheries Department regarding the enforcement of fishery regulations on the Fraser River, more particularly as regards depositing fish offal from canneries in the river. The department has just received the text of a judgment of Justice Drake, who granted an injunction against certain canneries from creating a nuisance in this manner. Before the offal regulations went into effect nearly 4000 tons of fish waste was allowed to enter the Fraser, and evidence was produced that this was creating a very offensive nuisance, polluting both air and water, and breeding typhoid.

An Order-in-Council has been passed amending the regulations respecting the compulsory attendance of Indian children at the Industrial or boarding schools. Any child absenting himself or herself from such school may be arrested under warrant issued by an Indian agent or Justice of the Peace, and brought back to the school.

The Civil Service promotion examination has, by Order-in-Council, been dispensed with for the present year. This is taken to mean that there will not be any promotions in the service this year.

According to advices which have reached the Fishery Department, the spring run of salmon in British Columbia has been quite up to the average. Ten thousand pounds of salmon came east from British Columbia in one shipment.

Mr. J. J. Haslett, travelling passenger agent of the C.P.R. in Great Britain, has arrived in the country on his annual tour to gather the latest information respecting the development of the Northwest and British Columbia, and to ascertain the requirements of the country, so that he may be thoroughly in touch with all the circumstances as they exist in Canada in his intercourse with the people of the Old Land. For some time Mr. Haslett has had charge of an exhibition car, showing the products of the Northwest, which last year visited three hundred and sixteen towns, besides the leading agricultural shows in Somerset, Devon, Nottingham, Wiltshire, Hereford, Shropshire, Hampshire, part of Scotland and other districts, and from which over 1,000,000 books were distributed.

New postoffices were opened in Ontario on April 1, as follows: Audley, West Ontario; Calyon, East Simcoe; Hardwood Lake, South Renfrew; Landbank, Bothwell; Mandeville, Muskoka; Whitney, Nipissing.

Messrs. Crerar, Crerar & Bankes of Hamilton give notice of application to Parliament for the incorporation of a company to be called the International Radial Railway Co., which has a very ambitious scheme in prospect. The company seeks to build from Hamilton northwesterly through or near Dundas, Galt, Preston, Berlin, to Waterloo, with a branch to Guelph; from Hamilton to the International boundary at Fort Erie or Victoria Bridge, with a branch to the Village of Dunnville and the mouth of the Grand River, passing through the Counties of Wentworth, Welland and Haldimand; from Hamilton to St. Mary's, passing through Brantford and Woodstock, with a branch from a convenient point to the Village of Port Burwell or some other port in the County of Norfolk, on Lake Erie; also a branch from a convenient point to London; from Hamilton to Toronto or Cookeville, with a branch from some convenient point to Brampton; with power to build or acquire and operate steam or tow barges and steamships to ply between the terminal points of the railway and ports of the United States; with power also to acquire, lease, amalgamate or enter into other arrangements with the Hamilton and Dundas Street Railway, the Galt, Preston and Hespeler Street Railway, the Berlin and Waterloo Street Railway, the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Canada Southern Railway or the New York Central Railway; to acquire sites for and build electrical works in connection with the railway for the purpose of generating electrical energy; to acquire the right of way to transmit and also the right to sell and otherwise dispose of electrical energy for heat, light, power and other purposes, and to distribute the same, and also for all the powers necessary for constructing and operating the said electrical works, and otherwise fully carry on the said undertaking, and power to acquire lands on the said lines of railway to be used as parks.

According to advices received at the Interior Department from R. L. Alexander, land agent in the Edmonton district, 427 settlers arrived in that district in the first quarter of the year, bringing with them 41 carloads of stock and effects valued at $45,100. Mr. Alexander has received double the number of letters of enquiry from the United States compared with last year, and believes there will be a large immigration to Alberta this year. The winter has been delightful and stock thrived well.

BANK NOTES IN LEAD PENCILS

How Forged Notes Were Smuggled Acro the Russian Frontier.

London, April 15.—For some time the Russian Government has been trying to trace the origin of the counterfeit notes which have been freely circulated in St. Petersburg and elsewhere. The authorities felt certain that they were engraved abroad, and a sharp lookout was kept upon the custom houses for a long time without result. Finally a large consignment of pencils was sent through the custom house. On the German frontier they were inspected, and passed in the regular way. An official happened to drop one. This was afterward picked up by another employe. On the next day the finder undertook to sharpen it when he discovered that it had no lead, but a bank note had been carefully rolled and inserted where the lead should be. The pencils had been despatched from England.

LORD HOUGHTON TO RESIGN.

The Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland Worried by the Social Boycott.

New York, April 14.—The World's London cable says: A report is current in semi-official circles here that Lord Houghton is about to resign as Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, being wearied out by the continued bitter social boycott by the landed gentry.

Niagara Park Commission Meets.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., April 14.—The commissioners of the Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park held their annual meeting Saturday, and transacted considerable business. The most important move was the taking of formal possession of Queenston Heights, which have been turned over to the commission by the Canadian Government. Brock's monument will be made more accessible and the surroundings generally beautified. Other improvements may be made in the reserve the coming summer. Those present at the meeting were the Hon. J. W. Langmuir of Toronto, chairman; Commissioners John A. Orchard of Niagara Falls South and George H. Wilkes of Brantford, together with Supt. James Wilson. They came to this side of the river, enjoyed a fine dinner at the Prospect House and this afternoon went down to Queenston Heights on the Niagara Falls Park and River Railway. The commissioners refused to grant a license to sell liquor in the Dufferin Cafe.

Found Mutilated in a Cellar.

Boston, April 14.—The body of Alice Sterling, 8 years, was found to-day in the cellar of a stable. The little girl had been missing since Wednesday. She was last seen alive with Angus D. Gilbert, night station agent at Savannah Hill. The child's head was badly mutilated, the top of the skull having been literally cut off with an ax. Gilbert has been arrested.

BRITISH POLITICAL GOSSIP

As Commented on by New York Correspondents.

THE CHITRAL CAMPAIGN FLAWLESS

Harcourt's Local Veto Bill Declared to Be Unworkable—Conservatives Defy Precedent in Opposing Gully's Election as Speaker—France to Pension Old Men.

New York, April 15.—Cables from London say: Again there is wonderful Easter weather and no self-respecting person remains in London. Golf links, trout streams, boating river reaches, the sands of Margate, are all swarming with pleasure-seekers. The mails are disorganised, the papers are empty and business from that of merchant prince down to the humblest green grocer is quite paralysed. Good Friday has come to be, for some mysterious reason, the occasion for a mammoth gathering of pigeon fanciers out on the Lea Meadows beyond the east end, where rival Columbarian clubs compete with their homings and prize messengers. As every new form evolves its special parasite, this "Easter fly," as it is called, has prompted hundreds of White Chapel loafers to hire guns for the day, lie along the banks of the Lea and shoot at these pigeons when they pass overhead. Yesterday some of these potters who killed a valuable bird were seised by an angry crowd. Their guns were smashed and they were dragged through the river and then pummeled to an inch of their lives.

Gen. Low's initial success against the Chitral tribesmen seems, according to this morning's News, to have knocked all heart out of his opponents. The machine and mountain guns at Malakand Pass taught a lesson the force of which even young bloods among the Hillmen have been compelled to acknowledge, and today we hear of Umra Khan being virtually deserted, while the opposition to the march of the main army seems melting away. Col. Kelly's brilliant feat of crossing the Shandar Pass has caused a diversion, and the release of Dr. Robertson, the immediate object of the campaign, appears within arm's length of accomplishment, with the prospect of little or perhaps no more fighting.

It is undoubtedly the best managed little war that they have undertaken in our generation, without a blunder or a flaw anywhere, and with one feat of crossing an icy pass 14,000 feet high with artillery, which will make of Col. Kelly almost a national hero, though the more substantial honors of a peerage will probably fall to Gen. Low.

There now rises the question, what shall be the frontier policy of the Indian Government? Lord Roberts proposes that Chitral and the country between it and the rest of the empire be retained, not only to control the exit by the passes of the Hindoo Koosh, but to prevent the Pathan tribesmen from joining Russia should she ever descend by the Chitral route. Mr. Neville Chamberlain, who, it is suspected, reflects the opinion of the Indian Government, deprecates that proposition. He argues that such a policy would mean the stirring up of the liveliest hornets' nest on the frontier, and the financial strain upon India is enormous already; 17,000 men are engaged in this campaign alone. In addition to the great divergence of opinion on the leading principle of the policy thus described, there is another difficulty before the Government. They have not yet justified their intervention in family disputes in Chitral, unless it be true as rumored, that one of the claimants to the throne is making overtures to Russia, and that it will be impossible to restore the dethroned ruler without the presence of a large military force. In truth, the greatest difficulties relating to this subject are likely to arise when the campaign itself is ended.

Trifling differences of opinion in the ranks of the Unionists have afforded some measure of plausibility to the reiteration by their opponents of the statement that the alliance between the two great sections of that party is weakening. The selfish attitude of the Ulster tenantry, respecting the Irish Land Bill undoubtedly compelled the Unionist leaders to moderate their opposition to the measure, at any rate until the committee stage has been reached. If they insist upon maintaining what Mr. Chamberlain calls their unreasonable demands, they may lose all by grasping at too much.

Mr. T. W. Russell, who is formulating amendments covering the Ulster demands, is himself disposed to go further than the Unionists. The chief party organ also censured Mr. Balfour unsparingly for advising the Leamington Conservatives to withdraw their candidate from the field. The indications of the revolt in the Union camp have been seised upon and magnified by enemies into a serious rupture, but all this is mere fudge.

Another phase of public opinion also causes embarrassment to the party. In certain ultra-militant quarters, Mr. Balfour's Parliamentary pugnacity and earnestness are called into question. A feeling exists that he is not eager enough to trip his opponents or to force a dissolution. This is held to be the more inexcusable, since the Government continues to exhibit increasing feebleness. True, they have passed two important items of their program—the Welsh disestablishment bill and the Irish Land bill—through the critical second reading stage, but their most ardent well-wisher does not venture to assert that either bill is yet safe. On the contrary, the ordeal of the committee session is beset with dangers which may prove fatal at any moment.

Henry Ward Beecher once informed a man who came to him complaining of gloomy and despondent feelings, that what he most needed was a good cathartic, meaning, of course, such a medicine as Ayer's Cathartic Pills, every dose being effective.

TORONTO CITY LEGISLATION.

The Mail and Empire of Saturday in a column editorial dealt with the legislation passed respecting the assessment of vacant lands in cities and makes complaint of the position taken by the rural members of the Legislature. The Mail and Empire should not complain of rural representatives, when the resident city members at the committee agreed to the compromise clause, which was afterwards extended to two acres. The mayor of the city, before the committee, admitted that lands were assessed for more than their selling price, and those in favour of the bill satisfied the committee that justice was not always dispensed at the city Court of Revision. The best thing for the City of Toronto Council to do is to deal more fairly with their citizens and get their legislation before the committee in time to admit of giving it proper consideration. For some years past the Legislature has been legalising a number of city bylaws, of whose provisions it is reasonable to assume few members of the committee of the Legislature had any knowledge. The city pays a sufficient sum for legal advice to have their city bylaws so drawn as to avoid the necessity of having them legalised.

THE latest revenue returns go to confirm the Opposition prediction that the deficit for the year 1894-95 will run up very close to $6,000,000. The accounts for March show a falling off in revenue to the extent of over $1,000,000 as compared with last year. The total revenue for the nine months of the fiscal year, now completed, is $24,553,099, as compared with $27,845,846 for the first nine months of 1893-94.

THE Weston Woolen Mills have assigned for the benefit of their creditors. The Auburn Woolen Company have made a reduction of ten per cent. in the wages of their employees. The country does not seem to prosper under the N. P. The people are becoming too poor to purchase the output at protection prices. The managers, however, seem to flourish like a green bay tree.

THE SPRAYING OF TREES.

Mr. A. H. Pettit Explains the Benefit to be Derived From it.

Mr. A. H. Pettit, secretary of the Central Farmers' Institute, who has been appointed by the Minister of Agriculture to give instruction in the spraying of fruit trees, addressed a large gathering of farmers and fruit-growers at Belleville recently.

He said we had 7,000,000 fruit trees, and our exports were only 800,000 to 900,000 bushels yearly, owing to non-profitable varieties, scab, brown spot, and other diseases, which could be cured by spraying the trees. This would cost for material only 1½ cents per tree, and a man could do from six to eight acres per day. A pump would cost from $9 to $20. He would recommend six applications the first season. Less would probably suffice afterward.

The first application should be made before the buds open, with copper sulphate solution, two pounds to fifty gallons of water. This is intended to destroy the fungoid growth. Some might think there was no fungus on their trees, but with a magnifying glass it can be seen.

The second application, just before the blossoms open, would consist of four pounds of copper sulphate, four pounds of fresh unslacked lime, and fifty gallons of water.

The third, after the blossoms have fallen would be with the same mixture, with four ounces of Paris green added. This would be repeated every twelve days until three more applications were made.

On plums and peaches he would only use three pounds each of copper and lime, as the foliage was more tender. Mr. Pettit gave it as his opinion that Ontario could produce finer winter apples than any other country in the world.

The speaker said he had tested spraying pears, peaches, plums and cherries with the best results. He believed the mildew of gooseberries and the black rot in grapes could be thoroughly got rid of by this means.

Asked about the potato blight, he said the effect of spraying had been to double the potato crop. Professor Fletcher had told him that the fungi of potato rot developed on potatoes even after they were stored away. For the potato bug Bordeaux mixture with Paris green made the latter more effective and does not burn the foliage.

HARWOOD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Miss Carney, of Young's Point, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Brooks.

Miss Jessie B'Fickle is visiting friends in Peterborough.

Messrs. Arthur and Walter Gellately moved to their farm in Uptergrove last Wednesday. They were followed by their mother, Mrs. Gellately, on Monday last. While we regret the departure of one of our oldest citizens, we extend our best wishes for her prosperity, and trust she will be benefitted by the change.

Miss McMullen, of Roseneath, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. Hogg.

Mrs. Burrison, of Manitoulin Islands, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Coffinger, left last week to visit her son, near Keene, before leaving for her home in the islands.

There occurred recently at our manse one of those delightful little events which we are all so pleased to hear about—a wedding. The contracting parties were Miss Mary Brooks, of our village, and Mr. McKenzie, of Bowmanton. The happy couple will reside on the groom's farm, whither they are accompanied by the good wishes of all, and we trust many long years may yet be allowed them.

Miss Martha Farr, who has been spending the winter in Toronto, attending the Art School, has returned home.

A number of young men, who have returned from the shanty, left last Tuesday to go back on the drive.

CEMETERY ACT AMENDMENT.

Several Important Changes Made in the Law Respecting Cemeteries.

The subject of the disposal of the mortal remains of those who have passed away has, if a melancholy, a deep interest to all, for all, in spite of desire or wish, must meet the inevitable, and therefore the following particulars will be of interest.

At the request of the Little Lake Cemetery Company, Peterborough, several amendments were made to the Act respecting Cemeteries, at the late session of the Local Legislature. The following clause permits the Cemetery Company to repurchase lots in the cemetery. The previous Act permitted of the purchase of additional land for cemetery purposes, but the subjoined amending clause permits the company to purchase lots that have not or are not likely to be required (on account of removal, etc.):—

The company may, out of any moneys received by virtue of this Act, purchase any lot or lots previously sold or conveyed by the company, and take conveyance of the same from the owners thereof, any may also from time to time re-sell the same in the manner and form respecting other lands in the cemetery held by the company.

OPENING GRAVES.

The following section prohibits the opening of a grave by any person without the consent of the directors, and also provides for an appeal to the County Court Judge from the decision of the directors in such regard:

2. Section 11 of the said Act is amended by adding thereto the following sub-section:

2. No grave in a cemetery shall be re-opened for the purpose of removing a body therefrom, nor any monument or other permanent improvement placed on a lot be removed from such lot, without the consent of the directors of the company, or on motion of the County Court Judge in that behalf, but, saving, nevertheless, the right of the crown to order the removal of a body for the purposes of legal inquiry.

MAY ACCEPT AND HOLD GIFTS.

The following section provides means by which the directors may hold by gift or devise any lot or lots in a cemetery for the purpose of keeping the same in the state of order and neatness to correspond with the surroundings:

3. Section 19 of the said Act is amended by adding thereto the following sub-section 1a:—

(1a) Every such company mentioned in this section may also take and hold by gift, assignment or devise from owners thereof any lot or lots in the cemetery of such company, for the purpose of maintaining the same in perpetuity or otherwise, in the manner and subject to the provisions mentioned in the instrument of such gift, assignment or devise.

The clause appended is sufficiently explicit.

4. Section 27 of the said Act is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

(27) The directors may pass by-laws for the laying out, selling and managing of the ground for the regulation of burials to be made therein, the removal of bodies therefrom, the erection or removal of tombs, monuments, grave stones, vaults, copings, fences, hedges or other permanent improvements therein, the planting, placing and removal of trees, shrubs and plants in the grounds and otherwise generally respecting the use of the grounds by the shareholders and the public; and for empowering the president and secretary to execute conveyances of plots in the cemetery.

The application of those interested in the selling of monuments, to enable them to remove monuments that had been placed with a lien, was not entertained by the Legal Committee. It was thought not advisable to allow the removal of such after once erected.

GOSPEL OF BREAD AND BUTTER.

Prof. Robertson on the Nourishing Powers of Various Foods.

New York, April 14.—Prof. L. W. Robertson of Ottawa delivered an address this afternoon in Association Hall on "The Gospel of Bread and Butter." He illustrated his lecture by means of colored charts showing the relative effects of the different articles of food on the human body. He said in part: "I am not ashamed of the gospel of bread and butter. We are told to glorify God in body and spirit, and unless we have healthy bodies we cannot do the latter." He said the food had a marked effect upon man morally. "A boy with a badly-nurtured body will give in when tempted to do wrong easier than a boy who is well fed and healthy. Food has two uses, namely, to furnish material out of which the body is built up and to repair the waste that is constantly going on in our bodies." He then pointed out on the charts the nourishing effects of different articles of food on the human body. He showed how the Chinese, who ate large quantities of rice, were inferior and weak, while the Japanese, who also ate rice but a great deal of fish, were their superiors. He said that the laboring classes spent 62 per cent. of their earnings for food, but that if they better understood the relative values of food they could get as much nourishment and enjoyment out of 40 per cent. of their wages.

AFTER 25 YEARS

A Wise Mother Chooses the Right Medicine, and Her Son Tells of its Wonderful Effects.

GENTLEMEN,—In the spring of 1891 I got a bottle of B.B.B. for my mother, who had been troubled for 25 years with Sick Headache. I got it from Mr. H. Parton Baird, of Woodstock, N. B., who gave me two other medicines to take home and let my mother take her choice. Fortunately she chose the B.B.B., and I returned the other bottles. She used it for three months and has had no Headache since. We are sure it was B.B.B. cured her as she took no other medicine. JONATHAN A. GREEN, Hartford, N.B.

A STRANGE CASE.

Mr. H. McCarron, of Detroit, Completely Cured of Blood Poisoning.

DETROIT, Mich., April 15.—A very curious incident has occured here, and one which will be of continental interest. Mr. Hugh McCarron, a well-known notary public, has been a sufferer for many years from a peculiar form of blood poisoning, inducing the most frightful pains in the breast and back. The best doctors were consulted without being able to give any relief, and Mr. McCarron decided that his case was hopeless. He was at last recommended to make a trial of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and did so with the faint hope that they might have some effect in his case, the peculiar nature of which did not lead him to associate it with kidney complaint. To his surprise the effects of the remedy were noticeable from the very first, and he is now thoroughly restored to health by this means.

Of Interest to Gentlemen!

Every gentleman in Peterborough appreciates good value. We endeavour to buy right and buy such goods as are VALUE for the money.

We are HATTERS, successful in our business. We sell cheap and sell the quantity and the quality.

We know Clothiers that sell Clothing. Their capital is in their business. Close buyers patronize them. They do a good solid trade. But there are other clothing people who devote half a column of newspaper advertising to Hats and Caps, and would lead you believe they were the great and only.

When we can't compete with the Clothing and Dry Goods trade in Hats and Caps and Furs we will go out of business and apply to them for a situation.

GREENWAY TO GO TO THE COUNTRY.

On the School Question—Attempted With Murder for Life Insurance.

Winnipeg, Man., April 14.—Politicians here appear to be quite certain that Premier Greenway contemplates bringing on the provincial elections at an early date. The Opposition are so very well convinced of this that they are already discussing their candidates and the policy in respect to the school question, for of course that will be the chief issue.

Lena Bender, a 14-year-old German girl, employed as a domestic in the family of Rev. John Semmens, was last fall suspected of stealing several articles from the residence. She denied the charge, and seemed to take it so much to heart that she told a girl friend she would suicide. A day or so afterward she disappeared, and all trace of her was lost. Saturday her body was found in the flooding ice of Red River.

Archbishop Langevin leaves for the east to-morrow. It is said he goes to attend a convention of Catholics to be held in Montreal respecting the school question.

His Grace Archbishop Langevin preached in St. Mary's Church Sunday night, and his discourse created a sensation. His Grace, after begging Catholics to stand firm for their school, stated plainly that those of the church who continued to give their aid to the opponents of Catholic schools would no longer be considered Catholics by the church. This is taken to be equivalent to excommunication, and a number of Catholics who have been with the National School Party in the present struggle are consequently greatly agitated.

William Farr is a Canadian Pacific locomotive engineer who came originally from Cobourg, Ont. Early Saturday morning a deliberate attempt was made to fire his residence in Ross-street, the whole downstairs portion being sprinkled with coal oil and fires started at several points. The stairway, the only means of escape of Mrs. Farr and her four children, was saturated with oil, as were also mats and rags placed at the front and back doors, the very evident desire of the incendiary being not only to destroy the house, but also to cremate the woman and her little ones. Mrs. Farr was rescued and the fires extinguished.

Half an hour after the fire was discovered and extinguished Farr, who runs a switch engine, ran it into the C.P.R. depot, and, jumping off, asked the night policeman where the fire was. The policeman said there was no fire as far as he knew and the engineer remarked: "Oh, I thought I heard the fire bells ringing!"

He returned to his engine and when pulling out of the depot he remarked to his fireman: "That policeman tells me there is fire near my house. I hope my folks are all right."

Running up into the yard, Farr climbed on top of a box car to see if he could see the blaze. The fire bells did not ring during the night. All these facts were learned by the police and Farr is now in jail awaiting trial. The fire was discovered about 2 o'clock in the morning, and between 1 and 2 o'clock Farr was away from his engine

It is said that Farr has been keeping a mistress for some time and that he had insured his wife's life for $10,000.

The Case of the Hawaiian Deports.

Victoria, B.C., April 14.—Johnson, the former detective or spy, of the Hawaiian Government, deported by ft three months ago, has received assurance from the British Government that thorough investigation of his case will be insisted upon. President Doles' administration intends fighting in the courts and thereafter in the Privy Council of England, if necessary, the constitutionality of the act. Muller, the German subject deported at the same time, has also been promised that his case will be fully investigated by the German Government.

Ask for a Dam Across Niagara.

Toledo, Ohio, April 14.—The Toledo Produce Exchange yesterday adopted a memorial giving expression "To the solicitude very generally entertained by western commercial men, and in fact by all interests east and west, concerning the effect of the water level of Lake Michigan, and indirectly upon Lakes Huron and Erie, of the largest volume of water to be drawn from the former lake by means of Chicago's drainage canal." The exchange asks the Secretary of War to appoint a committee of engineers to examine into the matter, and finally suggests an investigation by engineers of a dam across the Niagara River at a suitable point, and its effect in preserving or deepening the water of the lakes.

TO MEET THE BIG DEFICIT

A Big Reduction Will Be Made in the Estimates.

SALARY OF A PRIVY COUNCIL JUDGE

The Speech From the Throne Will Deal Mainly W. a the Manitoba Question and the Ne foundland Conference—Cape Colony and a Trade Treaty.

Ottawa, April 13.—During the past few days communications have been passing between the Governments of Canada and Cape Colony, in reference to a commencement of negotiations for a trade treaty between the two countries. In response to an inquiry from Right Hon. Cecil Rhodes, Cape Premier, as to a convenient meeting place, Sir Mackenzie Bowell said that either Ottawa or London would be acceptable to the Dominion Government. In official circles here, however, it is not expected that anything will be done until after the session of Parliament.

As soon as the negotiations with the Newfoundland delegates are concluded, which will probably be to-morrow, the ministers will proceed to draft the Speech from the Throne. Each minister is asked to indicate what subjects relating to his department, in his opinion, are sufficiently important to justify mention in the speech. It is generally understood here that the Newfoundland negotiations and the action of the Government on the Manitoba school question will be the two principal topics referred to.

Preparation for the coming session are being pushed apace in the departments. It is expected that the main estimates will pass the council on Saturday, and that when they are brought down to the House they will show a considerable reduction on previous years.

Some of the Newfoundland delegates' public utterances on Confederation indicates proposals for a fast steam ferry service between Port Basque and the nearest point of Cape Breton Island. That would be Aspy Bay. In interview with a Cape Breton man to-day he stated that the object is chimerical. It would involve 120 miles extension of the Cape Breton Railway, partly through a very rugged country, to reach a point that would never be made a safe or convenient harbor. He says the present terminus of the Cape Breton Railway at North Sydney affords an excellent terminus. It is 120 miles from Port Basque, and Aspy Bay is 80 miles.

The announcement from England of the intention of the Imperial Government to introduce a bill to enable colonial judges to sit on the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council occasions no surprise here, as it has long been felt that colonial representation on this important body was only a question of time. Until details of the proposed measure are known it cannot be said whether the Imperial proposals will be acceptable to Canada. If they are simply carrying out an Imperial suggestion of two or three years ago, then it may be safely affirmed that they will not be received with much favor in the colonies. At the time referred to Sir John Thompson was freely mentioned as a possible representative of Canada on the Judicial Committee, and everybody admitted that he would have made a splendid law lord, his legal attainments being such as to qualify him to sit on the bench of the highest court in the land. The Imperial proposal was that Canada or Australia could have a representative on the Judicial Committee providing the colony nominating the judge paid his salary and expenses. The Dominion Government would not entertain such a proposal. If the salary had to be voted annualy it might lead to criticism in Parliament, and probably to party strife. The conduct of the judge might be unjustly criticised and his motives impugned, with the result that his influence would be weakened. It was felt that whoever went from Canada to the Judicial Committee, whether Sir John Thompson or Mr. Blake, he should be removed altogether from the domain of party politics, consequently the Imperial proposal was rejected.

A cable message was received from the High Commissioner to-day, stating that there was a possibility of Mr. Ward, Postmaster-General of New Zealand, returning home by the Canadian route. In that event he would visit Ottawa and discuss with Sir Mackenzie Bowell the possibility of a preferential trade arrangement between the two colonies.

There was consternation in the public departments Thursday over the irresponsible intimation in a Montreal newspaper that there would be no statutory increases for civil servants this year, but on the contrary there would be a reduction in salaries of from five to ten per cent. The discreet paragrapher "evened up" by lopping off $1000 from the salaries of all Cabinet Ministers. Everybody wanted to know if the report was true. To set the matter at rest your correspondent saw the guardian of the Dominion strong box. The Minister laughed heartily when he heard the report, and said it was news to him. He authorised me to say that the matter of reducing the salaries of civil servants had not been contemplated by the Government.

The annual report of the Department of Indian Affairs was issued to-day. Since he was appointed Deputy Superintendent-General, Mr. Reed has endeavored to acquaint himself with the condition of the Indians in the older provinces. In this connection he says: "I have been somewhat disappointed to observe a want of that energy and progress which are striking features of not a little of Indian life of the west. Some bands, which have reached a point towards which many in the west are still struggling, manifest a lack of desire for further improvement, and do not care to avail themselves of the machinery provided by the Advancement Act. There seems, generally speaking, to be too much inclination to take advantage of such exemptions as special legislation has necessarily provided for the protection of Indians in the earlier stages of evolution, and to shrink from assuming the responsibilities of citizenship. It will be the department's endeavor to trace to their sources the causes productive of this apathetic attitude and to provide the necessary incentive to further progress, for experience has shown that Indians are peculiarly sensitive to the operation of the law by which, when progression ceases, retrogression begins.

O'Reilly's Block at Aylmer, the biggest building in the village, was burnt last night. The loss is $8000. Origin of the fire incendiary.

PAYING 50C. A DAY.

Commander Murray Commences Relief Work in Newfoundland.

St. John's, Nfld., April 15.—Commander Murray is getting relief plans formulated and will begin work on the city waterworks next week, which will employ 500 to 1000 men at 50 cents a day for one month. Work will cease then to allow the men to go fishing. Similar work will also begin at outports. He is also arranging plans to assist fishermen with small outfits to begin voyages. The wages are considered small and are being taken as a criterion of Crown Colony pay, strengthening the cause of Confederation greatly.

The Copyright Bugaboo.

New York, April 14.—The Times today says: "If the Canada Copyright act be allowed the cause of international copyright would receive a terrible setback, and of the not too many fruits of a long and arduous campaign that literary men are now enjoying the most substantial would be taken away. Any privileges that Canada may gain would, of course, soon be demanded by the other English colonies, and the existing system would fall to pieces."

Tariff Reduction in Victoria.

Melbourne, April 14.—The report of the Victorian Tariff Board has been published. It declares that the evidence taken shows a feeling in the colony in favor of moderate protection, but opposed to prohibitive duties. The board finds that the duties levied with the view to fostering industries failed of their purpose and have become a great burden. The reduction of various duties is recommended.

The morning session will take up reports of Auxiliaries, Mission Bands, District Organizer, etc. The afternoon papers will be devoted to papers, solos, question drawer, etc. In the evening a public meeting will be held, at which a most interesting programme of addresses, solos, quartettes, recitations, etc., will be presented. A table of missionary literature and also fancy work from the Industrial School in Japan will be provided.

Everything points to a very successful concert under the patronage of Peterborough Lodge No. 111, I. O. O. F., by the Van Amburg Family, only successful rivals of the McGibney Family. Plan of seats at W. J. Green's Clothing Store. Popular prices 50 and 25c.

Affected by Gas.

The family of Mr. John Lane, six in number, residing in Campbellford, had a hard and almost fatal experience on Sunday morning last. During the night gas had escaped from the coal stove and filled the rooms, and every one of the family became deathly ill and vomited. The eldest son was the first to rise, and in a weakened and stupid condition he went to a neighbour's house for assistance, and in a few minutes several of the neigboure had assembled. A physician was sent for without delay, and rendered them the medical assistance necessary. Mr. Lane thought at first they had been poisoned by eating maple syrup Saturday evening, but the doctor assured them otherwise. They were many hours prostrated.

Ashburnham Council.

On Saturday evening a special meeting of the Ashburnham council was held. Present, Messrs. Calcutt, Craig, Smith and Rutherford. A bylaw was passed authorising a loan of $5,000 for school purposes and general expenditure.

The clerk, on motion of of Messrs. Smith and Craig was instructed to advertise for tenders for watering the following streets: Elizabeth, from the bridge to Stewart; Stewart from Elizabeth to Clifton; Brown from Elizabeth to Douro, Mark from Elizabeth to Robinson, Lake from Elizabeth to Robinson, and Robinson from Lake to Mark street. Tenders to be received till May 6th at 6 p.m. The clerk was also instructed to issue notices respecting the procuring of tags by owners of dogs.

Fisheries Petition.

Mr. John Purser and some other gentlemen of Cobourg, have been instrumental in getting up a petition to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, which received about 500 signatures. The intention of the petition is to get the Government to change the dates for the opening of maskinonge and bass fishing. The regulations do not permit maskinonge fishing until June 15th and bass fishing until July 1st. It is claimed these dates are too late for Rice Lake; that on account of the water in that lake getting warm earlier than in the larger lakes, the fish spawn sooner, and before the date comes for catching them, they have gone into the rice beds and cool water and will not bite. This change was advocated by the former fisheries inspector for Rice Lake, and is now advocated by the present inspector, to make the date May 24th.

Wedding Bells.

Wedding bells were pelting forth their merry chime at the residence of Mr. Wm. Clancey, Camden Settlement, N. W. T., formerly from the county of Addington, Ont., when his eldest daughter Margaret Jane Clancey was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Henry D. Hicks, who came from the county of Peterborough some five years ago and is now a prosperous farmer of Regina District. The marriage ceremony was duly performed by the Rev. S. R. Brown, pastor in the Methodist church, Regina. The bride was assisted by her sister, Mary Clancy, and the groom by his brother Daniel Hicks. The bride and the bridesmaid were handsomely dressed in a dove coloured henrietta trimmed with silk. The many friends of the wedded couple gathered together in the afternoon to witness the marriage ceremony performed, after which ample justice was done to a beautiful spread prepared for the occasion. In the evening, the happy couple drove to their home in Davin settlement, where they have the best wishes of their many friends extended to them.—COM.

THE EDISON DIFFICULTY NOT YET SOLVED.

A Committee Will Probably Go to Toronto to Represent the Employees Before the Board.

The dissatisfied employees of the Canadian General Electric Company, who are at present not working, held a mass meeting on Saturday afternoon, when it was decided to make a proposition to the Company regarding the solution of the existing difficulty.

The employees are willing to pay for the work they spoil, at a value fixed by the foreman of the department in which the work is done, provided it can be shown that the job was spoiled through either carelessness or neglect. The men also wish a provision inserted in the agreement to the effect that only twenty-five per cent. per week of a man's wages shall be deducted in payment for spoiled work. Further the employees wish the management to agree that the present difficulty shall not prejudice them against any of the men.

Mr. Geo. A. Cox, who was in town Saturday, agreed to do his utmost to persuade the management to come to an amicable agreement with the men, and it is probable that Messrs. Westbrook, Watt, Morris and McKenzie, who form the executive committee of the employees, will go up to Toronto to-day or to-morrow, accompanied by their solicitor, Mr. E. B. Edwards, and appear before the board of directors.

The men have decided not to return to work until all are satisfied with the arrangements made. Another meeting is called for to-morrow afternoon at four o'clock.

Johnson-Smily Recital.

The Toronto Globe, of yesterday, says:—"There were camp-stools down every aisle, and dozens were standing in Bond Street Church last night when, before an audience of 1,500 people, Miss Pauline Johnson and Mr. Owen A. Smily gave one of their popular dual recitals. Every selection upon the programme was recalled, which, taking into consideration the fact that the artists are the authors of the numbers they recite, reflects a double credit upon them. Miss Johnson's last number, "His Sister's Son," in which she wore a striking Paris gown, and Mr. Smily's "Behind the Screen," were the best numbers upon the programme, and received unbounded applause. The Ladies' Aid of the church are to be congratulated upon the success of the affair, and the handsome sum netted thereby." These two talented artists have been engaged by the Hockey Club to give an entertainment in the Opera House on the evening of Thursday, April 18th. A liberal patronage of the affair is bespoken, as the Hockey club are well deserving of the support of the public.

Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt.
Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

A QUIET CHURCH WEDDING THIS MORNING.

The Celebration of the Embury-Knight Nuptials.

A quiet but very interesting wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Young at eleven o'clock this morning in the George street Methodist church.

The contracting parties were Mr. W. J. Embury, a Civil Service official of the Belleville post office, and Miss Ida M. Knight, daughter of Dr. Knight, of Peterborough, but formerly a resident of Bloomfield.

Only the immediate relatives of those interested were present, and the services of a bridesmaid and groomsman were dispensed with for the occasion.

The bride was very becomingly attired in cream crepon richly trimmed with silk lace, and carried a handsome bouquet of cream Marechal Neil roses.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the residence of Mr. S. C. Aseltine, Water street, who is a brother-in-law of the bride, and after partaking of a dainty wedding dejeuner, Mr. and Mrs. Embury left on the 1.40 p.m. train for their future home in Belleville.

PETERBOROUGH'S GREATEST STORE.

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'Y

When this store entered upon its new career, as a SPOT CASH STORE, many were the comments, and many were the objections, made by the people of Peterborough. But by strict attention to the wants of the people, and by securing the very best goods that could be bought at the lowest possible prices, and saving our customers the wholesale or middle profits, the result is to-day beyond our most sanguine expectations.

This change had to come. It was a necessity of the period. Each city in Canada has such a store, and Peterborough possesses in this store an instance second to none. Our task has been to eleminate all superflous cost, so that the customer pays only for the article he buys.

It could easily be shown that this business has been a decided benefit to this community, more perhaps than any other store to any other town.

By going direct to the maker for the goods we want, and paying spot cash for what we get, we have been able to reduce prices and save the public many a hard earned dollar.

It is very necessary these days, that people should live cheaper. That could never be if you had to face three profits on every article you buy.

It is quite possible the way we sell. Perhaps we are monopolists as some say. Perhaps we are undersellers as others would have you believe. But nevertheless results are eminently satisfactory to thousands of the families in this part of the province.

A price that is sheer cost to some, or even less than cost to others, is often a price that we sell at our small profit each day of the year.

Our progress rests on principles. It is constant progress. More goods sold and more money counted each year than the preceding year. Everyone who has made a trial purchase has found it pays to deal at such a store.

We invite you who have never bought from us to make a trial purchase and be convinced (that in credit stores who buy nearly all their goods from wholesale merchants, or worse still from so called manufacturer's agents), you have to pay three profits and your share of all that merchant's bad debts.

No Trouble to Show Goods.

CHURCH CHIMES.

ST. JOHN'S MISSION.

Both matins and evensong services were well attended at the Mission yesterday, the building in the evening with difficulty accommodating those who sought admission.

The work of the choir in rendering the special Easter music showed to great advantage.

The floral decorations of the interior were most beautiful, the arrangement of Easter lilies and potted palms being most tasteful. Both services were conducted by Rev. B. C. Andrews, whose timely and instructive addresses are much appreciated as evidenced by the large congregations which have gathered to hear him. Last evening he delivered an interesting discourse from the text: "And as they spoke Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them and saith unto them, peace be unto you," Luke xxiv ch., 36th verse. Peace, the speaker explained, was one of the greatest legacies which Christ left behind him when He was called home. Through it, when once attained, the dark and unknown future could be faced with tranquility. The body might be smarting and quivering with exquite suffering but the soul was at peace with its Maker. A balm of indescribable beneficence was experienced.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

The services in St. Paul's Church yesterday were exceedingly interesting. The pulpit was tastefully decorated with beautiful flowers, and large congregations were present both morning and evening.

In the morning Rev. Dr. Torrance conducted the service, and preached a very able and instructive sermon from the words contained in 1st Peter, chapter 1 and 3rd verse. Dr. Torrance directed his remarks towards the later clause of the verse, the central thought being "The Living Hope," under two heads—1st, the nature of that hope; 2nd, the grounds upon which it rests.

In the evening Rev. Dr. Smith, of Kingston, occupied the pulpit, and delivered an earnest, thoughtful discourse on the words:—"And He must needs go to Samaria"—John iv, verse 4. The musical portion of the services were of a special nature, and very appropriate to the occasion. The morning anthem, Stainer's "Christ our Passover," and the evening "King of Kings," Simper, were excellently rendered by a large choir, the solos being taken by Mrs. Mein and Miss Rose respectively. Both selections were given with a vigor of attack and promptness that betokened careful study and training. The solos were well rendered.

During the evening service Mrs. W. A. Sanderson rendered that always welcome "I know that My Redeemer Liveth," from the Messiah, in a manner deserving of the highest praise. Mrs. Sanderson was in excellent voice, and she certainly did herself credit in her rendition of this time-honoured selection.

GEORGE STREET METHODIST.

Rev. Mr. Young, the pastor, delivered two sermons yesterday which were greatly appreciated by the large congregation assembled. The Easter music at both morning and evening service was specially prepared for the occasion and proved most enjoyable.

The morning anthem, Beirley's "Joyful Easter Tide," in which Mrs. Seward took the soprano solo most excellently, was very effective. Mr. John Miller as a solo sang "The Resurrection," Shelly, in remarkably good voice. Miss Vina Belleghem sang the obligato solo very sweetly in Ashford's arrangement of the anthem, "Christ is Risen."

At the evening service the choir rendered as an anthem Clare's "Why Seek ye the Lord Among the Dead?" Mr. Alf. Miller and Miss Clara Belleghem taking the bass and soprano solos respectively with good effect. As an offertory solo Mr. W. H. Manning sang "Christ Arose" in a manner which was greatly appreciated.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion, a most superb bunch of Easter lillies procured through the thoughtfulness of Mr. W. H. Manning being greatly admired.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

Yesterday morning, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed in St. Andrew's church by the largest number ever present on such an occasion. The Rev. Dr. Smith, of Queen's College, preached an eloquent and appropriate sermon from the words "This do in remembrance of Me." The sermon was greatly appreciated by all present. In the evening a very large congregation was present, the church being well filled. The pastor, the Rev. MacWilliams, preached in his usual manner a very appropriate sermon from 1 Cor. 15—20, "Now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept." The music by the large choir was appropriate to the occasion and was greatly appreciated. The solo by Mr. Mulligan was beautifully rendered.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

St. John's was superbly decorated with with floral offerings for Easter. All the window sills were laden with nature's gifts and the atmosphere was redolent with the exquisite perfume exuded from the magnificent bunches and clusters of lilies, which were profusely distributed in and about the pulpit.

At the eleven o'clock service the sermon was taken by Rev. C. B. Kenrick and in the evening, Rev J. C. Davidson, the rector, spoke from the words "Till the day break and the shadows flee away." In his remarks he dwelt to a great extent on having confidence in the future, in which light and not darkness was to be the lot of all God's people, and referred to the night of dark sorrow through which the first disciples passed, breaking into the morning of the glorious resurrection. Applying the principle to our own lives, he pointed out that it should not only save us from despair, but stimulate us to face the present bravely and the future hopefully. The principle further led us on to reverently investigate the future with a view to prepare for it and to overcome the present darkness and despondency. A closing reference was made to the grave, where the day breaks and the shadows flee away.

The church was crowded at all three services and in the evening the aisles were completely filled with chairs to accommodate the large congregation which assembled.

The collection amounted to $746.22, of which sum $238.62 is to be devoted to introducing the electric light and beautifying the interior of the church and $68.70 to be applied to the reduction of the church debt.

The music during the day was of a high grade and greatly appreciated by the large congregations in attendance. In the evening Mr. Lount took the baritone solo excellently in the offertory anthem. The choir as a whole is to be congratulated on the vigour of its attack in the music rendered and the precision of the time kept.

IN THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The pulpit of the Murray street Baptist church was beautifully decorated with Easter and cala lilies yesterday, and was occupied, both morning and evening, by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Trotter, who, in the morning, preached on "The Resurrection," and in the evening on "The Crucifixion."

At the morning service a quartette composed of Mrs. Scott, Miss Hutchinson, Dr. Scott and Mr. Kemp, sang "Christ Arose" in remarkably good voice.

Rev. Mr. Pady occupied the pulpit of the Park street Mission on Sunday, and preached to large congregations. In the morning the choir sang as an anthem "Up from the grave He arose," and in the evening "What will you do with Jesus."

Next Sunday will be Young People's Day, and both congregations will unite and assemble in the Murray street church in the evening. Special exercises are being prepared for the occasion.

AT ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.

At St. Peter's Cathedral on Easter day there were thronging congregations at all the services, which included three masses one at 6.30, one at 8 and one at 10.30. The altar was beautifully decorated with flowers and lights and, especially in the evening, presented a splendid appearance. At 10.30 pontifical High Mass was celebrated by His Lordship, assisted by the Cathedral clergy. His Lordship gave a brief address, extending cordial Easter greetings to the congregation. The music was special and specially well rendered. Lamblotte's mass in E flat was sung. The solos, duets and trios, incidental to the mass, were well taken by Miss Kate Simons, Miss L. Hurley, Miss H. Hurley and Mrs. Geo. Ball, sopranos; Mrs. J. Lynch and L. Mahony, contraltos; Mr. A. McPherson, tenor, and Mr. T. Mahony, bass.

At Vespers, which were sung by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, his Lordship delivered the sermon on the Gospel for the day. The music was Millard's "Magnificat." Mrs. Geo. Ball sung excellently in the "O'Salutaris," and the "Tantum Ergo" was finely sung by Miss M. Hurley and Mr. T. Dunn. Miss Kate Hurley presided at the organ in a very satisfactory manner.

CHARLOTTE STREET CHURCH.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. J. Rae, who was conducting anniversary services in Napanee, the pulpit of the Charlotte street Methodist church was occupied most acceptably both morning and evening yesterday by Rev. M. E. Wilson, of Baltimore, who preached most appropriate Easter sermons.

In the morning the choir sang the anthem "Ye Nations all be Joyful," Beirly, in perfect harmony, Miss Alice Davis and Miss Florence Hall taking the alto and soprano solos most acceptably.

At the evening service a pretty arrangement of the "Easter Hymn," being entirely new in Peterborough, was rendered in a manner which was deserving of high commendation, indeed. Miss Pollard, alto, Miss Florence Hall, soprano, and Mr. W. J. Squires took the solos most pleasingly.

THE OPEN AIR SERVICE.

It Was Attended by a Very Large Congregation Indeed.

On Good Friday afternoon the southern portion of the town was alive with citizens who had for the objective points of their walks, the grounds of the South Ward School, where it was generally understood that divine worship would be held in the open air.

A large platform was built up against the south wall of the school, the windows of which was becomingly and fittingly draped in dark colours. The platform was surrounded by chairs and benches, which were quickly filled as the hour for the opening of the service approached.

At four o'clock the combined choirs of St. John's and the Mission issued forth from the Mission building, followed by Rev. J. C. Davidson and Rev. B. C. Andrews in their clerical robes and proceeded to the school grounds where so large a congregation had assembled as to occupy all the available seating capacity.

A well known hymn was given out and sung with great fervour by those assembled, printed copies being distributed amongst the seats. The singing was led by an orchestra under the leadership of Mr. Bandmaster Miller.

Rev. B. C. Andrews read the account of the death of the Lord Jesus as described by St. Luke. Hats were then removed and the Apostles' Creed solemnly repeated, after which a short prayer was offered.

Rev. J. C. Davidson then delivered a simple address, founding his remarks on the words, "And the people stood beholding," Luke xxiii. 35. Public attention, he said, was always directed not only upon the leading actors in a tragedy but upon the spectators. It is asked regarding the spectors of the crucifixion, "What were their feelings?" "Why did they not interfere?" There was no interference because the spectators were the real authors of the tragedy, having coerced Pilate into an unjust sentence by their fierce cries in Jerusalem.

The speaker then briefly noticed the different stages through which these spectators had advanced from angry excitement in Jerusalem to hardened scoff at Calvary, there to be hushed into awesome silence as they witnessed the dying acts and words of the crucified Lord. Finally, at the moment of His death evidently reaching a higher plane of feeling and belief, as St. Luke says that those who come to behold smote their breasts and returned. From the sorrow thus implied it might be gathered that there was some hope for the spectators, and that they were not forever doomed. From the sorrow thus aroused at the Cross they might come to express their sorrow in the Temple of God like the Publican.

An appropriate hymn was then sung, after which those present joined in a short prayer led by the Rector.

The service being concluded the choir proceeded to the Mission building, which was soon crowded to the doors. An entirely informal service of prayer was inaugurated, which was participated in with great fervor and interest. In closing, the Rector thanked those who had so kindly given their services gratuitously to towards the success of the service, many of those assisting not even being identified with the congregation. Special mention in this respect was made of the members of the orchestra, the singers, and those who assisted in building the platform, as well as taking part in the general work of making the preparations.

"Maundy Thursday."

The eleventh was "Maundy" Thursday, so called because Christ on this day washed the feet of His disciples and gave them a command to love one another; hence it is called Dies Mandati-Mandate, or Maundy Thursday. Formerly the church doors used to stand open for the whole day, signifying that all who would might come in. The ceremony first commenced in 1362, and for a long time the English kings observed the custom of washing the feet of a number of poor men equal to the years of their age and of giving them shoes, stockings and money. Money and clothing are still given by deputy, but the foot washing has long been discontinued.

"GOOD-BYE PROFIT"

It seems a pity to sell China and Crockery Ware for so little, but what can we do? We have nothing but the best and newest lines. But where to put the large importations coming in bothers us.

We have said "GOOD-BYE PROFIT" for the next few weeks. It has to be done and we are here to do it. Prices will be cut to make the people glad to get our China and Crockery Ware.

We have no flimsy excuses to offer for sacrificing our profits for a week or two. Everybody knows we can be relied on for what we say. Everybody knows, too, that we can take down our stove pipes and do a little painting without disturbing the stock very much or "vacating the store." It's a question of MORE ROOM with us, and we're going to help you to help us to get it—that's all. No fooling here.

BETTER THAN A BANK.

"Would you put your money," we said to a bank manager, who had previously shown us a handful of policies upon his own life, "would you put your money in a bank if you had your life to live again?"

"Not I," he replied, "I should invest it in life assurance policies, on the endowment plan."

The same question was put to another banker, who smiled at its innocence, remarking that the bank rate was uncertain from day to day. It might be 3½ per cent.; it might be much less. On the other hand, he said, insurance companies obtain over 5 per cent. on their accumulated premiums. The fact of the matter is, he continued, there is no institution in the world which can be compared to life insurance; for by its means a man is enabled to make provision for his family, or for his dependents, at once.

Assuming that a young man did put by $50 a year in a bank, it would take a long time to accumulate an amount which could be secured forthwith by payment of the $50 to a life assurance society. For instance, an annual premium of $50, commencing at age 25, secures a policy in the Confederation Life Association of Toronto for about $2,200, with profits payable at age 60, or previous death. The provision, even if death occur when only one premium has been paid, is immediate; while in the other case it is a paltry $50 which his family will inherit, against $2,200 if an insurance has been effected.

The real point of contrast, however, between the insurance company and the bank, is the certainty which attaches to the one, and the uncertainty which marks the other. In point of fact, the bank investor is, more truly speaking, a speculator who stakes the welfare of his family on the chances of his own life, and his power of resisting the temptation to divert the investment; that is, to use it for some other purpose than that of family provision. If only he be spared, they may fare well enough; but if death or misfortune come before his plans are matured, their case is a sad one indeed.

The policy-holder, on the other hand, is the conscientious investor, for, having regard to a provision for his family, he seeks safety—the first condition of "investment," as opposed to "speculation"—before anything else. Thanks to the insurance companies, he finds that he can forthwith make this provision absolutely secure and certain, and at the same time can obtain profits on his outlay greatly superior to the utmost profits that would accrue if he "ran his own risk" under the most favorable circumstances.

Canadian manufacturers have a reputation for shrewdness; they are keen, hard-headed men of business, and no men insure more largely. Next to commercial men come doctors and clergymen in the practical recognition of the value of life insurance. Like merchants, they are keenly alive to the investment element, but press its moral aspect home to all who come within their influence. The reason is obvious; our spiritual and medical advisers are the first to be appealed to in a case of distress brought about by death. They are the first to devise means for relieving the widow and orphan; and, from the difficulty they encounter in securing efficient help, their experience forces them to realize the necessity for every man to make provision for his own family, and not leave them to the tender mercies of the world.

The Endowment Policy issued by the Confederation Life Association gives absolute and unconditional guarantee of payment of claims immediately upon receipt of satisfactory proofs of death, or should the insured survive the endowment period he may elect to take his money in any of the following six ways: First—The policy may be surrendered, and the entire value taken in

1. Cash.
2. Paid-up policy, payable at death.
3. Life annuity, an annual payment to the insured till death.

Second—Or, the policy may be exchanged for a paid-up policy of assurance, payable at death, without profits, for an equal amount of insurance, and, in addition, there will be paid an annuity for life of $45 per $1,000, applying the accumulated surplus either in

4. Cash.
5. Bonus addition to the sum assured.
6. Life annuity.

Training Canes.

"Training canes" are the sign at one of the principal shops. A cane of medium length, with a ball handle weighing any amount. These training canes were till recently part and parcel of every well appointed dude, but lately there has been a great demand for them by the athletic girls who is nothing if not mannish. She contends the training cane is a capital thing to develop muscle and make a girl walk well. So be it. If she likes it, why find fault?—New York Herald.

ORIGIN OF THE WORD "BOSS."

Derived from the Dutch "Baas," Which Means Foreman or Master.

Even the dread name of "boss" is an inheritance from the Dutch period. It is derived from baas, meaning foreman or master. A hundred years after English became the official language men of wealth and character like "Boss" Walton, of the famous Walton House, in Franklin Square, received the application from persons who wished to be deferential. And to-day a workingman may use the title in its original sense when addressing his employer or accosting a stranger.

In its political significance "boss" is a Tammany product. As such it defines a vulgar usurper of public authority, who knows he would be squelched if he ventured to stand as a candidate himself, but who succeeds by caucus methods in forcing his puppet candidates on the electors and in directing their official acts for his own selfish ends.

On the other hand, a political "leader" is a man who influences the councils of a party by virtue of his ability to direct public affairs, and who appeals personally to the ballot-box for his commission to make laws and to execute them in the name of the people. Hence with unerring instinct the Tammany bosses call themselves "leaders;" but in Tammany Hall things always go by contraries; even the force of gravitation works towards the ceiling, causing vice to rise above decency and those who have shortened human life to soar into prominence as guardians of the public weal.—Century Magazine.

Secret of Long Life.

Barthelemy Saint-Hilaire, the famous French scholar and politician, who recently entered on his ninetieth year, full of physical and intellectual vigor, has been telling the inevitable interviewer how it is his days have been so long in the land. It is, we are told, the effect of strict adherence to the old proverb, "early to bed and early to rise," with steady work during working hours. Every grand old man seems to have a secret of his own. Mr. Gladstone attributes his longevity to his habit of taking a daily walk in all weathers, and his giving thirty-two bites to every morsel of food. Oliver Wendell Holmes pinned his faith on equability of temperature. The late Major Knox Holmes swore by the tricycle, which in the end was the cause of his death. Dr. P. H. Van de Weyde, an American octogenarian, not long ago offered himself "as an example of the benign influence of the study and practice of music."

Some aged persons give the credit of their long lives to abstinence from tobacco, alcohol, meat, or what not; others to their indulgence in all these things. One old lady, who had reached the age 120 or thereabouts, maintained that single blessedness is the real elixir vitae, and she ascribed the death of a brother at the tender age of ninety to the fact that he had committed matrimony in early life. The late M. Ferdinand de Lesseps believed in horse riding. Mr. James Payn complains that in his boyhood he "got a little bored with too much horse." In a letter recently published, M. de Lesseps delivered himself on the subject as follows: "I shall always be deeply grateful to Larine, my riding master, who from my earliest years made me share his keen passion for horses and I am still convinced that daily exercise has in a large measure been the means of enabling me to reach my eighty-fourth year in perfect health." Carlyle was also a great rider almost to the end of his long life, and he not only rode, but groomed his horse himself. On the whole it must be concluded that the secret of longevity is a sound constitution prudently husbanded.

That tired feeling, loss of appetite and nervous prostration are driven away by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which makes pure blood.

NO SUCH THING AS OLD AGE

To those who use South American Nervine

A Lady of 80 Years Permanently Cured by this Wonderful Medicine.

Three Doctors said "Old Age was Her Complaint" and Gave Her Up—Three Bottles of Nervine Gave Relief—Twelve Bottles Cured Absolutely.

MRS. JOHN DINWOODY, Flesherton, Ont.

Wordsworth speaks of "An old age serene and bright, and lovely as a Lapland night." And elsewhere this same writer talks of "An old age, beautiful and free." These are conditions that come to the man or woman, though their years may border close on to a century, when in the enjoyment of good health. In fact it is difficult to think of some of the old men and women on the stage of life to-day as old people, there seems to be such a perennial youthfulness about their every movement and act.

Does someone tell us that cases like this must be the exception and not the rule with those who have approached to or gone beyond the allotted three score years and ten? Not so, if they have become acquainted with the virtues contained in South American Nervine. Before us in this sketch is the picture of Mrs. John Dinwoody, of Flesherton, Ont., a resident of that town for forty years. No person in the town and country side around is perhaps better known than this lady, and none more highly esteemed. Three years ago it was her sad lot to loose a daughter who had been all the world to her. The shock sustained by this event completely broke up the system of Mrs. Dinwoody. She supposed her end had come. She lectured for one year with three doctors, and they gave her case up, saying that it was one of old age and no one, nor any medicine could do her good. Made of the kind of stuff that gives beauty to age at any time she did not despair. She was influenced to try Nervine. She took three bottles, and this was sufficient to show her that her end was not yet. From these she obtained relief. She persevered, and in all took twelve bottles of the medicine, with the result that she is to-day completely cured of that breaking-up of the system that threatened her three years ago.

There is nothing wonderful in the fact that Mrs. Dinwoody would proclaim to the thousands of old people throughout this broad land, that with old age does not necessarily come decline, decrepitude and disease. Why should we not live into the eighties and nineties, and cross the border of the century?

South American Nervine, whether the person be young or old, gets at the nerve centers, and when they are kept in proper condition the system is as well able to withstand disease at eighty as at thirty. With this prospect in view who would not live to an old age and enjoy the pleasures of family, friends and society, and take a part in watching the marvelous progress and developments of these closing days of a wonderful century, which marks as not the least of its wonderful discoveries, the discovery of South American Nervine.

TWO MURDERS IN A CHURCH

Horrible Discovery by Ladies in San Francisco.

A BAPTIST PASTOR UNDER ARREST

Bodies of Two Murdered Girls Found in the Sacred Edifice—One Hacked to Death, One Strangled—A Medical Student Suspected.

San Francisco, April 15.—The mutilated body of Minnie Williams, a young domestic, was found in the study of Rev. Dr. Gibson, pastor of Emanuel Baptist Church, to-day. The discovery was made by young ladies, who had come to decorate the church for Easter. Parts of the girl's clothing had been crammed into her mouth, with which the murderer had tried to stifle the cries of his victim, whom he hacked to death.

Another horrible discovery was made Sunday morning in a small room in the steeple. The church had been desecrated by a second murder, the victim being another young girl, Blanche Lamont, who had been missing since the 3rd inst.

She had been strangled to death, her clothes had been torn from her person and the body was almost nude when discovered. Her shoes and stockings were missing. The imprints of the assassins' finger nails were plainly visible on the murdered girl's throat, but there was no indication of further violence.

Shortly after the discovery was made Dr. George Gibson, pastor of the church, was taken into custody by the police. No charge was made against him, but he will be held until the mystery is fully cleared. Miss Lamont was last seen alive in the company of Theodore Durant, a young medical student and assistant superintendent of the Sunday school connected with the defiled place of worship.

Durant, who is said to have been engaged to be married to Miss Lamont, is suspected of having taken the life of the Williams girl, who is known to have been a warm friend of Miss Lamont. They were members of the church, which they frequently attended together, and were also in the same Sunday school class.

Since the disappearance of Blanche, Miss Williams often said that she knew that her companion had met with foul play. This statement reached the ears of several members of the church, and the girl was asked for an explanation, but she declined to reveal the nature of her information and the matter was dropped.

The police are now inclined to think that Durant, knowing that Miss Williams was in possession of sufficient evidence to prove his guilt in connection with the disappearance of Miss Lamont, concluded to decoy her into the church and silence her forever.

WHOLESALE SEDITION IN SPAIN.

A Widespread Anarchist Plot—Searches Reveal Quantities of Dynamite.

New York, April 15.The Madrid correspondent of The Sun sends via London the significant events of the current week until Thursday. The knowledge of the widespread sedition in many classes has led the Government to adopt the high-handed policy of the Inquisition. There have been searches and wholesale arrests under the pretence of a great anarchist plot brewing. It is announced that secret deposits of large quantities of dynamite have been discovered in Barcelona, Cartagena, the Bilbao district and the French frontier. House to house searches in various places have resulted, according to the official report, in the finding of quantities of anarchist pamphlets of the violent sort, which has led to the arrest of the owners.

The court, for the first time since the Spanish Restoration, did not celebrate Easter with the usual impressive ceremonies. The sudden order announced that even the ceremony of washing the feet of 12 poor men and 12 poor women, usually performed by the Queen and court, will be omitted. It is nonsense to declare that these traditional functions are abandoned through fear of the anarchists.

The newspapers are more remarkable for what they don't contain than for what they do. No reliable news from Cuba is printed, nor indeed about the crisis in domestic affairs, which everybody vaguely feels.

GENEROUS JAIL BIRDS.

Would Starve Themselves to Relieve Others in Want.

Dorchester, N.B., April 13.—The prisoners in the Maritime Provinces' Penitentiary here are making a record for themselves. When Sir John Thompson died they signed a long resolution of regret, extolling the late Minister of Justice.

Now they have requested Warden Foster that they be put on short allowance, in order that what is thus saved may be sent to the sufferers in Newfoundland. Foster laid the matter before the Minister of Justice at Ottawa for approval.

Sir Rod. Cameron's Daughter Not Robbed.

London, April 13.—The rumor that Sir Roderick Cameron's daughter was robbed at the Victoria Station on Thursday evening is regarded with scepticism at Scotland Yard. No such case has been reported to the Scotland Yard detectives. If there was any robbery at all the booty was so small that the matter was left to the local police.

Martin Not Going to Haldimand.

Ottawa, April 13.—Mr. Joseph Martin, M.P., Winnipeg, who arrived here last night, said that he was not in Haldimand, and does not intend going there. He is here on legal business.

THE CANADA LIFE.

Forty-Eigth Annual Report of the Company.

END OF A QUINQUENNIUM

Splendid Progress of a Great Institution—Surplus of the Past Five Years to be Distributed to the Policy Holders—Results of Sound and Prudent Management.

DIRECTORS' REPORT.

The annual meeting of the Canada Life Assurance Company was held Monday at the head office in Hamilton, when the following report was submitted to the meeting, which was largely attended :

The past year, 1894, being the 48th, of the company's history, and the termination of a quinquennial period, when the surplus of the five years falls to be ascertained and distributed to the policyholders, the occasion is of more than usual interest, and the directors are highly gratified in being able to present another record of that continued success which has attended the operations of the company.

The applications for assurance during 1894 were 3678 for $8,259,501, of which 3438 for $7,708,801 were accepted. The sum of $550,700 upon 240 lives, which the board did not consider it desirable to accept, were declined, and 246 for $495,744, not having been carried out, the new business of the year was $7,213,057 of assurances under 3192 policies, with a new premium income of $246,310.59. The year's addition to the business made the total amount of assurances and bonus additions $66,807,397.24, upon 22,696 lives, under $30,868 policies.

The total income of the year was $2,661,985.74.

The year's claims by deaths of assured and by payments to assurers under endowment policies which matured during the year amounted to $651,618.58, under 330 policies, upon 427 lives, and after payment of these and of all outgoings, the assets of the company were increased to $15,607,723.49.

As was pointed out five years ago, the gradual fall in the rate of interest obtainable upon satisfactory investments made it prudent and desirable that a lower rate of interest should be assumed for the future than 4½ per cent. upon which the legal reserve of life companies had been based, and to add to the safety and security of the policyholders the ½ per cent, basis had been changed by our company to a future assumption of 4 per cent. By that change the company has voluntarily increased the reserve for its policy-obligations at the present time from $12,233,309.45 to $13,075,777, thereby setting aside for the future security of its policyholders no less than an additional sum of $842,377.55, and the fact that it has been able to do so without materially affecting the surplus cash bonuses to be paid to the policyholders is a striking evidence of the sound and satisfactory position occupied by the company.

The accompanying statements show that the total assets amount to $15,607,723.49, and after deduction of all liabilities therefrom, there remained a surplus of $2,282,827.43 available for distribution, and out of which 95 per cent., $2,168,686.06, has been allotted to policy holders.

To meet the cases of policies becoming claims by death before the next division of surplus in 1900, prospective or intermediate allowances will be made at the rate of a bonus addition of 1½ per cent. per annum upon ordinary life and endowment systems.

As required by the Company's charter, the following directors retire by rotation at the present time : John Stuart, Adam Brown and William Hendrie, Esquires, of Hamilton ; His Honour Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick of Toronto, and A. G. Ramsay, Esq., all of whom are eligible for re-election, as is also the Hon. Senator MacInnes of Burlington, who filled the seat of the late Sir Alexander Campbell, K.C.M.G.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH.

Gentlemen,—The Directors' report and full statements of the financial position of the company being now before you, I beg to move its adoption, and say, that while we may esteem ourselves fortunate in that our annual meetings have hitherto afforded us the agreeable duty of continually reporting the successful progress of the company, the occasion of the present quinquennial division and distribution of the surplus of the past five years is of more than usual interest, and I am very glad, indeed, to see with us so many of our District Managers and local representatives, to whom we are indebted for so much of the company's progress and success.

We again meet you under very favourable and encouraging circumstances, for we are able to report the past year to have been one of advancement and prosperity.

Although the general trade and commerce of this country, and of the whole civilized world, in fact, have suffered from an unparalleled shrinkage and depression, the business of the Canada Life has during the year been marked by a liberal and solid increase. The new assurances were larger than ever before, and the total business in force at 31st December amounted to $66,807,397, or just about double what it was in 1885. The annual income and assets of the company have also each likewise rather more than doubled since then, the past year's income having been $2,661,985, or over $8,000 per day for every business day of the year. In 1885, the assets were $7,044,944. They now amount to $15,607,723, and throwing the figures of these respective heads into tabular form, for better comparison during the past 45 years, they stand as follows :

Date.	Assurance in force.	Annual Income.	Total Assets.
1850	$ 814,763	$ 27,688	$ 41,873
1855	2,349,608	88,908	217,758
1860	3,365,407	123,446	664,627
1865	4,013,268	114,698	717,379
1870	6,404,487	273,728	1,099,008
1875	13,480,037	582,735	2,412,362
1880	21 647,759	835,856	4,297,862
1885	34,890,890	1,336,681	7,044,944
1889	46,848,870	1,839,960	9,964,450
1894	66,807,397	2,661,985	15,607,723

As you will have observed by the report of the directors, the death claims of the year were $651,618, a very moderate amount, largely under what was calculated and provided for, and less, I may say, although our risks were larger than they had been during the previous two years. The result was no doubt to some extent due to the absence of the severe forms of la grippe and its results, which were so general and so fatal in 1892 and 1893, but it is also an indication of the care exercised in the selection of the lives offered for assurance.

As I mentioned to you at our annual meeting last year, an investigation into the mortality experience since the commencement of the company's operations in 1847, was in progress, and we are now able to present to you a most interesting detailed publication of its results, and in doing so I would invite your attention to the evidence which is afforded of the very favourable mortality experience which our company has enjoyed during the lengthened period of its 48 years of existence. The various tables which are included in the publication gave proof of the salubrity of the climate of Canada and of the northern portion of the United States, to which we have confined our operations. They also show that the expectation of life there is found to be more favourable than has been experienced by the life companies of Great Britain, the United States and Germany, whose mortality tables have been made public. We can hardly be wrong, I think in attributing some portion of our favourable experience to the careful attention to which I have already alluded as having been constantly given by the board and the management to the selection of the lives offered for assurance.

Having, as you are aware, upon 31st December last, completed five years since the last distribution of surplus, the amount which has risen during that period has now to be divided, and it is very gratifying to be able to state that, notwithstanding that we have, as already explained, set aside the large additional reserve of $842,378, there remains the handsome surplus of $2,282,827, enabling us to give our policyholders a cash return equal to about 25 per cent. of all the premiums they have paid during the past five years, and it will here be interesting that I mention what has been the surplus allowed to policy holders during the last 24 years :

It was at 1870	$ 157,794
1875	388,311
1880	670,406
1885	1,201,433
1890	1,501,773

for 4 2-3 years, and this year, $2,168,868, which latter sum would have been $3,011,063 had we not changed from the 4 1-2 per cent. basis to that of 4 per cent.

Allusion being sometimes made by persons who are not well informed on the subject to the proportions of the surplus allotted to the policy holders, it may be well that I mention the facts as to these :

In 1870 it was 75 per cent.
In 1875 it was 75 per cent.
In 1880 it was 90 per cent.
In 1885 it was 93¼ per cent.
In 1890 it was 93¼ per cent.
And this year 95 per cent.

In conclusion I would say that it will afford me much pleasure to supply any information or explanation which may be desired, feeling well assured that critical inquiries and explanations will but add to the confidence you may have in the company.

The President then moved the adoption of the report, which was seconded by Vice President F. W. Gates, in a short speech.

Other resolutions were spoken to by Messrs. B. E. Walker, General Manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce ; Major McLaren, His Honour Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick, William Gibson, M.P., Adam Brown, Esq., and others ; while responses were made by Mr J. W. Marling, on behalf of the agents ; Mr. J. D. Macdonald, for the medical examiners, and Mr. Warren F. Burton on behalf of the solicitors of the company.

The following gentlemen were re-elected on the directorate : John Stuart, Adam Brown, William Hendrie, A. G. Ramsay, His Honour Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick and Hon. Senator MacInnes.

The proceedings of the meeting were of a very harmonious character, and passed off very successfully.

OBJECTIONS TO JAPAN'S DEMANDS

Cession of Chinese Territory to Be Resisted by European Powers.

New York, April 14.—The World's London cable says: Japan's terms of peace are approved with practical unanimity so far by the London newspapers. Both the Conservative and the Liberal organs express the opinion that the conquerors are not asking too much. It is even reported that the demand for the cession of the Leaotang (Shingking) Peninsula has evoked no vigorous English protest anywhere. But the tone of the Berlin official press indicates a disposition on the part of the German Government to act with Russia in resisting this demand. The point is made in Berlin and in Vienna, too—and it is understood that representations to such effect have been made to the English Government—that Japan cannot be allowed to have a line of harbors from Formosa to Port Arthur, unless the other maritime powers get important concessions for their own navies in the East. It is stated, apparently on authority in Paris to-day, that the French Government has given Russia perfect assurance of her intention to support Russian resistance to any cession of territory on the Chinese mainland.

Peace in the East.

London, April 15,—The Morning Post has this despatch from Shanghai: A private telegram from a Chinese official in Hiroshima reports that the terms of peace were finally arranged by the negotiators in Shimonoseki yesterday.

FIGHTING IN THE CHITRAL.

Col. Battye Killed While Destroying Village in the Hills.

Calcutta, April 14.—The following news of the Chitral campaign was sent from Sir Robert Low's headquarters to-day : A corps of guides under Col. Battye was instructed yesterday to destroy the villages in the hills from which a persistent fire was dropped into camp. The guides advanced further than Sir Robert had intended. They discovered two large bodies of the enemy approaching and signalled to that effect. Sir Robert signalled back that the guides should retire at once. This the guides did, delivering a steady fire at the enemy. The natives were held in check and apparently suffered heavy losses. Just as the movement of the guides' corps was completed Col. Battye fell mortally wounded. He died a few minutes later. The British lost three others killed and two officers and 17 privates wounded. The British had no idea that such a large force of the enemy was in the immediate neighborhood. Nevertheless their loss would not have been so heavy had the commander's instructions been understood and obeyed. Further fighting in the near future was regarded as likely when the last despatches left camp.

OCEAN GREYHOUNDS RACE.

Trial of Speed Between the Paris and Lucania.

New York, April 15.—The steamship Paris of the American line was moored at her dock Saturday, after encountering and being defeated by the Lucania of the Cunard Line in an ocean race. The Paris left Southampton on Saturday last. On Tuesday the Lucania was espied looming above the horizon to the westward, but astern of the Paris. From that moment the decks of the racing liners were black with excited passengers. Engines were hooked up and the two ships forged through the tranquil sea as fast as their propellers could drive them. On that day the Paris made 507 knots, the Lucania 540. Slowly but steadily the Lucania kept pushing abead. and gaining on the Paris, and at midnight she was slightly in the lead. Signals were exchanged and many wagers were made on board the Paris as to the result of the contest.

The Lucania was lost to the view of the Paris at 3.30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, and arrived at midnight Friday, five hours in advance of the Paris. Notwithstanding this handicap the two steamers left quarantine within 30 minutes of each other, and the Paris landed her passengers an hour earlier than the Lucania. When steaming at top speed the Paris consumed 350 tons of coal a day, while the Lucania used 550.

KILLED BY SEWER GAS.

Fatality in a London Sewer—Two Other Men in Peril.

London, Ont., April 13.—About 2 o'clock Saturday morning Hugh O'Meara, brother of Ald. Stephen O'Meara, Harry Wallace and M. Miller of William-street entered the sewer at the corner of King and Bidout and were working their way eastward, when O'Meara found himself becoming dazed by the effects of the gas and started to leave the scene of danger.

Wallace also realised his peril. Miller, however, was by this time completely prostrated and was found by his companions lying in the filthy water. In endeavoring to convey Miller to the manhole, Wallace, too, was overcome.

O'Meara by a desperate effort succeeded in climbing the ladder and reaching the man-hole. Scarcely had O'Meara reached the surface when he, too, became unconscious, but soon revived. The rescuing party entered the sewer and brought out Wallace in an unconscious condition.

The sewer was opened at several places and the body of Miller recovered.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY OF C. E.

FOURTH ANNUAL CONVENTION TO-DAY.

They Are Now in Session in the George Street Methodist Church—Address of Welcome and Reply—This Evening's Programme.

The fourth annual convention of the Young People's County Union of Christian Endeavour assembled this morning in the George Street Methodist Church.

The morning session was opened with devotional exercises, conducted by the President, Rev. W. R. Young, who occupied the chair. The attendance was exceedingly large, although the weather was most unpropitious for a gathering of the kind.

A nominating committee was appointed to bring in a slate of officers for the ensuing year, after which the different societies belonging to the County Union reported, through their secretaries. All, apparently, are in a and the favourable reports submitted will do much to encourage all the branches to even greater efforts during the year.

The address of welcome to the visitors was made by Rev. Dr. Torrance, who extended greetings in the most cordial phraseology. Meeting together, he said, all could see how much more weighty were the points upon which they agreed than were those upon which they differed. Though the members of the different churches were working at different parts of the great wall, it was all to attain the great end. Though they belonged to different regiments, the army was under the

ONE GREAT COMMANDER.

The speaker welcomed the delegates not as Christians, but as young Christians who profiting by the mistakes of the past, would leave the world better than when they entered it. He recognized the Christian Endeavour movement as one of the most remarkable episodes of the century.

When he thought of the small beginning in Boston and saw to what extent

THE MOVEMENT HAD GROWN,

he was inspired to say "What has God wrought." Few churches, indeed, had not those societies connected with them. Even in the old land, conservative as were the churches, the movement was making great headway. There were few Christian pastors who did not at any time experience a difficulty in keeping the young people in touch with the church at large. The young lads would lose sympathy with the Sabbath school and drift away. Now the ministers felt that the Christian Endeavour was the means of keeping the younger members in sympathy with the society and with the church.

The Christian Endeavour movement, he thought, called forth all the latent energy in the church, as latent power sufficient to drive steamers across the ocean and trains across continents, was procured from coal by ignition. The society had brought the churches closer together and since its inauguration all were working more hand in hand towards the one great end

In closing Dr. Torrance dwelt on the fact that had ever been for the unity of the church. He thought that the Christian Endeavour movement would be the great factor in bringing this state of things to pass, which would ultimately result in the conversion of the world.

The reply to the address of welcome was made for the delegates by Rev. E. E. Howard, of Keene, who thanked Dr. Torrance for the warm words of greeting, which did so much towards making the visitors feel at home.

The members of the Christian Endeavour Society, he thought, felt that they were even more to each other than workers in the Master's vineyard—they were members of one great family and it was with thanksgiving that all were aware of the fact that the family was so very large. Coming as the delegates did from the surrounding country, they looked upon the Peterborough Endeavourers as connections and were not a little proud of their relatives in the town, who were doing such a grand work.

In coming into town the visitors felt as does sometimes the country cousin—a little uncertain but the earnestness and sincerity of Dr. Torrance's words had dispelled all doubts on this point.

AS TO THE WELCOME,

He was pleased to see by the reports that the societies in the county had not only endeavoured but had accomplished much. In the past the Church had not accomplished all she might have done with a more perfect organization. She failed to call to her support the energy of her young people, but rather depended upon the fathers and mothers. Aid was received from the younger members in the Sabbath School work, but they were not organized as new for aggressive Christian work.

In closing Mr. Howard stated that he regarded the Society as a very great aid to the pastor in his work, in the way not only of building up the Christian character, but in reaching those who were not Christians, and gradually leading them into close connection with the Church.

During the morning a conference of the superintendents of Junior Societies was led by Miss Kennedy.

The afternoon session was opened with devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. A. MacWilliams, after which A. R. McDonald, B.A., of Lakefield, delivered an address on "The Holy Spirit's place in Christian Work."

This evening Rev. W. Limbert, of Lakefield, will speak on "Christian Endeavour and Growth." An address on "The Test of Loyalty" will be given by Rev. S. T. Bartlett, after which Rev. Dr. Tavish, of Toronto, will speak on "Missions."

EASTER AT ST. LUKES.

There were four services in St. Luke's Church yesterday, all of which were well attended: The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, both cut and pot, and the singing was of the highest description. The anthems, Te Deum, Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis, being rendered with a precision and spirit seldom, if ever, attained before in St. Luke's, whilst the congregation joined heartily in the familiar hymns of Easter. The services were brought to a fitting termination with the "Hallelujah Chorus" played by Mr. Davies as a closing voluntary.

At the eleven o'clock service the church was crowded. The Rector preached from Rev. i, 17, "Fear Not." Heathen religions were almost invariably religions of fear. In them God was regarded as a cruel being, whose love could never be gained, but whose wrath might be propitiated by sacrifice. But since he was a cruel God, the more horrible the sacrifice, the more pleasing must they be. Hence human sacrifice. In the Old Testament barbarity in religion was forbidden, but it was only in the revelation of Jesus Christ that God was fully revealed as a God of love, who bids us approach Him as children. To this revelation the resurrection of Christ was the necessary seal, and hence the words "fear not" were an appropriate motto for Easter Day.

In the afternoon there was a large congregation of children and visitors, when the sacrament of the baptism was administered to three infants, the children of John Lawrence, John Parrington and Henry Thompson respectively. The Rector gave a short address to the children. At the close of the service the children's Lenten offerings were presented, amounting to $25, mostly in copper coin.

In the evening the congregation was very large. The anthem "He is risen" was sung with much expression and the solo was well taken by Miss Long. The Rector preached from Phil. 3—10, "That I may know the power of His resurrection."

NOTES.

The Easter music will be repeated at the evening service on Sunday next.

The Lenten and Easter offering of the congregation was a liberal one.

The annual Vestry meeting will be held to-night in the school house.

The new brass pulpit desk was in place yesterday, and was much admired.

THE WHEEL.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Wheelman's Association took place on Good Friday in the Gymnasium of the Toronto Athletic Club. The greatest good fellowship and esprit du corps seemed to prevail among the wheelmen, and a large mass of business was transacted in the most expeditious manner. Naturally the keenest interest was excited by the discussion as to the place of the annual meet. Owen Sound, Brantford, Quebec, Waterloo and Peterborough were all solicitous for the honour of a visit from the Association, but eventually all withdrew with the exception of Waterloo and Peterborough.

As the afternoon meeting had been much more protracted than was expected, it was accordingly resolved to restrict the rival towns to one speaker each, and to a hearing of five minutes. President Hopkins of Peterborough, was called upon to lay before the meeting the reasons why his town should get the meet. In doing so he enumerated the hotels that the town possessed, paid particular attention to the race track, and waxed eloquent over the charms of the young ladies. He was followed by President John Scully of the Waterloo Club, who painted vividly the charming scenery with which Waterloo was environed, and the manifest advantages they had for handling an affair like the great meet. Both speakers were cheered loudly when they concluded, and it was felt that a close contest would ensue. While the scrutineers were counting the ballots, the officers for the new districts were announced as follows:—Montreal District, Chief Consul, Gordon Kingan, D. J. Watson and Louis Rubenstein; Quebec District, Chief Consul, Geo. Van Felsom, T. T. Cartwright and J. W. Woodside. The result of the balloting for the meet was now given by President Doolittle, Waterloo being declared the winner. The vote was close, 31 ballots being cast for the western town and 26 for Peterborough.

The officers elected were:

President—Dr. P. Doolittle.

Vice-President—Dr. Balfour, London.

Secretary and Editor—H. B. Donley, Simcoe.

Membership Committee—R. A. Robertson, Hamilton, chairman; Messrs. C. P. Miller and Peter Smith.

Rules and Regulations—T. A. Beamant, chairman; Messrs. G. R. Lloyd, W. J. Darling.

Transportation—A. F. Webster, chairman; Messrs. D. J. Watson, R. J. Wilson.

Racing Board—G. H. Orr, chairman; Messrs. Byers, Clarke, G. C. Brown and Rowse.

Rights and Privileges—E. B. Ryckman, chairman; Messrs. G. A. Kingston and M. W. Irwin.

It was unanimously agreed to give Mr. Donley carte blanche in the management of the official organ, the Wheelman.

Those Who Work Hard!

* * * * * * * * *

Are you a man that works for a living—a man that gets up at 5 a.m. and builds the fire, and then goes out and builds a house?

Are you a Printer, a Painter or a Factory Hand? Are you a Mason, a Bricklayer or a Plasterer? Are you a Moulder, a Machinest or a Blacksmith? Are you a Drover, a Butcher, a Baker or a Lock maker? Are you a Reinholder, a Motorman, a Hack Driver or a Conductor? Are you a Barber, a Bartender, a "Peddler" or a "Drummer"?

Are You Doing Any Work That Takes Tough Clothes to

"STAND THE RACKET?"

We carry just the sort you want. Clothing for the working classes—clothing for your particular sort of work—clothing "Built on Honour."—clothing made to wear!

We carry Stout Tweeds (all wool) and Serge Suits that you can bank on every time at $5, that you can't match elsewhere at $7.50. See them—don't take our word for it.

We carry Overalls and Cotton Pants that wear like leather. We carry Leather Coats and Rubber Clothing. We carry all sorts of Clothes, for all sorts of men, to do all sorts of work in.

FOR "DUDES"

And others who don't work so very hard we carry finer grades of Suits. Just fancy a fine Black Cut-away Suit for $9.75, quite as good as the merchant tailors will charge you $18 for. When you see them you can't help but admit they're all and more than what we say they are. It'll cost you nothing to look. No offence if you don't buy.

We're in the swim to catch your trade, and if we can't drown all opposition, why then we'll sink. We're practical clothiers, and can substantiate our assertions.

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES.

A Comparison.

How much per square yard did you pay for your Carpets, Curtains, Draperies, etc? A single picture which is worthy a place on walls decorated with one of our medium priced papers, cost many times more than the whole Wall Paper combination, side walls, frieze, border and ceiling paper.

No argument is required to prove that a room tastefully decorated is more than half furnished. Taking effect into consideration, WALL PAPER is by far the cheapest adornment towards rendering it stylish, cosy and homelike.

WALL PAPER,
WINDOW SHADES,
CORNICE POLES,
ROOM MOULDING,
PICTURE FRAMES,
BABY CARRIAGES,

At 10c per roll Wall Paper costs less than 3c per square yard. At 15c per roll, it costs less than 4c per square yard. At 25c per roll it costs less than 6c per square yard. Compare this with the cost of your Carpets, Curtains, etc, and see how much cheaper Wall Paper decorations are.

We can show Wall Papers from 4c per roll to $2.00 per roll. In other words, you may buy from us enough paper to cover the walls of an average room for 40c or $20.00.

Our Window Shades are meeting with quick sales. We can give you a nice shade with dado for 25c, mounted on Spring Rollers; for 30c a Fringed Shade; for 60c we can give you an Opaque Shade, with Fringe, worth 85c. Better qualities, equal value.

Our Cornice Poles, Room Mouldings and Picture Frames, always right.

CAUTION—Don't pay large commissions to have samples of Wall Paper brought round to your house, but come to the Peterborough Bookstore where you can buy 40 per cent. cheaper.

WHY DOES A PENDULUM CLOCK GO FASTER IN WINTER THAN IN SUMMER?

Because the the pendulum-rod becomes contracted by the cold in winter and lengthened by the heat in summer. The shorter the rod the quicker the stroke or vibration.

FOSTER MADE LEADER IN THE HOUSE

Canadian Exports To the U.S. Shown An Immense Increase—British Columbia Cedar Dutiable—All Ready For the Session—General Ottawa News.

Ottawa, April 16.—Ottawa people, who are accustomed to bright sunny weather at Eastertide, have been greatly disappointed. Shortly before church time on Sunday rain commenced to fall, and it has descended almost continuously for over 30 hours. The Ottawa and Rideau Rivers are rising rapidly, and by the end of the week the ice will probably be all out of the Ottawa. With one day's rain last week and this week's instalment the streets of the city are practically free of snow and ice. Here and there in a shady corner a little can be seen, but it is evident that the Capital has seen the last of winter and is now in for a season of mud.

Preparations for the session are in a forward state. The Speech from the Throne has been drafted and will be submitted for His Excellency's approval tomorrow. It is arranged that Mr. Archambault, Edward Island, will move the address in the Upper House, but nothing is definitely settled yet regarding the mover and seconder in the Commons, as this is contingent upon the bye-elections on Wednesday. If Sir Mackenzie gets those two Easter eggs from Antigonish and Vercheres then Chisholm and Bisaillon will be called upon to perform the duty.

It is settled that Hon. George E. Foster will be the leader of the ministerial force in the Commons.

The Newfoundland delegates did not conclude their business here Monday, and another session of conference is to be held Tuesday. The visitors are exceedingly anxious to have something tangible to lay before the Newfoundland House of Assembly on April 25, and rather than cut the present deliberations short, without a final conclusion being reached, they have decided to prolong their stay. If this week's steamer to St. John's will not wait for them the Government steamer Newfield will be placed at their disposal.

A new departure is to be made this year in the matter of the state dinner. Hitherto it has been held on the night of the opening day. This session it is to be held on the evening preceding opening day—that is Wednesday evening. It is difficult to learn why the change has been made. One gentleman who was appealed to hasarded the opinion that it was to emphasize the formality of the occasion, and to show to members of Parliament who might expect an invitation for Thursday that there was no discrimination.

A striking instance of the progress of Indian civilisation is afforded by the action of the coroner's jury which sat at the inquest into the murder of the young fellow Skynner, agent's clerk at the Blackfoot reserve, and subsequent killing of the Indian murderer by a mounted policeman when he tried to escape. Three Indian chiefs were on the jury and, yet despite this fact, they coincided in the verdict of acquittal of the mounted policeman who killed the murderer.

The announcement made by your correspondent the other day respecting the early opening of the new Canadian canal at Sault Ste. Marie has, according to advices at the Department here, led vessel-owners to begin to figure on the possibility of securing a few inches of extra draught by using the Canadian canal during the coming season when bound down from Lake Superior. American vesselmen are counting upon a fully 17 feet channel in the Canadian canal, while the present American canal and lock will not permit of more than from 14 to 15 feet, the outside figure being an extreme limit under the most favorable conditions of the water. General Poe, engineer in charge of the American canal, does not expect to be able to pass more than a few vessels through the new American lock this season. Practically, therefore, the new American lock will not be fully opened until next spring.

Kindred to this question of loading of vessels for downward trips is the question of navigation at several points in St. Mary's River. It is in contemplation by the American authorities to dredge the river eventually to 20 feet. At present there is no definite information as to whether certain places known to be shallow will permit of even a few inches more draught was then allowed in the Michigan Canal last season. One or two trial trips will, of course, settle the question. If once a vessel bound down passes through the Canadian canal this season, with several inches more draught than is possible in the American canal, it is obvious that this new Canadian waterway will receive a large share of the traffic between Lakes Superior and Huron during the coming season.

Further evidence of the deep sympathy felt by the Queen for the widow of the late Premier, Sir John Thompson, has just been received. Her Majesty has personally written a beautifully worded letter to Lady Thompson, and forwarded at the same time photographs of the apartment at Windsor Castle in which Sir John received his last earthly honor at the hand of his sovereign, as well as one of the rooms in which the great Canadian statesman was stricken down. It is needless to say that Lady Thompson highly appreciates the latest act of sympathy from Her Majesty.

According to a return prepared by Consul-General Riley, the declared exports from Canada to the United States for the quarter ending Dec. 31 show the substantial increase of $428,299. The total exports for the whole province were $4,373,458, as against $3,945,053. During the period named there was exported from Toronto $748,109, as against $489,541. Amherstburg, Belleville, Brockville, Chatham, Clifton, Collingwood, Fort Erie, Goderich, Hamilton, Kingston, London, Morrisburg, Orillia, Port Rowan, Stratford and Windsor show increases, while the decreases were from Guelph, Ottawa, Palmerston, Port Hope, Sarnia, Port Stanley, St. Thomas, Prescott, Sault Ste. Marie and Wallaceburg. The city of Ottawa shows a decrease of nearly $200,000, chiefly in lumber.

The Government has been investigating the imposition by the Treasury Department at Washington of a duty upon British Columbia cedar shipped to the United States. Under the present United States tariff lumber for house building etc., now enters that country free, and mill owners at British Columbia, claim that, owing to its cheapness and abundance, cedar should be shipped as lumber in the same way, and not classed as it is at present with hard woods "for cabinet work" and, therefore, dutiable. The Board of Appraisers at Washington has decided, however, that British Columbia cedar in any shape must pay duty. It is likely that the mill-owners will appeal the decision of the appraisers to a higher court.

Two Liberal-Conservative Associations were organised in this city to-night.

The old body elected the following officers: Hon. president, Sir Mackenzie Bowell; president, Charles Magee; vice-president, P. Baskerville; treasurer, H. C. Monk; secretary, R. V. Sinclair. Sir James Grant, M.P., and other prominent gentlemen delivered addresses.

The body formed in December, principally by friends of Mr. Taylor McVeity, elected the following officers: President, T. W. Currier; vice-president, ex-Mayor Erratt; treasurer, A. H. Matthewman; secretary, F. W. Bindin. Taylor McVeity was formally adopted as one of the Liberal-Conservative candidates for Ottawa at the coming election.

An official order has been issued that ladies are not to wear court trains at the drawing room next Saturday, but that court veils and feathers are suitable for the occasion, though not obligatory.

Ottawa storekeepers are protesting against the order recently issued by the Board of Works that they should take down their signs.

Lieut.-Governor Schultz is still in the city. An evening paper credits him with being desirous of securing a second term, and says he will lay the matter before the Government prior to his going back to Winnipeg.

The Departmental buildings were closed to-day, this being a holiday.

Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Laurier arrived here to-night.

Mr. G. H. Macdonell, M.P., and Mrs. Macdonell have arrived for the session.

According to advices received at the Department of the Interior excellent work is being done in the Old Country by the two immigration agents of the department, Mr. E. J. Wood having been engaged all winter lecturing in England and Mr. George Leary, formerly of Winnipeg, in Ireland.

THE STAMP FORGERY CASE

Mrs. Mack to Be Extradited for Uttering 38,000 Bogus Stamps in Buffalo.

Hamilton, Ont., April 16.—Mrs. Mack was brought before Magistrate Jelfs Monday on a charge of selling counterfeit United States two-cent stamps, but the American officers decided to drop the prosecution in Canada, and have begun extradition proceedings before Judge Muir. In these proceedings Mrs. Mack is charged with having in Buffalo on April 5 knowingly uttered 38,000 stamps at the office of the Wells, Fargo Express Company. In an interview, Mrs. Mack admitted having gone to Buffalo two days after being engaged by Morrison, and there met her employer. She received several parcels from him on her arrival and expressed them in Buffalo. On being shown a package addressed to Edward Lowry, 1313 Ashland Block, Chicago, she acknowledged having addressed and expressed it.

The American officers profess to know who Mrs. Mack is. They will not divulge her name, but it is said she is an old criminal. Prisoner was remanded for eight days. A well-dressed stranger has been interesting himself in Mrs. Mack lately, and was an interested spectator at the proceedings in court to-day. He was not recognised by Mrs. Mack, and none of the detectives knew him. He has tried to obtain an interview with the woman several times, but has been refused admission to the jail.

EASTER VESTRY MEETING.

The Annual Meeting of St. John's Last Evening — Record of Progress and Energetic Work—Good Financial Condition.

The annual Easter vestry meeting of St. John's church was held in the schoolhouse There was a fair attendance of members of vestry and of the congregation.

The Rector presided, opening the meeting with prayers, and after a brief congratulatory address, called for the

and the financial statements, which were read by Mr. Robt. Fair for St. John's and by Mr. W. B. Bamford, for the South Ward Mission.

The report of the Church Wardens, Messrs. Robt. Fair and Harry Long, stated that the ordinary receipts showed an increase over the past year, on account of envelopes of $460.09, and on account of pew rents of $207.69, and these increases are referred to as an evidence of a cheerful and hearty spirit on the part of the congregation.

The increase of envelope contributions was credited to the special envelope committee, appointed at the last annual vestry meeting.

The report thanked Mr. Henry Holgate and Mr. G. A. Smith for a chart for the church porch, showing the aggregate amounts contributed by the envelope system. Improvements to the school house were also referred to.

The receipt of $55 from the Girls' Guild was acknowledged with thanks, and complimentary reference made to the flourishing condition of the work in the mission field of the south ward, in every department.

The financial statement showed that the total receipts were, including a balance of $197.35 from last year, $3,232.91. The total payments was $3,010.12, leaving a balance on hand of $223.91. The statement of assets and liabilities showed a credit balance of some $50.

The financial statement of the South Ward Mission showed a total income of $694.33, including a balance of $121.46 from last year. The total expenditures were $600.21, leaving a credit balance of $94.09.

After congratulatory remarks upon the favourable nature of the warden's report and the financial statements, they were laid over for further consideration, till the adjourned vestry meeting a fortnight hence.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

When the question of electing church wardens came up, the Rector voiced the hearty sentiments of the meeting and doubtless the whole congregation, when he acknowledged with warm gratitude the very efficient and satisfactory services rendered during the year by the retiring church wardens, Messrs. Fair and Long, and in token of his personal gratitude, he presented them each with a handsome book of Common Prayer. The Rector nominated as his church warden Mr. R. M. Dennistoun and Mr. Harry Long was unanimously re-elected People's Warden.

The assistant church wardens (South Ward Mission) appointed were Messrs. W. B. Bamford and — Pearson.

The sidesmen elected were Messrs. Macfarlane Wilson, Jos. Mills, Wm. Hinchcliffe and Mr. R. H. Kells.

Auditors appointed, — Messrs. Edg. Pearse and Peter Campbell.

The following were appointed an envelope committee—Messrs. M. Wilson, Jos. Mills, H. Rush, W. E. Conway, G. W. Hatton, R. Fair and the Wardens.

EASTER OFFERTORY.

Mr. Long reported that the total of the special Easter offertory was, for electric lighting, $277.62, and for the reduction of the mortgage debt, $89.70, a total of $369,-32.

Cordial votes of thanks were tendered the choirmaster, Rev. C. B. Kenrick, the choir and organist, and W. Buller for favours shown the church, and to all others who had contributed to the promotion of the material interests of St. John's and the mission.

The meeting closed with prayers.

Immediately after a congregational meeting was held at which lay delegates to the Synod were appointed—Dr. Halliday, Dr. Boucher and Mr. H. Rush.

OBITUARY.

The news of the death of Mr. Jeremiah Edward Dolan, which occurred in Dublin, Ireland, on April 3rd, has just reached his relatives in Peterborough. Deceased was well and widely known in Peterborough, having for a number of years filled the position of bookkeeper in the clothing establishment of Mr. T. Dolan, who is a cousin. About two years ago he left Peterborough to take a position in Chicago, and a year later returned to his home in Dublin. His father was the late J. E. Dolan, supervisor of Inland Revenue for Dublin. Deceased had many friends in town who will be pained to hear of his untimely death. During his residence here he took a prominent part in social circles, and was very popular. Mr. J. Dolan of the City Hotel, is a cousin of the deceased, who was in his thirtieth year at his death.

CLEANLINESS AND HEALTH.

THERE is an undeniable relation between cleanliness and health which the citizens of the town cannot ignore. There are certain diseases which sanitarians claim are due almost exclusively to the neglect of sanitary precautions in the matter of cleanliness of premises and surroundings. This fact becomes specially significant now that the snow has disappeared, and it can be seen what a wonderful accumulation of filth is left exposed. The warm sun of spring beating upon this promotes decomposition and the liberation of effluvia offensive to the senses and noxious to health. The law, provincial and civic, imposes divers pains and penalties of a monetary character, for disregard of its mandates in the matter of cleaning premises; but the disregard of the laws of health involved in such neglect, brings even more severe penalties, in the loss of health. The two combined should certainly lead householders to pay prompt attention to the removal of all debris and decomposing matter from their premises. The first point of attack should be the cellar. This part of a house is generally kept almost hermetically sealed during the winter to keep out the frost. Fragments of fruits and vegetables are apt to accumulate in a place kept mostly in darkness and seldom visited. These substances, of course, decay and moulder and the effluvia thus generated steal imperceptably perhaps, and for that reason, all the more dangerously, up through the living rooms, and of course the effect is highly prejudical to health. All cellars should be thoroughly cleaned the very moment it is possible and then well ventilated and covered with a good coating of lime-wash. Similar attention should be paid to the backyards premises, especialy where there is sure to be a great accumulation of unwholesome, (and if not removed) disease-engendering rubbish. Don't wait till you get orders from the authorities to have this work done before some certain fixed date, but in the interests of yourself and family and of your immediate neighbours, attend to the matter at once, or as soon as the weather admits of it. If every householder realized the importance of having his premises put in order, the whole town would, in the matter of surface cleanliness, at least, be in good sanitary condition before the Board of Health issue its notices. The work has to be done, and the sooner the better. If you neglect the matter till action is forced upon you you will have to do then what you should do now. There will be nothing gained in the matter of exertion or expense, while there is a risk that in the meantime the health of yourself and family may be seriously impaired. In this enlightened age everybody recognises the sanitary value of cleanliness, and many neglect to clean up their homes and premises only from procrastination and forgetfulness. To such, a gentle reminder is not out of place. With each householder entering into the spirit of spring cleaning heartily, the whole town will be included and placed in as good a sanitary condition as is possible, consistent with the absence of a system of sewerage.

Courage Anxious Mother!

TRY LACTATED OOD FOR YOUR HALF-DEAD BABY.

There are thousands of half-dead babies in Canada to-day who need Lactated Food more than they do medicine, to make them well and strong.

Could mothers only see the letters that pour in from week to weak testifying to the fact that Lactated Food saves the babies' lives, they would not rest a moment until they had given it a trial.

Again we repeat: Lactated Food is not a medicine in any sense, but simply a purely prepared food possessing life-giving qualities. It differs from all other foods, for in hundreds of cases Lactated Food has saved the child's life, after other foods proved useless.

NICARAGUA'S SKILFUL REPLY.

Admits Nothing But the Applicability of Arbitration to Certain Acts.

Washington, April 15.—The fact that Nicaragua has made a reply to the British ultimatum, which was regarded by the British Foreign Office as in a measure satisfactory, was mentioned in the despatches several days ago. Particulars as to the contents of Nicaragua's reply have been received here. Nicaragua, while definitely agreeing to some of the specific demands of Great Britain, concedes the applicability of the principle of arbitration to some of the acts committed in the Mosquito territory, and suggests in the most friendly tone possible that an impartial commission of arbitrators be constituted for all the grounds of complaint.

Nicaragua points out that the decrees of exile against British subjects which Great Britain demanded should be cancelled unconditionally, had already been annulled before the formal request of Great Britain regarding the matter was received. Nicaragua, although assuring Great Britain of a desire to give complete satisfaction, neither promises to pay the various sums demanded for injuries inflicted on British subjects as stipulated by Lord Kimberley, nor declines to do so, but agrees to a fair and just settlement of claims that shall be recommended by an impartial arbitration. Great Britain's proposition excluding from the arbitration commission a citizen of any American state is ignored in Nicaragua's reply. The communication is regarded in diplomatic circles as a skilful move on Nicaragua's part.

PEACE TO DAY.

Expectation That China and Japan Will Agree.

London, April 16.—A Central News despatch from Tokyo says that Prince Komatsu, Commander-in-Chief of the Japanese army and navy, with a number of transports, escorted by three warships, passed Shimonoseki yesterday, on his way to the seat of war. The Japanese ships at Shimonoseki signalled their farewells and good wishes as the vessels passed.

Li Hung Chang is in constant communication by telegraph with Pekin.

The conference is sitting at Shimonoseki to-day, and it is expected that to-day's session will result in the conclusion of peace.

The Times' correspondent in Shanghai says: Li Hung Chang's son-in-law telegraphs that the treaty of peace was signed in Shimonoseki to-day, April 16, and that the terms are: "First, the independence of Corea; second, Japan's retention of the conquered places; third, Japan's retention of the territory east of the Liao River; fourth, permanent cession of Formosa; fifth, indemnity of $100,000,000; sixth, an offensive and defensive alliance between China and Japan.

A despatch from Shanghai to a news agency here says a proclamation bearing the Emperor's name has been issued describing the empire as finished, asserting that he is unable to govern any longer, and that the officials he trusted are corrupt.

The proclamation has caused great excitement, and there are signs of rebellion. The document is said to be the work of secret societies.

The Work of Incendiary Societies.

Washington, April 16.—No credence is attached to the report which reached here from Shanghai by way of London that the Chinese Emperor has issued a proclamation describing the Empire as finished and asserting his inability longer to govern it. In well-informed circles the report is ridiculed as being too absurd to dignify with a denial. It is asserted in the first place that the Chinese Emperor could have no purpose in abdicating, and in the second place his mother, the Dowager Empress, would not permit him to retire if he desired. The proclamation is believed here to be the work of the secret societies in the empire. These societies, it is said, are hostile to the Government, their aims and purposes being similar to those of the Nihilists in Russia. If the proclamation be their work it was probably written for the purpose of adding to the confusion in the empire and to the embarrassment of the reigning powers. The whole story, however, is regarded as another Shanghai fabrication.

TO PULL DOWN THE PRICE OF BEEF.

U.S. Authorities Will Prevent Entry of Mexican Cattle.

Washington, April 16.—In view of the great rise in the price of beef and the reported scarcity of cattle the chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, Dr. Salmon, has recommended to the Secretary of Agriculture the admission of Mexican cattle into the United States under stringent regulations calculated to ensure a rigid inspection of all cattle admitted. Dr. Salmon believes such a course may be safely pursued with the exercise of due vigilance, and that under the circumstances it is judicious. It is hoped by this means to check the tendency to excessive prices to the consumer without injuriously affecting the interests of beef producers.

In accordance with these recommendations Secretary Morgan to-day issued a special order providing that Mexican cattle which have been inspected by an inspector of the department and found free from any infectious or contagious disease may be admitted into California and Texas for grazing or for immediate slaughter.

Cuban Rebels Defeated.

Havana, April 16.—A detachment of Government troops from Hologuin, commanded by Capt. Aguiller, engaged in a battle with a band of rebels 1600 strong at Palma Miros, on Saturday. The insurgents were defeated with a loss of six killed and a considerable number wounded and fled from the field.

Gladstone on Armenia.

London, April 16.—Mr. Gladstone, receiving a delegation of the Armenian committee, with several Armenian refugees, at Hawarden to-day, assured them of his profound sympathy. The danger of the Armenian situation now was, he said, that useful action might be delayed or abandoned in view of the promises of the Turkish Government to institute reforms. Mr. Gladstone concluded his remarks by saying: "Anything I can do for your unhappy country I shall always be glad to do, but you must remember that I am an old man and have retired from public life."

To have perfect health you must have pure blood, and the best way to have pure blood is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

STRONG TESTIMONY.

The Importance of the Kidneys as a Blood Purifier, Distinctly Proved.

Detroit, Mich., April 16th.—The case of Mr. Hugh McCarron of this city whose extraordinary recovery from blood poisoning of thirteen years standing, through the medium of Dodd's Kidney Pills, has been already reported, is exciting much comment. It is looked on generally as strong corroborative evidence of a fact which medical men are fast becoming aware of, namely that the key-note to a healthy condition of the body lies in the kidneys, and that a number of complaints which have hitherto baffled their skill may be directly traceable to a diseased condition of those organs. In the case of Mr. McCarron it is evident that the purification of his blood is due to the recuperative effects of the remedy above mentioned on the kidneys.

A CONFIDENTIAL CLERK MISSING.

Alexander G. Wilkie, Cashier for W. D Matthews & Co., Alleged to Be a Defaulter.

Toronto, April 16. — Alexander G. Wilkie, chief bookkeeper and cashier for W. D. Mathews & Co., grain and malt dealers, 26 Front-street east, is in Buffalo and rumor says that he is a defaulter to the firm in several thousand dollars. No warrant has been issued for his arrest by Matthews & Co., however.

Wilkie, who is known probably to every rounder in the city, entered the employ of the firm 22 years ago as office boy, and gradually worked himself up to the position of confidential clerk and cashier, at a salary of $1600 a year. He always lived up to his income, and of late has been so irregular in his habits that his employers decided to dispense with his services. After his dismissal rumors reached the ears of Mr. Matthews that he thought warranted investigating, and he decided to put an accountant on the books of his cashier. The result was the discovery of many discrepancies.

Mr. Wilkie's wife and six children reside in Cecil-street, this city.

U.S. FOREIGN TRADE

Returns Showing the Imports and Exports for the Past Nine Months

Washington, April 16.—A tabular statement just issued by the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics exhibits the imports, exports and immigration of the United States for the month and nine months ending March 31, 1894 and '95. By this it is shown that the exports of merchandise, domestic and foreign, for the nine months ending March, '95, were $632,760,675, as compared with $709,827,841 for the corresponding months of the preceding year, while for the month of March there is a decrease this year of $5,752,493. The imports of merchandise, both dutiable and free, for the nine months ending March, '95, aggregated $385,526,930, as against $480,870,487 for the nine months ending March, '94, with an increase over March of last year amounting to $9,539,182. The statement shows that the excess of exports over imports for the nine months ending March '95, was $87,284,745, while the figures for the corresponding period in '94 are $228,447,854. March '95 shows an excess of imports of $4,419,800.

The following immigration statistics are given: March '94, 18,533; March '95, 17,047. For the nine months ending March '94, the number was 218,724, while that for the nine months ending in March of this year was 153,177.

Would Have Died

If Paine's Celery Compound Had Not Come to Her Aid.

Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Heartburn and General Weakness.

These Distressing Troubles Are Banished.

Another Strong Proof of the Curing Virtues of the World's Best Medicine.

The whole wide world is challenged to show a medicine that is doing the same good to suffering humanity, as Paine's Celery Compound works from day to day.

The great disease curing medicine is a blessing to the men, women and children of Canada, and its value can never be fully estimated. It is always a rescuer and saver of life, even in times of extreme peril and danger. When people are deceived by worthless advertised medicines, when doctors fail to relieve and cure, and when the sick one is given up as incurable, then it is that Paine's Celery Compound overcomes disease and death, and fully restores the sufferer to health.

The case of Mrs. S. J. McKinlay, of Chelmsford, Ont., furnishes a strong and mighty proof of all that is claimed for Paine's Celery Compound. It is a warning to every sick man and woman, of the danger of experimenting with medicines that have no curative virtues or powers. When health is sought after Paine's Celery Compound should be used, and nothing else.

Mrs. McKinlay writes as follows:

"I wish you to let the world know what Paine's Celery Compound has done for me. I was afflicted with nervousness, sleeplessness, heartburn and general weakness for five years, and during that time I was doctored and spent a great deal of money without any good results. A friend advised me to use your compound, and I am happy to say it has completely cured me. I now eat well, sleep well, and I am as strong as ever before. I am sure I would have died, had not Paine's Celery Compound come to my aid. I wish every woman to know about your your wonderful medicine. I will sound its praises all the days of my life."

Twenty miles of new pavements will be laid this year, costing $2,000,000. Park improvements will cost $200,000. Water extensions will cost $300,000, and an outlay of $1,000,000 is contemplated within a year for additional plant in the Water Department.
